Careful housekeepers and people of common sense have been divided on the question as to whether straw or paper gives the best results under a carpet. The logic of the thing is that the straw will allow dust and dirt to fall through and keep it from cutting the carpet underneath. Paper has its merits: easily placed and if your floors are full of air holes will help to close out draughts. The straw you can borrow, the paper you can buy and the carpets are to be had at the golden lion for the asking and some small money. Brussels, tapestry and wool carpets in stock. Bright and attractive patterns. This we cut and make up to order. See our stock, at Fair's, before ordering.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. Geo. Gumpricht is in town. Order may be left at Mr. T. Menzies' or Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's stores. d77

The Mounted Police.

Inspector Sanders and Sergeant Begley, of the Northwest mounted police, two fine looking specimens of the force, are at Cavanagh's hotel recruiting. They will remain for three days. At Port Hope they had many applications, but they only got four men, the standard being so high that the large majority of the applicants failed to come up to it. At noon to-day they had seven men here, who will be accepted provided they pass the necessary medical examination. There are a large number studying up the rules and regulations, and the recruiting officers are of the opinion that before they leave town, they will have distributed fully fifty shillings. Sergeant Begley served under Inspector Snyder all last winter and he has no hesitation about pronouncing him a thoroughly efficient officer, who is well liked by the men under him. Those desirous of joining can obtain information by applying to the officers at Cavanagh's hotel.

Still Very Popular.

The Toronto Mail of the 4th inst. says in reference to Mr. Scott-Siddons:—"If proof were necessary of the sustained popularity in Toronto of Mrs. Scott-Siddons or of the good impression made by her in December last, it would be amply found in the magnificent reception accorded her on her return visit last night. The programme was well chosen and well arranged, there being a fair variety in a select range of subjects. A new feature of her programme was the piano playing of Mr. Henry Waller, her adopted son, who will be remembered as the Boy Pianist, Seraphael, of a few years ago. Mr. Waller has but recently come to this continent from London, England." This distinguished and accomplished artiste will give an entirely new programme with new costumes, Opera House, Peterborough, on Monday, 16th April at popular prices. The plan of the hall is at Hartley's. Tickets for sale at several stores. Mrs. Siddons sails for England early in May. You will not likely ever hear her again.

Still Clearing Out the Stock.

Bargains in boots and shoes still the rule at the GRIFFIN SHOE STORE. Every one who has bought have been surprised at the value given. Make your selections before the stock is picked over. 3d81

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Hand Picked Apples

Just received at the Palace Grocery. Another supply of apples in barrels.

People are Booting Themselves

By the hundred every day at the GRIFFIN SHOE STORE. Splendid bargains in all lines now offered. 3d81

White and Grey Cottons are taking the lead at M. Sullivan & Co.'s great sale. Only 30 days more in which to secure bargains. Come and see our stock of above goods. The value is superb. 3d81

Canoe Club.

The annual meeting of the members of the Otonabee Canoe Club will take place this evening at the commodore's rooms. The election of officers and a debate will be the programme.

A Reference.

In the course of his morning service yesterday, the Rev. Mr. Beck made a feeling reference to the death of the late Rev. Dr. Smithett, of Omemee, who was at one time a resident of Peterborough.

D. and D.

On Saturday night a young man named James Keagan, a native of Ashburnham, was raising a row on George-st. Officer McGinty came along and scooped James in. He passed Sunday in the cells and this morning he was assessed two dollars, which he paid. The prisoner had only $1.50, but a friend in need came along and paid the balance.

Obituary.

In another column the death is announced of Mrs. Kelso, wife of Mr. J. E. Kelso, of Rochester and formerly of Peterborough. Mr. and Mrs. Kelso were in Peterborough in 1886, shortly after their marriage in April of that year. The Signet, the organ of the Rochester First Methodist Church, publishes resolutions of sympathy adopted by the Sunday School Board and by the Young People's Association of the church, and also a eulogistic notice of the deceased lady from the pen of the pastor, in which he also expresses his sympathy for Mr. Kelso.

Fell Off the Train.

Among the passengers for Peterborough on the Grand Trunk express due here at 8.50 p. m., on Saturday, was a Mrs. Pickens, a resident of Toronto, but who formerly resided here. The brakeman entered the car near the Protestant Home and called out "Peterborough." Mrs. Pickens thought the train was near the depot and about to stop. She gathered up her things, walked out on the platform and stepped off on the road while the train was in rapid motion. She was picked up in a short time and it was found that one of her knees was dislocated. She was taken up to the hospital and to-day she was progressing nicely. She will not be able to leave the institution for some time, however.

Artillery Cups.

Port Hope Times:—In the distribution of cups annually competed for by the field batteries of the Dominion artillery force, the Durham battery carries off a major portion. Every year one or more of the challenge cups finds its way to Port Hope and graces the windows of our jewellers. This time there are two cups displayed in Mr. Pringle's window, which were won by Durham battery last year. The largest is a splendidly chased cup, supported by three waving Dominion ensigns, crossed, and a field gun between the flags. It was presented by Lt.-Col. Oswald for competition among the Dominion batteries and has been won by the following batteries:—Welland Canal in 1884, Montreal in 1885, Ottawa in 1886, and Durham in 1887. The other cup is smaller, and was given by Lt.-Col. Montizambert for competition by the Ontario batteries. It has been won by:—1st battery of Provincial brigade, Guelph, in 1883; Welland Canal battery in 1884; No. 2 battery, 1st brigade, Guelph in 1885; Ottawa field battery in 1886, and Durham field battery in 1887. Major McLean and the officers of Durham battery should feel proud of the efficiency of their command.

They were on to Him.

On Saturday morning police office Ulyett, of Cobourg, came up to Frazerville to serve some papers in a Scott Act case. He managed to get rid of nine out of twelve of them and then the fun commenced. It got noised abroad that the officer was a Scott Act detective and as he had some hours to wait, he felt rather uncomfortable, as all kinds of threats were made against him. He was ordered out of the hotel and went to the post office. It was intimated that his presence was not required there. He left and proceeded to a store and in obedience to a hint from the proprietor he stepped outside. His next move was to offer a farmer $5 to drive him to Millbrook, only a few miles away. The farmer refused. Just then the officer heard a train, he boarded it and reached Peterborough at 5.15. Two Frazerville men came up on the same train and pointed the cop out as a whiskey informer. The news spread through the town like wildfire and hostile threats were heard in different quarters. Ulyett walked up from the depot and as he happened to know one of our hotel men he stepped in and shook hands. Half a dozen men were following him and as soon as they saw that the boniface knew the man, their jaws dropped and they proceeded about their business. Ulyett then made himself known to the police authorities here, walked around town for a time and left for home on the 3.50 train.

5 lbs of Choice Japan Tea for $1 at The Pantry. 3d83-1w15

At Home.

You're right, I am at home! I secured a home of my own on JOHN CARLISLE'S easy and safe plan. d76

Do You Need New Shoes?

If so, call at the GRIFFIN SHOE STORE. Positively clearing out all lines. Ladies' shoes are particularly nice and are popular for spring wear. 3d81

Prints and Ginghams.

We want no "left overs" from our great sale. Prints and Ginghams are among the lines we want to clear out, and out they must go. Come and see bargains at M. Sullivan & Co.'s. 3d81

This Eve.

The Sawtelle Company are registered at the Grand Central. They open a week's engagement at the Opera House to-night, presenting, for the first time in Peterborough, "Tangled Lives." They are highly spoken of by our exchanges.

Spencer vs. Young.

This case, which was to have been tried at the present assizes, has been referred by order of the Master in Chambers to Judge Weller. Hatton & Wood are solicitors for the plaintiff, and J. O'Meara for the defendant.

The Voyageurs.

Postmaster Colonel Rogers has not yet received the Bronze Stars, from the Khedive of Egypt, granted to each of the Canadian Voyageurs who took part in the Nile expedition. He expects them daily, however.

Tuesday Night.

Mayor Stevenson, M. P., has arranged an interview with the Minister for Wednesday morning and the councillors and civic deputations re dredging the Little Lake and the spur line railway will leave to-morrow night. The councillors will go down by the C. P. R. and the others by the G. T. R.

A Break.

On Saturday Mr. Elias Thompson shipped his masts to Halifax, Nova Scotia, per the Grand Trunk. When loading one of the finest sticks of the lot, the horses drew it too far and it fell to the ground. It was split for some distance and is worth $100 less than it was before.

St. And rew's.

The following appears in the Globe:—"It is believed that Prof. Frank B. Fenwick, of Owen Sound, is to be offered the position of choir master and organist of St. Andrew's, Peterborough." Mr. Fenwick is one of the applicants, but no decision has yet been arrived at.

What is Truelis True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

Temperance Meeting.

The Gospel temperance meeting yesterday was one of unusual interest. Mr. W. J. Mason conducted the services in his happiest style. Mr. A. Clegg read "Coming" with good expression. Several short impromptu addresses were given, which voiced the feelings of all present. Misses Smart and Rutherford sang a very pretty duet.

Stock Purchases.

The sale of high grade stock held at Oakley Park, near Barrie, the farm of Mr. Dalton McCarthy, was attended by Messrs. R. C. Strickland, Lakefield, H. Collins and John Carnegie, Peterborough, and J. H. Carnegie. Mr. Strickland purchased the Durham cow "Lily Langtry." She is dark red, five years of age and was bred at Oakley Park. She has an exceptionally fine pedigree, tracing her lineage to imported stock. She has every indication of being a fine milker. "Lily Langtry" was always one of Mr. McCarthy's prize herd. The price paid for her was $140. Mr J. H. Carnegie was also the purchaser of two cows, one being the "Queen of Trumps," for $200—a white cow bred by the Hon. M. H. Cochrane, Compton, Que., from imported stock purchased from Her Majesty the Queen. The "Queen of Trumps" is now seven years old and due to calf in a few days. As a two year old she took second place at Toronto in 1883. In 1886 she took first at the Great Northern Exhibition at Collingwood, and at the North Simcoe Exhibition, and in 1887 (last year) she took first place at the North Simcoe, Bradford and South Simcoe Exhibitions. The last two of her calves brought $130 and $220 respectively—the highest prices realized at the sale with two exceptions, and that was for the cow "Heliotrope" (also bred by Mr. Cochrane), the winner of the first place at Toronto last year ($470), and her heifer calf ($280). Mr. Carnegie's other purchase was the "Duchess of Caernaver" for $90—A red cow although of different pedigree, and somewhat smaller, of much the same stamp as the "Lily Langtry" purchased by Mr. Strickland. When returning Mr. Collins went to view the thoroughbred herd of Mr. Johnston, of Greenwood, for Mr. Strickland. Mr. Strickland has the purchase of seme of this herd under consideration and will probably make further additians to his thoroughbred stock.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

OUT-DOING ANYTHING EVER DONE BEFORE.

How is it to be done? Well that's our business, and what's our business is nobody else's business--and if we tell others how we get our clothing to sell so low, they would be as shrewd as we are. Sheppard is not caught napping in that way--All the dear public care to know is that Sheppard's clothing is the cheapest on earth. That he has no traffic in shoddy, and you can always get what he advertises.

NOW THEN, ABOUT CLOTHING.

Boy's Suits, 3 pieces, 95 cents. How does that catch you? For another just a little longer in the legs, a boy who has seen more Xmas puddings, Sheppard will give you a $2.75 suit worth double the money and a pair of pants for this dear boy for 75 cents. These are nice goods, although you may not think so—so cheap—well I should say so. You want a hat for him don't you? Certainly you don't want to see him bareheaded; not much. Sheppard has the best value. See his cheap Hats.

For the young man. A nobby suit in several patterns $3.95, worth at least $7.50. This is the line that has excited the Town and rattled the trade; hurry, make haste. Secure this suit before they are all done. Motherly advice this.

We are talking to you because you are out of your teens, although you may not be as old as Methuselah's goat. We have a suit for you at $1.95, this is not all wool and a yard wide.

SPECIAL FOR A FEW DAYS.

Men's Suits all sizes	$ 4.95	worth	$ 7.50
Men's Suits all sizes	7.50	"	12.00
Men's Suits all sizes	10.00	"	15.00
Men's Suits all sizes	15.50	"	30.00

Spring Overcoats, nobby stuffs, cheap.

SHEPPARD,---On the War Path,

George-st, Peterborough.

THE SPRING ASSIZES

OPENED BEFORE THE HON. MR. JUSTICE FALCONBRIDGE.

Only Seven Cases, Four Civil and Three Criminal on the Docket—Those Who Compose the Grand Jury.

The High Court of Justice, assize division, was opened at the Court House at one o'clock to-day, before the Hon. Mr. Justice Falconbridge, who presided for the first time in Peterborough.

The docket was not a heavy one, embracing seven cases altogether, four civil and three criminal. Of the civil cases one is a non jury case. The criminal cases are for shooting with intent to kill, larceny and forgery.

The attendance at the opening was small, only jurymen and persons interested being present.

The bar was represented by Messrs. W. R. Riddell, Cobourg, Crown Prosecutor, J. Elliott, Perth, T. McVeity, Ottawa, D. W. Dumble, Chas. Leonard, Jno. Burnham, E. B. Stone, R. E. Wood, C.C.A., J. H. Burnham, G. M. Roger, E. A. Peck, J. O'Meara, E. H. D. Hall, A. P. Poussette, Q.C.; W. A. Stratton, Jno. Green and J. W. Bennett.

THE GRAND JURY.

The following gentlemen composed the Grand Jury:—

Wm. Yelland, Foreman.

P. Baptie	G. J. Galvin
W. G. Bain	T. Howson
P. Connal	W. J. Langford
D. Campbell	Wm. Miller
J. Deyell	Jno. McPherson
Geo. Esson	Wm. Martin
Geo. Forsyth	P. Preston
James Petrie	H. J. Lefevre
B. Shortly	A. Smith
J. C. Sherin	W. Rombough
Wm. Webster	Thos. Webster

T. Young.

THE JUDGE'S CHARGE.

His Lordship in addressing the Grand Jury referred to the light calendar both in the number of the cases and the gravity of the offences charged. He congratulated the county on its freedom from crime and said that it was a pleasure to him to preside, after experiencing such hard work as it had been his misfortune to meet with recently, in the different places where he had held court. He explained the law governing the criminal cases that would be brought before the jury. It was the duty of the Grand Jury to investigate the facts of the case, and if in the opinion of twelve of them, there was sufficient evidence to put a man on his trial, they would report so. It was not their province to try, that is the province of the petit jury. In conclusion he instructed them to visit the gaol and surrounding premises and report.

The Grand Jury then retired, Mr. W. R. Riddell, for the Crown, taking charge.

THE DOCKET.

CHAMBERLEN ESTATE v. GAGNON.—An action of ejectment to recover possession of a house and lot in the First Ward. Referred by consent to Judge Weller. Peck for plaintiff; O'Meara for defendant.

GERVAIS v. GOODWIN.—This was the first case called and it is in progress as we go to press. It is an action brought against Mr. Geo. Goodwin, of Ottawa, for $2,000 damages, on account of injuries sustained by a workman at Burleigh, by the breaking of a derrick, through alleged negligence on the part of the defendant. Stone for plaintiff; McVeity, Ottawa, for defendant.

The Pantry

is the Right Place for Choice Family Groceries. 3d83-1w15

To-night.

Tableaux Vivants and Concert at St. Luke's School room, Ashburnham, to-night. Admission 25 cents. 1d83

Hosery and Gloves

for the thousands at M. Sullivan & Co.'s. Some of the choicest goods in town. Splendid summer styles going surprisingly cheap. 3d81

Cricket.

Arrangements have been made with the celebrated Seabright cricket team, of New York, to play a match here during their Canadian tour. August 9th and 10th will probably be the dates chosen.

Navigation Opened.

The steamer Caroline Marsh, Colwell, master, cleared for Charlotte from Port Hope, on Saturday evening, with a cargo of 16,905 bushels of barley, drawing eleven feet. Soundings were taken in the harbor at the elevator and between the piers, eighteen feet being the depth at the former and fourteen feet at the latter.

Personal.

The Thornbury Standard contains the following in reference to Mr. W. H. Wright, formerly of Mr. E. B. Stone's law office, and who is attending the assize court here this week:—"Division Court was held here on Wednesday of last week. The legal fraternity was augmented by the addition of the person of Mr. W. H. Wright, a student in Mr. Pollard's office, Meaford. Mr. Wright created a very favorable impression here by his tact and ability shown in the case, Johnson vs. McKenzie. Mr. Wright has had some experience in Peterborough. Mr. Gamon had a great many cases, and Mr. Wright is looked upon as his compeer in Division Court cases. He is an affable, off handed young man, and we predict for him many more cases in our Division Court in future." The Standard wants Mr. Wright to locate in Clarksburg, when it says there is a splendid opening.

The Rev. W. C. Bradshaw leaves to-night to attend the Inter-Diocesan Sunday school conference in Montreal, which begins its session to-morrow.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with catarrh. This disagreeable disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

100,000 Eggs Wanted

at The Pantry, Highest Cash Prices. 3d83-1w15

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas' Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Brevities.

—Mr. George Goodwin, of Trent Valley Canal fame, is in town.

—Ald. Taylor McVeity, of Ottawa, is in town, attending the assizes.

—Builders are actively preparing for the season's operations. Some are already at work.

—The Masonic lodge of Belleville district will hold a celebration in Madoc, on 25th June.

—The driver of the Dominion express van wears a nobby looking cap, since spring came in.

—There were no less than three funerals yesterday afternoon, two from town and one from the country.

—A watch faker did a thriving business on Saturday. It is quite evident that the fools are not all dead yet.

—There were a couple of small street rows on Saturday night, but the police were not required to interfere.

—Mr. Lewis McGregor, jr., a Grand Trunk engineer, now stationed at Lindsay, spent Sunday with his friends here.

—The streets in some places are dry and the dust is flying, but the frost is not by any means out of the ground yet.

—The ice is rapidly disappearing from the river and lake and the canoeists are preparing for the season's campaign.

—Mr. J. M. Hawkins, a resident of College-st., died rather suddenly on Saturday morning. Heart disease is ascribed as the cause.

—The members of the local bar were introduced to Judge Falconbridge this afternoon and congratulated him upon his elevation to the bench.

—Mrs. Wm. Job, who was well known to all frequenters of the market, she having kept a candy stand there for many years, died on Sunday morning.

—For the information of the Sentinel-Star we may state that Mr. Thomas Howden purchased his colt from Mr. Alex. Pratt, one of Cobourg's best known citizens.

—"Get the other 50 cents from some of those you spent your money on," remarked the P. M. this morning to a prisoner who was a little short in his fine money.

—Harvey McKenna, the great straight rail billiard player, who gave an exhibition in Peterborough some time ago, has been sent home to Detroit in the last stages of consumption.

—A young man endeavored to raise a fight at the Salvation Army barracks on Sunday afternoon, by refusing to go out when ordered. There was hot and loud talk and quite a crowd were drawn.

—The town well is down 98 feet and the borers expect to make it the even hundred by to-night. There are no signs of water yet and it is the opinion that they will have to go as deep as they did at Calcutt's brewery—108 feet.

—Mr. W. J. Gibson, of the Toronto waterworks department, died on Friday. The deceased was at one time Grand Master of the Orange Young Britons, and in that capacity was a frequent visitor to Peterborough, where he was widely known.

—Mrs. Pickens, who fell off the G. T. R. train, on Saturday night, was accompanied by a little boy. The youngster came as far as the depot, got off and raised a great row when he could not find his mother. He was taken in charge by some of the trainmen.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

POINTS

About Clothing.

The highest triumph of the Tailor's art is a perfect fitting Coat. The cutting and fitting must be the work of an artist, and the making a satisfactory job. It is a delight to wear it and a moral support amidst trials to have in on.

However perfect the coat no man can be called well dressed unless his trowsers have the fit and hang which can only be given to them by a master of the line and shears. Nobody is unmindful of badly fitting trowsers with a tendency to bag at the knees. A well fitting pair of trowsers are a satisfactory garment to contemplate.

Vests must follow the coat and give a grace to the wearer's appearance. Neat, shapely and of good make.

Hats have been altered for this season and the styles are more effective than for some time.

Now the moral of these remarks, for the behovement of gentlemen, is a good one and we want to drive it home. Order your spring suit from

T. DOLAN & CO.

DIED.

KELSO.—At 23 Seward-st., Rochester, N.Y., on March 25th, Mrs. EUGENIE J. KELSO, wife of Mr. James E. Kelso, aged 23 years.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply at once, to MRS. A. W. BRODIE, Dickson-st. 1d83

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS,

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET. d71w1

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

NEW PARCEL EXPRESS.

Goods delivered in any part of the town promptly.

I have gone into the parcel delivery and will be at at the service of the public every day from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. And on Saturdays from 2 p. m. to 10 p. m. Also trunks, parcels, etc., carried to and from railway stations. Orders may be left at Hawley's tea store or Mercer's clothing store.

WM. HOOK. 6d80

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, that handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs. Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts., with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,

Barrister, Water-st., or to

C. STAPLETON,

Auctioneer. 8d82-1w15

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

GRAND EASTER OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools, Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

It is Absurd

For people to expect a cure for Indigestion, unless they refrain from eating what is unwholesome; but if anything will sharpen the appetite and give tone to the digestive organs, it is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Thousands all over the land testify to the merits of this medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Burroughs, of 248 Eighth street, South Boston, writes: "My husband has taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for Dyspepsia and torpid liver, and has been greatly benefited."

A Confirmed Dyspeptic.

C. Canterbury, of 141 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., writes, that, suffering for years from Indigestion, he was at last induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla and, by its use, was entirely cured.

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of High street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered for over a year from Dyspepsia, so that she could not eat substantial food, became very weak, and was unable to care for her family. Neither the medicines prescribed by physicians, nor any of the remedies advertised for the cure of Dyspepsia, helped her, until she commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "Three bottles of this medicine," she writes, "cured me."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 9, 1888.

TORONTOS TWICE BEATEN.

LOOSE FIELDING IN THE FIRST AND POOR BATTING IN THE SECOND.

The Scores of Saturday's Games—News from the Lacrosse Team—Teemer Wins a Race in Rain

CINCINNATI, O., April 7.—The Toronto club played the first game of a series with the Cincinnatis this afternoon in the presence of some 600 people. The weather was mild and very favorable for the start. The visitors played rather loosely in the field, which can chiefly be attributed to their lack of practice, but at the bat they showed considerable strength, batting Mullane's curves, the star pitcher of the Cincinnati club, about the field in the most approved style. Burke, the left fielder, made a very favorable impression here by his daring base running, brilliant fielding and fine batting. Hartnett also played a creditable game and led at the bat with a triple and a single. Atkisson and Casey pitched for the visitors, the latter doing very creditable work. The score:

CINCINNATI	R	BH	TB	PO	A	E	TORONTO.	R	BH	TB	PO	A	E
Nichol, r.f.	1	1	1	1	0	0	Burke, l.f.	2	2	3	0	0	0
McPhee, 2b.	2	2	2	4	0	0	Connor, r.f.	2	1	3	0	1	1
Kappel, s.s.	1	1	1	1	1	0	Lally, c.f.	0	1	2	0	1	1
Reilly, 1b.	2	1	0	3	0	0	Hartnett, 1b.	0	2	8	1	0	0
Baldwin, c.	2	2	3	6	2	0	M'Laughlin, ss.	0	1	2	4	2	2
Tebeau, l.f.	1	1	3	0	0	0	Rickley, 3b.	0	1	0	2	4	1
Carpenter, 3b	2	2	1	1	5	1	Decker, c.	0	0	0	5	1	0
O'Connor, c.f.	2	2	3	1	0	0	Oddfield, c.	0	0	1	1	0	0
Mullane, p.	0	0	2	2	1		Kearns, 2b.	0	1	2	1	1	1
							Atkisson, p.	0	0	0	0	3	0
							Casey, p.	0	1	0	2	0
Total	12	12	27	18	4		Total	4	9	27	17	10

Cincinnati.....0 2 0 0 4 5 0 1 0—12
Toronto.....0 0 2 0 2 0 0 0 0— 4

Earned runs—Cincinnati 7, Toronto 4. Two base hits—Burke 1, Connor 1, Baldwin 2. Three base hits—Hartnett 1, Carpenter 1. Home runs—Carpenter and Tebeau. Base on balls—Nicol and Connor. Struck out—By Mullane 1, Atkisson 4—Casey 1. Wild pitch—Casey. Time of game—1 hr. 45 min. Umpire Serad.

The Hams Defeat McPherson's Team.

HAMILTON, April 7.—The first game of the season was played here to-day between the Hamiltons and McPherson's team. Pete Wood pitched for the professionals and Micky Jones for the amateurs. The game was very tame throughout, as McPherson's nine could not do anything with Wood's pitching, as only two hits were made off his delivery, and both of them by Micky Jones. The new catcher Baker caught Micky and did good work. The score:

		R.	BH.	E.
Hamilton	0 1 0 1 0 1 1 1 x—	6	7	3
McPherson	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—	0	2	5

Pittsburg Wins from Buffalo.

PITTSBURG, April 7.—The baseball season was inaugurated here to-day with an exhibition game between the Pittsburgs and the Buffalos. The attendance was quite large. Score:

		R.	BH.	E.
Pittsburg	2 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 4—	9	11	2
Buffalo	0 0 0 1 1 1 0 3 2—	8	12	8

Other Games.

At Kansas City:

	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City..... 0 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0—	3	6	5
Chicago..... 0 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 1—	4	9	1

Batteries: Swarzell and Reynolds, Krock and Darling.

At Washington:

	R.	H.	E.
Washington..... 0 2 6 4 0 2 3 0 2—	19	19	6
Amherst..... 0 1 1 0 0 1 0 1 0—	4	7	11

Batteries: Dailey and Boyce, Thayer and Pope. Umpire: Madigan.

At Philadelphia:

	R.	H.	E.
Athletics..... 2 5 0 0 4 0 3 6 4—	24	18	5
Princeton..... 0 3 0 0 0 1 1 1 0—	3	7	15

Batteries: Matthmore and Zinn, Mercer and Ames.

At Philadelphia:

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia..... 0 1 0 1 0 2 3 0 1—	8	17	8
Troy..... 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—	3	8

Batteries: Tyng and Schriever, Haddock and Wright.

At Indianapolis:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis..... 0 0 0 4 2 0 4 3—18	16	1
Cleveland..... 1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1—	3	10	15

Batteries: Boyle and Myers, Bakely and Zimmer. Umpire: Brennan.

At Baltimore:

	R.	H.	E.
Baltimore..... 1 0 0 0 6 1 0 0 0—	8	10
Philadelphia..... 2 1 3 2 1 1 0 2 x—12	10	4

Batteries: Harkins and O'Brien, Casey and McGuire. Umpire: James Malone.

At Brooklyn:

	R.	H.	E.
Yales..... 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—	3	6	11
Brooklyn..... 0 1 0 1 4 1 1 0 x—	8	5	7

At Toledo:

	R.	H.	E.
Toledo..... 1 0 5 7 x—	13	6	0
Outings..... 0 0 0 0 0—	0	1	8

Batteries: Barney and Brown, Hone and Struve. Only five innings played on account of cold weather.

Sunday Games.

At Brooklyn:

Brooklyn.....	0 0 0 0 4 6 0 1 x—	5
Newark.....	1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2—	4

At Columbus:

Cleveland.....	0 1 1 0 0 0 6 0 1—	9
Wheeling.....	0 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 0—	3

The Lacrosse Boys again Victorious.

LONDON, April 7.—In a lacrosse match to-day between the Canadian and Manchester teams the Canadians won by a score of six goals to one.

Teemer Wins a Race in the Rain.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 7.—The three-mile single scull straight-away race between Teemer, McKay and Hamm, the champion oarsmen, was rowed on the St. John's River this afternoon, and was won by Teemer in 23 minutes 10 seconds; McKay second, 50 seconds behind Teemer. The race came off in a downpour of rain. Hamm's shell became waterlogged and he did not finish. Several thousand people were present.

Potter Finishes 8 Miles Ahead.

NIAGARA FALLS, April 7.—The "go-as-you-please" ended here to-night. Galley started in at 2 p.m. eleven miles behind Potter, the latter being in very bad condition, while the former was in good form. Galley by 5.30 p.m. closed the gap between them to four miles, when Potter gathered himself up and made good time by lengthening the distance between them to seven miles under a great deal of apparent pain. Both seeing they were holding their own withdrew from the track at 8 o'clock. The score at the close:

	Miles.	Miles.
W. Potter	226	Graham's unknown	188
W. Galley	218	Ike Fowley	173

Spots of Sport.

Another six days "go-as-you-please" will be held at Niagara Falls in May.

At a meeting of the Toronto Junior Football Association, held on Saturday evening, it was decided to allow any junior club of Toronto and suburbs to enter said association who desired to do so. Any club wishing to enter same will communicate at once with the Secretary, John F. Thompson, 12 Draper-street.

Mr. J. Wilson of this city lost on Saturday by death the valuable cocker spaniel Van Obo, valued at $1000.

The Toronto Kennel dogs arrived here from the Boston Beloch Show on Saturday.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

MONA SCULLY;

OR

The Bride of an Englishman.

A STORY OF THESE TIMES.

This is all. The paper is old, soiled, and has apparently made large acquaintance with pockets. It looks, indeed, as if much travel and tobacco are not foreign to it. Geoffrey, taking it from Mona, holds it from him at full length, with amiable supercilliousness, between his first finger and thumb.

"Thomas has plainly taken to hieroglyphics—if it be Thomas," says he. "I can fancy his pressing his young woman's right hand, but her 'top corner' baffles me. If I were Thomas, I should not hanker after a girl with a 'top corner;' but there is no accounting for tastes. It really is curious, though, isn't it?" As he speaks he looks at Mona; but Mona, though seemingly returning his gaze, is for the first time in her life absolutely unmindful of his presence.

Slowly she turns her head away from him, and, as though following out a train of thought, fixes her eyes upon the paneled wall in front of her.

"It is illiterate writing, certainly; and the whole concern dilapidated to the last degree," goes on Mr. Rodney, still regarding the soiled paper with curiosity mingled with aversion. "Any objection to my putting it in the fire?"

"7—4," murmurs she, absently, still staring at the wall.

"It looks like the production of a lunatic,—a very dangerous lunatic,—an habitue of Colney Hatch," muses Geoffrey, who is growing more and more puzzled with the paper's contents the oftener he reads it.

"'Top corner,—right hand,'" goes on Mona, taking no heed of him, and speaking in the same low, mysterious, far-off tone.

"Yes, exactly; you have it by heart; but what does it mean, and what are you staring at that wall for?" asks he, hopelessly, going to her side.

"It means—the missing will," returns she, in a voice that would have done credit to a priestess of Delphi. As she delivers this oracular sentence, she points almost tragically to the wall in question.

"Eh?" says Geoffrey, starting, not so much at the meaning of her words as at the words themselves. Has the worry and excitement of the last hour unsettled her brain?

"My dear child, don't talk like that," he says, nervously; "you're done up, you know. Come to bed."

"I shan't go to bed at all," declares Mrs. Geoffrey, excitedly. "I shall never go to to bed again, I think, until all this is cleared up. Geoffrey, bring me over that chair."

She motions impatiently with her hand, and Geoffrey, being compelled to it by her vehemence, draws a high chair close to that part of the wall that seems to have claimed her greatest attention.

Springing up on it, she selects a certain panel, and, laying one hand on it as if to make sure it is the one she wants, counts carefully six more from it to the next wall, and three from it to the floor. I think I have described these panels before as being one foot broad and two feet long.

Having assured herself that the panel selected is the one she requires, she presses her fingers steadily against the upper corner on the side farthest from the fire. Expectation lies in every line of her face, yet she is doomed to disappointment. No result attends her nervous pressure, but distinct defeat. The panel is inexorable. Nothing daunted, she moves her hand lower down, and tries again. Again failure crushes her; after which she makes one last attempt, and, touching the very uppermost corner, presses hard.

Success at last rests with her. Slowly the panel moves, and, sliding to one side, displays to view a tiny cupboard that for many years has been lost sight of by the Rodney family. It is very small, about a half a foot in depth, with three small shelves inside. But, alas! these shelves are empty.

Geoffrey utters an exclamation, and Mona, after one swift, comprehensive glance at the rifled cupboard, bursts into tears. The bitter disappointment is more than she can bear.

"Oh? it isn't here! He has stolen it!" cries she, as one who can admit of no comfort. "And I felt so sure I should find it myself. That was what he was doing when I came into the room. Ah, Geoffrey, sure you didn't malign him when you called him a thief!"

"What has he done?" asks Geoffrey, somewhat bewildered and greatly distressed at her apparent grief.

"He has stolen the will! Taken it away. That paper you hold must have fallen from him, and contains the directions about finding the right panel. Ah! what shall we do now?"

"You are right; I see it now," says Geoffrey, whitening a little. "Worden wrote this paper, no doubt," glancing at the dirty bit of writing that has led to the discovery. "He evidently had his knowledge from old Elspeth, who must have known of this secret hiding-place from my great-grandfather. My father, I am convinced, knew nothing of it. Here, on the night of my grandfather's death, the old woman must have hidden the will, and here it has remained ever since until to-night. Yet, after all, this is mere supposition," says Geoffrey. "We are taking for granted what may prove a myth. The will may never have been placed here, and he himself——"

"It was placed here; I feel it, I know it," says Mona, solemnly, laying her hand upon the panel. Her earnestness impresses him. He wakes into life.

"Then that villian, that scoundrel has it now in his possession," he says, quickly. "If I go after him, even yet I may come up with him before he reaches his home, and compel him to give it up."

As he finishes he moves towards the window, as though bent upon putting his words into execution at once, but Mona, hastily stepping before him, gets between it and him, and, raising her hand, forbids him to approach.

"You may compel him to murder you," she says, feverishly, "or, in your present mood, you may murder him. No, you shall not stir from this house to-night."

"But——" begins he, impatiently, trying gently to put her to one side.

"I will not listen," she interrupts, passionately. "I know how you both looked awhile ago. I shall never forget it; and to meet him again now, with fresh cause for hatred in your hearts, would be—— Now There is crime in the very air to-night."

She winds her arms around him, seeing he is still determined to go, and, throwing back her head, looks into his face.

"Besides, you are going on a fool's errand," she says, speaking quickly, as though to gain time. "He has reached his own place by this time. Wait until the morning, I entreat you, Geoffrey. I"—her lips tremble, her breath comes fitfully—"I can bear no more just now."

A sob escapes her, and falls heavily on Geoffrey's heart. He is not proof against a woman's tears,—as no true man ever is,—especially her tears, and so he gives in at once.

"There, don't cry, and you shall have it all your own way," he says, with a sigh. "To-morrow we will decide what is to be done."

"To-day, you mean; you will only have to wait a few short hours," she says, gratefully. "Let us leave this hateful room," with a shudder. "I shall never be able to enter it again without thinking of this night and all its horrors.

To be Continued.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

The First Week of our Big sale is over, and it was a Grand Success, the sales far exceeding our expectations, our store crowded with anxious buyers, and all were astonished at the extraordinary bargains we were offering

THE SECOND WEEK OF OUR GREAT CLOSING-OUT SALE

This week we propose to offer wonderful value in the following lines

Dress Goods, Silks, Satins, Prints, Shirtings, Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Toweling, Lace Curtains, Curtain Nets, Embroideries, Hosiery, Gloves, Corsets, Carpets and Oil Cloths, Mantles and Mantle Cloths, and Piles of Remnants at your own price. This will be a Great Week for the people to get Bargains.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the People of Peterborough and Vicinity.—We return you our most sincere thanks for the kind and liberal patronage you have bestowed on us since we bought out T. Dolan & Co., and we extend a cordial invitation to all our old customers, as well as the new ones, to call and see us and partake of some of the Great Bargains we are now offering. The Sale is now in full blast.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Suicide in St. Catharines.

ST. CATHARINES, April 7.—Len. R. Smith, a tobacconist of this city, was found dead in his store this morning by a boy in his employ. Mr. Smith had evidently committed suicide by taking "Rough on Rats," between the hours of 6 and 7 this morning while in fit of melancholia caused by protracted drinking. The deceased was about 35 years of age, a son of R. H. Smith, the well known saw manufacturer, and was very popular with all who knew him. He leaves a wife and one child. The coroner, Dr. Goodman, made a thorough examination of the body, and finding nothing to indicate foul play decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Gillespie will Waive Extradition.

MONTREAL, April 8.—Detective Simmons of Chicago arrived here yesterday for the purpose of taking in charge W. Gillespie, who committed forgery in Chicago. The warrants are for $400, but the total amount of the defalcations is about $4000. Gillespie has decided to go back without any trouble, and he will leave to-morrow in custody of Detective Simmons.

The Floods in Hungary.

PESTH, April 7.—The damage by floods caused by the waterspout which passed over this city and other parts of Hungary yesterday is estimated at 1,000,000 florins. The town of Tisza Eazlar is in so dangerous a position that the inhabitants have resolved to abandon it and settle in a more secure district.

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 7.

Estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards to-day are: Hogs, 7000; official yesterday, 121,626; shipments, 5365; left over, about 6500 The receipts of hogs for the week are 78,854, and shipments 280,063. The packing to date is 272,000 barrels; last year up to this time, 251,000. Cattle receipts yesterday, 2600; market quiet.

Receipts at New York yesterday were: Flour, 17,272 bbls, and 7926 sacks; wheat, 9000 bush; corn, 4700; oats, 42,000; barley, 12,350; malt, 9000; pork, 325 bbls; lard, 1694 tierces.

The shipments from New York to-day were: Flour, 7566 bbls, and 12,678 sacks; wheat, 180,972 bush; corn, 60,882; oats, 61; pork, 230; lard, 1,356,987.

Receipts by car lots at Chicago yesterday were: Winter wheat 5, spring 65, corn 150, oats 126, rye 2, barley 42.

No. 2 spring wheat, May option, was quoted to-day at these wheat points as follows:

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports as follows to-day: London—Floating cargoes: wheat and corn nil. Cargoes on passage: Wheat quiet; corn, firm. French country markets steady. Paris wheat and flour turn dearer Liverpool—Spot wheat and corn quiet and steady.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat steady to-day, with demand improving and holders offering moderately; corn steady, demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 6d and 6s 7d, red winter 6s 8d. No. 1 Cal. 6s 7d and 6s 8d; corn 4s 9½d, peas 5s 5d, pork 67s 6d, lard 38s, bacon, s. c. 33s 6d and l. c. 40s, cheese 60s.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley weak to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 89. No. 1 Canadian 92 and No. 1 bright Canadian 94.

It is stated that Booth and Barrett will go to London season after next, or in 1890. They will play for fifteen weeks at the Lyceum theatre, while Henry Irving will make his first tour through Germany.

The famous Meiningen players will surely come to America next season. Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau will direct their engagement, and they will appear at the Metropolitan opera house, New York.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d18

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St, north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH,

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Garden Tools,
Silver Dollar Spades
Spading Forks,
Manure Forks,
Steel Rakes,
Hoes,
Wheelbarrows,
Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England lyrd7

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

JACKSON & CO.

Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.

Shop and Warerooms, Kingdon's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.

PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES, tuned and repaired.

Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card. d18leod-w49-6m

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P.O

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been SUCCESSFULLY adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

READ

T. HURLEY'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at his office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough

PIANOS

HEINTZMAN & CO'S.

This Celebrated maker's Pianos are in use in the following private residences in Peterborough:

Geo. Edmison,
E. Pearse,
J. E. Hammond,
D. Faucher,
Robt. Millar,
D. Ullyott,
Chas. Cameron,
G. W. Morgan,
W. Sanderson,
The Convent,
J. Hall,
Bannell Sawyer,
Mrs Jas. Campbell
J. J. McBain,
Geo. Dunsford,
Mrs. Allen,
Wm. Tate,
W. Fairweather,
F. A. Rubidge,
Miss Delaney,
J. Stewart,
W. H. Hill,
Rev. V. Clementi,
E. C. Hill,
W. Walsh,
W. Snowden,
T. G. Hazlitt,
Miss Calcutt,
Miss Spillsbury,
W. Braddurn,
R. Fair,
Mrs. Chambers,
W. B Ferguson,
Miss A. Edmundson,
W. R. Greatrex,
R. B. McKee.
and others.

Intending purchasers should not fail to inspect the Heintzman & Co's Pianos (no connection with the Gerrard Heintzman or Lansdowne Piano, of Toronto) at my Music Store, Hunter Street, East.

E. J. HARTLEY

SHIPPING TAGS

All Sizes, Stout Serviceable Goods Plain or Printed, at the REVIEW OFFICE.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anæsthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough lyd4w

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d52w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d158w18

C. W. SAWERS.

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN. d163w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d57-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON.

Accountants.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w2

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. wed37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital, 1884;
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.
(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w2-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 55 p m 7 00 p m 8 20 a m 10 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R. Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R. Grand Trunk, East & West do East Midland, including all	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 m 8 50 p m 8 20 a m 5 15 p m	Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope. do do Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	6 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 8 00 p m 1 15 p m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Half's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m 11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Fraserville & Springville. Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Emilymore. Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chedder, on	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays.	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes do do	7 00 a m 4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m 5 15 p m
6 00 a m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. to each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiness, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents, New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st. d11

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 84. PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL Blankets AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS.

RUPTURED AND Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been SUCCESSFULLY adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE ATLAS Assurance Co'y., OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

North West Mounted Police.

A Recruiting Officer will be at the Queen's Hotel, Port Hope, on the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th April, and at Cavanagh's Hotel, Peterborough, on the 9th, 10th and 11th April, 1888, to engage men for the above Force.

Applicants must be between the ages of Twenty two and Forty, active, able-bodied men of thoroughly sound constitution, and must produce certificates of exemplary character.

They must understand the care and management of horses, and be able to ride well.

The term of engagement is for five years.

The rates of pay are as follows:—

Staff Sergeants.....$1.00 to $1.50 per day.
Other Non-Com. Officers, &c., to $1.00

	Service	Good con.
Constables—	pay	duct pay.	Total.
1st year's service,	50c	—	50c.	per day
2nd "	50	5	55	"
3rd "	50	10	60	"
4th "	50	15	65	"
5th "	50	20	70	"

Extra pay is allowed to a limited number of blacksmiths, carpenters and other artizans.

Members of the force are supplied with free rations, a free kit on joining, and periodical issues during the term of service.

OTTAWA, 24th March, 1888. 12478

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DON'T NEGLECT THE COUGH

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Influenza, Difficult Breathing and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

JOSEPH RICKARY, Lindsay, say: "Well, sir, you struck the right thing when you got up PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL. I don't wonder it takes so well. There is no fooling about it, it's the best thing we ever had in the house for coughs, colds and hoarseness, in fact any throat and lung troubles."

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent. ROANOKE, VA.,

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

JOHN H. PECK.

Artesian Well Contractor. Deep drilled wells, shallow or drive wells, anti-freezing pumps supplied. Write for information. Address Peterborough. w13-d73

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 611

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE.

LOTS 13, 14, 15, 16 north of Dickson-st., (Block LB) Ashburnham. Each lot is 50 feet by 200 feet. High and dry. Apply to JONN FALCET. 1247

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

SITUATION WANTED.

IN EITHER OFFICE OR STORE. Apply to A. J. JOHNSTON, Box 865. 2083

WANTED.

AT ONCE, A GOOD COOK, well experienced in housework. Good wages will be given. Apply to MRS. P. HAMILTON, George-st. 484

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. s12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boncher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash. ddw JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

NEW PARCEL EXPRESS.

Goods delivered in any part of the town promptly.

I have gone into the parcel delivery and will be at all the service of the public every day from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. And on Saturdays from 2 p. m. to 10 p. m. Also trunks, parcels etc., carried to and from railway stations. Orders may be left at Hawley's tea store or Mercer's clothing store.

WM. HOOK. 648

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL, Millbrook P. O

2mos602-w11

Valuable Park Lots

FOR SALE BY TENDER.

THE undersigned will receive tenders up to April 30th inst., inclusive, for that valuable property belonging to the Estate of the Late James Howden,

composed of the following:

PARCEL 1.—That plot lying between the Agricultural show grounds on the west and the river on the east, and containing thirty-five acres, more or less.

PARCEL 2.—That park lot lying immediately south of the said Agricultural show grounds corner of George and Monaghan-sts., and containing ten acres, more or less.

PARCELS 3 and 4.—Two other park lots, lying southwest of Parcel No. 2, about one quarter of a mile.

Parties tendering will separately specify the amount tendered for each parcel.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

A plan of parcel No. 1 may be seen at the store of Mr. Henry Best, George-st., Peterborough.

This property is admirably situated for parties desiring to invest in eligible real estate of convenient proximity to town.

HENRY BEST, MATTHEW JOHNSTON. } Executors.

7d30 w

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being bo practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited

H. C. STABLER. lyd38 JAS. R. DONELL.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND-MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1888.

WINDING UP THE FEDERAL

THE BILL TO THAT EFFECT BEFORE THE BANKING COMMITTEE.

Reported with Some Changes—Synopsis of the Measure—An Interview with Mr. Yarker—Why the Bank Went into Liquidation—La Banque Nationale.

OTTAWA, April 9.—At 10.30 this morning Mr. H. C. Hammond, President, and Mr. G. W. Yarker, General Manager of the Federal Bank of Canada, were pacing rapidly up and down the corridor opposite Room 49, where Mr. Hall's Banking and Commerce Committee was in session. Inside Mr. Nicol Kingsmill, the bank's solicitor, was explaining to the committee the necessity of reporting favorably the bill providing for the speedy and economical winding up of the Federal, which has passed through such a remarkable career, and is now in open liquidation. Mr. Kingsmill's explanation to the committee was so satisfactory that neither Mr. Yarker nor Mr. Hammond was called to give any evidence, although they came down from Toronto to do so in case of necessity. The bill was accordingly reported without much delay, and Mr. Yarker was enabled to go holidaying in the capital, visiting Government House, Mr. and Mrs. Cockburn and many other friends.

Mr. Kingsmill explained to the committee the unfortunate circumstances which had overtaken the Federal and which had forced the bank into open liquidation. The bill before the committee, he said, was entirely satisfactory to all concerned, even to the Finance Department, to which it had been submitted. As I give below an interview with Mr. Yarker concerning the bank's affairs, it is not necessary to speak further of Mr. Kingsmill's remarks. The bill was amended somewhat before being ordered to be reported. Its main clauses now are:

H. C. Hammond, Samuel Nordheimer and John Hoskin are constituted an Executive Committee with fees, to realize assets and wind up the affairs of the bank, under the control and supervision of the Board of Directors, which is increased from seven to eight. Thos. Long, ex-M.P., being the eighth director. The Executive Committee, subject to the supervision and control of the Board, shall proceed to realize the assets in detail or en bloc, and to wind up the bank as rapidly as is considered consistent with the prudent realization of the assets, make compromises or arrangements of any kind which would in their opinion be of benefit to the bank, institute, prosecute or defend any actions or proceedings, civil or criminal, and direct the proper officers of the bank to execute any deeds, discharges or other documents that may be considered necessary.

Clause 3 has been entirely reconstructed as follows:

The bank from the date of this act coming into force shall cease to carry on its business except in so far as is required for the beneficial winding up thereof, but the rights, powers and obligations of the bank and of the directors and of creditors, the liability of its shareholders and the laws and bylaws affecting the bank and its creditors and shareholders, including among all others the rights and powers of creditors and the liabilities of shareholders under the Banking Act and Winding-up Act in case of suspension of payment by the bank of any of its liabilities as they accrue except as expressly varied by this act, shall continue as if this act had not been passed.

Clause 4 and 5 provide for applying the assets of the bank to satisfying its liabilities and the expenses of winding up, dividing any balance among the shareholders, and for placing on deposit any portion of its unredeemed circulation in the name of the directors until five years have elapsed from the passing of the act. Then the amount, after paying expenses, is to be divided among the shareholders. Clause 6 provides that the directors shall upon the financial winding up of the bank call a meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of surrendering the charter and dissolving the bank, and upon a resolution passed for that purpose the charter of the bank shall lapse and be extinguished.

Two new clauses were added as follows:

Nothing herein contained shall in any way prejudice, impair or affect any existing valid contract or any trust, security, right or power held or possessed by any creditor or any trustee on behalf of any creditor.

All transfers of shares in the said bank after the passing of this act, except transfers made with the express previous sanction of the Executive Committee, shall be void.

Before Mr. Yarker left for Toronto this evening I had a talk with him about the affairs of the Federal, and the circumstances which led up to the suspension. In answer to the questions he said:

"About Nov. 17 the Central Bank suddenly failed, and the alarm created was immediately felt upon our deposits. Two days after this the Canada Southern issued a circular along the line of the railway, and misstating the name 'Federal' for 'Central,' ordered their agents to refuse our notes. It is impossible to estimate the harm such a circular would do, though in force for only one day or even an hour. A notice was posted in one of the departments at Osgoode Hall that Federal Bank notes would not be accepted, and descending the scale of supposed intelligence some street-car conductors and draymen made a similar confusion of names. The stock was then raided by margin dealers and slandered by bucket-shop wires, and it almost looked as if the bank was to be defamed out of existence. Even through all this misfortune we steadily passed for many weeks without calling upon the Canadian banks for assistance, but we were in a web of destiny, and when the withdrawals reached $1,500,000 we knew we were deprived, and probably permanently, of too large a portion of our earning power, and on that account concluded to retire from business. We therefore on Jan. 26 took the advanced step of borrowing from the assisting banks to enable us to pay off our liabilities, and by this one stroke our depositors and note-holders at 10 o'clock the next morning, were in sight of their money, to the relief of thousands of people and the advantage of the business of the country.

"I was in accord with this plan of liquidation. Suspension would not only have been an inconvenience for months to depositors, a serious shrinkage of the estate and a cloud upon the business of the country, but a needless hardship to the shareholders themselves, for the reason that by clause 72 of the Banking Act the liquidators are compelled to call up part of the double liability in six months if the note-holders and depositors are not paid off within that period, and under the drawbacks of suspension such a payment could not be accomplished in so short a time. Hence our preference for liquidation with open doors, more particularly as we knew we could perform it as we had good security to offer, no over-issues to hide and no irregularities of any kind."

Mr. Yarker said further that they expected to "get out" inside of two years. The amount of assistance obtained from the other banks was $1,700,000, although it was originally intended to ask for a million more than this. This liability had been reduced to $1,100,000. The total liabilities of the Federal now amounted to $1,300,000. Five months ago it was $4,300,000. The reduction of the liability had been the most rapid on record, at the remarkable rate of $600,000 per month, $150,000 per week or $25,000 per day. The amount due shareholders is $1,250,000 and Mr. Yarker thinks they will get a very good percentage of this sum.

La Banque Nationale.

The committee reported the bill to reduce the capital stock of La Banque Nationale. The reduction amounts to 40 per cent. instead of one-third as asked for by the directors. The stock will now stand at $1,200,000 instead of $2,000,000, the nominal amount heretofore. A clause has also been added to the bill providing that nothing therein contained shall alter the liability of the shareholders to the creditors.

BISMARCK BEATEN.

The Chancellor's Opposition to the Marriage Withdrawn.

BERLIN, April 9.—It is stated to-day that Prince Bismarck has abandoned his opposition to the marriage of Prince Alexander of Battenberg and the Princess Victoria, having gained certain other concessions and that all the differences between the Emperor and Prince Bismarck are now settled.

The Chancellor and the Empress.

BERLIN, April 9.—A story is circulated here to the effect that at the first conference of Prince Bismarck with the new Emperor the Empress was present, at which Prince Bismarck seemed surprised, although he said nothing about the matter. But at his second conference with the Emperor, at which the Empress was also present, he hesitated about commencing his report. The Emperor asked the cause of his hesitation, whereupon he replied that he was not accustomed to confer with the monarch in the presence of a third person, and felt that his attention was diverted thereby. The Empress instantly left the room, and it is said has never since appeared at the conferences of the Chancellor with the Emperor.

Bismarck Seriously Ill.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The Sun's Berlin correspondent says Bismarck is seriously ill. When he announced a few days after his difference with the Emperor that his health would force him to resign, it was looked upon as a pretext. Undoubtedly it was only half true at the time, but since then the Chancellor's illness has grown into an accomplished fact. He was more affected by the death of his idol, the late Kaiser, than the public, which believes him a man of iron insensibility, imagines. Concerning the details of his illness the most profound secrecy is enjoined.

"A British Plot."

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9.—An inspired article in The Grajdarine says that the Battenberg marriage plot is a British plot to secure Prince Alexander's return to Bulgaria, to which Russia ought to reply in the mountains of Afghanistan.

The Empress at Posen.

BERLIN, April 8.—On the arrival of the Empress at Landsberg she was received by the municipal authorities and other officials. She thanked them for their devotion and their work in rescuing those imperilled by the floods. The Empress arrived at Posen this afternoon. She stopped at other places besides Landsberg and was everywhere greeted with enthusiasm. The Polish leaders have issued a manifesto asking the inhabitants of Posen to sink their national disputes and unite in welcoming the Empress.

A SWEEPING CLAIM.

The United States' Position Regarding Sealing in Behring Sea.

NEW YORK, April 9.—A Washington despatch to The Tribune says: The fact that the question of damages was not considered by the Fisheries Commissioners indicates that a new convention will have to be called to settle these claims and those of Great Britain arising out of the seizure of British poachers in Behring Sea. There has been a good deal of bluster lately indulged in by the Canadian press as to the action their Government proposed to take this summer in regard to the killing of fur seals in Behring Sea. British whalers, it is understood, propose to resist capture by force of arms. It is hardly to be believed that any serious intention exists of carrying such threats into effect.

The United States Government has taken but one position on the subject of killing seals in Behring Sea ever since the territory was purchased in 1867. That position has been the assertion of the unquestioned right to control entirely the killing of fur seals in those waters. Year after year the Treasury Department, which is charged by law with the duty of regulating the business, has issued its orders that no one should without its sanction venture to kill any fur seals in the waters of the Territory of Alaska, and when that department was asked in 1871 to define what was meant by the term "waters of the territory," it said that the phrase included all the waters described within the limits mentioned in the treaty of cession, which covers practically the whole easterly half of Behring Sea, the westerly half being continued under the dominion of Russia. Secretary Manning supported this construction, and recently orders were given by Secretary Fairchild to the same effect and sent to the collectors of customs on the Pacific coast with special instructions to give them wide publicity, so that all parties concerned might have full knowledge of what this Government considered its rights in the premises, and of the action which would be taken to enforce these rights should parties persist in their freebooting enterprises.

Neither the British Government nor any other Government has at any time entered a protest against the issuance of such orders, nor has the British Government taken a position against that taken by our Government on the question. The most that the Government has done was to inquire the reasons for our seizing British vessels in those waters and what position our Government intended to take in the future on the subject. To these enquiries it is understood the United States has not yet officially responded, but the key to the situation is found in the nature of the warnings recently issued by the Treasury against illicit sealing. It is apprehended that neither the Secretary nor the President will be deterred from doing their duty by any bluster of the kind mentioned.

Alleged Dutch hall clocks no longer command the high prices of a few years ago.

RACING IN ENGLAND.

FLAT AND STEEPLECHASE FIXTURES IN ENGLAND THIS WEEK.

Probable Starters for the City and Suburban—The Toronto Lacrosse Boys in England—Baseball Games Yesterday—Spots of Sport.

Those who take an interest in racing in England will have ample opportunity during the current week to indulge in that inclination. The Epsom Spring Meeting is the fixture for to-day and to-morrow, with the Sandown Park Spring Meeting to follow on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The event of the week is the City and Suburban to-morrow. Of a trifle less degree, there is the Great Metropolitan to-day, the Esher Stakes and Mammoth Hunters' Steeplechase on Thursday, the Great Sandown Hurdle Race on Friday, the Grand International Steeplechase and Princess of Wales Handicap on Saturday. The City and Suburban is at a mile and a quarter, and the interest up to last mail advices—April 7—made the race an issue between Merry Hampton, the winner of the Derby last year; Eiridsperd, the winner of the Epsom Grand Prize, and Reve d'Or, the winner of the Epsom Oaks, all run over the same course as the City and Suburban with the difference that the Derby and Oaks were at a mile and a half. The betting in London on Saturday, as received by cable, shows Galore a better favorite than Reve d'Or while Eiridsperd had gone back several points. The same despatch also says that "very disquieting rumors are in circulation about the condition of Merry Hampton, but that the odds had not been affected."

The Great Metropolitan is at two miles and a quarter, with Lord Rodney's Humewood, the winner of the Cesarewitch last October, the top weight at 124 lb. The Great Surrey Handicap, at five furlongs, will also be run on Tuesday, for which Mr. Abington's Gallinuli is the top weight at 129 lb. The 2-year-old fixtures of the Epsom meeting are the Westminster Stakes, the Hoimwood Stakes and the Hyde Park Plate. At Sandown, on Thursday, the attendance will no doubt be large, for the Mammoth Hunters Steeplechase is worth £1500 to the winner, £300 to the second and £200 to the third, with the distance at three miles. The starters will excite much interest, as six-year-olds and upward that have won a race of £250 will have to carry 187 lbs. The chances are it will be won by something "dark," that has been hunted during the winter and kept for the race, the entries (numbering 102) having been made in 1886. The race is, however, one of those events that The London Truth styles a "whited sepulchre;" for although it is announced at £2000, the Sandown authorities have already a guarantee of £1655 in forfeit, with £10 to receive from each of the starters.

THE LACROSSE BOYS IN ENGLAND.

Their First Game with Owens College Team—How They Have Been Entertained.

MANCHESTER, March 30.—So much has happened since our arrival at Liverpool and the posting of my last letter that it seems at the present writing as if we had been in England a month.

On board the City of Chicago lying at Liverpool docks on Tuesday morning we breakfasted with the two most prominent members of the committee which has in hand our reception at Manchester, Mr. E. H. Norris, the secretary of the committee, a man who has at heart the best interests of lacrosse in England and especially in the North, had been deputed with Mr. E. O. Swallow, Treasurer of the North English Lacrosse Association, and who will be well and favorably remembered by the team of 1883, to see that our landing was effected without difficulty. And well they did their work. By 10 o'clock we had shaken the mud of Liverpool from our boots and were speeding cross country to Manchester. Here we arrived at 11 o'clock and put up at the Waterloo Hotel in Piccadilly. In the afternoon we coached to Withington, a pretty little suburb, where we located the grounds of the South Manchester Lacrosse Club, and through the kindness of the local lacrosse men we were able to enjoy a first-class practice.

We left Manchester by train at 8 o'clock this morning, and in most disheartening weather. Under the escort of about thirty lacrossemen from Manchester, Owens College and district, we proceeded in two saloon cars to a little station about five miles from Chatsworth. To the fine hotel bearing the name of the big house we coached through Devonshire's magnificent park lands. A sumptuous lunch was despatched quickly, and two hours were spent in viewing the house, its great conservatories, immense crystal palace for palms, and its wonderfully disposed and kept grounds. A lengthy description of the house and of old Haddon Hall, which we visited after another four miles of coaching, would be rather the province of a guide book. The greater part of the present Chatsworth has been standing since the year 1702. Near it is a village of the houses of men employed on the estates is a churchyard in which, under one of the simplest of small stone crosses, lies the body of Lord Frederick Cavendish, the duke's second son, murdered in Phœnix Park, Dublin. Haddon Hall is a romantic old place, which dates back to before the Elizabethan era, and is owned by the Duke of Rutland. Of course it has been untenanted for years. From the hall we drove to the village of Bakewell, which is a church of which a lord must have been built in the old Saxon days of ten centuries ago. Supper at a roadside inn of the old type and the railway journey back to Manchester brought the day to a close.

Baseball Games Yesterday.

At New York the League team defeated Newark by 12 to 4.

At Boston the League team beat Dartmouth College 20 to 0.

At Pittsburg:

Alleghanys	2	1	0	0	0	3	3	1	4	14
Buffalo	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	5	7

Batteries: Morris and Carroll, Walsh and Williams.

At Baltimore:

Baltimore	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	3
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

At Philadelphia:

Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	3
Athletics	3	0	1	0	1	0	0	2	0	7

Spots of Sport.

Dorgan has been released by the New Yorks.

Connor, O'Rourke, Tiernan, Richardson and Welch signed personal and club contracts with the New York Club on Saturday.

An enterprising individual named Redmond has invented a "catcher's hand protector," which enables back-stops to do without a padded glove.

St. Louis people insist that the series between the Browns and the Detroits will decide the world's championship and the Detroiters cry: Nay! Nay!

Big Mox McQuerry, who was running a huckster wagon in Covington, Ky., all winter has reported at Syracuse, where he will play first base this season.

Tip O'Neil of Woodstock, the St. Louis Browns' crack batsman, led all professionals in hard hitting last season, having thirteen home runs; twenty-four triples, and forty-six doubles in championship games alone.

A movement is on foot to establish an athletic association in Brantford. The association will include lacrosse players, baseballists, bicyclists, etc.

There is a prospect of the formation of an athletic association in Buffalo. It is proposed to buy grounds and build club houses capable of accommodating the ball club, lawn tennis club and other similar organizations. A committee has been appointed to look for suitable grounds. The estimated cost is placed at $75,000.

BRITAIN'S PARLIAMENT.

A New Egyptian Loan—King-Harman's Salary—The Budget.

LONDON, April 9.—In the House of Commons this evening Sir James Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary for the Foreign Office, stated that a new loan, amounting to $10,000,000, had been made by the Egyptian Government.

The House authorized, 181 to 109, the payment of a salary to Right Hon. E. R. King-Harman, Parliamentary Under Secretary for Ireland. A motion by Mr. Justin McCarthy to adjourn debate on the question was defeated by 109 to 104. Mr. T. P. O'Connor declared that the Nationalists were resolved to oppose the bill at every stage.

The House then went into committee on the budget resolutions. Mr. Gladstone wanted to know what course the Chancellor of the Exchequer would take in the event of the House not adopting the new taxes. He commended the budget as a whole, but said that the proposed new taxation demanded close scrutiny.

Mr. Goschen thanked Mr. Gladstone for the complimentary part of his criticism. He upheld the budget scheme as a whole, and said he trusted the House would accept it.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Sir Charles to Introduce His Bill Respecting the Fisheries Treaty To-Day.

OTTAWA, April 9.—The Senate sat for an hour to-day and assented to a second reading of Mr. Abbott's bill for the protection of submarine cables. Senator Frank, Smith of Toronto, after an absence of several weeks, was in his place to-day.

Mr. Scarth bid good-bye to the House to-day and left for Winnipeg to-night. He will not return this Session. The tide of immigration has set in to Manitoba and Mr. Scarth's services as manager of the Canadian Northwest Land Company are absolutely required at home.

Hon. J. H. Pope is slowly recovering. To-day, muffled in great furs, he took a drive around Parliament Hill.

Sir Charles Tupper, it is understood, is well enough to-night to be able to be in his place to-morrow when he will introduce his bill respecting the Fisheries Treaty.

Shot by a "Q" Engineer.

CHICAGO, April 9.—At 7 to-night a "Q" engine manned by scabs was approaching the Western Indiana tracks from the south west. At Forty-seventh-street a crowd threw stones through the cab window, when Charles Sommers, one of the crew, drew a revolver and firing it at the crowd struck James Boylan, a foundryman, in the knee. At Fortieth-street the engine met the same reception from another crowd. Sommers again brought his pistol into use. He shot Mike Welsh, a Wabash engineer, in the groin, wounding him fatally. An alarm having been given to the police the engine was intercepted and Sommers arrested.

Displayed a Wrong Signal.

NEW YORK, April 9.—This afternoon a local passenger train on the Pennsylvania Road ran into the rear of a freight train standing on the main track about a mile from Jersey City, smashing the passenger locomotive, caboose and several cars and injuring a number of passengers severely. The accident was caused by a telegraph operator displaying a wrong signal.

Legislative Obstructionists.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the House to-day the dilatory tactics against the Direct Tax Bill were again put in motion and the House accomplished no business.

Queen Victoria's Intention.

BERLIN, April 8.—It is said the Queen of England has sent Prince Henry of Battenberg to Malta, and that she will not now visit Berlin.

Beefsteak pie, away from home, is as dangerous to experiment with as dynamite in connection with a lighted match.

There were five fair sisters, and each had an aim:
Flora would feign be a fashionable dame,
Scholarly Susan's selection was books,
Coquettish Cora cared more for good looks,
Anna, ambitious, aspired after wealth,
Sensible Sarah, sought first for her health and recommended her other sisters to try the La Parisienne Corset, which is certainly as good a any $1.25 corset in Peterborough.

Ladies, you can get the famous La Parisienne Corset for 99c. per pair at

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

PARALYZERS

The rush for Silks and Satin Mervs is wonderful. Just fancy, Pure Silk Merveilleaux for 50c. per yard. We take the lead and are determined to keep it. To arrive in a few days, hundreds of pieces of Ribbons purchased from the wholesale Bankrupt Stock of McMaster & Co., and all to be Sold at 5c. per yard at

ROWSE'S GREAT BARGAIN HOUSE

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given to the student who attains the highest general proficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, in this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

—o—

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

—o—

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1888.

THE C. P. R. AGREEMENT.

AN authoritative statement has not been made, at this writing, of the agreement made by the Dominion Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company regarding the abolition of the Northwest monopoly. A part of the bargain with the company was that they should be protected for twenty years from competition by the building of rival lines across the United States boundary, and if that protection is to be withdrawn, in compliance with demands of people in the Northwest, urged on by political agitators in the east, a new arrangement becomes necessary.

It is reported that the agreement made with the company is that the Government will guarantee an issue of land bonds at 3 or 3½ per cent., taking security so as to protect itself. By receiving such a guarantee the company will be able to make a loan at a much smaller rate of interest than it would otherwise have to pay, and the security taken will assure the Government against loss by the transaction, and the company relinquishes the advantages of the clause in the agreement known as the monopoly clause.

Such an arrangement would be an advantageous one both for the railway and for the country. While the country would make no cash payment and would lose nothing, the railway would receive compensation for the annulling of part of their original bargain. And, as it would not be in the interest of the country to allow the Northwest traffic to be carried away from Canadian lines and Canadian ports, this agreement is in the interest of the country, for it will enable the Pacific Company to better equip its lines and to place itself in a better position to hold the carrying trade. Thus the railway will be benefitted by having a better equipment at less cost than if the company had to borrow without the guarantee, the Northwest will be relieved from the monopoly clause, and the trade will not be largely diverted from its present channels.

It should be remembered when the Liberal press talk of payments to the company, that—if the report is correct, as it seems to be—no payment is made, and also that all the loans made previously by the Government to the company were repaid.

OUR esteemed local contemporary now says that the recent decision to admit American produce free was the settled policy of the Tory party. But Sir John seemed to have forgotten it till he received a gentle intimation from the British Government.—London Advertiser.

The Advertiser is mistaken. Sir John did not receive an intimation, gentle or otherwise, from the British Government

THE Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Congress has recommended the ratification of the extradition treaty negotiated by Minister Phelps and Lord Rosebery. If the recommendation is carried out, Canada will be relieved from the invasions of dishonest cashiers and other United States embezzlers.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

OTONABEE CANOE CLUB.

The Annual Meeting, Election of Officers and a Debate.

The annual meeting of the members of the Otonabee Canoe Club was held at the Commodore's rooms on Monday evening There was a large attendance.

First on the programme came the debate, with Mr. W. J. Willis in the chair, and Mr. W. H. Hill as critic. The subject was "Resolved, that Morality increases with Civilization." The affirmative was sustained by Messrs. A. Tebb, T. Barrie, A. E. Scott, A. Clegg, Jno. Miller, J. Carmichael, W. H. Dayman and L. W. Allingham. Messrs. Gordon Smith, W. H. Hill, W. H. Wright, C. H. Allinson, H. Stock and A. E. Dixon argued in favor of the negative. The debate was the best and most interesting yet held and developed the full speaking power of the club. The decision was in favor of the negative.

Next week the debate will be on the subject "Resolved, that the Party Press is detrimental to the Best Interests of the Country." Mr. C. H. Allison will preside, and the leaders will be affirmative, Messrs. Allingham and Dayman, negative, Messrs. Carmichael and W. A. Mason.

BUSINESS MEETING.

The annual meeting then took place. After routine and the presentation of satisfactory reports, the club elected the following officers for 1888:—

COMMODORE.—Mr. J. Miller, B.A., (re-elected).

VICE COMMODORE.—Mr. H. W. Stock (re-elected).

SECRETARY.—Mr. A. E. Dixon (re-elected).

ASST.-SECRETARY.—Mr. Thos. Barrie.

TREASURER.—Mr. A. E. Scott.

MANAGING COMMITTEE.—Messrs. C. H. Allison, W. H. Hill, A. Clegg and W. A. Mason.

The club, although only a young one, is among the most vigorous to be found in the country, and it is intended to make things hum in a lively manner during the rapidly approaching season.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with catarrh. This disagreeable disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

LINES OF THANKS.

To my numerous friends, not only in Peterborough but the surrounding country, for the unbounded patronage they have extended to me, since my book of poems appeared before the public:—

If I could grasp my loftiest thoughts, and place
Them here in words, appropriate to the case,
They would express and make it understood
How my heart swells with thankful gratitude.

Although my thoughts soar up on fancy's strain,
My language fails their meaning to explain;
Thoughts speaketh not, the language guides the pen,
Reveals their import to our fellow men.

Here I fall short; on that success depends,
Words to give thanks unto my numerous friends,
Heart full of love, thoughts flowing through my brain,
Words to express them—oft I seek in vain.

If but my pen could bring my thoughts to view,
Such high encomiums I would shower on you,
Your free response, your patronage so kind,
Has made my venture pleasing to my mind.

My book's success, the ready sale it finds,
I attribute unto your generous minds;
I would act heartless if I did not own
The unbounded favor you to me have shown.

I speak to all, regardless of your ranks,
To rich and poor, I render heartfelt thanks.
Let every race, yea every class and creed,
Accept my thanks, when these few lines they read.

It was a great risk when I undertook
To bring to light my plain but truthful book;
As more I thought darker my doubtings grew,
Success or failure rested all on you.

Your verdict given, surprises and pleases me,
Support most liberal I receive from thee,
Prompted by love, esteem or true respect,
Ten times surpassing what I did expect.

Not in this town alone, but country round,
Hosts of admirers I have daily found;
Daily comes orders, unto me addressed
From California around to the Northwest.

I never thought, in truth I disbelieved
My homely book would be so well received;
I was aware my enemies were but few,
My numerous friends, till now I never knew.

I thank each one that freely bought a book,
And all true friends who deeper interest took;
Although I can't their free will acts repay,
I will them cherish to my dying day.

I feel delighted—yes, and honoured too,
The high respect and favor shown by you;
My aim shall be in future as the past,
To please my friends—and love gained to hold fast.

My thanks are not inspired by flattering art,
But true emotions of a grateful heart;
Within each home where my lines are, I trust,
Will be admired, when I am in the dust.

WILLIAM TELFORD, Smith.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

ENNISMORE.

Correspondence of the Review.

WEATHER NOTES.—March has gone with its winds, storms, cold and sudden changes. It was ushered in with snow and storm during the two days, with a low temperature, and on the morning of the 4th at sunrise the thermometer stood 6 degrees below zero, and on the morning of the 5th it stood at 12 degrees below, on the 13th at 6 degrees below, on the 18th at 4 degrees, on the 24th at 6 degrees below and the 25th at 7 degrees below. The mildest day was on the 20th at sunrise and sundown, 44 and 46 degrees respectively, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 16 18-31 degrees, being below the average. Snow fell on 9 days, but only to the depth of 12 inches. Rain fell on 8 days, but only to the depth of 1 and 47-100 of an inch, being both below the usual downfall, especially snow, which is very light. Some severe gales swept over us during the month blockading the roads and greatly impeding travel. A solitary crane was seen flying about here on the 7th, but was not seen since, and so long before the usual time it must have got out of its latitude. On the 19th robins were seen, but the cold continuing they must have returned to the south again. Aurorul lights were seen on the nights of the 17th and 18th and our first thunder storm was on the evening of the 27th. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month, namely:—West, 6 days; south east 4 days, north west 14 days, north 1 day, south west 1 day, south, 3 days and north east 2 days.

OUR FALL WHEAT.—Of the fall wheat we can say little as yet. The plant is tender and should the weather continue much longer as it has been during the first week of April, we will have a repetition of 1887, but let us hope for the best.

Rightnow is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all druggists, 50 cents.

Alleged Egg Combine.

It is asserted that there is a "combine" among egg dealers to keep down the prices of eggs, their method being to bear down the price in Toronto and thus cheapen them in the country, while the dealers ship to the United States and receive higher prices. The Mail publishes interviews with dealers in Toronto regarding the matter, some of whom say there is such a combination operating against them. The following is the report of an interview with Mr. J. W. Flavelle, formerly of Peterborough:—Mr. J. W. Flavelle said:—"The only organization in the egg business that I know of is the 'Egg Dealers' Association of Ontario,' with Mr. D. D. Wilson, of Seaforth, as president. The objects of the association are to introduce an improved class of fowl in the country; the promotion of a better feeling and a better business understanding between the dealers whose territories adjoin or overlap each other; improved railway facilities and lower freights, and any other business which may be justly considered to be for the improvement of the egg business in Ontario. It is a well-known fact in the experience of dealers that there is a danger of the general character of our egg supply suffering in the Eastern and American markets, because eggs are sometimes kept too long in the hands of farmers, merchants and dealers. Egg dealers believe they can unitedly deal with this danger, and hence a main object of the association is to educate those who handle eggs to send them to the consumers' market in as fresh a condition as possible. The position of the association respecting Toronto may be stated thus: Except in the early spring and late fall of the year the large Western shippers have never looked to Toronto for a market, New York, Philadelphia and Boston being their chief points of shipment. Toronto being therefore largely dependent on small shippers for its supply became frequently short of stock for a few days at a time. In such a case prices would advance sharply, to fluctuate again when the market was fully stocked. This caused an unsettled feeling among the merchants who supply the Western dealers and an amount of friction which interfered injuriously with the prices as warranted by the Eastern markets. To obviate this the egg dealers, as an associated body, have decided to ship in sufficient stock to keep this city supplied regularly. They have no thought of forcing a range of prices which would be too low or in any way to interfere with the regular shippers, but rather to keep a regular and steady price in the market There is no such thing as a 'combine' for any other purposes than those which I have stated."

If you have a cough, cold, bronchitis, or any form of throat or lung disease, do not neglect it. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, if promptly taken, will speedily relieve and cure all ailments of this character.

The Ocean Mail Contract.

OTTAWA, April 9.—It is reported that the Government will extend the present contract of the Allan and Dominion lines of steamers for carrying the British mails for one year. It being decided advisable to wait a few months to see how the new class of fast vessels now building turn out. The Government is desirous of procuring the very best service that can be obtained. It is thought that this can be accomplished, and at the same time be able to have a class of high speed boats which will make a specialty of carrying mails, passengers and the lighter class of express freight, leaving the carrying of general freight to the regular freight steamers. No doubt the Government will be able in the course of the year to make such a contract as will meet the views of the traveling public, and at the same time to have a service equal to the fast lines now running between Liverpool and New York.

Boulanger's Majority.

PARIS, April 9.—Gen. Boulanger received 69,500 votes in Dordogne yesterday against 35,750 for his opponent. La Lanterne says Boulanger will refuse to accept the seat for Dordogne, as he desires to sit for the Department du Nord only.

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 9.

Receipts of grain in Chicago by car lots on Saturday were: Winter wheat 5, spring 73, corn 195, oats 148, rye 3, barley 32.

The estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, to-day are: Hogs, 15,000. The official Saturday were 6398; shipments, 3884; left over, about 3500. Cattle receipts 8000; market fairly active.

Receipts at New York Saturday were: Flour, 16,478 bbls. and 7119 sacks; wheat, 7150 bush; corn, 51,600; oats, 113,000; cornmeal, 815 bbls. and 2196 sacks; barley, 31,850 bush; malt, 10,000; pork, 178 bbls; beef, 1024; lard, 1293 tierces; whisky, 676 bbls.

Private cables from Antwerp to Doran, & Wright Co., say: "Owing to European weather being unseasonable think bottom has been touched for wheat and higher prices probable, but American market is governing ours to a great extent."

The New York exports were: Flour 20,088 bbls., wheat 14,000 bush., corn 88,000, oats 40,000, rye 2000, barley 11,000.

THE VISIBLE SUPPLY.

The following is a comparison of the visible supply of grain in Canada, and the United States, for this and preceding week, together with that of corresponding weeks in 1887 and 1886:

	This Week.	Last Week.
Wheat	37,587,420	34,384,416
Corn	8,803,951	9,165,142
Oats	3,777,491	4,145,695
Rye	327,298	334,532
Barley	1,556,142	1,777,566

On April 11, 1887, the visible supply was: Wheat, 51,914,166; corn, 20,130,673; oats, 4,238,791; rye, 380,229; barley, 969,763. On April 13, 1886, the visible supply was: Wheat, 47,682,492; corn, 16,487,865; oats, 2,236,693; rye, 496,398; barley, 832,902.

TORONTO STOCKS IN STORE.

Following is the supply on hand for Toronto as compared with last week and this week of last year:

	1888. April 7.	1888. M'ch 31.	1887. April 11.
Flour, barrels	2,500	2,500	3,000
Fall wheat, bushels	68,120	63,068	76,667
Spring wheat, bush'ls	89,152	96,236	82,975
Oats, bushels	22,190	20,950	22,003
Barley, bushels	172,527	167,695	191,112
Peas, bushels	580	580	19,788
Rye, bushels	498	498	4,249
Corn	——	——	7,931

BEERSBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes—Wheat, steady; corn, nil; waiting orders, nil. Cargoes on passage—Wheat, steady; corn, firm. Mark Lane—Wheat, turn easier; corn, American,—firm; Danubian, steadier; flour, turn easier;-spot, good; No. 2 club Calcutta wheat, 30s, was 30s 6d; present and following months, 28s, was 28s 9d; mixed American, 24s 3d, was 24s 3d; strait Minneapolis flour, 22s 6d, was 22s 9d. French country markets—Generally dearer. English farmers' deliveries for past week, 41,306 qrs.; average price, 30s, was 30s 3d. Paris wheat and flour—Firm. Liverpool—Spot wheat steadier; corn, fair; No. 1 Cal, and No. 2 Cal., both 1d dearer, while winter and spring unchanged; flour unchanged; corn, 1d dearer.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat firm with demand fair and holders offering sparingly; corn firm, demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 6d and 6s 7d, red winter 6s 8d, No. 1 Cal. 6s 7d and 6s 8d; corn 4s 10d, peas 5s 5d, pork 67s 6d, lard 38s 3d, bacon, s. c. 38s 6d and l. c. 40s, cheese 60s 6d, flour 23s 6d.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley quiet to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 89, No. 1 Canadian 92 and No. 1 bright Canadian 95. No. 1 to arrive, quoted at 90.

THE EGG MARKET.

On the local market to-day eggs were scarce and the demand good. Prices have advanced 2 cents since Saturday, commission houses all selling at 15 cents.

THE BUTTER MARKET.

The demand for butter is good. Commission houses sell No. 1 tub readily at 20c, rolls at 21c and creamery at 24c.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, the handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts., with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,
Barrister, Water-st., or to

C. STAPLETON,
Auctioneer. 8483-1w1

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Geo. A. Cox vs. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold astonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGGONS, Etc., 50 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No commentment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

THE SUN LIFE Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSSETS - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,

MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

BUY THE

Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Brodigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. L. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Fife, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve), Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Otonabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Buller, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Ross, Peterborough, Mr. J. J. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. L. Hughes, Peterborough, Mrs. Eliza Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,

Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

THE COOK'S FRIEND BAKING POWDER

It is most perfect made, and GUARANTEED

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

Per Sale by all Grocers.

D. BELLEGHEM,

Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms Hunter Street, or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

MASON'S

Prompt Service,

Best Value, If Strict Attention,

Purity of Goods,

are any considerations in your buying come to

W. J. MASON,

The Family Grocery, George-st.

DELIGHTED !

THE FIRST DAY OF OUR MILLINERY OPENING IS OVER AND WE CAN TRULY SAY IT WAS A GRAND SUCCESS. LADIES ARE LOUD IN THEIR PRAISES OF THE ELEGANT GOODS DISPLAYED BY US THIS SEASON. NEVER ON AN OPENING DAY DID WE TAKE AS MANY ORDERS OR HEAR AS MANY COMPLIMENTARY THINGS SAID. WE SHALL DO ALL IN OUR POWER TO MAKE THIS SEASON'S MILLINERY WORTHY OF THE INSPECTION OF EVERY LADY BUYER. OPENING CONTINUES EVERY DAY THIS WEEK.

H. S. Griffin & Co

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issuer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 d w8

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

East shifting to south-west winds; cloudy weather with rain and local thunderstorms, followed by clearing weather and considerably higher temperature.

Now Open and Complete.

Our Millinery and Mantle show rooms are now open and the display of Pattern Bonnets, Hats, Mantles and Mantle Cloths is very complete. We cordially invite the inspection of our lady customers, being satisfied we can offer the very finest and most stylish goods in the market, at the golden lion. Our order department is in skilled hands and we guarantee the best work.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. Geo. Gumpricht is in town. Order may be left at Mr. T. Menzies' or Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's stores. d77

A Canadian Canoe.

We take the following from the Daily Gazette, of Newton, N. J., in reference to work of the Ontario Canoe Company:—"Mr. Field B. Yard has just received from the Ontario Canoe Company, of Peterborough, Canada, one of the handsomest canoes ever seen in this city. The length over all is 14½ feet, beam 30 inches. The lines of the canoe follow closely the ideal birch bark canoe of the Indian without its excessive sheer. The hull is a combination of rich woods, in strips, and has a remarkably pleasing effect."

Still Very Popular.

The Toronto Mail of the 4th inst. says in reference to Mr. Scott-Siddons:—"If proof were necessary of the sustained popularity in Toronto of Mrs. Scott-Siddons or of the good impression made by her in December last, it would be amply found in the magnificent reception accorded her on her return visit last night. The programme was well chosen and well arranged, there being a fair variety in a select range of subjects. A new feature of her programme was the piano playing of Mr. Henry Waller, her adopted son, who will be remembered as the Boy Pianist, Seraphael, of a few years ago. Mr. Waller has but recently come to this contigent from London, England." This distinguished and accomplished artiste will give an entirely new programme with new costumes, Opera House, Peterborough, on Monday, 16th April, at popular prices. The plan of the hall is at Hartley's. Tickets for sale at several stores. Mrs. Siddons sails for England early in May. You will not likely ever hear her again.

Your Possible Wants

no doubt include new shoes. You get them cheaply at the great sale now going on at the Griffin shoe store, Hunter-st. Rare bargains in all lines. The best and most seasonable lines selling rapidly. 3d84-1w15

The "Royal" Flavoring Extracts are absolutely pure.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

OUT-DOING ANYTHING EVER DONE BEFORE.

How is it to be done? Well that's our business, and what's our business is nobody else's business--and if we tell others how we get our clothing to sell so low, they would be as shrewd as we are. Sheppard is not caught napping in that way--All the dear public care to know is that Sheppard's clothing is the cheapest on earth. That he has no traffic in shoddy, and you can always get what he advertises.

NOW THEN, ABOUT CLOTHING.

Boy's Suits, 3 pieces, 95 cents. How does that catch you? For another just a little longer in the legs, a boy who has seen more Xmas puddings, Sheppard will give you a $2.75 suit worth double the money and a pair of pants for this dear boy for 75 cents. These are nice goods, although you may not think so—so cheap—well I should say so. You want a hat for him don't you? Certainly you don't want to see him bareheaded; not much. Sheppard has the best value. See his cheap Hats.

For the young man. A nobby suit in several patterns $3.95, worth at least $7.50. This is the line that has excited the Town and rattled the trade; hurry, make haste. Secure this suit before they are all done. Motherly advice this.

We are talking to you because you are out of your teens, although you may not be as old as Methuselah's goat. We have a suit for you at $1.95, this is not all wool and a yard wide.

SPECIAL FOR A FEW DAYS.

Men's Suits all sizes	$ 4.95	worth	$ 7.50
Men's Suits all sizes	7.50	"	12.00
Men's Suits all sizes	10.00	"	15.00
Men's Suits all sizes	15.50	"	30.00

Spring Overcoats, nobby stuffs, cheap.

SHEPPARD,---On the War Path,

George-st, Peterborough.

5 lbs of Choice Japan Tea for $1 at The Pantry. 3d83-1w15

Hand Picked Apples

Just received at the Palace Grocery. Another supply of apples in barrels.

At Home.

You're right, I am at home! I secured a home of my own on JOHN CARLISLE'S easy and safe plan. d76

Personal.

The Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, Rector of St. Luke's, went to Montreal on Monday night to attend the Inter-Diocesan Sunday School Conference.

A. O. U. W.

The regular monthly meeting of Peterborough Lodge No 135, A. O. U. W., will be held this evening in the Foresters Hall, at 8 o'clock. 1d84

Bargains Still Booming

at the Griffin shoe store. You can fit yourself out with neat foot wear for very little money. Rubbers, Slippers and children's Shoes in great variety. 3d84 1w15

Meeting To-night.

Working Bricklayers are requested to meet to-night (Tuesday), Knight's of Labor Hall, at 7 30 p. m. Business of importance to come before the meeting.

R. T. of T.

Peterborough Council No. 97, Royal Templars of Temperance, meet this evening in the W.C.T.U. Hall, entrance south of A. Clegg's. Gospel temperance meeting on Sunday from 4 to 5 o'clock p.m.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

"A Tangled Life."

The Sawtelle Comedy Company made their bow before a Peterborough audience at the Opera House last night, and on the whole they created a rather favorable impression. The house was filled to the doors and the applause was frequent. "A Tangled Life" is a tale of the Southern States and revolvers, shot guns and knives are mingled up rather freely with it. Murders are also numerous, but in the end virtue triumphs, vice is punished and all ends well in the usual God-bless-you-my-children style. Mr. Sawtelle himself is a very good actor. The villain of Arthur Grey was blood curdling enough to suit any person. Miss Ema Cornell as the heroine did well and the same may be said of Miss McCormick, who played a minor part. The fun was supplied by Miss Bethune, a chipper servant maid, and Messrs. Al. and J. H. Nicholsen, but at times the latter two degenerated into horse play. This evening "The Orange Girl" will be placed on the boards, when will be introduced a fire scene, that the management promise will surpass anything in that line ever attempted here before. Popular prices prevail and reserved seats may be secured at Hartley's. The company will play each night this week, with a Saturday matinee.

An Excellent Entertainment.

The entertainment given in the school room of St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, on Monday evening, was fairly attended. The Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, rector, presided. The programme was an unusually good one and was well carried out. The musical portion was superior and the tableaux were excellent. The following was the programme:—

PART I.

Piano duet "Apple Blossom Waltz"...Mrs. [Lewis and Mrs. Dunsford
Tableau.....The Milkmaid
Solo.....The Raft"...Mr. C. Baguley
Tableau.....Grecian Athlete
Solo.....The Desert".....Mr. Jaques
Tableau (three scenes).....Lalla Rookh
Piano duet.....Il Trovatore"....Mrs. Lewis [and Mrs. Dunsford.

PART II.

Vocal duet.....Maying"...Miss Cottingham [and Mr. Shaw
Tableau.....Tinted Venus
Vocal duet..."The Pilot Brave".....Messrs. [Elliott and Shaw.
Solo "Yes, if You Like, Said She"..Miss Cot- [tingham,
Tableau.....Cinderella
Solo.....I Fear no Foe".....Mr. Elliott
Solo.....Rank and File".....Mr. C. Shaw
Tableau.....Gypsy Scene

Those who took part in the tableaux so successfully were Mrs. Macklin, Misses Marmion, Cottingham, Irwin and Burnham, and Messrs. Parker, Morris, J. H. Burnham, Morrow and Max. Hamilton. Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Jaques played the accompaniments very acceptably. The entertainment concluded with the National Anthem.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

THE SPRING ASSIZES.

WM. KENNY SENT TO CENTRAL PRISON FOR 23 MONTHS.

Yeomans, Charged with Shooting his Son, Confined as a Lunatic—Other Cases Disposed of and the Court Closed.

MONDAY (CONTINUED.)

GERVAIS v. GOODWIN.—An action brought by the plaintiff, a laborer, against the defendant, a contractor on the Trent Valley Canal. The plaintiff was working near Burleigh, in a quarry, handling large stone with a derrick, when some of the guy ropes gave way and the plaintiff was seriously injured. He claimed $2,000 damages. Numerous witnesses were sworn, none of whom gave any evidence to show that the defendant was at all negligent. The Judge non suited the plaintiff, refusing to allow the case to go to the jury.—Stone, for plaintiff; McVeity, Ottawa, for defendant.

TRUE BILLS.

The Grand Jury returned into court finding true bills in the following cases:—

Queen v. Kenny, forgery.

Queen v. Kenny, obtaining goods under false pretences.

Queen v. Youmans, shooting with intent to kill.

NO BILL.

The Grand Jury found no bill in the case of the Queen v. Hicks, larceny of cigars and wine from the Grand Central Hotel and the prisoner was discharged.

SHOOTING WITH INTENT.

QUEEN v YEOMANS.—The prisoner J. H. Yeomans, is a farmer residing in the township of Chandos. A son aged about 22 years lives with him. Some six months ago the son noticed that the father was acting in a peculiar manner. He was in the habit of moping around the house and seemed possessed that some person desired to take his life by poisoning him. About the end of January last, the son was sitting in the house beside a bed sharpening a razor to shave himself. The father inquired what he intended to do with the razor several times. He was told that the son intended to shave himself. The prisoner had a rifle and a revolver, and turning around suddenly he discharged the latter weapon at the son, the ball entering the forehead and inflicting an ugly wound. The son ran from the house and fell on the snow covered ground and at once became insensible. How long he laid there he could not tell, but when he recovered his senses he found himself laying on a bed in the house, with his wound washed and dressed and the prisoner standing over him lamenting that he had killed his boy. The father was arrested, tried and committed to gaol. As the son was not able to take care of himself he was also sent to gaol on a charge of vagrancy.

The evidence given was, in brief, as above. There was not the slightest doubt that the prisoner was not responsible for his actions and the Judge directed that he be held as a lunatic awaiting the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. The jury was then discharged.

TUESDAY.

The court opened at 9.30 a.m., there being a large number of pesons present.

FORGERY.

QUEEN v. KENNY.—The prisoner William Kenny, alias Bogan, a young man, a painter by trade, who was employed by Mr. H. W. Watson, was charged with forging the name of that gentleman to an order for goods. The alleged offence was only committed a few weeks ago and as we gave a very full summary of the evidence taken before the Police Magistrate, at the time, it is not necessary to enter into details again. The prisoner pleaded not guilty. Suffice it to say that the prisoner presented an order to Messrs. Gough Bros., purporting to be signed by Mr. H. W. Watson, the painter, asking that firm to give bearer "all he requires." A suit of clothes and other articles were parcelled up, but as the prisoner wanted to get a large quantity of goods the suspicions of Messrs. Gough Bros. were aroused and they refused to let the goods go until they had heard from Mr. Watson. That gentleman at once pronounced the order a forgery and the prisoner was arrested. It then came out that on the same day he had obtained a pair of shoes from Mr. J. L. Bayeur, by using Mr. Watson's name, but not on an order. Evidence as to the prisoner's previous good character was given and the jury retired after hearing addresses from Counsel and the Judge The jury returned a verdict of guilty, with a strong recommendation to mercy.

Riddell for the crown, Stratton for the prisoner.

QUEEN v. KENNY.—The same prisoner was charged with obtaining goods under false pretences. The Crown gave no evidence and a verdict of not guilty was recorded.

QUEEN v. KENNY.—This was an indictment for attempting to procure goods with a certain forged instrument, well knowing the same to be forged. The crown offered no evidence and a verdict of not guilty was recorded.

SENTENCED.

His Lordship asked the prisoner if he had anything to say why the sentence of the court should not be pronounced upon him?

The prisoner replied that he had nothing to say.

His LORDSHIP said that the crime of forgery, of which the prisoner had been convicted, was a serious one and one that was very prevalent throughout the country. It was a very easy one to commit and the business public and others must be protected. In pronouncing sentence he would take into consideration the prisoners good conduct and character and above all the strong recommendation to mercy of the jury. If it had not been for these he would have sentenced the prisoner to a term in the penitentiary, but under the circumstances he would show leniency, even at the risk of hostile criticism, and he pronounced the judgment of the court to be that the prisoner be confined in the Central Prison for a period of 23 months and that he then be discharged.

THE GRAND JURY'S PRESENTMENT.

The Grand Jury came into court and the Foreman read the following presentment:—

To the Hon. Mr. Justice Falconbridge.

We the Grand Jurors of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, for the County of Peterborough, beg to present the following:—

1. We desire to congratulate you upon your Lordship's appointment to the high and important position to which you have been elevated, as one of the Judges of the High Court of Justice, and we trust that you may be long spared to adorn the bench with your ability.

2. We congratulate your Lordship upon the smallness of the criminal calendar upon which we are called upon to adjudge, none of the crimes being of a very serious character, and we trust that the good name which the County of Peterborough enjoys of freedom from crime may long continue.

3. We have examined the gaol and its surroundings, and find everything kept in a cleanly and neat condition. We are pleased to note that the lunatics confined in the County gaol, at the last assizes, have been removed to the Provincial asylum, where they will receive proper care and treatment. We trust that the idiots now confined in the gaol will be removed to the asylum for idiots as soon as possible. The Province is to be congratulated upon the fact that everything is being done that can be done for this unfortunate class of citizens.

4. In the gaol we have found a man named William Course who has written to us a statement, as he says that he is unable to speak without pain. He is suffering from cancer and complains that he cannot get milk. We recommend that if possible he may be removed to some institution where his case may be attended to.

5. The county is to be congratulated upon the efficiency of the gaoler and his staff. Owing to their energy and perseverance the prisoners have been utilized in improving and beautifying the county property.

All of which is humbly presented.

WM. YEELAND,
Foreman.

Peterborough, April 10th, 1888.

His Lordship in reply returned thanks for the kindly references made to himself in the address and he hoped that he would always act in such a manner as to merit and receive their confidence. He congratulated the jury upon the lightness of their duties and the efficient manner in which they had discharged their duties. He would draw the attention of the proper authorities to the presence of idiots and the case of cancer, in the gaol. In conclusion he discharged them from further attendance at the court.

AN ASSAULT CASE.

RITCHIE v. FLOOD.—An action for $1000 damages for alleged assault. The parties both reside in Ennismore, the defendant being John Flood. Mrs. Ritchie, the plaintiff, is the wife of a farmer living near the shore of Chemong Lake, near the spot where the bridge formerly landed. One evening some months ago, the plaintiff testified, the defendant and another man came to her house in the evening, when her husband was working in the shanty. They talked for a time and then left. Shortly afterwards the defendant returned alone and soon commenced to make advances towards her. He caught her by the arm and after offering her money, attempted to make her go into an adjoining room. She resisted and after picking up a chair ordered the defendant out. He then left the house. For the defence the defendant denied all the allegations made, except that he had been at the house. Dumble & Leonard, for plaintiff; Reeve, Q. C., Toronto, and John Burnham, for defendant. Judgment, verdict of $5 for defendant, with full costs as allowed by the judge.

FOR MAINTENANCE.

SWEENEY v. SWEENEY.—An action of father against son for maintenance under an agreement made 12 years ago, by which the son for a deed of a farm in Douro, agreed to pay his father $60 per year and provide him with board and maintenance during his lifetime. The son moved away to Haldimand township and the father becoming dissatisfied with his treatment left his son's house and demanded $60 per year and $2 per week to pay his board. The Judge endeavored by every possible means to get the parties to effect a settlement, but without success and the case went on. Judgment in favor of plaintiff for his demands and full costs, the defendant to pay the board money monthly and settle up at once all arrears since November last.—Dumble & Leonard for plaintiff; Hall & Hayes for defendant.

This was the last case on the docket and the court adjourned.

100,000 Eggs Wanted

at The Pantry, Highest Cash Prices. 3d83-1w15

Telephonic.

Manager Kent is making numerous changes at the telephone exchange and at the same time he is rapidly increasing the number of instruments in use. Workmen are engaged in stringing the wires for telephones at the priests' residence, near St. Peter's Cathedral, Paterson's tannery, J. Fanning's laundry and W. Denoon's butcher shop.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or otherwise 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

For Ottawa.

Five members of the civic deputation left for the capital at 11.32 this morning. The others will go down to-night.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese, W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Baby Carriages.

Messrs. W. G. Bain & Co., late Breeze & Bain, open out to-day one of the finest and largest stocks of American Baby Carriages ever brought into Peterborough, and respectfully invite the public to call and see them. 884

N.W.M.P.

Up to this afternoon fourteen men had been sworn in as members of the North-west mounted police. Several were rejected by the medical examiner, Dr. Halliday. The officers will remain at Cavanagh's hotel until Thursday.

Followed his Mother.

The Port Hope Times says:—"On Saturday night the body of the late J. Morgan Hawkins, from Peterborough, arrived and was driven to his friends several miles in the country. A day or two ago deceased's mother was buried."

Brevities.

—The Police Court calendar was a blank this morning.

—Mr. Al. Harrison, business manager of the Sawtelle Comedy Company, thinks Peterborough is the finest town in the Dominion. He is right.

—Prof. Von Waterford, a former resident of Peterborough, is musical director of the Sawtelle Company.

—Port Hope Guide:—"Mr. W. T. R. Preston intends to remove permanently to Toronto within a few weeks."

—A deputation from the Belleville City Council went to Ottawa to-day to interview the Government regarding a harbor grant —The special service in the George-st. Methodist Church last night was conducted by Mr. Powell, Mr. Wyatt and the members of the Y.P.A. An evangelistic service will be held again on Wednesday evening at 7 45.

St. Andrews Church.

A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st, on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents. 9d82-eod

POINTS About Clothing.

The highest triumph of the Tailor's art is a perfect fitting Coat. The cutting and fitting must be the work of an artist, and the making a satisfactory job. It is a delight to wear it and a moral support amidst trials to have in on.

However perfect the coat no man can be called well dressed unless his trowsers have the fit and hang which can only be given to them by a master of the line and shears. Nobody is unmindful of badly fitting trowsers with a tendency to bag at the knees. A well fitting pair of trowsers are a satisfactory garment to contemplate.

Vests must follow the coat and give a grace to the wearer's appearance. Neat, shapely and of good make.

Hats have been altered for this season and the styles are more effective than for some time.

Now the moral of these remarks, for the behoovement of gentlemen, is a good one and we want to drive it home. Order your spring suit from

T. DOLAN & CO.

ALTERATION TO

Bank of Montreal,

LINDSAY.

Tenders for the work will be received up to the 20th OF APRIL, 1888.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. E. BELCHER, C. E., Peterborough. Tenders are to be addressed

CHAS. E. L. PORTEOUS,

4d84 Manager Bank of Montreal, Lindsay.

The Pantry

is the Right Place for Choice Family Groceries. 3d83-1w15

Keep a Good Standing

in your neighborhood by being shod with good Shoes. Get them at the great shoe sale now going on at the Griffin shoe store. Bargains! fine bargains!! immense bargains!!! 3d84-1w15

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

IN GASTRITIS AND NERVOUSNESS.

Dr. W. J. Harris, Resident Physician, Good Samaritan Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., says: "It has achieved great results in several chronic cases of gastritis, and afforded great relief in very many cases of extreme nervousness resulting from debility of the digestive organs."

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to 42eod ROBERT KINGAN.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply at once to MRS. A. W. BRODIE, Dickson-st. 1d84

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS,

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

d71w1

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schools of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough lyd4w

GRAND EASTER OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear Fancy Knitting Wools, Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Fancy and other Novelties. Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

It is Absurd

For people to expect a cure for Indigestion, unless they refrain from eating what is unwholesome; but if anything will sharpen the appetite and give tone to the digestive organs, it is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Thousands all over the land testify to the merits of this medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Burroughs, of 248 Eighth street, South Boston, writes: "My husband has taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for Dyspepsia and torpid liver, and has been greatly benefited."

A Confirmed Dyspeptic.

C. Canterbury, of 141 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., writes, that, suffering for years from Indigestion, he was at last induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla and, by its use, was entirely cured.

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of High street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered for over a year from Dyspepsia, so that she could not eat substantial food, became very weak, and was unable to care for her family. Neither the medicines prescribed by physicians, nor any of the remedies advertised for the cure of Dyspepsia, helped her, until she commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "Three bottles of this medicine," she writes, "cured me."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1888.

THE "OLD MAN" PUZZLED.

MR. MULOCK'S LITTLE TRAP FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

The Session of the House Yesterday Devoted Mainly to Clearing Up the Order Paper—A Great Accumulation of Business Disposed Of—A Pathetic Appeal.

OTTAWA, April 9.—Mr. Mulock somewhat surprised the Government this afternoon by calling up the order-in-council published on Saturday placing certain articles on the free list "when imported from the United States." The proclamation distinctly says that those articles shall be admitted duty free from the United States but makes no mention of other countries. Mr. Mulock wanted to know if the Government intended to discriminate in favor of the United States as against all the rest of the world and the Mother Country in particular. He held that the act of 1879 did not give this power and that the duty when taken off at all must be taken off all round. He wanted to know if the Government had abandoned the position so strongly held during the recent debate, that they would in no sense discriminate against Great Britain.

Sir John Macdonald was considerably puzzled when this question was put to him, and held a hasty conference with Mr. Bowell and some others of his colleagues, then he arose and said that the Government had not abandoned any position. The proclamation in question had been issued in answer to an application from the United States. It was a special case and there was no intention whatever to discriminate against Great Britain. However, a new proclamation would issue including all the countries in the world from which these goods could be imported free.

The balance of the session until the adjournment at 11 to-night was devoted to clearing off the order paper, which had become very much congested owing to the long debate on the Unrestricted Reciprocity motion. There was a great accumulation of business of all kinds, but the House managed to get rid of a goodly portion of it.

At 9.30 to-night Mr. David B. Meigs, the member-elect for Missisquoi, presented himself at the eastern entrance to the chamber and Mr. Laurier and Mr. Fisher went out and took him in charge. Then Mr. Meigs was run into the House between these two gentlemen, presented to the Speaker and took his seat, being cheered, of course, by the Liberals.

Private bills Nos. 26, 77, 79 and 52 were read a third time and passed.

When the questions were reached the Minister of the Interior told Dr. Landerkin that the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. McKinnon, late physician on the Indian reserve of Brant and Haldimand, had not been filled.

Sir Hector Langevin told Sir Richard that the matter of letting the water power on the new canal near Thorold was being considered by the Government.

Mr. Cook had questions on the paper, whether the Government was going to assist Penetanguishene to build an esplanade in its harbor, complete the harbor improvements at Midland and build a postoffice at Orillia. Sir Hector said the supplementary estimates would answer these questions.

Mr. Edgar, moving for certain papers, had a good deal to say about the cost of printing the Dominion bank notes. He said last year the appropriation for this service had been $25,000, and $37,000 was spent.

Mr. Mulock made a pathetic appeal for a pension for the widow of Private Thomas Neely, late of "C" Company School of Infantry, who died in the asylum at Toronto after coming back from the Northwest rebellion. Private Neely's death was of peculiarly sad circumstances. The Minister of Militia agreed as to this and said he intended to report to his colleagues for a pension to Mrs. Neely.

Mr. Edgar got several motions through for information respecting railroads in the Northwest.

Mr. Fiset, after a twenty-minute speech, moved for a special committee to inquire into the quarantine service of Canada. The Premier asked him to withdraw the motion, promising that the Government would make any investigations that were necessary.

Mr. Laurier withdrew his motion for copies of the correspondence between the Governments of Canada and Newfoundland concerning the admission of the latter into the Confederation, as the correspondence is not yet concluded.

There was considerable of a talk on a motion of Mr. Edgar's asking for papers with reference to the wrecking laws of the United States and Canada, during which it was stated by Sir John Macdonald that the Canadian Government never prevented American wreckers from assisting in our waters in cases of actual danger or distress.

Mr. Kirkpatrick has a bill before the House which is likely to pass, dealing with this subject, and so has the American Congress.

The wind-up of the session was a debate on a resolution of Mr. Casgrain:

That it is expedient to provide for a better supervision by the Government of all the banks of the Dominion.

The mover, Mr. Innes, and Mr. Foster addressed the House in support of the motion. Mr. Casey moved the adjournment of the debate. All of the speakers condemned the present banking supervision as very faulty and defective.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

A STORY OF THESE TIMES.

CHAPTER XXX.

Sleep, even when she does get to bed, refuses to settle upon Mona's eyelids. During the rest of the long hours that mark the darkness she lies wide awake, staring upon vacancy, and thinking ceaselessly until,

"Morn, in the white wake of the morning star, Comes furrowing all the Orient into gold."

Then she rises upon her elbow, and notices how the light comes through the chinks of the shutters. It must be day indeed. The dreary night has fled affrighted; the stars hide their diminished rays. Surely

"You gray lines
That fret the clouds are messengers of day."

There is relief in the thought. She springs from her bed; clothes herself rapidly, and descends to the breakfast-room. Yet the day thus begun appears to her singularly unattractive. Her mind is full of care. She has persuaded Geoffrey to keep silence about all that last night produced, and wait, before taking further steps. But wait for what? She herself hardly knows what it is she hopes for.

She makes various attempts at thinking it out. She places her pretty hands upon her prettier brows, under the mistaken impression common to most people that this attitude is conducive to the solution of mysteries; but with no result. Things will not arrange themselves.

To demand the will from Paul Rodney without further proof that it is in his possession than the fact of having discovered by a chance a secret cupboard is absurd; yet not to demand it seems madness. To see him, to reason with him, to accuse him of it, is her one desire; yet she can promise herself no good from such an interview. She sighs as she thus seeks aimlessly to see a satisfactory termination to all her meditations.

She is distrait and silent all the morning, taking small notice of what goes on around her. Geoffrey, perplexed too in spirit, wanders vaguely from pillar to post, unable to settle to anything,—bound by Mona to betray no hint of what happened in the library some hours ago, yet dying to reveal the secret of the panel-cupboard to somebody.

Nolly is especially and oppressively cheerful. He is blind to the depression that marks Geoffrey and Mona for its own, and quite outdoes himself in geniality and all-round amiability.

Violet has gone to the stables to bestow upon her bonny brown mare her usual morning offering of bread; Jack, of course, has gone with her.

Geoffrey is nowhere just at this moment. Doatie and Nicholas are sitting hand in hand and side by side in the library, discussing their own cruel case, and wondering for the thousandth time whether—if the worst comes to the worst (of which, alas! there now seems little doubt)—her father will still give his consent to their marriage, and if so, how they shall manage to live on five hundred pounds a year, and whether it may not be possible for Nicholas to get something or other to do (on this subject they are vague) that may help "to make the crown a pound."

Mona is sitting in the morning-room, the faithful and ever-lively Nolly at her side. According to his lights, she is "worth a ship-load of the whole lot," and as such he haunts her. But to-day she fails him. She is absent, depressed, weighed down with thought,—anything but congenial. She forgets to smile in the right place, says "Yes" when courtesy requires "No," and is deaf to his gayest sallies.

When he has told her a really good story,—quite true, and all about the Æsthetic, Lady Lilias, who has declared her intention of calling this afternoon, and against whose wearing society he is strenuously warning her,—and when she has shown no appreciation of the wit contained therein, he knows there is something—as he himself describes it—"rotten in the state of Denmark."

"You are not well, are you, Mrs. Geoffrey?" he says, sympathetically, getting up from his own chair to lean tenderly over the back of hers. Nolly is nothing if not affectionate, where women are concerned. It gives him no thought or trouble to be attentive to them, as in his soul he loves them all,—in the abstract,—from the dairy-maid to the duchess, always provided they are pretty.

"You are wrong; I am quite well," says Mona, smiling, and rousing herself.

"Then you have something on your mind. You have not been your usual perfect self all the morning."

"I slept badly last night; I hardly slept at all," she says, plaintively, evading direct reply.

"Oh, well, that's it," says Mr. Darling, somewhat relieved. "I'm an awful duffer not to have guessed that Geoffrey's being out would keep you awake."

"Yes, I could not sleep. Watching and waiting destroy all chance of slumber."

"Lucky he," says Nolly, fervently, "to know there is somebody who longs for his return when he is abroad; to feel that there are eyes that will mark his coming, and look brighter when he comes, and all that sort of thing. Nobody ever cares about my coming, except to lament," says Mr. Darling, with deep regret.

"How melancholy!" says Mona, with a nearer approach to brightness than she has shown all day.

"Yes. I am not much," confesses Mr. Darling, blandly. "Others are more fortunate. I'm like 'the man in the street,' subject to all the winds of heaven. Why, it would almost tempt a man to stay away from home occasionally to know there was some one longing for his return. It would positively encourage him to dine out whenever he got the chance."

"I pity your wife," says Mona, almost severely.

"Oh, now, Mrs. Geoffrey, come—I say—how cruel you can be!"

"Well, do not preach such doctrine to Geoffrey," she says, with repentance mixed with pathos.

"I shall do only what you wish," returns he, chivalrously, arranging the cushion that adorns the back of her chair.

The morning wanes, and luncheon declares itself. When it has come to an end, Mona going slowly up the stairs to her own room is met there by one of the maids,—not her own,—who hands her a sealed note.

"From whom?" demands Mona, lazily, seeing the writing is unknown to her.

"I really don't know, ma'am. Mitchell gave it to me," says the girl in an injured tone. "Now, Mitchell is Lady Rodney's maid."

"Very good," says Mona, indifferently, after which the woman, having straightened a cushion or two, takes her departure.

Mona, sinking languidly into a chair, turns the note over and over between her fingers, whilst wondering in a disjointed fashion as to whom it can be from.

To be Continued.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

The First Week of our Big sale is over, and it was a Grand Success, the sales far exceeding our expectations, our store crowded with anxious buyers, and all were astonished at the extraordinary bargains we were offering

THE SECOND WEEK OF OUR GREAT CLOSING-OUT SALE

This week we propose to offer wonderful value in the following lines

Dress Goods, Silks, Satins, Prints, Shirtings, Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Toweling, Lace Curtains, Curtain Nets, Embroideries, Hosiery, Gloves, Corsets, Carpets and Oil Cloths, Mantles and Mantle Cloths, and Piles of Remnants at your own price. This will be a Great Week for the people to get Bargains.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the People of Peterborough and Vicinity.—We return you our most sincere thanks for the kind and liberal patronage you have bestowed on us since we bought out T. Dolan & Co., and we extend a cordial invitation to all our old customers, as well as the new ones, to call and see us and partake of some of the Great Bargains we are now offering. The Sale is now in full blast.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

MONTREAL'S MUDDY STREETS.

The Star's Cleaning Movement Inaugurated—M.P.'s With Picks.

MONTREAL, April 9.—The men and carts for which The Star advertised on Saturday were set to work at 9.30 this forenoon, and about 300 laborers and 100 carts had before 6 p.m. cleaned the greater part of the business portion of St. James-street. At 2 p.m. about 100 of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens, commanded by Lieut.-Col. Straubenzie, D.A.G., and counting among its members such men as Hon. Henry Stearnes, ex-Minister of Public Works, and at present Legislative Councillor; Hon. Peter Mitchell, M.P., J. J. Curran, M.P., Lt.-Col. Oswald, J. S. Hall, M.P.P., ex-Mayor Beaugrand, and others equally well known, assembled in The Star office and marched armed with picks to the corner of McGill and St. James-street, where at the call of the bugle and amid the cheers of the assembled multitude they began to break the ice in the street for the purpose of showing their sympathy with the movement inaugurated in the morning.

Not Aware of Any Lead Smuggling.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In answer to a resolution of the Senate calling for a statement of what precautions have been taken to prevent the unlawful importation of lead and lead ores from Mexico and Canada into the United States and what legislation is necessary to prevent the same, the Secretary of the Treasury says that as a precaution against smuggling of merchandise from Canada and Mexico officers have been appointed to constantly patrol the frontier and he was not aware that any additional legislation was necessary.

"Q" Engineers Going Back to Work.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Fifty of the old Burlington engineers have gone back to work. An assessment of $5 upon each of the 40,000 engineers and firemen belonging to the Brotherhood is to be made this week to maintain the idle strikers.

Of Interest to Gun Clubs.

OTTAWA, April 9.—Col. Tisdale is going to oppose Adam Brown's bill for the prevention of cruelty to animals as far as it refers to trap-shooting. The Colonel considers himself a thorough humanitarian but holds that there is absolutely no cruelty about trap-shooting any more than there is about fishing. The birds die an easy death and those that escape or are wounded by the original marksmen are invariably killed by the outposts. This bill is of considerable interest to the several gun clubs of Toronto.

A Sault Ste. Marie Deputation.

OTTAWA, April 9.—To-day a deputation from Sault Ste. Marie, composed of Mayor Higgins, John Cousins of the Michipicoten mines, George Marks of the Helen mines and W. F. Davidson of Port Arthur, accompanied by Mr. Lawson, Adam Brown and Mr. Masson, M.P.'s, had an interview with the Minister of the Interior. The object of the visit was to urge upon the Government to rescind the recent mineral regulations in respect to Indian lands in Algoma. They pointed out that these regulations would drive miners out of the district. Similar regulations had not been successful in any country where they had been tried, and merely revived an obsolete and impracticable order of things.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

City of Peterborough REAL ESTATE OFFICE

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter-st., is the place to buy or rent any kind of property you want.

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S NEW LIST.

50 Building Lots from $40 Up. - - - Terms easy
10 Houses and Lots - - - from $400 to $1,000
20 " " " - - from $1,000 to $2,000
15 " " " - - from $2,000 to $7,000

4 Business Stands for Sale or to Rent.
1 Livery Business, good stand, cheap.
2½ Acres Choice Garden Lot, cheap.
5 Acres Good Land, with buildings,
10 Acres with Buildings - - - only $1,500
2 Parcels of 50 Acres near town, special value,
75 Acres with Good Buildings, near Keene.

FARMS AND WILD LANDS TO SUIT ANY BUYER.

We also have for sale a Stump Machine, nearly new, at half price and a Good Working Horse on eight month's credit.

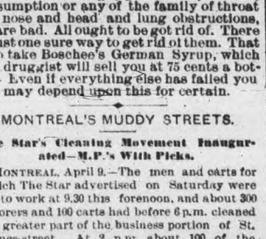
The public are requested to call or write for particulars.

T. HURLEY,

Real Estate Loan and Insurance Agency.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon

VERY CHOICE.



TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS UNSMOKED.

Wholesale and Retail.

J. W. FLAVELLE,

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsic, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St, north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d169

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR. House painting done in the latest styles, calciming, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces, Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies. Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets, lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always kept on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on Reid street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. ds2-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d81y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Landy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. daw

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN. d102w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.
E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON.

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md115w3

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d38w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital, 1884.
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th, door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d125w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 50 p m 7 00 p m 8 20 a m 10 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R. Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R. Grand Trunk, East & West do East	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 m 8 30 p m 8 20 a m 15 15 p m 10 30 a m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope. do do Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings Lakefield, including Selwyn, Bridge and	8 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 8 00 p m 1 15 p m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m	Lakehurst Fraserville & Springville	12 00 a m 11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Eanismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and
11 00 a m	Stoney Lake, daily Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m 1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays Street Letter Boxes do do do British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at Per New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	1 30 p m 7 00 a m 4 30 p m 10 00 p 7 30 p m 5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. b each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

—Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund accepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey—And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 85. PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

RUPTURED AND Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been SUCCESSFULLY adjusted by PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown
Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES
FOR
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE ATLAS Assurance Co'y., OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL
Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

BRAMPTON, Mar. 28, 1887.

MR. S. PERRIN,

DEAR SIR,—Your cough remedy, PINE TAR CORDIAL, has worked wonders here. It is the only thing that relieved my daughter of a most distressing cough and cold which settled on her lungs. I could sell it for you in this locality; would like to have the agency. Send along one-quarter gross. Yours, JOHN FRANK.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent. ROANOKE, VA.,

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

CARSLAKE'S
GRAND DERBY SWEEP
$25,000.00.

		Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000 each prize	$6,000
2nd " " "	$2,000 " "	$4,000
3rd " " "	$1,000 " "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally)	$2,000
in duplicate		$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally)	$4,500 in duplicate	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888
Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.
Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.
22d eod 4mos Mansion House, Montreal

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d85eod-w15

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

D. BELLECHEM,
Funeral Director.

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms Hunter Street, or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms. TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE.

LOTS 13, 14, 15, 16 north of Dickson-st., (Block LB) Ashburnham. Each lot is 50 feet by 200 feet. High and dry. Apply to JONN FAUCAT. 12d7

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

AT ONCE, A GOOD COOK, well experienced in housework. Good wages will be given. Apply to MRS. P. HAMILTON, George-st. d84

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. c12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d18

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister, d147-w51

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 611

NEW PARCEL EXPRESS.

Goods delivered in any part of the town promptly.

I have gone into the parcel delivery and will be at the service of the public every day from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. And on Saturdays from 2 p. m. to 10 p. m. Also trunks, parcels etc., carried to and from railway stations. Orders may be left at Hawley's tea store or Mercer's clothing store.

WM. HOOK. 6d30

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL.
2mos362-w11 Millbrook P. O

Valuable Park Lots

FOR SALE BY TENDER.

THE undersigned will receive tenders up to April 20th Inst., inclusive, for that valuable property belonging to the Estate of the Late James Howden,

composed of the following:

PARCEL 1.—That plot lying between the Agricultural show grounds on the west and the river on the east, and containing thirty-five acres, more or less.

PARCEL 2.—That park lot lying immediately south of the said Agricultural show grounds corner of George and Monaghan-sts., and containing ten acres, more or less.

PARCELS 3 and 4.—Two other park lots, lying southwest of Parcel No. 2, about one quarter of a mile.

Parties tendering will separately specify the amount tendered for each parcel.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

A plan of parcel No. 1 may be seen at the store of Mr. Henry Best, George-st., Peterborough.

This property is admirably situated for parties desiring to invest in eligible real estate of convenient proximity to town.

HENRY BEST
MATTHEW JOHNSTON, } Executors.
7d80 w

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

SCABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being botpractical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited
H. C. STABLER. 1yd88 JAS. R. DONELL.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1888.

THE MERCIER BANQUET

The Occasion of a Demonstration on the Part of the Premier's Followers.

MONTREAL, April 11.—The annual banquet of the Club Nationale this evening was both a success and a disappointment. It was a success in point of numbers, being the largest gathering in the interest of the Liberal party for many years, principally because the dinner took the form of a demonstration in honor of Premier Mercier and his Cabinet, but it was a disappointment because the expected disclosures of his program by Premier Mercier didn't materialize.

Laurier St. Jean, President of the Club, which is composed of the most radical of Quebec Liberals, occupied the chair and among those seated at the banquet table were Premier Mercier and the whole of his incomplete Cabinet, Sir Richard Cartwright, J. D. Edgar, who did not come about gas this time, Peter MacDonald of East Huron, the Langelier brothers of Quebec, Col. Amyot, Sir A. P. Caron's fireating foe, Mr. Prefontaine, M.P., Mr. Casgrain, M.P., and all the Rouge aldermen of the city.

After the usual loyal toasts, which were not omitted this time as they were at the celebrated banquet at which Mr. Blake was present some years ago, Mr. Mercier arose to reply to the toast of "The Local Government," and spoke nearly four hours, precluding the possibility of the visiting Liberals speaking at the length contemplated. The Premier after reviewing the circumstances by which he gained office said that the attempt made to arouse the Protestant population against his cabinet would fail, and at great length tried to show that he was a truer friend of the minority in this Province than the Conservatives. He declared that Quebec would claim 200,000 square miles of the northeast territory awarded her by the Privy Council, gloated over the success of the recent Provincial Conference, and announced that both the Irish and Protestant sections of the population would be represented in the Government before the opening of the Local House in the middle of May. He gave a history of the recent loan, which he claimed was the greatest financial success in the history of the province, and secured moderate terms. These are the principal points of his speech, which was not concluded until after midnight.

When Sir Richard Cartwright rose there was great enthusiasm. He apologised for the absence of Mr. Laurier owing to his duties at Ottawa, and took opportunity at some length to air his views of Unrestricted Reciprocity but said nothing new.

Speeches were also made by Mr. Ed[illegible] and a majority of the leaders mentioned in the introduction to this despatch.

COALS AND COFFINS.

Clarke Wallace's Combine Committee Continue Their Investigations.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Coals and coffins were talked about at Clarke Wallace's Combine Committee this morning. George F. Hart of Montreal was first examined. This gentleman is the agent there of the Delaware and Hudson Coal Company, and sells their coal to such of the retail dealers as favor his company. Up to about a year ago business had been done in a promiscuous way in Montreal, every man being for himself, but an association was then formed to regulate the prices and make rules governing the business. This was the coal section of the Board of Trade, to join which an admission fee of $100 had to be paid. After its formation he sold coal at trade price to no dealer not a member. The aim of the association was to fix the price of coal at such a figure that the retail dealers should have a profit of 50 cents. The wholesale price had ranged from $7.74 in May to $5.91 in November, and the retail prices from $5.50 to $7 between the same dates, but the office and other expenses, Mr. Hart said, made the profits not more than 50 cents.

A London coal dealer, William Bowman, a prominent citizen who ran for mayor this year, but, like his fellow dealer, Mr. Rogers of Toronto, got left, was next examined. His evidence showed that since the coal exchange has been formed in London the number of dealers has gone up from ten to eighteen, who handle between them 15,000 or 20,000 tons of hard coal and rather more than that quantity of soft. He found the cost of handling to be about 70 cents per ton exclusive of office expenses, and he claimed that the whole profits did not average more than 30 cents a ton. The highest price at which he had sold coal this year was $7, and though a move had been made to raise it he had opposed the increase because if the profits were made too large more people would want to go into the business. None of the eighteen now selling coal were exclusively in that business. The London exchange puts up civic and similar contracts to auction amongst the members, the price having first been fixed. Two hundred dollars in premiums was realized last year on these contracts so served out. The Ontario Government contract, which as usual Mr. Bowman got, was not interfered with by the exchange and he took it at $4.95. The retail price for egg coal, that stipulated in the contract, was then $6.30, but it was a slack time of year, the horses and carts being idle.

The undertakers' combine was next considered. Samuel Rogers of Ottawa being examined. He stated that the organization in Ontario was formed about four years ago about 260 members being present at the inaugural meeting held in Toronto. The manufacturers would furnish supplies only to members of the association, but no attempt was made to exercise further control or to regulate the prices charged the public by the undertakers. No new members would be admitted without the consent of a majority of those already established in his immediate district.

An epicure is never known by the way he tucks his napkin under his chin before eating, or calling for a cup of tea in the middle of the meal.

THE FISHERIES TREATY.

SIR CHARLES DISCUSSES THE SUBJECT FOR FIVE HOURS.

A Strong and Eloquent Speech—Canada Holds Her Own—The Trade Proposals—Some Puzzling Statements—The Bill to Give Effect to the Treaty.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Sir Charles had the floor to-day and he held it for over five hours, telling the House all about the fisheries treaty and the circumstances which preceded its consummation. He also introduced for a second reading the bill which is to give effect to the treaty, which the act says may be cited as the "Treaty of Washington of 1888."

Sir Charles was in good form after his recent illness and he spoke strongly and at times quite eloquently. There was a great deal that was historical, a great deal that was technical and a great deal that was interesting in the speech, and it was listened to with rapt attention by the House. If Sir Charles health continues as robust as it appears at present the Budget may be looked for in a few days. Sir Richard Cartwright is at Montreal to-night attending the Nationalist banquet and there is no doubt he will learn with regret that Sir Charles made his treaty speech during the Kingston Knight's absence.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER.

Sir Charles devoted over an hour to reviewing the Treaty of Paris of 1783 which was abrogated by the war of 1812, the Treaty of 1818, the Treaty of 1854 and latterly the Treaty of 1871, all of which ended in rupture. Although all these treaties had been given effect at various times, yet for over 100 years the matter of the international fisheries had been one of irritation between the Governments of Great Britain and the United States and the people of North America, "and with all this irritation," said Sir Charles, "there was no part of Her Majesty's domains that was so deeply interested in the settlement of this fish question as Canada and Newfoundland."

The historical part of the speech dealing with the four treaties named was of much interest to the House, being freely interpolated with statistics and records from various sources, recalling to the names of many great men who had played prominent parts in the construction of these international covenants. Sir Charles looked upon it as a great commercial mistake, the abrogation of the treaty of 1854, which, he said, was the most satisfactory of any of the treaties between Canada and the United States. This abrogation was brought about by a mistaken idea that during the civil war in the United States all the sympathy of Canada and Canadians was thrown in with the South. This was a great mistake, for ten of our own countrymen fought on the side of the North to every one that was found in the Confederate ranks.

Sir John Macdonald: "Yes, and twenty."

Sir Charles then proceeded to say that ever since the treaty of 1854 was broken both of the great political parties in this country had been contending for its practical resurrection or for a policy that would give t. freest intercourse between the two countries of their natural products. Sir Charles has made this statement with emphasis on more than one occasion this session, and both sides of the House are beginning to wonder just exactly what he means. The leader of the Government carefully avoids making any similar announcement with the same unguarded freedom that the Minister of Finance does. The Liberals are particularly exercised every time they hear the Finance Minister make this assertion in the House.

Sir Charles next had a good deal to say about the Treaty of Halifax, with its award of $5,500,000 to Canada by the Commissioners. The speaker rung in this point to show that all through these years of irritation Canada managed to hold its own, that she was holding her own now and that she would continue to hold her own under the terms of the new treaty if it were adopted by the United States Senate, the Legislature of Newfoundland and the Parliament of Canada. The speaker then went on to describe the conference at Washington, the personnel of the commission and the efforts that were made by the English plenipotentiaries to see how far the American envoys would go in opening out the trade relations of Canada and the United States. He told the House, as he told it on a previous occasion, that all the overtures of the English commissioners were met by a categorical refusal to discuss the tariff, the American commissioners putting in the contention that Congress alone had the power to deal with the tariff.

"We were prepared," continued Sir Charles, "to give the Government of the United States the fullest opportunity of seeing just how far they would go. The air had been full of Commercial Union rumors, and we were anxious to see what they meant. I found plenty of men in Washington who were willing and anxious to discuss Commercial Union, but all allusions to Unrestricted Reciprocity were treated with scorn. Commercial Union would give Canada to the United States; that was the reason why every one I met in Washington was willing to discuss it. I found without a doubt, that the policy of the Government of the United States was about as near the policy of our own Government as it possibly could be."

Sir Charles next proceeded to remind the House that every word he might say in support of the treaty, which he held was so advantageous to Canada, would be used against the treaty in the discussion in the United States Senate. The course he (Sir Charles) had adopted was to secure the best advantages possible to Canada. He also entered fully into the question of delimitations marked out by the treaty, and said he was sorry that he could not lay before the House a chart of these jurisdictional waters, as had been suggested by Mr. Jones of Halifax. The work was being done by the two English commissioners and would be placed on the British Admiralty charts, and would be in the possession of the Government at a future day. The minister then described at length the clauses of the treaty dealing with delimitations. No American vessel could fish within three miles of the shore, nor could an American vessel enter a bay whose width was not more than ten miles. The American contention had always been for six miles, but they had induced the commissioners to make this ten miles in the treaty.

At this point Sir Charles and Peter Mitchell got into a controversy over certain clauses of the treaty, and mention was freely made of events that had occurred when the Hon. Peter was Minister of Marine and Fisheries before he quarreled with Sir John. A few lively passages took place between the two statesmen of which this is a sample:

Sir Charles: "I have no fault to find with you in your public capacity, it is in your private capacity."

Mr. Mitchell: "Do you think there is much difference between us in that respect?"

The little tilt caused a good deal of amusement in the House. Sir Charles offered a qualifying remark which the members of the press gallery were not quick enough to catch. Sir Charles then went into an elaborate explanation of the treaty from beginning to end, taking it up clause by clause. As he passed from one clause to the other he contended all along the line that Canada held her own and that the treaty had been kind and considerate to her in all its dealings. The speaker followed this explanation by calling up the contingency of the rejection of the treaty by the United States Senate.

"It is not improbable that that body may reject the treaty," said Sir Charles, "but what if they do? Are we in any worse position than we were a year ago? Then we were face to face with a non-intercourse bill, now we have it emphatically stated by the Secretary of State and the President of the United States that Canada has made an arrangement with the United States that is fair, and equitable and just. If the fishermen make complaints in the future and the treaty is rejected it could be said that the Senate of the United States, with its Republican majority of one, is alone responsible for it."

During the course of his remarks Sir Charles made the statement that it was at the suggestion of Erastus Wiman that he visited Washington at the Easter of 1887 and had a long talk with Secretary Bayard about the commercial relations between Canada and the United States.

Sir Charles speech, while a very able one, was somewhat of a puzzle to many supporters of the Government, and also to the Liberals. Especially were his references to international trade outside of the treaty altogether.

The bill which he introduced to give effect to the treaty had fourteen clauses which are in the main worded similarly to the clauses of the treaty itself.

Mr. Davies of Prince Edward Island followed Sir Charles for over an hour, and during his remarks he charged the Government with going back on their former fiscal policy. He said that under the circumstances they ought to resign. Mr. Davies had a great deal to say against the treaty and its construction.

The Minister of Justice followed in reply until 12.55 when the House adjourned. The minister made an eloquent speech in defence of the fairness of the treaty, which he said was as honorable and fair as any two honorable countries could construct.

Mr. Jones of Halifax moved the adjournment of the debate.

ELECT THEIR OWN SPEAKER.

Senator Alexander Creates a Laugh Among His Staid Old Colleagues.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Hon. Mr. Alexander gave notice in the Senate to-day that he would move that the British North America Act be amended so as to enable members of the Senate to elect their own speaker. A smile, such as meets all of Mr. Alexander's characteristic hits, passed around the Chamber and lost itself amid the drapery of the throne.

There were no less than two divisions in the Senate to-day. The first was on a motion to adopt the report of the Standing Orders Committee, which recommended that Catherine Morrison be allowed to sue in forma pauperis for a divorce from her husband. The report was adopted by a majority of 18. The next division, which took place just before the House arose, was on a motion by Mr. Alexander to leave over the consideration of the report of the special committee appointed to frame new rules for divorce. The motion was defeated.

Senator O'Donohoe's long delayed motion for a return showing the cost to the country of the Governor-General's office was put and carried.

In answer to Dr. Schultz's inquiry as to whether the Government intended to establish the Manitoba Experimental Farm during the coming spring, Mr. Abbott said that the Government were considering the matter.

The bill for the relief of Mary Matilda White was read a second time.

The Mackenzie River Committee.

OTTAWA, April 10.—When Senator Schultz' Mackenzie River Committee met this morning samples of Russian cereals from within and near the Arctic circle were placed on the table by the chairman and attracted considerable attention. The examination of James Anderson was resumed. He gave information regarding the navigable portion of the Liard River and its branches, also the climate and the productions of that region. This river and the Great Mackenzie, he said, were open on May 9 and were still open on Oct. 5, with no appearance of ice, thus showing the navigation in this far region to have been open for five months, a fact of great importance should it be known, he added, that sea going vessels can reach the mouth of the Mackenzie through Behring Sea.

The Busy Railway Committee.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Sir Hector Langevin's busy Railway Committee met again this morning. At Dr. Ferguson's request the bill incorporating the Winter Bridge Company, which is to build a bridge across the Detroit River at Detroit for use exclusively in winter, was allowed to stand until next Tuesday. Dr. Ferguson explained that W. K. Muir of Detroit and Wm. Hendrie of Hamilton would appear before the committee in support of the bill on that day. John Page, chief engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, sent in a letter in opposition to the bridge.

The bill to incorporate the Ottawa and Parry Sound Railway, which is to extend from Renfrew to Parry Sound, a distance of 150 miles, after being pared and cut up into mince meat was ordered reported. The company is composed almost exclusively of Ottawa men. The amount of the capital stock was increased to $700,000, and the road it built at all will have to be commenced inside of two years and finished in five.

The bill incorporating the Montreal Island Railway was ordered reported. This road will form a belt line around the Island of Montreal.

Mr. Rowand's bill to amend the act of incorporation of the Kincardine and Teeswater Railway, was further amended and reported.

Easter cards and souvenirs are already temptingly exposed for sale.

LATE LONDON CHRONICLES

THE QUEEN'S PLANS FOR RETURNING TO ENGLAND UNSETTLED.

Mr. Gladstone Not Well—Presents for the Prince and Princess of Wales—The Truth About Ireland—Mr. Ritchie's Learning and Application.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Edmund Yates' cable to The Tribune says: The Queen's plans for returning to England are all unsettled, and now it is uncertain whether Her Majesty will go to Germany. The Queen will probably prolong her stay at the Villa Palmieri till Monday week. Nothing has yet been decided about the two Drawing Rooms which Her Majesty is to hold at Buckingham Palace next month.

Mr. Gladstone, who has been visiting Lord and Lady Aberdeen, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Flower and the Warden of Keble during recess, is by no means well. He suffered from the exceptionally cold weather which prevailed during his stay at Florence, and has been much tried by the severe spring. Mr. Gladstone will be as much out of town as possible during the rest of the session, and will only take part in parliamentary work when really wanted. Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Flower's party at Aston Clinton, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone during Easter week, included Lord and Lady Herschell, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Brett, George Russell, Mr. Henry James and Mrs. Dugdale.

The Prince and Princess of Wales received four silver wedding deputations in the new ball room at Sandringham on Easter Monday. Kingslynn sent six of its notables, headed by the Mayor and Recorder, who presented a silver model of the well-known Greyfriars Tower. Then came eight from Norwich, including Sir Harry Bullard and Mr. Coleman, M.P., who offered a beautiful salt of silver-gilt, a replica of the one presented to the city in 1868 by Peter Reade; also two silver flagons. The tenantry on the Sandringham estate, represented by six of their number, presented a posthorn of silvergilt, with a collar, shoe and bit surrounding the timepiece. Then came a deputation of the estate laborers and employes, who presented a silver punch-bowl. Luncheon was given to the members of the deputations in the large dining-room at which Sir Dighton Probyn presided.

The Parnellites declare that freedom of speech and liberty of the press are in abeyance in Ireland. Mr. Balfour, on the other hand, avers that the platform is unchecked and the press licentious in freedom. If any one doubts on which side the truth lies I recommend him to read the Mitchelstown orations of Mr. William O'Brien and Mr. "Tim" Healy, as reported in Saturday's United Ireland.

Few people can have an adequate conception of the work which Mr. Ritchie has accomplished during the past eighteen months. His masterly exposition of the various provisions of the Local Government bill and the complicated matters with which it deals, indicates little or nothing of the toil and study which alone could enable him to make it. He is the first to acknowledge the invaluable assistance which he has received from Secretary Walter Long. Mr. Ritchie talks to you of county councils, decentralization, and other kindred subjects, just as lucidly as of a line of engravings, Schliee's poetry, or Scotch history. Sounds of music float now and again down the broad staircase to his study, for Mr. Ritchie is the happy father of seven musical daughters, who are, like their mother, equally devoted to art, harmony and the cause of the Primrose League.

If British sculpture be not adequately represented at the forthcoming exhibitions the fault will not rest with the sculptors, who have been uncommonly active during the past year. Mr. Woolner will contribute casts of two statues of heroic size. Mr. Boehm has been busy on the soldiers who support the base of the new Wellington monument in Hyde Park. If they go to the R.A. they will remind some irreverent onlookers of certain figures in the defunct "Ruddigore." He has also a bust of Mr. Froude, and another of his neighbor and confrere, Mr. Alfred Gilbert.

Mr. Whistler, I am sorry to hear, has been a sufferer from the intense cold. He was forced to leave work some little while ago. So it is doubtful if he will have anything in the London Galleries this spring. He was enabled before his illness to attend to his exhibitions abroad. He will be well represented both at Paris and Munich.

The latest fad is what is called a loose drill, a sort of arrangement for disorganizing and converting battalions in action into rabbles with the object, presumably, of making them look bigger than they are. What with young soldiers, lax discipline, and loose drill combined, the British commander of the future will have no gay time of it when called upon to lead our now world-renowned first and only army corps into action. But even the loose drill has its advantages. It will facilitate movements to the rear. Might we not stay our hands a little, though, and organize our army before adopting measures for its demoralization in the field?

A Victim of Epilepsy.

NIAGARA FALLS, April 10.—Mrs. Kessler, the lady who was taken ill last night and suddenly became unconscious on the Grand Trunk Railway train en route from Toronto to Jersey City, passed a bad night. At times she would recover partially for a few minutes, and would rave about her friends and family, and would persist in getting up, and had to be held down in bed by main force. Her friends in Jersey City were telegraphed for. An answer came back this morning asking after her welfare and saying that friends would leave at once to take care of her. It also stated that she was subject to epileptic fits.

The modern sandwich has the crust of the bread removed, and at very few places is it "filling for the price."

There were five fair sisters, and each had an aim:
Flora would feign be a fashionable dame,
Scholarly Susan's selection was books,
Coquettish Cora cared more for good looks,
Anna, ambitious, aspired after wealth,
Sensible Sarah, sought first for her health

and recommended her other sisters to try the La Parisienne Corset, which is certainly as good as any $1.25 corset in Peterborough.

Ladies, you can get the famous La Parisienne Corset for 99c. per pair at

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

PARALYZERS

The rush for Silks and Satin Mervs is wonderful. Just fancy, Pure Silk Merveilleaux for 50c. per yard. We take the lead and are determined to keep it. To arrive in a few days, hundreds of pieces of Ribbons purchased from the wholesale Bankrupt Stock of McMaster & Co., and all to be Sold at 5c. per yard at

ROWSE'S ·:· GREAT ·:· BARGAIN ·:· HOUSE

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given the student who attains the highest general rosficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, i n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

—o—

HALL, INNE S & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths. New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

—o—

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1888.

BUCKET SHOPS.

The bill introduced into Parliament by the Hon. Mr. Abbott to check the operations of the gambling institutions known as bucket shops has met with almost unanimous approval. Many persons in Canada have lost money by both United States and Canadian bucket shops, and sometimes their operations have been carried on crookedly. Even, however, when crookedness is not alleged, the "business" is a kind of gambling, though heretofore it has not been prohibited by law.

But the Dominion Government has taken the matter in hand and, by Mr. Abbott's bill, proposes to place in the category of prohibited gambling all stock or produce operations where no actual delivery is made or contemplated. The provisions of the bill will not interfere with legitimate transactions in stocks or produce, and will not effect proper dealings on exchanges. It may be true that purchases are made and the goods delivered on exchanges in a spirit of speculation akin to gambling, the purchaser buying with the idea of selling at an increase, but such transactions will not be effected and it is difficult to see how they could, or even why they should be prevented by law. But the bucket shop operations, where pure gambling is the business of the concerns, no delivery of the articles being intended or wished, will be prohibited. The almost universal approval with which the bill is received shows a healthy state of the public mind.

DOMINION FINANCES.

The financial statements published in the Canada Gazette of Saturday show that the Dominion expenditure is being kept well within the revenue and that the public debt has been reduced. The receipts and expenditure for the present fiscal year up to the end of February showed a surplus of $558,466. During March this sum was increased by $1,480,560, and the surplus on March 31st was $2,039,026.

During February the net public debt was reduced by $619,136, and in March a further reduction of $1,173,693 was made. At the same time there has been expended upon capital account during the year, up to the end of March, the sum of $3,666,542.

These statements, published monthly, give the people each month a correct idea of the finances of the Dominion. Would it not be well if the Ontario Government would give a full statement, at least yearly, and have it published in the Provincial Accounts?

MISCELLANEOUS.

Adam never worried Eve by talking about his mother's cooking, and yet they found something to fall out about.

It is said that there are some species of fish that can live in hot water A great many men are always living so.

Rightnow is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all druggists, 50 cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

At Mark-st. Church.

The young people of the Mark-st. Methodist church, Ashburnham, held a very successful social at the Parsonage on Tuesday evening. This church has acquired such a reputation for the excellence of its entertainments, that nothwithstanding the unfavorable weather quite a large number were present, who spent a very pleasant evening. The following was the programme:—

1 Song.....Hunting Chorus.....The Choir
2 Song......"Flee as a Bird"....Mr. Baguley
3 Recitation. "Shadow on the Blind". Mrs. J. [Weir
4 Song. "Pulling Hard Against the Steam". [Mr. H. S. Armstrong
5 Recitation. "The Soldiers Letter". Mr. Gar- [dam Wilson
6 Duet....."The Pilot Brave". .Messrs. Arm- [strong and Baguley Intermission.
7 Quartette. "Beautiful River", Misses Annie [and Emma Smith, and Messrs. Armstrong [and Baguley
8 Reading.....Miss Annie Wilson
9 Song. "Pass Under the Rod". Mr. Baguley
10 Piccolo Solo.....Mr. Occomore
11 Song. "Never Forget the Dear Ones"...Mr. [Armstrong
12 Chorus....."Good Night".....Choir

During the intermisaion refreshments were served, provided by the young ladies of the church, who fully sustain their reputation in this respect. The proceeds more than realized the expectations of the committee, and the young people are to be congratulated on the success which has attended the first church social under their exclusive management.

If you have a cold, cough, bronchitis, or any form of throat or lung disease, do not neglect it. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, if promptly taken, will speedily relieve and cure all ailments of this character.

County Scott Act.

County Police Magistrate Edmison held a court on Tuesday to dispose of some Scott Act cases. The second offence against Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien, of Indian River, was enlarged until Monday next. Mr. Geo. Lipsett, of Ashburnham, pleaded guilty to a second charge and was fined the customery $100 and costs. On Monday next a case against a Keene hotel man will also come up.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

Frederick's Benevolence.

BERLIN, April 10.—The Emperor yesterday handed 40,000 marks from the privy purse to Herr Achenbach, the head of the Relief Committee, who accompanied the Empress to Posen to enquire into the distress by the floods. The money is to be used for the relief of the sufferers. Emperor Frederick, though strong enough to attend to all State affairs, has coughed rather more than usual the last few nights and there is a slight swelling in his throat. He feels stronger to-day and his appetite is good.

A Parnellite Measure.

LONDON, April 10.—Timothy Healey, Mr. Biggar and other Parnellite members introduced in the House of Commons last night a bill providing that in applications made under the Land Act the Land Court shall consider the tenants' improvement, and shall not make any rent payable thereon, but the fact of landlords forbearing to charge rents on improvements shall not be deemed as a compensation therefor, unless there is an express contract to that effect.

The Markham Baseball Club.

MARKHAM, April 10—The Markham Baseball Club held a meeting last night for the purpose of reorganizing. The following officers were elected: Hon. President, Capt. Rolph; President and Manager, R. A. Mason; Vice-President, T. H. Speight; Secretary and Treasurer, J. Van Hamm; Captain, Jas. Hewitt. The secretary will be pleased to hear from all amateur clubs throughout Canada for the purpose of arranging dates.

Spots of Sport.

Pitcher Donohue of Syracuse has signed an agreement to play with the Stars.

It is said that Devine and Humphries have been engaged as a battery for the new co-operative nine of Syracuse.

The New York outfield will almost surely be made up of Slattery, Foster and Tiernan.

Arthur Upham defeated Jimmy Nelson in a sixteen-round fight on Monday night at Andover, Mass., for $500. Both men were badly used up.

The Financial and Legal Baseball Club is reorganizing for the coming season. A meeting of the club will be held to-morrow evening at the Queen's Hotel at 8 o'clock, for the election of officers and other business.

Son Purvis, catcher of the Hamiltons, left here yesterday to report at the Ambitious City.

Emil Geiss, the pitcher, who was claimed by both London and New Orleans, has telegraphed to President Hobbs that he will start for London at once.

The batting and fielding averages of the International teams are:

	Bat.	Field.		Bat.	Field.
London	.365	.859	Syracuse	.343	.929
Toronto	.349	.915	Rochester	.330	.940
Buffalo	.343	.929	Albany	.327	.909
Hamilton	.343	.913	Troy	.324	.883

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

Campbell's Cathartic Compound

IT CURES LIVER COMPLAINT, BILIOUS DISORDERS, BAD STOMACH, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

BRANDON, Man., 31st Oct., 1886.—I find Campbell's Cathartic Compound the best article I have ever used for costiveness or biliousness, and easy to take. I am, yours truly, A. S. McDONALD.

Sold by dealers in family medicines everywhere. 25c. per bottle.

Cricket.

The following letter addressed to the Sporting Editor appears in the Empire, of Tuesday:—SIR,—Kindly allow me to say that the Peterborough Cricket Club has been so thoroughly re-organized during the last two weeks that they will be in a position this season to accommodate any and all first-class cricket clubs with matches. We want to measure our strength with the very best, and we are in hopes that those who have the making of the arrangements for the visit of the American team, as well as the Irish, Scotch and English, will place these teams in Peterborough for two days' matches. We claim that for the honor of our country and the noble game this should be done, because we will place in the field as fine a cricket combination as can be produced.

We will have the old reliable Sam Ray, who, as a batsman, cannot be be beaten in Canada, and his brother Hugh, a very promising all-round cricketer. We will also have the well-known C. J. Logan, a name familiar to all cricketers, and who is death on wickets; and then we have Stratton, Rutherford, Rodgers and "Max" Hamilton, all familiar names to Canadian cricketers, and last but not the least in this strong combination is our professional, Day, who comes to us highly recommended as a first-class all-round player.

Let me add in conclusion that our ground is all that could be desired for good cricket, and we have a club that knows how to treat its guests in a sportsmanlike manner; consequently I trust that in reply to this method of advertising our cricket club, we will have a goodly number of applications for dates. All applications addressed to P. O. Box 232 will be promptly answered.

Yours, etc.,
SECRETARY.

Peterborough, April 7.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with catarrh. This disagreeable disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the GREAT MODERN REMEDY. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are so often afflicted with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts. 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle.

WHY DOES A YOUNG MAN WANT A GOOD WIFE?

Because he is married for a lifetime.

JOHN McNAUGHTON

The reliable Boot and Shoe dealer, has just opened out a large stock of goods from the celebrated makers, Messrs. Cooper & Smith, Toronto. Any person buying any goods made by the firm which contain paper insoles, paper stiffeners or cloth insoles, can have $5 for each pair upon furnishing satisfactory proof to me. These goods are all hand-made and marked in plain figures. I do not sell for cost, but I am satisfied with a fair profit and it will pay the public to call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Repairing done neatly, expeditiously and cheap for cash.

JOHN McNAUGHTON,
corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune-sts.
6d86eod-2w15

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

EXTENSIVE
AUCTION SALE
OF Town Property
ON FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, that handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts., with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,
Barrister, Water-st., or to
C. STAPLETON,
Auctioneer. 6d82-1w1

GRAND EASTER OPENING
—OF THE NEW—
Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.
MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING
—AND—
GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS
GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers
GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,
THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

The man in the moon has one advantage over his terrestrial brothers. The fuller he gets the more brilliant he grows.

A. CLEGG.
Leading Undertaker.
WARE ROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

READ
T. HURLEY'S
Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at his office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

JACKSON & CO.
Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.
Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.
PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES, tuned and repaired.
Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos. Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card d15eod-w49-3m

THE RUSH STILL CONTINUES
at the Great Sale of BANKRUPT STOCK
—AT—
SULLIVAN'S OLD STAND

We have placed on our bargain counter, a special consignment of Silk and Satin Merveilleaux bought at 50c. on the dollar. This lot consists of handsome black Gros Grain Silk, beautiful Satin Merveilleaux and elegant black and colored Surah Satins. This is a chance for every lady to secure a handsome Silk or Satin dress at about half price. Come and see them.

P. D. DORAN,
No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK
THE GREAT BANKRUPT STOCK EMPORIUM.

SPECIAL.—We have also received a special consignment of Black and White Spanish beaded-all-over Laces.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED
POWDER
Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations
THE COOK'S FRIEND
For sale by all Grocers.
After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.
BAKING
It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

WORKING JEWELLER.
E. B. D. LAFLEUR.
JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental

MASON'S

Prompt Service,

Best Value. If Strict Attention,

Purity of Goods,

are any considerations in your buying come to

W. J. MASON,

The Family Grocery, George-st.

DELIGHTED !

THE FIRST DAY OF OUR MILLINERY OPENING IS OVER AND WE CAN TRULY SAY IT WAS A GRAND SUCCESS. LADIES ARE LOUD IN THEIR PRAISES OF THE ELEGANT GOODS DISPLAYED BY US THIS SEASON. NEVER ON AN OPENING DAY DID WE TAKE AS MANY ORDERS OR HEAR AS MANY COMPLIMENTARY THINGS SAID. WE SHALL DO ALL IN OUR POWER TO MAKE THIS SEASON'S MILLINERY WORTHY OF THE INSPECTION OF EVERY LADY BUYER. OPENING CONTINUES EVERY DAY THIS WEEK.

H.S. Griffin & Co

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 & w8

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

West and north-west winds, fresh or strong during the day; fair and mild weather.

Never Mind the Weather

though the day outside may be wet and cheerless. There is a bright side to this state of affairs. That bright side is our millinery rooms. Gay and pretty are the countless novelties, bright and attractive are the stylish goods. Goods of saucy roughishness, goods of pretty plainess, knots and bunches of brightness on sober grounds. Ladies say they are delighted with the display, and well they may. We have ransacked the wholesale marts for the best and the best is here—at the golden lion. Our millinery rooms are open and we invite inspection.

The School Examinations.

The Ontario education department has issued the following notice regarding examinations for teachers' certificates:—Third class examinations will be held from the 3rd to the 8th of July, second class from the 8th to the 10th, and the first class grade C from from the 10th to the 13th of the same month. The examinations for the third and second class certificates will be held in the high schools and collegiate institutes throughout the province. Candidates for grades A or B will be examined at Toronto University, and candidates for grade C at Guelph, Hamilton, Kingston, London, Ottawa and Toronto. Candidates must notify authorities of their intention of writing not later than May 24.

Still Very Popular.

The Toronto Mail of the 4th inst. says in reference to Mrs. Scott-Siddons:—"If proof were necessary of the sustained popularity in Toronto of Mrs. Scott-Siddons or of the good impression made by her in December last, it would be amply found in the magnificent reception accorded her on her return visit last night. The programme was well chosen and well arranged, there being a fair variety in a select range of subjects. A new feature of her programme was the piano playing of Mr. Henry Waller, her adopted son, who will be remembered as the Boy Pianist, Seraphael, of a few years ago. Mr. Waller has but recently come to this continent from London, England." This distinguished and accomplished artiste will give an entirely new programme with new costumes, Opera House, Peterborough, on Monday, 16th April, at popular prices. The plan of the hall is at Hartley's. Tickets for sale at several stores. Mrs. Siddons sails for England early in May. You will not likely ever hear her again.

Your Possible Wants

no doubt include new shoes. You get them cheaply at the great sale now going on at the Griffin shoe store, Hunter-st. Rare bargains in all lines. The best and most seasonable lines selling rapidly. 3d84-1w15

A Bouquet of enchanting sweetness—"Lotus of the Nile" Perfume.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

5 lbs of Choice Japan Tea for $1 at The Pantry. 3d83-1w15

Hand Picked Apples

Just received at the Palace Grocery. Another supply of apples in barrels.

Civic.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee of the Town Council and the Special Committee on Sewerage are called to meet on Friday evening.

Cocker Spaniel Puppies

for sale. Liver and white and dotted. All beauties, thoroughbred stock. Address "O. L.," box 558, Lindsay. 3d85-1w15

Bargains Still Booming

at the Griffin shoe store. You can fit yourself out with neat foot wear for very little money. Rubbers, Slippers and children's Shoes in great variety. 3d84-1w15

Sanitary.

The town buildings are in a most unsatisfactory sanitary condition and it is high time that the authorities took the proper steps to place them in a proper condition. As it is now they are positively dangerous to the health of those who are obliged to remain in them for any length of time.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

The Bricklayers.

A meeting of the bricklayers of the town was held at the K. of L. Hall, Water-st., on Tuesday evening to consider the question of forming a union. It was agreed that a union would be in the interest of the workmen. After matters were talked over in a general way, the meeting adjourned until Tuesday evening next, when a gentleman from Hamilton will be on hand to properly organize the union and instal the officers.

Accidents.

A young man named Albert Jones, employed in Mr. P. Hamilton's foundry, had one of his legs severely scalded on Tuesday afternoon. He was standing on one of the hot water troughs when he slipped and fell. ....On Tuesday Mr. David Woodhead, employed at Brodie's woollen mill, while assisting the workmen in the dye house, attempted to place a on a wheel. In doing so his right arm was caught and broken a short distance below the elbow.

R. C. C. C.

The annual general meeting of the representative committee of the Ontario branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club was held on Tuesday afte noon in the Walker House, Toronto. Vice-President Robert Ferguson, M. P. P., of Thames, was in the chair. Dr. Boucher represented Peterborough and Mr. J. S. Russell, Keene. The annual election of officers will take place at the autumn meeting.

Run In.

An old man from Emismore, named Michael Shannahan, was in town on Tuesday attending the assizes. He got on a whirl and made things remarkably lively on George-st. about eight o'clock in the evening. Officer Stewart requested him to desist. He refused and was arrested. He resisted all the way to the police station and was only landed after a hard tussle. This morning he pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs or ten days in gaol. He had no money and was sent up on the hill

St. John's At Home.

The At Home at St. John's Sunday School room on Tuesday evening was a success despite the rain. The attendance was good and a handsome sum was realized from the sale of tickets. Mr. F. J. Lewis presided and all the performers acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner. An interesting feature was the series of tableaux vivants, in which a number of the young people took part. All were good, but in the opinion of many the bridal scene by Miss M. Beck and Mr. Charters was the best. Refreshments were served during the evening by the ladies. The following was the programme:—

PART I.

Orchestra ..... Selected
Song ..... Mrs. H. C. Stapleton
Piano Duet ..... Mesdames Lewis and Dunsford
Song ..... Mr. Jaques
Vocal solo ..... Miss Cottingham

PART II.

Orchestra ..... Selected
Piano Duet "The Sleigh Bells" ..... Misses [Wrighton and Errett
Reading ..... Mr. Brown
Song "I remember" ..... Miss Adda Errett
Song ..... Mr. Charles Shaw
Tableaux Vivants .....
God Save the Queen.

If you have a Cough, do not neglect it; buy at once a bottle of Allen's Lung Balsam.

Personal.

Mr. W. R. Russell, C. E., Quebec, and Mrs. Russell (nee Miss Minnie Hartley) left for home yesterday after spending a few days in Peterborough.

100,000 Eggs Wanted

at The Pantry, Highest Cash Prices. 3d83-1w15

Wants To Go Up.

Paddy Handrigan was an applicant at the police station to-day for a situation, as prisoner, at the gaol. Paddy will probably be accommodated to-morrow.

Mounted Police.

Up to three o'clock this afternoon sixteen recruits had been sworn in here for the Northwest mounted police. The officers leave for Ottawa on the 11.32 a. m. train to-morrow.

At Dinner.

The Hon. Mr. Justice Falconbridge entertained the members of the local bar, at dinner, at the Oriental, on Monday evening. Such a practise was common among all the judges some years ago, but of late it has been discontinued.

For the Pacific.

A number of young men, natives of Peterborough, have decided to try their fortunes in "the glorious climate of California" and they will leave for the far off Pacific coast, on Monday next.

Another Citizen.

Mr. W. H. Heaslip, of Bailieboro, the well known horseman, has decided to cast in his lot with the citizens of Peterborough and he is now a resident of our town. Mr. Heaslip was greatly respected by all his former neighbors and acquaintances and we are always pleased to welcome such men to our town.

Noisy Boys.

The police were called on several times last night to disburse the noisy crowds of boys who assembled in the lobby and on the stairs leading to the Opera House. These disturbers of the peace should know that persons without tickets have no rights there and the police should bring a few of them before the Police Magistrate just to teach them a lesson.

The Town Well.

The town well on the market square is down to a depth of over one hundred and eleven feet and yet there are no signs of water. This is regarded as extraordinary, as the lowest well previously bored in this vicinity was only one hundred and eight feet, at which depth splendid water was struck. It is expected, however, that the pure liquid will soon be reached.

The Assizes.

In our report of the assizes a couple of slight errors crept in. In the case of Sweeney vs. Sweeney, the costs allowed defendant were only those of the County Court, on account of the amount due being small. In the case of Ritchie vs. Flood, the verdict of $5 was for the plaintiff.

The D. A. G's.

An Ottawa letter says that nobody seems to know when the Deputy Adjutant-Generals will be moved or where they will be sent or whether any will be retired. It is rumored that Lieut.-Colonel Van Straubenzie will be sent to Kingston and Lieut.-Colonel Villiers to British Columbia, but the locating of these staff officers seems like many other things in life—very uncertain.

Burning Soot.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. John Cameron, merchant, George-st, had occasion to go up stairs in his shop. He felt the wall hot and removed a stopper, as he had not used any fire for several days. Smoke poured out and an investigation was commenced. Mr. James Best, his neighbor, had been burning some rubbish and it was soon found out that the heat had ignited the soot in the chimney between the two stores. All chimneys, such as this one particularly, should be thoroughly cleaned out at least twice a year.

At the Opera House

The Sawtelle Comedy Company presented "The Orange Girl," on Tuesday evening. Owing to the rain the audience was small. Judging by the applause the efforts of the actors to please were fully appreciated. During the evening two of the ladies favored the audience with songs in a very acceptable manner. The fire scene was a special feature and was realistic and well put on. The members of the company are capable artists and should be seen in plays of a heavier calibre than those given so far. This evening Mr. Sawtelle's great success "Monte Cristo" will be the bill.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—There are now 2,432 orphans under the care of Dr. Barnardo.

—Street Inspector Pope will have the streets scraped as soon possible.

—There are thirty-n vers in Belleville, and as many more students.

—Kingston is agitating for the construction of railway to tap the C. P. R. at Tweed.

—The Provincial Board of Health desire to have all milk vendors in Peterborough licensed.

—Mr. Keefer, C. E., is preparing the plan and specifications for the bridge across the bay at Belleville.

—The judge and the foreign lawyers who were attending the assizes left for their respective homes last evening.

—A majority of the grocers of Port Hope, thirteen in number, have refused to concur in the early closing movement.

—The water in the river and lake reached the lowest mark ever known here. The same story comes from all points.

—The so called go-ahead town of Brockville has abandoned the electric light. The company could not make it pay.

—Fines of $100 each were imposed this morning at the Police court for two breaches of the Scott Act, second offences.

—A tramp hailing from Ottawa bearing the somewhat historic name of U. S. Grant was registered at police headquarters last night.

—It is announced that a delegation from Peterborough will assist at the dedication of Carleton Lodge I. O. O. F. at Ottawa, on May 3rd.

—The market to-day was not what one would call large. Disagreeable weather and bad roads prevented farmers from coming in in large numbers.

—At the regular meeting of the Royal Templars last night refreshments were served by the lady members and a short and interesting programme was provided.

—The sawmills are receiving their usual spring overhauling preparatory to the commencement of active operations. The cut this season promises to be a large one.

—The spring assizes open at Cobourg on the 17th of April. The docket is an unusually large one and embraces a breach of promise case that promises some spicy revelations.

—Maple syrup appears to be far more plentiful than usual this spring. Large quantities of it find ready sale at good prices. About $1.25 per gallon seems to be the standard figure.

—The citizens residing along the track of the Grand Trunk, at the north end of the town, are indulging in speculations as to what land the company will purchase to make the necessary connection with the Chemong Lake line.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Have you a Pain anywhere about you ? USE PERRY DAVIS' "PAIN KILLER" and Get Instant Relief. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. 25 Cts. Per Bottle.

POINTS

About Clothing.

The highest triumph of the Tailor's art is a perfect fitting Coat. The cutting and fitting must be the work of an artist, and the making a satisfactory job. It is a delight to wear it and a moral support amidst trials to have in on.

However perfect the coat no man can be called well dressed unless his trowsers have the fit and hang which can only be given to them by a master of the line and shears. Nobody is unmindful of badly fitting trowsers with a tendency to bag at the knees. A well fitting pair of trowsers are a satisfactory garment to contemplate.

Vests must follow the coat and give a grace to the wearer's appearance. Neat, shapely and of good make.

Hats have been altered for this season and the styles are more effective than for some time.

Now the moral of these remarks, for the behoovement of gentlemen, is a good one and we want to drive it home. Order your spring suit from

T. DOLAN & CO.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, spure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Baby Carriages.

Messrs. W. G. Bain & Co., late Breeze & Bain, open out to-day one of the finest and largest stocks of American Baby Carriages ever brought into Peterborough, and respectfully invite the public to call and see them. d84

Keep a Good Standing

in your neighborhood by being shod with good Shoes. Get them at the great shoe sale now going on at the Griffin shoe store. Bargains! fine bargains!! immense bargains!!! 3d84-1w15

At the Capital.

The Mayor and a number of Councillors and other gentlemen left for Ottawa yesterday to present a memorial to the Government urging on them to stop the deposit of sawdust in the river and Lake and at the same time soliciting a grant to dredge out the Lake. The property owners and others interested along the river bank, who oppose the granting of a charter to the C. P. R. to run a line up to the Dickson race factories, also went down. They expect to meet the Ministers this afternoon.

If you wish to please your family, flavor your Puddings, Pies, Jellies, &c., with the Royal "Extracts.

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE

FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for

Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—"INVERLEA,"

The property of Judge Dennistoun, containing about thirteen acres of land with the residence, stables, outbuildings, &c., &c. This property has a frontage of about 970 feet on Water street, and 425 on Smith street and about 400 feet on the river, and is one of the most advantageously situated properties in Town for sub-division and sale as Building Lots.

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead,

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession Street, and 2340 on the road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "R," Ashburnham,

Containing about 28 acres, having a frontage of about 590 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 34x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HAULTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, Court House Hill. There is about ½ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c., soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE.

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13, in 15th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. This is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

7th.—Lot No. 21, North of McDonnel-st.

And west of George-st., Peterborough, except the north 75 feet thereof. There are two dwelling houses on this lot bringing in good rents.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,
3md85 Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

ALTERATION TO

Bank of Montreal,

LINDSAY.

Tenders for the work will be received up to the 20th OF APRIL, 1888.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. E. BELCHER, C. E., Peterborough. Tenders are to be addressed

CHAS. E. L. PORTEOUS,
4d84 Manager Bank of Montreal, Lindsay.

The Pantry

is the Right Place for Choice Family Groceries. 3d83-1w15

Fine Stone.

The stone for the foundation of the Nicholls Hospital is all on the ground and it is pronounced by experts to be of the very finest quality.

COUGHS, COLDS, Croup and Consumption CURED BY ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM 25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough lyd&w

Geo. A. COX vs. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold astonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGONS, &c., 30 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

THE SUN LIFE

Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSETS - - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,

MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH.

It is Absurd

For people to expect a cure for Indigestion, unless they refrain from eating what is unwholesome; but if anything will sharpen the appetite and give tone to the digestive organs, it is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Thousands all over the land testify to the merits of this medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Burroughs, of 248 Eighth street, South Boston, writes: "My husband has taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for Dyspepsia and torpid liver, and has been greatly benefited."

A Confirmed Dyspeptic.

C. Canterbury, of 141 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., writes, that, suffering for years from Indigestion, he was at last induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla and, by its use, was entirely cured.

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of High street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered for over a year from Dyspepsia, so that she could not eat substantial food, became very weak, and was unable to care for her family. Neither the medicines prescribed by physicians, nor any of the remedies advertised for the cure of Dyspepsia, helped her, until she commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "Three bottles of this medicine," she writes, "cured me."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1888.

TO-DAY'S SPORTING NEWS.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ONTARIO BRANCH OF THE R.C.C. CLUB.

New Playing Rules Discussed—Opening Day at Epsom—Yacht Club Amalgamation—The Harriston Cricket Club—Latest Sporting News.

TORONTO, April 11.

The annual meeting of the Ontario Branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club was held yesterday afternoon at the Walker House. Vice-President Robert Ferguson, M.P.P., of Thamesville was in the chair.

The reports of the Ontario Tankard competition and the bonspiel (Toronto v. Ontario) were read and adopted. It was shown that 91 clubs had participated in the tankard competition.

The committee appointed to consider the subject of scoring at the points game reported in favor of the proposed new rules, and suggested that they be adopted ad interim and be published in the next annual, and used by way of trial for one season, with a view to be finally adopted with or without modification at the annual meeting in April, 1889, and that the existing manner of playing the points game be not altered. The proposed new rules are a radical change as compared with the old ones. The new rules are similar to those proposed to be adopted by the Royal Caledonia Curling Club. The report was adopted.

Secretary Russell presented a lengthy and interesting report. It stated that the Branch had been strengthened by the addition of five clubs—Stratford, Chesley, Waubaushene, Embro and Port Perry, making the number of affiliated clubs 93. The district medal competitions had been carried out in a fairly satisfactory manner. Only two clubs failed to compete. Only one formal protest against the decision of any of the umpires has been received and it was found that the umpire was not at fault. Six clubs only will be excluded from the next allocation of medals for neglecting to play as against ten clubs left out for the same cause last year. The competition for the Ontario Tankard was carried out very successfully. The necessity of all returns being sent in to the secretary by Feb. 10, was urged. The financial report shows that the receipts were $684.86 and the expenditure $532.37, leaving a balance of $152.49.

The Ontario Tankard prizes were then presented. The Thamesville club got the silk banner and gold medal, and the Galt club the silver medal for second place.

Yacht Club Amalgamation.

A final meeting of the committees representing the Toronto and Royal Canadian Yacht Clubs was held yesterday afternoon. A plan was decided upon for the proposed amalgamation of the two clubs, and the committees will report to their respective organizations the result of their labors.

Racing in England.

LONDON, April 10.—This was the first day of the Epsom Spring Meeting, with the Westminster Stakes and the Holmwood Two-year-old Stakes as the two-year-old attractions. The Westminster had five starters, and resulted in a dead heat between Leapyear and Sigbert with Macaw third. The Holmwood Stakes was won by Mr. Leopold de Rothschild's filly Hoptrachy from a field of seven, with Mr. E. Lawson's filly second and Mr. W. Burton's colt Deceit third. The Great Metropolitan Stakes was won by Mr. H. T. Barclay's Tissopherues, from The Cob second and Renny third. The Great Surry Handicap had thirteen starters, and was won by Mr. A. Benholm's Bartizan, from Southill second and Kaunitz third. The summaries:

THE GREAT METROPOLITAN STAKES (Handicap) of 20 sovs. each, 10 ft., with 500 added. For 3-year-olds and upwards; the owner of the second horse to receive 50 sovs. out of the stakes; the winner of any race after Jan. 26 to carry 5 lbs.; of two races, 10 lbs. extra; entrance, 5 guineas, the only forfeit if declared; about 2¼ miles (to start at the Winning Chair). Weuba, 9 of whom declared.

Mr. T. H. Barclay's ch.c. Tissopherues, 4, by Xenophon—Twitter, 102 1
Duke of Beaufort's b.c. The Cob, 5, by Lord Ronald—The Roe, 119 2
Mr. R. Crest's br. h. Renny, 6, by Castlereagh, Mariet Laws, 103 3
Four others ran.

THE GREAT SURREY HANDICAP of 500 sovs. by subscription of 15 sovs. each 5 ft., and 5 guineas only if declared by Jan. 31, for 3-year-olds and upwards; the winner of any race after the publication of the weights to carry 75 lbs.; of any two races, or of one value 500 sovs., 10 lb. extra; the owner of the second horse to receive 50 sovs. out of the stakes; five furlongs. 35 subs, 23 of whom declared.

Mr. A. Benholm's b.c. Bartizan, 3, by Barcaldine—Kaiserlike, 98 1
Mr. H. T. Fenwick's ch.c. Southill, 3, by Sterling—Too Late, 88 2
Mr. G. Moore's bl.c. Kaunitz, 4, by Kaiserslautern—Ina, 98 3

A Baseball Player Dead.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 10.—Dennis Magee, well known in baseball circles under the name of Denny Mack, died suddenly this morning. He was manager of the Wilkesbarre team in 1880.

Toronto-Cleveland Game Declared Off.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 10.—The Toronto-Cleveland game here to-day was declared off on account of rain. The Torontos left to-day for Indianapolis, where they will play the league team to-morrow.

The Harriston Cricket Club.

HARRISTON, April 10.—The cricket club of this town has been reorganized for the coming season with an increased membership. The following officers were elected: Hon. President, William Kingston; President, James McMurchie; First Vice-President, J. E. Gray, Second Vice-President, J. Robertson; Secretary, A. G. Campbell; Treasurer, W. A. Glenny; Captain, O. J. Schmidt and a general committee of five. A good season is expected as a great deal of enthusiasm and interest is being shown.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

A STORY OF THESE TIMES.

When she opens the letter and reads as follows:

"In spite of all that has passed, I do entreat you to meet me at three o'clock this afternoon at the river, beneath the chestnut tree. Do not refuse. Let no shrinking from the society of such as I am deter you from granting me this first and last interview, as what I have to say concerns not you, but those you love. I feel the more sure you will accede to this request because of the heavenly pity in your eyes last night, and the grace that moved you to address me as you did. I shall wait for you until four o'clock. But let me not wait in vain. P. R."

So runs the letter.

"The man is eccentric, no matter what Geoffrey may say," is Mona's first thought, when she has perused it carefully for the second time. Then the belief that it may have something to do with the restoration of the lost will takes possession of her, and makes her heart beat wildly. Yes, she will go; she will keep this appointment whatever comes to it.

She glances at her watch. It is now a quarter-past three; so there is no time to be lost. She must hasten.

Hurriedly she gets into her furs, and, twisting some soft black lace around her throat, runs down the stairs, and, opening the hall door without seeing any one, makes her way towards the appointed spot.

It is the 20th of February; already winter is dying out of mind, and little flowers are springing everywhere.

"Daisies pied, and violets blue,
And lady-smocks all silver-white,
And cuckoo-buds of yellow hue
Do paint the meadows with delight."

Each bank and root of mossy tree is studded with pale primroses that gleam like stars when the morning rises to dim their luster. My lady's straw-bed spreads its white carpet here and there; the faint twitter of birds is in the air, with "liquid lapse of murmuring streams;" every leaf seems bursting into life, the air is keen, but soft, the clouds rest lightly on a ground of spotless blue; the world is awake, and mad with youthful glee as

"Spring comes slowly up this way."

Every flower has opened wide its pretty eye, because the sun, that so long has been a stranger, has returned to them, and is gazing down upon them with ardent love. They—fond nurslings of an hour—accept his tardy attentions, and, though still chilled and desole because of the sad touches of winter that still remain, gaze with rapt admiration at the great Phœbus, as he sits enthroned above.

Mona, in spite of her haste, stoops to pluck a bunch of violets and place them in her breast as she goes upon her way. Up to this the beauty of the spring day has drawn her out of herself, and compelled her to forget her errand.

But as she comes near to the place appointed for the interview, a strange repugnance to go forward and face Paul Rodney makes her step slower and her eyes heavy. And even as she comprehends how strongly she shrinks from the meeting with him, she looks up and sees the chestnut-tree in front of her, and the stream rushing merrily to the ocean, and Paul Rodney standing in this favorite attitude, with his arms folded, and his somber eyes fixed eagerly upon her.

"I have come," she says, simply, feeling herself growing pale, yet quite self-possessed, and strong in a determination not to offer him her hand.

"Yes. I thank you for your goodness," returns he, slowly.

Then follows an uncomfortable silence.

"You have something important to say to me," says Mona, presently, seeing he will not speak; "at least, your letter led me to believe so."

"It is true; I have." Then some other train of thought seems to rush upon him; and he goes on in a curious tone that is half mocking, yet wretched above every other feeling; "You had the best of me last night, had you not? And yet," with a sardonic laugh, "I'm not so sure, either. See here."

Slowly he draws from his pocket a paper, folded neatly, that looks like some old parchment. Mona draws her breath quickly, and turns first crimson with emotion, then pale as death. Opening it at a certain page, he points out to her the signature of George Rodney, the old baronet.

"Give it to me!" cries she, impulsively, her voice trembling. "It is the missing will. You found it last night. It belongs to Nicholas. You must—nay," softly, beseechingly, "you will give it to me."

"Do you know all you ask? By relinquishing this iniquitous deed I give up all hope of ever gaining this place, —this old house that even to me seems priceless. You demand much. Yet on one condition it shall be yours."

"And the condition?" asks she, eagerly, going closer to him. What is it she would not do to restore happiness to those she has learned to love so well?

"A simple one."

"Name it!" exclaims she, seeing he still hesitates.

He lays his hand lightly on her arm, yet his touch seems to burn through her gown into her very flesh. He stoops towards her.

"For one kiss this deed shall be yours, to do what you like with it," he says.

Mona starts violently, and draws back; shame and indignation cover her. Her breath comes in little gasps.

"Are you a man, to make me such a speech?" she says, passionately, fixing her eyes upon him with withering contempt.

"You have heard me," retorts he, coldly, angered to the last degree by the extreme horror and disgust she has evinced at his proposal. He deliberately replaces the precious paper in his pocket, and turns as if to go.

"Oh, stay!" she says, faintly, detaining him both by word and gesture.

He turns to her again.

She covers her eyes with her hands, and tries vainly to decide on what is best for her to do. In all the books she has ever read the young woman placed in her position would not have hesitated at all. As if reared to the situation, she would have thrown up her head and, breathing defiance upon the tempter, would have murmured to the sympathetic air, "Honor above everything," and so, full of dignity, would have moved away from her discomfited companion, her pose high in the air. She would think it a righteous thing that all the world should suffer than one tarnish, however slight, should sully the brightness of her fame.

For the first time Mona learns she is not like this well-regulated woman. She falls lamentably short of such excellence. She cannot bring herself to think the world of those she loves well lost for any consideration whatever. And after all—this horrid condition—it would be over in a moment. And she could run home with the coveted paper, and bathe her face in sweet cold water, and then again she shudders. Could she bathe the remembrance of the insult from her heart?

To be Continued.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

The First Week of our Big sale is over, and it was a Grand Success, the sales far exceeding our expectations, our store crowded with anxious buyers, and all were astonished at the extraordinary bargains we were offering

THE SECOND WEEK OF OUR GREAT CLOSING-OUT SALE

This week we propose to offer wonderful value in the following lines

Dress Goods, Silks, Satins, Prints, Shirtings, Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Toweling, Lace Curtains, Curtain Nets, Embroideries, Hosiery, Gloves, Corsets, Carpets and Oil Cloths, Mantles and Mantle Cloths, and Piles of Remnants at your own price. This will be a Great Week for the people to get Bargains.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the People of Peterborough and Vicinity.—We return you our most sincere thanks for the kind and liberal patronage you have bestowed on us since we bought out T. Dolan & Co., and we extend a cordial invitation to all our old customers, as well as the new ones, to call and see us and partake of some of the Great Bargains we are now offering. The Sale is now in full blast.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

FROM the OLD COUNTRY

Receiving direct from Great Britain

SPRING STOCK

—OF—

NEW CLOTHS,

—INCLUDING—

The Celebrated Pure Scotch Tweed and West of England Suitings.

The attention of Gentlemen is directed to these Superb Goods before ordering their Spring Garments. The selections are very fashionable, and the advantage of being imported direct will enable customers to get the benefit of much closer prices than heretofore.

H. LeBRUN.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

DUTIES ON MELTONS.

Important Circular from the Customs Department—Decisions for March.

OTTAWA, April 10.—The Customs Department has issued this circular re duties on Melton cloths:

Applications having been made to the Minister of Customs for the purpose of having certain woolen cloths, called Melton, ruled for duty under item 510, 511 and 512 of the tariff, instruction has been given by the Minister of Customs, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, that it is not in the power of the Customs Department so to rule, as the reading of the tariff is directly contrary thereto. In item 509 of the tariff all "cloths and flannels" are distinctly named, and dutiable thereunder at 7½ cents per lb. and 20 per cent. ad valorem, and consequently no cloth or flannel, whatever qualifying word or words may be used as a disguise, can be legally entered at any other rate, and the practice of entering such under the name of "dress goods," winceys or other fabricated name, cannot be permitted, and whenever done at any port has been contrary to oft-repeated instructions, and has created great unpleasantness, and operated very injuriously to the interests of importers.

Customs Decisions.

The Board of Customs rendered these decisions during March:

Artificial gum arabic, a British gum or Dextrine, 1 cent per lb.

Cotton plush, colored: this class of goods being distinct from velveteens and cotton velvets, 25 p.c.

Diamond drill boring rods and couplings, 30 p.c.

Fire brick, for bakers' ovens, free.

"Friermiz," a syrup used for summer drinks, 1½c. per lb and 35 p.c. ad valorem.

"Health food," a specially prepared wheat, flour or meal, 20 p.c.

Indurated fibre ware, for the manufacture of paper, 25 p.c.

Iron music stands, 35 p.c.

Neutral cotton seed soap, 1½c. lb.

Paper boxes, empty, as labels, 15c. lb., and 25 p.c. ad valorem.

Pen holders, the handle being wood and the holder of steel, iron or brass, 30 p.c.

Porcelain-lined pump cylinders, 35 p.c. ad valorem.

Prussian blending, 30 p.c. ad valorem.

Surgical instruments in cases, the cases 25 p.c. ad valorem; the instruments 20 p.c. ad valorem.

Spools made wholly of wood used in cotton machinery, 25 p.c. ad valorem.

Vermouth bitters, or wine, $1.20 per imperial gallon.

Wood pumps with iron handles, spouts, etc., 35 p.c. ad valorem.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Hamilton's Adam Wants the "Hayfork" Brigade Investigated.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Mr. Marter, M.P.P. for Muskoka, is in the city.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, inspected the Normal School here to-day.

Mr. Brown of Hamilton has given notice for the appointment of a special committee to enquire into the operations of the "hayfork" fraternity throughout the country.

The Minister of the Interior to-day received applications from five families now residing in Dakota for permission to make a second homestead in Manitoba. They had originally lived in the Prairie Province and were induced by Yankee agents to quit their homes. Now they want to get back.

The Conservative convention for Russell County takes place to-morrow at Duncanville. Mr. C. H. Mackintosh, it is expected, will be offered the nomination.

At the meeting of the Banking and Commerce Committee this morning Mr. Kenny's bill for the incorporation of the Eastern Assurance Company was ordered to be reported. The directors of the company are nearly all Halifax and St. John men.

OUR SUGAR CURED

BREAKFAST BACON

CUT FROM

CAREFULLY SELECTED HOGS

—IS—

MILD AND SWEET.

GEO. MATTHEWS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d18

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d169

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. 1yd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces, Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies. Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 547; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always kept on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on Reid street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d82-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d81y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d82w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. d103w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B.A., G. W. HATTON.

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w2

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w&d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 8.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th, door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d11w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street, opposite St. John's Church. d128w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 55 p m 7 00 p m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R. / Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m
8-20 a m 10 30 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West do East	1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 m 8 50 p m 8 20 a m 15 15 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	8 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 8 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings, Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and	1 15 p m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m	Lakehurst Fraserville & Springville.	12 00 a m 11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore, Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale,	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Pandash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes do do do	7 00 a m 4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents,

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 86. PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

—:o:—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street Peterborough.

We Push Trade TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries:
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY
T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL Blankets AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY
Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS.

RUPTURED and Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been SUCCESSFULLY adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.
Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES
AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb
Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE
ATLAS
Assurance Co'y.,
OF ENGLAND
FOUNDED IN 1808.

—:o:—

CAPITAL
Six Millions of Dollars

—:o:—

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

—:o:—

E. E. HENDERSON,
Agent, Peterborough.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it.

Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

BRAMPTON, Mar. 28, 1887.

MR. S. PERRIN,

DEAR SIR,—Your cough remedy, PINE TAR CORDIAL, has worked wonders here. It is the only thing that relieved my daughter of a most distressing cough and cold which settled on her lungs. I could sell it for you in this locality; would like to have the agency. Send along one-quarter gross. Yours, JOHN FRANK.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent. ROANOKE, VA.,
Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England lyrd7

D. BELLECHEM,
Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms Hunter Street, or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.
TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE

CHEAP. A SINGER SEWING MACHINE, almost new. For further particulars apply at REVIEW Office. 3d8

FOR SALE.

LOTS 13, 14, 15, 16 north of Dickson-st., (Block LB) Ashburnham. Each lot is 50 feet by 200 feet. High and dry. Apply to JOHN FAUCAT. 124?

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for for 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

AT ONCE, A GOOD COOK, well experienced in housework. Good wages will be given. Apply to MRS. P. HAMILTON, George-st. d84

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of THE BEST COAL which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash. JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN.

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st. 611

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS
FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to
2 10d ROBERT KINGAN.

NEW PARCEL EXPRESS.

Goods delivered in any part of the town promptly.

I have gone into the parcel delivery and will be at the service of the public every day from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. And on Saturdays from 2 p. m. to 10 p. m. Also trunks, parcels etc., carried to and from railway stations. Orders may be left at Hawley's tea store or Mercer's clothing store.
WM. HOOK. 6d30

Valuable Park Lots
FOR SALE BY TENDER.

THE undersigned will receive tenders up to April 20th inst., inclusive, for that valuable property belonging to the Estate of the Late James Howden,

composed of the following:

PARCEL 1.—That plot lying between the Agricultural show grounds on the west and the river on the east, and containing thirty-five acres, more or less.

PARCEL 2.—That park lot lying immediately south of the said Agricultural show grounds corner of George and Monaghan-sts., and containing ten acres, more or less.

PARCELS 3 and 4.—Two other park lots, lying south west of Parcel No. 2, about one quarter of a mile.

Parties tendering will separately specify the amount tendered for each parcel.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

A plan of parcel No. 1 may be seen at the store of Mr. Henry Best, George-st., Peterborough.

This property is admirably situated for parties desiring to invest in eligible real estate of convenient proximity to town.

HENRY BEST
MATTHEW JOHNSTON, } Executors.
7d30 w

Henry Pace
PRACTICAL
Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being botpractical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
H. C. STABLER. lyd8 JAS. R. DONELL.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1888.

DISMISSED TRANSLATORS.

THEIR CASE CALLED UP IN THE HOUSE BY MR. LAURIER.

A Long and Tedious Debate—Speaker Ouimet's Action in Discharging the Three Active Politicians Approved on a Division by a Majority of 52.

OTTAWA, April 11.—No one looked for a long and tedious debate to-day, but things that are least expected, in the House of Commons at all events, the oftenest happen. There was a regular flare-up over the dismissal by Speaker Ouimet of Ernest Tremblay, Remi Tremblay and Adolphe Poirier, three of the French translators of the debates of the House. These three red-hot politicians were decapitated two days after the House met on Feb. 23 last, for having during the last general elections maligned the private and public characters of Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Secretary of State, and Mr. Ives, the member for Richmond and Wolfe. The question has been hanging fire for a long time, and Mr. Laurier called it up this afternoon on a question of privilege. The three translators, who are Rouges of the reddest dye, amused themselves in the press and on the stump by calling the Secretary of State a hangman, and Mr. Ives was denounced as an Orangeman, which is a serious offence in his part of Quebec. Many very hard things were written and talked about both the gentlemen, and Mr. Chapleau went straight to Speaker Ouimet and demanded their prompt dismissal from their offices of translators. This Col. Ouimet did on Feb. 25 last. Mr. Laurier in opening the case said the Speaker had entirely exceeded his duty in dismissing these three gentlemen. They were not under the control of the Speaker at all, but under the control of the Debates Committee of the House. It was on this point that the long and tedious debate that followed hinged.

The Secretary of State contended that no servant or officer of the House had a right to insult its members. "I demanded their dismissal," said Mr. Chapleau, "to uphold my own dignity and the dignity of the House of Commons. The Speaker did not exceed his jurisdiction in removing the three translators."

A great many members took part in the debate that followed, the Government followers supporting the action of the speaker, and the Liberals actively opposing it. It was as usual made a straight party question. Col. Ouimet did not occupy the chair during the debate, but handed over the presidency of the House to Deputy-Speaker Colby.

During the debate the question was freely raised by the Liberals that the other five translators were offenders in the very same direction that the Messrs. Tremblay and Poirier were. The Liberals wanted these five included in the decapitation. Sir John Macdonald told the House that no complaint had been made against them.

Mr. Laurier then moved that the Speaker had exceeded his duty in discharging the three translators.

Mr. Mills of Bothwell moved in amendment that the other five translators should be included.

Sir John Macdonald moved in amendment to the amendment that the Speaker had done perfectly right in upholding the dignity of the House in discharging the Messrs. Tremblay and Poirier.

Sir John's amendment was carried, 113 to 61

Questions of Ministers.

In answer to Mr. Lavergne, who asked whether the Government had taken any steps with a view of obtaining a refund of the duties improperly levied on hay exported to the United States, the Minister of Justice said that when he and Sir Charles Tupper were recently at Washington they pressed the claims of the hay exporters with all their ability, but Mr. Fairchild, Secretary of the Treasury, stated it was entirely out of the power of the United States Government to give the relief which was asked for because the claimants had not availed themselves of the remedies laid down by the law of the United States, and the time had passed by during which they were entitled to redress. Mr. Thompson said that claims now existing would have to be made individually to Congress.

To Mr. Lister the Postmaster-General said Geo. M. Everest was removed for neglect of duty from the postmastership at Arkona in Lambton, and Robert Dennis had been appointed in his place.

The House adjourned at 2 o'clock.

Dropped Dead at a Reception.

BOSTON, April 11.—Mrs. M. Austin Jones, a lady exceedingly popular in the best society here, dropped dead last evening of heart disease in the Hotel Vendome during a reception which she gave to about seventy of her friends.

"O" Brakesmen to Strike.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The Times says the exact date when the brakesmen employed on the Burlington road are to strike has not yet been determined, but they will go out very shortly unless some arrangement is made between the company and the striking engineers, firemen and switchmen Killed His Wife with a Club.

COLUMBUS, Neb., April 11.—John Dunke, living with his son Charles on a farm near here, quarrelled with his wife yesterday and killed her with a club. The daughter-in-law interfered, when the old man turned on her and beat her into insensibility. He then fled.

Another Royal Anniversary.

LONDON, April 11.—The King and Queen of Denmark are to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their accession to the throne on Nov. 8, and a movement has already been commenced at Copenhagen to raise funds to provide presents for them.

TO-DAY'S SPORTING NEWS

RECORD OF THE GAMES ON THE DIAMOND YESTERDAY.

The Torontos Nearly Defeat Indianapolis—The Games Elsewhere—Arrival of the Hamiltons'. Manager—English Races—Spots of Sport.

LONDON, April 11.—This was the second day of the Epsom Spring Meeting. The feature of the day was the City and Suburban Handicap, which was won by Sir George Chetwynd's Fullerton from a field of thirteen, Sir W. Throckmorton's Oliver Twist second and Mr. C. J. Merry's Abu Klea third. The race was run under the following conditions:

THE CITY AND SUBURBAN HANDICAP of 15 sovs. each, 10 ft. with 1,000 sovs. added; for 3-year-olds and upwards; the owner of the 2nd horse to receive 50 sovs. out of the stakes; the winner of any race after Jan. 26, to carry 5 lb.; of two races, or one value 500 sovs., 10 lb. extra; entrance, 5 guineas, the only forfeit if declared by Jan. 31; about 1½ miles; 70 subs, 27 of whom declared.

Sir Geo. Chetwynd's br.h. Fullerton, 5, by Touchet—Caroline, 116.....(J. Woodburn) 1
Sir W. Throckmorton's ch.h. Oliver Twist, 5, by Isonomy—Celerite, 106..... 2
Mr. C. J. Merry's br.c. Abuckles, 4, by Lord Gough—My Queen, 82..... 3
Mr. Abington's b.c. Merry Hampton, 4, 122..... 0
Mr. W. Blake's b.h. Exmoor, 5, 118..... 0
Mr. F. Douglas' ch.c. Martley, 4, 115..... 0
Mr. D. Baird's b.c. Woodland, 4, 98..... 0
Sir F. Johnstone's b.h. Candlemas, 5, 108..... 0
Mr. Ferris b.c. The Barron, 4, 108..... 0
Mr. Childwick's blk.h. Le Caisaer, 5, 88..... 0
Lord Ellesmere's b.m. Cataract, 5, 91..... 0
Duke of St. Alban's b.c. Galore, 3, 93..... 0
Mr. E. Wardour's ch.f. Mon Droit, 3, 86..... 0
Mr. Manton's ch.c. Eiridspord, 4, 111..... 0

The last betting was as follows: 5 to 1 against Merry Hampton, 100 to 14 Galore, 15 to 2 Eiridspord, 8 to 1 Fullerton, 1000 to 70 Woodlands, 900 to 35 each Candlemas and Mon Droit, 20 to 1 Abu Klea, and 33 to 1 each Oliver Twist, Le Caisser and Exmoor.

The winner Fullerton is well known, having been connected with the recent turf scandal, and his in-and-out running of last year, which was investigated by the Jockey Club, resulting in the refusal of Jockey Wood's license, and a law suit between his owner, Sir George Chetwynd, and Lord Durham. Fullerton started 5 times as a 2-year-old in Tom Cosner's colors. At the Ascot Meeting, with his owner up, he won the Windsor Castle Stakes from a field of 8, and at Sandown Park he finished in front of 10 for the Sandown Nursery Stakes, they being his only two victories as a 2-year-old. He was purchased as a 3-year-old by Sir George Chetwynd and started but three times that year, failing to get closer than fourth to Economist, Ripon and Cintra for the Fourth Welter Handicap Plate at the Newmarket Spring Meeting. Last year he was successful four times out of twelve starts. In his first race, the Lincolnshire, he finished thirteenth in a field of twenty. He next started at the Newmarket Craven Meeting, where he captured the Crawford Plate from seven others, and at the same meeting won the Babraham Plate from Oberan, the winner of the Lincolnshire, and four others. He faced the starter five times afterwards before he was again successful, and then had a walk-over for the Stewards' Cup at Brighton. At the Newmarket Haughton meeting he won the Select Handicap Plate, beating Humewood and five others, and was then retired for the year. The above race was his first appearance this season.

THE HYDE PARK PLATE.

The Hyde Park Plate for 2-year-olds was run over the Egmont Course. It had thirteen starters and was won by Lord Londonderry's filly by Springfield, with Prince Soltykoff's filly Pantomine second, and Baron A. de Rothschild's filly Charicles third. Conditions:

THE HYDE PARK PLATE of 500 sovs., for 2-year-olds; colts, 124 lbs.; fillies, 121 lbs; those by unrired stallions or out of unrired mares allowed 2 lbs., if claimed at the time of entry, but only one allowance; winners of a stake value 500 sovs. to carry 7 lbs., twice of 500 sovs., or once of 1000 sovs., 10 lbs. extra; entrance 5 sovs.; the Egmont Course; 5 furlongs. 86 entries.

Lord Londonderry's b.f. ——— by Springfield—Grigelda, 118..... 1
Prince Soltykoff's b.f. Pantomine, by Mask—Songless, 121..... 2
Baron A. de Rothschild's b.f. Charicles, by Charibert—Skotyka, 121..... 3
Ten others ran.

Games of Baseball Yesterday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 11.—Toronto's double-deck battery was operated here this afternoon and came near proving a success. Lally was batted freely in the send-off but he afterward did good work. Atkinson proved to be a hard nut for the "hoosiers" to crack. Both teams batted freely and fielded well. The home team showed superior ability in both departments as was expected. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	3	0	0
Torontos	0	0	0

Batteries: Moffat and Myers; Lally and Oldfield, Atkisson and Decker. Umpire Brennan.

Other Games.

At Brooklyn—The home club easily defeated Worcester by 11 to 1.

At New York—The League team captured Jersey City by a score of 6 to 1.

At St. Louis—The Association champions demoralized the Chicagos to the tune of 11 to 5, making 8 runs off Baldwin's delivery in the third inning.

At Cincinnati—The league champions are taking revenge for the taunts of the Cincinnati's managers last fall, when the professed a desire to try conclusions with the Detroits in a series of five games for $10,000. Detroit was not ready then, but has bobbed up serenely this spring and has laid out the Reds in the two games played here. They not only outbatted, but outfielded the Cincinnatis. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati	0	1	5
Detroit	5	7	0

Pitchers: Mullane for Cincinnati and Conway for Detroit.

At Pittsburg—There was a big slugging match in the Smoky City to-day, when the regenerated Clevelands met the Alleghenys on the diamond. The home team won by batting Crowell all over the field, and the Clevelands were not much behind in their treatment of Galvin. The score:

Allegheny	14	23	10
Cleveland	11	16	11

At Washington the league team enjoyed a picnic with the Baltimore association team to-day. Parkins was badly rattled and was pounded to pieces by the Senators, while the Orioles were not able to locate Whitney's curves. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Washington	20	22	4
Baltimore	4	6	11

At Philadelphia the second game in the local championship series was too easy a victory for the Athletics. Sanders, Harry Wright's latest phenomenon, was batted viciously from start to finish. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	4	5	1
Athletics	15	19

Seward pitched for the Athletics.

At Wheeling, W. Va.:

	R.	H.	E.
Buffalo	5	12	2
Wheeling	4	12	4

Batteries: Fanning and Reidy; Flanigan and Valk. Umpire—Mitchell.

Spots of Sport.

A hill-climbing contest between Philadelphia and St. Louis bicyclists has been arranged.

The Toronto Draught Club challenges any other club in Ontario (Markham preferred), to play a match at checkers for a trophy. The trophy will be provided by the Toronto club, and will become the property of the winner.

NAVIGATION OF THE MACKENZIE.

Professor Macoun's Evidence Before Senator Schultz's Committee.

OTTAWA, April 11.—Prof. Macoun gave evidence before Senator Schultz's Mackenzie River Committee this morning. The professor spoke about the navigation of that portion of the Mackenzie basin he had traversed. Leaving the source of the Peace River to the west of the Rocky Mountains, about 60 miles north of the big bend of the Fraser there was canoe navigation, with rapid water, to the Rocky Mountains, the river then flowing northeast. There was a break in the navigation where it entered the mountains, and another break on the east side of the Rockies where it left the mountains, but in the heart of the mountains there was fifty miles of uninterrupted navigationre. Whe the river left the mountains it was 300 yards wide and there was then 770 miles to where it joined the Athabasca Lake by an outlet nearly a mile wide. This whole distance was unobstructed except at one place by a fall about 200 miles east of the mountains. Below this fall a steamer capable of carrying with her cargos 300 tons could go down the river through Lake Athabasca, up the Athabasca and down the Great Slave River to Fort Smith, making an inland navigation of over 1000 miles. At Fort Smith on the Great Slave River there was thirteen to sixteen miles of obstructed navigation, and then to the Arctic Sea, about 1200 miles, vessels of large draft might go down. The Mackenzie River itself was very large and whale and seal were known to be in abundance at its mouth.

He believed that sailing craft had come to the mouth of the Mackenzie through Behring Straits, and along the north coast of Alaska. Sea-going steamers could easily reach the mouth of the Mackenzie, whence they would have river navigation of 1000 to 1200 miles direct south and a lake navigation in the Great Slave and the Great Bear Lakes of about 600 miles more. He believed the course of the river indicated the line of the warm currents which came up from the Great American Desert, and with the Chinook winds sensibly affecting the vegetation along the course of the river to within the Arctic circle. Hence the fact of the known possibility of hardy cereal growth as far north as this point and the luxuriance of the grasses, vetches and fruits of the Peace River and Athabasca valleys. He was of opinion also that the large volume of water, necessarily somewhat warm, flowing from the south, which was poured through the Mackenzie River into the Arctic Sea, would render the sea coast navigation near the mouths of that river more easy than at other points on the Polar coasts.

Railroad Lobbying.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The big fight between the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk about the new road at Lachine will, it is expected, take place in the Railway Committee to-morrow. Both companies have been lobbying right and left all week. The slight and tender Wainwright, one of the best railroad lobbyists in Canada, has been getting in his work for the Grand Trunk in good shape. Mr. S. Parker arrived from Hamilton this morning and he has been assisting Mr. Wainwright all day and to-night. The big pusher for the Canadian Pacific Railway is Robert Meigher, of Perth, a brother-in-law of Sir George Stephen. Mr. Meigher is an old and experienced lobbyist and bonus hunter. It was he that purchased the right of way of the Smith's Falls short line for the Canadian Pacific Railway, for which he was paid $25,000. He also secured several bonuses along this route. Sir George himself is expected in the city to-morrow.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Ontario's Premier at Ottawa—The Conservative Convention in Russell.

OTTAWA, April 11.—Mrs. Speaker Allan gave a reception this afternoon in the Speaker's apartments in the Senate wing. Owing to an oversight in issuing cards, as has been the custom with former speakers and their ladies, the attendance was small.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cockburn and will remain with them for a week.

Hon. Oliver Mowat arrived in the city this afternoon together with Hon. G. W. Ross. He occupied a seat on the floor of the House this evening. The Ontario Premier is quartered at the Grand Union where he will remain a day or two. Mr. Jones, of Halifax, was very devoted in his attentions to Mr. Mowat during his sojourn in the chamber this evening.

At the Conservative convention at Duncanville to-day Mr. C. H. Mackintosh was unanimously chosen to contest Russell for the House of Commons. The election takes place on May 7, nomination one week earlier.

Mr. Casgrain's motion about the banks, which was under debate on Tuesday evening, has caused considerable interests among the bankers and brokers of Toronto. To-day Mr. Cockburn received several letters from bank managers and cashiers in the Queen City concerning the scope of the motion.

Sir Charles Tupper to-day gave notice of this resolution, which he will move in committee of the whole on Friday:

That it is expedient to provide that the time for the completion of the works of the Chignecto Marine Railway Company shall, as respects their title to receive the subsidy heretofore authorized, be July 1, 1890, instead of July 1, 1888, also that the company may be accorded a further delay of twenty-four months for such completion on the condition of a payment of a monthly penalty of $500 for each month during which the works remain uncompleted after the first above mentioned date, and also that the amount of capital mentioned in sec. 2 of the Act, 49 Vic., cap. 18, as that on which the payment of the subsidy is limited, so as to make up the net earnings to 7 per cent. per annum, shall be $5,500,00 instead of $500,000.

Barnum, the snowman, has declined to take three professional sprinters along with his show this summer, and has asked George Turner to make contracts with Johnson, Bethune and Grant White.

Wallace Ross thinks that he can beat any sculler in America in a six-day race on rowing cycles.

BRIGHT HOPES DISPELLED.

LADSTONE SAYS W. H. SMITH HAS LET THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG.

The Government Leader's Position Criticised—The G. O. M. Agreeably Surprised at the Rapid Change of Public Opinion in England With Regard to Ireland.

LONDON, April 11.—Mr. Gladstone, speaking at a banquet of the National Liberal Club to-night, criticised Mr. W. H. Smith's reply to Sir Edward Watkin in the House of Commons in refusing the extension of local government in Ireland. Mr Gladstone said Mr. Smith had entirely dispelled the brightest idea of 2,000,000 loyalists. Mr. Smith had let the cat out of the bag when he signified that the people of Ireland were all wrong and that the Government was obliged to wait their conversion. The question was whether the Irish were to be permitted to entertain and act upon a purely political opinion. The Irish did not enjoy such privileges of local government as existed in England, yet they were to remain thus till they abandoned an idea which in his opinion was dearer to them than life.

It was only natural that the Irish should utilize everything in their representative institutions to promote their dearest purpose. If the English were in the same position they would do the same thing. Their fathers had used the liberties they enjoyed to win fresh liberties to which they were entitled.

He was very agreeably surprised by the rapid change of public opinion in England with reference to Ireland, and he thought Mr. Smith's declaration was scandalous and dishonoring to the English nation.

A Liberal Conclave Called.

LONDON, April 11.—A general meeting of the Liberal party is called for Friday at the National Liberal Club to discuss the County Government Bill. All the leaders of the party except Mr. Gladstone will be present.

The Church's Hope.

DUBLIN, April 11.—At the opening of the General Synod of the Church of Ireland yesterday, the Primate, on behalf the Synod, expressed abhorrence of "the organized and wicked conspiracy against life, property and the law, which has blackened the name of Ireland," and the belief that a reign of law and order has now begun.

Balfour Banqueted.

LONDON, April 11.—The National Union of Conservatives gave a banquet to Mr. Balfour this evening. The Earl of Dartmouth, the chairman, in proposing the toast to the Queen, said that he had authority for asserting that no minister had given the Queen more satisfaction than had Mr. Balfour.

Mr. Ashmead Bartlett, in offering a toast to Mr. Balfour, congratulated the Conservatives on obtaining a leader whose policy had checked the career of the Irish Anarchists. He was accomplishing a heroic task in a masterly and heroic manner and was winning the admiration of both friends and foes.

Mr. Balfour, responding to the toast, predicted that the Conservative policy, which aimed at justice to tenants and landlords alike, would find ultimate acceptance by all Ireland and the approval of the world.

A MONTREAL ELOPEMENT.

An Ex-Policeman Runs Away with a Merchant's Daughter.

MONTREAL, April 11.—Coroner Jones held an inquest to-day on the body of the late Charles Bartley, who committed suicide yesterday. P. O'Donahue, the deceased's employer, said that deceased had frequently told him that there was a woman in Concord who had run him to theground with an electric battery. He had escaped but she still followed him with the battery and had a spell upon him. This was corroborated by a letter which was found on deceased, addressed to his father in England. The jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death from taking poison whilst suffering under mental aberration.

East End society is considerably stirred up by the report of an elopement of the daughter of a St. Paul-street merchant with an ex-policeman, who some time ago received a considerable sum of money from England on the death of his uncle. He immediately resigned his baton, discarded brass buttons and blue coat and blossomed into a fashionable suit and sported diamonds. A few weeks ago he made the acquaintance of the young lady, his manners and good looks captivating her immediately. The parents, however, disapproved of the match and attempted to buy their daughter off with diamonds and jewelry. The elopers are believed to be in New York, and a detective has gone there to seek them out.

An important meeting of manufacturers and wholesale dealers in cotton goods was held this afternoon at the Balmoral Hotel, A. F. Gault of the Canada Cotton Company presiding. Dealers from all parts of the Dominion were in attendance. The object of the meeting was to arrange for a uniform price for cottons during the coming season. The meeting was strictly private. It was decided not to make any changes on last year's prices.

A Fruitless Search.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Detective Sergeant Aldrich has returned from his fruitless chase after Tascott. The Sergeant says he traveled every inch of ground from St. Paul to Washington Territory, invaded the Queen's dominions at Winnipeg and gone through the Northwest Territory. Tascott was heard of everywhere but all the clues that were followed amounted to nothing.

There were five fair sisters, and each had an aim:
Flora would feign be a fashionable dame,
Scholarly Susan's selection was books,
Coquettish Cora cared more for good looks,
Anna, ambitious, aspired after wealth,
Sensible Sarah, sought first for her health

and recommended her other sisters to try the La Parisienne Corset, which is certainly as good as any $1.25 corset in Peterborough.

Ladies, you can get the famous La Parisienne Corset for 99c. per pair at

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

PARALYZERS

The rush for Silks and Satin Mervs is wonderful. Just fancy, Pure Silk Merveilleaux for 50c. per yard. We take the lead and are determined to keep it. To arrive in a few days, hundreds of pieces of Ribbons purchased from the wholesale Bankrupt Stock of McMaster & Co., and all to be Sold at 5c. per yard at

ROWSE'S -:- GREAT -:- BARGAIN -:- HOUSE

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, in this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1888.

LAKEFIELD.

Correspondence of the Review.

FUNERAL.—The remains of Mrs. John Trennum, who died in Toronto, were brought into Lakefield on Monday last, on the noon train. The body was taken to Mr. Joseph Trennum's, awaiting burial. The funeral took place on Tuesday. Many sympathizing friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Lakefield cemetary.

SINGING CLASS.—Mr. Ketchum has a large singing class, some seventy names being on the roll, and all the pupils seem well pleased with his method of instruction and claim they have received a great deal of information in the art of singing, in the short course of five days. We understand Mr. K. will come back and give a second course of ten lesson, provided that sixty pupils will be forthcoming.

REAL ESTATE PURCHASE.—Dr. J. R. Fraser has bought from Miss Elder a very handsome building lot, situated on Church-st., next to Mr. Lillicrap's, on which he intends building a brick house and office.

COMING.—Quite a number of Lakefield people will be down to spend an evening with the far famed Mrs. Scott Siddons, on Monday evening next. Many of the Chautauqua class should hear Mrs. Scott-Siddons in her Shakespearean scenes, Shakespeare being the subject of discussion at the next meeting of the class. Mr. Henderson, chemist, will be pleased to provide the class with tickets for the small sum of 25 and 50 cents.

EXCHANGED.—Miss Ennis has moved her millinery store next door, to Mr. Glass' confectionery store, and Mr. Glass has moved his confectionery store next door, to Miss Ennis' millinery store.

THE NEW WHARF.—On Tuesday afternoon in the rain, the village fathers visited the new wharf, which is in an unfinished condition. They inspected it carefully, and have instructed the Road and Sidewalk Committee to have it finished.

GOING TO TORONTO.—We are sorry to learn that Mr. Peplow, Mr. Sheldrake's assistant, is leaving the village. We believe he intends making Toronto his home for some time to come. May success go with him.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.—The Lakefield Public School Board met in the Council Chamber on Tuesday night. Members present:—Messrs. Thos. Gordon, W. Abbott, R. Q. Dench and D. Smith. The minutes of the two previous meetings were read and confirmed. A communication was received from the Head Master enclosing a report for February and March. The total number of scholars on the roll for the month of February was 271 and the average attendance 221. The total for march on the roll was 286 and the average attendance 208. It was moved by Mr. D. Smith, and seconded by Mr. R. Q. Dench,—That the report of the Head Master for February and March be received.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Abbott, and seconded by Mr. D. Smith,—that the account of Peter Baptie & Son for $23.70 be received and an order be drawn on the Treasurer for the same, and that Mr. J. Brown's account for repairs, $1.25, be referred to the Finance Committee.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Abbott and seconded by Mr. R. Q. Dench,—that this board do now adjourn.—Carried.

WATERWORKS BY-LAW.—Mr. Wm. Graham and Mr. Wm. Leonard are around collecting sufficient sum of money to deposit with the village treasurer, to defray expenses for the submitting of the by-law in connection with the construction of a system of waterworks. These gentlemen say they are receiving every encouragement; $40 is the sum required.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The regular meeting of the village council was held in the council chamber on Monday night. Present—Reeve Casement, Councillors Hull, Henderson, Moore and Nelson. The minutes of the last regular and two special meetings were read and confirmed. Communications:—From R. Sinclair, Esq., Department of Indian Affairs, acknowledging the Clerk's letter re purchase of island in the river and inclosing deed for the same; from Messrs. Booth & Co. regarding a motion passed at the last Council meeting, and stating that by a letter from Messrs. R. & G. Strickland they were notified that they would not be allowed to pledge block 7 for a loan of $6,000 after the end of the present month; also a bill of $10 from Jonathan Griffin, and a letter. Moved by Councillor Henderson and seconded by Councillor Nelson,—That the several communications be received and considered seperately.—Carried. Moved by Councillor Henderson and seconded by Councillor Moore,—That the communication of Messrs. Booth & Co. be referred to the Finance Committee.—Carried. The following report of the Road and Sidewalk Committee was read:—

To the Reeve and Council of the Village of Lakefield:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your Road and Sidewalk Committee would draw the attention of the Council to the unfinished condition of the wharf on Water-st. and would suggest that the Reeve and Council go in a body and inspect the wharf at their earliest convenience. All of which is respectfully submitted.

S. HENDERSON,
Chairman.

Moved by Councillor Hull and seconded by Councillor Henderson,—That the Road and Sidewalk Committee's report be received and adopted.—Carried. The Finance Committee's report was read, as follows:—

To the Reeve and Council of the Village of Lakefield:

GENTLEMEN,—You finance committee beg leave to present the following accounts for payment:—

Isaac Watson, sr., wages	$1 87½
" " "	4 37½
Village Clerk, postage	88
Hugh Fitzgerald, cleaning snow	6 35
Total	$13.48

And that the account of Jonathan Griffin be not received. Moved by Councillor Henderson and seconded by Councillor Nelson,—That the Finance Committee's report be received and adopted.—Carried. Moved by Councillor Hull and seconded by Councillor Moore,—That the time allowed the Assessor to return his roll to the Village Clerk, is hereby extended to May 14th, 1888. Moved by Councillor Henderson and seconded by Councillor Moore,—That the Treasurer's bonds be accepted, with John C. Sherin and Abel Hendren as bondsmen, dated April 2nd, 1888.—Carried. Verbal communications were received from Messrs. James Charleston and Wm. White regarding the opening of certain streets in the corporation. Moved by Councillor Moore and seconded by Councillor Henderson,—That the verbal communications of Messrs. Charleston and White be received and referred to the Road and Sidewalk Committee.—Carried. The water works subject received a thorough ventilation. It was moved by Councillor Henderson and seconded by Councillor Hull,—That the by-law be submitted for the freeholders to vote on, providing the petitioners deposit $40 to defray expenses of the by-law if rejected.—Carried. The Council then adjourned to meet at the call of the Reeve.

If you have a cold, cough, bronchitis, or any form of throat or lung disease, do not neglect it. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, if promptly taken, will speedily relieve and cure all ailments of this character.

HAVELOCK.

Correspondence of the Review.

SCHOOL REPORT.—Report of the Havelock Public School for the month of March, Mr. J. R. Peak teacher:—

Fifth Class.—1st Laura Campbell.

Fourth Class.—1st James Johnston, 2nd Effie Scriven.

Third Class.—1st Adam Clarke, 2nd Lizzie Beatty, 3rd Lewis Emlaw, 4th Charlie Carey.

Second Class.—1st Ben Haig, 2nd Fred Scriven, 3rd Alex. Milne, 4th Osborne Johnston.

Part II.—1st Alfred Carey, 2nd Nellie Campbell, 3rd Jennie Barlow, 4th Frank Voyer.

PARLOR SOCIAL.—A parlor social is on hand for next Monday evening at the home of Mr. Carey.

CONUNDRUM.—How is it that some of our young men long more for non-resident than for resident young ladies?

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—How often are we reminded of the old adage "A faint heart never won a fair lady." The gossip of the past week has brought this very forcibly to our minds. We feel it a duty to offer a few words of comfort and consolation to certain ones and would do so in the words of the poet, as follows:—

Never give up, is the secret of glory,
Nothing so wise can philosophy preach,
Look at the lives that are famous in story,
Never give up, is the lesson they teach.

PUBIL.—A new drug store has been opened out here in Mrs. Butt's old stand by Mr. W. Rutherford, of Norwood. Mr. Rutherford has a full stock of drugs, books and stationery on hand, also a competent druggist in charge.

PERSONALS.—The Rev. R. J. Fallis passed through town to-day....The Rev. T. Williams is busily engaged preparing for his conference examinations, which occur at Port Hope on the 17th and 18th of this month....Mr. James Wilde, we are sorry to learn, is confined to his bed through illness. His recovery is hoped for....The Rev. J. McArthur preached his farewell sermon on Sabbath last....It gives us great pleasure to state that Mr. Willie Connaughty is able to be out around.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

NORWOOD.

Correspondence of the Review.

COUNCIL MEETING.—A regular meeting of the Council was held on the 3rd inst. No business of any importance was transacted.

STEALING A RIDE.—As the west bound express passed the section men about two miles west of the village on the evening of April 5th, a man was observed clinging to the frame work underneath the parlor car. As nothing has been heard of the matter since, it is presumed he reached the next station in safty.

GOING THE ROUNDS.—Our popular assessor, Mr. R. Nicol, is paying the citizens his annual visit. As a result most of the town dogs are either boarding in the country or chained in the cellar.

OUGHT TO KNOW BETTER.—A number of young men (otherwise respectable) nightly assemble on the main corner, after the stores are closed, and cause considerable annoyance to those living in the vicinity, by their hooting, yelling and disorderly conduct. As the present occupant of the cells might object to their company we would suggest that the Reeve run them down to Hiram's pound for a night were they could exercise their lungs to their hearts' content.

HARD ON THE DOGS.—During the past week some fifteen or twenty of our village dogs have been poisoned. Some of them were of considerable value. Who does it and for what reason are mysteries.

LECTURE.—J. R. Clark, the well known orator, well deliver a lecture in the Town Hall on the 23rd inst., under the auspices of the Methodist church.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Three Hottest Days in 1888.

In his article on "Where to Spend the Summer," in Scribner's for April, Gen. Greely, chief signal officer, makes a prophesy as to the hottest days in the year 1888. The Detroit Journal taking the matter up, has offered a prize of $500 to the person guessing correctly, before June 1st, what the 3 days will be. Gen. Greely immediately telegraphied his guess to the paper, in accord with his reasons in Scribner's for April.

No use telling a man with kidney disease to look on the Bright side.

A Bequet of enchanting sweetness—"Lotus of the Nile" Perfume.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

LINES.

ON WITNESSING THREE OF A FAMILY TAKEN AWAY TOGETHER FOR INTERMENT.

In life's gay morn, when blooming youth
In hope of joys to come,
Are cut down by death, suddenly,
And carried to the tomb,

How sad for friends who're left behind,
Who for them grieve and mourn,
Parents ne'er can them forget,
While they on earth sojourn.

Can mothers the dear babes forget
Who've in their bosom lain?
Oh, no, they never can forget
While they in life remain,

From infant days to riper years
What they have done or said,
Is forward to the memory brought
When in the dust their laid.

Often relics of them put away,
The clothes they used to wear,
Where mothers oft to view them go
To drop the silent tear.

How comforting to all, in grief,
Under bereavement pain,
That there remains a rest above
Where death nor sorrow reign;

Where parents will their children meet,
Who had gone on before,
There lovingly each other greet,
To part again no more.

ALEX GRAHAM, Otonabee.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with catarrh. This disagreeable disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

PRINTING BANK NOTES.

The British American Co.'s Fat Contract—Public Accounts Committee.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The British American Bank Note Company of Montreal, of which G. B. Burland is president, has printed the bank notes and postoffice and inland revenue stamps for the Government ever since the days of Old Canada. The work is not awarded by tender, and it is said the company's profits from its Government contracts have been fabulous. It is also said that the company pays dividends which are variously estimated all the way from 25 to 75 per cent. A late mandate of the Government orders that the printing of all its financial paper and stamps shall be done at the Capital, and the company is now erecting a commodious building in this city for the purpose. Thus it would appear the company are to have another long lease of this fat contract. In 1884-5 they were paid $88,000 and in 1885-6 they got $132,000 from the Government.

Mr. G. E. Desbarats, ex-President of the Canada Bank Note Company, appeared before the Public Accounts Committee this morning and spoke of the shabby treatment his company had received while endeavoring to tender for the work. Mr. Desbarats said his tender had never been opened. They had also offered to do the work 20 per cent. lower than the British American Company.

Deputy Minister of Finance Courtney was present and said samples of the work of both companies had been submitted to an acid test, and the British American's work was superior.

The Postmaster General handed in a statement to the effect that, notwithstanding the offer of Mr. Desbarats' of 20 per cent. reduction, the British American had made discounts and allowances which would make their work for a year $2000 lower than its rival.

Mr. Davies of Prince Edward Island moved for a list of shareholders of the British American Company. Nothing further was done, but there is a general opinion that the company has a good fat thing in its dealings with the Government. It and the Canada are the only bank note printers in the country.

The committee had Collingwood Schrieber and Secretary Bradley of the Department of Railways and Canals before it again about the payment of $22,000 to the Canadian Pacific Railway for shipping the Outerdonk plant, consisting of 185 flat cars and eight locomotives, from the Pacific coast to Point Levi. The sore point about the payment of this money is that the Canadian Pacific Railway owes the Government $51,000 for hire of this very same plant previous to its removal East. This amount has never been paid the Government, and it is held by several members of the House that it was wrong to pay the $22,000 while the country account remained unsettled.

Mr. Schrieber, put in copies of letters and telegrams to show that Superintendent Pottinger of the Intercolonial had paid the money at Moncton under mistake. A wrong word kept into a telegram during transmission and his Mr. Schrieber alleges induced Mr. Pottinger to pay the account. However, it is said by the friends of the Canadian Pacific Railway: "What's the use of worrying about it? The company is good for the $52,000 and will pay it."

Mr. McMullen of Wellington again called the attention of the committee to Sir John's cab bill. Mr. McMullen said $600 had been paid last year to Ottawa cabmen, for which there were no vouchers, for Sir John's office, the president of the Council. Mr. McMullen said he believed the Premier was not aware that these payments had been made, and he would say nothing further until he (the Premier) appeared before the committee. The committee, however, would not agree to ask the First Minister to explain a cab bill to them, and two clerks of the office will be summoned instead.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

OTONABEE.

Correspondence of the Review.

A DEFECTIVE BRIDGE.—Some complaints are made in regard to the defective state of the bridge crossing the Indian River on the 4th line, Otonabee. The railing has been off for the last twelve months and the chances are that an accident will happen some day that will cost something to settle. Several narrow escapes from upsetting are reported at this bridge. Here is the opportunity for the County Council or the proper committee to do a little judicious work that will be a great convenience to all going this road.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

TO BE LET OR SOLD.

THE residence of H. A. Hammond (who is leaving the country), corner of Brock and Downie-sts. Tennis lawn at west side of house, good stable, etc., and ground at back suitable for kitchen garden or for building purposes fronting on Dowal-st. Artesian well 75 feet, on premises. Apply to

H. A. HAMMOND,
3d86-1w15 Box 350, P. O.

ALTERATION TO
Bank of Montreal,
LINDSAY.

Tenders for the work will be received up to the 20th OF APRIL, 1888.
Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. E. BELCHER, C. E., Peterborough. Tenders are to be addressed

CHAS. E. L. PORTEOUS,
4d84 Manager Bank of Montreal, Lindsay.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

A. CLEGG.
Leading Undertaker.
WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND CURES LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and General Debility. PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR
DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND
Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S
COUGH AND LUNG CURE
Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Can

WORKING JEWELLER.
E. B. D. LAFLEUR.
JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods.

Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon

VERY CHOICE.

TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS
UNSMOKED.

Wholesale and Retail.

J. W. FLAVELLE,

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

THE DOMINON ORGAN.

D. SMART, Agent, Peterborough.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

POWDER

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations.

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

MASON'S

Prompt Service.

Best Value. If Strict Attention,

Purity of Goods,

are any considerations in your buying come to

W. J. MASON,

The Family Grocery, George-st.

PRINTS !

—o—

We pay great attention to our Print Department. Every good Print, fast color, and extra value. We have the best and largest stock ever shown by us. If you intend buying Prints this season, call and see our stock. We have 12½c. Prints at 10c. and extra wide English Prints, usual price 15c. and 18c., for 12½c. Also a line at 8c. worth 10c. and job lines at 5 and 6c.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER

—A1—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & w8

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1888

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh north-west to south-west winds; fine weather; stationary or a little higher temperatures.

To the Ladies.

Mantles and millinery. The newest styles. Ladies should see our display, at the golden lion.

High and Dry.

Beautiful building lots for sale on easy terms. Between 30 and 40 sold in the last few months. JOHN CARLISLE.

Your Possible Wants

no doubt include new shoes. You get them cheaply at the great sale now going on at the Griffin shoe store, Hunter-st. Rare bargains in all lines. The best and most seasonable lines selling rapidly. 3d84-1w15

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

Try Snow Drift

Buckwheat flour. The best quality at the Pantry. 3d86-1w15

For Shippers.

The following notice handed to the Port Hope Times by the American consul at that port will be of interest to shippers in Peterborough:—"On and after this date it will be required that all agents shipping merchandize to the United States in behalf of firms or individuals, shall file in advance of such shipments Powers of Attorney in the office of the United States Commercial Agency, in order to enable them to sign the required consular papers for their principals."

The Khedive's Star.

Postmaster Col. Rogers on Wednesday afternoon received a package containing fifteen medals for distribution among the members of the Peterborough contingent of the Nile expedition. They were granted by the Khedive of Egypt and are known as the "Khedive's Star." The medal is of bronze, in the shape of a five pointed star. On the front is raised work is a representation of the Sphinx and the pyramids, engraved around which are the words "Egypt. 1884 and 1886," and an inscription in Turkish. On the back is a monogram, probably that of the Khedive. On the bar is the crescent and star. The ribbon is blue. Those entitled to receive the medals are: Messrs. W. H. Anderson, J. E. Faulkner, J. M. Mowry, A. Ross, A. Bradshaw, P. Phalen, J. Gorman, J. White, T. Hanson, M. Mattheson, W. H. Lowry, W. Harris, J. A. Sherlock, J. Welsh, S. Blade.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

OUT-DOING ANYTHING EVER DONE BEFORE.

How is it to be done? Well that's our business, and what's our business is nobody else's business--and if we tell others how we get our clothingto s ell so low, they would be as shrewd as we are. Sheppard is not caught napping in that way--All the dear public care to know is that Sheppard's clothing is the cheapest on earth. That he has no traffic in shoddy, and you can always get what he advertises.

NOW THEN, ABOUT CLOTHING.

Boy's Suits, 3 pieces, 95 cents. How does that catch you? For another just a little longer in the legs, a boy who has seen more Xmas puddings, Sheppard will give you a $2.75 suit worth double the money and a pair of pants for this dear boy for 75 cents. These are nice goods, although you may not think so—so cheap—well I should say so. You want a hat for him don't you? Certainly you don't want to see him bareheaded; not much. Sheppard has the best value. See his cheap Hats.

For the young man. A nobby suit in several patterns $3.95, worth at least $7.50. This is the line that has excited the Town and rattled the trade; hurry, make haste. Secure this suit before they are all done. Motherly advice this.

We are talking to you because you are out of your teens, although you may not be as old as Methuselah's goat. We have a suit for you at $1.95, this is not all wool and a yard wide.

SPECIAL FOR A FEW DAYS.

Men's Suits all sizes	$ 4.95	worth	$ 7.50
Men's Suits all sizes	7.50	"	12 00
Men's Suits all sizes	10.00	"	15.00
Men's Suits all sizes	15.50	"	30.00

Spring Overcoats, nobby stuffs, cheap.

SHEPPARD,----On the War Path,

George-st, Peterborough.

Go to the Pantry

for Canned Goods. Prices, away down. 3d86-1w15

Hand Picked Apples

Just received at the Palace Grocery. Another supply of apples in barrels.

Cocker Spaniel Puppies

for sale. Liver and white and dotted. All beauties, thoroughbred stock. Address "O. L.," box 558, Lindsay. 3d85-1w15

Bargains Still Booming

at the Griffin shoe store. You can fit yourself out with neat foot wear for very little money. Rubbers, Slippers and children's Shoes in great variety. 3d84 1w15

The Town Well.

Messrs. Leary & Co. struck something this afternoon in the town well at a depth of about 115 feet. They well place a pump in position and try for water.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

St. Andrews Church.

A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st, on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents. 9d82-eod

Cleaning the Streets.

Inspector Pope has twenty-five men and two teams with scrapers at work cleaning George st. A start was made at one o'clock this afternoon at Charlotte-st, and excellent progress is being made. The dirt is being placed in Spaulding's Bay.

Baby Carriages.

Messrs. W. G. Bain & Co., late Breeze & Bain, open out to-day one of the finest and largest stocks of American Baby Carriages ever brought into Peterborough, and respectfully invite the public to call and see them. d84

For six Months.

Patrick Handrigan, a well known vagrant, applied to the Police Magistrate this morning to be sent up to gaol for a term of one month. The P.M. saw Paddy and went him five better, on the ground that he would be a public nuisance if he was liberated any sooner.

Driven Back.

The schooner Caroline Marsh which left Port Hope on Saturday night, with a heavy load of barley, for Oswego, was obliged to put into Toronto harbor on Wednesday morning, on account of the difficulty she experienced in beating against the wind and ice. She was the second arrival of the season in Toronto harbor.

A Decided Hit.

The Sawtelle company made a decided hit at the Opera House last night. The bill was "Monte Cristo" and the company rendered it in a manner that drew forth frequent and well deserved applause from a well filled house. Each character was well portrayed, none were lacking, the dresses were correct in every particular and taken altogether it was by far the best presentation of the piece ever given in Peterborough. If the company keep up to the standard of last night they can rely on crowded houses, as the people of Peterborough can and do appreciate a good play well rendered.

The Great Boy Pianist.

A telegram was received by the committee to-day, from Mrs. Scott-Siddons, stating that her adopted son, Mr. Henry Waller, would positively appear with Mrs. Siddons here, on Monday, the 16th inst. This sets all doubts on this point at rest. The Toronto Globe of the 4th inst. says, in reference to Mrs. Siddons and Mr. Waller:—"Mrs. Scott-Siddons appeared before an immense audience at Association Hall last night, and was received with much favor. She gave two scenes from 'The Merchant of Venice,' 'Mrs. Bean's Courtship,' the potion scene from Romeo and Juliet, a selection from David Copperfield and 'The Masquerade' (John G. Saxe). Mr. Henry Waller, the 'serapheal' of some years ago, who achieved considerable fame as a boy pianist, assisted in the programme, and made a decided success. His selections were 'ballade in A flat' (Chopin), Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 2, (Liszt) and 'Melody in F' and a march, 'Ruins of Athens' (Rubenstein). Mr. Waller gives evidence not only of close study but of true and artistic taste." Remember the above two distinguished artistes will appear in Peterborough, at Braburn's Opera House, Monday evening, the 16th inst. Plan at Hartley's; prices within the reach of all.

The People's best friend is Perry Davis Pain-Killer, because it is ever ready to alleviate suffering.

RETURNED FROM OTTAWA.

The Civic and Military Deputations Interview the Government.

On Wednesday, Mayor Stevenson, M.P., Councillors Cahill, Davidson, Hall, Kendry and Langford, and Col. J. Z. Rogers and Major Bell, left Peterborough for Ottawa, to interview the government.

The civilians went to secure if possible, a grant to dredge out the Little Lake and also to ask the government to enforce the law against the millowners, regarding the deposit of sawdust and other refuse in the river and lake. The military men were bent on securing a grant towards the erection of a drill shed and armory.

They reached the capital all right and at once proceeded to the Russell.

An arrangement had been made for meeting the ministers and after a preliminary conference they took up the line of march for the House, where they found everything in readiness for their reception, Mayor Stevenson, M. P., having arranged matters.

The civic deputation, composed of all the gentlemen named, found that Minister Pope was sick, so they were received by Sir Hector Langevin. Councillor Moore read the memorial prepared by the Town Solicitor and also spoke at some length, urging upon the government the necessity of dredging out the Lake, as an important portion of the Trent Valley Navigation scheme, and showing that this section of the country is certainly deserving of the assistance asked at the hands of the ministry. Mayor Stevenson, M. P., and Councillor Cahill followed in a similar strain, mentioning that the town was willing to do its share, the necessity that existed for the work being done and the great benefits that would accrue from its performance.

Sir. Hector Langevin, after referring to the absence of the Hon. Mr. Pope, expressed himself as satisfied that something should be done to remedy the evils complained of He felt that a grant should be made, but he thought the town should undertake to preform the work, provided the Government made a grant. He said that a dredge could easily be procured, as there was one at Lindsay, available for the purpose. The matter would receive the attention of the Government.

Mr. Page, the Chief Engineer of Canals, was also seen by the deputation, and the position explained to him. He is fully conversant with the route of the canal and he favored a grant.

The military men then had their innings and the civilians accompanied them to add numbers and a certain amount of tone to the deputation, the martial bearing of Councillor Cahill being a regular boon for them.

They were received very graciously by Sir Adolphe Caron. Col. J. Z. Rogers referred to the fact that Peterborough had a city battalion, that the present drill shed is in a bad state of repair, that fully $10,000 worth of Government propery is exposed to great danger from robbery and fire and that for a large portion of the year the building cannot be used for purposes of drill. He pointed out that General Middleton and Col. Villiers, Deputy Adjutant General, had pointed out in their annual reports that a new building was a necessity if the present standing of our local military corps is to be kept up.

Sir Adolphe Caron regretted that things were so delapidated. He pointed out that there was already an order-in-council directing what should be done in the case of such places as Peterborough. In order to secure a new drill shed the town must grant a free site and this being done the Government would assist in the erection of the building. With regard to the armory he felt that something should be done at once and he promised to send an inspector here at an early date and the Government would act upon his report.

The members of the deputations arrived here on the early C. P. R. train this morning well satisfied with the assurances they had received.

THE MOUNTED POLICE.

Twenty Fine men Sworn in at Peterborough and off for Regina.

As a result of their three day's visit to Peterborough, Inspector Sanders and Sergeant Begley secured twenty recruits for the North-west mounted police.

The Inspector calls them a splendid lot of men physically and otherwise, and he takes great credit for securing such an excellent addition to the force.

There were a large number of young men here who read the necessary documents through, but after learning of the duties required of them they declined to sign the papers.

The number declared physically unfit by Dr. Halliday, the medical examiner, was very small.

The men are sworn in for five years and they left on the noon express on the C.P.R. direct for Regina, in charge of Sergeant Begley. A very large crowd was down to see the boys off and gave them rousing cheers as the train sped away.

The following are the names of those who enlisted here, and the places they belong to:—

Adam Dickson, Peter Robinson, Thos. Alex. Dixon, Jno. S. McFarland, Geo. Dickson, D. F. McFarland, Geo. Will, Jas. McFarland, Thos. Geo. Kindred, Keene.

Robert White, Wm. S. Belcher, Richard A. Payne, Peterborough.

Thos Frayer, Caesarea.

A. Hannah, Bethany.

F. G. Bartlam, Tweed.

A. N. Murphy, Pontypool.

Frank Bamtridge, Tyrone.

Andrew Lockie, Springville.

Jno. Lee, Trent Bridge.

Jas. Powers, Fowler's Corners.

Brevities.

—The spring stallion show at Bailleboro takes place on April 26th.

—Taffy pulls and maple sugar socials are now in vogue throughout the country.

—The Belleville School Board demands $14,000 from the Council for this year.

—Mr. Sid. Blade was the first of the voyageurs to receive the Khedive's Star.

—Inspector Sanders of the Mounted Police does not leave town until to-night.

—The town watering carts are being prepared for the coming season's campaign.

—A public fair will be held at Lindsay on Saturday for the sale and barter of cattle, horses, etc.

—Inspector Sanders of the N.W.M. Police will leave for Ottawa on the C.P.R. express to-night.

—The flumes at the pumping station of the Water Company have at last been cleared of ice.

—Mr. Wm. Matthews left this morning for a trip to England. He sails from New York on Saturday.

—The dealers in sporting goods are laying in extra heavy stocks this year. They must expect a boom.

—The members of the civic deputation, all returned home this morning on the 5.10 express from Ottawa.

—A Belleville contractor states that the outlook for building is the dullest he has seen for sixteen years.

—Miss Cumming, daughter of tax collector Cumming, left for Madrid, Spain, this morning, via New York.

—The Mortimer Comedy Company are travelling this way. Little Annie Bird will join the troupe in a few days.

—The water in the creek is at the highest point it has reached this season, but no damage is at all likely to result.

—Officer Adams has taken several trips out in the suburbs looking for vagrant cows, but he was unsuccessful.

—A large number of friends accompanied the recruits for the N. W. M. Police to the depôt and gave them a parting cheer.

—Stratford is agitating for a street railway. By the way, what has become of the company formed here to construct one?

—A meeting of the members of the bicycle club for organization will be held at Hartley's music store to morrow evening.

—"Big" Ed. Rice, recently taken to Toronto for shooting, is wanted at Cobourg for an express robbery committed in 1883.

—The bad roads are interfering greatly with the attendance on the market and consequently the receipts of grain, etc., are are small.

—Work on the foundation of the new Salvation army barracks is progressing slowly, but work in earnest will soon be commenced.

—Large quantities of flying paper are noticeable on the streets these days. There is nothing better than this, that we know of, to scare horses.

—Mr. W. Matthewson of the Nile contingency is entitled to wear the British Egyptian Medal, the Northwest Medal and the Khedive's Star.

—Prof. Duer, who visited Peterborough a few months ago, is meeting with great success in the west teaching the floor work to the I.O.O.F. lodges.

—The lumbermen are looking rather blue on account of the low water. They expect considerable expense and trouble to float last winter's cut of logs.

—On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. R. Mann of Water-st. north, was throwing out a pot, of scalding water, she slipped and some of the liquid flew up in her face, scalding her severely.

—The Norseman will start her regular trips on Monday, April 23rd, with Captain Andrew Dunlop, late of the Spartan, in charge. Stewart Stevenson will occupy his old position. The boat has been thoroughly repaired, repainted, etc., and is as good as new.

If you have a Cough, do not neglect it; buy at once a bottle of Allen's Lung Balsam.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

BENSFORT.

Correspondence of the Review.

THE CHEESE FACTORY.—The patrons and manufacturers of the new cheese factory held a meeting in No. 3 school room on Saturday afternoon last, for the purpose of electing officers for the season. There was a fair attendance present. The following officers were appointed.

PRESIDENT,—Mr. D. Truscott.

SECRETARY,—Mr. J. Stephens.

DIRECTORS,—Messrs. J. W. Hall, J. Moncrief, Jr., Wm. Emberson, Wm. Waterman, R. Lang.

Two other directors are yet to be appointed at a future meeting to be held in May, at the call of the president.

OBIT.—It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of James Bradshaw, son of Mr. Thomas Bradshaw, who after a few days illness died on Sunday afternoon. The deceased was a young man possessed of good qualities, a genial disposition and very highly respected by all that knew him. The bereaved family have the deepest sympathy of the community in their affliction.

BAD ROADS.—The roads running east and west are in a very bad condition at present for travelling. Some places they are completely blocked with snow, rendering travelling with the wheels very uncomfortable and in some places dangerous.

CLOSED FOR THE SEASON.—The Literary Society is now no longer in existence. They held a meeting one evening last week and finished up their business. They wound up with a few good speeches, some instrumental music and a candy social, and finally disbanded until next fall, when they expect to organize again for the fall and winter months.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether rising from teething or otherwise 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

In the days when we were satisfied with Bulwer, "the pen is mightier than the sword" did well enough. But that style is obsolete. Now we say "The typewriter is mightier than the Gatling gun."

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE & LOT, situate on Stewart-st., Ashburnham. Apply R. MOWRY, Ashburnham 6d86

WANTED.

EXPERIENCED HOUSEKEEPER. Middle aged. Good plain cook. Good references required. Apply, care Box A. Peterborough P. O. 6d86

POINTS

About Clothing.

The highest triumph of the Tailor's art is a perfect fitting Coat. The cutting and fitting must be the work of an artist, and the making a satisfactory job. It is a delight to wear it and a moral support amidst trials to have in on.

However perfect the coat no man can be called well dressed unless his trowsers have the fit and hang which can only be given to them by a master of the line and shears. Nobody is unmindful of badly fitting trowsers with a tendency to bag at the knees. A well fitting pair of trowsers are a satisfactory garment to contemplate.

Vests must follow the coat and give a grace to the wearer's appearance. Neat, shapely and of good make.

Hats have been altered for this season and the styles are more effective than for some time.

Now the moral of these remarks, for the behoovement of gentlemen, is a good one and we want to drive it home. Order your spring suit from

T. DOLAN & CO.

FOR SEEDS!

Pure, Fresh and Good, wend thy way to Mason's Seed and Plant House, Hunter street, near new Post Office.

Francis Mason.

Peterborough, 12th April, 1888. 1d86-4w15

Keep a Good Standing

in your neighborhood by being shod with good Shoes. Get them at the great shoe sale now going on at the Griffin shoe store Bargains! fine bargains!! immense bargains!!! 3d84-1w15

For Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest ordinary food, Scott's Emulsion can be digested and give strength and flesh when all other food fails. See what Dr. A. H. Peck, Penn. Med. College, Petitcodiac, says: "I have used and prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and find it an excellent preparation agreeing well with the stomach, and its continued use adding greatly to the strength and comfort of the patient." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo' of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anæsthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1yd4w

Geo. A. Cox vs. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold astonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGGONS, Etc., 30 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

THE SUN LIFE

Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSETS - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,

MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH.

Don't Wait

Until your hair becomes dry, thin, and gray before giving the attention needed to preserve its beauty and vitality. Keep on your toilet-table a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor—the only dressing you require for the hair—and use a little, daily, to preserve the natural color and prevent baldness.

Thomas Munday, Sharon Grove, Ky., writes: "Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks my head was almost bald. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I finally bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, after using only a part of the contents, my head was covered with a heavy growth of hair. I recommend your preparation as the best hair-restorer in the world."

"My hair was faded and dry," writes Mabel C. Hardy, of Delavan, Ill.; "but after using a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it became black and glossy."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

Sold by Druggists and Perfumers.

Pimples and Blotches,

So disfiguring to the face, forehead, and neck, may be entirely removed by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the best and safest Alterative and Blood-Purifier ever discovered.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists; $1; six bottles for $5.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1888.

THAT LITTLE TIFF.

About Toronto's Morality—The Senator from Oaklands' Personal Explanation.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The little tiff that Senator John Macdonald got into with the frate Senator Alexander anent the morality of Toronto, was called up again in the Senate to-day. Hon. John Macdonald made the only personal explanation that he was ever called upon to make during his lengthy parliamentary career. Speaking to a question of privilege he said:

"I wish to make a statement on a question of privilege upon a matter which it will be found has already occupied too much of the attention of this House. When the hon. Senator from Woodstock the other day saw fit to make an attack against the City of Toronto and the gentleman who fills its civic chair I rose to refute the statements which he made. The mayor of the city, feeling justly indignant at the way in which the matter had been reported, sent down for full particulars of the remarks which had been made. The hon. Senator from Woodstock rose to reply on a subsequent day, or rather to make explanations, but really never touched the matter to which explanation was taken.

The fact of the matter is that the entire remarks which called forth mine have been eleminated from the official report and the question arises to what extent the words of the hon. gentlemen become the property of this House when they have been used in debate and when they tend to make everything that is said by those who answer them to amount to nothing short of nonsense. I say that the remarks of the hon. gentleman touching the civic magistrate of Toronto have been eliminated, whether by his own act or by his instructions, of course I cannot tell, but the result is seen in a Toronto paper of the impression which it has created there. This remark is, of course, to set everybody wrong, and while I have great sympathy for the reporters, who, in a building like ours where the acoustics are bad, may occasionally fall into error, I am at a loss to understand how any gentleman on the floor of the House who can hear should have failed to hear my remarks, and having heard me should have failed to understand what I said.

The point I wish to make is this: That the hon. Senator did make reflections upon the gentleman occupying the civic chair in the City of Toronto, and that the remarks that I made were in refutation of, his statement. I wish to say nothing more.

The Senate then went into committee of the whole and passed ex-Judge Gowan's revised rules for divorce proceedings, with slight amendments.

The Session's First Divorce Case.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The first divorce case of the session reached a committee of the Senate this morning. Senator Kaulbach of Nova Scotia was the chairman. It was the plea of Mary Matilda White, nee Mann, of the village of Port Dover, Ont., for relief from her husband, David Crystal White. The grounds for the application are that the husband is malformed and unfitted for a wife's society. Both of the parties were examined by the committee. White said it was his wife that was deficient and not he. This Mrs. White denied. The parties have been married twelve years.

It is said the real trouble is about a certain property in Port Dover. White is malformed externally and is anything but prepossessing in appearance. Mrs. White is about 40 and fairly good looking. The committee ordered Senators Sullivan of Kingston and McMillan of Glengarry, both of whom are doctors, to make a medical examination of both parties.

MAD ABOUT THE MELTONS.

A Deputation of Toronto Wholesale Dry Goods Men at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The wholesale dry goods trade of the Dominion is up in arms against the recent reading of the tariff respecting "Meltons." G. R. Smith, M.P.P., Fred Wyld and Thomas Ogilvy, representing the dry goods section of the Toronto Board of Trade, arrived in the Capital this morning, and are not going home until they have made a vigorous protest to the "proper authorities."

They made one step in this direction this morning, when they had an interview with the Minister of Customs. Senator John Macdonald, who is also deeply interested in the matter, accompanied the Toronto merchants to the scene of the conference in Mr. Bowell's room. After discussing the matter pretty fully Mr. Bowell said he would call a meeting of the full Customs Board at 10.30 a.m. to-morrow, at which he promised to have Sir Charles Tupper present, when the whole ground will be gone over.

The line of argument taken by the Toronto gentlemen is that this new reading of the act is sprung upon the trade after all their arrangements for the present season have been completed. Their buyers are now in the English markets and sails had been set for business on the present tariff basis. These goods, which are nearly of a "tweedy" or "clothy" appearance, now pay a duty of 22½ per cent. up to 5 pence, 25 per cent. up to 7 pence, and 27½ per cent. up for goods above that amount. The new reading of the tariff would impose a tax of 7½ cents per lb. and 20 per cent. ad valorem. They say further that if this is allowed to go the wholesale man's profits on this season's investments in "dress goods" will be nil, and the price of the class of articles generally worn by mechanics and the poorer farmers' wives and daughters will be advanced 50 per cent.

The circular sent out by the Customs Department and which was published in The World of this morning, came upon the dry goods trade like a thief in the night and almost staggered it. The Toronto gentlemen say to-night that they hope to induce the Customs Board to alter the decision at the conference to-morrow.

The City of Belleville also descended on the Minister of Public Works with respect to aid for its harbor. That picturesque burg has just elected Harry Corby to succeed the late Thomas Robertson in West Hastings without any trouble or cost. Mr. Corby being a Government supporter, they thought the present time opportune to ask the Government to "come over and help us" as regards their harbor, which requires considerable cribbing and other improvements to be executed. The deputation was made up of Mayor Wilson and Ald. James Maclean, A. W. Johnstone and N. B. Faulkner and City Solicitor Lawrence Henderson. Harry Corby introduced them to Sir Hector, who will investigate the claims of Belleville. Ald. Faulkner says they will not take no for an answer.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Belle of an Englishman.

She presses her hands still closer against her eyes, as though to shut out from her own mind the hatefulness of such a thought. And then, with a fresh effort, she brings herself back once more to the question that lies before her.

Oh, if by this one act of self-sacrifice she could restore the Towers with all its beauty and richness to Nicholas, and—and his mother—how good a thing it would be! But will Geoffrey ever forgive her? Ah, sure when she explains the matter to him, and tells him how and why she did it, and how her heart bled in the doing of it, he will put his arms round her and pardon the sin. Nay, more, he may see how tender is the longing that compels her to the deed.

She uncovers her eyes and glances for a bare instant at Rodney. Then once more the heavily-fringed lids close upon the dark-blue eyes, as if to hide the anguish in them, and in a smothered voice she says, with clenched teeth and a face like marble, "Yes, you may kiss me, if you will.

There is a pause. In shrinking doubt she awaits the moment that shall make him take advantage of her words. But that moment never comes. In vain she waits. At length she lifts her eyes, and he, flinging the parchment at her feet, cries, roughly,—

"There! take it. I can be generous too!"

"But," begins Mona, feebly, hardly sure of her blessed release.

"Keep your kiss," exclaims he, savagely, "since it costs you such an effort to give it, and keep the parchment, too. It is yours because of my love for you."

Ashamed of his vehemence, he stoops and, raising the will from the ground, presents it to her courteously. "Take it; it is yours," he says. Mona closes her fingers on it vigorously, and by a last effort of grace suppresses the sigh of relief that rises from her heart.

Instinctively she lowers her hand, as though to place the document in the inside pocket of her coat, and in doing so comes against something that plainly startles her.

"I quite forgot it," she says, coloring with sudden fear, and then slowly, cautiously, she draws up to view the hated pistol he had left in the library the night before. She holds it out to him at arm's length, as though it is some noisome reptile, as doubtless, indeed, she considers it. "Take it," she says, "take it quickly. I brought it to you meaning to return it. Good gracious! fancy my forgetting it! Why, it might have gone off and killed me, and I should have been none the wiser."

"Well, I think you would, for a moment or two at least," returns he, smiling grimly, and dropping the dangerous little toy with some carelessness into his own pocket.

"Oh, do take care!" cries Mona, in an agony; "it is loaded. If you throw it about in that rough fashion, it will certainly go off and do you some injury."

"Blow me to atoms, perhaps, or into some region, unknown," says he, recklessly. "A good thing, too. Is life so sweet a possession that one need quail before the thought of resigning it?"

"You speak as one might who has no aim in life," says Mona, looking at him with sincere pity. When Mona looks piteous she is at her best. Her eyes grow large, her sweet lips tremulous, her whole face pathetic. Her role suits her. Rodney's heart begins to beat with dangerous rapidity. It is quite on the cards that a man of his reckless, untrained, dare-devil disposition should fall madly in love with a woman sans peur et sans reproche.

"An aim!" he says, bitterly. "I think I have found an end to my life where most fellows find a beginning."

"By and by you will think differently," says Mona, believing he alludes to his surrender of the Towers. "You will get over this disappointment."

"I shall,—when death claims me," replies he.

"Nay, now," says Mona, sweetly, "do not talk like that. It grieves me. When you have formed a purpose worth living for, the whole world will undergo a change for you. What is dark now will seem light then; and death will be an enemy, a thing to battle with, to fight with desperately until one's latest breath. In the meantime," nervously, "do be cautious about that horrid weapon; won't you, now?"

"You ask me no questions about last night," he says, suddenly, "and there is something I must say to you. Get rid of that fellow Ridgway, the undergardener. It was he opened the library window for me. He is untrustworthy, and too fond of filthy lucre ever to come to good. I bribed him."

He is now speaking with some difficulty, and is looking, not at her, but at the pattern he is drawing on the soft loam at his feet.

"Bribed him?" says Mona, in an indescribable tone.

"Yes. I knew about the secret panel from Warden, old Elspeth's nephew, who alone, I think, knew of its existence. I was determined to get the will. It seemed to me," cries he, with excitement, "no such great crime to do away with an unrighteous deed that took from an elder son (without just cause) his honest rights, to bestow them upon the younger. What had my father done? Nothing! His brother, by treachery and base subterfuge, supplanted him, and obtained his birthright, while he, my father, was cast out, disinherited, without a hearing."

His passion carries Mona along with it.

"It was unjust, no doubt; it sounds so," she says, faintly. Yet even as she speaks she closes her little fingers resolutely upon the parchment that shall restore happiness to Nicholas and dear, pretty Dorothy.

"To return to Ridgway," says Paul Rodney, pulling himself up abruptly. "See him yourself, I beg of you, as a last favor, and dismiss him. Send him over to me; I will take him back with me to Australia and give him a fresh start in life. I owe him so much, as I was the first to tempt him into the wrong path; yet I doubt whether he would have kept straight even had he not met me. He is mauvais sujet all through."

"Surely," thinks Mona to herself, "this strange young man is not altogether bad. He has his divine touches as well as another."

"I will do as you ask," she says, wondering when the interview will come to an end.

"After all, I am glad Nicholas is not to be routed," he says, presently, with some weariness in his tone. "The game wasn't worth the candle. I should never have been able to do the grand seigneur as he does it. I suppose I am not to the manor born. Besides, I bear him no malice."

His tone, his emphasis on the pronoun, is significant.

"Why should you bear malice to any one?" says Mona, uneasily.

"Your husband called me 'thief.' I have not forgotten that," replies he, gloomily, the dark blood of his mother's race rushing to his cheek. "I shall remember that insult to my dying day. And let him remember this, that if ever I meet him again, alone, and face to face, I shall kill him for that word alone."

To be Continued.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our Inducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.

We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per yard, Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. per yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth 25c.
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistable Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 10.

London cables to-day state that the wheat on passage to the United Kingdom is 2,259,000 qrs., and corn 361,000 qrs.; to continent, wheat 324,000 qrs. and corn 75,000 qrs.

New York receipts yesterday: Flour, 7980 bbls. and 4622 sacks; wheat, none; corn, 9000 bush; oats, 47,000; cornmeal, 435 bbls. and 770 sacks; rye, 632 bush; barley, 2600; malt, 6000; pork, 674 bbls; beef, 669; lard, 1729 tierces; whisky, 632 bbls.

New York exports yesterday: Flour, 14,46 bbls. and 9937 sacks; wheat, 24,132 bush; corn

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat firm to-day, with demand fair and holders offering sparingly. Corn fair, demand good. Quotations: Spring wheat, 6s 6d to 6s 7d; No. 1 Cal., 6s 8d to 6s 9d; red winter, 6s 8d to 6s 9d; corn, 4s 11½d; peas, 5s 5d; pork, 67s 6d; lard, 38s 6d; cheese, 60s 6d.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley quiet to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 83, No. 1 Canadian at 88 and No. 1 bright Canadian at 91. Shipments, 5000 bushels.

THE EGG MARKET.

There was a good local inquiry for eggs to-day, and the supply was short. The commission houses quoted 18 cents all round.

Wiggin & Upton, Boston, write:

There was a short supply for Easter week, and the market was closely sold up at the close. Since Saturday receipts have been unexpectedly light, hardly enough to supply the wants of the trade from day to day, and prices have been ruling high but somewhat irregular. Receipts for the week 14 boxes, 209 bbls., 3958 cases; last week 5 boxes, 439 bbls., 6082 cases.

In Montreal yesterday there was a fair demand for eggs, but the offerings were light owing to the continued small receipts. The market was quiet, and only a moderate business was done at 19c per dozen.

THE POTATO SUPPLY.

During the past week three car loads of potatoes have arrived in Toronto from the Lower Provinces, 2 from Quebec and 1 from Nova Scotia. The cost by the car lot on the track, was from 95c to $1.05 per bag. Dealers look for lower prices when the country roads get in Indians Threatening Vengeance.

HELENA, Mont., April 11.—The Kootenai Indians are very ugly and threaten to avenge the hanging of three of their number for murder by the white people. The Governor has been called on for troops.

Trouble Turned Her Brain.

FREDERICK, Md., April 11.—Mrs. Lucy Lester, one of the wealthiest and most prominent ladies in Western Maryland, hung herself last night to a bedpost in her chamber. Domestic troubles were the cause.

Burnt to Death.

KANSAS CITY, April 11.—Geo. Kennamore and his 13-year-old son were burned to death in Breen County last night.

Nothing quicker will stop a crying baby on a railway car than one of the leather figs sold by train boys. Indeed it is doubtful if, having eaten one, the baby ever cries again.

Southern and Bermuda vegetables are in good supply now, and the quality is praiseworthy, too. The premature strawberries are better, and sell at lower prices by the quart.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

City of Peterborough REAL ESTATE OFFICE

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter-st., is the place to buy or rent any kind of property you want.

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S NEW LIST.

50 Building Lots from	$40 Up.	Terms easy
10 Houses and Lots	from	$400 to $1,000
20 " " "	from	$1,000 to $2,000
15 " " "	from	$2,000 to $7,000

4 Business Stands for Sale or to Rent.

1 Livery Business, good stand, cheap.

2½ Acres Choice Garden Lot, cheap.

5 Acres Good Land, with buildings,

10 Acres with Buildings - - - only $1,500

2 Parcels of 50 Acres near town, special value, with Good Buildings, near Keene.

FARMS AND WILD LANDS TO SUIT ANY BUYER.

We also have for sale a Stump Machine, nearly new, at half price and a Good Working Horse on eight month's credit.

The public are requested to call or write for particulars.

T. HURLEY,

Real Estate Loan and Insurance Agency.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY REVIEW.

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Garden Tools,
Silver Dollar Spades
Spading Forks,
Manure Forks,
Steel Rakes,
Hoes,
Wheelbarrows,
Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 947; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR, Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always kept on hand. P.O. Box 943; residence, on Reid street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d82-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d81y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Landy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, and SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. daw

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d115w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.

MONEY TO LOAN. d106w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d57-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

R. R. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON.

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w11

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer, Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w26

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th, door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

G. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 9 00 p m 10 55 p m 7 00 p m 8 20 a m 10 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & C. R. Toronto and West, via G. & G. R. Grand Trunk, East & West do East	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 5 00 p m
12 00 m 5 30 p m 9 30 a m 15 15 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope do do	5 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 5 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	1 15 p m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville Bobcaygeon, including	12 00 a m 11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bridgenorth & Enniskmore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Hastings, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clysdale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Bethune, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays Street Letter Boxes do do British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	1 30 p m 7 30 a m 4 30 p m 10 00 p
6 00 a m	To New York, Mondays Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 15 p m 5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 87. PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries:
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY
T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL
Blankets
AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY
Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS.

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted in person the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by mechanical means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 King Street West, Toronto

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, Londor, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES
AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb
Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE
ATLAS
Assurance Co'y.,
OF ENGLAND
FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL
Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,
Agent, Peterborough.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

Cough, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis Whooping Cough Croup, Influenza Difficult Breathing and all Throat and Lung complaints. Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar

BRAMPTON, Mar. 28, 1887.

Mr. S. Perrin,

Dear Sir,—Your cough remedy, Pine Tar Cordial, has worked wonders here. It is the only thing that relieved my daughter of a most distressing cough and cold which settled on her lungs. I could sell it for you in this locality; would like to have the agency. Send along one-quarter gross.

Yours, John Frank.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufactories, Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent.
ROANOKE, VA.,
Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are flying around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—"Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England lyrd7

A. CLEGG.
Leading Undertaker.
WAREROOMS, George St., residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE

CHEAP. A SINGER SEWING MACHINE, almost new. For further particulars apply at Review Office. 3d86

HOUSE TO LET.

FURNISHED. All modern improvements in heating, &c. Apply to office of JOHN E. BELCHER, Architect and C. E. 3d87

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE & LOT, situate on Stewart-st. west, Ashburnham. Apply R. MOWRY, Ashburnham. 6d86

FOR SALE.

LOTS 13, 14, 15, 16 north of Dickson-st., (Block LB) Ashburnham. Each lot is 50 feet by 200 feet. High and dry. Apply to JOHN FAUCET. 1247

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. References required. Apply BANNELL SAWYER, Charlotte-st. 2d87

WANTED.

EXPERIENCED HOUSEKEEPER. Middle aged. Good plain cook. Good references required. Apply, care Box A. Peterborough P. O. 6d86

WANTED.

AT ONCE, A GOOD COOK, well experienced in housework. Good wages will be given. Apply to MRS. P. HAMILTON, George-st. d84

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Ladies or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,!

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental

Valuable Park Lots
FOR SALE BY TENDER.

THE undersigned will receive tenders up to 1st April 20th inst., inclusive, for that valuable property belonging to the Estate of the Late James Howden,

composed of the following:

PARCEL 1.—That plot lying between the Agricultural show grounds on the west and the river on the east, and containing thirty-five acres, more or less.

PARCEL 2.—That park lot lying immediately south of the said Agricultural show grounds corner of George and Monaghan-sts., and containing ten acres, more or less.

PARCELS 3 and 4.—Two other park lots, lying southwest of Parcel No. 2, about one quarter of a mile.

Parties tendering will separately specify the amount tendered for each parcel.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

A plan of parcel No. 1 may be seen at the store of Mr. Henry Best, George-st., Peterborough.

This property is admirably situated for parties desiring to invest in eligible real estate of convenient proximity to town.

HENRY BEST
MATTHEW JOHNSTON, } Executors.
7d80 w

Henry Pace
PRACTICAL
Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. Stabler. lyd88 Jas. R. Donell.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1888.

NO SETTLEMENT YET.

Hamilton Building Trades Still at Odds—Druggists Favor Early Closing.

HAMILTON, April 12.—The boss and journeymen committees of the painters met this afternoon, but no settlement was arrived at, the bosses not having been armed with full power to act. Although there is a feeling on the part of both masters and men that the present difficulties will soon be settled, no definite steps have yet been taken. All the meetings that have been held have resulted in no understanding between the two sides. The Bricklayers' Union do not propose submitting any plan to the Master Builders' Association. The members of that union say that when the difficulty first arose they sent a communication to the Masters' Association stating their case, and that the association has not yet seen fit to reply. The union men who have secured jobs are not a large number, but more jobs are being figured for. The work being done by non-union men is principally finishing up jobs.

The druggists are the latest business men to fall into line and petition the City Council to pass an early closing bylaw. They want to close at 8 p.m. on all evenings except Saturday and days before holidays, and to keep open only three hours on Sunday.

The arbitration between Wm. Hancock and the City of Hamilton opened this morning before Judge Senkler of St. Catharines, Kivas Tully, architect, of Toronto and Thomas Littlehales. The amount in dispute is about $1000, which Mr. Hancock claims is the balance due him on the contract for constructing the new market buildings.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Anderson of this city and George T. Roberts of Boston took place at Knox Church last evening.

A team belonging to the Shedden Company was running away on James-street north last night and had collided with and demolished Mr. A. M. Robertson's buggy near the Royal Hotel, when Mr. Wm. Leith (from behind) jumped into the wagon attached to the runaways, climbed over the high seat, and, securing the reins, brought the animals under control.

Wm. Jenkins and Geo. Young, two 14-year-old boys, were convicted of larceny in the Police Court this morning, the former in two cases. They were remanded until to-morrow for sentence.

A few days ago a couple of men who represented themselves as oil finishers, and who were accompanied by two women who passed as their wives, struck the city and applied for work. They said they were from Woodstock, but are believed to have hailed from Buffalo. They were engaged with a solid firm at fair wages, and went through the motions of going to work. They rented a couple of rooms on Hughson-street, near the fire station, and then began to do up the stores on the credit of having constant employment. Fourteen dollars' worth of shoe leather was secured at one store, and overalls, etc., at others. It is not known how many storekeepers have been flone for, but at all events the strangers did not go to work this morning, and their rooms have been vacated.

The members of the Church Women's Aid Society of Christ Church Cathedral are holding a bazaar at the schoolroom this week.

MATRIMONIAL MISFITS.

The Committee Decide to Report Against the White Bill—A Montreal Case.

OTTAWA, April 12.—Senator Kaulback's committee, who have charge of the White divorce case, met again this morning. Senators and Doctors Sullivan and McMillan, who were appointed to make a medical examination of both Mrs. White and her husband, made a report. The doctors said that there were no physical inabilities apparent in either man or wife. The committee thereupon decided to report in favor of throwing the bill out.

In the Senate this afternoon the bill of divorce asked for by Eleanora Elizabeth Tudor from her husband, Fred L. Hart of Montreal, was read a second time and sent to a select committee after counsel had been heard at the bar. Mrs. Hart, who is a decidedly ladylike woman of about 45, with a countenance overcast with sadness, sat in the chamber while her solicitor was being heard. The grounds of the application are adultery, cruelty and desertion. The parties live in Montreal.

The Telephone Wire Nuisance.

OTTAWA, April 12.—At the meeting of the Railway Committee this morning the Canadian Pacific Railway-Grand Trunk fight about the Lachine road did not come up, but it is set down for to-morrow.

A bill granting working powers to the Nova Scotia Telephone Company was considered and referred to a sub-committee. In connection with this Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick strongly urged that steps should be taken to have telephone companies put their city lines under ground, as they were now being compelled to do in New York. Peter Mitchell spoke in favor of the suggestion, as also did some other members of the committee, who held that the multitude of wires required for telephone services had made it imperative that some such legislation should be had.

All of the other bills before the committee were postponed.

Baysville Postoffice Burglarized.

NEW HAMBURG, Ont., April 12.—About 2 o'clock this morning five burglars broke into the general store and postoffice of George Veitch, Baysville, three miles south of this place. They drove up in a wagon, two men remaining on the street some distance on either side of the store to give the alarm, while a third stood at the door. The two others took $32 in cash, a lot of postage stamps, and loaded up their wagon with a valuable assortment of dry goods, boots and shoes, groceries, etc., to the extent of several hundred dollars. Mr. Veitch had gone to Toronto the previous afternoon to make spring purchases, and the inmates of the dwelling overhead endeavored to give the alarm, but without success, until the housebreakers had got away safely with their booty.

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

ON THE COMMONS' BILL-OF-FARE YESTERDAY.

Senator Abbott's Bucket Shop Bill Read a First Time in the House—Proposed Amendments to the Steamboat Inspection Act—Cat-Calls on Divisions.

OTTAWA, April 12.—This was somewhat of a miscellaneous day in the House. There was a little of everything on the bill-of-fare, the chief dish being talk, which is cheaper at present in Ottawa than in any other part of the country.

The Senate sent over to the House Mr. Abbott's bill for the suppression of bucket shops, which was adopted in the Upper House, and on motion of the Minister of Justice the bill was read a first time

The Minister of Marine sent up for a first reading a bill to amend the Steamboat Inspection Act. The bill provides for the issue of permits and reports by inspectors of boilers to persons for certain classes of boats within certain waters that are defined.

Sir Richard Cartwright arose to do the newspapers of the country a service, but the Knight so bold made a mince of the matter. An agitation has been going on for some time to have the press of the country supplied with bound copies of Hansard. They now get daily copies, but they are all cut to pieces and altered by members before the binding process arrives. Sir Richard said there were numerous complaints from the newspapers because they did not receive a copy of Hansard at all.

Mr. Hesson set him right and told the House that the real grievance was that the editors of the country were not supplied with bound copies at the end of every session. The chances are that these bound copies will be forthcoming in future.

At every division which takes place in the House a series of "demonstrations" takes place that has given rise to much annoyance. Whenever Mr. McMullen of Wellington records his vote a series of "mews," "mews," goes up from certain quarters of the Government benches. Big Herman Cook of Simcoe is greeted from the same seats by a series of "cuckoos." Whenever "Crow" Baker of British Columbia casts his yea or nay the Opposition salutes him with numerous "caws, caws." Mr. Laurier called the attention of the House to these annoyances and said he hoped they would be discontinued. He bespoke for his side of the House due courtesy to the Government side. Sir Hector Langevin said the Opposition was more to blame than the Government followers, but at the same time he hoped there would be no more of these cat calls from one side to the other.

The Postmaster-General told Dr. Landerkin that the postmaster of Palmerston was responsible for any balance due Mrs. Barbara Winkler of Newstadt on the sum of $688.60 contained in a registered letter addressed to her and which was lost on Dec. 12, 1887. The letter went astray in the Palmerston postoffice and the postmaster was made solely responsible. He has paid $688.80 of the amount claimed. Mr. McLelan said further that a thorough investigation had been made, but the party who stole the letter could not be detected.

On Feb. 22 last Mr. Dawson moved for an order of the House for a return respecting Canadian vessels lost or wrecked on the Great Lakes during the past season of navigation. The motion has remained on the paper ever since, but it was reached this afternoon. Mr. Dawson said that a more efficient system of inspection should prevail as to these lakes. It was also desirable to have a hydrographic survey made of the Great Lakes.

Several of the members who live in the vicinity of the lakes made speeches on the motion. Then the Minister of Marine said that the bill he had just introduced would make the very provisions for inspection asked for by Mr. Dawson. "A hydrographic survey of Georgian Bay was being made," added the Minister. Mr. Dawson then withdrew his motion.

Mr. Denison of Toronto called up for a second reading his bill to protect the owners of soda and aerated water bottles. Mr. Denison said to the House that the dealers in these drinks lost large sums annually by having their bottles sold to junk dealers. The bill aimed at the prevention of trafficking in these bottles and it made it a misdemeanor punishable by not less than ten days, or more than a year's imprisonment to have any firm's bottle bearing a trade mark in their possession and which was filled with milk, ginger ale, soda water, etc. Mr. Denison said the measure was purely protective in its scope, and fourteen American states had adopted somewhat similar legislation.

The Minister of Justice condemned the bill from one end to the other. He said that he had himself introduced a bill which he thought would cover the case. The bill in question now stands for a second reading, and referred to fraudulent marks on merchandise. He asked that Mr. Denison look into the bill and see if they could not be amalgamated.

Sir John Macdonald moved the adjournment of the debate on the bill, saying that the Government would see what sections of Mr. Denison's bill could be incorporated with the Minister of Justice's.

Mr. McCarthy's bill respecting defective letters patent and the discharge of securities to the Crown was read a second time without discussion. It is a legal measure and is similar to the bill in force in the Province of Ontario and aims at doing away with obscurities in connection with titles.

There was a three hours' talk on the second reading of Mr. McCarthy's bill for the protection of railway employes. Mr. McCarthy was not in the House, and Mr. Kirkpatrick took charge of the bill. The measure makes ample provision for the protection of the lives of railway employes. Sir Charles Tupper moved the adjournment of the debate on the bill. He said the Government could look into it and see if it would be incorporated in Mr. Pope's general railway act.

Mr. Kirkpatrick's act to permit American vessels to aid vessels wrecked or disabled in Canadian waters, was discussed for several hours, and Mr. Patterson of Essex moved the adjournment of the debate. This bill is a reciprocal one as to wreckage. A similar bill is now pending before the American Congress, and Mr. Kirkpatrick's bill proposes to go into effect just as soon as the American act does.

To Increase Judges' Salaries.

At a late hour to-night the Minister of Justice gave notice of the expected resolution increasing the salaries of the various judges of the country. It is proposed that the salaries shall be:

Ontario.	Present salary.	New salary.
Chief Justice	$6,000	$7,000
Three justices of appeal, each	5,000	6,000
Chief Justice of Queen's Bench	6,000	7,000
Two associate judges, Q.B.	5,000	6,000
The Chancellors	6,000	7,000
Three Vice Chancellors	5,000	6,000
Chief Justice Common Pleas	6,000	7,000
Two associate judges C.P.	5,000	6,000
Quebec.
Chief Justice Queen's Bench	6,000	7,000
Five associate judges Q.B.	5,000	6,000
Chief Justice Superior Court	6,000	7,000

The twelve associate judges of the Superior Court, whose residences are fixed at Montreal and Quebec, are increased from $5000 to $6000, and sixteen associate judges, whose residences are fixed at Montreal or Quebec, including the judge of the district of Terrebonne, from $4000 to $4500. The senior puisne judge residing at Quebec, if the chief justice resides at Montreal, or the senior puisne judge residing at Montreal, if the chief justice resides at Quebec, shall receive $500 in addition to his salary.

In New Brunswick and Nova Scotia the chief justices and puisne judges are increased from $5000 to $6000 and from $4000 to $5000 respectively.

In Prince Edward Island the chief justice jumps from $4000 to $5000, and the other judges from $3200 to $4000.

In Manitoba the chief justice is increased from $5000 to $6000, and the three associate judges from $4000 to $5000.

In British Columbia there is a similar increase, the chief justice getting $6000 and the four associate judges $5000.

In the Northwest territories the five puisne judges of the Supreme Court are increased from $4000 to $5000.

The salary of four county court judges of British Columbia shall be $2000 each for the first three years and after that $2400 per annum. They may likewise accept from the Province of British Columbia the office of stipendiary magistrate and accept remuneration from the province.

The resolution provides that in the case of Sir Adam Wilson, late Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench Divison of the High Court of Justice for Ontario, the superannuation allowance to be granted to him shall be the same as if the salary hereby proposed to be fixed for his office as such judge had been the salary fixed by law at the time of his resignation.

The Minister of Justice will move the House into Committee of the Whole on Monday next to consider the resolution. The increases are $1000 all round.

The House adjourned at 11 o'clock.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

Senator Macdonald Strongly in Favor of a Dominion Bill.

OTTAWA, April 12.—A discussion on Sunday observance took place in the Senate this afternoon in connection with Hon. John Macdonald's motion for a detailed statement of all the petitions, with the sources from which they have emanated, from the year 1818 to the year 1888, praying for the better observance of the Lord's Day. The Toronto Senator expressed himself strongly in favor of a Dominion bill regulating the observance of Sunday. He pointed out that the provincial acts which at present regulate this matter are very defective in their provisions and that they are not as rigidly enforced as they should be. He thought that it was nothing short of a scandal that so much business should be allowed on Sunday as is carried on in all the trade centres of the Dominion. Street cars should not be allowed to run in any city, while at present they are run more frequently in some cities on Sunday than on any other day of the week. Other Christian countries set Canada an example in this respect, and when he found that in such a city as London, where such enormous business interests are at stake, all traffic is stopped and every public officer is allowed to enjoy the Sabbath as a day of rest, he could not come to any other conclusion than that Canada is not doing her duty as a Christian country in this respect. The Senator then spoke strongly in favor of prohibiting any railway or steamboat travel on Sunday, and claimed that the public would be amply repaid for the little inconvenience that would result by better service during the rest of the week. In conclusion he said that a man who is forced to work every day in the week is too much fatigued to do his duty as it should be done.

Senator Haythorne of Prince Edward Island said in reply, among other things, "We are now living in Canada in a very artificial state and to carry out the idea of closing the postoffices and the railways and steamboats absolutely on Sunday would be almost an impossibility. Railway trains and steamboats cannot arrive just at the particular hour they would, perhaps, if they could chose their own time to arrive. It would be a great hardship if passengers coming off a steamship after crossing the ocean were obliged to remain on board until Monday morning. The mails could be dealt with as you please, but it would be hard on the passengers if they could not proceed on their journey on land until the following day. The remedy for these evils is that the population of the Dominion must be more religiously taught, and when they find in their inmost hearts that they can be happier by a proper observance of the Sabbath than by other lines of amusement, then will be the time that the Lord's Day will be better observed in Canada. You cannot make people righteous by law, any more than you can make them sober and chaste by legislation."

The Toronto Senator's motion for the statement named was passed.

Senator Alexander made another kick-up about that reference of his to Toronto morality.

A number of private bills were read a second time and the Senate adjourned at 4.30.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

The Law of Criminal Libel to be Amended—The Fisheries Debate.

OTTAWA, April 12.—The Government will shortly take action to amend the law of criminal libel. The proposed legislation will, it is understood, provide for security for costs being furnished by private prosecutors. It will also contain a provision protecting newspaper proprietors from being taken from one province to another until a preliminary investigation has been held and a commitment secured.

The debate on the Fisheries Treaty will be resumed to-morrow

Speaker Ouimet gave a dinner in his apartments this evening at which half of the company were ladies. Among those present were Sir John and Lady Macdonald, Sir Adolphe and Lady Caron, Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Sherbrooke, Dr. and Mrs. Davis of Calgary, Mr. Brown and Miss Brown of Hamilton.

Sir George Stephen arrived in the city to-night from New York.

Hon. Oliver Mowat and Hon. G. W. Ross left for Toronto to-night.

MELTON MEN MADE MERRY

THE OBJECTIONABLE CUSTOMS ORDER REVOKED.

And the Toronto Dry Goods Deputation Who Went to the Capital to Kick the Steeple off the Parliament Buildings Return with Light Hearts.

OTTAWA, April 12.—G. R. Smith, M.P.P., Fred Wyld and Thomas Ogilvy, the Toronto dry goods men who came to the Capital to kick the steeple off the Parliament Buildings because of that objectionable "Melton" order, left for the Queen City to-night with beaming countenances and light hearts. They succeeded admirably with the Minister of Customs at their interview this morning. Originally it was arranged that the Toronto gentlemen should meet the full Customs Board, but before the hour of appointment was reached, 10.30 a.m., Mr. Bowell had a conference with Sir Charles Tupper and other members of the board, and it was agreed that the request of the delegation should be agreed to. This information was communicated to them when they met Mr. Bowell. The Minister at once telegraphed instructions to all collectors of customs revoking the order regarding the new duties on "Meltons."

The Toronto gentlemen visited the House just after it arose for recess and they all paid their respects to the Premier. The "Old Man" congratulated them on the success of their mission and they in return congratulated the "Old Man" on his youthful appearance.

GREAT RIVERS AND LAKES.

An Interesting Session of Senator Schultz' Mackenzie River Committee.

OTTAWA, April 12.—Senator Schultz' Mackenzie River Committee had an interesting session this morning. The Marine Department sent the committee an Admiralty chart, showing the sea coast soundings of Behring Straits and the mouth of the Mackenzie River up to some distance above its estuary.

Wm. Christie, now of Brockville but formerly and for many years Inspecting Chief Factor of the Hudson Bay Company for their northern district, said he was in charge of a district that extended from the Saskatchewan to the Polar Sea. He had his headquarters at Fort Simpson on the Mackenzie River in latitude 62. He gave interesting and practical information regarding the navigation of the Athabasca, the Clearwater, the Beaver Rivers, and the lakes at the head of the Churchill River, the Peace River, Great Slave River and the Mackenzie itself.

He read extracts from journals of an admiralty expedition which, sailing from Honolulu, passed through Behring Straits in a sailing ship, and the vessel encountered no difficulty except head winds, and when near the mouth of the Mackenzie continued the exploration in the ship's boats and ascended the Mackenzie River 220 miles to Fort Simpson. These boats were accompanied by a private pleasure yacht, the boats and yacht returning to the ship, and the ship passed through Behring Straits back to Honolulu, all in one summer. He believed small seagoing steamers passed through Behring Straits and entered the Mackenzie now with greater facility, and could ascend the Mackenzie River, across the head of Great Slave Lake, and come up to the rapids on Great Slave River, where Fort Smith is situated, a distance of 1360 miles. He also believed sealing and whaling vessels could be built at this point, and the river was open long enough to admit of their going down fishing for several months at its mouth and ascending it again before the close of navigation.

He said the maps upon the table were incorrect as regards the sizes of Great Slave Lake and Athabasca Lake, the former being in his opinion longer than Lake Superior, or about 500 miles, and the latter being at least 250 miles long.

A Modest Request.

OTTAWA, April 12.—About forty prominent business men from the City of Quebec descended on Sir John Macdonald this afternoon with the modest request that the Government assist to the extent of $2,500,000, in building a bridge across the St. Lawrence at Point Levi. It was represented by Mayor Langelier and others that the proposed bridge would connect the Canadian Pacific with the Intercolonial, thus forming a link from ocean to ocean. In lieu of a cash subsidy of $2,500,000 the deputation said they would be satisfied with an annual grant of $150,000 for twenty-five years.

Sir John promised his earnest consideration of the request.

MANITOBA'S LEGISLATURE.

Premier Greenway Announces the Success of His Mission.

WINNIPEG, April 12.—Parliament reassembled to-day, and there was a large attendance of members and spectators. Premier Greenway announced that his mission to Ottawa had been successful, and twitted Mr. Norquay. There had been no compromise.

Mr. Norquay expressed pleasure at the result, and claimed that the credit was greatly due to his Government for it.

Messrs. Jones and Roblin were introduced to the House.

Attorney-General Martin gave notice of his redistribution bill.

The House adjourned till Monday.

A Woman's Fatal Jump.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 12.—Fire this morning damaged the premises 704 South-street. Mrs. Hockman jumped to the street, and it is feared received fatal injuries.

De Mille and Barnard are writing a new piece for Neil Burgess to replace "Widow Bedott" and "Vim." It will bring him forward as a live Yankee.

SAMPLE COPY
OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE.
DIRECT IMPORTER OF
FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by I. Checked by C.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Shirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossomer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general proficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, in this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1888.

THE FISHERIES TREATY.

THE Liberals are placed in a peculiar position regarding the fisheries treaty. When the commission was appointed it was said that in only one way could a satisfactory settlement be made, and that was by means of commercial union. When it was announced that a treaty had been signed, without waiting to learn its provisions, the Liberals shouted that everything had been surrendered to the United States, that Canada had been sacrificed and that other calamities had befallen this unhappy country. The publication of the treaty showed that they had made many erroneous guesses, but the press of the party still asserted that Canada had been sacrificed. And that song is still being sung, though the tune is very discordant. In the House of Commons, however, what say the Liberals, when face to face with the question of the adoption of the treaty? Do they propose to reject it? Oh, no. Do they vote against it or move an amendment throwing it out and censuring the government? No, no. But do they not blame the government in in some way? Yes, yes. They say that concessions have been made—and that these concessions should have been made long ago! And they express the hope that the treaty will be ratified!

In voting for the ratification of the treaty the Liberals display good sense, but in supporting it and at the same time declaring that it is an abject surrender, a sacrifice, etc., etc, they simply make themselves ridiculous. The treaty is a good arrangement, is as advantageous a settlement as could well be made, and the Liberal party might as well accept the fact gracefully. They will scarcely deceive anyone by denouncing the treaty outside the House and supporting it in Parliament.

THIS is the way the Globe summarizes the Mail's editorial page:—

"La Verite! Ultramontanism! Ecclesiastical Tyranny! Romish Despotism! La Minerve! French Canadians. Black Militia! Imperium in Imperio! Habitant! Mexico! President Juarez! Race Cleavage! Rielites! Tithe System! Le bon Dieu! Gallicanism! Sacre! Hoop la! Tories cringe! Liberals cringe! Everybody cringes! Universal destruction! There is no smash but eternal smash, and Mr. Bunting is its prophet!"

The two "great" Opposition organs agree in opposing the Dominion Government, but how they dislike each other. Sick him, Globe! At him, Mail!

A NEWSPAPER proprietor in New Brunswick favors us with a circular asking our opinion of Canadian newspapers. We are pleased to be able to say that they have improved since last year. We have not seen in any paper this spring the familiar statement that "winter still lingers," etc. Excuse us if we do not finish the quotation.

A MAN who had mastered the French language with difficulty, said he found it a useful language to swear in. The Globe seems to be of the same opinion by the way it scatters oaths in French among exclamations marks.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

BIRDSALL.

Correspondence of the Review.

GOOD AND BAD.—Good weather for sugar making and consequently bad for the fall wheat and clover.

IMMIGRANTS.—A party of English immigrants arrived at this station on Saturday. They say they had a very rough passage out.

ENSILAGE?—Several farmers in this vicinity remembering the scarcity of feed last summer, are going to sow corn for green fodder.

AN ADAGE CONFIRMED.—The old adage, "One swallow don't make summer," has again proved true, as the swallows first put in an appearance on Friday, the 6th, and on Saturday the thermometer was down to twenty.

A SPRAIN.—Mr. Baker, the blacksmith at Villiers, has been suffering this last week from a very severe sprain in his ankle, but is, we are glad to say, recovering.

THE SUNBEAM.—The steam yacht Sunbeam has been repainted and thoroughly refitted and is now ready for launching. Mr. Sherwin, we believe, is to be in command this summer.

SHEEP BREEDING.—Mr. Bathgate, Mr. F. Birdsall's herdsman, recently informed your correspondent that from 38 ewes he has 50 lambs alive and doing well. One pair of twins weighed 17 lbs and one single lamb weighed 11½ lbs.

TO ANOTHER SECTION.—Mr. Johnston, the section man living in the station at Birdsall, is about to be moved to a section on the North Hastings Railroad. Mr. Johnston has always been an efficient and courteous servant of the G.J.R. and the public will join with me in wishing him a happy and prosperous future.

If you have a cold, cough, bronchitis, or any form of throat or lung disease, do not neglect it. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, if promptly taken, will speedily relieve and cure all ailments of this character.

BOBCAYGEON.

Correspondence of the Review.

BIG FIRE.—Our citizens were roused from their peaceful slumbers on Sunday morning last, at about half past four, by the cry of "fire"! "fire"! that rang out clearly on the bright morning air. It was soon discovered by a large number of the villagers that a building owned by Mr. John Maunder, of Lindsay, and occupied by Mr. P. Holleran, tailor, and by Mr. Hetherington and family, on the east side of Bolton-st, was on fire. The flames made rapid headway and soon enveloped the whole building. The greater part of the furniture and goods were rescued from the burning building, and then all attention was turned to Mr. Davey's store and residence, but it soon became apparent that it was impossible to save it, as the wind was blowing onto it and the water appliances were not in good working order. The next thing was to get the goods out, which was scarcely done when it was in flames. Attention was next turned to the store owned by Mr. S. McClelland, and as the engines were now in working order, and every one present put forth all their energy, it was saved after a hard struggle; but not without being badly wrecked. The building owned by Mr. John Maunder was insured to its value, and Mr. Davey's loss is partially covered by insurance.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

BLAIRTON.

Correspondence of the Review

A NEW PIER.—The clearing of the stumps in the lake and the erection of a new pier, will greatly facilitate the bringing down of the logs in spring.

MAKING READY.—An employee of the Rathburn Co. has been engaged in repairing the river canoes.

SPORT.—The meeting of the Shamrocks, for the purpose of organizing for the current year, was poorly attended, no doubt owing to pre-engagements.

MARRIED.—Still another couple made happy. Mr. Thos. Kennedy and Miss Hannah Milligan were married at the bride's home on Tuesday, April 3rd.

SHOE SHOP.—A new shoe shop has been started here, under the management of Mr. W. J. McQuigg.

REMOVAL.—The large blacksmith shop opposite Mr. W. J. Armstrong's store has been torn down and removed by Mr. J. L. Aunger.

PERSONAL.—A vacancy has been produced by the removal of Mr. Geo. Terrill, who is about to rusticate for a while.

For Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest ordinary food, Scott's Emulsion can be digested and give strength and flesh when all other food fails. See what Dr. A. H. Peck, Penn. Med. College, Philtcodiac, says: "I have used and prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and find it an excellent preparation agreeing well with the stomach, and its continued use adding greatly to the strength and comfort of the patient." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

KEENE.

Correspondence of the Review.

SOME BIG TIMBER.—Talk about large timber being taken out in the northern part of the county, people should see what Otonabee can produce. There was taken out this winter off the farm of Mr. Jas. Maker, lot 10, con. 14, over a dozen sticks that averaged over 85 feet long and not less than 25 inches in diameter. He has now standing fully 100 trees any one of which is longer than the above dimensions.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

CAMPBELLFORD.

STOCK POISONED.—Mr. John Keith, of Seymour, has lost eight cows and two sheep from poisoning with Paris green, the poison having been mixed with the chop in the barn.

CRICKET CLUB.—At a meeting of those interested in cricketing, held on Thursday night last, the following officers were elected for the present year:—

PRESIDENT.—A. L. Colville.
VICE-PRESIDENT.—C. S. Gillespie.
SEC-TREASURER.—T. S. Taft.
CAPTAIN.—R. H. Bonnycastle.

WATERWORKS.—A special meeting of the Council was held on Tuesday night to consider the matter of waterworks for the village. After a short discussion had taken place it was decided to appoint a committee to obtain estimates of the costs of construction and working of the different systems in use. The committee consisted of all the members of the Council together with Messrs. J. W. Dinwoodie, J. M. Ferris, Chas. Smith and John Shannon. The sum of $100 was granted for the use of the committee to cover expenses, if that amount was necessary.—Herald.

A Bouquet of enchanting sweetness—"Lotus of the Nile" Perfume.

Campbell's Cathartic Compound

IT CURES LIVER COMPLAINT, BILIOUS DISORDERS, ACID STOMACH, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

BRANDON, Man., 21st Oct., 1886.—I find Campbell's Cathartic Compound the best article I have ever used for costiveness or billiousness, and easy to take. I am, yours truly, A. N. McDONALD.

Sold by dealers in family medicines everywhere. 25c. per bottle.

HASTINGS.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. H. W. Fowlds had the misfortune to lose the first joint of the middle finger of his left hand, with the shingle machine in the saw mill, on Saturday last.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED.—A horse of Mr. Wm. Fowlds' which Master Willie Johnson was riding on Saturday evening, shied as he approached the stable, and threw the little fellow, dislocating his shoulder.

A VISIT.—The newly-fledged police magistrate was in town last week, but whether his visit was of an official nature, or to allay the irritation which his appointment has created among the unsuccessful candidates, has not transpired.

GRADUATED.—We are pleased to see John Brown's name among the list of successful candidates at Trinity University for the degree of M.D.C.M., as he belongs to our immediate vicinity. We wish him every success in the future.—Star.

What are These Impurities?

The report of the Ohio State Dairy and Food Commission on baking powders shows a large amount of residuum or impurity to exist in many of these articles. The figures given by the Commission are as follows;—

NAME.	IMPURITIES OR RESIDUUM.
Cleveland's	10.18 pr. ct
Zipp's Crystal	11.99 "
Sterling	12.63 "
Dr. Price's	12.66 "
Forest City	24.04 "
Silver Star	31.88 "
De Land's	32.52 "
Horsford's	36.49 "

The question naturally arises in the minds of thoughtful consumers, of what does this impurity or residuum consist? In the case of the first named powder there has been recently given the result of an analysis made by Prof. C. F. Chandler, of Columbia College, N.Y., late member of the New York State Board of Health, which partially supplies the missing information, and as the manufacturers of this particular powder are continuously calling for the publication of all the ingredients used in baking powders, there can be no objection to its statement here. Among the impurities Prof. Chandler found Cleveland's powder to contain a large amount of Rochelle Salts, 5.49 per cent of lime, with alumina, starch and water, in quantities not stated. Alum is a substance declared by the highest authorities to be hurtful. If the balance of this residuum in all the powders named is made up largely of alum, as it is known to be in some, the public would like to know it. Another official test that shall go quite to the bottom of the matter seems to be demanded.

Newspapers in 1888.

From the edition of Geo. P. Rowell & Co's "American Newspaper Directory," published April 21st (its twentieth year), it appears that the newspapers and periodicals of all kinds issued in the United States and Canada, now number 16,310, showing a gain of 800 during the last 12 months and of 7,136 in 10 years. The publishers of the directory assert that the impression that when the proprietor of a newspaper undertakes to state what has been his exact circulation, he does not generally tell the truth is an erroneous one; and they conspicuously offer a reward of $100 for every instance in their book for this year, where it can be shown that the detailed report received from a publisher was untrue.

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the GREAT MODERN REMEDY. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are so often afflicted with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts, 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle.

WHY DOES A YOUNG MAN WANT A GOOD WIFE?

Because he is married for a lifetime.

JOHN McNAUGHTON

The reliable Boot and Shoe dealer, has just opened out a large stock of goods from the celebrated makers, Messrs. Cooper & Smith, Toronto. Any person buying any goods made by this firm which contain paper in soles, paper stiffeners or cloth insoles, can have $5 for each pair upon furnishing satisfactory proof to me. These goods are all hand-made and marked in plain figures. I do not sell for cost, but I am satisfied with a fair profit and it will pay the public to call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Repairing done neatly, expeditiously and cheap for cash.

JOHN McNAUGHTON,
corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune-sts.
6d85eod-2w15

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND CURES LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and General Debility, PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR

DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND

Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S COUGH AND LUNG CURE

Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Ont

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo' of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1yd&w

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d85eod-w15

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

JACKSON & CO.

Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.

Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.

PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES, tuned and repaired.

Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos. Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card. dlileod-w6-6m

THE RUSH STILL CONTINUES

at the Great Sale of

BANKRUPT STOCK

—AT—

SULLIVAN'S OLD STAND

We have placed on our bargain counter, a special consignment of Silk and Satin Merveilleaux bought at 50c. on the dollar. This lot consists of handsome black Gros Grain Silk, beautiful Satin Merveilleaux and elegant black and colored Surah Satins. This is a chance for every lady to secure a handsome Silk or Satin dress at about half price. Come and see them.

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK

THE GREAT BANKRUPT STOCK EMPORIUM.

SPECIAL.—We have also received a special consignment of Black and White Spanish beaded-all-over Laces.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

POWDER

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Sim oe-st 61

MASON'S

Prompt Service.

Best Value. — If — Strict Attention.

Purity of Goods,

are any considerations in your buying come to

W. J. MASON,

The Family Grocery, George-st.

PRINTS!

We pay great attention to our Print Department. Every good Print, fast color, and extra value. We have the best and largest stock ever shown by us. If you intend buying Prints this season, call and see our stock. We have 12½c. Prints at 10c. and extra wide English Prints, usual price 15c. and 18c., for 12½c. Also a line at 8c. worth 10c. and job lines at 5 and 6c.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & wt

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Winds increasing to fresh from south-west and south-east; fine, milder weather.

No End of Choice.

We have used our opportunities nowhere more thoroughly than in building up our millinery trade. We claim our facilities in this department to be exceeded by none. Our stock is varied, no end of choice among the goods. Beautiful linings, stylish shapes. Both are as pleasing as they are moderate in price. Ladies should see our display. There is plenty to please you without being startlingly novel. Good things in abundance and such as are sure to be popular. Millinery is a specialty at the golden lion.

Cleaning up.

The men employed by Street Inspector Pope in his annual spring cleaning operations are workers and they did not lose much time on Thursday. George-st. from Charlotte to McDonnel was well scraped with horse scrapers, hoes and shovels, and the earth and dirt piled in heaps on the side of the road. It is the intention to go further north, but as the Inspector thought it best to clean the centre of the town first, operations were suspended at McDonnel-st. in the meantime, until Hunter, Simcoe, Charlotte, Brock, Water and other streets in the business section are scraped. If the rest of the work is done in as lively a manner as on Thursday, a week will suffice to clean the whole town, that is, as much as it is necessary to clean.

The Boy Seraphael.

A telegram was received by the committee yesterday, from Mrs. Scott-Siddons, stating that her adopted son, Mr. Henry Waller, would positively appear with Mrs. Siddons here, on Monday, the 16th inst. This sets all doubts on this point at rest. The Toronto Globe of the 4th inst. says, in reference to Mrs. Siddons and Mr. Waller:—"Mrs. Scott-Siddons appeared before an immense audience at Association Hall last night, and was received with much favor. She gave two scenes from 'The Merchant of Venice,' 'Mrs. Bean's Courtship,' the potion scene from Romeo and Juliet, a select tion from David Copperfield and 'The Masquerade' (John G. Saxe). Mr. Henry Waller, the 'seraphael' of some years ago, who achieved considerable fame as a boy pianist, assisted in the programme, and made a decided success. His selections were 'ballade in A flat' (Chopin), Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 2, (Liszt) and 'Melody in F,' and a march, 'Ruins of Athens' (Rubenstein). Mr. Waller gives evidence not only of close study but of true and artistic taste." Remember the above two distinguished artistes will appear in Peterborough, at Braburn's Opera House, Monday evening, the 16th inst. Plan at Hartley's; prices within the reach of all.

If you wish to please your family, flavor your Puddings, Pies, Jellies, &c., with the Royal" Extracts.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Go to the Pantry

for Canned Goods. Prices away down. 3d86-1w15

Open.

The river is open at last and soon there will be no ice whatever in the lake. Some canoeists were seen yesterday taking a preliminary paddle.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Contract Awarded.

Mr. Henry Carveth, the well known builder, has been awarded the contract for the erection of a coach house and drivingshed, at the Bishop's Palace connected with St. Peter's Cathedral.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Baby Carriages.

Messrs. W. G. Bain & Co., late Breeze & Bain, open out to-day one of the finest and largest stocks of American Baby Carriages ever brought into Peterborough, and respectfully invite the public to call and see them. 484

They Come Here, of Course.

The Millbrook Reporter says:—"Every Saturday morning we see scores of residents of this village wending their way towards the railway station, with the avowed purpose of spending their ready cash in the 'cheap John' stores of Peterborough."

Committee Night.

This will be a night of civic committees with a vengeance and a meeting of the Town Council might just as well be held, as all, or nearly all, of the members are on one committee or the other. First the Committee on Appointments meets at 7 o'clock. At 7.30 the Special Committee on Sewerage and the Fire, Water and Light Committee are called, and at 8 o'clock the fathers of finance will discuss matters, preparatory to reporting to the Council at the meeting on Monday night.

New Woollen Mill.

Messrs. Thomas and E. B. Wilson have made arrangements with Mr. Geo. Hilliard for the erection of a new woollen mill, to be occupied by them, early next month. Work has already been commenced on the structure. It will be 43x60 feet, three storeys high and will be situated just south of the present building used as a blacksmith shop. It is also the intention of the Messrs. Wilson to open out a store in the vicinity of the market, where they can meet their customers without having them go as far up as the factory. They endeavored to secure a place nearer the centre of the town, but they were unable to make satifactory arrangements.

The Police.

Chairman Kendry, of the Committe on Appointments, has recently received some twenty-two applications, from all sections of the country, from persons willing to accept the position of chief constable and do their duty without fear, favor or affection. This makes a total of over fifty applications and as each is accompanied by from one to twenty testimonials the committee will have to spend some time in reading them all. Many of the letters are from inferior men not at all capable of performing the duties, but some of the applicants are men of wide experience with testimonials from some of the best authorities on police matters in the Dominion.

Stranded.

On the 20th day of March last Mr. C. K. Mortimer, well known here as the manager of several cheap companies, started out from New York with a comedy company. All went swimmingly until they struck Kingston on Monday last. Business was poor and the climax was reached on Wednesday night when the receipts reached the magnificent total of $19. That settled it and as the "ghost did not walk," that is, the salaries were not paid, a strike resulted. Mortimer had no money, he owed $500 to the members of his company and the proprietor of the Windsor hotel is short the amount of five days' board. A benefit will be tendered the members of the company on Monday. Mortimer ascribes the present condition of affairs to the fact that little Annie Bird did not join according to contract and that he had been deceived in the calibre of the individual members of the company. The actors however say it was poor management and poor plays that did the trick. According to the Kingston News, Mr. Mortimer has had a wonderful career. He has been a journalist, equestrian, showman, detective, insurance agent, railway conductor, shoemaker, commercial traveller, justice of the peace, a gold seeker, a pearl diver, and a lecturer.

If you have a Cough, do not neglect it; buy at once a bottle of Allen's Lung Balsam.

Cocker Spaniel Puppies

for sale. Liver and white and dotted. All beauties, thoroughbred stock. Address "O. L.," box 558, Lindsay. 3d85-1w15

The Pensioners.

Major Milligan, of Toronto, Staff officer of pensioners for this district, paid the old British soldiers, residing in this vicinity, the quarterly pittance allowed them by the English Government.

House Numbers.

The samples of house numbers in metal and porcelain sent for some time ago, have been shipped per express from Montreal, to the Town Clerk, who has not yet received them, however.

G. T. R. Valuator.

The Grand Trunk valuator is engaged in looking after the land that will be taken for the new line to connect with the Chemong Lake road. It is wonderful how property has risen in that locality lately and the assessors should drop up and see what terrible mistakes they made.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

A Complaint.

The stench around the police station and town offices has become so bad that the Police Magistrate has felt called upon to complain to the Council and ask them to abate it at once. His suggestions are timely and practical and if they are properly carried out there will not be much cause for complaint.

Personal.

Lindsay Post:—"A series of evangelistic services will be held in the Baptist church during the ensuing week. Rev. P. C. Parker of Peterborough will come on Monday, 16th inst., and spend a week with us. Mr. Parker has been much blessed in evangelistic work in the past and we believe that his work will bear fruit in Lindsay."

"The Galley Slave."

The attendance at the Opera House last night was small, when Sawtelle's Company produced "The Galley Slave." The play is an excellent one and gave the ladies scope to display their fine dresses, of which they possess a large number. The play was well presented and was received with frequent applause.

What is Fame?

The Ottawa Citizen, among the names of the deputation from Peterborough who waited upon the government, gives those of Councillors Cahil and Mackenzie. It is strongly suspected by Councillor Davidson, that the Citizen refers to Councillor Cahill and Kendry. Moral, the members of deputations should hand cards to the reporters. P.S.—We have a fine stock of cards and all the latest styles of type.

Water at Last.

After boring a depth of one hundred and twenty-four feet, Messrs. Leary & Co. struck a copious supply of water on the market square. They have been pumping all day. The water smells like that from the mineral spring on Milburn's farm, and although it is of a muddy color, it tastes all right. It is expected that after pumping for a time the water will come up as clear as crystal.

Obituary.

Mrs. Isabella Baptie, relict of the late Alexander Baptie and mother of Mr. John D. Baptie, passed away on Thursday at the ripe age of 77 years. She was born in England and resided in Peterborough for a period of about 22 years. Up to about three weeks ago the deceased enjoyed fair health, but since that time she has been gradually failing until death came. The friends and relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of acquaintances.

Marine Matters.

The Lindsay Post says:—"Vessel owners are now upon the alert, and are making arrangements for an early resumption of hostilities by engaging engineers and crews. The Lindsay service will likely be the same as last year. It is rumored that the screw propellor 'Stranger,' the property of the Ontario bank, Port Perry, has been purchased by a fishing syndicate at Midland....At Bobcaygeon Capt. Bottom has again tired of a landsman's monotonous life and has purchased the fine little screw propellor Maple Leaf, which he will place upon the route between Bobcaygeon and Bridgenorth, with stage connection for Peterborough. This will be a great boon to tourists and pleasure seekers, as for the last four or five years the beauties of Pigeon and Chemong lakes have been like unto a "sealed book."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—There were no cases on the police court docket this morning.

—Home grown garden sass is on sale at several of the grocery shops.

—Carter "No. 17" is the highest license yet issued by the Town Clerk.

—A regular meeting of the Town Council will take place on Monday evening next.

—One tramp was registered at police headquarters last night. He came from Perth.

—Another applicant for the position of Chief of Police is in town. He hails from Hamilton.

—If there are any idle stone cutters in this vicinity, they can secure $3 per day at Kingston.

—The regular weekly match of the gun club will be shot on the Riverside Park this afternoon.

—There are two Scott Act cases, both for a second offence, for hearing at the Police Court to-morrow.

—Councillor Kendry has returned from a business trip to New York, where he spent about two weeks.

—The Medical Health Officer to-day paid a visit to the police cells and the fire stable. He smelt them.

—Social parties appear to be all the rage Hardly an evening passes without one or two being on the cards.

—Collector Cumming is endeavoring to collect the balance of the taxes. The money is coming in very slowly.

—The annual meeting of the members of the bicycle club will take place at Hartley's music store this evening.

—Mr. Stone, plaintiff's lawyer in the case of Gervais v. Goodwin, announces that he will apply for a new trial.

—The Fire Brigade of Millbrook are making extensive preparations for their demonstration on the 24th of May.

—Several foreign horse buyers are here again on the lookout for any likely looking animals that they can pick up.

—The frost on Thursday night was about as severe as we have had it for some time. Everything was frozen up solid.

—We notice that Canadian coal oil is rapidly going up in price. In ten days it has increased 30 per cent in cost.

—Carleton Place is agitated over a rumor to the effect that the C. P. R. workshops may be removed from that town.

—The C. P. R. railway application for a charter to run up the river bank will probably come before the committee next week.

—"Spaulding's Baseball Guide for 1888" appears to be the most popular thing in yellow covered literature, at the present time.

—The Wilson Day Company have closed their season and Day himself is playing with the "Wages of Sin" Company at Chicago.

—A Court of the Independant Order of Foresters, to be known as "Robin Hood," has been organized at Millbrook.

—The Williams Co., of Toronto, are after a $30,000 bonus from Oshawa. Once upon a time Port Hope was sure of securing this factory.

—We observe that an "Uncle Tom's Cabin Co," which has been playing the neighboring towns, has skipped Peterborough. Let us be thankful.

—Thanks to the wire fence around the Horticultural Garden, the walks, terraces and beds are in first class condition since the snow has disappeared.

—Ex-monk Widdows, who lectured in Peterborough some years ago, has been arrested in London, England, for conspiring to commit an unnatural offence.

—Complaints are made of tea and book pedlars who operate in the outskirts of the town and greatly injure the trade of those who are doing a legitimate business.

—The telephone men find great difficulty in stringing their wires up Water-st. on account of the large number of trees, which they take great care not to injure in the least.

—Fred O'Neil, who was catcher for our baseball club for a season, is now with the London team and he is regarded as one of the coming players of the International League.

—Mr. Philip Foy, of Belleville, a former well known resident of Peterborough, is here for the purpose of attending the funeral of his mother-in-law, the late Mrs. Alex. Baptie.

—A meeting of the match committee of the cricket club will be held on Saturday evening, to arrange dates for the principal matches with visiting clubs during the coming season.

—Mr. M. J. Henry, representing the advertising department of the Globe, is registered at the Grand Central. Like all observing visitors he is much impressed with Peterborough.

—A deputation of Port Hopers are awaiting a call from Mr. Ward, M. P., to swoop down on the Government and demand a bonus for a proposed railway from Port Hope to some other place.

Minden Echo:—"Miss Leary, accompanied by her brothers returned to Peterborough, on Monday morning last, after spending the winter with us, we will be pleased to see them back again."

—The Lindsay butchers complain that hawkers are permitted to cut up and peddle meat right in front of the stalls occupied by the license men. The same complaint comes from many other villages.

—Lindsay merchants and clerks are beginning to take action under the early closing bill passed at the recent sitting of the Legislature, to have the shops closed at reasonable hours. This is a move in the right direction.

—Lindsay Post.—Mr. J. Stephenson, general superintendent G. T. R.; Mr. J. M. Riddell, ass't supt.; Mr. J. G. Macklim, chief engineer Midland Div., and Mr. J. G. Barnett, mechanical supt., passed this town Monday morning on a visit of inspection as far as Orillia.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

How they Resulted.

During last season the Peterborough and Lindsay Curling Clubs played 10 matches, 4 junior and 6 senior. The juniors won two matches each. Of the senior matches Lindsay won 4 and Peterborough 2.

COUGHS, COLDS, Croup and Consumption CURED BY ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM 25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

POINTS About Clothing.

The highest triumph of the Tailor's art is a perfect fitting Coat. The cutting and fitting must be the work of an artist, and the making a satisfactory job. It is a delight to wear it and a moral support amidst trials to have in on.

However perfect the coat no man can be called well dressed unless his trowsers have the fit and hang which can only be given to them by a master of the line and shears. Nobody is unmindful of badly fitting trowsers with a tendency to bag at the knees. A well fitting pair of trowsers are a satisfactory garment to contemplate.

Vests must follow the coat and give a grace to the wearer's appearance. Neat, shapely and of good make.

Hats have been altered for this season and the styles are more effective than for some time.

Now the moral of these remarks, for the behoovement of gentlemen, is a good one and we want to drive it home. Order your spring suit from

T. DOLAN & CO.

TO BE LET OR SOLD.

THE residence of H. A. Hammond (who is leaving the country), corner of, Brock, and Downie-sts. Tennis lawn at west side of house, good stable, etc., and ground at back suitable for kitchen garden or for building purposes fronting on Downie-st. Artesian well 75 feet, on premises. Apply to

H. A. HAMMOND,

3d86-1w15 Box 350, P. O.

ALTERATION TO

Bank of Montreal,

LINDSAY.

Tenders for the work will be received up to the 20th OF APRIL, 1888.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. E. BELCHER, C. E., Peterborough. Tenders are to be addressed

CHAS. E. L. PORTEOUS,

4ds4 Manager Bank of Montreal, Lindsay

READ

T. HURLEY'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at his office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms. TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

Try Snow Drift

Buckwheat flour. The best quality at the Pantry. 3d86-1w15

Changed Hands.

Mr. Mac. McGregor, of Omemee, has disposed of his well known hotel to Mr. John Boyd, of Peterborough, who will enter into possession on Monday next.

Have you a Pain anywhere about you? USE PERRY DAVIS' "PAIN KILLER" and Get Instant Relief. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. 25 Cts. Per Bottle.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

Geo. A. Cox vs. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold positionishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGGONS, Etc., 30 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

Don't Wait

Until your hair becomes dry, thin, and gray before giving the attention needed to preserve its beauty and vitality. Keep on your toilet-table a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor—the only dressing you require for the hair—and use a little, daily, to preserve the natural color and prevent baldness.

Thomas Munday, Sharon Grove, Ky., writes: "Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks my head was almost bald. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I finally bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, after using only a part of the contents, my head was covered with a heavy growth of hair. I recommend your preparation as the best hair-restorer in the world."

"My hair was faded and dry," writes Mabel C. Hardy, of Delavan, Ill.; "but after using a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it became black and glossy."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

Sold by Druggists and Perfumers.

Pimples and Blotches,

So disfiguring to the face, forehead, and neck, may be entirely removed by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the best and safest Alterative and Blood-Purifier ever discovered.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists; $1; six bottles for $5.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1888.

TO-DAY'S SPORTING NEWS.

THE TORONTOS AGAIN DEFEATED BY INDIANAPOLIS.

Racing in England—Betting on the Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps—Baseball Games Yesterday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 12.—Although Shepherd pitched an effective game to-day he was not well supported, and the home team easily defeated the Torontos. The visitors' errors were numerous and costly, and Shepherd was rather wild at times, adding to the nervousness of his support. Score:

		R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	0 1 0 1 0 4 0 3 1	10	9	3
Torontos	0 0 0 0 1 2 1 0 0	4	9	8

Batteries: Healy and Myers, Shepherd and Thayer.
Umpire: Brennan.

Other Games.

At St. Louis:

		R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0	1	4	3
Chicago	0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 x	2	2	2

Batteries: King and Boyle, Van Haltren and Darling. Umpire: McQuade.

At Wheeling, W. V.:

		R.	H.	E.
Wheeling	1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 x	2	11	2
Buffalo	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0	2	3

Batteries: Krauss and Yaik; Walsh and Will. Umpire: Shepherd.

At Cincinnati:

		R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati	2 1 1 0 0 1 2 0 1	8	3	4
Detroit	1 2 0 0 0 1 0 1 0	5	12	11

Batteries: Smith and Baldwin, Gruber and Sutcliffe. Umpire: Gaffney.

At Philadelphia:

		R.	H.	E.
Athletics	2 1 0 0 3 0 1 1 x	7	11	4
Philadelphia	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	1	3	5

Batteries: Weyhing and Gunning, Casey and Maguire. Umpires: Doescher and Daniels.

At Baltimore:

		R.	H.	E.
Boston	2 3 0 0 0 1 0 0 0	3	1	3
Baltimore	1 1 4 1 0 2 0 2 1	13	15	5

Batteries: Conway and Tate; Smith and Trott. Umpire: Blogg.

At Pittsburg:

		R.	H.	E.
Allegheny	5 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 2	8	10	2
Cleveland	0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 3	2	7	3

Batteries: Morris and Carroll; Maul, Stemmeyer and Zimmer. Umpire: Valentine.

Racing for English Sovereigns.

LONDON, April 12.—This was the opening day of the second spring meeting at Sandown Park. The Esher Stakes was the principal attraction, and was won by Lord Ellesmere's Cataract from a field of eight, with Mr. G. H. Day's filly Abeyance second, and Mr. A. W. Merry's colt Œdipus third. The race was run under the following conditions:

THE ESHER STAKES (a Mid-weight Handicap) of 25 sovs. each, 10 ft., if unless declared, with 500 added; winners of any handicap after March 15, 5 lbs.; of any two such races, or of a handicap value 500 sovs., 10 lbs extra; the 2nd to receive 50 sovs. out of the stakes, and the 3rd to save stake; lowest weight not less than 5st. entrance, 3 guineas, the only forfeit if declared by March 20; 1 mile. 41 subs, 24 of whom declared.

Lord Ellesmere's b.m. Cataract, 5, by Hampton—Corrie, 112.....1

Mr. G. H. Day's ch.f. Abeyance, 3, by Touchet—Miranda Hauk, 101.....2

Mr. A. W. Murray's ch.c. Œdipus, 5, by Bertram or Wisdom—Enigma, 122.....3

Six others ran.

Betting on the Big Handicaps.

NEW YORK, April 12.—An active week is reported by all the commissioners doing business on future events. The most remarkable feature of the transactions is the rush on Hanover for the Brooklyn. Who the backer of the horse is has not yet transpired. It is certain, however, that not a dollar of the amounts that have gone on the horse is stable money, directly or indirectly. For the Suburban a new candidate has loomed up in the outsider, Colonel Cowan, who has been backed from 150 to 1 down to 30 in some books.

Messrs. Phil Daly & Co. report that they wrote 4800 to 400 twice, and 2400 to 200 once in twelve hours about Hanover for the Brooklyn, and had to refuse $1000 in the next twenty-four hours. The most important transaction for the Suburban was 9000 to 300, and 5000 to 200 about Dunboyne.

Mr. George Lovell reports the following transactions on the Suburban: 3000 to 50 Aurelia, 2000 to 50 Hidalgo, 3500 to 100 Joe Cotton, 4000 to 100 Terra Cotta, 3750 to 50 Kirkman, 6000 to 200 Firenzi, 7500 to 50 Colonel Cowan.

Staley & Co. of Pittsburg report the following transactions: 3000 to 100 Miss Ford for the Suburban, 1250 to 100 Colonel Cowan for the Suburban (from New York city), 6000 to 100 Kalcolah for the Brooklyn, 2500 to 100 Stuyvesant for the Brooklyn, 1200 to 100 Hanover for the Brooklyn (from New York), 1500 to 30 Goliah for the Suburban (from New York), 3000 to 200 Favor for the Brooklyn (from New Orleans), 3125 to 25 Le Logos for the Suburban (from Philadelphia), 6000 to 100 Fenelon for the Suburban (from the Blue Grass country).

Donovan & Co. of St. Louis report the following transactions for the Brooklyn Handicap: Blue Wing 3000 to 40, Favor 3500 to 50, Hanover 3000 to 20, Kalcolah 3000 to 60 and smaller bets against these, as well as Adeline, Aurelia, Burch, Dry Monopole, Firenzi, Joe Cotton, Oriflamme, Stuyvesant, Terra Cotta, The Bard, Unite and Withrow. About the Suburban they have written Adelaide 2000 to 70, Banburg 6000 to 50 and 20 to 1 for place, Kingston 3000 to 20, Miss Ford 5000 to 40, Connemara 2000 to 60, and have had the general public nibbling in a small way (but making a fair aggregate) at Aurelia, C. H. Todd, Dunboyne, Eolian, Firenzi, Joe Cotton, Kalcolah, Kenny, Linden, Laggard, Oriflamme, Rightaway, Saxony, Terra Cotta, Volunteer and Withrow.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

"Oh, no! no!" says Mona, shrinking from him. "Why cherish such revenge in your heart? Would you kill me, too, that you speak like this? Fling such thoughts far from you, and strive after good. Revenge is the food of fools."

"Well, at least I shan't have many more opportunities of meeting him," says Rodney. "I shall leave the country just as soon as I can. Tell Nicholas to keep the title with the rest. I shall never use it. And now," growing very pale, "it only remains to say good-bye."

"Good-bye," says Mona, softly, giving him her hand. He keeps it fast in both his own. Just at this moment it dawns upon her for the first time that this man loves her with a love surpassing that of most men. The knowledge does not raise within her breast—as of course it should do—feelings of virtuous indignation; indeed, I regret to say that my heroine feels nothing but a deep and earnest pity, that betrays itself in her expressive face.

"Last night you called me Paul. Do you remember? Call me it again for the last time," he entreats, in a low tone. "I shall never forget what I felt then. If ever in the future you hear good of me, believe it was through you it sprung to life. Till my dying day your image will remain with me. Say now, 'Good-bye, Paul,' before I go."

"Good-bye, dear Paul," says Mona, very gently, impressed by his evident grief and earnestness.

"Good-bye, my—my beloved—cousin," he says, in a choked voice. I think the last word is an after-thought. He is tearing himself from all he holds most sacred upon earth, and the strain is terrible. He moves resolutely a few yards away from her, as though determined to put space between him and her; yet then he pauses, and as though powerless to withdraw from her presence, returns again, and, flinging himself on his knees before her, presses a fold of her gown to his lips with passionate despair.

"It is forever!" he says, incoherently. "Oh, Mona, at least—at least promise you will always think kindly of me."

"Always—indeed, always," says Mona, with tears in her eyes; after which, with a last miserable glance, he strides away and is lost to sight among the trees.

Then Mrs. Geoffrey turns quickly, and runs home at the top of her speed. She is half sad, yet half exultant, being filled to the very heart with the knowledge that life, joy, and emancipation from present evil lie in her pocket. This thought crowns all others.

As she comes to the gravel walk that leads from the shrubberies to the sweep before the hall door, she encounters the disgraced Ridgway, doing something or other to one of the shrubs that has come to grief during the late bad weather.

He touches his hat to her, and bids her a respectful "good-afternoon," but for once she is blind to his salutation. Nevertheless, she stops before him, and in a clear voice, says, coldly,—

"For the future your services will not be required here. Your new master, Mr. Paul Rodney, whom you have chosen to obey in preference to those in whose employ you have been, will give you your commands from this day. Go to him, and after this try to be faithful."

The boy—he is little more—cowers beneath her glance. He changes color, and drops the branch he holds. No excuse rises to his lips. To attempt a lie with those clear eyes upon him would be worse than useless. He turns abruptly away, and is dead to the Towers from this moment.

CHAPTER XXXI.

"Where can Mona be?" says Doatie, suddenly.

We must go back one hour. Lady Lilias Eaton has come and gone. It is now a quarter to five, and Violet is pouring out tea in the library.

"Yes; where is Mona?" says Jack, looking up from the cup she has just given him.

"I expect I know more than most about her," says Nolly, who is enjoying himself immensely among the sponge and the plum-cakes. "I told her the Æsthetic was likely to call this afternoon, and advised her strongly to make her escape while she could."

"She evidently took your advice," says Nicholas.

"Well, I went rather minutely into it, you know. I explained to her how Lady Lilias was probably going to discuss the new curate well in all its bearings; and I hinted gloomily at the 'Domesday Book.' That fetched her. She vamoosed on the spot."

"Nothing makes me so hungry as Lady Lilias," says Doatie, comfortably. She is very trying, isn't she, Nicholas? What a dazzling skin she has!—the very whitest I ever saw."

"Well, that is in her favor, I really think," says Violet, in her most unprejudiced manner. "If she were to leave off her rococo toilets, and take to Elise or Worth like other people, and give up posing, and try to behave like a rational being, she might almost be called handsome."

"Well, really, you know, yes. I think there is something special about her," says Jack, feeling himself in duty bound to say something.

"So there is; something specially awful," responds Nolly, pensively. "She frightens me to death. She has an 'eye like a gimlet.' When I call to mind the day my father inveigled me into the library and sort of told me I couldn't do better than go in for Lilias, my knees give way beneath me and smite each other with fear. I shudder to think what part in her mediæval programme would have been allotted to me."

At this moment Geoffrey—who has been absent—saunters into the room, and, after a careless glance around, says, lightly, as if missing something,—

"Where is Mona?"

"Well, we thought you would know," says Lady Rodney, speaking for the first time.

"Yes. Where is she?" says Doatie; "that is just what we all want to know. She won't get any tea if she doesn't come presently, because Nolly is bent on finishing it. Nolly," with plaintive protest, "don't be greedy.

"We thought she was with you," says Captain Rodney, idly.

"She is out," says Lady Rodney, in a compressed tone.

"Is she? It is too late for her to be out," returns Geoffrey, thinking of the chill evening air.

"Quite too late," acquiesces his mother, meaningly. "It is, to say the least of it, very strange, very unseemly. Out at this hour, and alone, if, indeed, she is alone!"

Her tone is so unpleasant and so significant that silence falls upon the room. Geoffrey says nothing. Perhaps he alone among them fails to understand the meaning of her words. He seems lost in thought. So lost, that the others, watching him, wonder secretly what the end of his meditations will bring forth; yet, one and all, they mistake him; no doubt of Mona ever has, or ever will, I think, cross his mind.

To be Continued.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our Inducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buying—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.

We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per ya Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Teemer and Hamm's Challenge.

BOSTON, April 12.—John Teemer, on behalf of himself and Albert Hamm writes from Jacksonville, Fla., to The Boston Herald offering to give George Hosmer and John McKay 10 seconds start in a 3-mile double scull race for $1000 a side, and authorizing The Herald to hold as a forfeit $500 previously deposited to back Teemer's single scull challenge of last fall and which has never been covered. Teemer adds: We can row any time after June 15, and this challenge we will leave open until April 24, on which day I expect to arrive in Boston. If Hosmer and Mackay have not accepted by that time we shall challenge Gaudaur and mate to row level for the championship of the world any day after June 15 for such a stake and under such conditions as may be mutually agreed upon.

Sullivan Sails for America.

LONDON, April 12.—John L. Sullivan sailed from Liverpool to-day for home. He obtained his belt from the Customs authorities in whose custody it had been since his arrival in England. A large crowd was on the dock to see Sullivan off and he was heartily cheered. A number of his friends followed the steamer for some distance in a tug.

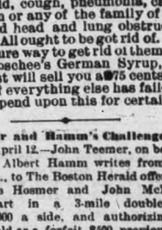
Spots of Sport.

At the annual meeting of the Caledonian Curling Club of Montreal, last night, J. B. Hutchison was elected President and D. Brown, jr., Secretary. The club has erected a new rink.

The Deer Park Athletic Association, a club formed last fall for the promotion of cricket, tennis, football and gymnastics, has elected these officers: Honorary President, C. D. Warren; President, S. H. Monk; Vice-President, Gordon Crean; Secretary-Treasurer, A. H. Selwyn Marks; Executive Committee, Snider, Wood, Gibson, Warren and Coulson. Any person wishing to join kindly communicate with the Secretary, 62 Church-street.

The set-to between Paul Pattillo and Harry Gilmore last Saturday night was of such a knock-out order that it is believed the Police Commissioners will quietly sit on the bout advertised to take place at the redoubtable Paul's rooms on Saturday evening next. The Commissioners think the line must be drawn when blood flows and eyes are blackened.

"Angel Annie."



NEW YORK, April 12.—The case of Mme. Diss de Bar, her husband and the two Lawrences was called this afternoon. It was again adjourned until Wednesday next on account of the illness of her lawyer, Judge Kilbreth fixed the bail of Mme. Diss de Bar and her husband at $5000 each, and the Lawrences at $2000 each. In default of bail they were locked up in the city prison. Inspector Byrnes says Mme. Diss de Bar has in her possession letters from many prominent business and society men in which she is termed "Angel Annie" and similar terms. The letters, if published, he said would create a lively sensation.

Earth's Vernal Awakening.

Now the nights are growing shorter, and the shining sun is sorter
Climbing higher in the heavens as it makes its daily round;
April rains will soon be falling when March winds have ceased their squalling,
And the rattlesnake will amble from his parlors in the ground.

—Nebraska State Journal.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

FROM the OLD COUNTRY

Receiving direct from Great Britain

SPRING STOCK

—OF—

NEW CLOTHS,

—INCLUDING—

The Celebrated Pure Scotch Tweed and West of England Suitings.

The attention of Gentlemen is directed to these Superb Goods before ordering their Spring Garments. The selections are very fashionable, and the advantage of being imported direct will enable customers to get the benefit of much closer prices than heretofore.

H. LeBRUN.

OUR SUGAR CURED

BREAKFAST BACON

CUT FROM

CAREFULLY SELECTED HOGS

—IS—

MILD AND SWEET.

GEO. MATTHEWS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER St. St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR. House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces,

Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals

Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies.

Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin street. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always kept on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on Reid street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d29-1yr

JOSEPH JONES,

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. July

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN. d103w18

G. M. ROGER,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.
E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON.

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant. P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w11

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d32w22

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.
(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-6m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d125w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 00 p m 7 00 p m 8 30 a m 10 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & O. R. Toronto and West, via G. & O. R. Grand Trunk, East & West do East	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 m 5 50 p m 8 30 a m 5 15 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope. do	5 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 5 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, Including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 15 p m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m 11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Fraserville & Springville, Bobcaygeon, Including Bridgenorth & Emaismore, Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Havilands, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale,	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Pandash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m.
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. to each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund x cepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba, and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. O. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 88. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street Peterborough.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries:
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS.

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been SUCCESSFULLY adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
115 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES

FOR

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE

ATLAS

Assurance Co'y.,

OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints. Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

BRAMPTON, Mar. 28, 1887.

MR. S. PERRIN,

DEAR SIR,—Your cough remedy, PINE TAR CORDIAL, has worked wonders here. It is the only thing that relieved my daughter of a most distressing cough and cold which settled on her lungs. I could sell it for you in this locality; would like to have the agency. Send along one-quarter gross. Yours, JOHN FRANK.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent, ROANOKE, VA.,

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England 1yrd7

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE

CHEAP. A SINGER SEWING MACHINE, almost new. For further particulars apply at REVIEW Office. 3486

HOUSE TO LET.

FURNISHED. All modern improvements in heating, &c. Apply to office of JOHN E. BELCHER, Architect and C. E. 3487

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE & LOT, situate on Stewart-st. west, Ashburnham. Apply R. MOWRY, Ashburnham. 6486

FOR SALE.

LOTS 13, 14, 15, 16 north of Dickson-st., (Block LB) Ashburnham. Each lot is 50 feet by 200 feet. High and dry. Apply to JONN FAUCET. 1247

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. References required. Apply BANNELL SAWYER, Charlotte-st. 2487

WANTED.

EXPERIENCED HOUSEKEEPER. Middle aged. Good plain cook. Good references required. Apply, care Box A. Peterborough P. O. 6486

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. 612

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Le Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms cash.

daw JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister, d147-w1l

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to aod ROBERT KINGAN.

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, the handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts., with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,
Barrister, Water-st., or to
C. STAPLETON,
Auctioneer. 8482-1wl

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed,

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER. 1yd88 JAS. R. DONELL.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888

MONOPOLY SURRENDER.

A CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS CONSIDER THE CONDITIONS.

The Terms of the Proposed Agreement with the C.P.R. Presented by the Premier and the Finance Minister—Members Satisfied.

OTTAWA, April 13.—There was a caucus of the Conservatives this morning in the big Railway Committee room, at which every member of the party now at the Capital attended. All of the Cabinet Ministers were present, and Sir John Macdonald was in the chair. The caucus was called to submit the proposed agreement for the abandonment of the Canadian Pacific Railway's monopoly clause. I learn from a member who attended the caucus, that the Premier and Sir Charles Tupper made the following statement which, it is said, was satisfactory to the caucus:

"The Canadian Pacific Railway are to issue $15,000,000 of land grant bonds secured on their remaining lands, amounting to upwards of 14,000,000 acres.

"Land grant bonds have been issued to the extent of some $3,000,000, which are to be deducted from the proceeds of sale of which instalments are yet to mature amounting to $1,250,000.

"The Government is to guarantee the interest on these bonds at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum for fifty years, the principal not to be guaranteed.

"The lands are to be vested, in three trustees —one of whom at least must be a member of the Dominion Government. The trustees are to manage the sales and the prices of the lands.

"The proceeds of the sales are to be paid over from time to time to the Government for the exclusive purpose of forming a sinking fund to pay the principal.

"The Government is to allow 3½ per cent. interest, which is to be available to pay the interest on the land grant bonds. The amount of interest on $15,000,000 at 3½ per cent. is $525,000, payable semi-annually."

It is claimed that there is no possibility of the Government risking a cent by these guarantee bonds. Without reference to the interest on the moneys in the hands of the Government, the annual earnings of the road for services performed to the Government will more than meet the interest on the guarantee. During the present year the ordinary earnings for postal service will be $300,000, and that will be annually increased. Added to that will be all the other services performed for the Government, such as the transport of stores for the Department of the Interior, Mounted Police supplies and transport, and indeed for the carriage of every official on public business from the Atlantic to the Pacific.—These earnings alone, it is claimed, will exceed the annual interest charges.

"The monopoly clause is to be repealed.

"The $15,000,000, or the proceeds of the sale of the land grant bonds, are to be applied:

"1. $5,000,000 for the purchase of rolling stock and equipment.

"2. $5,000,000 for general improvements, including the erection of elevators and granaries on the main line.

"3. $5,000,000 to be applied to liquidating the floating debt of the company."

It was stated at the caucus by Sir John Macdonald and Sir Charles Tupper that none of the credit attaching to this arrangement belonged to Premier Greenway and Attorney-General Martin, who visited the Capital three weeks ago, but that the final decision was reached on the lines that had been proposed before Mr. Greenway's Government was formed.

THE FISHERIES TREATY BILL.

Another Long Drawn out Debate—Maritime Province Members the Speakers.

OTTAWA, April 13.—This was another weary and monotonous day in the House. There was a long drawn-out debate on the second reading of Sir Charles Tupper's bill to give effect to the fisheries treaty. At the evening session it was another case of talking to empty benches. Very few members remained in the chamber to listen to the speakers. Even the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, generally an eloquent debater, could not hold his audience, and there were very few, indeed, who listened to his speech in defence of the treaty.

When the house opened Mr. Mills asked when they might expect the correspondence moved for in relation to the seizure of sealers in Behring Sea. Mr. Foster said that in view of diplomatic matters now in progress it was not advisable to bring down the papers at present.

The speakers of the afternoon and evening were all Maritime Province members. Mr. Jones, Halifax, Peter Mitchell and Mr. Eisenhauser of Guysboro opposed the treaty in strong terms. Mr. Kenny of Halifax, Gen. Laurie of Shelburne and the Minister of Marine and Fisheries were the principal speakers in support of the treaty bill.

At 1.05 Mr. Mills (Bothwell) moved the adjournment of the debate.

Sir Charles Tupper said he could not consent to adjournment at this hour. He was extremely anxious that the treaty bill should receive a second reading at the present session.

Sir Richard Cartwright insisted that it was not fair to force the debate at such a late hour. Several members on the Opposition side, including himself, wished to speak.

There was a hurried conference on both sides of the Chamber and Sir Charles Tupper agreed to allow the debate to stand until Monday evening at 8 o'clock, when it will be made a first order. Mr. Mills has the floor.

In answer to Sir Richard, Sir Charles Tupper said he hoped to make his budget speech next Friday night.

Mr. Mills (Bothwell) asked the First Minister if it were the intention of the Government to introduce a motion confirming the award of arbitrators with reference to the boundary between Manitoba and Ontario. If not he intended to move a motion.

The Premier said a draft bill would be sent to Toronto to-morrow dealing with the award. The bill alluded to by Sir John did not meet the views of Mr. Mills on the award and he said he would have to go on with his motion.

Sir John: "Go on, then, go on."

The House adjourned at 1.12.

TO-DAY'S SPORTING NEWS.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ARGONAUT ROWING CLUB.

The Torontos Again Defeated by the Indianapolis—Baseball Games Elsewhere—Racing in England—The Kent Lacrosse Club—Spots of Sport.

TORONTO, April 13.

The annual meeting of the Argonaut Rowing Club was held last night in the Rossin House. President Henry O'Brien presided, and there was a large attendance of members, great enthusiasm being manifested. The 16th annual statement showed that the revenue for the past year was $800 in excess of the amount received in the preceding year. The present membership is 225, an increase of 60. Reference was made to the new club-house, which, for practical purposes, is claimed to be the most complete building of the kind on the continent. In announcing his retirement from the presidency which he has held for 16 years, Mr. O'Brien said the club is now in a splendid position, and its success and stability are assured.

The receipts were $2558.15 and the expenditure $2510.15.

These officers were elected: President, Col. G. A. Sweny (acclamation); 1st Vice-President, H. C. Hammond (acclamation); 2nd Vice-President, R. McKay; Captain, A. D. Langmuir; Secretary, A. F. Campbell; Financial Secretary, M. M. Kaegland (acclamation); Treasurer, Alex. Fraser (acclamation); Executive Committee, C. C. Bennett, A. B. Barber, G. H. C. Dunstan, James Pearson and A. G. Thompson; Rowing Committee, A. C. Macdonnell, W. G. A. Lamb, W. A. Richardson, H. O. Morphy (all by acclamation); Skiff Sailing Committee, P. Bath, A. R. Denison, W. Dick, A. W. Croil, N. McRae; Delegates to the C. A. A., J. W. Haggard, James Pearson.

Torontos Badly Beaten.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 13.—The home team pounded Atkinson vigorously and with great effect to-day, and the support given him was decidedly ragged. Boyle, the star pitcher of the home team officiated, and at the beginning it looked as if the Toronto sluggers would do him up, but he soon settled down to work, and with the excellent support accorded him performed good service.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	5	2	1 2 1 3 1 1 2—16	16	4
Toronto	3	0	0 0 0 0 0 0 3— 6	9	13

Batteries: Boyle and Myers; Atkinson and Decker. Umpire: Brennan.

Other Games.

At New York:

	R.	H.	E.
New York	2	0	0 0 0 0 0 0 0— 2	7	3
Jersey City	0	0	0 0 0 0 0 0 0— 0	4	5

Batteries: Welch and Ewing; Daley and Holford. Umpire: Pearce.

At Brooklyn:

	R.	H.	E.
Lowell	0	0	0 0 5 0 0 0 0— 5	7	2
Brooklyn	0	8	0 0 0 2 1 x— 15	22	4

Batteries: Staltz and Murphy; Hughes and Peoples. Umpire: Ferguson.

At Philadelphia:

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	1	3	1 3 0 0 0 0 0— 8	15	4
Athletics	0	1	0 0 0 0 0 1 0— 2	4	4

Batteries: Gleason and Schriver, Mallimore and Gilson. Umpires: Doescher and Daniels.

At Baltimore:

	R.	H.	E.
Boston	1	0	0 1 0 3 0 0 0— 5	7
Baltimore	0	1	4 0 0 0 1 0 0— 6	11

Batteries: Sowders and Tate; Cunningham and O'Brien. Umpire: Malone.

At St. Louis:

	R.	H.	E.
Detroit	1	0	3 0 0 0 0 0— 1	7	4
St. Louis	0	0	1 0 2 0 2 0— 5	7	4

Batteries: Getzein and Sutcliffe; Hudson and Milligan. Umpire: McQuade.

At Kansas City:

	R.	H.	E.
American Association Club	0	3	5 3 2 0 1 0 0—14	20	1
Western League Club	0	0	0 0 0 0 1 0 0— 1	5	1

Batteries: Porter and Donohue; Swartzel and Reynolds. Umpire: Sutlan.

Over English Jumps.

LONDON, April 13.—This was the second day of the Sandown Park second spring meeting. The great Sandown Hurdle Race was won by Mr. C. J. Blake's Conservator, with Dictator second and Aghgarvan third.

The race for the Monmouth Hunter's Steeplechase was won by Mr. J. G. Muir's Coonet from a field of seven, with Mr. J. Rutherford's M.P. second and Mr. R. Craig's The Sinner third.

The Walton two-year-old race of 1000 sovereigns was won by Gen. Owen Williams' filly by Silvester—Violetta, with Mr. H. T. Barclay's Red Anchor second and Mr. E. Weever's Catterina third. There were ten starters.

The Kent Lacrosse Club.

BLENHEIM, April 13.—The Kent Lacrosse Club reorganized to-night with a membership of about forty. The following officers were elected: F. E. Arkell, President; Wm. Henry, Vice-President; Ed. Thompson, Secretary; L. B. Shillington, Treasurer; Managing Committee, Walker, Bunnell, Kirby, Thompson, Jeff. Stokes and the officers.

Spots of Sport.

$7250 will be offered in prizes at this year's Dominion Rifle Association meeting at Ottawa.

When Kemp was in England with Reach he was beaten twice by Bubear and once by Perkins. Since then Wallace Ross has defeated Bubear for the English championship, and Hanlan has repeatedly beaten Ross. On public form Hanlan should win, May 5, the championship of the world from Kemp.

Jack Gibson, the celebrated English sprinter, who was in America some time ago, writes from Durham, England, to Capt. A. W. Cooke of Boston that he will accept the challenge recently made by Harry Bethune, addressed to any runner in the world, and says that he will run Bethune 100 yards, 125 yards or 150 yards, best out of three, for $500 or $1000 on each race, at any place that Bethune desires. Gibson claims that he tried to get on a match with Bethune for two months without success just before he left America to return to England, and that James Keenan came to Toronto at one time to arrange a match for him, but was unable to do so.

It is estimated that half a million pounds sterling changed hands on Wednesday over the City and Surburban, of which probably $200,000 were lost by the backers of Merry Hampton, which not only didn't win, but came in absolutely last. The matter has caused a great sensation in the sporting world, and bids fair to furnish a scandal which will eclipse the Durham-Chetwynd case. Mr. Abington, whose real name is Baird, the owner of Merry Hampton, is a gentleman jockey of considerable ability and great wealth, but his riding has been called into question on several occasions, notably so a day or two ago, when, although he had horses of his own in the race, he elected to ride a horse belonging to another sportsman.

Manager John S. Barnes of the St. Pauls, who is well known in Toronto, has no reason to growl about his experience in baseball. He started the St. Paul Club with $800 as his capital stock. It was all the money he had. After he had been in the business a few months he sold a half interest in the club for $5000. The St. Paul club cleared $10,000 last season, and besides secured $7000 from the Boston club for the release of young Sowders. At the beginning of the season Barnes and his partner sold a third interest in the club for $7500. Altogether that $800 investment was the means of winning an income of $29,000.

Panama Canal Progressing.

NEW YORK, April 13.—A Panama letter says that work on the canal progresses, and now that the lock system has been definitely adopted Eiffel's men declare that they can easily effect the work they have undertaken. There is much buoyancy observable, and the belief is strengthened that ships will pass through on the date fixed by Count de Lesseps.

The French steamer Zerouba, from Marseilles for Havre and London, has been wrecked on Guernsey. The crew were saved.

The Queen's Plans.

LONDON, April 13.—According to the latest arrangement Queen Victoria will arrive in Berlin on April 24. Her stay there will not exceed forty-eight hours and she will return directly to London.

Rolling mills, in the metal manufactories, were in use in England in the Seventeenth century.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR.

Indications of a Local Complaint of the Trachea—Attacks on Bismarck.

BERLIN, April 13.—The North German Gazette says that owing to the contraction of the air passage of the Emperor's throat, Prof. Bergmann yesterday inserted a new canula. The Emperor's general condition was not affected. After the insertion of the canula he remained in bed. It is believed that the contraction of the air passage indicates that the trachea has been attacked by a local complaint.

At noon to-day the Emperor and Empress drove in a closed carriage to Berlin, where they visited the Palace. Princess Victoria followed in an open carriage. Their Majesties afterwards returned to Charlottenburg. The Emperor was paler than usual, but otherwise looked well.

Bismarck Defended.

BERLIN, April 13.—The North German Gazette, referring to attacks of the Progressionist newspapers upon Prince Bismarck for what they term his official interference in Imperial family affairs, says such insinuation make as little impression upon Emperor Frederick as similar criticism from the same source did on his deceased father. Prince Bismarck was appointed Chancellor of the Empire by both that they might receive responsible advice according to his knowledge and conscience. They never doubted that Prince Bismarck would watch over the interests of the Imperial dynasty as attentively as over the interests of the country. This confidence stands quite apart from the question whether or not the Chancellor remains Prime Minister. It would have no existence if it were thought possible that the Chancellor could belie his convictions and act dishonestly towards the Emperor in order to remain in office.

A Present for a Princess.

BERLIN, April 13.—The Princess Victoria received from her parents as a birthday present a diamond necklace. It is reported that the Princess has voluntarily agreed to the postponement of her engagement to Prince Alexander.

SEEKING SETTLEMENT.

The Hamilton Labor Troubles—Lost Children—Liquor Conviction Quashed.

HAMILTON, April 13.—There was a meeting of the Master Masons' Association Committee and the committee of the Laborers' Union last night, Mayor Doran, who has been endeavoring to bring about a settlement of the difficulty, presided. The various phases of the trouble were discussed, and propositions were made which will be considered by the different committees and acted upon at a future meeting. There seems to be a desire on both sides to reach a settlement and have the present trouble brought to a close at once. The boss painters and journeymen met yesterday afternoon and the men submitted a proposition which the bosses will consider. The Exchange held a meeting with closed doors this afternoon.

At a meeting of the Builders' Exchange to-night the resolution passed at the last meeting was rescinded and the following substituted as an ultimatum:

That where certain branches of the building trade are desirous of coming to a satisfactory settlement as soon as possible and where we are certain of the trades are inclined to concede it their immoderate demands and thereby prevent a speedy return to work.

Resolved, That on and after April 19 all such branches of the building trades as have made satisfactory arrangements with their respective departments consistent with the rules and regulations of this exchange be reinstated so far as possible at their work. In the matter of such other trades as have not settled as above, we will proceed to fill their places with any man who can be procured and guarantee to all such a season's work, provided they give satisfaction in skill and ability to do their work.

Two children from Dundas, aged 4 and 2 years respectively, strayed into the city yesterday on the 2.1 train. They were returned to their parents in the evening.

Judge Wilson this morning quashed the conviction of Daniels & Wilson, formerly of the Franklin House, for selling liquor during prohibited hours.

At the Police Court this morning Charles Siderski, a Polish refugee, was charged with buying articles from boys under 16 years of age. Siderski does business on Cathcart-street in bones, bottles, scrap iron, rags, etc. He was fined $5. Two similar charges were preferred against Samuel and Joseph Steinberg, who do business at the old stand opposite the Police Station. They were convicted of receiving in two cases and were fined $50 on one charge. Sentence in the other was allowed to stand over.

Mr. James Turnbull of the London and Canadian Loan Company has been appointed cashier of the Bank of Hamilton in place of Mr. Colquhoun, resigned. Mr. Turnbull is an experienced financier, well known in banking and business circles.

At a meeting of the Board of Education last evening it was decided to have nominations and election for school trustees take place on the same day as the municipal elections in future, and the female teachers of the public schools had their salaries increased $50 a year each. It was also decided to ask the City Council to issue debentures for $50,000 to be used for building purposes for the board.

Brewers' Contracts.

ST. LOUIS, April 13.—The master brewers here have determined that when existing contracts with their men expire, which will be on May 1, they will not renew them. The brewers are members of the United States Brewers' Association, and will act in harmony with that association.

Wreck of a Construction Train.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 13.—A construction train on the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham Railway was wrecked sixty miles west of here last evening. Four workmen were killed, one was injured fatally and nine others were seriously hurt.

An Exciting Race.

CHICAGO, April 13.—There was an exciting race between two locomotives on the Burlington tracks last evening, which almost culminated in bloodshed. Volleys of stones were thrown and a pistol shot was fired, but no one was very badly hurt.

CAUSES OF DISTURBANCE.

BOULANGER AND BISMARCK FILL THE EUROPEAN PRESS.

The Fiery General's Campaign Full of Wild Excitement — The Iron Chancellor Has Not Yet Won His Fight—His Infatuated Partisans.

LONDON, April 13.—There is still nothing but Boulanger and Bismarck in the European papers. Reports from the Department of the Nord show that the electoral campaign there has reached fever heat. Meetings are being held everywhere, and they are generally attended by scenes of excitement and turbulence, with a vast amount of noise, the singing of the "Revenant Revue," and wild interruptions. The current seems to be running steadily in the direction of Gen. Boulanger. Nothing is talked of in French political circles but Sunday's election, and what will follow its expected result. There are all sorts of rumors of General Boulanger's intentions, the most circumstantial of which is that he will take a place in the Chamber, make a speech demanding a dissolution of the Chambers and a revision of the Constitution, and then resign and stand for the next vacancy, repeating these tactics till a dissolution is forced, when he will run in every department and secure a popular vote which will amount to a plebiscite. Already in various departments 230,000 votes have been cast for him. The Department of the Nord will raise this to nearly 400,000. All this has suddenly become gravely ominous for the republic.

Prince Bismarck has not won his fight. This is evident from the fact that he gives no word of rebuke to his infatuated partisans of Breslau, Leipsic and Dresden who are holding meetings and circulating petitions asking the Kaiser on no account to lose the services of the Chancellor. Such an agitation is as unworthy of the great man as it is unheard of in a monarchial country. It is noteworthy that the National Liberal party is foremost in this undignified work. There are no trustworthy accounts of the progress of the dispute inside the Palace of Charlottenburg, but there is a growing belief that Bismarck will get the worst of the contest and a well-defined rumor that Prince Hohenlohe, Stadtholder of Alsace-Lorraine, has been offered the post of Chancellor in succession to him. There are numerous signs, also, going to confirm the existence of a serious political divergence between the Kaiser and the Chancellor.

BOULANGIST AIRS.

The Order Against Playing Them in the French Army Rescinded.

PARIS, April 13.—M. de Freycinet, Minister of War, has rescinded the order enforced by Gen. Ferron and Gen. Logerot against the playing of Boulangist airs in the army.

Gen. Boulanger has recommended to the electors of Dordogne ex-Minister Fourton, who urged Marshal MacMahon to become dictator, as a stepping-stone to a monarchist regime. This is considered a blunder on the part of Gen. Boulanger, M. Fourton being regarded with aversion throughout the country.

A manifesto has been issued to the electors of the Nord, signed by Deputies Laguerre, Susini, Laur, Herisse and Michelin, protesting against the employment of police and other measures which they attribute to the Government to prevent the election of Gen. Boulanger. The manifesto declares that the general is a Republican and will enter Parliament to maintain a programme of sincere democratic reform and that he will defend France and the Republic.

The Chamber of Deputies will re-open on April 19, and it is expected will remain in session until the beginning of May, in expectation of a debate on the policy of the Cabinet.

President Carnot has postponed his journey to the South, and Premier Floquet his tour of the departments.

Boulanger's Boast.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The Herald's Paris special says: "Boulanger said yesterday: I have no liking for dragging my sword after me in time of peace. If we had war everyone knows I would take it up again. It's idiotic though to say, 'Boulanger, c'est la guerre.' Why should I think of war when neither France nor Germany wish it. Prepare to wage it, yes; declare it, never. You should entitle your article, 'Boulanger c'est la paix.'"

Supposed to be Tascott.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 13.—A man calling himself James McGee was arrested at Oneida, Tenn. McGee is supposed to be Wm. B. Tascott, the murderer of Millionaire Snell of Chicago.

THE DIVORCE COMMITTEE.

A Permanent Court Practically Established by the Senate.

OTTAWA, April 13.—The Senate to-day practically established a permanent divorce court composed of its own members. On the motion of Senators Abbott and Frank Smith the permanent committee on divorce will be composed of Senators Dickey, Gowan, Macfarlane, Kaulbach, Read, McClelan, Haythorne, Ogilvie and Macdonald of British Columbia. This committee will meet shortly for organization. Senator Haythorne complained that there was not a medical man in the court.

It is understood that the application of A. M. Irving of Toronto for divorce from his wife, May Louise Skelton, will be formally presented to the Senate on Monday, Senator John Macdonald has charge of the bill.

Senator Macfarlane presided over the committee which heard the evidence of Eleanor Elizabeth Tudor for divorce from her husband, Fred L. Hart. The parties belong to Montreal and are very wealthy. The evidence of Mrs. Hart was to the effect that her husband was cruel and had deserted her. Adultery was also charged against him.

The postmen in England are beginning to complain of Sunday deliveries.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths. New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888.

THE STANDING OFFER.

When the National Policy was adopted by Parliament a statutory offer was made to the United States to remove the duty from certain articles when the United States admitted the same articles free from Canada. This offer the United States has not accepted in its entirety; it has not gone as far as Canada invited it to go. But that country has removed the duty from some of the articles, and when its Government notified the Canadian Government of that action, an Order-in Council was passed carrying out the offer which had been made.

A system of misrepresentation has been adopted with regard to this matter by opponents of the Government. It is said that, being opposed to reciprocity, why does the Canadian Government admit these articles free? But the Government is not opposed to reciprocity; it made the offer in 1879, and it is absurd to say that it is inconsistent for the Administration to carry out a policy which it has made a part of the legislation and has never repudiated since. It has also been said that the British Government interferred before the Canadian Government took action to carry out its own offer. Although this statement has been denied and the misrepresentation upon which it was based corrected, the story is still being circulated by the Liberal press. To give color to the statement Sir Charles Tupper is represented to have telegraphed to Sir Lionel West, British Ambassador at Washington, saying, "Immediately on the receipt of the copy of your despatches from Lord Salisbury." What Sir Charles' telegram did say was, "on the receipt of a copy of your despatches to Lord Salisbury." The notification from the United States that Congress had made certain articles free was transmitted in the usual way through the British representative, and as soon as it reached Ottawa action was taken. The British Government does not communicate with the Canadian Government through Washington, but direct to Ottawa, and the Liberal press should know that, even if they did not read a correct report of the despatch, which they must have done.

These misrepresentations are made with a view to confusing the public mind as to the policy of the Government. But its policy is too plain and straightforward and manifestly in the interest of the country for the trick to succeed. The Conservatives policy is the National Policy—the fostering of home industry and trade and reciprocity in natural products—which has been endorsed again, and again by the people—and will be again.

Sir Charles Tupper announcing that the Canadia Government is willing to reciprocate, and the Government supporters voting that reciprocity is not desirable, is one of the curiosities of politics.—London Advertiser.

The Government supporters voted that reciprocity was desirable, and that has been part of their policy since the Government took office in 1878. They voted against commercial union or, as Sir Richard Cartwright calls it, unrestricted reciprocity.

If Ontario has not been growing, as Sir Richard Cartwright would have us believe, how is it Mr. Mowat says that the increase of population made it necessary to add another member to the Ontario Cabinet?

Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech at Montreal called the Conservative m bers of Parliament "serfs." What troubles the aristocratic knight is that they are not serfs—his serfs.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Newfoundland has not, as was reported refused to confer with the Dominion Government regarding the admittance of the island into confederation. The island delegates will visit Ottawa in June.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

VAN BRUNT HANGED.

"Happy Bob" Pays the Penalty of His Murderous Jealousy.

Warsaw, N.Y., April 13.—Robert Van Brunt was hanged here this morning for the murder of Will Roy at Castile, Oct. 7, 1886.

Robert Van Brunt, alias "Happy Bob" or "Salvation Bob," was born in England in 1864. He made his way to London, and there on one occasion attempted to commit suicide by jumping into the Thames, for doing which he was arrested and confined. He came to this country in 1880, and was given employment by Mr. Hughes of Toronto. According to the story he told at his trial, he tried to poison himself with laudanum in one of the rooms of the Y.M.C.A. building (Shaftesbury Hall) here. After this occurrence he joined the Salvation Army and became quite a noted character in its ranks. At Thorold he again tried to commit suicide, this time by shooting, having got into some difficulty with young women. He escaped before complete recovery from the hospital to which he was taken. In course of time he blossomed out as an officer of the army, and came to Warsaw, N. Y., where he first saw Eva Roy, the girl whose brother he murdered, who lived at Castile. He fell in love with her and went to board with her family. On the morning of Oct. 7, 1886, he found her sitting on her brother's knee, and in a mad paroxsym of jealousy drew a revolver and shot him mortally. He was tried, found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced on Feb. 19, 1887, to be hanged on April 15 of that year. Great efforts were made to save him by appeals, but on Feb. 28 last the sentence of condemnation was confirmed to be carried out April 13. Unsuccessful efforts were made during the trial to get the jury to believe that he was insane.

If you have a cold, cough, bronchitis, or any form of throat or lung disease, do not neglect it. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, if promptly taken, will speedily relieve and cure all ailments of this character.

EMILY.

Obit.—The many friends and acquaintances of the late Robt Jackson, of the township of Sullivan County, of Grey, and formerly of the township of Emily, County of Victoria, will learn with regret of his demise, which took place on the 3rd of April after an illness of one week. The deceased, who was widely known, was respected for his sterling worth, was a native of County Cavan, Ireland, and came to Canada in 1836 and settled in the township of Emily, near Omemee, where he lived till January, 1868, when he moved to Sullivan and located in his late home where he made many warm friends. During the troublous times of 1837 he was an active volunteer in the military force, being with his company stationed in Cobourg during the winter of 1837 and the spring of 1838. He leaves a widow and full grown family to mourn the loss of a loved husband and father who have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. The funeral on Thursday afternoon was very largely attended when the mortal remains were borne to their last resting place followed by a large and respectable concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

KINMOUNT.

Accident.—Mr. H. H. Kirk met with a bad accident on Good Friday. He was working on the circular saw in Craig's Mill, when he was called out to help to swing a platform, in order to shunt a car. Running past the trimmers he slipped on some of the buttings, and on throwing up his left hand to recover his balance, it came in contact with one of the trimming saws. Circular saws never stop to make inquiries, but cut the acquaintance of everybody who make free with them. The first and second fingers were horribly mangled, and were a fearful sight. The hand was bound up as well as it could be, and the flow of the blood stopped, and Mr. Kirk took the morning train at once for Fenelon Falls. Dr. Graham was in attendance and the finger had to be amputated. Mr. Kirk bore the pain with great fortitude, and the hand is now healing very nicely.—Independent.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE

FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for

Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—"INVERLEA,"

The property of Judge Dennistoun, containing about thirteen acres of land with the residence, stables, outbuildings, &c., &c. This property has a frontage of about 970 feet on Water street, and 925 on Smith street and about 400 feet on the river, and is one of the most advantageously situated properties in Town for sub-division and sale as Building Lots.

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead,

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession Street, and 240 on the road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub-divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "R," Ashburnham,

Containing about 25 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 34x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HALLTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, Court House Hill. There is about ¾ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c., soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE,

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13, in 13th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. This is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

7th.—Lot No. 21, North of McDonnel-st.

And west of George-st., Peterborough, except the north 75 feet thereof. There are two dwelling houses on this lot bringing in good rents.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,
Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

Bmd85

THE LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

Toronto, April 13.

The barley in store at Toronto is being rapidly moved out by boat and rail.

The receipts at New York yesterday were: Flour, 11,149 bbls and 6335 sacks; wheat, 24,000 bush; corn, 9002 bush; oats, 35,000 bush; barley, 5630 bush; malt, 13,000 bush; pork, 380 bbls; lard, 1801 tierces.

The shipments from New York yesterday were: Flour, 7257 bbls and 3640 sacks; wheat, 15,388 bush; corn, 1222 bush; oats, 500 bushels; 674 bbls; lard, 253,752 tierces.

The receipts at Chicago in car lots yesterday were: Winter wheat, 5; spring, 19; corn, 112; oats, 75; rye, 4; barley, 11.

The estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards for to-day are: Hogs, 10,000; official yesterday, 16,528; shipments, 8268; left over, about 2000. Cattle receipts, 6000; market fairly active.

Beerbohm's Report.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes—Wheat firm, corn strong. Mark Lane—Flour firm. Walla off coast, 6ls 6d, was 31s 7d; present and following month 31s 6d, was 31s 6d. French country markets firm. Paris wheat and flour steady. Liverpool—Spot wheat steady and firmly held; corn strong, No. 1 Cal. and No. 2 Cal both 1d dearer; corn 1d dearer.

Liverpool Markets.

Liverpool reports wheat firm to-day, with demand fair and holders offering moderately; corn firmer, demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 6d and 6s 7d, red winter 6s 8d and 6s 9d, corn 5s 1d, peas 5s 5d, pork 57s 6d, lard 39s 3d, cheese 60s.

Oswego Barley Market.

Oswego reports barley quiet to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 85, No. 1 Canadian at 88 and No. 1 bright Canadian at 91. Shipments, 11,500 bush.

The Egg Trade.

The supply of eggs for local demand was plentiful to-day and prices broke 2 cents. All the commission houses were quoting at 16c.

The Butter Trade.

Good butter was scarce to-day. Prices for tub ranged from 18c to 21c, and for rolls 19c to 22c.

The Potato Trade.

The supply of potatoes for local use was liberal to-day. Some houses are making up consignments for the Northwest. The supply comes from the surrounding country and some from the Lower Provinces. During the week several car loads have arrived. Commission houses quote at $1.20 a bag selling price.

Don't Wait

Until your hair becomes dry, thin, and gray before giving the attention needed to preserve its beauty and vitality. Keep on your toilet-table a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor—the only dressing you require for the hair—and use a little, daily, to preserve the natural color and prevent baldness.

Thomas Munday, Sharon Grove, Ky., writes: "Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks my head was almost bald. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I finally bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, after using only a part of the contents, my head was covered with a heavy growth of hair. I recommend your preparation as the best hair-restorer in the world."

"My hair was faded and dry," writes Mabel C. Hardy, of Delavan, Ill.; "but after using a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it became black and glossy."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

Sold by Druggists and Perfumers.

Pimples and Blotches,

So disfiguring to the face, forehead, and neck, may be entirely removed by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the best and safest Alterative and Blood-Purifier ever discovered.

Or. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists; $1; six bottles for $5.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B. Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

GEO. A. COX,

INSURANCE, FINANCIAL AND GENERAL AGENCY

ESTABLISHED 1858

IN THE FIRE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Under the Management of MR. A. L. DAVIS, we represent a number of Old and Wealthy Corporations, Noted for Equitable Rates of Premiums, and Liberal, Prompt and Honorable Settlement of Claims

CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

Established 1847. Head Office, Hamilton Ontario.

PRESIDENT,.....A. G. RAMSAY, F. I. A.

CAPITAL AND FUNDS OVER	$9,000,000
ANNUAL INCOME OVER	$1,600,000

The continued steady increase of the Company's business NOW EXCEEDING THE AGGREGATE OF ALL THE OTHER CANADIAN COMPANIES, and being more than a fourth of the entire Life Assurance business of the Dominion, its favorable morality, its moderate expenses, and the high character of its investments, afford good grounds or highly favorable and satisfactory profits to its assurers and EXPLAINS THE CAUSE OF THE UNPARALLELED SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY FOR THE LAST 41 years.

Intending Assurers should, in their own interests, examine the rates and profits of this OLD RELIABLE and Successful Institution, before insuring elsewhere.

CENTRAL CANADA

Loan & Savings Company of Ontario.

Incorporated by Act of Ontario Parliament - Authorized Capital, $2000,000

Capital Subscribed	$1,000,000.
Capital Paid Up	$500,000.
Reserve Fund	$70,000.00
Total Assets last Audit	$1,310,223,69

DIRECTORS.

GEO. A. COX, President.
J. R. DUNDAS, ex M. P. } Vice Presidents.
RICHARD HALL, of Hall, Innes & Co. }
W. Cluxton, J. Stevenson, M. P., F. C. Taylor, J. M. Ferris, ex-M.P.P.
W. Goodeham, E. S. Vinden, Robt. Jaffray, D. W. Dumble.

BANKER.—Bank of Toronto and Canadian Bank of Commerce

SOLICITORS.—Dumble & Leonard.

TO DEPOSITERS.—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amount deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is four per cent., either paid or compounded half yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is five per cent.

TO INVESTORS.—The five and ten years five per cent debentures of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1,000 each, transferable by endorsement, with half-yearly interest coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested with the utmost care and precaution, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture-holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the Shareholders having the second. The last audit shows that the amount so invested was over $1,310,223.69, and on securities of at least double that value.

By the Laws of Ontario, Trustees, Executors and Administrators may deposit Trust Funds of the estates which they control in this Company, and are free from all further liability, a privilege of which many have largely availed themselves.

TO BORROWERS.—Money is obtainable from this Company on approved Real Estate Security at the Lowest Current Rates of Interest. The Mortgage may be paid by yearly instalments or otherwise, as may be agreed upon, the interest ceasing at once on all amounts paid on account of the sum borrowed. Applications may be made either to the Head Office, or to any of the Agents:

Head Office, George Street, Peterborough, Adjoining Bank of Commerce.

A. COX, Inspector and Valuator.

GEO. A. COX, President. D. M. SIM, Secy-Treas.

Office Hours 9 a. m. to 4 p. m; Saturday, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

THE DOMINON ORGAN.

D. SMART, Agent, Peterborough.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

THE COOK'S FRIEND BAKING POWDER

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

For Sale by all Grocers.

CARSLAKE'S

GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

			Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000	each prize	$6,000
2nd " "	$2,000	" "	$4,000
3rd " "	$1,000	" "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally)	$2,000
in duplicate			$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally)	$4,500	in duplicate	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888

Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.

Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.

22d eod-4mos Mansion House, Montreal

City of Peterborough

REAL ESTATE OFFICE

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter-st., is the place to buy or rent any kind of property you want.

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S

NEW LIST.

50 Building Lots	from $40 Up.	- - -	Terms easy
10 Houses and Lots	- - -		from $400 to $1,000
20 " " "	- -		from $1,000 to $2,000
15 " " "	- -		from $2,000 to $7,000

4 Business Stands for Sale or to Rent.

1 Livery Business, good stand, cheap,

2½ Acres Choice Garden Lot, cheap,

5 Acres Good Land, with buildings,

10 Acres with Buildings - - - only $1,500

2 Parcels of 50 Acres near town, special value, with Good Buildings, near Keene.

FARMS AND WILD LANDS TO SUIT ANY BUYER.

We also have for sale a Stump Machine, nearly new, at half price and a Good Working Horse on eight month's credit.

The public are requested to call or write for particulars.

THE SUN LIFE

Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSSETS - - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass, Insurance Co'y, Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,

MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH.

MASON'S

Prompt Service,

Best Value, If Strict Attention,

Purity of Goods,

are any considerations in your buying come to

W. J. MASON,

The Family Grocery, George-st.

PRINTS!

We pay great attention to our Print Department. Every good Print, fast color, and extra value. We have the best and largest stock ever shown by us. If you intend buying Prints this season, call and see our stock. We have 12½c. Prints at 10c. and extra wide English Prints, usual price 15c. and 18c., for 12½c. Also a line at 8c. worth 10c. and job lines at 5 and 6c.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 & ws

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Fresh winds, shifting to west and north-west; generally fine and mild.

A Spring Topic.

The ladies have evidently found out that the millinery, mantle and dressmaking departments of the golden lion are in full blast, at least we should judge so from the large number of fashionably attired lady customers who may be seen daily about the premises. The spring stock is all in and the obliging Miss White is prepared to receive all comers and provide them with all the latest novelties, purchased in the best markets, by experienced buyers. In the millinery department are shown all the newest styles and shapes in bonnets and hats. Among the former may be mentioned the "Coquette," "Daisy," "Bride," and "Clayton," of the latter are the "Hollywood," "Geraldine," "Signal," "Venture," "Torquay" and "Matinee." A full line of trimmings, in shot netts, shot gauzes, shot silks, and shot and moire ribbons, in all colors and shades, flowers, feathers and aigrettes, will be found in stock. The fashionable colors this year are the different shades of greens and ambres, and many of the combinations are exceedingly pretty. In dolmans and mantles are shown the most recent styles, with jets in profusion. In dressmaking this house leads. Carpets, curtains and rugs are also shown of all kinds at the golden lion.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

The Great Elocutionist.

Mrs. Scott-Siddon's appearance in the Opera House on Monday evening is arousing great interest and there is now no doubt that the hall will be filled. The committee in charge only announced Mrs. Scott-Siddons' appearance, but two days ago, on the strength of a telegram from her manager, which said "Waller does appear with Mrs. Siddons," they added that the boy pianist would take part in the entertainment. There was some mistake about the matter, as it is learned from a letter received this morning that Mr. Waller has to go to New York to-day. However, it is Mrs. Scott-siddons that the people desire to hear, and, in new and beautiful costumes, she will give an unexcelled programme on Monday evening Plan of hall at Hartley's.

A Flier.

As will be seen by the following from the Lindsay Post, Mr. "Joe." Daly is keeping up his reputation as a lover of a speedy nag:—"The Congress Hall stables are now the centre of attraction for our local horsemen, as they contain an active, handsome colt by "Phil Rysdyke," from the promising young mare "Elsie D." The "youngster," though only four days old, is as nimble as a cricket and is a Jim-dandy in every particular, possessing the true trotting lines to an unlimited extent. If appearances and general make up count for aught, but few years should elapse before we shall see his name enrolled in the 2.30 list. Mr. Daly is highly pleased with the Hambletonian acquisition to his equine stock and is always ready to show his friends the coming "flyer."

A Bouquet of enchanting sweetness—"Lotus of the Nile" Perfume.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Try Snow Drift

Buckwheat flour. The best quality at the Pantry. 3d86-1w15

High and Dry.

Beautiful building lots for sale on easy terms. Between 30 and 40 sold in the last few months. JOHN CARLISLE.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

A Break.

The waterworks main near the corner of George and Murray-sts. has been leaking for some days, and this morning men were set to work to repair the damage.

The Cyclists.

A meeting of the members of the bicycle club was called for Friday evening, and as only a small number was present the meeting was postooned until a further date.

The Choir Entertained.

The choir of the George-st. Methodist Church and some friends, to the number of about thirty, spent a very pleasant time at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Fife last evening.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Town Council.

A regular meeting of the Town Council will take place on Monday evening, and from the character of the business on hand it is expected that things will be pretty lively.

Baby Carriages.

Messrs. W. G. Bain & Co., late Breeze & Bain, open out to-day one of the finest and largest stocks of American Baby Carriages ever brought into Peterborough, and respectfully invite the public to call and see them. d84

The Cost.

The town well is bored 124 feet, as measured by Chairman McNeil of the Fire, Water and Light Committee. The contractors also charge for four feet of pump, so that at $2 per foot the cost to the town will be $256.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

Personal.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—"Mr. Z. Gallagher, student at law, late of the office of Clute & Williams, of this city, has obtained a situation in the office of E. B. Edwards, Esq., Barrister, in the town of Peterborough. Mr. Gallagher will be much missed, particularly in the society in which he moved, as he was very highly respected by all who knew him. We wish him every success in his new departure."

The Gun Club.

The following are the scores made at the Gun Club practice match on Friday afternoon:—

John Miller	0	1	0	1	0	0	1	0	1	1—5
H. Calcutt	1	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	1	0—4
R. Tivey	0	1	0	0	1	1	0	1	1	1—6
A. E. Thompson	1	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0—3
H. Neil	1	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	1—5
J. D. Collins	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1—10
C. Calcutt	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1—4
G. S. Miller	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	0—2
R. W. Tivey	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0—2

Cricket.

Mr. H. Day, the new professional for the Cricket Club, has arrived in town for the season. He comes well recommended and is a likely looking cricketer. As proof of his staying powers he only yesterday received a cablegram from Folkestone, England, from the club with which he had been for the last two seasons, asking him to again accept the position of professional, but of course the invitation was declined.

More Light.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee held a meeting last night. It was decided to order the Water Company to proceed at once to lay down mains on Brock and McDonnel-sts., in accordance with petitions presented from a majority of the ratepayers residing on those streets, the Town Solicitor having given his opinion that the Council had such power. It was also agreed that the electric lights at George and McDonnel and, George and Dublin-sts., be taken by the town and that those at George and London and George and Edinburg be not taken.

Another New Railroad.

Says the Cobourg World:—"Brighton is trying to secure the eastern terminus of the proposed Collingwood and Bay of Quinte Railroad, and a civic deputation, composed of Sheriff Proctor, Reeve Weller, Major Webb, J. G. Robinson, M. K. Lockwood and C. A. Lapp, have gone to Ottawa to further the scheme. E. Cochrane, M. P., is one of its promoters, and was unpatriotic enough to say that the road, if built, would afford a shorter route to the sea-board for the carrying trade of the North-West, by way of Duluth, than any Canadian route, by way of Thunder Bay. When the Murray is completed, Presqu'isle harbor will virtually be the head waters of the Bay of Quinte, and it is claimed that Brighton is 10 miles nearer than any other terminal point that can be named. Mr. Cochrane thinks that the projected Inverhuron and Port Hope line will be amalgamated with the Collingwood and Brigton road. Is the phantom city of Port Hope going to allow herself to be circumvented by the Missourian village of Brighton?"

The Police.

The Committee on Appointments held a meeting last night. It is composed of Councillors Kendry (Chairman), Kelly, Moore, Hall, Yelland, Winch and McNeil. All of them were on hand and shortly after half past seven o'clock they commenced business. The fifty-one applications for the office of chief constable were read Many of them had numerous testimonials and at least half a dozen announced themselves as "terrors to evil doers." The applications came from all sections of the country, from such men as Sergeant Breckenreid, of Toronto, Chief Hinds, of Trenton, Sergeant Young, of Brockville, and Captain Grant, of Toronto. The matter was thoroughly canvassed and at times the discussion grew rather warm. After reading, debating and talking for over three hours and three quarters a majority of the committee decided that they should recommend that the police force be composed of Mr. Berzell, of St. Catherines, as chief at $700 per year, and Constables R. H. Adams, C. McGinty and Angus McIntosh. The whole matter will come up again at the Council meeting on Monday night, when no doubt the battle will be fought over and the public will have an opportunity of hearing many of the things talked over in committee.

For Trial.

County Police Magistrate Edmison will try an adjourned Scott Act case from Indian River and one from Keene, on Monday, at the Court House.

Scott Act.

At the Police Court this morning Mr. John Clancy charged with a second offence against the Scott Act and the case was enlarged till Monday. A similar charge against Mr. Henry Brault was also enlarged.

Sewerage.

The Special Committee on Sewerage did not do much business last night. The replies to the circulars sent out by Councillor McNeil to the principal engineers in America were read. The Council will have to deal with the matter.

Finance.

The Finance Committee of the Town Council did not take long to dispose of their business last evening. A number of accounts were looked through and at the next meeting of the Town Council, Chairman Davidson will bring in a report recommending that they be paid.

The Theatre.

The Sawtelle Company presented "A Wife's Secret" at the Opera House last night to a well filled and appreciative audience. The piece was played in an excellent manner, in fact the company made the best impression with it that they have done so far. The costumes of the ladies were rich and tasteful and taken altogether the company scored a success.

Brevities.

—Belleville market tolls have been let for $2,705.

—The channel is open between Lakefield and Young's Point.

—The Bay of Quinte is clear at Belleville from shore to shore.

—There are signs of a bicycling boom in Port Hope this year.

—The fishing season opens on Sunday and continues until June 15th.

—The Sawtelle Company leave on Monday for Lindsay, where they play a week's engagement.

—A branch of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association was organized at Belleville on Thursday night.

—The Grand Trunk, it is said, will commence laying a double track from Belleville to Sidney station next week.

—According to the regulations of the education department, the first Friday in May is set apart as Arbor Day.

—A prayer meeting will be held in the large class room to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock in the George-st Methodist Church.

—The Belleville assizes open on Monday. There are three criminal cases, and civil list comprizes 20 jury and 10 non-jury cases.

—No less than seven cigar travellers were registered at the Grand Central on Friday. They must have found business rather flat.

—Prof. Kauffman, the violinist with the Sawtelle company, is well known here. He is a good player and his music is appreciated.

—According to the Post about 30,000 cords of hardwood were used in Lindsay last winter, in addition to a large quantity of coal.

—The market to-day was not a large one and the buyers who were out in good force had but little choice to make in their purchases.

—A fire at Bobcaygeon, on Sunday, did considerable damage to the tailor shop of Mr. P. Holleran, a former resident of Peterborough.

—Three tramps were registered at the police station last night. They claimed Lindsay, Havelock and Montreal as their places of residence.

—Nothwithstanding the bad weather there are a large number of country people in town to-day and the merchants appear to be reaping the benefit.

—All of the Bobcaygeon merchants have petitioned the council to adopt the early closing law, passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature.

—On the market this morning there were two famers selling maple syrup. One asked $1.30 per gallon and the other $1.00. As may be imagined the cheap man had the call.

—Prof. Doucet has been up in the northern wilds and according to the Bobcaygeon Independent "he distributed the best dance music ever heard in Haliburton."

—Gospel Temperance Song Service tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Mr. Clegg will preside. A solo is expected from Miss Maggie Allen, and readings. All are invited.

—A minitature winter set in on Friday night and for a time it looked as if sleighing would again be fashionable, but it turned to rain and this morning the beautiful was all gone.

—The contractors are still pumping water from the town well on the market square. The somewhat unpleasant odor still clings to the liquid, but it is expected that that will soon pass away.

—There are no less than fifty-one gentlemen who are willing to serve the town of Peterborough in the capacity of chief constable. There is one thing certain, all of them will not be appointed.

—George Greer, son of Richard Greer, a farmer of the Township of Fenelon, was killed on Friday afternoon by the falling of a tree which he was chopping in the woods. He only lived half an hour after the accident.

—The cigars and wine, which the young man Hicks was alleged to have stolen from the Grand Central, but in whose case the Grand jury returned "no bill," were handed over to Hicks, by order of the presiding judge.

LINDSAY.

PERSONAL.—Mr. C. E. L. Porteous, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Lindsay, has returned from a month's holiday trip south with Mr. Jas. Ross and other friends. They got as far south as Florida, and the weather becoming rather warm they returned to more congenial climes. Mr. Porteous has been greatly benefitted by the needed vacation.

LAKE AND RIVER TRAFFIC.—An exceptionally large river and lake traffic is predicted for this season. Several steamboat men have already entered into towing contracts which will occupy the better part of the summer to execute; large blocks of sawlogs will require considerable "tugging," and immense quantities of cordwood, ties and other forest produce lie piled here and there along about seventy-five miles of shore line awaiting shipment to Lindsay. M. Boyd & Co.'s large mill at Bobcaygeon will be kept running day and night, and several steamers will be required to convey the cut to Lindsay.

RAILWAY AT THE MILL.—Bobcaygeon is to have a railway! Fact—strong, startling, incontrovertible. Four or five carloads of iron rails arrived last week for consignment to that berg, and were loaded on sleighs and taken down over the ice road, enabling enormous loads to be drawn. The horses' tugs were about three times the ordinary length so that if the heavy loads broke through the ice the animals might escape. The rails are intended for a system of tramways in connection with M. M. Boyd & Co.'s large saw mill there, and will greatly facilitate handling the immense quantity of lumber cut during the season—ten or twelve millions of feet.—Post.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

CORRESPONDENCE.

While correspondents will be allowed space to discuss questions of public interest, the Review does not hold itself responsible for the opinions expressed.

The Streets.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Would it not be an improvement on the present modus operandi of cleaning the streets if instead of leaving the great piles of mud on the streets to obstruct traffic and render it dangerous, that they should be cleaned up and carted away at once. No private individual would think of doing work in this shape.

Yours, &c.,
CIVIS.

Peterborough, April 14, 1888.

Wedged In.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I see by your contemporary that the Athletic Association is to have some sports "wedged in during the summer. If the writer of the article was anxious to find out what the Association intended doing during the coming season he could have found out without much exertion. The Athletic Association has prospered since its formation, though it has not had that hearty support from some that it should have had. The objects of the Association are not merely to provide means for the young (or the old for that matter) to kill time, but to promote a vigorous and healthy state of body, which is next, if not equal, to a healthy mind. Every man that is not dead to selfishness should support this organization, because it requires pluck and perseverance to go in successfully for any sport, and these are two things required to make a nation great. Show me a man that has never gone in for any sport and I will show you a crank of some shape or form. I did not intend writing so much when I took up my pen, but I did not like to see this organization spoken of so slightingly by any paper. Its objects are as noble as any of those mentioned in the article referred to.

Yours, &c.,
SPORT.

Peterborough, April 14, 1888.

St. Andrews Church.

A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st, on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents. 9d82-eod

LITERARY NOTES.

Literature, an Illustrated Weekly $(1.00 a year), has certainly successfully taken the field as the popular literary journal of America. Its great variety of contents, handy form, and choice illustrations, make it exceedingly attractive. Foremost American author are among its contributors. Mrs. Susan E. Wallace, wife of the author of "Ben Hur," and quite as charming a writer as her husband, has papers in two current issues on "The Poetry and Music of the Arabs." For a specimen copy (free), address John B. Alden, Publisher, 393, Pearl-st., New York; P. O. Box 1,227.

Novel in name, form, purpose and method is The Novelist, Alden's new weekly magazine of American fiction. It undertakes to give the worthiest fiction that American authors can be tempted to produce. Foreign authors not admitted. It is not sentimental talk about justice to American authors, but is bold, practical action. It is certainly handy in form, beautiful in dress, excellent in all mechanical qualities, and low in price; well suited in all respects to meet the wants of the intelligent millions who are capable of appreciating "the best"—it will not stoop to compete with the "gutter fiction" of the sensational periodicals and libraries. Terms, $1.00 a year, at which rate it will give over 2,500 pages, equal to from eight to twelve ordinary American dollar novels. The stories will follow successively, one at a time, a novel of ordinary length thus being completed in from four to eight weeks. If one story does not please, you will not have long to wait for the next. For a ten cent subscription (if you don't wish to enter for all at $1.00), you will receive the first chapters of every story published during the year, which you can then order separately, if you wish. A specimen copy of The Novelist will be sent free on request. Address, John B. Alden, Publisher, 393 Pearl-st. St., New York; P. O. Box 1,227.

One of the greatest literary hits of the season is the story of "Baby Bunting; or, the Alphabet of Love," by Laura Jean Libbey, which is at present being published in the columns of the New York Family Story Paper. The paper containing the opening chapters of this wonderful popular romance appeared on the news stands this morning. The tremendous rush for that number by the young ladies of the town shows clearly that the publishers have struck a bonanza. The Family Story Paper is for sale by all newsdealers, or will be sent to any address four months, postage free, for $1.00. Normon L. Munro, Publisher, 24 and 26 Vandewater-st., New York.

From Messrs. Hubbard Bros., Philadelphia, we have received "The Doom of Mamelons," a legend of the Saguenay, a new story by Mr. W. H. H. Murray. It is a novel production, but fascinating. It is printed as prose but reads like poetry, the sentiments, descriptions, cadence and language being poetical throughout. The story is founded upon a legend and the material is used advantageously, while Mr. Murray's knowledge of the locality and great fund of information enhances the value of the work. It is pleasant reading and the other works of the same character promised will be awaited with interest.

Go to the Pantry

for Canned Goods. Prices, away down. 3d86-1w15

Don't

go to Sproule's for poor photographs, he don't make such. His work is only the very best. Prices the same as the others, and cash. No credit given. Corner Hunter and George-sts.

SUMMER COMFORT

Doesn't always depend on the circumstances of location. It far oftener depends on the exercise of good judgment in the selection of

Summer Clothing.

People are to a large extent, dependent on well selected Clothing for comfort during the hot months. All mankind in the country are interested in our stock of Seasonable Clothes and Garments, a stock that embraces every New and Popular Light Weight fabric, made up in the Best and Most Stylish manner. Our prices are just as right as our Goods and both satisfactory.

T. Dolan & Co

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

WATER FILTERS,

To insure good health it is absolutely necessary to have pure water, and no water is entirely free from floating matter and disease germs without thorough Filteration. The majority of cases of Typhoid and other low fevers are in a measure caused from unfiltered and impure water, so that every family who values its health should have a reliable Filter. Numerous Filters are offered to the public varying in points of excellence, but for Cheapness, Efficiency and Durability, our Filters cannot be surpassed.

No Corroding Substances are used in construction.

The Packing material is the most Powerful specially prepared granulated Carbon.

It will last for years with the ordinary use of a family, and the material may be obtained at any time for replenishing at small expense.

The construction is our own patent, and combines all the essential requirements of a first-class Filter with access for cleansing. Instructions accompany each Filter. For sale only in Peterborough at

CHINA HALL.

If you wish to please your family, flavor your Puddings, Pies, Jellies, &c., with the Royal" Extracts.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

TO BE LET

OR SOLD.

THE residence of H. A. Hammond (who is leaving the country), corner of Brock and Downie-sts. Tennis lawn at west side of house, good stable, etc., and ground at back suitable for kitchen garden or for building purposes fronting on Downie-st. Artesian well 75 feet, on premises. Apply to

H. A. HAMMOND,

3d88-1w15 Box 350, P. O.

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director.

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

Geo. A. Cox VS. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold astonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, WAGGONS, Etc., 30 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

LEBRUN

LEADS THE STYLES IN CLOTHING.

SPLENDID BARGAINS!

700 PAIRS OF

TWEED PANTS

Bought at a B... Clearing Sale at Montreal and ... sold at half value.

SEE THE VALUE

TWEED PANTS AT $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 AND $2,50.

These are the Best Value ever offered and cannot be equalled.

Men, Youths and Boys who are wanting ordered or ready-made Clothing should call and examine our large stock of new Tweeds for Men's and Boys' wear.

H. LEBRUN, The City Clothing Store, No. 396 GEORGE STREET.

BUY THE

Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Brodigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. L. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Fife, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve,) Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Otonabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Buller, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Rose, Peterborough, Mr. J. J. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. L. Hughes, Peterborough, Mrs. Eliza Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,

Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

A STORY OF THESE TIMES.

Lady Rodney regards him curiously, trying to read his downcast face. Has the foolish boy at last been brought to see a flaw in his idol of clay?

Nicholas is looking angry. Jack, sinking into a chair near Violet, says, in a whisper, that "it is a beastly shame his mother cannot let Mona alone. She seems, by Jove! bent on turning Geoffrey against her."

"It is cruel," says Violet, with suppressed but ardent ire.

"If—if you loved a fellow, would anything turn you against him?" asks he, suddenly, looking her full in the face.

And she answers,—

"Nothing. Not all the talking in the wide world," with a brilliant blush, but with steady, earnest eyes.

"Nolly, mistrustful of Geoffrey's silence, goes up to him, and, laying his hands upon his shoulders, says, quietly:

"Mrs. Geoffrey is incapable of making any mistake. How silent you are, old fellow!"

"Eh?" says Geoffrey, rousing himself and smiling genially. "A mistake? Oh, no. She never makes mistakes. I was thinking of something else. But she really ought to be in now, you know; she will catch her death of cold."

The utter want of suspicion in his tone drives Lady Rodney to open action. To do her justice, dislike to Mona has so warped her judgment that she almost believes in the evil she seeks to disseminate about her.

"You are wilfully blind," she says, flushing hotly, and smoothing with nervous fingers an imaginary wrinkle from her gown. "Of course I explained matters as well as I could to Mitchell, but it was very awkward and very unpleasant, and servants are never deceived."

"I hardly think I follow you," says Geoffrey, in a frozen tone. In regard to what would you want your servants deceived?"

"Of course it is quite the correct thing your taking it in 'his way,'" goes on his mother, refusing to be warned, and speaking with irritation,—"the only course left open; but it is rather absurd with me. We have all noticed your wife's extraordinary civility to that shocking young man. Such bad taste on her part, considering how he stands with regard to us, and the unfortunate circumstances connected with him. But no good ever comes of unequal marriages."

"Now, once for all, mother——" begins Nicholas, vehemently, but Geoffrey, with a gesture, silences him.

"I am perfectly content, nay, more than content, with the match I have made," he says, haughtily; "and if you are alluding to Paul Rodney, I can only say I have noticed nothing reprehensible in Mona's treatment of him."

"You are very much to be admired," says his mother, in an abominable tone.

"I see no reason why she should not talk to any man she pleases. I know her well enough to trust her anywhere, and am deeply thankful for such knowledge. In fact," with some passion, sudden but subdued, "I feel as though in discussing her in this cold-blooded fashion I am doing her some grievous wrong."

"It almost amounts to it," says Nicholas, with a frown.

"Besides, I do not understand what you mean," says Geoffrey, still regarding his mother with angry eyes. "Why connect Mona's absence with Paul Rodney?"

"I shall tell you," exclaims she, in a higher tone, her pale-blue eyes flashing. "Two hours ago my own maid received a note from Paul Rodney's man directed to your wife. When she read it she dressed herself and went from this house in the direction of the wood. If you cannot draw your own conclusions from these two facts, you must be duller or more obstinate than I give you credit for."

She ceases, her work is accomplished. The others in the room grow weak with fear, as they tell themselves that things are growing too dreadful to be borne much longer. When the silence is quite insupportable, poor little Dorothy struggles to the front.

"Dear Lady Rodney," she says, in a tremulous tone, "are you quite sure the note was from that—that man?"

"Quite sure," returns her future mother-in-law, grimly. "I never speak, Dorothy, without foundation for what I say."

Dorothy, feeling snubbed, subsides into silence and the shadow that envelopes the lounge upon which she is sitting.

To the surprise of everybody, Geoffrey takes no open notice of his mother's speech. He does not give way to wrath, nor does he open his lips upon any subject. His face is innocent of anger, horror, or distrust. It changes, indeed, beneath the glow of the burning logs, but in a manner totally unexpected. An expression that might even be termed hope lights it up. Like this do his thoughts run: "Can it be possible that the Australian has caved in, and, fearing publicity after last night's fiasco, surrendered the will to Mona?"

Possessed with this thought,—which drowns all others,—he clasps his hands behind his back and saunters to the window. "Shall he go and meet Mona and learn the truth at once? Better not, perhaps; she is such a clever child that it is as well to let her achieve victory without succor of any sort."

He leans against the window and looks out anxiously upon the darkening twilight. His mother watches him with curious eyes. Suddenly he electrifies the whole room by whistling in a light and airy fashion his favorite song from "Madame Favart." It is the "Artless Thing," and nothing less, and he whistles it deliberately from start to finish.

It seems such a direct running commentary on Mona's supposed ill deed that every one—as by a single impulse—looks up. Nolly and Jack Rodney exchange covert glances; but for the depression that reigns all round, I think these two would have given way to frivolous merriment.

To be Continued.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS

AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM

Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1,00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming. Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.

(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Mr. Justice Henry Seriously Ill—Parliament to be Prorogued About May 18.

OTTAWA, April 13.—Mr. Justice Henry of the Supreme Court was seized with three epileptic fits to-day. He was attended by Dr. Ferguson, M. P. for Leeds and Grenville, and Dr. Montague. To-night His Lordship was reported to be somewhat better.

To-morrow is the last day for depositing factums, and Monday the last day for inscribing appeals for the next session of the Supreme Court, which commences on May 1. It is not anticipated that there will be a very large list of cases, but it is probable that there will be election appeals from East Simcoe, Maskinonge, Rimouski and Haldimand.

An Order-in-Council has been issued allowing the name of the steamer "Manitoba" of St. Catharines to be changed to "Carmona."

A deed of mortgage executed by the Guelph Junction Railway Company, to secure payment of the bonds of the said company to the amount of $155,000, with 5 per cent. interest, "upon the railway and undertaking of the company as constructed or may be constructed," has been deposited with the Secretary of State.

The Committee on Standing Orders to-day threw out, by a majority of one, the bill to allow the Ontario Central Railway to divert its connection with the Canadian Pacific Railway at Callandar 100 miles eastward to Sudbury. The grounds for throwing out the bill were technical, being insufficiency of notice in The Canada Gazette. Sir Donald A. Smith and other Canadian Pacific Railway men were very active in getting the bill discharged by the committee.

The Railway Committee could not meet to-day owing to the Conservative caucus. It will probably meet on Tuesday next.

It is understood that the Government will make every effort to have Parliament prorogued about May 18, in order to permit the Governor-General to sail from Quebec the following week. Legislation will be rushed.

Hon. J. H. Pope, Minister of Railways, continues to improve in health. He had an hour's drive to-day, and leaves shortly for his home at Cookshire, Eastern Townships, for a rest.

The Senate's Short Session.

OTTAWA, April 13.—The Senate sat for about half an hour to-day. In answer to Senator Molines of British Columbia Mr. Abbott said that the Government intended to establish an Experimental Farm in the Pacific Province this year. A 300 acre site had been selected adjoining the Agassiz station on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Private bills Nos. 66, 26 and 77 were read a second time and referred to committee.

Senator John Macdonald introduced the bill concerning the liquidation of the Federal Bank of Canada, and it was read a first time. This bill has passed the House of Commons.

The bill for the reduction of the capital stock of La Banque Nationale by 40 per cent. was also read a first time.

No Discrimination.

OTTAWA, April 13.—A proclamation will be published to-morrow changing the order-in-council of last Saturday, respecting the admission of certain free goods from the United States. That order uses the specific words "United States" from which these articles can come in duty free, but makes no mention of Great Britain or any other country. The proclamation in question will place these articles on the free list, no matter from what country they come.

Business Disasters.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to Dun, Wiman & Co. to-day, number for the United States 200, and for Canada 22, or a total of 222 as compared with 227 last week and 223 the week previous to the last. In the corresponding week of last year the figures were 173, made up of 146 in the United States and 29 in Canada.

Manitoba Politics.

WINNIPEG, April 13.—The reply to the Speech from the Throne will be moved by Mr. Roblin and seconded by Mr. Gelly.

The Government supporters held a caucus to-day to consider the redistribution bill.

The formal report of the Ottawa delegation will probably be presented to the Legislature Thursday.

Death of a Journalist.

QUEBEC, April 13.—The death of a well-known journalist is announced to-night, Mr. Alphonse Eug Demers, co-proprietor and editor of many newspapers published in Quebec, viz., Le Canadien, L'Evenement and Le Cultivateur. Mr. Demers was a member of the firm of L. J. Demers & Frere. He was in his 29th year.

The Glass Trade Troubles.

CORNWALL, April 13.—The long-standing dispute of mill operatives and the Canada Cotton Company, has been left to arbitrators, Messrs. J. Beckly for the operatives, and Eaton of St. Henri mill for the company. The company and the 600 operatives agree to abide by the award.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our lucements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.

We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per ya Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

—Horse distemper is very prevalent in P. E. county.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 10 00 p m
10 56 p m 7 00 p m	Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R.	5 15 p m 10 00 p m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	8 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of	8 00 a m
8 50 p m	the Midland Railway (west)	4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	11 00 a m
15 15 p m	do do	8 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and	1 15 p m
4 00 p m	Lakehurst	12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville	11 00 a m
	Bobcaygeon, Ingleside
2 30 p m	Bridgenorth & Enniskmore Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Hastilake, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale,	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and
11 00 a m	Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
	Greystock and Hiawatha,
11 00 a m	Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays, Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents, New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

WHY

Take your chances when a few dollars a year will insure you against accidents in the Manufacturers' Accident Ins. Co'y.

Geo. S. Matthews of Peterborough received his insurance money on account of his accident He says, the promptness with which the Co. settles claims is commendable.

MESSRS. WILSON & MORRISON:—

Would you please convey to G. Geddes, Esq., my hearty thanks for the prompt and satisfactory manner in which he paid my claim in full for an accident which I received by having my finger almost taken off while opening a car door at Midland Station. Such promptness is certainly worthy of notice. TOBIAS FITZGERALD.

Life, Fire & Plate Glass Companies represented by us.

Thos. Mahoney, — — — Special Agent, Accident Dep.
Messrs. King & Thompson, — — General Agents Life & Fire Dep.
J. Robertson, — — — General Agent Life & Fire Dep.

Wilson & Morrison,

MANAGERS.

Office hours 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Over Alexander's Dry Goods Store, George-st Peterborough. d28-w5-3m

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon

VERY CHOICE.

TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS UNSMOKED.

J. W. FLAVELLE,

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d12

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St. north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d108

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. 1yd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. dmd109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR, Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always kept on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on Reid street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d82-1yr

JOSEPH JONES,

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. 1dd1y

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. d103w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

H. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d38w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

Garden Tools, Silver Dollar Spades Spading Forks, Manure Forks, Steel Rakes, Hoes, Wheelbarrows, Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1yd&w

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 89. PETERBOROUGH, MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

—o—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From O. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE

METROPOLITAN

GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been SUCCESSFULLY adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Carvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
115 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry

Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE

ATLAS

Assurance Co'y.,

OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

—o—

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

—o—

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

—o—

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Gum

DEAR SIR,—I thank you for your PINE TAR CORDIAL. It has done me more good than anything I have ever used.

MRS. S. R. HARVEY, Cobourg.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent. ROANOKE, VA.,

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA

REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. 1yr47

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 6i

For Sale or to Rent.

HOUSE TO LET.

FURNISHED. All modern improvements in heating, &c. Apply to office of JOHNSON, BELCHER, Architect and C. E. 3387

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE & LOT, situate on Stewart-st, west, Ashburnham. Apply R. MOWRY, Ashburnham. 6d36

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT, where a nurse girl is kept. Apply to MRS. A. W. BRODIE, Dickson-st. 1d39

WANTED-

EXPERIENCED HOUSEKEEPER. Middle aged. Good plain cook. Good references required. Apply, care Box A. Peterborough P. O. 6d36

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Lr Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d167-w51

WORKING JEWELLER.

Z. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Orientel

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,

2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, that handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts. with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,

Barrister, Water-st., or to

C. STAPLETON,

Auctioneer. 8d82-1w1

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER, 1yd68 JAS. R. DONELL,

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1888.

LIVE CAPITAL CHIT-CHAT.

PARLIAMENT PAYING ATTENTION TO THE BANKING QUESTION.

A Country of Magnificent Distances—Another M.P. Who Pays His Railway Fare—The Blonde and the Brunette—The King of Colonels.

OTTAWA, April 15.—The fact has dawned upon Parliament that the day is not far distant when action must be taken by that body to step in and investigate our banking system. "It has become an imperative duty," say several members and senators. More than one question has been asked in both Houses of the Government if it intends to touch the subject this session, but the answers given have been unsatisfactory. Mr. Casgrain of L'Islet on Monday night last managed to introduce a discussion, which lasted for an hour or so, on this motion:

That it is expedient to provide for a better supervision by the Government of all banks of the Dominion.

I might say in the first place that I have authority for the statement that the Government will not introduce any legislation during this session regarding the banks of the country. But what is proposed is this: In May, 1891, the license of all the chartered banks in the Dominion will expire. The Government purposes, before that period, to make an exhaustive enquiry into our banking system. It may be done by a commission or a parliamentary committee. That will be a matter of detail. The Government has a clear three years between now and the expiry of those charters, and it remains to be seen at what date the enquiry will begin, but it certainly will not take place this year.

Mr. Casgrain, in moving the resolution referred to above, among other things said:

The Government have appointed a Superintendent of Insurance, whose duty it is to ascertain the value of the assets of the insurance companies, and decide whether they are sufficient to meet the liabilities or not. There is a perfect analogy between a bank and an insurance company. If, in the case of the insurance companies, the Government has thought fit to appoint a superintendent, it ought certainly to appoint one in the case of the banks. I can see very well the objection that can be raised to the appointment of a Bank Superintendent. The objection will be that, considering the banks to be private institutions, we have no business to enquire into the management of their affairs, which should be left exclusively in the hands of the shareholders and directors. But this is not a sufficient reason for depriving the Government of some direct control over the management of the banks, so that the public confidence in them will not be misplaced.

I hold in my hand a return, partly taken from the Government blue book and partly obtained from the Finance Department, in which appears the following incomplete list of banks that have become bankrupt within the last few years: The Mechanics' Bank, the Consolidated Bank, the Metropolitan Bank, the Bank of Upper Canada, the Merchants' Bank of Prince Edward Island, the Liverpool Bank of Nova Scotia, the Commercial Bank of New Brunswick, the Bank of Prince Edward Island, the Exchange Bank, the Acadian Bank of Nova Scotia, the Bank of London, the Central Bank, the Federal Bank.

The banks that have reduced their capital stock are twelve in number, and the dates of their misfortunes are not very far back. They are the Federal Bank, the Ontario Bank, the Banque Jacques Cartier, the Banque du Peuple, the Banque de Ville Marie, the Union Bank of Lower Canada, the Maritime Bank of New Brunswick, the Bank of New Brunswick, the Bank of Nova Scotia, the Bank of Yarmouth, and the Union Bank of Halifax, and the Banque Nationale is now coming before this House and asking for a reduction of capital. I hope this will be the last. Besides these banks that have reduced their capital, there are many others which have lost for years paid dividends. They are the Banque de St. Jean, the Banque de St. Hyacinthe, the Union Banque of Lower Canada, La Banque Nationale, La Banque du Peuple, the Union Bank of Halifax and the Maritime Bank of New Brunswick. These eight banks for a long time paid no dividends.

By appointing a proper and trustworthy person, who would be intended not to dive into the private affairs of the bank for the mere pleasure of looking into them and trying to find out the private business of B, C or D, but a trustworthy, discreet, reliable and honest person, we should have an officer of the utmost utility to the public, and many of the shareholders of the banks would be grateful to the Government for creating such an office.

I would suggest that in addition to the returns made by the banks to the Government there ought to be fuller returns made showing how far the directors become liable to the banks on their private accounts and how far some of the directors in banks go to accommodate their friends, not as mere trustees of the bank but as themselves doing the banking business on their own account, that is to say, endorsing, as directors, for their friends and getting a little douceur for doing it.

Mr. Innes, on seconding the motion of the member for L'Islet, referred at length to the Central Bank and more especially as regards its disastrous effects on the City of Guelph and the County of Wellington. Some of his sentences were:

I suppose that Toronto, where the head office was situated, suffered to the largest extent. I think the city in the riding which I represent perhaps suffered next. The inhabitants of Guelph, business men and depositors in the city and throughout the riding, had deposits in the Central to the extent of $383,000, and I believe there was $80,000 to $70,000 in stock. Such a large sum locked up, one would think, would be apt to cripple business.

When we have such a revelation, surely it is high time for the Government to take hold of this matter and so amend the Banking Act as will secure us better satisfaction than is given by the existing act. The directors should be compelled to make a clear and full statement of the bank's affairs. That is one clause of the Banking Act as it stands at present, but you know that the cashiers and directors are capable of making false returns and are capable of swearing to them. * * * The provisions of the law are inadequate to secure the evidence of bank officers. I think the Banking Act requires amendment in the direction of more stringent provisions and a better and quicker process of bringing defaulting directors and officers to justice than we have at present. There is also a sad lack of proper inspection.

During the debate Mr. Ellis of St. John explained that the reason the Bank of New Brunswick reduced its capital stock was to return some of the capital to its shareholders because it could not use the money so returned. Mr. Lovitt made a similar explanation with reference to the Bank of Yarmouth.

The debate on Mr. Casgrain's motion stands for resumption.

I wish to call the attention of your readers to the fact that Canada is a country of magnificent distances, and that some of our members of Parliament travel over vast expanses of territory to reach the capital. But there is one thing that is eminently satisfactory to them now. They can reach Ottawa from any part of our vast domains without going outside the country. Before the Canadian Pacific Railway penetrated to the illimitable West the members from British Columbia reached Ottawa via San Francisco. In 1883 Mr. Baker of Victoria traveled 4591 miles in his pilgrimage to the capital, and his mileage allowance was $793, 10 cents per mile each way. Mr. Baker now travels 2861 miles each way and draws $572 mileage. In 1878, when "Cariboo" Thompson represented the district of that name, his mileage from Bakerville, B.C., to Ottawa was $918, within $82 of his sessional indemnity. This is the largest mileage ever drawn. He had to ride 700 miles on horseback to reach the steamer. Mr. Reid, who now represents that constituency, draws a mileage of $560.40, or about the same distance that Mr. Baker travels.

Turning to the extreme east from the Capital Mr. McKeen of Cape Breton is the longest traveler. His mileage is $351.20. Mr. McKeen's home in Little Glace Bay, N.S., is 1161 miles from the Capital.

Mr. Lister, from Lambton, comes the furthest or any Ontario member, his mileage being $86. He comes 430 miles from his Sarnia home. Dr. Ferguson of Welland, on the extreme east side of the peninsula, draws $69, the distance being 341 miles.

On drawing his mileage, each member is required to make a declaration that he travels by the nearest mail route.

By the by I have discovered another member who does not travel on a free pass. Mr. Baker of British Columbia pays his fare on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Major Edward Gawler Prior is serving his first session as one of the members from Victoria, B.C., having succeeded Mr. Shakespeare, now postmaster of that city. Thomas Mayne Daly sits for Selkirk, Man., having been elected at the beginning of this Parliament. These two gentlemen, both young and handsome, are the pets, or at least they think they are, of the ladies who frequent the Speaker's gallery. They are regular Beau Nashes. The Major is a blonde and Mr. Daly is a pronounced brunette, and he vies with his brother, the Hon. Peter Daly of Buffalo, a pure, unadulterated Stratford-on-Avon beauty. "Tommy" and the Major are respectable married men, but nevertheless they are untiring in their attentions to the ladies of the Capital, and more especially to several beautiful belles who are now here. They dress with scrupulous care, and floral adornments in the shape of roses or lilies-of-the-valley are ever present in the button-hole.

The Major, when he first took his seat in Parliament, was given a chair in an obscure corner of the chamber out of the optic range of the Speaker's Gallery, with its usual complement of feminine beauty. On the other hand, his brunette friend from Selkirk was the possessor of a seat in a favored position, where he could see and be seen from the envied gallery. Beside him sat Mr. Scarth of Winnipeg. Mr. Scarth went home for good the other day. Then you ought to see the Major collar that vacant seat. The pair of beauties now sit together, and they can watch the fair ones above to their heart's content.

The Major, hailing from salubrious British Columbia, has been trying to force the season at the Capital, but with indifferent success until within the past few days. Upon the slightest provocation of sunshine he would appear in the rotunda of the Russell or on the street with a spring suit, a white Derby and sans overcoat. This too at times when the mercury was playing tribute to zero.

Need I add with this picture of these two gallants from the Wild West that many of their fellow-members who are here unaccompanied by their wives are consumed with jealousy because of their coquettish success with the miscellaneous feminine fairness now resident at the Capital.

The Major is an accomplished vocalist, which adds materially to his conquests. The Brandon Beau is partial to 4 o'clock teas, and when things are slow in the House he can generally be found at one of these social pleasantries.

But, by the same token, the Major and Tommy are good fellows, and equally popular with the gentlemen as they are with the ladies. And which I would remark the Major is a hardware merchant and Tommy is an attorney. The latter describes one of his freshest acquaintances as

A daughter fair,
So buxom, blithe and debonair.

The Railway Committee of Parliament is the most important of the standing committees and has 150 names on its roll. Sir Hector Langevin is its efficient and practical chairman. I never neglect to attend its meetings, and have carefully surveyed the field of membership. There is no more valuable member of the great committee than Col. David Tisdale. The Colonel is always up at the front, and takes a prominent part in the discussion of all bills which pass before the committee for consideration, no matter what part of the country they come from. The Colonel is a lawyer and a practical man: he knows all about railroads, from tearing up a broken rail to running a locomotive. So it comes that the gentleman who comes to Parliament from good old South Norfolk is one of its most valued members, a committee at least, and his constituents have nothing to be ashamed of in their representative.

Hon. G. W. Allan, the new Speaker of the Senate, does not believe in wasting time when submitting motions and orders to the body over which he presides. The Hon. Chancellor of Trinity College is fluent in French, and he reads all the papers placed in his hands in the "two talks" himself. This saves much time, and is looked upon as worthy of notice in a Speaker who comes from Western Canada.

Hon. Mrs. Mackenzie and Hon. Mrs. Laurier held their usual weekly reception at the Grand Union last evening. The weather was inclement, but the number of callers was large.

It is quite likely that the farewell banquet to His Excellency will be held at the Russell House on a date before May 16, which in all probability will be the day of prorogation. The Vice-Regal party will positively sail for England on May 24.

Application for letters patent has been made by the Lake Superior Tug Company, with a capital stock of $12,800 and the place of business at Port Arthur. The names of the applicants are Thos. Marks, J. J. Horne, H. A. Wiley and J. C. Graham, all of Port Arthur.

THE HAMILTON LOOK-OUT.

Prospects of an Early Settlement of the Labor Troubles.

HAMILTON, April 14.—The committees of the Master Builders' Association and the Laborers' Union which met on Thursday night and discussed the various phases of the present labor difficulty, met again last night in St. George's Hall. Each organization has five representatives, and Mayor Doran, who has been actively engaged in trying to bring about a settlement, presided. It was agreed that the rate of wages for laborers should be 18½ cents an hour, and that nine hours should constitute a day's work. In all cases, however, where teams are engaged in excavating or hauling from the quarries the men shall work ten hours a day and receive 18½ cents for the extra hour. There is to be no discrimination against the stone from Mr. Hancock's quarry. The question of carrying window sills up ladders was settled by the agreement that in future the laborer may either carry the stone sills up or draw them up, the masters supplying rope and pullies. It was agreed that 70 pounds, including the weight of the hod, should constitute a hod load.

When this basis was arrived at the bosses' committee said they were ready to sign an agreement to that effect. The men's committee were in favor of it, and had no doubt that the union would accept the terms. They would, however, have to submit the matter to the union at its next meeting. It was agreed that whatever terms should be accepted should go into force on May 15, and should continue in force until April 1, 1889. It is believed that the difficulty will be all settled up by the middle of next week.

A meeting has been arranged to take place between the committee of the Master Builders' Association and the committee of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, to discuss the subject. The agreement mentioned above will be considered.

Once the difficulty between the laborers and the master masons is settled the other trades will soon get back to work. The only question then to be considered between the Master Builders and the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union will be one of wages, and no difficulty is expected on that score.

A. G. T. R. Freight Train Wrecked.

BRIGHTON, April 15.—An east-bound freight train on the Grand Trunk broke an axle tonight about four miles west of here at the place known as "the dangers." Eleven cars were wrecked. It will probably take all night to clear the track. To-night's through express for Montreal is detained at Cobourg in consequence of the accident. No one was injured.

Lost on the Banks.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., April 14.—The schooner James A. Garfield from the banks reports that four of her crew, John Goodwin, Joseph Martin, Alex Jamson and John Curris, while tending trawls strayed from the vessel and were lost.

Montreal's Statue Agitation.

MONTREAL, April 14.—The proposal to erect a statue to the Virgin Mary on Mount Royal is fast becoming a burning question here, and there is every evidence that should it be carried into effect the old hostilities which prevailed for some time after the Orange troubles will be re-opened. A joint meeting of the Protestant Ministerial Association and of the Evangelical Alliance has been called for Monday to protest against the measure and to start a monster petition to the Park Commissioners on the subject. Senator Trudel of L'Etendard, who first proposed the idea, says the difficulty may easily be overcome by the three nationalities each erecting a statute on the three summits of the mountain. The Catholic priests who have been interviewed, favor the abandonment of the scheme rather than have any trouble.

The Doyle Jury Disagree.

HALIFAX, April 14.—The trial of Mrs. Jane Doyle, charged with being an accessory to the murder of her husband, Peter Doyle, after the fact, was concluded to-night. Judge Townshend charged the jury against the prisoner, but they disagreed and were discharged.

The Hart Divorce Case.

MONTREAL, April 14.—Judge Taschereau gave his decision in the Hart divorce case today, dismissing Mrs. Hart's application for separation as to bed and board with costs, on the ground that she had deserted her husband without cause.

Impressario Mapleson is not quite bankrupt. He is going to give more opera next season, with the assistance of Augustus Harris, at Covent Garden.

BISMARCK AND VICTORIA.

HOSTILITIES ONLY MOMENTARILY SUSPENDED.

When the Conflict over the Battenberg Proposal is Renewed Bismarck Must Triumph or Resign—The Czar's Attitude—The Austrian Court Neutral.

BERLIN, April 14.—The conflict between Prince Bismarck and the party of the Empress is only momentarily suspended. The truce will not last long, and unless Bismarck becomes a convert to the "Victoria policy" a supreme crisis will result, the issue of which will be the absolute triumph of the Chancellor or his temporary retreat from politics. The Empress is endeavoring to secure support in every possible quarter, and has applied even to influences so opposite as the Russian and Austrian courts for assistance to achieve her purpose. If the Czar, who is being operated upon through Copenhagen, could be induced to send an assurance to Bismarck that the Battenberg marriage would not alter the friendly relations between Russia and Germany the Empress might deem the battle won. The Austrian Imperial family maintain a neutral position in the matter. They dislike Prince Alexander, but would like to see the marriage effected if it would tend to widen the breach between Germany and Russia. The Czar in the meantime has shown no disposition to respond to Empress Victoria's overtures, nor is he likely to encourage them.

The opinions of the Russian Court were for a brief space divided: A strong party were in favor of seizing the chance offered by the Battenberg crisis to overthrow the Chancellor. Their plan was to induce the Czar to intimate to Emperor Frederick that he would regard the marriage as a private affair and thus help the Empress to oust Bismarck. The view of M. de Giers was that the present crisis was an incident in the general policy of Prince Bismarck to assert himself against the Empress. He was of opinion that Bismarck's fall would lead to a close Anglo-Austrian alliance which would prove an immediate source of danger to Russia.

It is semi-officially announced that Queen Victoria's present arrangements include a visit to Darmstadt, where she will hold a family council with the Battenbergs.

ACROSS THE LINE.

The Teller of the Union Bank at Winnipeg Leaves Between Two Days.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 14.—Wm. Cameron, teller of the Union Bank, skipped out last night. He hired a rig and drove to the boundary line. He has been leading a very fast life and got heavily in debt. The amount of his stealings is estimated as high as $38,000, but the definite amount is not yet known.

Several persons are suspected in Winnipeg of being those with whom he planted the money, and Diamond, of the defunct firm of Tees & Co., which recently failed for $40,000, was arrested at Emerson to-day for being the accomplice of Cameron. A young lady is mentioned in connection with the case. Cameron's parents were drowned in the Victoria steamboat disaster at London, Ont., in '81.

Arrested in Dakota.

PEMBINA, Dak., April 14.—W. A. Cameron, the absconding teller of the Union Bank of Canada at Winnipeg, was captured here today. On his person was found $493. He admitted that his account with the bank had been short for some time, but would not state the amount. He left Winnipeg because he heard the bank examiner was coming.

To be Settled by the People.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 14.—The report that the Assembly voted against sending a delegation to Ottawa is false. This resolution was adopted, 20 to 7.

Whereas the Government have decided to respond to the invitation by the Government of Canada to send a delegation to Ottawa to discuss terms of union between the colony and the Dominion,

Resolved, That the time of sending the delegates be left to the decision of the Government-in-council.

The Premier declared that the terms should be published in due time and the question settled by the people. The Cabinet positively agreed upon sending a delegation not later than June. The Cabinet is equally divided in numbers on the question and the Premier is open to conviction by the terms. Telegrams to the opposite effect were sent by a Government agent here. Good terms, the diffusion of information and a vigorous campaign are sure to carry the union.

To Visit Windsor Castle.

LONDON, April 14.—Queen Victoria has invited the King and Queen of Italy to visit Windsor Castle in June, and they have accepted the invitation.

The Fisheries Treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations held another long meeting to-day upon the fisheries treaty, but did not conclude its consideration.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE.

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by I. Checked by G.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

—o—

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

—o—

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1888.

THE COMMISSION'S PROPOSA

It may have been a neat trick, but it certainly was not a clever one, by which a Liberal contemporary tried to make it appear that Sir Charles Tupper made an offer of unrestricted reciprocity, on the lines of Sir Richard Cartwright's resolution, to the United States. In his speech on the fisheries treaty Sir Charles referred to the proposal made by the British commissioners to settle the fisheries difficulty by "providing for greater freedom of commercial intercourse" between the two countries. What took place is thus stated in the official report:—

"Mr. Mills (Bothwell)—The offer is unrestricted.

"Sir Charles Tupper—The hon. gentlemen says the offer is unrestricted and intended it should be so. I intended to give the Government of the United States the fullest opportunity of stating just how far they were prepared to go in reciprocal trade with Canada."

By putting in the word "reciprocity" after unrestricted in Mr. Mills' remark, a Liberal paper made Sir Charles appear to say that he had offered unrestricted reciprocity, and this version is still being circulated and we presume will continue to be circulated. What Sir Charles proposed was a settlement on the basis of "grater freedom of commercial intercourse," a proposal in accordance with the policy of the Government and of the Conservative party.

Moreover, Sir Charles, in the same speech, said that while in Washington he had conversed with many public men, and he did not find one who would favor unrestricted reciprocity. The Finance Minister, continuing, thus stated the views and policy of the Government:—

"I say, sir, that after studing the policy of the United States, the Democratic—the free trade party of the United States as they are very improperly called, for there is no free trade party in the United States, they have got beyond that long ago—after examining their policy, after reading the President's message, after reading the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, after reading the speech of Mr. Carlisle, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, on taking the chair, I have come to the conclusion that their policy is just as close to the policy of the Government of Canada as any two things possibly can be. Our policy is to make natural products free, our policy is to make raw materials free, our policy is to make the country as cheap a county as we can for the artizan and at the same time to give his labor such a return, by such protection of the manufacturing industries of the country as will build up those manufactures and give employment to the people. Now, sir, that is our policy."

The speeches delivered by the Liberal leaders on unrestricted reciprocity are being printed for distribution throughout the country. Will the United States immigration agents be furnished with them, or will they have to get their supplies printed themselves?

The costliness of law courts was illustrated last week in Toronto, when in a case in which a verdict of $1 was given against the defendant, the unlucky litigant was saddled with $2,500 in costs.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

An M.P.'s Big Paper Box Factory.

MONTREAL, April 14.—J. C. Wilson, M.P., has given a contract for the erection of his new paper box factory on Craig-street, to cost $600,000.

Teemer and Gaudaur Matched.

BOSTON, April 14.—John Teemer and Jake Gaudaur signed articles to-day for a single scull race three miles with a turn for gate receipts, to take place on Decoration Day over a course to be mutually agreed upon. The winner is to take 75 per cent. of the receipts.

Spots of Sport.

A. Broesler of the Detroit Bicycle Club is in active training, preparing for the races at Woodstock on May 24.

Le Sassier, Yale '88, S., has broken the record for an individual tug-of-war pull. He pulled 780 pounds and held a 700-pound pull till the expiration of the time limit.

In the wrestling match at Buffalo on Saturday night between Dennis Gallagher of Buffalo and Leonard of Belfast, N.Y., Leonard won in two straight falls. Time, 15 and 23 minutes.

Ward of Ypsilanti and Buckenberger of Detroit, who are to skate a five-mile race for a purse of $50 and the championship of Michigan, at Detroit to-morrow evening, are both confident of success. Betting is slightly in favor of Ward, the present champion.

A Sensation on the Chicago Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, April 14.—Twenty members of the Board of Trade were suspended this afternoon for trading after hours. The move has created considerable excitement in commercial circles.

Boulanger Elected.

PARIS, April 12.—In the election to-day Boulanger received 172,272 votes, Foucart 75,781 and Moreau 9643.

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 14.

Estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, to-day are: Hogs, 7000; official yesterday, 10,112; shipments, 6310; left over, about 2000. Receipts for the week, 60,227; shipments, 36,835. Packing to date this year, 309,000 barrels; last year up to this time, 303,000 barrels. Cattle receipts, 1600; market quiet.

The receipts by car lots at Chicago yesterday were: Winter wheat, 11; spring, 30; corn, 60; oats, 78; rye, none; barley, 15.

On call at the Toronto Board of Trade to-day No. 2 fall wheat was offered at 90c; 85c bid for 10,000 bushels. For No. 2 spring 78c was bid; for No. 1 red winter, 92c, and for No. 2 red winter, 84c bid: offered at 85c. For 10,000 bushels of No. 2 red winter 85½c was bid. The sales were: One car of Manitoba hard at 93c; 1 car of Manitoba, by sample on track, 88c; No. 1 Northern, to arrive, was offered at 87c, and No. 1 N orthern, at Carleton-place, at 86½c; 85½c bid.

Yesterday's shipments from New York were: Flour, 25,685 bbls; wheat, 7000 bush; corn, 91,000 bush; oats, 58,000 bush; rye, 1000 bush; barley, 11,000 bush; pork, 1125 bbls.

Yesterday's receipts at New York were: Flour, 21,250 bbls; wheat, 8000 bush; corn, 5000 bush; oats, 31,000 bush; rye, 1000 bush; barley, 111,000 bush; pork, 75 bbls.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Foating cargoes—Wheat and corn firm. Cargoes to arrive—Wheat 3, corn, 4; sold, wheat 5, corn 2; waiting orders, wheat 5, corn 2; cargoes on passage, wheat and corn strong. Australian, off coast, 33s 9d, was 33s 3d; present and following month, 33s, was 33s. La Plata—Off coast, 24s, was 23s 6d; present and following month, 22s, was 21s 9d. Paris—Wheat and flour quiet. Liverpool—Spot wheat and corn firmly held.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat firm, with demand fair to-day and holders offering sparingly; corn firm, demand good. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 6d to 6s 7d, red winter 6s 8d to 6s 9d, No. 1 Cal. 6s 8d to 6s 9d, corn 5s 2½d, peas 5s 5d, pork 67s 6d, lard 39s 6d, cheese 60s.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley weak to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 85, No. 1 Canadian at 88 and No. 1 bright Canadian at 91.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

CURIOUS THINGS OF LIFE.

A Berrien Springs (Mich.) family of four persons live on nineteen cents a week, exclusive of house rent.

A Japanese boy's composition on the whale closes: "The tell of the whale is more, but I do not know fully well to tell."

Anthony Parslow, of Albany, N. Y., ate ten feet six inches of corn cakes three inches wide and one inch thick the other day.

A Philadelphia man, who was discharged from his position as street car driver two years ago, borrowed $10, invested it in a bucket shop, and is now worth $40,000.

The Richmond postmaster locked the office cat in the safe over night recently and in the morning she had a brood of kittens, nicely nestled in a $300 bed made of postage stamps.

There are three dead trees in Tattnall county, Ga., whose branches are so twisted as to form the figures 1888. The ignorant people thereabout regard it as a sign that the end of the world comes this year.

Regular printed invitations were recently sent to a funeral at Frogmore, La., that read: "There will be a large funeral at Frogmore, the grandmother of ——'s wife. You are invited. Ice water and soda. Come one, come all."

A Buffalo man hung his watch at night over a pan of dough in the kitchen, and the next morning it was missing. He of course thought it had been stolen, and was considerably surprised at supper time to see the lost timepiece roll out of a loaf of bread his wife was cutting.

A Macon merchant of somnambulistic habits found one morning that $195 was missing from his store. He sent for a detective, who suggested that the gentleman had probably hidden the money while asleep. A search was instituted and the missing bills were found securely hidden away in a corner of the barn.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

MISCELLANEOUS.

Always comes out on top—hair.

A dude is apparel-ising spectacle.

A spring garment—the wire bustle.

Hearts may be honest, but they are always on the beat.

The wise man surveys the future with the chain of past events.

In China the popular outdoor legend runs "Keep off the tea."

The King of Spain can now walk, with the assistance of his nurse.

The champion walker looks upon the prize as his gait receipts.

Some people are so constituted that they would kick at a football match.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action, thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

PLAYS AND ACTORS.

Mme. Nevada still continues her prosperous career through Italy.

Ellen Terry celebrated her 40th birthday in New York the other day.

Gus Kemble will star in this country next season a young Prussian actress.

Mme. Patti has started from Madrid to Lisbon, en route to South America.

Mrs. D. P. Bowers says she has not retired for good, but only until autumn.

The elder Salvini is said to be contemplating another tour in America next fall. Young Salvini will support him.

It is reported that Maurel, the French baritone, will come to this country this year at a salary not much less than "$250,000."

Mary Anderson, Coquelin and Mrs. James Brown Potter will fill the entire season of 1888-89 at Wallack's theatre, New York.

A friend of Edwin Booth says that "his indifference to money, society and the things which the world ranks as pleasures is absolute."

N. C. Goodwin, Jr., has decided to continue in "Turned Up" another season, contrary to the report that he would shelve the piece.

Emma Thursby, the Brooklyn soprano, who is visiting Mrs. Ole Bull in Cambridge, will sing only once this season, and that once in Boston.

The London News is of the opinion that the land of Edison, Morse and Gatling ought to be able to devise an absolutely indestructible theatre.

WHY DOES A YOUNG MAN WANT A GOOD WIFE?

Because he is married for a lifetime.

JOHN McNAUGHTON

The reliable Boot and Shoe dealer, has just opened out a large stock of goods from the celebrated makers, Messrs. Cooper & Smith, Toronto. Any person buying any goods made by th's firm which contain paper insoles, paper stiffeners or cloth insoles, can have $5 for each pair upon furnishing satisfactory proof to me. These goods are all hand-made and marked in plain figures. I do not sell for cost, but I am satisfied with a fair profit and it will pay the public to call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Repairing done neatly, expeditiously and cheap for cash.

JOHN McNAUGHTON,
corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune-sts.
6d85eod-2wl5

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND CURES LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and Genera' Debility.
PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE
ASK FOR
DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND
Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S
COUGH AND LUNG CURE
Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Can.

CARSLAKE'S
GRAND DERBY SWEEP
$25,000.00.

			Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000	each prize	$6,000
2nd " " "	$2,000	" "	$4,000
3rd " " "	$1,000	" "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally)			$2,000
in duplicate			$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally)			$4,500
in duplicate			$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.
Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888
Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.
Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.
22d eod 4mos Mansion House, Montreal

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER
THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE—the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative samp'e free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d85eod-w15

JACKSON & CO.
Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.
Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.
PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES tuned and repaired.
Agents for R S. Williams & Son's Pianos. Orders for tuning may be le t at the warerooms or sent by postal card. d3l1eod-w49-6m

D. BELLEGHEM,
Funeral Director,
CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or, at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.
TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

TO BE LET OR SOLD.

THE residence of H. A. Hammond (who is leaving the country), corner of Brock and Downie-sts. Tennis lawn at west side of house, good stable, etc., and ground at back suitable for kitchen garden or for building purposes fronting on Downie-st. Artesian well 75 feet, on premises. Apply to

H. A. HAMMOND,
Box 850, P. O.
3d86-1wl5

READ
T. HURLEY'S
Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at his office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

THE RUSH STILL CONTINUES

at the Great Sale of

BANKRUPT STOCK

—AT—

SULLIVAN'S OLD STAND

We have placed on our bargain counter, a special consignment of Silk and Satin Merveilleaux bought at 50c. on the dollar. This lot consists of handsome black Gros Grain Silk, beautiful Satin Merveilleaux and elegant black and colored Surah Satins. This is a chance for every lady to secure a handsome Silk or Satin dress at about half price. Come and see them.

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK

THE GREAT BANKRUPT STOCK EMPORIUM.

SPECIAL.—We have also received a special consignment of Black and White Spanish and beaded-all-over Laces.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

THE COOK'S FRIEND POWDER

For Sale by all Grocers.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

PIANOS

HEINTZMAN & CO'S.

This Celebrated maker's Pianos are in use in the following private residences in Peterborough:

Geo. Edmison,	F. A. Rubidge,
E. Pearse,	Miss Delaney,
J. E. Hammond,	J. Stewart,
D. Faucher,	W. H. Hill,
Robt. Millar,	Rev. V. Clementi,
D. Ullyott,	E. C. Hill,
Chas. Cameron,	W. Walsh,
G. W. Morgan,	W. Snowden,
W. Sanderson,	T. G. Hazlitt,
The Convent,	Miss Calcutt,
J. Hall,	Miss Spillsbury,
Bannell Sawyer,	W. Bradburn,
Mrs Jas. Campbell	R. Fair,
J. J. McBain,	Mrs. Chambers,
Geo. Dunsford,	W. B Ferguson,
Mrs. Allen,	Miss A. Edmundson
Wm. Tate,	W. R. Greatrex,
W. Fairweather,	R. B. McKee.

and others.

Intending purchasers should not fail to inspect the Heintzman & Co'sPianos (no connection with the Gerrard Heintzman or Lansdowne Piano, of Toronto) at my Music Store, Hunter Street, East.

E. J. HARTLEY

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

REMOVAL!

H. S. GRIFFIN & CO.

Have secured the building lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Alexander. The store is to be fitted up in first-class style and will be one of the most attractive places of business on George-st. H. S. Griffin & Co. have found their present place too small for their growing trade. On account of this change they purpose having a Great Clearng Sale of their present stock of which further notice will be given in a couple of days.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd46 & ws

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh nort to northwest winds; fair, cool weather; not much change in temperature.

Dress Goods.

New and stylish Dress Goods and Trimmings, selling rapidly at the golden lion. These can be made up to order very quickly and in the best styles. We follow the latest fashions in carrying out all orders. Ladies should see our goods before ordering.

An Auction at the Opera House.

This evening an "auction extraordinary" will take place at Bradburn's Opera House, presented by Mrs. Scott-Siddons, in which a number of the bachelors will be auctioned off, and will be "knocked down," at no doubt very good figures to an equal number of elderly spinsters. In addition to this humorous representation, "A Senator Entangled" will be an immense attraction. Plan at Hartley's up to 7 o'clock.

The Canal Commission.

The Trent Valley Canal Commission will hold its first session at Montreal on Thursday. The Commissioners will prepare their work at this session and will probably hear evidence from forwarders and others regarding the canal. Judge Weller, Chairman of the Commission, will of caurse be present, and Mr. John Carnegie, Secretary of the Trent Navigation Association, will attend to watch the interests of the canal. Mr. Carnegie goes to Montreal to-night.

Removal.

The business of Messrs. H. S. Griffin & Co. has been growing steadily since they opened out in Peterborough, and the enlarged trade has led them to secure the store and premises lately occupied by Mr. James Alexander. These premises will be fitted up anew and when the work is completed Messrs. Griffin & Co. will have a very convenient store and one well adapted for a large trade. In the meantime, as will be seen by their advertisement, they are selling off their stock in their present premises.

Not True.

The Belleville Ontario publishes this paragraph:—"Peterborough has reached the pinnacle of its glory, vacant houses beginning to become more numerous." Vacant houses are not becoming numerous, by any means, in Peterborough, although the number of dwellings erected during the past few years has been very large. Whole sections have been built up, and the town has extended in all directions, yet there has been a demand for the houses, and the work is still going on, preparations for building operations being made in different quarters.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple Syrup from M. R. Kidd at the Pantry. d89

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

In Town.

Mayor Walters, of Lindsay, and Mr. Sam. Hughes, of the Warder, were among the people who were in town on Saturday.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Quite a Size.

The William Hamilton Manufacturing Co. are now turning out the largest sawmill carriages ever made in Canada. They are nine feet wide and are for a mill in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

To-Morrow.

A couple of Scott Act cases, second offences, are on the Police Court docket for to-morrow morning. We understand that one of the defendants will plead guilty—while the other will fight it out.

Baby Carriages.

Messrs. W. G. Bain & Co., late Breeze & Bain, open out to-day one of the finest and largest stocks of American Baby Carriages ever brought into Peterborough, and respectfully invite the public to call and see them. d84

The Sunday Temperance Meeting.

Mr. A. Clegg presided at the Gospel, temperance meeting in the W. C. T. U. Hall on Sunday afternoon and gave a practical and pointed address. Miss Allen gave a temperance solo very acceptably and the balance of an interesting programme was made up of readings.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. d89

To British Columbia

A company of young men, who at first talked of going to California, decided to remain under the Union Jack and started for Vancouver, British Columbia, this morning. They are Messrs. J. Mercer, W. Ross, Geo. Ross, M. Hickey, M. McDonald, J. Simpson, F. and R. Stenson. There was a large number of friends at the Canadian Pacific station this morning to see them off and they take with them many hearty wishes for good fortune.

Personal.

Mr. C. B. Coughlin, of Trinity Medical School, who studied at the Institute here, passed his second year examinations recently, not the first year's, as stated. Mr. Coughlin is a successful student and will no doubt make a good record.

The Rev. Mr. Davis, of Toronto, who was formerly stationed here at the George-st. Methodist church, spent Sunday in town, a guest of his son, Mr. Alfred Davis.

Mr. James Crowe, one of the applicants for the position of organist of St. Andrew's Church, presided at the organ in that church on Sunday. He is a very capable musician and made a favorable impression.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dunsford will leave this week for a voyage across the ocean to visit the mother land.

Mr. J. C. T. Lacey, of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, is in town.

Cricket.

It is evident that cricketing is going to boom this year. The committee held a meeting on Saturday night to consider arrangements for matches with several first-class clubs. The dates arranged were as follows:—With the famous Seabrights, on August 9th and 10; with the Rosedale club, of Toronto, on July 2nd, and with Toronto on June 5th. These matches will be played here. The home club will go to the Provincial capital to play the Torontos on August 15th. The date for a match with the club of the Dominion capital has not been arranged yet, nor the date for a visit from the Irish gentlemen, who come to Canada this year. Port Hope wants the Peterborough club to go down there first. The matches already arranged will be most interesting and the prospects are that the cricketing season will be an eventful one.

He who drinks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. d89

THE APOSTLES

Of the Latter Day Open at the Opera House on Sunday.

A company of five persons, "apostles" of the Holiness Association, with headquarters in Toronto, held three meetings in the Opera House on Sunday. In the morning there was only a small number present. At the afternoon meeting the attendance was large and in the evening was larger.

The company is composed of three men and two women. Mrs. Sweet is an elderly lady with grey hair; Mrs. Varcoe a younger and robust looking lady, and the men are Messrs. James Sargent, Thomas Bonsfield ("Happy Tommy") and R. F. Webster. Mr. Webster formerly lived in Peterborough.

The meetings were conducted much after the ordinary style. The hymns used were printed on slips and the tunes were mostly of the long meter and slow character. The company has no nominal leader, and each one speaks or takes a part as he or she is "directed by the Holy Ghost."

After the opening exercises the apostles all spoke, in rotation, and exhorted their hearers to lives of holiness. They speak plainly and without pretension to eloquence.

They intend to remain some days in Peterborough, but how long they will stay depends somewhat on circumstances. Meetings will be held during the week.

Typographical Union.

The Peterborough Typographical Union No. 227, will meet in the Knights of Labor hall this evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Bridge Building.

Mr. Chas. Wynne has completed his work at the Allandale bridge and is at work on the Warsaw structure. He will begin operations on the lock bridge in a couple of weeks.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers can always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. d89

Police Court.

A young man named Albert Carter was run in on Saturday night by Officer McGinty on a charge of disorderly conduct. At the court this morning he pleaded guilty and was allowed to depart, as it was his first offence and the Magistrate was in a lenient mood.

By Death.

During the last few days two old citizens have been carried off by death. Mr. John Tobin, who for many years was head brewer for Mr. H. Calcutt, was buried on Sunday. Mr. John Langton, one of our oldest and best known citizens, was buried on Saturday.

Peterborough Complimented.

From a letter received this morning a distinguished lady says:—"Although the number of pieces is less, the time occupied will not be so—in fact, will be longer than when last I read in Peterborough. The story of the poor traveller is a long and splendidly stirring narrative of English pluck and determination, which I picked out especially for you and which I have not yet given at all on this side of the water.

"Yours truly,

"M. F. SCOTT-SIDDONS."

For this Season's work.

A handsome catalogue of 44 pages has just been issued from the press of the REVIEW by the Ontario Canoe Company, of Peterborough. Very full details are given regarding the building, finishing and equipment of the different classes of canoes now built by the workshops of the company. Price lists of boats and fittings are included and several pages are devoted to descriptive matter in reference to trips over the waters to the north and in Haliburton county. The catalogue will be largely called for, and will well represent features of the large and growing business done by the company, under the efficient supervision of Mr. J. Z. Rogers, managing director.

House Numbering.

The Chairman of the House Numbering Committee has been informed that persons who have applied for orders for making numbers for houses have told the occupants of the houses that it was compulsory to have such numbers. Of course, it is not compulsory, the Council through the committee having only prepared the maps and laid out the town in such a way that the houses may be numbered, and citizens who desire the conveniences of the system may procure the numbers, but this is left to themselves to do as they think best. It is to be hoped, however, that the system will be adopted by all and carried out throughout the town.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—Canton Peterborough are talking over the details of a proposed excursion on May 24th.

—There was one occupant of the cells on Saturday night, who was liberated next morning.

—The mounds of mud on the streets, the result of diligent scraping, are being rapidly removed.

—The adjourned meeting of the Boat Club, and also of St. John's Church Vestry, will be held this evening.

—A Chinaman has leased premises on Simcoe-st. for a laundry. He will be the first celestial to locate in this town.

—A large number are expected from Norwood, Lakefield and other places at the Scott-Siddons entertainment this evening.

—The Otonabee Canoe Club regular meeting will be held to night, instead of on Tuesday evening, as previously announced.

—The Rev. P. Clifton Parker, pastor, baptised five persons at the evening service in the Murray-st Baptist Church, on Sunday.

—Pumping continued steadily at the town well, the force being supplied by horse power, until this afternoon. The pump is being put in.

—The sidewalk on the west side of Water-st., from the post office to Brock-st., badly needs attention. That part of the street is used a great deal now.

—The fine weather yesterday tempted the people in large numbers to walk abroad and the favorite streets were filled with people in the afternoon.

—A meeting of the Town Council will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The Council has been favoured with large audiences lately, and will probably have a "full house" this evening.

—The annual dinner of the Lindsay canoe club is down on the slate for Thursday evening. Several conceists from Peterborough will run up and sit at the table with the Lindsay confreres.

—There is talk of Mr. T. P. Pearce erecting a large new mill at Blairton, unless the municipality of Marmora assists by a bonus to get the Canadian Pacific to run a spur from their line into Marmora. The road bed of the old railway still exists from Blairton village to the station of the same name on the C. P. R.

—The other day a customer prying about the goods in a grocery selected a couple of samples of yeast cake which he placed in his vest pocket. During the day the yeast got working and finished the job during the night, while our friend's vest hung near the coal stove. Next morning there was a terrible time digging out the debris, while the man's watch overpowered by the surroundings of the case had to be taken to the shop for cleaning. He now proposes to send home yeast in an ice box.

Educational Sermons.

The educational sermons were preached in the Mark-st. Methodist Church, Ashburnham, on Sunday. At the morning service the Rev. I. Tovell, Chairman of the District, preached an eloquent sermon. In the evening the pastor, the Rev. J. C. Wilson, preached an interesting and instructive discourse on the subject of "Growth." Mr. Wilson occupied Mr. Tovell's pulpit at the Charlotte-st. Church in the morning.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

SUMMER COMFORT

Doesn't always depend on the circumstances of location. It far oftener depends on the exercise of good judgment in the selection of

Summer Clothing.

People are to a large extent, dependent on well selected Clothing for comfort during the hot months. All mankind in the country are interested in our stock of Seasonable Clothes and Garments, a stock that embraces every New and Popular Light Weight fabric, made up in the Best and Most Stylish manner. Our prices are just as right as our Goods and both satisfactory.

T. Dolan & Co

HASTINGS.

Correspondence of the Review.

SCOTT ACT.—Report says th that nine of our hotel men are to be served with papers early in the week for infractions of the Scott Act. William Lynch, of Brickley, was called on to pay the customary $50 and costs on Saturday. He paid it and got his receipt.

MACHINERY.—Lancaster and Clark have the finest display of agricultural machinery of any firm in the county. The former gentleman represents the Peter Hamilton Works, the latter the Massey.

ITEMS.—Mr. Warden Welsh left on Saturday morning for Montreal, having in charge a car load of fat cattle.... Mr. Dan Coughlin has returned from New York, whither he had been with a car load of horses.... Our druggist, Mr. J. Boyer, contemplates removing from here early in May.

For Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest ordinary food, Scott's Emulson can be digested and give strength and flesh when all other food fails. See what Dr. A. H. Peck, Penn. Med. College, Philadelphia, says: "I have used and prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and find it an excellent preparation agreeing well with the stomach, and its continued use adding greatly to the strength and comfort of the patient." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

Sale Register.

SATURDAY, April 21st.—By Chas Stapleton, auctioneer. Spring sale of Horses, Cattle, Buggies, Harness, Furniture, &c. Sale on the market square, Peterborough; and to begin at 10 a.m.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

DIED.

BENNETT.—In North Monaghan, on Monday, SARAH M. SCOTT, wife of Mr. J. J. Bennett, aged 31 years and 8 months

A great many drawingrooms in Washington are now more or less adorned with large-sized photographs of Joseph Chamberlain.

A Bequest of enchanting sweetness—"Lotus of the Nile" Perfume.

The man in the moon must feel all broke up when he is reduced to his last quarter.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpared are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hands and brain.

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1mw16 10 Spruce st., New York

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools, Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

LEBRUN

LEADS THE STYLES IN CLOTHING.

SPLENDID BARGAINS!

700 PAIRS OF

TWEED PANTS

Bought at a Bankrupt Clearing Sale at Montreal and will be sold at half value.

SEE THE VALUE

TWEED PANTS AT $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 AND $2.50.

These are the Best ... ever offered and cannot be equalled.

Men, Youths and Boys who are wanting ordered or ready-made Clothing should call and examine our large stock of new Tweeds for Men's and Boys' wear.

H. LEBRUN, The City Clothing Store, No. 396 GEORGE STREET.

Want of Sleep

Is sending thousands annually to the insane asylum; and the doctors say this trouble is alarmingly on the increase. The usual remedies, while they may give temporary relief, are likely to do more harm than good. What is needed is an Alterative and Blood-purifier. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is incomparably the best. It corrects those disturbances in the circulation which cause sleeplessness, gives increased vitality, and restores the nervous system to a healthful condition.

Rev. T. G. A. Coté, agent of the Mass. Home Missionary Society, writes that his stomach was out of order, his sleep very often disturbed, and some impurity of the blood manifest; but that a perfect cure was obtained by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frederick W. Pratt, 424 Washington street, Boston, writes: "My daughter was prostrated with nervous debility. Ayer's Sarsaparilla restored her to health."

William F. Bowker, Erie, Pa., was cured of nervousness and sleeplessness by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for about two months, during which time his weight increased over twenty pounds.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1888.

RACING ACROSS THE SEA.

ON THE FLAT AND OVER JUMPS FOR ENGLISH SOVEREIGNS.

The Torontos Again Victorious in England —Toronto's Ball Team Defeated Once More—The American Loses the First Race—Spots of Sport.

LONDON, April 14.—This was the third and last day of the Sandown Park Spring Meeting, with which is combined the Grand National Hunt Meeting. It is eminently a "mixed" meeting, the attraction to-day including the Grand International Steeplechase, the Prince of Wales Handicap and the Grand National Hunt Steeplechase. The Grand International Steeplechase was about three miles and a half and had nine starters, of which Mr. P. Nickall's Ballot Box was the top weight at 175 pounds, and the favorite at 3 to 1 against. After an exciting finish Ballot Box won by a length and a half from The Fawn second, with Gamecock a bad third. The Fawn started with the odds at 100 to 1 against, and Gamecock at 10 to 1 against. The race was run under the following conditions:

THE GRAND INTERNATIONAL STEEPLECHASE (Handicap) of 300 sovs., by subscription of 3 guineas each, or 50 guineas in addition if not struck out by March 20; the 2d horse to receive 20 sovs. out of the stakes; winners (selling races excepted) of any handicap steeplechase after March 15, to carry 4 lb.; of 200 sovs., 9 lb.; of 500 sovs., 12 lb. extra; about 3¼ miles. 24 subs.

Mr. P. Nickall's br.g. Ballot Box, a., by Candidate—Guess, 175.....1
Lord Cholmondeley's br.m. The Fawn, 6, by Macgregor—Red Hind, 149.....2
Mr. E. Benyon's b.g. Gamecock, a., by Revolver—Lightfoot, 174.....3
Six others ran.

THE PRINCE OF WALES HANDICAP.

The race for the Prince of Wales Handicap was won by Gen. Owen Williams' colt Seranus, with Mr. J. Hammond's colt Powder Puff second and Mr. J. Nightingall's colt Sly Shot third. Conditions:

THE PRINCE OF WALES'S HANDICAP of 500 sovs.; entrance, 3 guineas each, the only forfeit if struck out by April 3, or 10 guineas if left in after that date; the winner after March 29, of any handicap, to carry 7 lbs extra; 5 furlongs; 86 entries.

Gen. Owen Williams' b.c., Seranus, 3, by Trappist—Ronda Lassie, 109.....1
Mr. J. Hammond's b.c., Powder Puff, 3, by Mask—Decoration, 87.....2
Mr. J. Nightingall's ch.c., Sly Shot, 3, by Hackthorpe or Rosbach—Ambush, 98.....3

GRAND NATIONAL HUNT STEEPLECHASE.

The race for the Grand National Hunt Steeplechase was won by Mr. Townley Parker's Glen Thorpe, with Battle Royal second and Braceborough third.

Torontos Again Beaten.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 14.—The Alleghanys easily defeated Toronto here to-day, the visitors being unable to do anything with Henderson, while Shepherd was hit freely. Shephord had a finger crushed by a line hit which somewhat accounted for his being batted so hard. The score:

	R. H. E.
Alleghany	2 0 1 0 4 8 0 0 1—16 19 5
Toronto	0 0 0 3 0 0 0 1 0—4 8 5

Batteries: Fields and Henderson, Thayer and Shepherd. Umpire: Valentine.

The Hams Beat McPherson's Nine.

HAMILTON, April 14.—The cold weather did much to keep the people from attending the ball match played here to-day between the Hams and McPherson's nine. Barring a few wild throws and several weak attempts to hit the ball on the part of McPherson's, the game was quite interesting. Jones and Purvis did the battery work for McPherson's, while Wood and Moore officiated in that capacity for the Hams. The feature of the game was the hitting by Purvis and a pretty little bunt made by Andrus, on which he reached first base. Manager Fisher sat on the bench, carefully sizing up each player as he was brought into action. The game resulted in favor of the Hams by 5 to 4.

Other Games.

At Chicago:

	R. H. E.
Chicago	0 0 3 1 2 0 1 0 4—11 12 6
Maroons	2 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—3 4 4

Batteries: Baldwin and Flint; Nicholson and McCauley. Umpire: Hagan.

At Washington:

	R. H. E.
Washington	4 3 1 0 2 4 4 0 1—19 11 3
Princeton	3 0 0 1 3 1 0 0 0—8 6 4

Batteries: O'Day and Beasley; King and Young. Umpire: Schoch. Darkness.

At Philadelphia:

	R. H. E.
Philadelphia	0 0 3 0 0 0 0 1 0—4 8 6
Athletics	0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0—3 4 0

Batteries: Gleason and Schriever; Seward and Robinson. Umpires: Doescher and Daniels.

At Baltimore:

	R. H. E.
Boston	4 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—6 7 2
Baltimore	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 4 4

Batteries: Clarkson and Kelly; Kilroy and Trott. Umpire: Blogg.

At Indianapolis:

	R. H. E.
Indianapolis	2 1 0 5 4 3 2 0 1—18 23 12
Toledo	1 0 1 1 1 2 0 3 0—10 14 5

Batteries: Shreve and Buckley; Barney and Brown. Umpire: Brennan.

At Cincinnati:

	R. H. E.
Cincinnati	0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0—3 11 3
Buffalo	0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 7 7

Batteries: Hart and O'Connor; Walsh and Williams. Umpire: Keenan.

At Kansas City:

	R. H. E.
American Association	0 1 0 0 0 0 3 0 1 0—5 9 3
Western League Club	2 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0—4 9 3

Batteries: Toole and Daniels; McCarty and Wells.

At Louisville:

	R. H. E.
Louisville	1 1 1 3 0 1 0 0 1—8
Milwaukee	0 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 0—3

Pitchers: Ramsey and Shenkle.

At Wheeling, W. Va.:

	R. H. E.
Wheeling	0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 1—4 5 1
Cleveland	1 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 x—4 9 4

Batteries: Flanagan and Yaik; Oberlander and Zimmer. Umpire: Sheppard.

At St. Louis:

	R. H. E.
Detroit	0 0 3 0 1 0 0 1 0—5 9 6
St. Louis	0 2 0 1 0 3 0 5 0—11 13 1

Batteries: Baldwin and Sutcliffe; Devlin and Milligan. Umpire: McCaffrey.

At Brooklyn:

	R. H. E.
Troy	0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1
Brooklyn	0 0 5 0 2 0 1 1 x—9

The Torontos Win Easily.

LONDON, April 14.—The Toronto Lacrosse team played a game to-day with the South Essex team and were victorious, the score standing ten goals to two in favor of the Canadians.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

A STORY OF THESE TIMES.

"By Jove! you know, it is odd," says Geoffrey, presently, speaking as one might who has for long been following out a train of thought by no means unpleasant, "his sending for her, and that there must be something in it. Rodney didn't send for her for nothing. It must have been to——" Here he checks himself abruptly, remembering his promise to Mona to say nothing about the scene in the library. "It certainly means something," he winds up, a little tamely.

"No doubt," returns his mother, sneeringly.

"My dear mother," says Geoffrey, coming back to the fire-light, "what you insinuate is too ridiculous to be taken any notice of." Every particle of his former passion has died from his voice, and he is now quite calm, nay, cheerful. "But at the same time I must ask you to remember you are speaking of my wife."

"I do remember it," replies she, bitterly.

Just at this moment a light step running up the stairs outside and across the verandah makes itself heard. Every one looks expectant, and the slight displeasure disappears from Geoffrey's face. A slender, graceful figure appears at the window, and taps lightly.

"Open the window, Geoff," cries Mona, eagerly, and as he obeys her command she steps into the room with a certain touch of haste about her movements, and looks round upon them earnestly,—some peculiar expression, born of a glad thought, rendering her lovely face even more perfect than usual.

There is a smile upon her lips; her hands are clasped behind her.

"I am so glad you have come, darling," says little Dorothy, taking off her hat, and laying it on a chair near her.

Geoffrey removes the heavy lace that lies round her throat, and then leads her up to the hearth-rug nearly opposite to his mother's arm-chair.

"Where have you been, Mona?" he asks, quietly, gazing into the great, honest, liquid eyes raised so willingly to his own.

"You shall guess," says Mrs. Geoffrey, gayly, with a little laugh. "Now, where do you think?"

Geoffrey says nothing. But Sir Nicholas, as though impulsively, says,—

"In the wood?"

Perhaps he is afraid for her. Perhaps it is a gentle hint to her that the truth will be best. Whatever it may be, Mona understands him not at all. His mother glances up sharply.

"Why, so I was," says Mona, opening her eyes with some surprise, and with an amused smile. "What a good guess, and considering how late the hour is, too!"

She smiles again. Lady Rodney, watching her intently, tells herself if this is acting, it is the most perfectly done thing she ever saw in her life, either on the stage or off it.

Geoffrey's arm slips from his wife's shoulder to her rounded waist.

"Perhaps, as you have been so good at your first guess you will try again," says Mona, still addressing Nicholas, and speaking in a tone of unusual light-heartedness, but so standing that no one can see why her hands are so persistently clasped behind her back.—"Now tell me who I was with."

This is a thunderbolt. They all start guiltily, and regard Mona with wonder. What is she going to say next?

"So," she says, mockingly, laughing at Nicholas, "you cannot play the seer any longer? Well, I shall tell you. I was with Paul Rodney!"

She is plainly quite enchanted with the sensation she is creating, though she is far from comprehending how complete that sensation is. Something in her expression appeals to Doatie's heart and makes her involuntarily go closer to her. Her face is transfigured. It is full of love and unselfish joy and happy exultation; always lovely, there is at this moment something divine about her beauty.

"What have you got behind your back?" says Geoffrey, suddenly, going up to her.

"She flushes, opens her lips as if to speak, and yet is dumb,—perhaps through excess of emotion.

"Mona, it is not—it cannot be—but is it?" asks he, incoherently.

"The missing will? Yes—yes—yes!" cries she, raising the hand that is behind her, and holding it high above her head with the will held tightly in it.

It is a supreme moment. A deadly silence falls upon the room, and then Dorothy bursts into tears. In my heart I believe she feels as much relief at Mona's exculpation as at the discovery of the desired deed.

Mona, turning not to Nicholas or to Doatie, or to Geoffrey, but to Lady Rodney, throws the paper into her lap.

"The will—but are you sure—sure?" says Lady Rodney, feebly. She tries to rise, but sinks back again in her chair, feeling faint and overcome.

"Quite sure," says Mona, and then she laughs aloud,—a sweet, joyous laugh,—and clasps her hands together with undisguised delight and satisfaction.

Geoffrey, who has tears in his eyes, takes her in his arms and kisses her once softly before them all.

"My best beloved," he says, with passionate fondness, beneath his breath; but she hears him, and wonders vaguely but gladly at his tone, not understanding the rush of tenderness that almost overcomes him as he remembers how his mother—whom she has been striving with all her power to benefit—has been grossly maligning and misjudging her. Truly she is too good for those among whom her lot has been cast.

"It is like a fairy-tale," says Violet, with unwonted excitement. "Oh, Mona, tell us how you managed it."

"Well, just after luncheon, Letitia, your maid, brought me a note. I opened it. It was from Paul Rodney, asking me to meet him at three o'clock, as he had something of importance to say to me that concerned not me but those I loved. When he said that," says Mona, looking round upon them all with a large, soft, comprehensive glance, and a sweet smile, "I knew he meant you.—So I went. I got into my coat and hat, and ran all the way to the spot he had appointed,—the big chestnut tree near the mill stream; you know it, Geoffrey, don't you?"

"Yes, I know it," says Geoffrey.

"He was there before me, and almost immediately he drew the will from his pocket, and said he would give it to me if—if—— Well, he gave it to me" says Mrs. Geoffrey, changing color as she remembers her merciful escape. "And he desired me to tell you, Nicholas, that he would never claim the title, as it was useless to him and it sits so sweetly on you. And then I clutched the will, and held it tightly, and ran all the way back with it, and—and that's all!"

She smiles again, and, with a sigh of rapture at her own success, turns to Geoffrey and presses her lips to his out of the very fullness of her heart.

"Why have you taken all this trouble about us?" says Lady Rodney, leaning forward to look at the girl anxiously, her voice low and trembling.

To be Continued.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per ya Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

In grief and to the Point

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents

CLOVER, SEED AND TIMOTHY.

To be Added to the Free List—A Murderer's Sentence Commuted.

OTTAWA, April 15.—The Canada Gazette, which should have appeared yesterday, will not be issued until to-morrow. It will contain the proclamation changing the order-in-council of April 7, placing on the free list certain articles when imported from the United States. The words "United States" are erased and the articles in question can come in free from all parts of the world. To the list of free goods have been added clover seed and timothy seed. This is an important addition. The Government intend to be very specific in the matter of seeds. The "statutory offer" authorizes all kinds of seeds to be placed on the free list. But as the list is extended as to seeds they will be specifically named, just as has been done at Washington. The free list as revised now reads:

Green fruits, viz.: Bananas, olives, pineapples, plantains, tamarinds, apples, blackberries, gooseberries, raspberries, strawberries, cherries, cranberries, peaches, plums, quinces, apricots, lichifruit, mangoes and melons.

Seeds, viz.: Anise, anisestar, canary, caraway, coriander (crude), cardamon (crude), chia, cinnamon (crude), fenugreek (crude), fennel (crude), jute, mustard (brown and white), sugar beet, seeds of fruit trees, sesame, clover seed, timothy seed.

Plants, trees and shrubs, viz.: Apple, peach, pear, plum, cherry, quince and all other fruit trees; gooseberry, raspberry, blackberry, currant and rose bushes; grape vines; shade, lawn and ornamental trees, shrubs and plants.

The Governor-General, acting on the advice of the Minister of Justice, has commuted the death sentence of Murderer Newton, who shot and killed a painter named Thomas Ingo at Winnipeg last fall. Newton will spend the remainder of his days in the Stony Mountain Penitentiary. The jury in the case recommended mercy.

The Combine Committee is called to meet to-morrow morning.

The latest political story is that Oliver Mowat has consented to go to Ottawa and join his party there, retiring of course from the Ontario Premiership; Mr. G. W. Ross to succeed him.

The American Loses the First Race.

LONDON, April 14.—The first of the series of three bicycle races between W. A. Rowe of Lynn, Mass., and Richard Howell, the English champion, for $1000 and the championship of the world, was contested on the Belgrave cycling grounds at Leicester to-day. The distance was five miles and the betting before the start was 7 to 4 on Howell. In the send-off Howell gained a slight advantage. The two settled down to earnest work but without forcing the pace, and the exhibition given was the finest ever seen on the grounds. Howell maintained the lead he had gotten at the start until the beginning of the last lap, when Rowe spurted and got several yards ahead. Shortly before the finish Howell, seeing that Rowe's effort had pumped him severely, concentrated his energies into an extraordinary burst of speed, and overhauling the American placed himself in front and finished a winner by five yards in 15 min. 37 1-5 sec.

THE SUN LIFE
Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSSETS - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,
MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH

Geo. A. Cox vs. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be soldfastonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGGONS, Etc., 20 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment,

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1yd&w

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 475, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St. north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d169

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces, Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies. Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. [illegible]LEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer treets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 351. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 343; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 505, Peterborough P. O. d83-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. daily

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS H. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. d168w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. wd37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer, Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d86w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, (Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
6 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 55 p m 7 00 p m 8 30 a m 10 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R. Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R. Grand Trunk, East & West	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 m 5 00 p m 8 30 a m 15 15 p m	do East. Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	8 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 8 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings. Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst.	1 15 p m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville. Bobcaygeon, including	12 00 a m 11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bridgenorth & Ennismore.	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Eldorado and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily.	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Ebenezer, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays.	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m 4 00 p m
	do do do British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays.	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. to each route. Registration fee, 5c.

Money Orders granted from 9 a. m. until 6 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund ay excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brasil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents,

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 90. PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE

METROPOLITAN

GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted by Person the last 30 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvatures, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
115 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

GLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE

ATLAS

Assurance Co'y.,

OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it.

Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared solely from the Pure Pine Tar.

DEAR SIR,—I thank you for your PINE TAR CORDIAL. It has done me more good than anything I have ever used.

MRS. S. R. HARVEY, Cobourg.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent. ROANOKE, VA.

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

BUY THE

Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Brodigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. L. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Flye, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve,) Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Glenabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Buller, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Rose, Peterborough, Mr. J. J. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. L. Hughes, Peterborough, Mrs. Eliza Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,

Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

For Sale or to Rent.

HOUSE TO LET.

FURNISHED. All modern improvements in heating, &c. Apply to office of JOHN E. BELCHER, Architect and C. E. 3d37

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE & LOT, situate on Stewart-st. west, Ashburnham. Apply R. MOWRY, Ashburnham. 6d36

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED-

EXPERIENCED HOUSEKEEPER, Middle aged. Good plain cook. Good references required. Apply, care Box A. Peterborough P. O. 6d36

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Le Boutcher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to

d ROBERT KINGAN.

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Orientel

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, the handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts. with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stration, Esq. and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,

Barrister, Water-st., or to

C. STAPLETON,

Auctioneer. 3d32-tw1

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being botpractical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER. 1yd28 JAS. R. DONELL

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888.

A COLLECTION OF COMBINES.

How Public Coal Contracts Are Disposed of at the Capital.

OTTAWA, April 16.—The meeting of the Combines Committee was taken up to-day in hearing evidence from Ottawa men with reference to the coal and cartage business. J. C. Browne, a city coal merchant who has been in business since July last, told the committee that he was forced into the local combine, otherwise he could get no coal. He gave considerable evidence about freight and prices. Speaking of the methods of disposing of public contracts in this city, he said:

Here there is no auction sale, but the dealers work-ing with the ring simply meet and settle who shall get the contract, after fixing the price at which a contract shall be taken. Then, to keep up appearances, a number of the other dealers put in decoy tenders all higher than that of the man who is fixed upon to get the contract. I got the contract for the public schools —220 tons egg at $6.05, the retail price then being $6.50. Senator Clemow got the Protestant Hospital contract. Mr. Butterworth that for the county buildings and Mr. McCullough the Dominion Government contract.

W. C. Gibson, biscuit manufacturer, was examined concerning the combination in that line of business. He has belonged to the combination for about six years and believes that its principal object is to keep up the standard of the biscuits. The profits were not large—only about 10 per cent.

Thos. Workman of Ottawa gave evidence touching the barb wire combine, which, it appears, is not as close as it might be and does not much affect prices. Mr. Workman put in a letter he had received from A. W. Morris & Bros., dealers in cordage and binding twine, which announces their intention of withdrawing from the ring, as they have "lost all faith in combinations and believe in future they should not be allowed to exist." The loss of faith appeared to have been caused by the discovery that the money this firm was paying into pools was going to build up their smaller competitors.

J. R. Esmonde testified that the effect of the stove combination was very little here. There were a number of large manufacturers not in it.

It was decided to summon for Wednesday's meeting H. R. Ives of Montreal to testify concerning barb wire. A. W. Morris of Montreal about binding twine, and Mr. Percy R. Todd of the Canada Atlantic Railway to tell what he knows about the operations of the Ottawa coal combine, as it affects that railway.

SUBSIDIZED STEAMSHIPS.

The Finance Minister Interviewed by a Delegation from Montreal.

OTTAWA, April 16.—A large deputation of steamship owners and agents came to the Capital this morning and had an interview with Sir Charles Tupper, being introduced by Mr. Ouimet. They represented the Allans, the Dominion line, the Furness line, the Donaldson line, the Beaver line and the Thomson line. The deputation asked Sir Charles that the Government subsidies to the Bossiers line to Havre and the Hansa and White Cross lines to Antwerp and Hamburg be withdrawn. It was claimed that although these subsidies have been given to foster new trades they have not been productive of any good results in this direction and that the action of the Government was simply diverting trade from Canadian and British vessels and producing wealth for foreign shipowners. The deputation also pointed out that although these subsidies were given to encourage direct continental trade, the vessels of these favored lines call at British ports both on their way to and from their destinations and compete with the regular and unsubsidized lines.

Mr. Munderloh, the German Consul at Montreal, and who is agent for the White Cross and Hansa lines, disputed the statements of his rivals and claimed that his steamships have built up a large and increasing trade with Germany.

Sir Charles told the visitors that the matter was worthy of the closest enquiry. It was not the policy of the Government to discriminate against Canadian lines. He said the Government had been asked to subsidize a Belgian line of steamships and the answer given was that so soon as the Belgian Government put up a subsidy the Canadian Government would do likewise.

CAPITAL CHIT-CHAT.

Senator Schultz' Mackenzie River Committee—The Railway Lobby.

OTTAWA, April 16.—Ex-"Judge" Malcolm McLeod of Ottawa, who was born a great many years ago in the Mackenzie River country and left when he was 9 years of age, was the attraction at Senator Schultz's committee this morning. Mr. McLeod's evidence was principally reminiscences of his father, who spent all his life in that great unknown country.

The railway lobby has assumed interesting proportions. It is definitely settled that the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific people will meet in the Railway Committee to-morrow and have it out over Mr. Hall's bill to incorporate the Southwestern Railroad Company.

Sir Richard Cartwright is going to ask on Wednesday if the Government proposes to increase the salaries of the county judges of Ontario.

Mr. Boyle of Monck is going for the "hayforks" tree peddler. He gave notice of a bill today to prevent his operations in the country. Mr. Brown of Hamilton is after several other species of "hayforkers" and he has a notice for a special committee to investigate their doings on the paper.

A Louisiana negro, near Bayou Goula, saw a bear in his turnip patch and tried to drive him out. The bear resented the insult, drove the negro out, and chased him up the railroad track. The darkey stopped aside to let an express train pass and the bear didn't. After the train passed the negro took a lot of bear meat home for supper.

PROHIBITIONISTS AT ODDS.

MR. JAMIESON'S SCOTT ACT AMENDMENT IN THE HOUSE.

Mills of Bothwell Laughs at the Member for North Lanark and Charges Him with Insincerity—The Debate on the Fisheries Treaty Bill.

OTTAWA, April 16.—The House this afternoon was regaled with a spirited across-the-floor quarrel between alleged temperance advocates. Mr. Jamieson, the auburn-bearded prohibitionist from North Lanark, got into an entanglement with the "Mills of Bothwell."

Mr. Jamieson called up his resolution, similar to the one he moved last session:

That in the opinion of this House it is expedient to prohibit the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquor except for sacramental, scientific and medicinal purposes; that the enforcement of such prohibition, and such manufacture, importation and sale as may be allowed by the Dominion Government be conducted through especially appointed officers.

This motion was exterminated at the last session of Parliament and the mover gave as an excuse for reproducing it this session that the personnel of the House had considerably changed by reason of the numerous by-elections. Mr. Jamieson said that the Scott Act was only a partial prohibitory measure. It prevented the sale of liquor, but it did not prevent its importation. He did not expect that his resolution would pass, but it was the intention of himself and the promoters of the motion to keep it before the people and the House until a measure for the entire suppression of the liquor traffic was placed upon the statute book. He hoped that that day was not far off. Speaking of compensation to those in the business he remarked:

If I were sure that it would do away with the traffic I would put my hand in my pocket and contribute my share to buy them out, although I will not admit that they are entitled to it.

Mr. Mills laughed at Mr. Jamieson's abstract temperance proposition. He said he would be prepared to vote for such a resolution if it were followed by a measure giving effect to such a declaration. Mr. Mills then declared that it was useless to pass temperance acts of Parliament that a majority of the people would not respect. What we wanted was a public sentiment in favor of Prohibition, to be followed by such legislation as would give effect to such a sentiment. The member for Bothwell here made an onslaught on Mr. Jamieson's sincerity as a temperance man and assured the House that "the member for North Lanark was a Government supporter first and a temperance man afterwards." He also charged him with insincerity at every point, and with being an impeder of temperance legislation. "Mr. Mackenzie," said Mr. Mills, "was the only man in Parliament who had ever put any temperance legislation on the statute books. [Neither Mr. Jamieson nor any of his political allies had ever done anything in that direction.

By permission of the House Mr. Jamieson was allowed to reply, and in doing so got himself into a hot corner with Mr. Fisher of Brome, and other temperance workers on the Opposition side of the House, with the result of showing that there was no sympathy in common between the temperance men on one side, and the same advocates on the other.

At 5.45 Mr. Scriver moved the adjournment of the debate, and it is freely prophesied that Mr. Jamieson's motion will not be heard of again this session.

The Minister of Justice sent up a bill respecting the application to Canada of the criminal law of England, and it was read a first time. The bill provides that the date on which these laws shall be applicable to the Dominion is July 1, 1867, Confederation Day. The various provinces had passed acts varying the dates very considerably and the bill was for the purpose of making them all uniform.

The ministers answered a batch of questions, for the most part of little importance. Among them was one by Mr. McMullen, inquiring about the superannuation of Postmaster Wallace of Victoria.

Mr. McLelan said the amount of superannuation was under the consideration of the Government.

In moving for certain papers, Mr. Patterson of Essex renewed his plea for a submarine cable in Lake Erie between Pelee Island and the mainland. Mr. Patterson said the number of wrecks in this locality were very numerous, many of which could be prevented or a large portion of them saved at least, if relief could be promptly summoned. This was not of local but of Dominion importance.

Sir Hector Langevin told the House that the matter was once more before his colleagues and he hoped their ears would be opened this time.

A ray of sunshine and relief descended upon the House when the Minister of Marine told "Cap." Welsh of Prince Edward Island, who had offered a motion for papers, that the Northern Light was to be superseded by a better and a faster steamer. This unfortunate craft has been the target for many a parliamentary marksman from the salt water constituencies. When the Northern Light really disappears it will reinstate certain friendships in Prince Edward Island that have been very much strained.

The debate on Sir Chas. Tupper's Fisheries Treaty Bill was resumed, as arranged on Friday, at 8.15 to-night and the bill was read a second time. The speakers of the evening were Mr. Mills (Bothwell), Dr. Weldon of Albert, Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir John Macdonald, Mr. Laurier, Mr. Jones, Mr. Ellis, Mr. Landry, Mr. Edgar and others. Mr. Mills, like all the Opposition members who have spoke on the bill, described it as a complete surrender of Canada's rights. Sir Richard and Mr. Laurier made a vigorous attack on the bill and on the treaty itself. Sir John and Dr. Weldon made the speeches of the evening in support of the treaty. The Premier said we could fairly congratulate ourselves upon the consummation of such a treaty. "It is a treaty of peace, a harbinger, it is to be hoped, of years and years of friendly intercourse, of increasing trade, of developing commerce, and of social as well as commercial intercourse."

Mr. McDougall of Cape Breton was the last speaker.

In reply to Sir Richard Cartwright, the Minister of Finance said he would deliver the Budget speech on Tuesday of next week. He expected to bring down the supplementary estimates before that date.

The treaty bill was read a second time, and will be considered in committee of the whole to-morrow.

The House adjourned at 2.30 a.m.

In the Supreme Court.

OTTAWA, April 16.—This was the last day for entering appeals to be argued at the coming term of the Supreme Court. These election appeals were inscribed: Cook v. Farrall (East Simcoe), Caron v. Coulombe (Maskinonge), and Walsh v. Montague (Haldimand).

The list of Ontario appeals is: O'Brien v. the Queen, London v. Goldsmith, Martly v. Carson, Higgins v. Walken (British Columbia), Kingston Railway Company v. Murphy, Grand Trunk Company v. McMillan, Moore v. Citizen's Insurance Company, Angus v. Calgary, (N.W.T.).

Balm for Her Wounded Heart.

WATERTOWN, N.Y., April 16.—The Supreme Court has awarded Miss Sarah Chillis, aged 40, a public school teacher, $5000 for breach of promise of marriage by John B. Chapman, a 75 year-old farmer.

BOULANGER'S VICTORY.

A Protest Against the Home Policy of the Government.

PARIS, April 16.—Gen. Du Barail, who has been elected President of the Imperial Committee, appeals to the people through the columns of Figaro, vaunts the strong plebiscitary position of the Imperialists, and urges that votes be given to Gen. Boulanger to overthrow the Parliament regime and prepare the way for Prince Victor.

The Opportunist journals admit that the Opportunist party suffered a severe defeat in yesterday's election in the Department of the Nord.

The Republique Francaise says: There is madness in the air. We must not despair, however, but must stubbornly fight the battle.

The Journal des Debats says: The efforts to concentrate the Republicans have failed. The Moderates will no longer vote with the Radicals.

The Petit Journal says: It is for the Government to attach the proper meaning to the demonstration in favor of universal suffrage just made.

None of the papers regard Gen. Boulanger's success in any other light than as a protest against the home policy of the Government.

M. Ferry in a speech at Epinal to-day denunciated Gen. Boulanger as a mutinous soldier. He admitted that the Chamber of Deputies had abused its power in order to incite a Ministerial crisis, but in defending the Senate he said that the Boulanger crisis proved that direct suffrage was not infallible and showed the danger of a single assembly and the necessity for a Senate. The existing situation was plagarism of the Second of December. He perfectly recognized again the hypocritical, equivocal and threatening formula of that period. He would support the Floquet cabinet and he called upon it to assume an active militant attitude toward Boulangerism and to concentrate Republicans against the plebiscitary Cæsarian movement. The return of France to Cæsarism would lead to a foreign war. France would lose the esteem of the rest of Europe if, a second time in forty years, she should be so foolish as to take mediocrity for genius, o Catalina for a Washington.

Gen. Boulanger has written a letter to the electors of the Department of the Nord, in which he says: "April 15 will henceforth be marked in the annals of the country as the date of her true deliverance."

MATTHEW ARNOLD.

The Celebrated Man of Letters Struck Down by Heart Disease.

LIVERPOOL, April 16.—Matthew Arnold died here to-day of heart disease. He had come to Liverpool to meet his daughter on her arrival from America in the Aurania and was staying with his sister, Mrs. Cropper, at the Dingle. Mr. Arnold was in the highest spirits after his journey. Going out for a walk with his wife, he had not proceeded far in Dingle-lane when he fell and never spoke again.

[Matthew Arnold, the eldest son of the famous Rugby head master, was born Dec. 24, 1822, at Laleham, Eng. He was educated at Winchester and Rugby schools, and Balliol College, Oxford. In 1845 he won the Newdigate prize for English verse by a poem entitled "Cromwell," graduated with honors in 1844 and was elected a fellow of Oriel College in 1845. From 1847 to 1851 he was the private secretary of the father of the present Lord Lansdowne. In the latter year Mr. Arnold was married to a daughter of Justice Wightman and received an appointment as one of the lay inspectors of schools. From 1857 to 1867 he held the chair of Poetry at Oxford. Edinburgh conferred upon him the degree of LL.D. in 1869, Oxford did the same in 1870, and Cambridge in 1883. In the autumn of the latter year he made his first American tour, and again came to this country in 1886, reflections upon certain aspects of western civilization arising during the second visit being his last contribution to literature. The first publication of his poems was in 1849 when "Strayed Reveller and Other Poems" appeared. Among his other noteworthy works were "Empedocles on Etna and Other Poems," "Balder," "Merope, a Tragedy," "On Translating Homer," "Essays in Criticism," "Study of Celtic Literature," "Schools and Universities on the Continent," "Culture and Anarchy," "St. Paul and Protestantism," "Friendship's Garland," "Literature and Dogma." Mr. Arnold was one of the foremost writers of the Victorian Age, and while many of his theories met with vigorous antagonism his depth of learning and breadth of culture, his mastery of the resources of the English language and his polished, powerful style won applause and admiration even where they could not command assent.]

The Manitoba Legislature.

WINNIPEG, April 14.—In the Legislature today Mr. Roblin moved and Mr. Gelley seconded the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne.

Fire at River du Loup.

RIVER DU LOUP, April 15.—At 3 o'clock this morning a house on Fraser-street, owned by Evariste Talbot, Esq., was discovered to be on fire. It was impossible to save the building. Efforts were then concentrated on the adjoining house, owned and occupied by Dr. Sirois, sheriff, but it was entirely consumed. Mr. Talbot's loss is $1500, insured for $1000; Dr. Sirois' loss on the building is $1800, insured for $1200.

To be Indefinitely Postponed.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Senate Committee on Military Affairs, to which the joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to sell to the Minneapolis, Sault Ste. Marie and Atlantic Railway Company certain portions of the military reservation at Sault Ste. Marie, have reported to the Senate in favor of indefinite postponement of the resolution.

Standard Oil Co.'s New Line.

CHICAGO, April 15.—It is stated here that the Standard Oil Company has completed all its arrangements for building a pipe line from Lima, Ohio, to Chicago for the cheap and rapid transportation of the crued oil which is destined to take the place of coal in the great manufacturing establishments in Chicago.

FEARS FOR THE EMPEROR.

ANOTHER CRISIS IN KAISER FREDERICKS' DREAD DISEASE.

It is Reported That Inflammation of the Lungs Has Supervened—Dr. Mackenzie Fears Pneumonia—It is Thought the End is Near.

BERLIN, April 16.—This afternoon this bulletin, signed by Drs. Mackenzie, Wegner, Krause and Hovell, was issued:

CHARLOTTENBURG, 3.30 p.m.—The Emperor did not pass a good night; bronchitis having supervened yesterday, accompanied by high fever and shortness of breath.

The doctors in attendance upon Emperor Frederick held a consultation to-day, and decided that the bronchitis was limited and that no pneumonia was present. Dr. Mackenzie fears pneumonia will set in in consequence of the Emperor's continued high temperature, which the attack of bronchitis alone does not explain. Other doctors have been summoned to join in another consultation to-night.

During the evening the Emperor was very weak, and his fever was much higher. There was no improvement in his other symptoms. It was reported that inflammation of the lungs had set in.

At midnight all the members of the Imperial family were summoned to the Emperor's bedside. The worst is feared.

Prince Bismarck visited Emperor Frederick this morning. Crown Prince William and the Grand Duke of Baden subsequently paid a visit to the Emperor. The Dowager Empress Augusta and the Grand Duchess of Baden called upon the Emperor at Charlottenburg last evening.

Dr. Schweninger advises Prince Bismarck, who is suffering from overwork and nervousness, to leave Berlin. He urges him to sojourn at Friedrichsruhe.

Prince Bismarck, accompanied by the Minister of Justice, had another interview with the Emperor to-night, when His Majesty signed an order appointing the Crown Prince to act as his representative.

Prince Henry, the Emperor's son, arrived from Wilhelmshafer early this morning. All the family of the Emperor are now at Charlottenberg.

The Crown Prince and Prince Bismarck had a long conference with the Emperor this afternoon.

A council of the Prussian ministers was held at the residence of Prince Bismarck this afternoon. The session lasted a long time.

A Significant Warning.

BERLIN, April 16.—A warning has been issued to German holders to sell Russian stocks.

A TRUE BILL

Against Manager Creighton in the Mercier Case—A Settlement Probable.

QUEBEC, April 16.—The indictment charging D. Creighton, M.P.P., with having published a criminal libel on Premier Mercier in The Empire, was sent to the Grand Jury to-day and they at once found a true bill. Mr. Creighton has been admitted to bail and the trial will probably occur towards the end of this week, that is if the case is not settled out of court as is deemed probable.

The intimacy between complainant and defendant which began at the Canadian Pacific Railway Depot in Montreal on Sunday night has evidently grown, as Mr. Mercier called on the Toronto newspaper man to-night and had quite a long chat. It is rumored that if Mr. Creighton will agree to plead guilty Premier Mercier will be satisfied and all proceedings will be stayed, but this cannot be confirmed.

O'BRIEN AGAIN ARRESTED.

But William to Cheerful—The Meeting at New Ross—Dillon Serenaded.

DUBLIN, April 15.—Wm. O'Brien, M.P., was arrested on arriving at Kingstown yesterday in consequence of his speech at the meeting at Loughrae last Sunday. He was taken to the Loughrea jail. A crowd gathered at Broadstone station and cheered Mr. O'Brien and groaned for Mr. Balfour. Messrs. Crilly and Kenney, M.P.'s, were at the station and bade farewell to Mr. O'Brien, who was escorted by seven policemen. Mr. O'Brien reached Loughrea about midnight last night. The magistrate remanded his case until Thursday next and admitted him to bail. Mr. O'Brien received several visits to-day. He was cheerful and admitted that the only charge the Government had against him was that he gave Balfour the lie in his throat last Sunday. Mr. O'Brien will return to Dublin to-morrow. At Ballinsloe Mr. O'Brien was greeted with enthusiasm. The public was excluded from the railway station. There was slight disorder and some arrests were made.

The meeting at New Ross to-day was small and passed off quietly. The soldiers and police were confined to their barracks. The meeting expressed indignation at the arrest of Mr. O'Brien. Messrs. Barry, Chance and John and William Redmond, M.P.'s, made speeches.

Detectives are watching Mr. Dillon's Dublin residence. To-day four bands serenaded Mr. Dillon and several friends visited him. A crowd in front of the house cheered for Home Rule leaders, groaned for Balfour and sang "Hang bloody Balfour on a sour apple tree," until the police interfered.

Serious Railway Collision.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—While the New York and Washington express south-bound was passing over the elevated road of the Pennsylvania Railroad shortly before 3.30 this morning it collided with a heavy passenger locomotive at Thirtieth-street. Several persons were seriously injured.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE.

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

—o—

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

—o—

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888.

IT WAS A DEADLOCK.

THE OFFICE OF CHIEF CONSTABLE STILL VACANT.

The Members of the Town Council Sit For Nearly Three Hours and Fail to Reach an Agreement.

A meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening. Mayor Stevenson presided, and Councillors Cahill, Davidson, Winch, Kelly, McNeil, Hall, Yelland, Moore, Langford, Kendry and Hartley were present. The Council Chamber was filled with ratepayers.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From John Moloney, Reeve of Douro, asking that the town do some work on the boundary line to balance work done by Wm. R. King.

From Police Magistrate Dumble complaining of the bad sanitary condition of police station.—Property Committee.

From Dr. Clark, Medical Health Officer, referring to the stink at the police station.—Property Committee.

From Mr. H. Robinson and other barbers asking that the early closing law be put in force.—Clerk to prepare by-law.

From Mr. Joseph Smith, asking for remission of statute labor tax, on the groud that he paid tax on real estate.—Granted.

From John Johnston, asking for the position of caretaker of the town pump.—Committee on Appointments.

ACCOUNTS.

J. R. Stratton, printing	$ 25 25
T. Menzies, railway tickets	25 00
M. Halpin, charity	12 00
N. Lush, bread	13 70
T. Leary & Co., town well	256 60
Jno. Delaney, charity	2 00
Jos. Connors, cedar posts	16 00
T. Boddy, railway tickets	37 50
T. Laplante, neckyoke	4 00

All the accounts were referred to the Finance Committee, except that of Mr. Connors, which was ordered to be paid.

SEWERAGE.

Councillor McNeil, Chairman, presented the following report, from the Special Committee on Sewerage:—

Your Special Sewerage Committe to whom was referred the question of obtaining information in connection with the proposed construction of a complete system of sewerage for the town of Peterborough, Beg leave to report that they have received the opinions of a large number of eminent engineers, as to the best mode of procedure in this large undertaking, and would recommend that his Worship the Mayor call a public meeting at an early date, when your Committee will lay before them the information received and obtain an expression of opinion as to the desirability of proceeding with this important work.

A. McNEIL,
Chairman.

—Adopted.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT.

Councillor McNeil read and submitted the following report:—

To the Mayor and Town Council:—

That the applications of Messrs. T. Hay and others and J. B. McWilliams and others to have water mains laid down on McDonnel and Brock-sts. be granted and that the Clerk notify the Water Company.

That the electric lights on the corner of George and London and George and Edinburgh-sts. be removed to the C. P. R. track on George-st. and George and Sherbrooke-sts. The electric light at George and Dublin-sts. to remain and that one be put up at George and Antrim sts. and that the gas lamps in the immediate vicinity of said electric lights be discontinued on the 1st of June.

Herewith we submit the Town Solicitor's opinion on the Water Company's agreement.

A. McNEIL,
Chairman.

—Adopted.

FINANCE REPORT.

Chairman Davidson read and submitted the following report:—

We recommend the payment of the following accounts:—

J. Westenholm, charity	$ 9 00
T. Menzies, railway tickets	2 85
G. T. R., railway tickets	5 80
Jas. Logan, charity	4 00
Mrs. Minorgan, charity	4 00
Lock Company	1 75
Water Company	737 50
Nicholls Hospital	308 48
Electric Light Co.	299 75

—Adopted.

APPOINTMENTS.

Chairman Kendry read a report recommending that Mr. Geo. J. Rozell, of St. Catharines, be appointed chief of police at $700 per year and that the constables be R. H. Adams, C. McGinty and Angus McIntosh. Adams to receive $550 per year and the others $450 per year, the officers to supply their own uniforms.

That Mrs. B. Elliott, as janitress, receive $3 per week.

That Robert Pope be appointed Building Inspector in addition to his position as Street Inspector, at a total salary of $600.

That a by-law be prepared for the appointment of Police Commissioners.—The report was received.

PROPERTY.

Chairman Hartley read a report from the Property Committee recommending that the fire stables be extended 14 feet southwards and that the Committee have power to perform the work.—Referred to a Committee of the whole Council.

THE OTTAWA DEPUTATION.

Councillor Moore made a verbal report regarding the business done by the committee who went to Ottawa re sawdust and dredging the Little Lake. He felt confident that the government would assist the town.

THE CHIEFSHIP.

Councillor Kendry introduced a by-law to make appointments. Councillor Hartley was called to the chair.

Councillor Cahill opened the ball by moving that the report introduced two weeks ago be adopted.

Councillor Kendry moved that Mr. Geo. J. Rozell be appointed Chief Constable.

Councillor Cahill saw no reason for appointing a man whom we knew nothing about. He saw that the report recommended an increase of salaries all around. That he could not agree with. Peterborough had some experience with outsiders that was not by any means satisfactory. He favored the appointment of officer Adams, who had given satisfaction and who was highly recommended by a large number of the ratepayers. He felt that nine-tenths of the people were in Adams' favor, and if Adams was given the full power of chief, he felt that he would give satisfaction.

Councillor Yelland did not agree with Councillor Cahill. He favored Mr. Rozell, who was highly recommended. The force as at present constituted had not done their duty. He found fault with Adams on that score, and wanted to see a man at the head of the force who would act fair and square, like a man.

Councillor Kelly favored the appointment of Adams, who had been expected to do the work of two men, and who, in his opinion, was fully competent to perform the duties of the position.

Councillor Kendry knew that not a single man on the force had done his duty. He had found two of the men asleep in the station when they were supposed to be on duty. He preferred a town man, but he wanted a competent person. Discipline is necessary and an outsider who has some vim in him is wanted and such a man he thought the town would find in Mr. Rozell.

Councillor McNeil denied that Adams was to be blamed at all and he asked Councillor Kendry to produce his proofs. He thought the town of Peterborough had been bitten with an imported article in the line of chief of police and he favored a home article every time.

Councillor Langford was not in favor of Rozell, whom he regarded as an invalid.

Councillor Moore thought that Adams had not done his duty and he read several testimonials from leading citizens of St. Catharines, highly recommending Mr. Rozell. They were from the Mayor, Chief Constable, Police Magistrate, City Clerk, M.Ps. and others. He had seen Rozell and was much impressed with him. He admitted that Adams made a fair officer, but he did not possess the necessary ability to make a chief of police. He found fault with Adams as Acting-Chief, on the ground that houses of ill-fame had been allowed to exist, that the officers had frequented bowling alleys when on duty, that cock fighting had been permitted and he held Adams as Acting-Chief responsible, on the ground that he should have reported the misdeeds of the men to the Mayor or Chairman of the Committee on Appointments. An experienced man was wanted and such the town should secure in the person of Mr. Rozell.

Mayor Stevenson had much to do with the police force and knew that the force as constituted at present was not at all efficient. He knew nothing about Mr. Rozell and he would rather have one man come and speak to him privately, than all the recommendations in the country. He was not satisfied to accept Mr. Rozell and would rather keep Adams on, as he had done his duty fairly well. On the score of economy he would oppose the report.

Councillor Kendry gave figures to show that the plan, as proposed by the report, would not cost any more money than it did last year.

Councillor Yelland thought his Worship the Mayor should pay some attention to the letters from the leading citizens of St. Catharines.

Councillor Langford did not favor the importation of invalids and he was rather surprised that the people of St. Kitts allowed such a fine man, as Mr. Rozell was said to be, to leave the city.

Councillor Yelland gave an instance of where officer Adams had not done his duty.

Councillor Cahill defended himself against some personal charges made against him by Councillor Yelland.

Councillor Hall had inquired regarding Mr. Rozell and found that he was a fully competent man.

The motion and the amendment were then put and both were lost. The vote standing for Adams, Mayor Stevenson, Councillors Cahill, Winch, Kelly, McNeil and Langford. Against Adams, Councillors Davidson, Hall, Yelland, Moore, Kendry and Hartley.

The Council then adjourned for two weeks.

Runaway.

A team of horses, drawing one of the Singer Company's delivery wagons, ran away on Water-st. on Monday night. They were stopped before much damage was done.

G. T. R. Short Line.

An Ottawa despatch says that it is reported to be the intention of the G. T. R. to begin the construction of the Vaudreuil and Ottawa railway, between Ottawa and Montreal, this summer. Mr. W. Wainwright, the assistant general manager of the road, is confident that by the end of next summer the G. T. R. will have a through line from Montreal via Ottawa to Toronto. The line of the Midland division is now constructed and operated as far as Bridgewater, and the road bed mostly laid into Perth, so that a few months' work would be sufficient to have the line completed into that town. The company have an assurance from the municipalities in the county of Lanark, through which the proposed line will run to Ottawa, of liberal subsidies. The right of way has been purchased more than half way from Perth to this city. Both the Vaudreuil and Ottawa and Midland division of the G.T.R. will enter the city in Lower Town near the old St. Lawrence and Ottawa depot. Both these schemes are old ones and have again and again failed in their consummation, but those who are in a position to know say that now the G. T. R. Company is determined to go ahead and complete this section of the system.

To-Night at Auburn.

Meeting of Auburn Council of Royal Templars. Open meeting to-night in the Auburn Church. Literary and musical entertainment to commence at 8 o'clock. Free to all.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action, thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

The 57th Battalion and P. A. A. Association Decide on a Joint Celebration.

Committees which were appointed by the 57th Battalion and by the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association to consider the subject of the celebration of the Queen's birthday, May 24th, held a meeting on Monday afternoon.

The committees are composed of, from the Battalion, Capt. Langford, Capt. Brennan, Capt. Miller, Lieut. Mason, Lieut. Peck, Lieut. Hill and Lieut. Hammond, and representing the P. A. A. Association, Messrs. Judge Weller, Dr. Brennan, R. B. Rogers, G. C. Clark and Greatrix.

It was unanimously decided to hold joint sports on the Association grounds on that day, and a joint committee was appointed to take charge of the sports, composed of Messrs. Rogers, Clark, Brennan, Miller, Mason, Hill and Hammond.

The celebration will include a march out by the battalion and the sports, and the details will be arranged by the joint committee. From the present outlook there can be no doubt that this will be one of the most successful celebrations ever held here.

To Chemong Lake.

It is not yet definitely settled what route the Grand Trunk will take in making the connection from the old Lakefield line to the Chemong Lake road. It is found that property is valued so high that it will cost a considerable sum to make the purchases and after all the old road may be utilized, by the erection of a bridge over the present track to replace the one torn down some years ago. The "Y" near the Barnardo Home will serve to make the change from one track to the other.

Loyal True Blues.

On Tuesday, the 8th day of May, commencing at 11 a. m., the Grand Lodge of True Blues will open in the city of Kingston. A very large attendance is expected from all parts of the Dominion, as it is expected that the organization of lady lodges will be discussed.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Buy the Genuine Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos. Also the Williams Sewing Machine.

D. SMART,
Only Authorized Agent for Town and County of Peterborough.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

POWDER

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per ya Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 75c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade.

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

City of Peterborough REAL ESTATE OFFICE

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter-st., is the place to buy or rent any kind of property you want.

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S

NEW LIST.

50 Building Lots from $40 Up.	Terms easy
10 Houses and Lots	from $400 to $1,000
20 " " "	from $1,000 to $2,000
15 " " "	from $2,000 to $7,000
4 Business Stands for Sale or to Rent.
1 Livery Business, good stand, cheap,
2½ Acres Choice Garden Lot, cheap,
5 Acres Good Land, with buildings,
10 Acres with Buildings	only $1,500
2 Parcels of 50 Acres near town, special value, with Good Buildings, near Keene.

FARMS AND WILD LANDS TO SUIT ANY BUYER.

We also have for sale a Stump Machine, nearly new, at half price and a Good Working Horse on eight month's credit.

The public are requested to call or write for particulars.

T. HURLEY,

Real Estate Loan and Insurance Agency.

It pays to advertise in the DAILY REVIEW.

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN.

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Insurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & ws

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Increasing easterly winds; fair weather, followed by local rains to-night or to-morrow; slowly rising temperature.

Suits to Order.

We want it thoroughly understood that we are turning out neat, well fitting and stylish suits for gentlemen—suits made to order—for from $16.00 upwards. Fine worsted suits only $18.00. The latter are fully worth 25 per cent. more than we are asking. Leave your order at the golden lion.

Not Yet.

Street and Bridge and Building Inspector Pope has got into bad company. The members of the Council unanimously agreed some weeks ago to increase his salary and the committee reported to that effect, but as the police appointments were in the same reports, which were not adopted, Mr. Pope has not yet received the increase.

Located Here.

Mr. S. Fritchard, of Brockville, Manager of Eastern Ontario Branch, for the well known publishing house—Messrs. J. S. Robertson & Sons., Mail building, Toronto, has located in our town. Mr. Pritchard has leased Mr. Hilliard's large house near C. P. R. station, and has already men at work canvassing the town under the management of Mr. McKelvie, Gen. Agent. So far their reports show fair success. Mr. Pritchard is confident that with square dealing and liberal treatment, Peterborough will show a literary population equal to any town of its size in Ontario. 1d90w16

Letter of Condolence.

At a meeting of Nassau L. O. L., No. 457, a resolution of condolence was passed and a committee appointed to send a letter in accordance with it to Mr. Robert Campbell, Treasurer and a prominent member of the lodge, who recently lost his wife through death. On Saturday the following letter was forwarded to Mr. Campbell;—

Bro. Robert Campbell, Treasurer L. O. L., No. 457:

DEAR BROTHER,—We the undersigned, in behalf of the members of L. O. L., No. 457,, do hereby tender our sympathies to brother Robert Campbell in his sad bereavement in the loss of his beloved wife, a loss we greatly regret.

Signed in behalf of the lodge,

JOHN A. DAVIDSON.
H. S. ARMSTRONG.

About Turner's Awnings.

We have received the following in commendation of our work:—

TWEED, April 16th, 1888.

John J. Turner, Esq:

SIR,—Enclosed please find $18.70 to cover invoice, 12th inst.

Yours, &c.,
W. WRIGHT & Co.

P. S.—Was well pleased with awning.

CAMPBELLFORD, April 14th, 1888.

John J. Turner, Peterborough:

SIR,—Enclosed please find the sum of $13.20, the sum being full amount for awning which I got put up yesterday and I am well pleased with the same.

I remain, yours very truly,
J. W. WATERS.

J. J. Turner, Sail, Tent and Awning Maker, Peterborough. 1d90-1w16

Police Court.

At the Police Court this morning Wm. Moore was charged with committing an assault upon Wm. Brown. The complainant failed to file an appearance and the case was dismissed without costs.... John Clancy pleaded guilty to a second offence against the provisions of the Scott Act and was fined the customary $100 and costs.... Henry Brault pleaded not guilty to a similar charge and he was defended by Mr. John O'Meara. A witness named Ismaer Beauvais swore to purchasing beer and whiskey at defendant's house. He was served by a man named Morin. He never got any liquor from defendant personally. The defendant denied selling liquor of any kind between the dates charged. The beer sold to Beauvais was purchased by defendant's wife, who paid for it. The bartender is one of the boarders at the defendant's house. The Magistrate found that Brault was responsible and inflicted the usual $100 and costs.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. ds9

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS

AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM

Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1.00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming. Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.

(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

High and Dry.

Beautiful building lots for sale on easy terms. Between 30 and 40 sold in the last few months. JOHN CARLISLE.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

R. T. of T.

Peterborough Council No. 97, Royal Templars of Temperance, meet this evening in the W.C.T.U. Hall, entrance south of A. Clegg's. Gospel temperance meeting on Sunday from 4 to 5 o'clock p.m.

County Cases.

Police Magistrate Dumble officiated at the Court House on Monday, instead of P. M. Edmison, who was called away to Montreal. John Frost, of Keene, was fined $100 and costs and the charge against Mrs. O'Brien, of Indian River, was again enlarged.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple Syrup from R. Kidd at the Pantry. ds9

Early Closing in Port Hope.

The petition of the Port Hope merchants to the Town Council to have the stores closed at seven o'clock, is signed, we learn from the Times, by all the dry goods men but one; all the milliners but one; all the hardware men; all the merchant tailors but one; three book-sellers and fancy goods stores; three harness makers; all the watchmakers, tinsmiths and boot and shoe stores; and by thirteen of the largest grocers. The grocers will be out of the by-law. The large stores are almost unanimously in favor of closing, but the smaller ones out of the centre of the town and in the outskirts, do not want it. The druggists will present a petition asking for a by-law closing them at eight o'clock.

O. C. C. Doings.

The regular weekly meeting of the Otonabee Canoe Club was held at the rooms of Mr. John Miller on Monday evening. After the transaction of some general business, Mr. A. E. Dixon was called to the chair and the debaters tackled the question, "Resolved, that a Party Press is detrimental to the best interests of the the Country." Messrs. J. F. Carmichael, G. J. Smith, James Little, A. E. Scott, T. Barrie and John Miller supported the affirmative, and Messrs. L. W. Allingham, W. H. Hill, A. H. Clegg, H. W. Stock, J. Willis and C. H. Allison took the negative. The speeches were all good, straight to the point and some of them would do credit to speakers of pretension. The chairman gave his decision in favor of the affirmative by one point. Mr. J. Miller, B. A., as critic pointed out the errors, etc., that had been made. The subject chosen for next week's debate was "Resolved, that the Separate School system is detrimental to the best interests of Canada." For the affirmative Messrs. T. Workman and Jno. Miller will lead and Messrs. H. W. Stock and W. H. Hill will argue the other side of the question. Mr. C. H. Allison will preside and the critic will be Mr. L. W. Allingham.

A Poetical Order.

The following order was received with a number of volumes of the Century Magazine sent from Lindsay to the REVIEW bindery. It shows the culture and refinement of the business men of our neighboring town when they clothe their business communications in poetical language. One bound copy of the Century accompanied the other numbers, which explains the reference in the second stanza. The order is as follows:—

This dozen little Centuries
Cannot support themselves,
But double up quite limp and weak
When stood upon the shelves.
The winter has been hard on them,
Their overcoats are thin,
So open wide your bindery
And take the vagrants in.

I send them down in charge of one
Who once was poor as they,
But now you see he's sleek and fat,
Hard times have passed away;
Like every good philanthropist,
To save his kind he's glad.
And goes along to indicate
How I would have them clad.

'MIAH.

HE who drinks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. ds9

Back Again.

Mr. Joseph Joyle, late of Boston and Montreal, well known here in lacrosse circles, is once more a resident of Peterborough.

Methodistic.

The committee of clergymen for this conference for the examination of probationers for the Methodist ministry, will meet in Port Hope this week.

A Leak.

A telephone message was sent to the police station on Monday night, stating that one of the waterworks mains had sprung a leak. Officer McGinty informed the man in charge and immediate steps were taken to repair the damage.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers can always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. ds9

The Boat Club.

Mrs. Scott-Siddons proved too much of a counter attraction on Monday night and sufficient members to form a quorum failed to turn up at the annual meeting of the Boating Club, so that no business was transacted. A special meeting will be called for an early date.

The Number Present.

There was considerable speculation on Monday evening as to how many persons there were in the Opera House and how many it would hold. The counting of the tickets settled the first question and indicates an answer to the other. There were 712 persons in the hall. Owing to the way the energetic committee of the Hiawatha Encampment (in connection with Otonabee Lodge of Oddfellows) made Mrs. Scott-Siddons' coming widely known there were about 150 present from neighboring places. The seating arrangements were well attended to and there was scarcely a complaint regarding the reserved seats.

For Illegal Arrest.

About two o'clock this morning officers McGinty and Stewart, while on patrol duty, met a man on the street. He was a stranger to them and refused to give any information regarding his business out at such an hour. He gave his name as Thomas McMullen. The officers were not satisfied and placed him in the Police Station. He remained in a cell until officer Adams came down and liberated him. He is a respectable retired farmer and was greatly annoyed over his arrest. He thinks that the police acted in a high handed and illegal manner, and he has instructed Solicitor Sawers to enter actions against McGinty and Stewart, claiming $1,000 damages from each of them for illegal arrest. We understand that the necessary papers are being prepared and will be served in a day or two.

Dramatic Recitals.

Every part of Bradburn's Opera House was crowded—front and rear seats and gallery—on Monday night to hear Mrs. Scott-Siddons, the celebrated reciter, who came under the auspices of Hiawatha Encampment of Oddfellows. It is thought that Mrs. Scott-Siddons will not again make a tour through Canada, and those with whom she is a favorite as well as many who had never heard her, crowded to the Opera House to hear her this time. The programme consisted of six numbers, and one added by request, and each one was well given. Mrs. Scott-Siddons opened the entertainment with a scene from Shakespeare's "As You Like It," and it was beautifully read; especially Rosalind's lines, in which her acting, as well as elocution, was admirable. "The Painter of Seville," a pathetic reading, was given with power and feeling. The embarrassment of the poor Senator and the coquetry of the Countess, in "A Senator Entengled," were excellently portrayed, the Yankee dialect of the one and the broken English of the other being perfectly given. "The Captive," a tragic recitation, which closed the first part of the programme, was the best number, the agony and the suffering of the imprisoned mother being given with power. "The Story of a Poor Traveller," by Dickens, was well read, but was rather long for such a purpose and caused Mrs. Siddons to read too fast at times. The old but popular "Curfew Shall not Ring To-Night" was given by request, and the manner in which it was recited justified the request being made. "An Auction Extraordinary," a short humorous piece, given with spirit, closed the programme. Mrs. Scott-Siddons was warmly applauded after each number and at the close the applause was loud and long, to which she responded by coming forward and making a neat speech. She explained the misunderstanding regarding the appearance of Mr. Waller, which arose through a telegram being wrongly delivered. The entertainment was a thoroughly good one and pleased the large audience.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—The street scrapings have all been drawn away and used as fillers.

—The Sawtelle Company opened at Lindsay on Monday night to good business.

—The town pump was placed in position on Monday night and now it is a fixture.

—The want of proper ventilation was badly felt at the Council on Monday night.

—A G. T. R. train ran up north of Smith-st. this morning, something very unusual lately.

—Mr. Geo. Matthews shipped another carload of hams, to Toronto, per the G.P. R. to-day.

—Openings are being made to take up sections of the water mains on Water-st., north of Murray.

—The attendance at the Council meeting on Monday night was the largest ever seen in Peterborough.

—The are three Scott Act cases from town, all second offences, for trial at the police court to-morrow.

—Large numbers of men are being hired for the different drives. Wages rule high this season, for good men.

—Inspector Darling of East Peterborough, was an interested spectator at the Police Court this morning.

—An applicant for the the office of chief constable, from Port Arthur, was the only one that sent a photograph.

—Councillor Douglas was the only member of the Council who was absent. He was detained at home by illness.

—Three vagrant cows were noticed browsing around the streets at the lower end of the town at the noon hour to-day.

—The police were summoned last night to disperse a crowd of roughs, who were endeavoring to raise a row on George-st.

—The barbers are in the van as regards early closing. The necessary by-law will be passed at the next meeting of the Council.

—An application for the position of caretaker of the town pump occasioned loud laughter, when it was read at the Council meeting.

—A Scott Act case was fought out at the Police Court this morning. This is the first occasion in over a year that such a thing has occurred.

—Medical Health Officer Clarke certifies that the water from the town pump is good and pure, but has a slight smell which disappears upon boiling.

—An amateur baseball league to be composed of clubs in Belleville, Kingston, Cobourg, Port Hope, Lindsay, Trenton and Peterborough, is being advocated.

—The Council will meet as a committee of the whole at an early date to devise ways and means to remedy the smell from the fire station and the police cells.

—One of the converts of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, at Belleville, acknowledged stealing $700 from his employers and on Saturday night he handed back $100 of the amount.

—Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, the evangelists, are meeting with great success at Belleville. On Sunday 304 new members joined one Methodist Church and 57 another.

—Hinde, of Trenton, Young, of Brockville, Rozell, of St. Catharines and Crawford and Murphy, of London, are regarded as the best outsiders who have applied for the position of chief constable.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SUMMER COMFORT

Doesn't always depend on the circumstances of location. It far oftener depends on the exercise of good judgment in the selection of

Summer Clothing.

People are to a large extent, dependent on well selected Clothing for comfort during the hot months. All mankind in the country are interested in our stock of Seasonable Clothes and Garments, a stock that embraces every New and Popular Light Weight fabric, made up in the Best and Most Stylish manner. Our prices are just as right as our Goods and both satisfactory.

T. Dolan & Co

St. John's Vestry.

An adjourned meeting of the members of St. John's Church Vestry was held on Monday evening at the school room. The Rev. Mr. Beck presided and the attendance was small. The auditor's report for the last year was presented and adopted, when the meeting adjourned.

The Auditors.

Councillor Davidson, in reply to a question at Monday night's meeting, said that the auditors' report would be ready for presentation by the next meeting of the Council.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpaired are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hands and brain.

JOHN H. PECK.

Artesian Well Contractor. Deep drilled wells, shallow or drive wells, and freezing pumps supplied. Write for information. Address Peterborough. w13-d73

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

Need Fixing.

Some of the sidewalks are in a very bad condition now that the snow has gone and the Street and Bridge Committee should take their annual jaunt at an early date. The walk on Hunter-st. in front of St. John's Church is about as bad as any in town.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

D. BELLEGHEM,

Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1mw16 10 Spruce-st., New York

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods.

Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

REMOVAL SALE

We find our present store too small for our growing trade and have rented the store lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Alexander, which when fitted up will be one of the most attractive places of business on George-st. On THURSDAY, the 19th of APRIL, we commence a

60 DAYS GREAT CLEARING SALE.

It will be to our advantage to clear out our present stock even at cost. Remember our Goods are new and stylish. That we do not deal in goods out of date and expensive at any price.

During our Great Sale we will convince the public that we mean what we say when we promise bargains in every department.

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

H. S. GRIFFIN & Co.,

CRYSTAL BLOCK.

5d90 1w16

Want of Sleep

Is sending thousands annually to the insane asylum; and the doctors say this trouble is alarmingly on the increase. The usual remedies, while they may give temporary relief, are likely to do more harm than good. What is needed is an Alterative and Blood-purifier. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is incomparably the best. It corrects those disturbances in the circulation which cause sleeplessness, gives increased vitality, and restores the nervous system to a healthful condition.

Rev. T. G. A. Coté, agent of the Mass. Home Missionary Society, writes that his stomach was out of order, his sleep very often disturbed, and some impurity of the blood manifest; but that a perfect cure was obtained by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frederick W. Pratt, 424 Washington street, Boston, writes: "My daughter was prostrated with nervous debility. Ayer's Sarsaparilla restored her to health."

William F. Bowker, Erie, Pa., was cured of nervousness and sleeplessness by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for about two months, during which time his weight increased over twenty pounds.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888.

LACROSSE OVER THE SEA.

NEWS FROM THE TORONTOS OF THEIR GAMES IN ENGLAND.

The Toronto Ball Team again Beaten by Pittsburg—Baseball Games Yesterday—A Fight Between Kilrain and Ashton.

HARROGATE, April 2.—We reached here last night from Manchester and passed yesterday, the first quiet day since our landing. At the station we were met by Mr. Ben. Schofield of Bradford. Mr. Schofield, whom all the members of the 1883 team will remember, and who says that he has forgotten none of them, is captain of the York County combined team, and a vice-president of the North of England Lacrosse Association. On his shoulders rests the greater part of the somewhat heavy burden of carrying the games in Yorkshire, and being a whole reception committee in himself. To-morrow, under his charge, we will drive to the Regimental Steeplechases at Wetherby, about 7 miles from here. On Tuesday we play at Bradford against Cheshire and Yorkshire, and on Thursday in Harrogate against Yorkshire and Nottingham. We return to Manchester on Friday. To return in my letter for a moment to Manchester. When we got back from our jaunt in Derbyshire on Good Friday evening, we assembled in our big parlors at the hotel, and in presence of a couple of dozen Manchester and Owens College men, presented Mr. E. C. Swallow with an album containing the portraits of the members of our team, a small sign of our appreciation of the many kind acts done us by Mr. Swallow and the gentlemen whom he represents.

Saturday morning was our first opportunity to see a little of Manchester on our own account, and most of the boys spent their time and money in buying clothes. And now Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. In the afternoon at Withington we played our second game, this time against South Manchester. Garvin, jr., replaced McHenry. The game resulted in a decisive victory for the Torontos by seven goals to none. Our boys played as usual, carefully at first at all points, but when assured of their supremacy, with more attention to the prettier features of the game. The home men, to show their dodging and passing powers, missed a round score of chances. But from what we have seen in the two games played we have concluded that the Englishmen are made of proper lacrosse stuff, and that when the game has been in this country long enough to admit of the rise of a generation of players trained in their use they will fight for the world's championship on equal terms with Canadians.

To describe the manner in which we have been received is next to impossible. Lacrosse men here think a deal more of the game for itself even than we do at home. During our visit they have indicated their love for the game by living with us, almost standing at our elbows to prevent our payment of a single half-penny (for extras), anticipating our every desire and showing us as much of their towns and country sides as possible in the time at their disposal.

The Stars' First Game.

NEWARK, N.J., April 16.—The Syracuse club played their first game of the season in this city to-day with the home team. The game was well played and the attendance good.

Score:

Newark	0 0 1 0 0 1 2 0 1—5
Syracuse	0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 2—4

Torontos Suffer Another Defeat.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 16.—The home team had rather a picnic with the Torontos to-day, knocking Casey all over the field. Galvin was batted freely, but his support was excellent, while that of Casey was decidedly wretched. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Alleghany	5	10	3
Toronto	0	6	3

Batteries: Galvin and Miller; Casey and Oldfield. Umpire: Valentine.

Other Games.

At Kansas City	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	6	9	4
Detroit	13	2	6
At New York:
New York	11	21
Columbia College	1	6

Batteries: Weldman and O'Rourke; Morgan, and Wilde. Umpire: Pierce.

At Brooklyn:	R.
May's Nine	0	2	1
Fonts's Nine	2	2	1

Batteries: Mays and Clark; Fonts and Bushong. Umpire: Ferguson.

At Washington:
Washington	30	32
Princeton	2	6

Batteries: Bailey and Murray; Mercer and Ames. Umpire: O'Day.

At Baltimore:	R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	6	9	1
Boston	1	9	1

Batteries: Cunningham and O'Brien; Madden and O'Rourke.

Kilrain Will Fight Ashton.

NEW YORK, April 16.—George W. Atkinson, of The London Sporting Life, sends the following telegram here to Kilrain's backer: London, April 16.—Jake Kilrain will fight Jack Ashton ten weeks from signing articles according to London prize ring rules for £1000 a side, the diamond belt and the championship of the world, the battle to be fought in England or France. Kilrain will allow Ashton £200 for expenses. Cable if accepted.

A Buffalo Pug Knocked Out.

NEW YORK, April 16.—A prize fight took place last night on board a vessel lying in Gowan's Bay, between Paddy Smith of Brooklyn and Frank Burke of Buffalo, in which the latter was knocked out in the seventh round. Both men were badly punished.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

A STORY OF THESE TIMES.

At this, Mona being a creature of impulse, grows once more pale and sad.

"It was for you," she says, hanging her head. "I thought if I could do something to make you happier, you might learn to love me a little."

"I have wronged you," says Lady Rodney, in a low tone, covering her face with her hands.

"Go to her," says Geoffrey, and Mona, slipping from his embrace, falls on her knees at his mother's feet. With one little frightened hand she tries to possess herself of the fingers that shield the elder woman's face.

"It is too late," says Lady Rodney, in a stifled tone. "I have said so many things about you, that—that——"

"I don't care what you have said," interrupts Mona, quickly. She has her arms round Lady Rodney's waist by this time, and is regarding her beseechingly.

"There is too much to forgive," says Lady Rodney, and as she speaks two tears roll down her cheeks. This evidence of emotion from her is worth a torrent from another.

"Let there be no talk of forgiveness between you and me," says Mona, very sweetly, after which Lady Rodney fairly gives way, and, placing her arms round the kneeling girl, draws her to her bosom and kisses her tenderly.

Every one is delighted. Perhaps Nolly and Jack Rodney are conscious of a wild desire to laugh, but, if so, they manfully suppress it, and behave as decorously as the rest.

"Now I am quite, quite happy," says Mona, and, rising from her knees, she goes back again to Geoffrey, and stands beside him. "Tell them all about last night," she says, looking up at him, "and the secret cupboard."

CHAPTER XXXII.

At the mention of the word "secret" every one grows very much alive at once. Even Lady Rodney dries her tears and looks up expectantly.

"Yes, Geoffrey and I have made a discovery,—a most important one,—and it has lain heavy on our breasts all day. Now tell them everything about last night, Geoff, from beginning to end."

Thus adjured,—though in truth he requires little pressing, having been devoured with a desire since early dawn to reveal the hidden knowledge that is in his bosom,—Geoffrey relates to them the adventure of the night before. Indeed, he gives such a brilliant coloring to the tale that every one is stricken dumb with astonishment, Mona herself perhaps being the most astonished of all. However, like a good wife, she makes no comments, and contradicts his statements not at all, so that (emboldened by her evident determination not to interfere with anything he may choose to say) he gives them such a story as actually brings down the house—metaphorically speaking.

"A secret panel! Oh, how enchanting! do, do show it to me!" cries Dootie Darling, when this marvelous recital has come to an end. "If there is one thing I adore, it's a secret chamber, or a closet in a house, or a ghost."

"You may have the ghosts all to yourself. I shan't grudge them to you. I'll have the cupboards," says Nicholas, who has grown at least ten years younger during the last hour. "Mona, show us this one."

Mona, drawing a chair to the paneled wall, steps up on it, and, pressing her finger on the seventh panel, it slowly rolls back betraying the vacuum behind. They all examine it with interest, Nolly being specially voluble on the occasion.

"And to think we all sat pretty nearly every evening within a yard or two of that blessed will, and never knew anything about it!" he says at last, in a tone of unmitigated disgust.

"Yes, that is just what occurred to me," says Mona, nodding her head sympathetically.

"No! did it?" says Nolly, sentimentally. "How awfully satisfactory it is to know that we both thought alike on even one subject!"

Mona, after a start of bewilderment that dies at its birth, gives way to laughter; she is still standing on the chair, and looking down on Nolly, who is adoring her in the calm and perfectly open manner that belongs to him.

Just then Dootie says,—

"Shut it up tight again, Mona, and let me try to open it." And, Mona having closed the panel again and jumped down off the chair, Dootie takes her place, and supported by Nicholas, opens and shuts the secret door again and again to her heart's content.

"It is quite simple; there is no deception," says Mr. Darling, addressing the room, with gracious encouragement in his tone, shrugging his shoulders and going through all the airs of the orthodox French showman.

"It is quite necessary you should know all about it," says Nicholas, in a low tone, to Dorothy, whom he is holding carefully, as though under the mistaken impression that young women if left on chairs without support invariably fall off them. "As the future mistress here, you ought to be up to every point connected with the old place."

Miss Darling blushes. It is so long since she has given way to this weakness that now she does it warmly and generously, as though to make up for other opportunities neglected. She scrambles down off the chair, and, going up to Mona, surprises that heroine of the hour by bestowing upon her a warm though dainty hug.

"It is all your doing. How wretched we should have been had we never seen you!" she says, with tears of gratitude in her eyes.

Altogether it is a very exciting and pleasurable moment.

The panel is as good as a toy to them. They all open it by turns, and wonder over it, and rejoice in it. But Geoffrey, taking Mona aside, says, curiously, and a little gravely,—

"Tell me why you hesitated in your speech a little while ago. Talking of Rodney's giving you the will, you said he offered to give it to you if—if—— What did the 'if' mean?"

"Come over to the window, and I will tell you," says Mrs. Geoffrey. "He—he—you must take no notice of it, Geoffrey, but he wanted to kiss me. He offered me the will for one kiss, and ——"

"You didn't get possession of it in that way?" asks he, seizing her hands and trying to read her face.

"Oh, no! But listen to my story. When he saw how I hated this proposal he very generously forgave the price, and let me have the document a free gift. That was rather good of him, was it not? because men like having their own way, you know."

"Very self-denying of him, indeed," says Geoffrey, with a slight sneer, and a sigh of relief.

"Had I given in, would you have been very angry?" asks she, regarding him earnestly.

"Very."

To be Continued.

5,000 YARDS

OF

SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS

AT

SIX CENTS A YARD.

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

In brief and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 16.

Saturday's exports from New York were: Flour, 1849 bbls and 28,000 sacks; wheat, 48,138 bush; corn, 400 bush; cornmeal, 45 bbls.

Receipts at Chicago in car lots Saturday were: Winter wheat, 3; spring, 27; corn, 1177; oats, 114; rye, 2; barley, 18.

Receipts at New York on Saturday were: Flour, 12,919 bbls and 12,404 sacks; wheat, 5500 bush; corn, 46,076; oats, 44,000; malt, 27,000; cornmeal, 2073 sacks and 610 bbls; pork, 1153; whisky, 325.

Estimated receipts at the Chicago Stock Yards to-day are: Hogs, 16,000; official on Saturday, 8237; shipments, 7048; left over, about 2000. Cattle receipts, 10,000; market rather quiet.

No. 2 spring wheat, May option, was quoted at these points to-day as follows:

	10.30	Close.
Chicago	80½	81¼
New York	93	93⅞
St. Louis	84	84½
Toledo	87	87½
Milwaukee	78½	79
Detroit	87½	87½
Duluth	79½	80½

TORONTO STOCKS IN STORE.

The stocks of grain in store in Toronto at present is as following, with comparisons.

	This week.	Last week.	April 18, 1887.
Flour, barrels	2,500	2,500	3,501
Fall wheat, bushels	61,258	68,120	82,823
Spring wheat, bushels	93,704	89,152	90,323
Oats, bushels	22,150	22,190	22,003
Barley, bushels	179,083	174,573	183,704
Peas, bushels	580	580	22,411
Rye, bushels	498	498	4,249
Corn	—	198	75

THE VISIBLE SUPPLY.

The visible supply of grain in Canada, and the United States, as estimated by the Secretary of the New York Corn Exchange, is as follows, with comparisons:

	This Week.	Last Week.	April 18, 1887.
Wheat	32,978,657	34,384,416	20,613,183
Corn	8,225,346	9,165,142	20,032,093
Oats	3,437,989	4,149,063	4,278,775
Rye	1,346,873	1,777,560	338,898
Barley	332,883	332,883	732,004

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes—Wheat firm; corn strong. Cargoes on passage—Wheat firm, corn strong. Mark Lane—Wheat turn dearer, corn very strong at extreme prices; flour turn dearer; good club Calcutta wheat 30s 3d, was 30s; new 29s; American corn 25s 3d, was 24s 3d. French country markets generally dearer. Paris—Wheat and flour steady. English farmers' deliveries for last week, 41,551 qrs.; average price 30s 3d, was 30s. Liverpool—Spot wheat and corn upward tendency.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat firm, with demand fair and holders offering sparingly; corn firm, demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 6d to 6s 7d, red winter 6s 8d to 6s 9d, No. 1 Cal. 6s 8d to 6s 10d, corn 5s 3d, peas 5s 5d, pork 67s 6d, lard 39s 9d, cheese 60s.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley lower to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 85, No. 1 Canadian 87, and No. 1 bright Canadian 88. Receipts 20,000.

The Oil Market.

Oil opened in New York at 82½, touched 86 and 82½, and closed at 85¼.

OUR SUGAR CURED

BREAKFAST BACON

CUT FROM

CAREFULLY SELECTED HOGS

—IS—

MILD AND SWEET.

GEO. MATTHEWS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Geo. A. Cox vs. C. B. Routley

HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.

Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold just astonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGGONS, Etc., 30 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

ADAERTISE IN THE REVIEW

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo' of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough lydaw

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. dl9

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. dllw4

RESIDENCE, - - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 475, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St, north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. dl09

T. B. MCGRATH,

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR. House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

Garden Tools, Silver Dollar Spades Spading Forks, Manure Forks, Steel Rakes, Hoes, Wheelbarrows, Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. dmd109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 667; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer treets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 383. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O address, Box 23. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large sto of thoroughly seasoned materials always k on hand. P.O. Box 661; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P.O. ds-lyr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. ds-lyr

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building Goorge street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. ds2w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. dl18w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. dl03w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer, Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. dllw18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d2w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D.C.M., L.R.C.P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. dllw19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. dl2w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, viz:	11 00 a m
6 00 p m	G. T. R.	10 00 p m
10 55 p m	Toronto and West, viz:	6 15 p m
7 00 p m	G. T. R.	10 30 p m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	8 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of	8 00 a m
8 50 p m	the Midland Railway (west)	4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	11 00 a m
15 15 p m	do	8 00 p m
	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings
10 30 a m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Half Bridge and	1 15 p m
4 00 p m	Lakehurst	12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville	11 00 a m
	Bobcaygeon, including
2 30 p m	Bridgenorth & Emsemore	1 30 p m
	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Pandash and Cheddar, on
6 00 p m previous night	Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and
11 00 a m	Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
	Greystock and Rawartha,
11 00 a m	Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday	10 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland) The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 9 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund accepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Perula, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents, New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 91. PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

WHITNEY BABY CARRIAGES.

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH.

WORKING JEWELLER.

Z. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold inlaid and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter at rest, watch Oriental.

THE

ATLAS

Assurance Co'y.,

OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

—o—

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

—o—

Insurance written in all parts of Canada. Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

—o—

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

Extra Quality Leather

Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces,

Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals

Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies.

Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

—o—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent. ROANOKE, VA.,

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE & LOT, situate on Stewart-st. west, Ashburnham. Apply R. MOWBRY, Ashburnham. 6d86

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough. Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

WANTED-

EXPERIENCED HOUSEKEEPER. Middle aged. Good plain cook. Good references required. Apply, care Box A. Peterborough P. O. 6d86

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders; MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash. d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 250,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,

2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, the handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts. with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,

Barrister, Water-st., or to

C. STAPLETON,

Auctioneer. 8d82-1w1

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER, 1yd88 JAS. R. DONELL

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888.

FRESH CAPITAL MELANGE.

LIVE TOPICS PICKED UP AMONG BUSY PARLIAMENTARIANS.

The Fisheries Treaty Bill Discussed in Committee of the Whole, Referred to the House Without Amendment and Read a Third Time.

OTTAWA, April 17.—The sitting of the House to-day was not a very interesting one. The Treaty Bill was disposed of as far as the House of Commons is concerned. The bill was somewhat warmly discussed for about five hours in committee of the whole with Mr. Royal in the chair. The bill was then referred back to the House without amendment and read a third time.

Sir Charles Tupper laid on the table a very bulky correspondence with the Imperial Government with reference to disallowance of Acts passed by the Manitoba Legislature.

The House next went into committee to consider the resolution increasing the salary of the Auditor-General from $3200 to $4000 per annum, which was adopted. A further clause, making the provision of the Superannuation Act applicable to this officer, evoked some discussion, as this would, to a certain extent, place him under the control of the Government instead of Parliament. The resolution was adopted, with the understanding that in the bill to follow the proper safeguards should be introduced.

The House adjourned at 11.45.

THE RAILWAY COMMITTEE.

The Canadian Pacific Scores One in its Fight with the Grand Trunk.

Room 49, where the Railway Committee meets, was more than crowded when Sir Hector Langevin called that body to order this morning. The Canadian Pacific lobbying element was out in force, and in the room was Vice-President W. C. Van Horne, ex-Judge Clarke, J. J. Ross ex-General Manager of the Credit Valley Railway, Secretary Chas. Drinkwater, and "Bob" Meigher of Perth Sir George Stephen's brother-in-law. The Grand Trunk was represented by Mr. W. W. Wainwright, who is said to be as good as half-a-dozen ordinary lobbyists. Mr. S. Barker, Superintendent of the new Northern and Northwestern division of the Grand Trunk, was also present to assist Mr. Wainwright. The Grand Trunk people were on hand to oppose the granting of a charter to the Canadian Pacific Railway to build 52 miles of road, running from Caughnawaga to Dundee on the Province line. The Grand Trunk has a charter to build a railway through the same country. At Dundee the Canadian Pacific Railway proposes to connect with the railway system of Northern New York. They applied for a charter last year, and the committee refused it. The Grand Trunk claim that as they will serve the country from those two points named, there is no need of granting a charter to the Canadian Pacific Railway. Mr. Hall, M.P., the promotor of the bill, and Mr. Van Horne addressed the committee in favor of the Canadian Pacific, and Mr. Wainwright vigorously opposed it. A vote was then taken on the preamble of the bill, and it was carried by 65 to 50. The committee then ordered that the bill be reported. The road, which is known as the Southwestern, must be started within two years and completed within five. It is understood there will be a big fight in the House when the bill comes up.

The bill to incorporate the Detroit River winter railway bridge, of which Dr. Ferguson of Welland is the promoter, was ordered to be reported after being slightly amended. Sir Hector Langevin said the charter would be issued by proclamation of the Governor-in-Council just as soon as the United States Congress granted a similar charter and the Government was satisfied that there would be no impediment to navigation in the Detroit River. Dr. Ferguson, in advocating the bill, assured the committee that the most positive provisions would be made to make navigation free and safe. The character and object of the bridge have already been published in The World. The capital stock was increased from $250,000 to $1,000,000 divided into 10,000 shares. The provisional directors are: Wm. Hendrie of Hamilton, W. B. McMurrich of Toronto, W. K. Muir, Arthur Rankin, H. C. Symmes, William Thompson and George Hendrie of Detroit.

Mr. Small has had the bill empowering the Canadian Pacific Railway to enter the City of Toronto via the Don River and the Esplanade made the first order for Friday in the Railway Committee. Mayor Clarke and the Board of Trade can accordingly take notice.

Grape Vines.

A settlement has just been effected of the long-standing dispute between the Canadian Government and the Niagara White Grape Company of Lockport, New York, which arose through the seizure of a large number of grape vines the company had distributed throughout Ontario. From 1882 to 1886 the Company sold to farmers and others in this province vines to the value of $70,000. They were planted and were to be paid for in ten annual installments. Two years ago the Canadian Government notified the company that they had been fraudulently passing their grape vines at an undervaluation. The vines sold at $1.50, and were entered for duty at the rate of 15 cents each. The Government on making the discovery immediately seized all the vines the company had distributed throughout Ontario and notified the purchasers that their must pay no more instalments until the claim for customs duties had been settled. The Customs Department claimed $12,000 and refused to release the vines until that amount was paid. The Government now accept $1,500 in full settlement of their claim and other expenses incurred. The memorandum of agreement states that this is done in consideration of the proclamation whereby grape vines have been placed on the free list.

The Mackenzie Basin.

At Senator Schultz Mackenzie River Committee to-day the official map prepared for the use of the committee was examined which gives the approximate area of the scope of enquiry as 1,250,000 square miles. It has a sea coast line of 5000 miles without taking in any of the islands of the Arctic and without following any of the indentations. Governor Dewdney of the Northwest Territories gave information regarding the mineral and agricultural resources of the Parsnip and Findlay rivers, which two streams unite on the Rocky Mountains to form the Peace River.

Immigration Returns.

The number of persons who settled in the Dominion during March according to a return prepared by the Department of Agriculture was 5395 against 5139 in March, 1887. The number that settled in the Dominion since Jan. 1 last to date, was 11,872 against 11,044 for the same period of 1887.

Strangers in the Gallery.

The Senate distinguished itself again this afternoon by calling "strangers in the gallery," which meant that the reporters had to withdraw. Old man Alexander, it was expected, was going to make more trouble and the leader of the House did not want the press to hear it.

Arrivals at the Capital.

Among the arrivals at the Capital to-day were ex-Mayor W. H. Howland on insurance business, Dr. P. H. Bryce and Dr. Covernton of the Ontario Board of Health on sanitary matters, Secretary E. H. Wills of the Board of Trade and Mr. T. G. Blackstock.

The Toronto Board of Trade bill will come before the Senate Committee on Banking and Commerce to-morrow. Senator John Macdonald, T. G. Blackstock and Secretary Wills are looking after it.

The Federal Bank bill also comes up to-morrow.

Judges' Salaries.

It is said there is to be trouble over the proposition of the Minister of Justice to increase the salaries of our judges $1000 on an average all round. The resolution declaring it expedient to make these advances in the judicial salaries will be moved to-morrow by Mr. Thompson in Committee of the Whole. Several of the members from Quebec, notably Mr. Dupont of Bagot, are decidedly averse to the increase and will oppose it. The County Court judges in Ontario have been entirely overlooked in these advances, although the judges in Quebec, who do about the same class of work but are called Superior Court judges, are to receive $4500, while the Ontario County Court judges in many counties receive less than half this amount. Sir Richard Cartwright is going to ask the Government about the matter to-morrow.

The Hart Divorce Case.

At 10.30 this morning the red-carpeted corridors of the Senate wing were made to appear "strange" by the presence of four of Montreal's most notorious members of the fallen sisterhood. By and by they filed into room 6, where the Divorce Committee holds its sessions. These women have been in the Capital since Friday, and they were brought here by a private detective named Thomas Bayils at the instance of Eleanor Elizabeth Tudor, who is seeking a divorce from her husband, Fred Hart. The parties were married in Boston, Oct. 4, 1871, and have since lived in Montreal, where Hart was well known as a man about town.

The wife in her petition alleges cruelty, desertion and adultery. All of the four women, Agnes Ashton, Mary Reynolds, Pearl Brown and Georgie Wilson, told the committee under oath that Hart had been on familiar terms with them. Frank Brady, a Montreal man, said he had seen Hart at different times in places of questionable resort. The plaintiff was also examined, and said her husband neglected her contiaually. After hearing considerable evidence the committee rose till Thursday.

All of the Montreal female witnesses are kept at a road house on the outskirts of the town under the careful gaze of the detective. They have not been permitted to leave the house except to attend the meeting of the committee.

Mr. Hart, to several parties at his hotel, alleges that his wife is a monomaniac, and that she has drawn a great deal on her imagination. When the parties were married they had considerable wealth between them. The bridegroom was a minor at the time, and was six months younger than the bride. Mrs. Hart, however, looks as if she had gone through a great deal of anxiety, and now looks ten years older than her recreant husband.

Capital Chat.

Sir Donald A. Smith was asked to-night if the statement printed in The Montreal Gazette and The Toronto Empire—nearly all Ottawa announcements appear simultaneously word for word in these journals—that he had given $250,000 to endow a woman's college at Montreal in connection with McGill University was true. "The statement was in no way authorized by me, nor have I mentioned to any one that I intend giving the amount specified for the endowment of a college," said Sir Donald.

Suicide at Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 17.—A sensation was caused this morning by the news that a man had been found dead in his bed in the Commercial House, and the excitement was increased when it became known that Eber C. Flint had committed suicide. About 9 o'clock Lem. G. Edwards, son of the proprietor of the hotel, went up to the room occupied by Mr. Flint to tell him that a party had called to see him, but when he opened the door he saw on the bed the vacant staring eyes, pallid countenance and and ghastly, open mouth of a corpse. The alarm was at once given and Dr. Youker was speedily in attendance, only to find that the spirit had left the body some time before.

Everything in the room was in perfect order. The trunk of the dead man was locked and fastened by a strap, a valise was likewise packed and locked, and the wearing apparel which had been worn yesterday was hanging on hooks on the wall. On a stand at the head of the bed stood a pitcher of water, an empty tumbler with a spoon, both having traces of white sediment, a pencil, a letter addressed to Mr. Thomas McGinnis, and an envelope bearing these words in pencil addressed evidently to Mr. Clark Edwards: "Clark—don't never forget your old friend. Tell John Kerr not to forget me. Be good to yourself, Clark." On a card in the envelope was written: "Clark, take good care of yourself." Word was taken to the police station, and Chief Newton took charge of the room. On the arrival of Mr. McGinnis, who was deeply affected on hearing of the death of Mr. Flint, who was one of his oldest and most intimate friends, he opened the letter addressed to him, in which the deceased stated that he was yesterday 60 years old, and that owing to his suffering and troubles he thought he had lived long enough.

Another Colonist.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Bank Teller Hazzard of the Fort Pitt National Bank has left for Canada with $20,000 of the funds.

CANADIAN BUTTER TRADE.

CANADIAN BUTTER DRIVEN OFF THE BRITISH MARKET.

The Reasons Why—Co-operative Butter-Making Urgently Needed—The Evils of the Old System—Creamery Butter-Making More Profitable in Every Way.

TORONTO, April 18.—The butter trade, as it is carried on in Canada, is in about as bad a condition as it can be. The present system of butter manufacture not only wastes a great deal of time and dissipates a great deal of labor, but it produces a great deal of financial loss to the farmer that might be prevented.

The system by which every farmer makes his own butter on his own farm, to sell to the trade, is about as ridiculous as would be a movement to suppress the cheese factories and revert to the old practice of the individual cheese-press. It is contrary to the co-operative spirit of the age. All branches of trade are now proving the truth of the saying that there is strength in union. The cheese-makers of Canada have demonstrated the benefit which comes to themselves and the country by distributing labor in the manufacture of cheese. The result is: More cheese, better cheese and better prices.

Butter makers have not yet awoke to the importance of this. The business is pursued in a heterogeneous manner, and the product resembles the system. Did you ever see the way they pack butter in country stores? The people from the neighborhood bring in the butter in small lots. It has been made under different methods, different temperatures and from different stock. It is laid aside until there is enough to pack, and then the firkins are filled. When it is placed on the market it is like Joseph's coat; it has many colors—also many flavors. The housekeeper is always in great dread of the Joseph's coat article. Where the farmer packs his own butter the variation in color is almost as marked, as he does not manufacture enough at a time and under a uniform method. What has been the result of doing business under this system?

Here are some figures which should open the eyes of those interested in the butter trade in Canada, and cause them to think about doing something to prevent the export trade from being utterly extinguished:

CANADA'S EXPORTS OF BUTTER.

1880	18,535,362 pounds.
1881	17,649,920 "
1882	15,161,939 "
1883	8,106,447 "
1884	6,075,537 "
1885	7,330,788 "
1886	4,618,741 "
1887	5,485,569 "

The steady decline of the exports is seen. It appears that there was a little rally in 1887, but at the present time there is really no demand for Canadian butter in the English market.

Here are the kind of messages that come from the English commission merchants to cheer the heart of Canadian shippers:

LIVERPOOL, March 17, 1888.

Mr. _____
Canadian butter; dull and nominal.
I am, yours respectfully,
MR. BLANK.

LIVERPOOL, March 27, 1888.

Mr. _____
Canadian butter: quotations nominal.
I am, yours respectfully,
MR. BLANK.

What has brought about this rapid decline? First of all, the poor quality of the article exported. It is a fact well known to all dealers that the demand for the lower grades of butter is never brisk, while the better the butter, the readier the sale. Now, more than at any time, is it hard to dispose of the lower grades, as the artificial stuff, such as oleomargarine, compete with it. Another reason why the Canadian butter has been driven out of the British markets is because a better article has made its appearance. Denmark, Sweden, and of late France and the United States have been sending superior dairy goods to that market.

Another reason, perhaps, lies in the fact that a great deal of the attention of dairymen of late years has been diverted to cheese making. The rapid strides made, as shown by the exports from year to year, must of necessity have been detrimental to the butter trade.

CANADA'S EXPORTS OF CHEESE.

1880	40,368,678 pounds.
1881	49,255,523 "
1882	50,807,049 "
1883	68,041,397 "
1884	69,155,423 "
1885	79,635,367 "
1886	78,112,927 "
1887	78,770,855 "

The truth that these figures teach is that co-operation undoubtedly benefits a trade. The dairymen interested in the cheese business have joined together to advance their common interests, and what they have done has been profitable to themselves and greatly beneficial to the country. These men have gone on steadily improving the product of their factories. They have been anxious to learn and ready to adopt new ideas. They have managed their business with much prudence and economy and their salesmen are as a general rule pretty sagacious men, as the buyers know. This well-applied intelligence has brought Canadian cheese into good demand in Britain, insomuch that it has lowered the price of Cheshire, and the Yankees would fain ship all their cheese as "Canadian."

Butter making in Canada is unprofitable, except where it is engaged in scientifically. The production costs too much and the prices are too low. The distribution of labor will reduce the cost of production in this, as well as in other lines of business, and the establishment of creameries will improve the quality of the article. This is what is wanted—quality. The famous Greek described the first, second and third requisities of elocution as action, action, action. The dairymen of Canada need to learn that quality, quality, quality, is the one hope of the butter trade. Under the creamery system three important features may be confidently looked forward to:

1. Production will cost less.
2. Prices will be higher.
3. The consumption will increase.

It will cost less to produce butter because the distribution of labor idea will be adopted. Prices will be higher because a better article will be produced. The consumption will increase because people will eat more good butter than bad butter.

There are already signs of hope that the Canadian butter trade will be built up again. The rule of thumb is giving place to the rule of reason. In 1883 there were only 27 creameries in Ontario, now there are 55. In Quebec there are about 200.

The product of these creameries does not nearly supply the home market for good butter. There is ample room for a large increase in the number of creameries in Canada, even if the country did not export a pound.

ROSCOE CONKLING DEAD.

The Ex-Senator Passes Away This Morning —Sketch of His Life.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Mr. Conkling died at 1.50 this morning.

(Roscoe Conkling, son of the distinguished New York jurist, Alfred Conkling, was born in Albany, N. Y., on Oct. 30, 1829. He received an academic education and studied law with his father and in the office of Francis Kernan. His first office was the mayoralty of Utica, N. Y., and he served two terms. In November, 1858, he was elected as a Republican to Congress. He was re-elected in 1860, but in 1862 he was defeated by Francis Kernan, whom he defeated in 1864. Mr. Conkling's first important speech in the House was on the Fourteenth amendment. He vigorously attacked the generalship of McClellan, opposed Spaulding's legal-tender act, and upheld the government in the prosecution of the war. Mr. Conkling was re-elected in 1866, but in 1867 he was chosen United States Senator before he had taken his seat, and was re-elected in 1873 and 1879. In the Senate he served on almost all the important committees and held the chairs of those on commerce and revision of the laws. Senator Conkling was a zealous supporter of President Grant's administration, and largely directed its general policy toward the South, advocating it in public by his personal influence. He was also instrumental in the passage of the Civil Rights Bill, and favored the resumption of specie payments. He took a prominent part in framing the Electoral Commission Bill in 1877 and supported it by an able speech, arguing that the question of the commission's jurisdiction should be left to that body itself. Mr. Conkling received 93 votes for the Republican nomination for President in the Cincinnati convention in 1876. In the Chicago convention of 1880 he advocated the nomination of General Grant for a third term. In 1881 he became hostile to President Garfield's administration on a question of patronage, clashing with his colleague, Thomas C. Platt, the right to control Federal appointments in his state. The President having appointed a political opponent of Mr. Conkling to the collectorship of the port of New York, Mr. Conkling opposed his confirmation, claiming that he should have been consulted in the matter, and that the nomination was a violation of the pledges given to him by the President. Mr. Garfield, as soon as Mr. Conkling had declared his opposition, withdrew all other nominations to New York offices, leaving the objectionable case to be acted on by itself. Finding that he could not prevent the confirmation, Mr. Conkling, on May 16, 1881, resigned his Senatorship, as did his colleague, T. C. Platt, and returned home to seek a vindication in the form of re-election. In this, however, after an exciting canvass, he failed. Two other Republicans were chosen to fill the vacant places, and Mr. Conkling returned to his law practice in New York City. In 1884 he was counsel of the State Senate investigating committee, appointed for the purpose of disclosing the fraud and bribery in the grant of the Broadway horse car franchise in 1884 by the New York City Board of Aldermen. After the taking of testimony, lasting about three months, Mr. Conkling, together with Clarence A. Seward, made an argument which resulted in the repeal of the charter. Mr. Conkling had one sister, Mrs. Margaret Cockburn Steele, and two brothers, Frederick A. and Alfred Rolaud. His wife, who survives him, is a sister of the late Governor Horatio Seymour of New York. During his long public career, under the fierce light that beats about the throne, no shadow of suspicion ever fell upon Mr. Conkling, his uprightness being recognized by political foes as well as friends. As an orator, whether in legislative halls, upon the stump or at the bar, he had no superior among recent American leaders, his speech nominating Gen. Grant in the Republican national convention of 1880 easily placing him in the front rank of modern orators. As a statesman Mr. Conkling was not of the first order, being often blinded and misled by his intense partisanship. But he was without fear and without reproach, and with perhaps one notable exception, he had attracted to himself more personal friends (and possibly made more bitter political enemies) among the citizens of the republic than any other among American public men of the present day.)

Riddleberger's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—In the Senate to-day the resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Riddleberger suspending the rules as to executive sessions during the consideration of the Fisheries Treaty was laid before the Senate.

Mr. Edmunds: "In the consideration of that resolution, I move that the doors be closed."

Mr. Harris: "I second the motion."

Mr. Riddleberger: "I ask the Senator from Vermont to withdraw his motion. I simply want to make a statement and will not discuss the treaty at all."

Mr. Edmonds persisted, and the motion having been seconded, which is all the rules of the Senate require in such a matter, the sergeant-at-arms cleared the galleries and closed the doors. Within ten minutes the doors re-opened and the public business was proceeded with.

The Winnipeg Bank Defalcation.

WINNIPEG, April 17.—The Union Bank has recovered all its money taken by Teller Cameron except a few hundred dollars. Cameron didn't give away his friends, but enough leaked out to arrest George Vello and Harry McKittrick, two prominent hotelkeepers, in whose possession $39,951 was found. They, with Diamond, previously arrested, were before the magistrate this morning and were remanded till Friday, bail being refused.

The German Emperor.

BERLIN, April 17.—The Emperor's fever increased toward night. Otherwise there is no change in his condition. He occupied most of the afternoon in writing.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c.		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c.		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c.		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888.

GOVERNMENT SUCCESSES.

The Liberal party in the Dominion Parliament has shown considerable vigor this session and appears determined to oppose, criticize or make a point whenever it thinks there is an opportunity. Yet, despite this disposition, which has been pushed to factiousness, the Government has forced even the Liberals to approve of its action in regard to several very important matters, and matters, too, in connection with which the Government had been violently attacked.

The fisheries question is one of the most important matters dealt with this session. It has given trouble for a long time and threatened to cause more serious difficulties. The Government was assailed for every move it made regarding the dispute. It was charged with not protecting the Canadian fisheries, and with protecting them to such an extent as to cause irritation and a danger of war. But the Government maintained its position, pursued the even tenor of its way, and the result is that a treaty has been negotiated which the Liberal party approves of to such an extent that it did not vote against its ratification. The course of the Government has been justified by the result and the country as well as the Cabinet is to be congratulated.

Then there was the Manitoba railway agitation, which was encouraged by the Liberals of the east to the best of their ability, Opposition organs even going so far as to encourage the agitators to rebel. Well, the matter has been settled without any of the terrible prophecies of the Liberals being fulfilled, and the settlement is such that even Liberals express approval.

An important step taken by the Government in regard to our trade relations with the United States has also forced approval from the Opposition. The United States having removed the duty from certain articles, natural products, the Canadian Government, in accordance with the offer made, also placed them on the free list.

Thus steps taken by the Government, in three important matters, have been such that the Opposition is forced to withhold opposition to them. In addition, matters of smaller concern have been so dealt with by the Government that almost no objection to the legislation comes from any quarter. Unless the Liberal party is more successful than it has been, it will not gain by the present session, and will find itself at prorogation not nearer the goal of office that it is striving to reach.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

SOUTH HARVEY.

Correspondence of the Review

BUILDING BRISK.—There is quite a stir in our new village at Todford's corner. Jones the builder is there putting up the new factory for Mr. Todford, who rents it to a syndicate for five years. Building operations are pretty brisk this season Farmers are ploughing.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpared are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hands and brain.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

IN THE ROCKIES

The Wonderful Springs and Cave—Bathing While the Snow Falls.

From a letter written by one of the Peterborough carpenters working on the C. P. R. in the Rocky Mountains, Mr. R. Sheriff, we take the following interesting reference to the country and description of the Banff springs:—

We are now quartered at Duthill and expect to be here for some time. We are at the raising. I don't like the country as well as Canmore, but the work is not as hard as it was down below. The weather here is very windy. There is a perfect gale blowing nearly all the time. There has only been about two hours calm weather since we came here, it will lull now and again for five minutes, then you will see it coming down the valley making the snow fly like dust. When we see it coming we have to brace our selves to keep it from knocking us down. One good feature about it is that there is no frost and the wind is not cold and we can stand it all right. We are all badly tanned, but we look good and healthy and feel good too. Eight of us took a handcar to-day and pumped up to Banff. We met Mr. Galletly. I made him acquainted with the crowd. He kindly showed us all through the hotel. It is an immense building, there are 280 rooms in it and 500 electric lights, and 36 hydrants with three inch hose attached to them, so you see they are well fixed in case of fire. I can't begin to describe the way the place is laid out, at any rate I would have to go through it three or four time before I could put it on paper. The place is not finished yet, but they expect to have it in running order by the 24th of May. The place is all finished with the pine that grows in this country. It is all varnished without colouring and makes a beautiful finish. The grain of the wood is very pretty, you would think some parts of it were ash until you look closely at it. We were in the place for about two hours, we were in Mr. Galletly's room for a long time, he has a pleasant room and a good view from his windows. He has collected quite a number of curioes. He is taking care of the place and keeping the time for the men who are now working on the place. The carpenters were all sent down to Winnipeg last week, but they will have to put on another gang pretty soon to finish it up. I don't know why the other fellows ware knocked off, some dissatisfaction I think. I wish they would put on our staff to finish it up, but it is not a very likely thing. We had our dinner at the cook's camp there and then started off for a bathe. There are three or four places fitted up for bathing purposes. The road to the hot springs leads to the left from the hotel. These springs lay about 2½ miles from the hotel, up an incline to the side of a mountain. The road to the cave and basin strikes off from the hotel at right angles or pretty nearly straight in the opposite direction from the other road. The water in the first spring mentioned is the hottest. They are under cover and there is every convenience for a Turkish bath. The water contains 130 degrees of heat. They say you can hardly stand it when you first go into it. I can't say much about it for we went the other way to the cave and basin about a mile and a half or a little more from the hotel. The basin is about 20 feet in diameter one way and 25 or 30 the other way. It is in the open air, but the water contains 99 degrees of heat. There is a platform all around it just about six inches higher than the surface of the water and steps running right down into the bottom. The water in it varies from five to eight feet in depth. There is a cottage built in front of it for the convenience of the bathers. There is a sitting room and numerous dressing rooms. The place is well heated. The basin is out in the open air and it seemed kind of strange to be in swimming and snow on the ground all around us and the snow actually falling at the same time on our heads. I took a run out of the cottage and a header into the water and the whole eight of us stayed in there swimming, diving and turning summersaults for over one hour; we enjoyed ourselves immensely, I tell you. The air was pretty cold and we had to keep under water. If we swam around with our head out of water our hair would freeze. When we got out of the water the man who runs the place showed us into the cave. The cave when first discovered was like one of these ink bottles that are wide at the bottom and narrow at the top and whoever went into it had to be lowered down through the neck of it by a rope. The hole is not any too big for a man to get through; but now they have a cottage built in front of the hill in which the cave is and a passage tunneled through from the back of the cottage to the cavern. The passage is lit up with lamps, but the cave itself derives its light from the little hole in the top of it. The cave is bell shaped and I would take it to be between 20 and 30 feet wide at the bottom or at water level. The water in the cave is not as warm as the other springs but is plenty hot enough for a man to stay in it as long as he chooses. The water contains 80 degrees of heat. The walls of the cave are very pretty to look at, or rather the wall, for it is round. The rock is very hard, but spongy looking, and projects out one over and above the other right to the top of the cavern like the half of so many open umberellas. The rock is also studded with small crystals and looks very pretty when the light shines on it. The crystals are not hard as I have generally seen them, but soft, something like gum camphor. Besides the two cottages I have mentioned, there is a pretty little dwelling. The whole three of them are rustic build and are the prettiest places I think I have ever looked at. The material is of round pine or cedar poles varying from 2 to 4 inches in thickness, stripped of their bark and split in half and nailed on in all shapes, the ends of some coped to fit the sides of others. The round side of all are left out. You have sometimes seen nicely made rustic work in the backs of park seats. Well, those cottages are built after the same fashion. Must close now. Mr. Galletly is looking well. If you smell sulphur off this letter I shouldn't be surprised for I have been pretty well soaked in it to-day.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action, thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

—A Pembroke clergyman in a letter to the papers, wrote of a worthy M.P. as a "gentleman," but the printer made it "greenhorn." The M.P. is after the typo with an axe.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

A Bequet of enchanting sweetness—"Lotus of the Nile" Perfume.

A great many drawing rooms in Washington are now more or less adorned with large-sized photographs of Joseph Chamberlain.

Campbell's Cathartic Compound

IT CURES LIVER COMPLAINT, BILIOUS DISORDERS, ACID STOMACH, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

BRANDON, Man., 21st Oct., 1886.—I find Campbell's Cathartic Compound the best article I have ever used for costiveness or biliousness, and easy to take. I am, yours truly, A. N. McDONALD.

Sold by dealers in family medicines everywhere. 25c. per bottle.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the GREAT MODERN REMEDY. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are so often afflicted with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and waters sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts, 50 cts, and $1.00 per bottle.

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—"INVERLEA,"

The property of Judge Dennistoun, containing about eleven acres of land with the residence, stables, outbuildings, &c., &c. This property has a frontage of about 970 feet on Water street, and 925 on Smith street and about 400 feet on the river, and is one of the most advantageously situated properties in Town for sub-division and sale as Building Lots.

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead,

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession Street, and 2340 on the road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub-divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "R," Ashburnham,

Containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 570 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 34x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HAULTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House Hill. There is about ¾ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c, soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE,

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13, in 13th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

7th—Lot No. 21, North of McDonnel-st.

And west of George-st., Peterborough, except the north 75 feet thereof. There are two dwelling houses on this lot bringing in good rents.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,
3md35 Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

WHY DOES A YOUNG MAN WANT A GOOD WIFE?

Because he is married for a lifetime.

JOHN McNAUGHTON

The reliable Boot and Shoe dealer, has just opened out a large stock of goods from the celebrated makers, Messrs. Cooper & Smith, Toronto. Any person buying any goods made by this firm which contain paper insoles, paper stiffeners or cloth insoles, can have $2 for each pair upon furnishing satisfactory proof to me. These goods are all hand-made and marked in plain figures. I do not sell for cost, but I am satisfied with a fair profit and it will pay the public to call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Repairing done neatly, expeditiously and cheap for cash.

JOHN McNAUGHTON,
corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune-sts.
6d35eod-2w15

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe streets Peterborough lydaw

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

THE SUN LIFE Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSSETS - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,
MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite.—

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per ya Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

It pays to advertise in the DAILY REVIEW.

CANNED GOODS
—AT—
MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.
ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.
BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.
SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.
APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER
—AT—
SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON
Issurer of Marriage Licenses.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & w8

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Winds shifting to westerly; clearing weather; with a little higher temperature.

If You Want

Carpets, Curtains, Window Hollands and Blinds, or any housefurnishing supplies, call at the golden lion.

The Market.

The market this morning was not extra well attended by either buyers or sellers. Maple syrup was offered in large quantities, in milk cans, kegs, barrels and pails. It sold readily at from $1.00 to $1.10 per gallon for a prime article.

On the Track.

A large black dog was on the C.P.R. bridge yesterday when the noon express started to cross. The dog saw the train and evidently knew that he was in danger as he started to run and howl. The animal was overtaken and killed within a few feet of the Ashburnham side of the river.

Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society will be held in the school room of St. Paul's Church, on Tuesday evening, 24th inst., at 8 o'clock. A good programme has been provided. Refreshments will be served; admission 25 cents. All are cordially invited. As this will be the last of the season special efforts are being made to make it the best. 6d91

Leaving Town.

Mr. Frank Oliver, the clarionet player for some months with the Fire Brigade band and the orchestra, is leaving town. He is one of the finest musicians in the country, but he cannot secure a permanent situation here, and will go to Toronto where he will probably be heard with one of the leading bands of the city, a position his ability will permit him to fill in a satisfactory manner.

Capitular Masonry.

The following Companions were duly installed officers of Corinthian Chapter, No 36, Royal Arch Masons, for the ensuing year, on Tuesday evening:—

Ex. Companion	R. A. Morrow	Z.
" "	B. Shortly	I. P. Z.
" "	Chas. Cameron	H.
" "	R. E. Wood	J.
" "	David Spence	Scribe E.
" "	R. Q. Dench	Scribe N.
" "	A. St. A. Smith	P. S.
V. Ex. "	H. Rush	Treasurer
Ex. "	H. C. Winch	S. S.
" "	George McWilliams	J. S.
" "	J. R. Stratton	D. of C.
" "	Geo. W. Hall	M. 1st V.
" "	R. K. Connell	M. 2nd V.
" "	Dr. Brereton	M. 3rd V.
" "	Geo. Munro	M. 4th V.
" "	S. Sheldrake	Std. B.
" "	Duncan Cameron	Swd. B.
" "	Richard Meade	Sr. S.
" "	Wm. Smith	Jr. S.
V. Ex. "	W. Paterson, Jr.	Janitor
R. Ex. "	E. H. D. Hall	Trustee

A Distant Field.

The Rev. S. J. Thompson, of the George-st. Methodist Church, who has had charge of this important pastorate since the Rev. Prof. Wallace went to Cobourg, has received a communication from the Superintendent with regard to his taking charge of work in British Columbia after the meeting of the Conference, and the matter is under consideration. Mr. Thompson had a difficult task when he came to Peterborough, to one of the most important stations in the Conference. Although a young man, he came to fill a pulpit which had been regularly occupied by the ablest preachers, and his ministrations have been very acceptable and successful. While preparing for his final examinations for acceptance into full connection as an ordained minister, he has delived sermons each Sunday that have held the strict attention of large congregations, and his zeal and energy in other branches of his work have won the esteem of the members and congregation. Whether Mr. Thompson goes to a near or a distant field after leaving here, he will carry away many heartfelt wishes for success from persons outside of the church as well as from all in connection with his congregation.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. d89

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS
AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM
Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1,00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming: Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.
(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

Going North.

A large number of men engaged for the drives by the Rathbun Company left for the north this morning. They have to drive a distance of fully fifty miles.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Lacrosse.

A meeting of the Riverside Lacrosse Club will take place at the Commercial House, on Friday evening, when preparations for the approaching season will be made.

General Sale.

The general spring sale of horses, cattle (Jersey and other), buggies, harness, etc. (C. Stapleton, auctioneer,) will take place on the market square on Saturday. 1d91

The Volunteers.

The members of the city battalion after their long winter's rest are brusing up their uniforms and making preparations to resume drill as soon as the floor of the drill shed will permit of it.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

The Vics.

There was some talk of the Victoria Rifles, of Montreal, one of the crack corps, of Canada, visiting Peterborough on May 24th or July 1st, but according to despatches in the Toronto papers, the Vics. will in all probability visit the Queen City, instead of the "Hub."

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple Syrup from R. Kidd at the Pantry. d89

Quite A Batch.

Votes on the repeal of the Scott Act will take place in seven Ontario Counties tomorrow. The counties and the majorities they gave in favor of the Act are as follows:—

Bruce	1,312
Dufferin	795
Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry	1,706
Huron	1,653
Norfolk	1,037
Renfrew	736
Simcoe	1,183

Dominion Day.

A joint meeting of a committee of the Fire Brigade and the Directors of the Driving Park Association, was held at the fire station on Tuesday evening. The object of the meeting was to arrange a programme for a grand celebration in Peterborough on Dominion Day. The matter was thoroughly talked over and the firemen will undertake the management of affairs and as a starter they have engaged the Driving Park for the day. The details of the celebration are not yet fully arranged, but it was decided to have a physical demonstration after the style of those given here with such success in years gone by, athletic sports of all kinds and several horse races, for which handsome purses will be given to draw here fliers from Toronto and other places. The management of the affair is in good hands and judging by past experience, a success may be anticipated. The public will kept fully informed from time to time of the progress being made.

The Result of the Calico Ball.

The Committee of the Peterborough Protestant Home beg leave very sincerely to thank Mr. Lewis for his kindness in sending the following letter, which speaks for itself:—

BANK OF MONTREAL,
PETERBOROUGH, 16th April, 1888.

DEAR MISS ROGER,—I again have the pleasure of sending you a cheque for the benefit of the Protestant Home, being the result of the "Calico Ball," held on 4th inst. The management were disappointed that the ball was not better attended, so that the proceeds might have been larger.

We feel much indebted to Messrs. Winch, Rutherford and Cavanagh for the free use of the hall, etc.; to Mr. Stevenson and the Gas Company for light; to Messrs. Comstock, Belleghem and McFadden for furniture; particularly to Messrs. Hackett and Kelly for their liberal contributions towards the decorations; to the REVIEW and Examiner for reductions in their accounts; to the stewards for their valuable assistance in their different committees, and also to the ladies, too numerous to mention, who so kindly contributed to the supper.

The total receipts were $150.35; expenses, $80.21; balance for Home, $67.14, say $70, for which I enclose cheque.

Yours very truly,
F. J. LEWIS, Hon. Secretary.

Miss Roger, Sec-Treas.
Peterborough Protestant Home.

Filling Up.

Street Inspector Pope has placed about five hundred loads of street scrapings on the Central Park, filling up a good section of it. It will require about as many more to fill the whole place up.

Federation League.

A meeting of the officers of the Imperial Federation League was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Tuesday evening for the purpose of passing some accounts and transacting general business. There were no speeches or discussion.

The Carters.

Five of the carters have taken up positions at the corner of George-and Hunter-sts. For years they were at the corner above, but people desiring their services will soon find their new stands and the many complaints that have heretofore been heard on this score will probably cease.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers can always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. d89

For Europe.

We understand that Commodore John Miller, of the Otonabee Canoe Club contemplates a European tour during the coming summer. He proposes to start about the fifteenth of May, and has not yet made up his mind as to how long he will remain away.

Arbor Day.

The first Friday in May (the 4th) will be set apart by the Board of Trustees of every rural school and incorporated village for the purpose of planting shade trees, making flower beds, and otherwise improving and beautifying the school grounds.

At Lindsay.

We understand that some eight or more enthusiastic canoeists from Peterborough, are making preparations to attend the annual dinner of the Lindsay canoe club, on Thursday evening, in response to a hearty invitation from the paddlers in the town on the Scugog.

Three More.

Messrs. Croft, Cavanagh and Morgan each pleaded guilty at the police court this morning, to committing a second offence against the Scott Act. They were fined $100 and costs each, to be paid in 10 days, with the usual alternative of two months in gaol, if not paid.

At Port Hope.

The Port Hope Times says:—"There will be the ceremony of confirmation in St. Mary's Church next Sunday by the Right Rev. Bishop Dowling. This will be His Lordship's first official visit to Port Hope and he will be met at the noon train by members of the parish."

Belleville Fire Brigade.

The Belleville fire brigade is to re-organized and the scheme proposed is to have twenty-five men at $50 each per year, ten of the men to sleep at the fire station, a fire alarm system at a cost of $2,500, a chemical fire engine with three horses. With these the city is sure of being rated the same as Peterborough, in class "B."

HE who drinks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. d89

Cricket.

At a special meeting of the Ontario Cricket Association on Monday night, it was decided to accept July 4th, 5th and 6th, the dates proposed by the American association, for the playing of the International match this year. The match, will in all probability be played on the Toronto Cricket Club's grounds or on the grounds of the Toronto Baseball Club, if a suitable wicket can be secured.

The Comet.

A correspondent writes to an exchange.—If any of your readers who are interested in the comet will look in the east between the hours of three and four in the morning, and south of the square of Pegasus, they will find a hazy-looking object, which under the opera glass, field glass or telescope will be resolved into a small comet. When first viewed in the Northern Hemisphere (March 15) it had a tail of 30 minutes long, but in my observation on April 10, I found its tail had increased to about 5 degrees in length. Its daily motion is 1 degree 15 minutes north and 6 minutes east. The comet is moving away from the earth and the sun.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether rising from teething or otherecauses 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—The Baird Dramatic Company are playing in Woodstock.

—Mr. H. Corby, M.P., Belleville, is confined to his house through illness.

—The Salvation Army drew a large crowd at Hunter and George-sts. last evening.

—Two tramps were accommodated with lodgings at the police station last night.

—The evangelistic services at the old Music Hall last night were well attended.

—Wild geese are reported as being unusually numerous up north, this spring.

—The by-laws, etc., of the Fire Brigade are to be revised and printed in pamphlet form.

—The Golden-Eye is being thoroughly overhauled in anticipation of a busy season.

—The booms, etc., of the Dickson Estate are being put in shape for the coming season.

—The police station and cells were given a thorough cleaning to-day. They needed it badly.

—The Grand Trunk ballast train is at work filling in the Grand Junction dock at Belleville.

—Three deaths were registered at the Town Clerk's office this morning, within half an hour.

—Mr. John Lockhart, of Sunderland, a former resident of Peterborough, is in town for a short visit.

—The cheese factories are about to commence operations. Those in Hastings began on Monday.

—Fish from Chemong Lake and other favorite fishing places are coming in in large quantities.

—Terry Smith is ready for duty any day with the watering carts. He expects to be called on at an early date.

—The water from the town pump appears to improve the longer the pump is down and the more that is taken out of it.

—Peterborough was not represented at the annual meeting of the Canadian Lacross Association, at Paris, on Tuesday.

—A new and handsome turned brass railing has been placed in front of the giant plate glass windows of Messrs. Hall, Innes & Co.

—An illuminated picture of the Globe special train attracted attention at the establishment of Messrs. Elliott & Tierney last night.

—A street row on Hunter-st. west, at about 1 o'clock yesterbay morning, was one the matters that attracted the attention of the police.

—The water in the river and lake is rising slowly. At Lakefield yesterday it was six inches above zero, which means the average height for the year.

—Officers McGinty and Stewart tell a widely different story from the man taken in the other night in connection with the alleged illegal arrest.

—It is estimated that one hundred million pounds of honey is produced in America each year, of which Canada is only credited with 1,875,745 pounds.

—A young man will appear at the Police Court to-morrow to answer a charge against him of acting in a disorderly manner in the vicinity of the Salvation Army barracks.

—For a time last night snow fell and people wondered if we were to have another spell of winter. It soon turned to rain, however, and the snow disappeared in a rapid manner.

—Mr. E. B. Edwards has received a communication from Mr. Percy Nesbitt, Hon. Secy. of the British Canoe Association stating that at the annual meeting held recently, Mr. Edwards was elected an honorary member.

—"Will you take some of the same?" inquired the Police Magistrate at the court this morning, to the third defendant, after two had been fined. "I will take a little sugar in mine," was the reply.

—The leaks and breaks in the water mains caused by the great frost have been nearly all repaired. Tanbark is being used in large quantities to cover the pipes, before the earth is thrown in and tramped down.

—The Belleville Ontario objects to the employment of Italians on the G.T.R. ballast trains, while natives are looking for work. As Belleville paid $150,000 for the Grand Junction the Ontario thinks they should have some say in the matter.

—The mail boats which are favorities with Peterborough, will commence their trips about June 1st. The steamers are: Spartan, Capt. Irvine; Passport, Capt. Sinclair; Algerian, Capt. Trowell; Corinthian, Capt. Ada. The boats have been much improved during the winter.

COUGHS, COLDS,
Croup and Consumption
CURED BY
ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM
25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

SUMMER COMFORT

Doesn't always depend on the circumstances of location. It far oftener depends on the ex- or else of good judgment in the selection of

Summer Clothing.

People are to a large extent, dependent on well selected Clothing for comfort during the hot months. All mankind in the country are interested in our stock of Seasonable Clothes and Garments, a stock that embraces every New and Popular Light Weight fabric, made up in the Best and Most Stylish manner. Our prices are just as right as our Goods and both satisfactory.

T. Dolan & Co

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE
—OF—
WORSTED COATINGS
Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.
GEORGE STREET.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1mw16 10 Spruce st., New York

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Funeral Director,
CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.
TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING
—OF THE NEW—
Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.
MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

REMOVAL SALE

We find our present store too small for our growing trade and have rented the store lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Alexander, which when fitted up will be one of the most attractive places of business on George-st. On THURSDAY, the 19th of APRIL, we commence a

60 DAYS GREAT CLEARING SALE.

It will be to our advantage to clear out our present stock even at cost. Remember our Goods are new and stylish. That we do not deal in goods out of date and expensive at any price.

During our Great Sale we will convince the public that we mean what we say when we promise bargains in every department.

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

H. S. GRIFFIN & Co.,
CRYSTAL BLOCK.
5d90 1w16

Want of Sleep

Is sending thousands annually to the insane asylum; and the doctors say this trouble is alarmingly on the increase. The usual remedies, while they may give temporary relief, are likely to do more harm than good. What is needed is an Alterative and Blood-purifier. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is incomparably the best. It corrects those disturbances in the circulation which cause sleeplessness, gives increased vitality, and restores the nervous system to a healthful condition.

Rev. T. G. A. Coté, agent of the Mass. Home Missionary Society, writes that his stomach was out of order, his sleep very often disturbed, and some impurity of the blood manifest; but that a perfect cure was obtained by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frederick W. Pratt, 424 Washington street, Boston, writes: "My daughter was prostrated with nervous debility. Ayer's Sarsaparilla restored her to health."

William F. Bowker, Erie, Pa., was cured of nervousness and sleeplessness by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for about two months, during which time his weight increased over twenty pounds.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

"Then what a mercy it is I didn't do it," says Mona, naively. "I was very near to it, do you know? I had actually said 'Yes,' because I could not make up my mind to lose the deed, when he let me off the bargain. But, if he had persisted, I tell you honestly I am quite sure I should have let him kiss me."

"Mona, don't talk like that," says Geoffrey, biting his lips.

"Well, but, after all, one can't be much of a friend if one can't sacrifice one's self sometimes for those one loves," says Mrs. Geoffrey, reproachfully. "You would have done it yourself in my place."

"What! kiss the Australian? I'd see him—very well—that is—ahem! I certainly would not, you know," says Mr. Rodney.

"Well, I suppose I am wrong," says Mona, with a sigh. "Are you very angry with me, Geoff? Would you ever have forgiven me if I had done it?"

"I should," says Geoffrey, pressing her hands. "You would always be to me the best and truest woman alive. But—but I shouldn't have liked it."

"Well, neither should I!" says Mrs. Geoffrey, with conviction. "I should perfectly have hated it. But I should never forgive myself if he had gone away with the will."

"It is quite a romance," says Jack Rodney; "I never heard anything like it before off the stage." He is speaking to the room generally. "I doubt if any one but you, Mona, would have got the will out of him. He hates the rest of us like poison."

"But—bless me!—how awfully he must be in love with you to resign the Towers for your sake!" says Nolly, suddenly, giving words to the thought that has been tormenting him for some time.

As this is the idea that has haunted every one since the disclosure, and that they each and all have longed but feared to discuss, they now regard Nolly with admiration, — all save Lady Rodney, who, remembering her insinuations of an hour ago, moves uneasily in her chair, and turns an uncomfortable crimson.

Mona is, however, by no means disconcerted; she lifts her calm eyes to Nolly's, and answers him without even a blush.

"Do you know it never occurred to me until this afternoon?" she says, simply; "but now I think—I may be mistaken, but I really do think he fancies himself in love with me. A very silly fancy, of course."

"He must adore you; and no wonder, too," says Mr. Darling, so emphatically that every one smiles, and Jack, clapping him on the back, says,—

"Well done, Nolly! Go it again, old chap!"

"Oh, Mona, what courage you showed! Just imagine staying in the library when you found yourself face to face with a person you never expected to see, and in the dead of night, with every one sound asleep! In your case I should either have fainted or rushed back to my bedroom again as fast as my feet could carry me, and I believe," says Dorothy, with conviction, "I should so far have forgotten myself as to scream every inch of the way."

"I don't believe you would," says Mona. "A great shock sobers one. I forgot to be frightened until it was all over. And then the dogs were a great support."

"When he held the pistol to your forehead, didn't you scream then," says Violet.

"To my forehead?" says Mona, puzzled; and then she glances at Geoffrey, remembering that this was one of the slight variations with which he adorned his tale.

"No, she didn't," interposes he, lightly. "She never funked it for a moment; she's got any amount of pluck. He did not exactly press it against her forehead, you know; but," airily, "it's all the same thing."

"When you got the pistol so cleverly into your own possession, why on earth didn't you shoot him?" demands Mr. Darling, gloomily, who evidently feels blood-thirsty when he thinks of the Australian and his presumptious admiration for the peerless Mona.

"Ah! sure you know I wouldn't do that, now!" returns she, with a stronger touch of her native brogue than she has used for many a day; at which they all laugh heartily, even Lady Rodney chiming in as easily as though the day had never been when she had sneered contemptuously at that self-same Irish tongue.

"Well, 'All's well that ends well,'" says Captain Rodney, thoughtlessly. "If that delectable cousin of ours would only sink into the calm and silent grave now, we might even have the title back without fear of dispute, and find ourselves just where we began."

It is at this very moment that the library door is suddenly flung open, and Jenkins appears upon the threshold, with his face as white as nature will permit, and his usually perfect manner much disturbed. "Sir Nicholas, can I speak to you for a moment?" he says, with much excitement, growing positively apoplectic in his endeavor to be calm.

To be Continued.

LACROSSE MEN IN COUNCIL

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION.

Racing at Memphis—Baseball Games—Racing in England—The N.L.A. Loses Its Amateur Character—Dust from the Diamond.

PARIS, April 17.—The Canadian Lacrosse Association met in convention here this afternoon. The officers present were: R. M. Orchard, Brantford, 1st Vice-president; J. H. Fisher, Paris, 2nd Vice-president; E. H. Gerry, Toronto, Secretary-Treasurer; H. O'Laughlan, St. Catharines; H. C. Bellew, Owen Sound, and E. W. Nesbitt, Woodstock, members of the council. President Hamilton sent word of inability to be up before the night session.

The following clubs were represented: Athletics, St. Catharines; Athletic Juniors, St. Catharines; Paris Brants, Paris; Beavers, Woodstock; Brantfords, Brantford; Brantford Juniors, Brantford; Dufferins, Orangeville; Dufferins, Ingersols; Niagaras, Niagara Falls; Orillias, Orillia; Ontarios, Toronto; Olympics, Milton; Shelburnes, Shelburne; Stars, Bright; Stratfords, Stratford; Torontos, Toronto. The report of the Secretary was then read.

A proposed amendment to the constitution making the President, Vice-President and two members a permanent judicial committee was negatived. Another proposal, aiming at qualifying the words "having professionals of any kind in membership" by the term "knowingly" was withdrawn after a debate.

The season for schedule games shall be from May 24 to Sept. 30. The clubs shall play two matches each. The entire proceeds from each senior championship match shall go to the home club, the visiting team paying their travelling and hotel expenses, the home club paying the referee.

The N.L.A. Has Lost Its Amateur Character.

MONTREAL, April 17.—It is far from certain yet that A. W. Stevenson will retain the office of President of the National Lacrosse Association. Some of the members of the Montreal club seem to think that as the Association by its action at the last convention has practically lost its amateur character, the club should have nothing more to do with it, while others who are less impulsive counsel that the presidency of Mr. Stevenson, who is known to hold the most positive views on the question, and has done all he could to make the convention see the error of its way, may have a most salutary effect. The matter is to be decided at a special meeting of the Montreal club to be held to-morrow evening in the M. A. A. A. rooms.

Mr. Stevenson, when seen about the matter said, "I have not yet decided; I did not run after the place, and had I been present when I was nominated I would have declined, but if my keeping the place can improve the game and do away with professionalism I am ready to sacrifice my feelings and do my utmost to work for the best."

Racing at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 17.—This was the third day of the Spring Meeting. There was a good attendance and the track in excellent condition. Summary:

FIRST RACE—Purse $350, for all ages; selling allowances; five-furlong heats.

W. H. Babb's ch.f. Hilda, 3, by Geo. Wilkes—Ngya Winters, 90 ..... 1 1
J. M. Brown & Co.'s ch.m. Jennie McFarland, 6, 94 ..... 2 2
J. T. Williams' b.c. McLaughlin, 4, 92 ..... 3 3

Skobeloff, Duhme, Weeks and Tam O'Shanter also ran. Time—1.04, 1.05¾.

Pool odds 3 to 1 against Hilda. Pools—Duhme, $25; Skobeloff and Hilda, $20 each; Jennie McFarland, $16; the field, $15.

SECOND RACE—Purse $400, for all ages; selling allowances; mile and a sixteenth.

Chicago Stables' b.g. Wanderoo, 5, by Wanderer—Kissane-quick, 99 1
H. Mack's b.h. Kirklin, 5, 112 2
D. A. Honig's br.g. Hopedale, 4, 105 3

Biddy Bowling, St. Valentine, Ten Times and We-Wa also ran. Time—1.55¾.

Pool odds 3 to 1 against Wanderoo and 5 to 1 Kirklin. Pools—We-Wa, St. Valentine, Kirklin, Wanderoo, Hopedale, Biddy Bowling, $10 each; Ten Times $8.

THIRD RACE—Peabody Hotel Handicap Sweepstakes, for 3-year-olds and upward, $5 each at entrance, $20 additional for starters, with $1,000 added, of which $200 to the 2d, $100 to the 3d; 1¼ miles.

Chicago Stable's br.g. Macbeth, 3, by Macduff—Agnes, 90 1
M. Welsh's b.c. White Nose, 4, 103 2
A. H. Morris' b.h. Panama, 5, 109 3

Wheeler & Co.'s ch.h. Paragon, 4, 111 0
H. H. Stevens' br.f. Fiorimore, 3, 100 0
Chinn & Co.'s b.g. Arundel, 4, 109 0

Time—1.59¾.

Pool odds—2 to 1 against Macbeth, 5 to 2 White Nose, Pools—Panama, Paragon, Macbeth, Fiorimore and White Nose, $25 each; Arundel and Sam Harper, jr., $20 each; Kirklin, $15.

FOURTH RACE—Purse $350, for maidens; 4-year-olds allowed 5 lbs.; 5 and upward, 12 lbs.; 1 mile.

Owen Bros.' gr.g. John Gray, a. by Shiloh—Mar. gery, 110 1
Luke Dant, 90 2
Montgomery, 90 3

Comedie and Recluse also ran. Time—1.44.

Pool odds 4 to 1 against John Gray. Pools—Luke Dant, $30; John Gray and Comedie, $15 each; Recluse and Montgomery, $10 each.

Recluse finished second, but was disqualified for a foul.

Racing in England.

LONDON, April 17.—At the Newmarket Craven meeting to-day the race for the Crawford Plate was won by the Duke of Montrose's Dazzle, Mr. W. E. Wardour's Monsieur de Paris second and Baron C. de Tuyll's Arga third. There were thirteen starters.

The Newmarket Biennial Stakes was won by Gen. Pearson's colt Anarch, Mr. Ernest's colt Van Dieman's Land second and Lord Durham's Bellatrix third.

They Draw the Line at Sunday Ball Games.

BUFFALO, April 17.—Through some misunderstanding or possibly a catch in the contract the Buffalos played a game at Cincinnati on Sunday. This didn't go down very well with the directors, and, though they are not all superintendents of Sunday schools, nor are they looking to be sent to Africa or any other foreign missions, they draw the line at Sunday ball games. This morning the following telegram was sent to the manager: "John C. Chapman, Manager Buffalo Baseball Club, Louisville, Ky.—Cancel your Sunday games if you intend playing there 22nd. No Sunday games while I am president of the club. See letter. (Signed) C. W. CUSHMAN."

The Hams Win Their First Game.

ELMIRA, N.Y., April 17.—The Hamiltons of the International Association faced the local team this afternoon before a fair crowd. The game proved to be a decidedly rank exhibition of ball playing, and was won by the visitors' free use of the stick. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Elmira	0 4 3 2 0 0 0 0 0	9	6
Hamilton	2 4 0 5 3 0 0 0 x	14	10

Batteries: Goodall and Baker; Wood and Purvis.

Other Games.

At New York:

New York	2 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 x	5
Newark	0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	1

Batteries: Titcomb and Murphy; Dooms and Duffy. Umpire: Pearce.

At Philadelphia:

	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 —	1	5
Philadelphia	0 0 2 3 0 1 0 2 0 —	7	2

Batteries: Blain and Gunning; Burlington and Clements. Um pires: McGuire and Daniels.

At Washington:

Washington	0 0 1 1 0 1 0 7 0 —	10
Cuban Giants	0 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 —	3

Batteries: Whiting and Boyce: Storey and Thomas. Umpire: Gardner.

At Kansas City:

Kansas City—Detroit game was postponed on account of rain.

At Rochester:

Cleveland	0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 x	3 2 1
Rochester	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 1 5

Batteries: Zimmer and Bakely; Calihan Bros. Umpire: Hoover.

Dust from the Diamond

The National League season begins on Friday.

The Torontos will play with Wheeling to-day at Wheeling, W. Va.

Syracuse plays the New Yorks to-day on the Polo Grounds at New York.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

5,000 YARDS
—OF—
SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS
—AT—
SIX CENTS A YARD

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,
No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

In brief and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents

Fire at Chatsworth.

CHATSWORTH, April 17.—The Joint Stock Company's grain storehouse here and contents were totally destroyed by fire last night. The fire originated about 1 o'clock and the cause of it is unknown. The storehouse stood near the Canadian Pacific Railway station. About 5000 bushels of grain, the property of C. Goode of Toronto, and fifty cords of wood were destroyed. The storehouse was built in 1882 and cost $2300, capacity about 40,000 bushels. It was insured in the Queen Insurance Company for $1333. Much difficulty was experienced in saving Goode's storehouse near it, and several thousand cords of wood and railway ties to the north. The wood was mostly the property of C. J. Smith of Toronto.

Converts at Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 17.—At the Hunter and Crossley meetings over 1000 names of converts have already been handed in.

An International Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The conferees of the two houses upon the bill passed by the House and amended by the Senate, authorizing the President to arrange a conference for the purpose of promoting arbitration and encouraging reciprocal commercial relations between the United States and the Republics of Mexico, Central and South America and the Empire of Brazil, held a meeting and reached an agreement upon their differences this morning. The following were the chief points discussed and settled by the conferees: That the appropriation shall be $75,000 for the expenses of the conference; that the subjects which this country desires to lay before the conference shall be named in the invitations, so that the conferees from other countries may come prepared with instructions to consider them; that the proceedings shall be printed at the Government Printing Office in English, Spanish and Portuguese; and that of the ten American commissioners (all to serve without compensation); six shall be appointed by the president with the advice and consent of the Senate, two by the President of the Senate, and two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Statue Agitation.

MONTREAL, April 17.—It is learned on good authority this evening that the whole of the $80,000 required to erect the statue of the Madonna on the Mountain has been subscribed, one Irish Catholic druggist having himself subscribed $10,000.

The earnest protest of the Protestant population seems to have convinced the ruling powers of the Catholic Church that the proposal is fraught with danger, and they are less open in their advocacy of the scheme than they were last week. One prominent priest at the Archbishop's palace to-day declared that he had no doubt the Archbishop would, on reconsideration, see that the scheme was unfeasible and withdraw his sanction, in which case the whole matter will end.

In the Wild West.

ASHLAND, Wis., April 17.—Two men, whose names are unknown, got into a dispute with Wm. O'Hearne, a bartender, in Spoonar, and another bartender named Charles Green of Minneapolis yesterday. Twenty shots were fired. O'Hearne was shot through the lungs and a bullet broke one of Green's legs. The strangers broke for the woods and a constable followed. It is thought he has also been killed. O'Hearne will die.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon
VERY CHOICE.

TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS
UNSMOKED.
Wholesale and Retail.

J. W. FLAVELLE,
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

Geo. A. Cox vs. C. B. Routley
HE IS TEARING THINGS ALL TO PIECES.
Pity and Consolation is Required.

TO PITY is to show yourself in the Store. TO CONSOLE is to buy his Stock, which will be sold astonishingly low, as Mr. Cox is putting in a new floor, etc., and I will repay Customers and Friends for any inconvenience they may have in getting into my Store by giving WALL PAPER, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDES, BOY EXPRESS WAGGONS, Etc., 30 Per Cent. off Regular Prices.

No comment is necessary on Fancy Articles, as we are already known to be CHEAPEST HOUSE IN TOWN.

AGENT FOR LAZARUS SPECTACLES

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING POWDER
THE COOK'S FRIEND

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

For Sale by all Grocers.

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

CARSLAKE'S GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000	each prize.	Total $6,000
2nd " "	$2,000	"	$4,000
3rd " "	$1,000	"	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally)	$2,000
in duplicate			$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally)	$4,500	in duplicate	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888
Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.
Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.
22d eod-4mos Mansion House, Montreal

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE or the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d8eod-w15

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

JACKSON & CO.

Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.

Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.

PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES tuned and repaired.

Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos. Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card. d3eod-w49-6m

READ T. HURLEY'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at his office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

DON'T NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints. Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

DEAR SIR,—I thank you for your PINE TAR CORDIAL. It has done me more good than anything I have ever used.
MRS. S. R. HARVEY, Cobourg.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—"Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:
JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. 1yrd7

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted in person the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
115 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d18

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, DUBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 472, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St. north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. 1yd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. 1yd109

WM. H. MCELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR, Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 943; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 656, Peterborough P.O. d35-1yr

JOSEPH JONES,

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d6ly

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS N. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, &c., SOLICIITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
☞ MONEY TO LOAN. d163w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.
R. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. wed37

J. B. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m. and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w2

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D.C.M., L.R.C.P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d14-w3-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL, Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street, opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 50 p m	Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	5 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	8 00 a m
8 50 p m		4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	11 00 a m
15 15 p m	do do	5 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 15 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m
4 00 p m		11 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Emmamore	1 30 p m
	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Pandash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
6 00 p m previous night	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey and via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico, (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guianes, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanics and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and Americs, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents,

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. BOGERS, Postmaster

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 92. PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

WHITNEY BABY CARRIAGES.

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push. Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices.
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH.

WORKING JEWELLER.

Z. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Orientel

THE

ATLAS

Assurance Co'y.,

OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

Garden Tools,
Silver Dollar Spades
Spading Forks,
Manure Forks,
Steel Rakes,
Hoes,
Wheelbarrows,
Long and Short
Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent, ROANOKE, VA.,

Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

For Sale or to Rent.

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough. Houses to rent.

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to ROBERT KINGAN.

Wants.

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 1d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. e12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. M&S CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

daw JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w5

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,

2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

EXTENSIVE

AUCTION SALE

OF

Town Property

ON

FRIDAY, the 20th APRIL

at 3 o'clock p. m., there will be offered for sale by public auction on the premises, the handsome Brick House, the residence of Mrs Gilmore, on the corner of Park and Gilmore-sts. with three building lots adjoining. Also about one acre and a half of land adjoining the residences of Messrs. Jas. Stratton, Esq., and R. E. Wood, Esq., on Gilmore-st., which will be offered in subdivisions to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—10 per cent at time of sale, 20 per cent in 30 days thereafter. Balance on mortgage at 6 per cent or all cash as may be preferred.

Further particulars or inspection of the house may be had upon application to

C. M. ROGER,
Barrister, Water-st., or to

C. STAPLETON,
Auctioneer. 8d82-1w1

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER. 1yd33 JAS. R. DONELL

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1888.

C.P.R.'S ENTRY INTO TORONTO.

The Bill to Come Up in Committee Friday —A Lively Fight in Prospect.

OTTAWA, April 18.—It was rearranged to-day that the bill empowering the Canadian Pacific Railway to enter the City of Toronto from the east via Don River should not come up in the Railway Committee until Friday, next week. There promises to be a lively fight over this bill between the big railroad company and the equally big distillery controlled by the Gooderham & Worts Company. The Canadian Pacific purpose running their line to the north of the immense distillery property, then south at Parliament-street on to their own Esplanade property, and then to their proposed new station house at Lorne-street. This plan would put the distillery property in a cul-de-sac, the Grand Trunk at the south, the Canadian Pacific Railway on the north and the roads joining on the west at Parliament-street would shut them in on three sides. The Canadian Pacific people have been buying up all the property through which this line will pass from the Don River to Parliament-street. They are not merely purchasing the right of way by expropriation, but are purchasing entire lots. Nearly two years ago the old Worts estate in Mill-street was sold at auction for $25,000. Months passed before it became known that it had been purchased on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway. When this fact leaked out it was the first intimation the Gooderhams had that the railway would pass that way, right through the heart of the old homestead to the westward. Of course the distillery people were greatly surprised and exasperated, and had they the slightest idea that it would fall into the hands of the Canadian Pacific they would have bought it in at any price.

Last Monday the Gooderhams made the first move to checkmate the Canadian Pacific. Teamster "Billy" Boyd owned 230 feet running north on the west side of Cherry-street from Mill-street. This land the distillers purchased for $20,000 cash, although it was not worth that sum. The Canadian Pacific must acquire this property in some way or other, because it is right on their line. The day after the purchase the Gooderhams were served with an expropriation notice to acquire the Boyd property for "station and yard purposes."

It is understood that Mr. Hickson has made an offer to the Canadian Pacific to have them run along the Grand Trunk property to the south of the distillery to Parliament-street, where they could then join their own property. The consideration for this privilege Mr. Hickson, it is said, is willing to leave to arbitration. Mr. Hickson was here this evening, and before leaving for Montreal he wrote Mr. Van Horne to that effect.

The Gooderhams will make a strong fight to prevent the Canadian Pacific building to the north of the distillery, as they say it would be ruinous and dangerous to their property, being hemmed in on three sides by railroad tracks.

Mr. C. M. Wills is in the lobby in the interests of the railway and T. G. Blackstock is hustling for the distillers.

The City of Toronto is very deeply interested in this question, and will take a prominent part in its settlement.

It is understood that the Gooderhams would not take any consideration to have the road run on the north. By next July, under the Inland Revenue Act of 1886, they will have "tanked" about 5,000,000 gallons of whisky within that cul-de-sac of railroad tracks, and the prospect of such a contingency they do not relish.

Emperor Creighton En Route for Toronto.

OTTAWA, April 18.—"Emperor" Davy Creighton arrived in the city this afternoon from Quebec and left at midnight for Toronto. The "Emperor," so far as his sojourn at the Capital would give an opportunity to judge, takes his summary and forced "call" to Quebec in good part. He was in the press gallery in the House this afternoon, and said that just before leaving Quebec he was standing in the reading room of the St. Louis Hotel. Mr. Mercier and several of his friends came into the hotel and seeing the "Emperor" standing alone, musing over his sad fate as an editor, kindly invited him into the bar to take a cocktail. Mr. Creighton did not wish to be unfriendly and took a cigar with his pursuers. This evening he had a long talk with Sir John on the prospects of The Empire. The "Old Man" laid his hand on the shoulder of the little man from Gray and said: "Well, Davy, politics has thrown me into some very strange company but not often into the company of a jail bird." Both the "Old Man" and Davy laughed heartily over this little bit of fun.

A Long Cabinet Sitting.

OTTAWA, April 18.—The Cabinet was in session from 11 o'clock this morning until just before the House met this afternoon. This is a remarkably long sitting for any day but Saturday. The ministers took lunch in the Council Room. The details of the Canadian Pacific Railway resolutions to be submitted to Parliament anent the abrogation of the monopoly clause, were all arranged. The supplementary estimates took up a large part of the sitting. All of the ministers but Mr. White and Mr. Pope were present. Mr. White is suffering from pleurisy and congestion of the right lung, and will not be out for a week or so. Mr. Pope continues to regain strength and health.

As Expected.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations this morning decided by a party vote to report the Fisheries Treaty adversely.

The Election in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—Nicholls (Dem.), is elected Governor by from 20,000 to 30,000 majority.

RECIPROCAL WRECKAGE.

THE HOUSE DIVIDES ON MR. KIRKPATRICK'S MEASURE.

Bolters on Both Sides, But the Bill Thrown Out—The Kingston Deputy Postmaster's Thefts—The C. P. R.'s Eastern Entry Into the Queen City.

OTTAWA, April 18.—This was a very miscellaneous day in the House, and just before the adjournment at 10.45 to-night some fun was created by ten of the Government followers making a bolt and voting with the Opposition. The Opposition was in turn deserted by three of its members, Messrs. Charlton, Couture and Skinner, who threw in their lot with the Government. It came about in this way. At a late hour Mr. Kirkpatrick of Frontenac called up the second reading of his bill to permit American vessels to aid vessels wrecked or disabled in Canadian waters. Mr. Kirkpatrick made a vigorous speech in favor of the bill, which is nothing more or less than reciprocity in wreckage, the American Congress having passed or being about to pass a similar measure.

Sir John Macdonald was not present at the evening sitting and Sir Charles Tupper told the House that he could not allow the bill to be read a second time. He asked that the bill be withdrawn. The provisions of the bill, he said, were merely a part of a more extended question. The United States were very anxious to have this reciprocity in wreckage, but the Canadian Government would favor not merely this, but a more extensive measure of reciprocal coastal relations, especially with regard to the inland waters. In face of this it would not be wise to pass the bill.

Then there was a lively few minutes. In several parts of the Government camp there were mutterings of discord. After a brief but spirited discussion a vote was taken and Mr. Kirkpatrick's bill was thrown out by 84 to 61.

The Government bolters were the mover of the bill, Mr. Kirkpatrick, Sir Donald A. Smith, Mr. Labelle, Mr. Bergeron, Mr. Bell, Mr. Girouard, Dr. Bergin, Mr. Shanly, Mr. Therien and Mr. Coulombe.

Mr. Charlton, who is financially interested in the wreckage question, and Messrs. Couture and Skinner voted with the Government.

In the absence of the Minister of the Interior the Minister of Justice introduced the Territories Real Property Act. The bill authorizes the appointment of an inspector of registration in the Northwest in order to secure uniformity in the decisions and practices of the registration courts.

Mr. Boyle introduced his bill to prevent fraud by tree pedlars and commission men in the sale of nursery stock. These gentlemen work pretty much on the same lines as the "hayfork" and bogus seed fakirs.

The Minister of Justice told Sir Richard Cartwright that there was no intention to increase the salaries of the county judges in Ontario.

The Premier told Dr. Landerkin that it was not proposed during the present session to remove the duty on books imported for the use of mechanics' institutes.

The Postmaster-General, in answer to Mr. Charlton, said that he was aware that Deputy Postmaster Wm. Shannon, of Kingston, had been detected opening certain letters, that Shannon had fled the country, that he had returned and that orders had been given to proceed against him. Mr. Charlton, in connection with the same matter, put a notice on the paper for Friday, enquiring if the Government had paid or promised to pay any sums of money to any parties on account of Shannon's defalcations.

There was a long and spirited discussion on a motion for papers by Gen. Laurie with respect to opening up trade between Canada and Jamaica. The General said that the island imported in 1886 merchandise valued at $6,500,000, of which only $871,000 came from British possessions, while the United States sent in $3,301,000 worth. The General also stated that the people of Jamaica were anxious to extend their trade with Canada in preference to the United States.

Many of the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia members took part in the debate and it was admitted for the most part that there was a good opening for Canadians to trade on that island. Mr. Jones of Halifax, however, was one who could not see that there was anything in it. Some of the speakers favored a subsidy to a line of steamers to run to the Island.

The papers moved for by Gen. Laurie were in connection with the visit of the delegates from Jamaica to Ottawa in 1885, and were ordered to be brought down.

Dr. Ferguson's bill to incorporate the Detroit River Winker Bridge Railway Company, was considered in committee, read a third time and passed. The charter will not be granted, however, until the United States Congress passes a similar bill.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the act to incorporate the Southwestern Railway, the Canadian Pacific's line from Caughnawaga to the frontier of Northern New York. This is the bill that created so much lobbying in the Railway Committee. It passed the committee, but on motion for a third reading Dr. Bergin moved the six months' hoist. A lively debate followed, and before its conclusion the hour allotted for consideration of private bills expired and the talk was summarily stopped, the bill remaining on the order paper for a third reading.

Mr. McCarthy's bill for the better protection of railway employes was read a second time.

Wedding Bells at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, April 18.—The marriage of Miss Marjory Walker Hendrie, second daughter of Wm. Hendrie, the well-known contractor, and Arthur Douglas Braithwaite, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Calgary, N.W.T., which took place in the Central Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, was one of the most fashionable events of the kind which has occurred in this city for some time. The bride's dress was white satin, the skirt and bodice trimmed with pointe d' Alencon lace, and the train of silver brocade. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Lyle, B.D. Among the guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. George Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. Strathearn Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Muir, Mr. and Mrs. Bethune, Duffield, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sutherland, of Montreal; Mr. W. A. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Armour, of Toronto, and Dr. and Mrs. Fergusson, of Niagara Falls. The bridal couple left on the 5:35 p.m. train for the east.

Coming to Toronto for Points.

MONTREAL, April 18.—Lt.-Col. Hughes, the new Chief of Police, paid a visit to the Central Police Station yesterday in company with Ald. Jeannotte, who introduced him to the heads of the force. He then proceeded to the Recorder's office, where he took the customary oath. In compliance with the new chief's request, Deputy Chief Faegele has issued orders for all the available sergeants and men to appear in full uniform at the Central Police Station tomorrow afternoon for inspection. Chief Hughes stated that he hoped to see the telegraph patrol system introduced, four district police inspectors appointed, and a force of 300 men. He will make a thorough inspection of the force, man by man and station by station, and then recommend any changes he believes desirable in a written report to the Police Committee. He intends visiting Toronto to get a few points from Col. Grasett there.

CHAMBERLAIN IN RAPTURES.

Over Mr. Ritchie's Local Government Bill —An Estimate of Matthew Arnold.

LONDON, April 18.—Mr. Chamberlain is not only in raptures over Mr. Ritchie's Local Government Bill as being a measure even better than that which he himself, when in office, prepared, but he particularly admires the addition of selected councillors to the county boards, and the recognition of the publican's freehold in his pothouse. I would, however, urge upon the Government to call the selected councillors aldermen. We owe the system of aldermen being elected by the municipal councils to the intervention of the House of Lords, and it will be curious if we owe their presence on the county councils and their election by the county councils to Mr. Chamberlain. What I confess that I like in Mr. Chamberlain is that he ripens. When a Radical he became more radical each successive year. Now that he has gone over, each month shows a ripening of the Tory spirit that has taken possession of him. He has now become a stronger advocate of the aldermen and the publican than even Mr. Ritchie.

Matthew Arnold's Methods and Character.

NEW YORK, April 18.—George W. Smalley cables from London: As a rule the English papers do Matthew Arnold something like justice. They contrast the condition of criticism, and of general literature also, as it was thirty years ago and as it is to-day, and justly award to Mr. Arnold the credit of the change. They see how much lucidity and sanity, what new critical methods, and what new standards of judgments he introduced. Probably he is still too near for his real greatness to be fully seen. But never in his lifetime was there such an effort toward full acknowledgment of it as now. England knows that she has lost a poet of rare gifts; a critic of unequalled sagacity; a student, thinker and writer with whom, in all his varied capacities and excellences and genius for literature as a whole, she has none left to compare. There is, too, something like adequate recognition of the charm and dignity of his personal character. Men who knew him least come forward to say how simply and honorably he lived his life, how he was beloved by friends and even by acquaintances in every class.

An Old Controversy.

LONDON, April 18.—In the Commons this afternoon, Right Hon. E. Heneage moved the passage of the bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister. The motion occasioned a sharp debate, but was finally carried, 239 to 182.

Martyr O'Brien Interviewed.

LONDON, April 18.—Wm. O'Brien, in an interview yesterday, said the arrest of himself and Mr. Dillon simply proved that Mr. Balfour was compelled to recommence the work he began in September. Coercion always had been and would be a work of weariness and failure. He was glad to say that his health was never better, but while in prison he would, owing to Mr. Balfour's calumnious insinuations on a former occasion, refuse to make any communication in regard to his health to anybody. He hoped his countrymen also would avoid the subject.

A Verdict Against Bradlaugh.

LONDON, April 18.—In the Court of Queen's Bench to-day the trial of the suit of Mr. Peters against Mr. Bradlaugh, M.P., for £500 damages for libel in stating that Lord Salisbury had given Mr. Peters £25 to promote a meeting of workingmen in Trafalgar-square was begun. Lord Salisbury testified, and a verdict was returned awarding the plaintiff £300 damages.

Montreal Fears a Flood.

MONTREAL, April 18.—Montreal is on tip-toe of expectancy to-night. The water in the river has been rising fast all day and now stands at 32 feet 6 inches, a gain of four feet since yesterday. When the big ice shove last year caused such disastrous floods the water stood at exactly the same height as it does to-night, and many citizens will not sleep to-night, fearing a repetition of last year's experience which, peculiarly enough, began just twelve months ago on April 19.

CAPITAL CHAT.

The Federal Bank and the Toronto Board of Trade Bills Reported.

OTTAWA, April 18.—The Senate Committee on Banking and Commerce to-day reported, without amendment, the Federal Bank Bill and the Toronto Board of Trade Bill. Mr. G. W. Yarker, the Federal's General Manager, was present at the meeting and left for Toronto to-night. The passage of these bills is now guaranteed.

Senator W. E. Sanford of Hamilton to-day entertained these gentlemen at lunch at the Senate cafe: Senator Dickey, Senator Ogilvie, Senator Girard, Mr. Cockburn, M.P., Adam Brown, M.P., Hon. Geo. Kirkpatrick, M.P., J. B. Doble of Thessalon, and G. W. Yarker and Mr. Nicol Kingsmill, Q.C., of Toronto.

The Minister of Militia informed me to-day in answer to an inquiry that it was not his intention to form a brigade of artillery in Toronto this summer. The artillery strength of the militia will not be increased in any part of the country this year. There have been numerous inquiries from Toronto about this matter.

J. F. Carey, of the Toronto Seaman's Union, had an interview with the Minister of Marine this evening, and asked that more stringent laws for the protection of seamen be passed.

Senator Abbott, Sir George Stephen and Sir Donald A. Smith to-day sent in a petition to the House through Mr. Colby for the incorporation of a college for the higher education of women at Montreal, with branches or preparatory schools at Winnipeg and in the Northwest Territories.

The Montreal brokers have sent circulars to the members of the Commons urging them to vote against the Bucketshop Bill passed by the Senate. They have also sent up "Bob" MacGibbon, a young and vigorous young Q.C., to lobby against the bill.

CLOSING UP THEIR RANKS.

REPUBLICANS UNITING AGAINST A COMMON ENEMY.

The First Effect of Boulanger's Victory in the Nord a Happy One—Clemenceau's Clear-Sightedness and Courage—Paris Against the General.

LONDON, April 18.—The first effect of Gen. Boulanger's tremendous victory in the Nord is a happy one. Republicans are closing their ranks in the presence of a common enemy. No such spectacle has lately been seen in that conflict of selfish ambition called French politics. M. Ferry, the undisputed chief of the most moderate and most powerful section of the Republican party, has offered his support to the Radical Cabinet. That Cabinet is the creation of the men who invented Gen. Boulanger, and there was some fear that M. Clemenceau might come to terms with General Boulanger, or that M. Floquet might think it safer to compromise than to resist; or even that M. DeFreycinet, who is all things to all men, might offer him a place as chief of staff. Any of these courses would have meant surrender and France would have seen General Boulanger at the Elysee in a week. But, whatever hesitation there may have been in the cabinet, Clemenceau is a man who sees clearly and has the courage of his opinions and force of character enough to make his will law to the body over which Floquet presides. His penetration was at fault, no doubt, when he first took up Gen. Boulanger. He believed him to be a good Republican, a good soldier, and above all, a good administrator. "That," said Clemenceau, "is what we want most of all, a good minister of war." Now, Boulanger is more hostile to Clemenceau than to anybody else. That is an omen of good. There is no evidence that he has any important following in the army, or that a single regiment would support him in a coup d'etat, and Paris is against him. If the French once lose their heads anything may happen. But if the Floquet Cabinet and M. Clemenceau, with them welcome Ferry's help as loyally as it is offered, they ought to be strong enough to deal with anything, and if Gen. Saussier understands that he is to keep order in Paris, what can Gen. Boulanger, with neither army nor mob behind him, do?

German Advice.

BERLIN, April 18.—The Berlin Post suggests that MM. Floquet, De Freycinet and Goblet should warn Gen. Boulanger that he is unnecessarily playing a dangerous game in aiming at a dictatorship. They should, it says, after declaring war, send him to conduct operations, telling him if he is victorious the sovereignty of France will fall to him, while if defeated he will avoid the further disgrace of being a usurper.

THE BREWERS' STRIKE.

Master Brewers Jubilant—Little Inconvenience Expected.

NEW YORK, April 18.—In spite of the defection of Schmidt and Schwansenfugel, the master brewers were jubilant to-day. Most of the breweries are working to a certain extent, and very little inconvenience is expected.

Returning to Work.

NEWARK, N.J., April 18.—The locked-out brewery employes are returning to work here. The prospect is that all the breweries will be in operation to-morrow.

Switchmen Quit Work.

KANSAS CITY, April 18.—All the Burlington switchmen in the yards here quit work last night, the company refusing to reinstate a switchman whom they had discharged for assaulting the night yardmaster.

Fatal Affray in Louisiana.

JEANNERETTE, La., April 18.—Yesterday afternoon L. P. Provost, N. Provost, Sr., N. Provost, Jr., and A. Demorelle, all highly connected and members of the same family, met at the voting poll and an altercation took place between them. Pistol shots were exchanged, and Nicholas Provost, sr., fell dead, and his brother, L. P. Provost, was fatally wounded. Politics had nothing to do with the affray.

Teller Cameron and His Pals.

WINNIPEG, April 18.—A Pembina telegram states that absconding teller Cameron made arrangement with Velie and McKittrick that they were to get $10,000 of the booty, and send the balance to him when the excitement was over. Diamond was approached first but weakened, and then the other two came into the game. Cameron deplores having given the names away, as he had a promise that his pals would not be prosecuted.

Death of a Former Oshawan.

OSHAWA, April 18.—News was received here to-day of the death at Preston of Thomas Gibb, for many years and until recently a resident of Oshawa. He was for some years a member of the Town Council and also sat at the board of the County Council.

Mr. Conkling's Funeral.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Funeral services will be held over Senator Conkling's remains on Friday morning at 10 o'clock, in Trinity Chapel. The Rev. Morgan J. Dix will officiate. The remains will be taken to Utica for interment.

A Brute Shot by His Wife.

HURLEY, Idaho, April 18.—J. L. Smith was shot and killed yesterday by his wife. Smith had been very cruel to his family and was about to beat his wife when she shot him.

Flour Mills at Warkworth Burnt.

WARKWORTH, April 18.—The Norham flour mills, with outbuildings, owned by J. O. Pearson, were totally destroyed by fire last night. Loss about $6000; insured for $5000. Cause of fire unknown.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lym an Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 16 yds, Wide Ribbon, 5c.		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1888.

IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

MANY schemes have been put into practice to entrap the unwary and to procure money from them without giving a proper return for it. The towns and cities are not free from this kind of thing, but it is among the farming community that frauds look for their best harvests, because the farmers are usually men of means or property and once caught for a large amount the money can usually be got. The frequency with which new schemes have been planned and persons have been defrauded has led Mr. Adam Brown, M.P., to propose to make it a subject of Parliamentary enquiry, and he has given notice of the following resolution:—"That a special committee be appointed to inquire into the fraudulent practices which have prevailed and still prevail in various parts of the Dominion by which farmers have been and are induced to give their promissory notes and securities to a very large amount in the aggregate for seed, agricultural implements and other goods and merchandize by various false pretexts—the goods in some cases never being delivered and in other cases being comparatively worthless, the makers of such promissory notes being obliged to make payment while the perpetrators of these wrongs evade justice, and that such Committee have power to send for persons, papers and records and be instructed to report what remedies exist in such cases or what further remedies should be provided." This is a step in the right direction. Mr. Brown, although a member for a city constituency, has taken a step that may result in needed protection for farmers. The best safeguard will be to deal only with responsible agents or manufacturers, upon proper inspection of the articles, but if the proposed committee will devise methods of discouraging the sharks who have been only too successful in getting possession of unearned money it will do much good.

THE echoes of the Tory speeches against reciprocity had scarcely died away in the House of Commons when this true blue Tory Government of ours actually discriminated against British products and in favor of trade with the United States. Horrible dictu! What a commentary this on the hysterical screeching about "loyalty" that we have been hearing for the last few weeks.—Stratford Beacon.

The "Tory" speeches were not against reciprocity, but unrestricted reciprocity or commercial annexation. No duty has been collected on British products of the same kind as those admitted free from the United States. There has been no discrimination and there will not be any.

THE Opposition is charged with inconsistency because, while asserting the the fishery treaty is a surrender of Canadian rights, they did not oppose its ratification. But is not that in accordance with their policy of surrendering the Canadian markets, tariff and manufacturing into the hands of the United States? Can they not believe the treaty a surrender, and yet endorse it consistently with their general policy? Of course, it is not a surrender, but that does not effect the question of consistency on their part.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

MONTREAL TOPICS.

MONTREAL, April 17th, 1888.

DEAR REVIEW.—We are waiting, impatiently waiting, just now, to see what the river is going to do for us. At present it stands at 10 feet 6 inches above mean summer level. Two years ago to-day the flood began and went up and up till it was away up over the revetment wall and two days later the record was "burst" and the water left its mark on the warehouses, dwellings and factories of an enormous area of the city about 6 feet higher than it was ever known to touch before. Last year the water did not come within eighteen inches of the previous year. But even that was high enough to cause a fearful amount of damage, and made the citizens think that the thing was getting monotonous and they set about to devise means to keep the water out, building a dyke around the low portions of the city and a long coffer dam on the top of the revetment wall from the mouth of the Lachine Canal to the Canadian Pacific elevators. The sewers of the lower districts have nearly all been connected with the main sewer that runs through Craig-st., and at its mouth gates have been placed so that the water from the river cannot back up into it, and pumps have been erected with a capacity of discharging 74,000 gallons a minute. Some people think that the thousands of dollars that have been expended in the mud and wooden wall will be wasted, as the water will be sure to get through it it comes high enough, but we will wait and see.

The streets of the city have been in a fearful condition for the past few days. The street cars are only running on one street as yet, and on the other streets the street car company suspended both sleighs and omnibus for a few days entirely.

Just now the attention of the sporting fraternity, not only here but all over the Dominion, is largely centered in the great sweepstakes that will be drawn next month on the Derby; one of them is being got up by the steward of the Windsor hotel for $20,000, the other by Geo. Carslake, proprietor of the Mansion House, is for $25,000. I examined the books of the latter last week and from present appearances every ticket will be sold. Peterborough names are quite frequent on the pages and the following are a few of the numbers held by prominent business men of your city, 266, 466, 706, 866, 2,091, 2,092, 2,065, 2,215 and 3,121. There are two or three baby sweeps for $500, $1,000 and $2,500, but these are patronized mainly by residents and are not of much interest to outsiders. I could give your readers all the particulars as to how these sweeps are managed, but some of the boys might shout chestnuts, so I will refrain.

This week Erminie is being performed at the Academy of Music and the opera is just as popular as ever and drawing full houses every night.

THE DUKE.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

LAKEFIELD.

Correspondence of the Review.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.—On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Edward Fitzgerald, while driving through the village met with an accident. The neck yoke broke, letting the tongue fall to the ground, thereby sending the waggon up in the air, and depositing the passengers on terra firma. All escaped being injured, except for a good shaking up. The horses, freed from the waggon, made lively time for home. They were caught at Mr. Adam's, half way there.

THE CHAUTAUQUA CLASS.—This class meets at Mr. S. Sherin's residence on Monday night next.

CONCERT.—The concert in the P. C. A. Hall on Thursday night, the 12th inst., given by Messrs. Ketchum & Co., was quite a success. Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum's comic duet singing elicited hearty encores.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.—Messrs Joe. and Tom Watson are each building a house in front of the school on the same lot. Mr. Wm. Watson is building a house on his lot next to Mr. Abel Hendren. Mr. Caldwell is building a house opposite Mr. Samuel McKibbon's. Messrs. R. & G. Strickland are building a large boarding house on Regent-st., next the Grange general store.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpared are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hands and brain.

JERMYN.

Correspondence of the Review.

BROOM!—The farmers in this vicinty are wishing jack frost would cut his visit short so as to allow them to commence their spring work.

LIME BURNING.—Mr. A. Brown has commenced lime burning. He will always have on hand the very best quality at low prices to suit the times. All orders strictly attended to. Price list sent free.

NEEDS ATTENTION.—A funeral might possibly be avoided if some of our city fathers would look after the bridge crossing the river that is in a very dangerous state. A word to the wise is sufficient.

REORGANIZED.—The Jermyn Canadian Band that disbanded last fall is shortly to be reorganized. We are expecting some choice music this summer.

POSTPONED.—On account of the bad weather the lecture that the Rev. Mr. Johnson intended giving is postponed till a more favorable season.

ILL.—Mr. Thos. Fitzgerald, an old and respected farmer, is suffering from a cancer. His recovery is doubtful.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

LANG.

Correspondence of the Review.

STOCK PURCHASE.—Mr. Jas. H. Fife has sold to Mr. Thomas English his general purpose stallion "Scottish Champion." Success, Tom.

THE BRIDGE.—The stone work of our bridge is now completed, but the iron, we understand, will not be ready for some time.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Harry Shearer, who has been very ill for the last ten days, is, we are glad to hear, somewhat better.

RETURNED.—Mr. Thos. Shearer, who for the last three years has resided in town, has returned to this his native village.

SAFELY ARRIVED.—The many friends of Mr. Harvey Fife will be pleased to learn that he has arrived safely at Calgary, N. W.T., and is loud in his praises of that country.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE COMBINE COMMITTEE.

Witnesses Complaining of Wrong Treatment—Stoves, Barb Wire and Oatmeal.

OTTAWA, April 18.—If Mr. Clarke Wallace and some of the members of the Combine Committee are not more careful in their treatment of witnesses the sittings and subsequent findings of that body will develop into a farce. Mr. D. R. Ross of Embro, Secretary of the Oatmeal Millers' Association, complains loudly of his treatment while giving evidence this morning. The Conservative and Liberal members of the committee are not agreeing any too well, and instead of witnesses being allowed to tell what they know under oath they are too often asked to admit things which they do not believe. "There should be no politics in the committee," said a witness to The World this evening. Besides it is charged that in many instances personal friends of members of the committee are subpœnaed to give evidence in preference to others who would make more valuable witnesses. It is to be hoped Chairman Wallace will make a note of this and give everyone fair play.

H. R. Ives, wholesale hardware dealer and manufacturer of Montreal, could tell nothing new about the alleged stove combination. Mr. Ives was also examined concerning the barb wire trade, he being president of the Canada Wire Company, one of three concerns engaged in the manufacture in Canada. He manufactures under the Washburn & Moen patents, paying the patentees a royalty of 15 cents per 100 pounds. This royalty is higher in Canada than the States. The price of this wire is 4 cents a pound in the States, and the duty is 1½ cents. The price in Canada is 5½ and 5¾ cents per pound wholesale and 6 cents retail. The quantity manufactured is between 2500 and 3000 tons a year and there is hardly any imported. There has been an attempt made to make dealers sell at not less than a minimum price agreed upon but the minimum, it is claimed, only allows them a small commission for handling the wire.

D. R. Ross, Secretary of the Ontario Oatmeal Millers' Association, was examined. He said there were about sixty mills in Ontario, and four of the largest of these would be able to supply the whole Dominion. The total power of the mills, calculating 300 working days in the year, was upwards of 9,000,000 bushels of oats, or 900,000 barrels of oatmeal, but the consumption of the Dominion last year was only 160,000 barrels. There were few oatmeal mills in Canada outside of Ontario. There is hardly any oatmeal imported and Canada cannot at present export to Great Britain as oatmeal there is a dollar less than here. This had not been the case before 1887, as it had up to that time been profitable to export to Great Britain. But the scanty oat crop in Canada put up prices and stopped the export.

This association was formed last June and its principal object is to make a profit for the members. Previously oatmeal had often been sold for less than the cost of the oats. The president is Mr. Scott of the firm of McKay & Co. of Ottawa, the largest manufacturers in the Dominion. Twenty-four of the sixty millers belong to the association. Each oatmeal miller is allotted a certain percentage as his share of the product and for every barrel he sells above this he has to pay the association 30 cents, which in turn is paid to those who, by reason of making bad meal or otherwise, have not been able to sell up to the percentage of the product. Last month fourteen of the twenty-four were short and ten were over. The principle of this arrangement has been taken from a railway pool book in use in the States. Besides the mills in the association there are ten others paid a certain sum not to run, and these receive from $300 to $800 a year each, in all $3800.

Mr. Ross says there is no combination in the flour mill business, but he guesses the millers would be glad enough to get one if they could.

The insurance combinations will be taken up to-morrow.

The C.L.A. Officers for 1888.

The election of officers for 1888 at the Canadian Lacrosse Association convention at Paris on Tuesday resulted as follows: Hon. President, Major R. B. Hamilton, Toronto; President, D. A. Ross, Ontario; First Vice-President, R. W. Nesbitt, Woodstock; Second Vice-President, Dr. J. F. Ross, Toronto; Secretary-Treasurer, H. O'Loughlin, St. Catharines.

The council elected was as follows: A. H. Baird, Brants of Paris; J. E. Bell, Young Torontos; Dr. Lake of Bright; Geo. Phemister, Niagara; J. Vance, Ingersoll; Fred Frank, Brantford; B. Maguire, Orangeville; C. V. Howell, Young Brantfords; W. McCutcheon, Shelburne, and W. H. Griffin, Stratford.

The following clubs announced their intention to enter for the senior championship: Ontarios of Toronto, Brantford, Toronto, Beavers of Woodstock, Athletics of St. Catharines and Brants of Paris.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WARE ROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming. 61

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1yd&w

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2 25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. per ya Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS.

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE WEEKLY REVIEW.

CANNED GOODS
—AT—
MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.
ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN.

VEGETABLES.
BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.
SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.
APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER
—AT—
SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON
Issurer of Marriage Licenses.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & w8

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Fresh to strong west to north winds generally fair weather, stationary, followed by a little lower temperature.

How Our Stock Ranges.

As we told you a day or two ago our millinery and mantle department is very complete. What have we got? you may ask. Well, about everything worth having—certainly everything desirable and fashionable, starting with the neat, natty and cheap goods and ending with the richest and most expensive—because the best. We have between these two extremes every kind of hat or bonnet, trimmed and untrimmed. Every desirable material made up or in the piece—for mantles and dolmans, in every reliable grade and great variety of patterns. Give the golden lion a call if only to see what we are doing.

The City Battalion.

The different companies of the 57th Battalion are preparing to commence drilling. Since the departure of Captain Burke, for London, No. 5 company has been without a commanding officer. Captain Wes. Miller, at present Quartermaster of the battalion, is spoken of favorably for the vacant position and as he is a popular officer with the men, there is no doubt that he would soon bring the company up to a good standard of efficiency. It is proposed by No. 5 to commence drilling at once, using the streets and squares until the drill shed is dry enough. The other companies will also commence at an early day.

The Grenadiers.

Col. J. Z. Rogers on Wednesday received a letter from the colonel of the 10th Royal Grenadiers, Toronto, stating upon what terms that gallant regiment was willing to visit Peterborough, on the coming 24th of May. In the first place they require an invitation and then they ask that the town provide them with board and lodging during their sojourn here. The citizens would be glad to have the regiment in Peterborough and are prepared to give them a cordial reception and use them well, but they are not by any means prepared to grant all the would be visitors ask, as they cannot see what benefits would result from the visit to compensate for the outlay that would be required. Therefore it is not probable that the Grens. will come to Peterborough. They may go to Guelph.

From Orillia.

Considerable excitement has been caused in Orillia by the declared intention of the G. T. R. authorities to close up the station hitherto used for the business of their Midland branch and in future to handle their freight and passenger traffic solely at the N. and N. W. branch station. It is also proposed to cease using that portion of the N. and N. W. track between Orillia and Atherley, including the bridge over the Narrows. The lines of the Midland and N. and N. W. roads run parallel to and quite close to each other, and yet closer to the Midland line runs the waggon-road between the places named. This proximity of the latter to a railway for nearly three miles is the cause of many accidents through runaway horses, and to the many people whose business calls them to drive over it, this piece of road is a veritable bugbear. It is felt by the townspeople that if either of these sections of railway must be closed in the public interest that which is the nearest the waggon road is the one to close. A deputation of leading citizens of Orillia, composed of Messrs. J. B. Thompson, mayor, Wm. Ramsay, deputy-reeve, H. S. Scadding, J. W. Slaven, C. Moore, J. J. Hatley, G. E. Whiton and W. M. Harvey, arrived in Peterborough on Wednesday, to consult with Mr. J. G. Macklin, Divisional Engineer, they offering on behalf of the town to pay any reasonable proportion of the expense necessary to improve the grade of the N. & N. W. line, if the G.T.R. people can thus be induced to meet the views of the citizens. They also urge the keeping open of the Midland station. The representations of the deputation will be considered by the company.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. d89

Pain-Killer will cure Cramps or Pains in any part of the system.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS
AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM
Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1,00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming. Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.
(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

High and Dry.

Beautiful building lots for sale on easy terms. Between 30 and 40 sold in the last few months. JOHN CARLISLE.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Seriously Ill.

We regret to learn that Mr. Walter Paterson, sr., one of our oldest and most respected citizens, is lying seriously ill at his residence on Hunter-st. Mr. Paterson is eighty years of age and it is greatly feared that his illness may prove fatal.

S. S. Meeting.

The teachers and scholars of the Charlotte-st. Methodist Sunday school will meet in the Sunday school room this evening at 7 o'clock sharp, to make arrangements for the coming Anniversary on the 29th and 30th April.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

Looks Like It.

It looks very much from the remarks of the G.T.R. officials, as if the company will abandon the proposed new route north from Smith-st., to make the connection with the Chemong Lake road. The reason given is the excessive prices asked for land by people residing in that locality. The old route has been surveyed and staked out and it will in all probability be adopted.

Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society will be held in the school room of St. Paul's Church, on Tuesday evening, 24th inst., at 8 o'clock. A good programme has been provided. Refreshments will be served; admission 25 cents. All are cordially invited. As this will be the last of the season special efforts are being made to make it the best. 6d91

Early Closing.

The grocers in town are making a movement in the direction of adopting the provisions of the early closing law and a petition is in circulation for signatures. All the large grocers appear favorable to the movement, but the great difficulty appears to be to get the outside "corner" grocers to sign, as they claim that early closing would almost kill their business. The hardware merchants have also made a move and the stove and tinware dealers are expected to follow suit.

The Street Numbers.

The work of numbering the houses goes on apace and many of the merchants are prepared to adopt the system as soon as everything is ready. The numbers procured from Montreal are altogether too expensive and the same styles exactly can be procured here from the Lock Company for about one half the money asked by the foreign dealers. The work is handsome and first-class, and there is little doubt that the citizens generally will adopt these numbers.

HE who seeks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. d89

Died at the Gaol.

Mrs. Johanna Walsh, confined in the gaol as a vagrant, died this morning. The deceased was about 70 years of age and had been suffering for some time. She formerly resided in Douro and had been separated from her husband for a number of years. She lived in Ashburnham for some time and afterwards in Peterborough. She was sent to an institution in Toronto, but refused to remain there and about four months ago she was sent to gaol here. An inquest will be held by Coroner Bell to-morrow morning. Her husband, named John Walsh, still resides in Ashburnham.

Disturbing the Army.

A young man named Henry Marshall was charged at the Police Court this morning with acting in a disorderly manner at the Salvation Army barracks on Sunday, April 8th. The defendant did not appear and Officer Adams proved service of the summons. The evidence of two Army officers was taken to the effect that Marshall came to the afternoon meeting and refused to leave when ordered. He endeavored to raise a disturbance and struck at one of the officers. The scuffle drew quite a crowd. The whole thing occurred in the porch near the entrance door. The case was enlarged until to-morrow morning.

"For delicacy and richness of flavor, use "Royal Extracts."

THE 24TH.

Perfecting Arrangements for the Queen's Birthday Celebration.

The joint committee of the 57th Battalion and the Amateur Athletic Association met on Wednesday and the preparations for a grand celebration of the Queen's birthday on May 24th were given a forward movement. Those entrusted with the management are determined to make it a complete success and they are going about it in a way that will attain their object.

The programme outlined at the committee meeting will be an attractive and interesting one. It is proposed to have a baseball match in the forenoon on the Association grounds. The battalion will have a march out in the morning and will proceed to the grounds, and at twelve o'clock a fue de joie will be fired.

In the afternoon the military will again turn out, and they are arranging to have other battalions present to join with them. At the Association grounds the sports will be carried out. The programme of sports contains several unique features. There will be running races, jumping and athletic exercises, and also a company race, an animal race (a very amusing feature), bicycle races, catching the greasy pig, etc. Tilting at the ring will be one of the most entertaining events, and there will be a tug of war between members of the battalion and some other organization. For all the different events handsome prizes will be offered.

The management is in first-class hands and the celebration promises to be a very creditable one and an attraction that will draw a large number of people to to the town.

For Bronchitis and Asthma, try Allen's Lung Balsam; the best cough prescription known.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers can always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. d89

At Lindsay.

Mr. Herbert Wallis, of Montreal, Mechanical Superintendent of the Grand Trunk Railway system, passed through on Wednesday on his way to Lindsay, to inspect the work shops, etc., there. He was accompanied by a number of local officials.

At Bobcaygeon.

A telegram was received by Officer Adams this morning stating that a burglary had been committed at Bobcaygeon last night and giving the description of two suspected persons, but not stating who was burglarized or what was stolen.

Need Repairs.

The old fire alarm bell in the south Ward has stood the test of time for some years, but the high wind of the last few days has shaken the supporting posts pretty badly and if the old pot metal article is of any use, repairs had better be made at once.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple Syrup from R. Kidd at the Pantry. d89

Levelling Up.

Simcoe-st., in front of the town buildings, where the sewer was laid down last year, is being levelled up, gravel being placed in the hollow, instead of the mud formerly placed there. On Aylmer-st. north, Smith-st. and other streets, where the mains were laid last fall, the same thing is being done.

Noisy Boys.

The police last night were called on to disperse gangs of small boys from Aylmer and Murry-sts., and Water and Dublin-sts. They made such a noise that the residents in the vicinity of the places named felt compelled to complain. The boys must not make such noise or the police will stop it.

For Boston.

Mr. Wm. English, this morning, shipped to Boston, Mass., two of his celebrated basswood hunting canoes. They were varnished and copper fastened. This morning he also received another order for one of the same make, from Mr. Jonathan Dixon, of Boston, a former resident of this town. The English canoes are in use in almost every quarter of the globe and that they give satisfaction is amply proven by the fact that the number of orders increases yearly.

Another Break.

The Water Company's main, on Water-st., just north of St. Paul's Church, burst last night, on account of the frost of last winter not yet being out of the ground and pipes. The water must have flowed for a considerable time, as the course of the stream can be traced down as far as the post office. As soon as possible the valves above were closed down and the flow of water shut off. The present break is only a few feet south of the one that occurred a couple of nights previously. Men were set at work early this morning to repair the damage and prevent inconvenience to the consumers in that neighborhood.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—We are again requested to state that it is not compulsory to put up street numbers.

—Mrs. Melville Millar, of Orillia, formerly of Peterborough, is visiting friends in town.

—Mr. J. W. Flavelle, of Toronto, a former well known resident of Peterborough, is in town to-day.

—A whole trainload of telegraph poles from Kinmount arrived on the G. T. R., today.

—The Water Company's men are at work to-day fitting the stand pipes, to supply the watering carts.

—The Riverside Lacrosse Club will hold a meeting at the Commercial House on Friday evening.

—The storm windows and doors that have done good duty during the winter are being rapidly taken down.

—A uniform rate of two cents per registered letter now prevails over Canada and the United States.

—A brace of tramps claiming to come from Toronto were lodgers at the police station last night.

—The dog tags for 1888 are ready for distribution, but so far the demand has not been brisk by any means.

—All the Campbellford hotel keepers were fined $50 and costs each, for breach of the Scott Act, on Tuesday.

—Gardening operations have commenced in some quarters of the town, but they are not by any means general yet.

—Quantities of new ties are being placed along the G.T.R. track, from McDonnel-st. north, to replace those now laid down.

—A strong effort is being made to organize a baseball club at Belleville. Last year they had a crack professional team.

—Up to date officers McGinty and Stewart have not been served with any papers in the threatened suit for illegal arrest.

—An offer has been made to furnish Stratford with forty electric lights to burn all night on 250 nights in the year for $3,500 or $87.50 per light.

—It is a noticeable fact that many of the large poplars and other shade trees that have grown too bushy are either being cut down or trimmed.

—George-st. north of McDonnel is to be scraped for the distance of a few blocks, as in the opinion of the inspector it does not need it any further up.

—In many places the dust was flying yesterday afternoon and evening and the services of Terry Smith and his watering carts were badly needed.

—Mr. G. C. Clark has purchased the brick house in the first Ward erected by Mr. Geo Elliott. The price paid, we understand, was something over $2,000.

—Prof. Johnston, the "faith cure man," with the long locks and the white fur on his coat, who did business here some months ago, is located at Bowmanville.

—Another dog got on the C. P. R. bridge yesterday in front of a freight train, but instead of being killed he was tossed into the river and swam out uninjured.

—The police station, since its recent cleaning, smells as sweet as possible and those who are compelled to remain about the premises appreciate the difference.

—R. S. White, Montreal Gazette, an old Peterborough boy, was presented with a handsome epergne by his colleagues of the press gallery in view of his approaching marriage.

—Organ recitals, by persons applying for the position of organist of St. Andrew's church, have been in progress several days this week. A choice will probably be made at an early date.

—Some of the awnings along the main streets are too low. They should be placed at such a height that a seven foot man could walk under them without touching the top of his hat.

—Two loads of hay, of equally good quality, were sold on the market this morning. One brought $13 and the other only $10.25. The man who got the cheap load knew how to buy.

—Mr. Geo. A. Bennet, third son of the Rev. Wm. Bennet, of Springville, formerly of Peterborough, died on the 18th of April. The funeral takes place on Saturday to the Little Lake Cemetery.

—At Brockville, the chief engineer of the fire department is also "repairer of the town pumps." Our authority does not state whether he is caretaker of them or not, but he probably is.

SUMMER COMFORT

Doesn't always depend on the circumstances of location. It far oftener depends on the exercise of good judgment in the selection of

Summer Clothing.

People are to a large extent, dependent on well selected Clothing for comfort during the hot months. All mankind in the country are interested in our stock of Seasonable Clothes and Garments, a stock that embraces every New and Popular Light Weight fabric, made up in the Best and Most Stylish manner. Our prices are just as right as our Goods and both satisfactory.

T. Dolan & Co

DIED.

BENNET.—At Springville, on the 18th April, 1888, GEORGE A. BENNET, third son of Rev. Wm. Bennet.

The funeral will leave his father's residence, Lot 23 in 11th Con., Cavan, on Saturday, the 21st April, at 10 o'clock a.m., and proceed to the Little Lake Cemetery, Peterborough.

Sale Register.

FRIDAY, April 27.—By Chas. Stapleton, Auctioneer. Walnut Furniture, collection Stuffed Birds, etc., the property of Mr. J. J. Howden. Sale at the residence, Lock-st., town, and to begin at 12.30, sharp.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE
—OF—
WORSTED COATINGS
Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.
GEORGE STREET.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St. Peterborough.

D. BELLECHEM,
Funeral Director,
CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.
TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

TO ADVERTISERS.
A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.
To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1mw16 10 Spruce-st., New York

WANTED.
1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.
C. B. ROUTLEY.

REMOVAL SALE

We find our present store too small for our growing trade and have rented the store lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Alexander, which when fitted up will be one of the most attractive places of business on George-st. On THURSDAY, the 19th of APRIL, we commence a

60 DAYS GREAT CLEARING SALE.

It will be to our advantage to clear out our present stock even at cost. Remember our Goods are new and stylish. That we do not deal in goods out of date and expensive at any price.

During our Great Sale we will convince the public that we mean what we say when we promise bargains in every department.

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

H. S. GRIFFIN & Co.,
5d99 CRYSTAL BLOCK. 1w16

Want of Sleep

Is sending thousands annually to the insane asylum; and the doctors say this trouble is alarmingly on the increase. The usual remedies, while they may give temporary relief, are likely to do more harm than good. What is needed is an Alterative and Blood-purifier. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is incomparably the best. It corrects those disturbances in the circulation which cause sleeplessness, gives increased vitality, and restores the nervous system to a healthful condition.

Rev. T. G. A. Coté, agent of the Mass. Home Missionary Society, writes that his stomach was out of order, his sleep very often disturbed, and some impurity of the blood manifest; but that a perfect cure was obtained by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frederick W. Pratt, 424 Washington street, Boston, writes: "My daughter was prostrated with nervous debility. Ayer's Sarsaparilla restored her to health."

William F. Bowker, Erie, Pa., was cured of nervousness and sleeplessness by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for about two months, during which time his weight increased over twenty pounds.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1888.

TORONTOS AGAIN BEATEN.

SMITH PITCHED A GOOD GAME, BUT WAS BADLY SUPPORTED.

The Montrealers Will Remain in the N.A.L.A.—Racing at Memphis and in England—The American Association Season Commenced—Spots of Sport.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 18.—To-day's game was a battle royal between the pitchers, Knauss, who has been making a phenomenal record this season, for the home team and St Smith for the Canadian visitors. So far as honors went the Toronto's pitcher had the best of it, but he was given poor support and towards the last was plainly discouraged, although the batting was very light. He fielded his position well and Thayer held him fairly. There was but meagre attendance, though the weather was very fair. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Wheeling	0	0	3
Toronto	0	2	1

Earned runs: Toronto 2, Wheeling none.
Batteries: Knauss and York, Smith and Thayer.

Opening of the American Association Season.

BUFFALO, April 18.—The American Association championship season opened to-day. All the clubs competed.

At St. Louis:	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	2	0	1
Louisville	0	0	0

Batteries: King and Boyle; Ramsey and Keerins. Umpire, McQuaid.

At Brooklyn:	R.	H.	E.
Brooklyn	3	0	1
Cleveland	0	0	1

Batteries: Caruthers and Bushong; Crowell and Zimmer. Umpire: Gaffney.

At Philadelphia:	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	1	0	1
Baltimore	0	2	3

Batteries: Seward and Zinn, Kilroy and Trott. Umpire: Ferguson.

At Kansas City	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	0	0	1
Cincinnati	1	2	0

Batteries: Parker and Donlon, Mullane and Kennan. Umpire: Doescher.

Fast Time at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 18.—The weather here to-day was fine and track fast. The results follow:—

FIRST RACE—Purse $300, a handicap for all ages; ¾ mile.

J. E. Adams' b. h. Sam Harper, jr., a. by Sam Harper—Lucy Cherry, 109 1
Chas. & Cas' ch. f. Eugenea, 3, 85 2
P. Corrigan's b. c. Bonnie King, 3, 92 3
Spinnette, 85, also ran. Time—1.16.

Pool odds: $50 against Sam Harper, jr., and 1 to 3 Huntress. Pools: Huntress, $25; Sam Harper, jr., $10; Spinnette, $15; Bonnie King, $7.

SECOND RACE—Purse $300, for 3-year-olds; selling allowances; 5 furlongs.

Sally O, 102 1
Irish Dan, 102 2
Harry, 102 3
Bob Forsythe, 102 0
Time—1.04½.

Pool odds—5 to 2 against Sally O, 4 to 1 Irish Dan. Pools—Harry, $25; Sally O., $10; Bob Forsythe, $6; Irish Dan, $2.

THIRD RACE—Chickasaw Club Stakes, for all ages, $5 each at entry, $15 additional for starters; $700 added; selling allowances; horses entered to be sold for $4000; to carry full weight; one mile.

E. Corrigan's ch.c. Persimmons, 5, by King Ban—Aumoile, 86 1
La Massey Bros.' ch.m. Little Minnie, 5, 79 2
E. Leigh's ch.f. Lucy Johnston, 4, 97 3
Chicago Stable's br.g. Ladino, 7, 99 0
Bell & Co.'s ch.c. Volet, 3, 95 0
P. Corrigan's b.g. Del Norte, 4, 88 0
Time—1.43.

Pool odds: Even against Persimmons, 3 to 1 Little Minnie.

Pools: Persimmons, $40, Hot d'Or and Lafitte, $20 each, and Little Minnie, $15 each; the field, $11.

FOURTH RACE—Purse $250, for all ages; selling allowances; 7 furlongs.

J. Shelley's b.h. Surprise, 5, by Damon—Pearl, 105 1
T. Kiley's ch.c. Balabac, 3, 102 2
J. M. Brown's ch.m. Lida L., 5, 97 3
Dean, Closer, Dan Wood, Effie Hardy, Tudor and Jack Brown also ran. Time—1.31.

Pool odds—10 to 1 against Surprise, 4 to 5 Balance.
Pools—Lida L., Dago and Balance, $6 each; Jack Brown, $5; the field, $8.

FIFTH RACE—Purse, $300; a handicap for all ages, 1 mile and a quarter over hurdles.

E. Corrigan's ch.c. Ten Times, 4, by Ten Broeck—St. Mary, 102 1
C. L. Hair's ch. g. Ascoli, 5, 155 2
M. T. Donahoe's b. g. Referee, 5, 150 3
Surprise fell at the second jump.
Time—2.22.

Pool odds 3 to 5 against Ten Times. Pools—Referee and Ten Times, $25 each; Ascoli, $11; Surprise, $5.

Cedarhurst Declarations.

The following horses have been declared out from the two big events to be decided at the spring meeting of the Rockaway Steeplechase Association, at Cedarhurst, L. I.:

Grand National Steeplechase.—Swarthmore, "Blue Day, Littlefellow II., Tattler, Ed Gilman, St. Augustine, Tenfellow, Willie Palmer, The Bourbon, Westmoreland and Sam Emery.

Queens County Hurdle Race.—Blue Day, Littlefellow II., Tattler, Ed Gilman, Major Pickett, Tenfellow, Willie Palmer, Elwood, St. Augustine and Sam Emery.

Racing in England.

LONDON, April 18.—The race for the Babraham Plate to-day was won by Mr. Lowther's King Monmouth, with Lord Lurgan's Torchlight second, and Mr. Sherwood's Bessie third. There were ten starters.

Valuable Horses Destroyed by Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Fire at Palo Alto last night burned a portion of the stables of Senator Leland Stanford. The following horses were roasted to death: Clifton Belle, Rexford, Emma Robertson, Trubador, Lowell and Howard. Norlaine, which has a trotting record the fastest for a yearling in the world, is not dead, but it is impossible for it to live. Two or three others will probably die. Loss, $200,000.

Montreals Will Remain in the N.A.L.A.

MONTREAL, April 18.—The rumors that the Montreal club would resign from the N.A.L.A. because of the failure of the Cornwall convention to legislate on the professionalism question, received quietus to-night, when delegates to the convention reported and it was decided to remain in the association, though they will not play in the series. President Stevenson decided after reconsideration to remain in the presidency of the association, and as Cornwalls to-day signified their adhesion to the schedule arrangements for the N.A.L.A. the season may be said to be complete.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Gastoria

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

"What is it, Jenkins? Speak!" says Lady Rodney, rising from her chair, and staying him, as he would leave the room, by an imperious gesture.

"Oh, my lady, if I must speak," cries the old man, "but it is terrible news to tell without a word of warning. Mr. Paul Rodney is dying; he shot himself half an hour ago, and is lying now at Rawson's Lodge in the beech wood."

Mona grows livid, and takes a step forward.

"Shot himself! How?" she says, hoarsely, her bosom rising and falling tumultuously. "Jenkins, answer me."

"Tell us, Jenkins," says Sir Nicholas, hastily.

"It appears he had a pocket-pistol with him, Sir Nicholas, and going home through the wood he stumbled over some roots, and it went off injuring him fatally. It is an internal wound, my lady. Dr. Bland, who is with him, says there is no hope."

"No hope!" says Mona, with terrible despair in her voice; "then I have killed him. It was I returned him that pistol this evening. It is my fault,—mine. It is I have caused his death."

This thought seems to overwhelm her. She raises her hands to her head, and an expression of keenest anguish creeps into her eyes. She sways a little, and would have fallen, but that Jack Rodney, who is nearest to her at this moment, catches her in his arms.

"Mona," says Nicholas, roughly, laying his hand on her shoulder, and shaking her slightly, "I forbid you talking like that. It is nobody's fault. It is the will of God. It is morbid and sinful of you to let such a thought enter your head."

"So it is really, Mrs. Geoffrey, you know," says Nolly, placing his hand on her other shoulder to give her a second shake. "Nick's quite right. Don't take it to heart; don't now. You might as well say the gunsmith who originally sold him the fatal weapon is responsible for this unhappy event, as—as that you are."

"Besides, it may be an exaggeration," suggests Geoffrey; "he may not be as bad as they say."

"I fear there is no doubt of it, sir," says Jenkins, respectfully, who in his heart of hearts looks upon this timely accident as a direct interposition of Providence. "And the messenger who came (and who is now in the hall, Sir Nicholas, if you would wish to question him) says Dr. Bland sent him up to let you know at once of the unfortunate occurrence."

Having said all this without a break, Jenkins feels he has outdone himself, and retires on his laurels.

Nicholas, going into the outer hall, cross-examines the boy who has brought the melancholy tidings, and, having spoken to him for some time, goes back to the library with a face even graver than before.

"The poor fellow is calling for you, Mona, incessantly," he says. "It remains with you to decide whether you will go to him or not. Geoffrey, you should have a voice in this matter, and I think she ought to go."

"Oh, Mona, do go—do," entreats Dottie, who is in tears. "Poor, poor fellow! I wish now I had not been so rude to him."

"Geoffrey, will you take me to him?" says Mona, rousing herself.

"Yes. Hurry, darling. If you think you can bear it, you should lose no time. Minutes, even, I fear, are precious in this case."

Then some one puts on her again the coat she had taken off such a short time since, and some one else puts on her seal-skin cap and twists her black lace round her white throat, and then she turns to go on her sad mission. All their joy is turned into mourning, their laughter to tears.

Nicholas, who had left the room again, returns now, bringing with him a glass of wine, which he compels her to swallow, and then, pale and frightened, but calmer than she was before, she leaves the house and starts with Geoffrey for the gamekeeper's lodge, where lies the man they had so dreaded, impotent in the arms of death.

Night is creeping up over the land. Already in the heavens the pale crescent moon just born rides silently,—

"W'r the auld moon in his arme"

A deep hush has fallen upon everything. The air is cold and piercing. Mona shivers, and draws even closer to Geoffrey, as, mute, yet full of saddest thought, they move through the leafless wood.

As they get within view of the windows of Rawson's cottage, they are met by Dr. Bland, who has seen them coming, and has hurried out to receive them.

"Now, this is kind,—very kind," says the little man, approvingly, shaking both their hands. "And so soon, too; no time lost. Poor soul! he is calling incessantly for you, my dear Mrs. Geoffrey. It is a sad case,—very—very. Away from every one he knows. But come in; come in."

He draws Mona's hand through his arm, and goes towards the lodge.

"Is there no hope?" asks Geoffrey, gravely.

"None; none." It would be useless to say otherwise. Internal hemorrhage has set in. A few hours, perhaps less, must end it. He knows it himself, poor boy!"

"Oh! can nothing be done?" asks Mona, turning to him with eyes full of entreaty.

"My dear, what I could do, I have done," says the little man, patting her hand in his kind, fatherly fashion; "but he has gone beyond human skill. And now one thing; you have come here, I know, with the tender thought of soothing his last hours; therefore I entreat you to be calm and very quiet. Emotion will only distress him, and if you feel too nervous, you know—perhaps—eh?"

"I shall not be too nervous," says Mona; but her face blanches afresh even as she speaks; and Geoffrey sees it.

"If it is too much for you, say so, darling," whispers he, "or shall I go with you?"

"It is better she should go alone," says Dr. Bland. "He would be quite unequal to two; and, besides,—pardon me,—from what he has said to me there were unpleasant passages between him and you."

"There were," confesses Geoffrey, reluctantly, and in a low tone. "I wish now from my soul it had been otherwise. I regret much that has taken place."

"We all have regrets at times, dear boy, the very best of us," says the little doctor, blowing his nose; "who among us is faultless? And really the circumstances were very trying for you,—very—eh? Yes, of course, one understands, you know; but death heals all divisions, and he is hurrying to his last account, poor lad, all too soon."

They have entered the cottage by this time, and are standing in the tiny hall.

"Open that door, Mrs. Geoffrey?" says the doctor, pointing to his right hand. "I saw you coming, and have prepared him for the interview. I shall be just here, or in the next room, if you should want me. But I can do little for him more than I have done."

To be Continued.

5,000 YARDS

—OF—

SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS

—AT—

SIX CENTS A YARD

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

In brief and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered livers misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents

The Contract Cancelled.

WINNIPEG, April 18.—In the Legislature to-day, the Attorney-General announced that he had cancelled The Call printing contract.

DAILY MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 19.

There is on passage to the United Kingdom at present, 2,204,000 quarters of wheat and 377,000 quarters of corn; to other European countries, 326,000 wheat, and 61,000 corn.

Yesterday's receipts at New York were: Flour, 11,220 bbls. and 13,406 sacks; c. meal, 310 and 1300; wheat, 550 bush; corn, 30,800; oats, 46,000; rye, 46; barley, 650; malt, 6,000; lard, 2410 tierces; pork 300 bbls.; whisky, 583.

Yesterday's exports from New York were: Flour, 6866 bbls and 16,141 sacks; wheat, 240 bush; corn, 8043; oats, 1508; pork, 602 bbls; lard, 2,126,478 tierces.

Receipts at Chicago by the car lot yesterday were: Winter wheat, 8; spring, 33; corn, 87; oats, 80; rye, none; barley, 54.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes, wheat and corn quiet; cargoes on passage, wheat firm, corn slow. Mark Lane—Wheat firm, corn firm, flour steady; good cargoes Australian off coast, 34s; was 34s; present and following month, 33s 9d, was 33s 3d; Walla off coast, 32s 3d, was 32s; good shipping No. 1 Cal., prompt sail, 33s 6d, was 33s 3d; ditto nearly due, 33s 6d, was 33s 3d. French country markets firm; Paris, wheat firm; flour a turn dearer. Weather in England showery. Liverpool—Spot wheat and corn rather easy; corn 3s 3d, 4d cheaper.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat firm to-day, with demand fair and holders offering sparingly; corn firm, demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 7d to 6s 9d, red winter 6s 8d to 6s 9d, No. 1 Cal. 6s 9d to 6s 10d, corn 5s 4d, peas 5s 6d, pork 67s 6d, lard 40s, cheese 60s.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley quiet to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 84, No. 1 at 86, and No. 1 bright at 88. Lake receipts 9000.

The Oil Market.

Oil in New York opened at 89 to-day touched 89¼ and 87½, and closed at 87½.

Smallpox at Tarrytown.

TARRYTOWN, N.Y., April 18.—There are seventeen cases of smallpox at shafts 13, 13½ and 14 of the new aqueduct.

Spots of Sport.

George Cartwright, the English pedestrian, arrived at New York on Monday on the Servia, from Liverpool, to take part in the go-as-you-please race in Madison-square Garden in May.

Lucy, a brindle from New Jersey, and Sport, a white and black bull terrier from Connecticut, met just outside the Connecticut line on Monday for a stake of $200. At the end of 1 hour and 12 minutes the New Jersey dog failed to come to time and Sport was declared the winner.

Sam Burgess of Woodstock has purchased Andrew Laidlaw's whole kennel of St. Bernard dogs, including the smooth-coat bitch "Jura" (champion Apollo-Lacne, A.K.R. 4216), and five beautiful young rough-coat bitches by imported Barry, A.K.R. 2150, ex-Cora (champion Apollo-Lacne).

At a meeting at Brantford on Tuesday night of the Feltham Cricket Club, challenges for May 24 were received from Hamilton, East Toronto and Paris. It was decided to go to Hamilton.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon

VERY CHOICE.

TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS

UNSMOKED.

Wholesale and Retail.

J. W. FLAVELLE,

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

Saturday's Issue

and watch for our new List of Great Bargains in Building Lots and Houses and Lots, several of which being centrally located, cannot fail to please customers.

HURLEY & BUNTON

Hunter Street.

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,
A PAPER-HANGER.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is Equal to the most costly IN PURITY

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

POWDER

Free from all Adulterations.

Beware of Imitations

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY REVIEW.

GLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar

DEAR SIR.—I thank you for your PINE TAR CORDIAL. It has done me more good than anything I have ever used.
MRS. S. R. HARVEY, Cobourg.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

—BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected "Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—"Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England lyrd7

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS.

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted in person the last 30 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by mechanical means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsic, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St. north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d19

T. B. MCGRATH,

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d21

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 947; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin road. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. MCELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 883; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. ds2-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d91y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

H/ .L & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. dllsw18

C W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. d103w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.
R. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant. P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a.m., 12 m. to 2.30 p.m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D.C.M., L.R.C.P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-6m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's Univerrity, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w18-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M.D., C.M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street, opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 15

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. T. & O. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 50 p m	Toronto and West, via G. T. & O. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	5 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	8 00 a m
8 50 p m		4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	11 00 a m
15 15 p m	do do	5 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 15 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m
4 00 p m		11 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville
2 30 p m	Robcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Eanismore	1 30 p m
	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
6 00 p m previous night
	Warsaw, including South Douro, Mailby Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday	10 00 p
94	Via New York, Mondays	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	5 15 p m
6 00 a m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. to each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 6 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaicia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guines, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia—New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents,

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 93. PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

WHITNEY BABY CARRIAGES.

Our stock will be found to be large, well asssorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY
T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL
Blankets
AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY
Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES
AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

WORKING JEWELLER.
E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

THE
ATLAS
Assurance Co'y.,
OF ENGLAND
FOUNDED IN 1808.

CAPITAL.
Six Millions of Dollars

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

E. E. HENDERSON,
Agent, Peterborough.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

Extra Quality Leather
Belting, Lace Leather,
Cut Laces,
Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals
Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine
Oils, Mill Supplies.
Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory
Prices.

GEO. STETHEM
THE PLACE
to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods
guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney
PALACE GROCERY
GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of
Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,
Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street Peterborough.

FREE! A 26-PAGE ILLUSTRATED PAPER

Descriptive of the Soil, Climate, Productions, Manufacturing Industries and Mineral Wealth of Virginia and other Southern States. Write to

W. B. BEVILL, Gen'l Pass. Agent.
ROANOKE, VA.,
Enclosing 2-cent Stamp.

Come to Beatrice, Nebraska

Cheap homes, mild climate, rich soil, good schools; population, 10,000, will double in two years; values will also double. Will soon be chief manufacturing city in the State. Immense water power. Eight railroad outlets, with others surveyed or building. Come, take advantage of her magic growth. Excursions from all Eastern points at half rates. For circulars address BOARD OF TRADE, Beatrice, Neb.

For Sale or to Rent

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS
FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to
ROBERT KINGAN.

Wants.

WANTED.

A SITUATION as WORKING HOUSEKEEPER by a middle aged person, competent to take full charge. Apply by letter, HOUSEKEEPER, REVIEW Office. 2d93

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply HEENAN'S TEMPERANCE HOUSE, Hunter-st. 3d93

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 1d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. a12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. M&4 CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all Kinds of
THE BEST COAL
which will be delivered (free of charge for carriage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,
$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

TO BUILDERS.
WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mosd62-w11 Millbrook P. O

BUY THE
Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Brodigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. L. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Fife, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve,) Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Otonabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Buller, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Rose, Peterborough, Mr. J. J. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. L. Hugs, Peterborough, Mrs. Eliza Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,
Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

Henry Pace
PRACTICAL
Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited
H. C. STABLER, 1y38 JAS. H. DONELL

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF
Ladies' Underclothing
IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN
NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.
Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1888.

THE EASTERN GAP.

Deepening the Eastern Channel Urged by a Toronto Delegation.

OTTAWA, April 19.—Harlow Cumberland John Foy and Peter McIntyre, representing the steamboat owners and vesselmen of Toronto, had an interview with the Minister of Public Works to-day with reference to deepening the Eastern Channel so that all classes of steamers and vessels could enter the Queen City Harbor by that route.

The points submitted by the deputation were briefly these: That the depth of the present entrance to the harbor is 6 feet at the Eastern Channel and 12 feet at the Western Channel. That the depth of the Western Channel has to be maintained by constant dredging, the cost of which last year amounted to $11,638. That the depth of water in the Welland Canal is now 14 feet. That in order to accommodate vessels of this size and draft of water it will be necessary to have one of the harbor entrances deepened to at least 18 feet, so that vessels may enter safely in rough water. (These large Welland Canal vessels can't come into the Toronto harbor at all now.) The deputation asked that the Eastern Channel be deepened to 18 feet and advanced these substantial reasons therefor: It would then accommodate the bulk of the lake traffic, both freight and passenger, coming to the city. It will save a detour of about seven miles to steamers and other craft coming up the lake with freight and passengers from Montreal, Oswego, Rochester, Niagara and Port Dalhousie, and in addition would be a great convenience and saving of time and towage to sailing vessels entering the harbor. A depth of eighteen feet could be obtained without the expense of blasting rock, as would be necessary to obtain a greater depth than twelve feet at the Western Channel. The closing of the Eastern Gap, the deputation pointed out, to a width of 400 feet is necessary to protect the wharves and shipping in the harbor from the fury of eastern gales. The building of necessary piers and cribbing for a navigable channel at the Eastern Gap would, in a large measure, also protect that part of the island from eastern gales and thus render any large expenditure of money in extending the present Island breakwater unnecessary. It was also pointed out that Toronto is the only harbor of refuge between Hamilton and Kingston. If the Eastern Gap were enlarged, as the deputation asked for, it would be an immense saving of time for excursionists going to Victoria Park. The Niagara boats, the Chicora and the new Cibola, could make the trip from the Queen City in 1 hour and 40 minutes.

Sir Hector Langevin gave the deputation an encouraging answer and he will send his chief engineer, Mr. Perley, to make a report on the subject.

Mr. Cumberland and Mr. Foy, on behalf of the Niagara Navigation Company, subsequently saw the Deputy Minister of Marine and asked that a bell buoy be placed at the entrance to the Niagara River. This would cost about $1000. At present during a fog steamers entering the river are greatly inconvenienced by the unsatisfactory means in use. Mr. Foy and Mr. Cumberland returned to Toronto this evening.

DIVORCE CASES.

An Unsavory Application—The Hart Case—The Fisheries Treaty Bill.

OTTAWA, April 19.—One of the most unsavory divorce applications ever heard by a Senate committee was the White case from Port Dover, up in the County of Norfolk. The evidence was put into print, as such evidence generally is, for distribution among the members of the House of Commons and Senators. Apparently there is no filth deep enough to suit some of our legislators, for such copies of the evidence as got afloat in the corridors have been devoured with the keenest relish. This morning I noticed an ex-member of Parliament, who is now here, a man of family, sitting in the House of Commons chamber. Around him were gathered half a dozen of Western Ontario members, all of them good family men. The ex-member was reading half aloud to his attentive listeners the details of this unsavory morsel from the shores of Lake Erie. This proceeding was kept up for over an hour.

In the Senate this afternoon the committee who heard the case reported in favor of throwing out the bill, which the House promptly did. There was a long discussion about the dissemination of such vile literature as the evidence taken in the case among the Commoners and Senators. It was also freely stated that it was decidedly wrong to expect men who are sent to Ottawa to assist in the making of our laws to sit in judgment and listen to such vile stories.

After the subject was pretty thoroughly discussed a resolution was passed that none but members of the Senate should be sent copies of the evidence.

The old sports in the Upper House by this resolution, came to the conclusion that it would not molest their morals in the least but it would be very wrong and reprehensible to allow any but their dear old selves to become possessed of copies. But at the same time enough of copies have been circulated to let nearly every one around the Parliament Buildings who wants to get a peep at it.

The Divorce Committee to-day heard the evidence of Robert Hart, brother of Fred Hart, from whom Eleanor Elizabeth Tudor is seeking a divorce. Robert told the committee that his brother's wife was very jealous and suspicious. As far as he knew there were no grounds for these suspicions. They lived very unhappily. More evidence is to be heard. Mrs. Hart is said to be worth $150,000 in her own right.

Mr. Abbott introduced into the Senate the Fisheries Treaty Bill which has passed the House of Commons. It will come up for discussion and a second reading on Monday.

LIVELY TIME IN THE HOUSE

OVER A DEPUTY RETURNING OFFICER IN HALDIMAND.

Who is Alleged to Have Been an Ex-convict—Fur Flies Around the Chamber—The Entrance to Toronto's Harbor—Sensational Divorce Cases.

OTTAWA, April 19.—When Charles Young on May 2, 1879, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment at Brantford for stealing four bushels of wheat, he little thought that ten years afterward his crime would be thrashed out in Parliament and made the subject of a warm debate, that a K. C. B. member of the House of Commons would think it of sufficient importance to place a motion on the paper concerning it, and in addition give the hon. the Minister of Justice a little liveliness because of an answer he had given the House on a previous occasion when the matter was referred to. But such is the irony of fate. Young served his term in the Brant County Jail, which is now so ably presided over by Mr. Hanson and Corpulent Sheriff Scarfe. It is said that since that time Young has led an honest life. He is now a farmer in the township of Oneida in Haldimand, and he was one of the deputy returning officers in the elections in that county on Feb. 23, 1887, and again on Nov. 12, 1887, in both of which Dr. Montague, the sitting member, defeated Mr. C. W. Colter.

Dr. J. A. Langrell of Jarvis was the returning officer at both elections and his appointment of Young as one of his deputies in face of his having served a term of imprisonment a decade ago, was the cause of the fuss in the House this afternoon.

On April 9 Sir Richard Cartwright asked this question: "Are the Government aware that one Charles Young, who acted as a deputy returning officer in the two elections of 1887, at whose polls certain irregularities are alleged to have occurred, served a term of imprisonment for theft in Brant prior to being appointed deputy returning officer aforesaid."

To which the Minister of Justice made this reply: The Government are not aware that Charles Young served a term of imprisonment prior to being again appointed deputy-returning officer. They are informed that he has not. Charles Young, as deputy-returning officer, was not in any sense an officer of the Government, but we are informed that he is a respectable man who has held several offices of trust in Haldimand, and that he was recommended for this office by several persons of credit, including a prominent Liberal politician. The only charge with regard to irregularities at his polling place was investigated and dismissed.

Sir Richard Cartwright, after reading the above record of the proceedings of the House of April 9, produced three affidavits which he also read. One was from Sheriff Scarfe enclosing a copy of the entry in the county jail of Brant to the effect that Charles Young had served six months for larceny, being sentenced on May 2, 1879. Another was from Mr. C. W. Colter, to the effect that he informed Dr. Langrell that he was appointing improper persons as his deputies but that he paid no attention to the protest. The third was an affidavit from Timothy Mockmann, a farmer of Haldimand, to the effect that he lived on the next farm to Young. The latter admitted as late as two weeks ago that he had served six months in the Brant Jail for theft in 1879. When Sir Richard had flashed these documents on the House and evolved much wrathfulness against the Government for having an ex-convict in its staff of officers fur flew around the chamber for about 1½ hours.

The Minister of Justice utterly repudiated any responsibility on the part of the Government for the past or present character of the deputy returning officers. There were 9000 or 10,000 of these officials in the country, and the Government knew little or nothing about them. The Government had no knowledge of their fitness or qualification for the position. The returning officer alone was responsible for his deputies.

Sir Richard Cartwright: "But there were several irregularities at Young's polling division, No. 4, in Oneida. Several ballot papers were spoiled, and the County Judge returned these ballots to Mr. Colter."

The Minister of Justice: "I did not make an elaborate investigation of Young's conduct, but I heard of no irregularities."

Mr. Thompson again repeated that the Government was in no way responsible for deputy returning officers, that they were not its officers, and that he thought the question asked by Sir Richard was not a proper one. The minister also remarked that he did not know whether the papers read by Sir Richard were true or not.

There was a good deal of lively talk after this announcement. Sir John got excited, and during his excitement knocked Sir Charles Tupper's "plug" hat off during a circumlocutionary swing of his hand while declaring that the Conservatives were compelled in self-defence to adopt the present mode of appointing the returning officers under the "Gerrymander Act."

Old Man Freeman, of Queens, N.S., wanted to fight with some one because the opposition speakers questioned the honesty of the Government and its followers in these matters.

Mr. "Billy" Patterson, of Brant, waxed loudly eloquent and demanded that the Minister of Justice should apologize for not telling the House that he had made a thorough investigation into Young's character and had been misinformed.

Mr. Madill, of Ontario, scored one by telling the House that Premier Mowat had appointed ex-convicts as magistrates in his (Madill's) part of the country. "But," added Mr. Madill, "some of Mr. Mowat's other appointments are even worse than these. This was thought good enough for a hearty laugh all over the Government chairs.

Mr. Edgar got square with his fellow-member from Ontario by saying that a man who had been discharged by the Ontario Government for defalcation in Treasurer Ross' department, had since been employed by the Dominion Government.

Sir John made this mysterious matter more mysterious by calling out: "Oh, that must be Dr. Hagarty." The matter was then dropped.

The balance of the sitting until the adjournment at 10.30 p.m. was devoted to disposing of Government measures. In the absence of the Minister of the Interior, who is still quite ill from congestion of the lungs, the Minister of Justice sent up a bill to amend the Indian Act, and it was read a first time. The most important provisions of this act are for increasing the stringencies of penalties for selling liquor to Indians, imposing municipal taxes on Indian lands in the older provinces, and providing for the transfer of Indians on municipal tax deeds.

The House went into committee on the Minister of Inland Revenue's bill to amend the Adulteration of Food Act. This act provided for enlarging the range of articles that shall be known as "food," and specially includes baking powders which were heretofore not regarded as food. It also provides for employing the inspectors of weights and measures, their deputies and other inland revenue officers, to collect samples of food, drugs and agricultural fertilizers for analyzing purposes. For this additional service these officers will be given an increase of salary. The bill also provides that any member of the examining board shall be classed as an analyist, and his standing shall be such in a court of justice. The bill was reported back to the House and stands for a third reading.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR.

His Terrible Suffering—He Wishes to be Released—The Latest Bulletin.

BERLIN, April 19.—The Emperor has not left his bed to-day, and the accounts current of his suffering are distressing. He said to Chaplain Koegel: "You pray for my preservation, rather pray for my release." He perseveres in transacting business and does not cease uniting. The Empress is often summoned to decipher the utmost illegible chrracters and save him from the annoyance of re-writing them.

As a result of family negotiations a jointure of 12,000,000 marks is secured to the Empress, and Prince Henry inherits 1,000,000 marks upon the Emperor's death.

The Reichs-Unzeiger publishes the following bulletin timed 9.30 p.m:

"On the whole the Emperor is less feverish than he was yesterday. In the course of the day a rather large quantity of pus has been discharged. The patient's breathing is now more quiet."

Queen Victoria's Movements.

FLORENCE, April 20.—Owing to graver news from Berlin Queen Victoria will probably leave for that city to-day.

Democrats and the Fisheries Treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A caucus of Democratic senators was held this morning to hear Senator Morgan upon the fishery treaty. It was not very well attended. Senator Morgan discussed for half an hour the treaty in its political and economical bearings and the action of the Foreign Relations Committee. The question of considering it in open session was decided adversely by a small majority.

Mr. Hoar's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In the Senate today Mr. Hoar (Mass.) offered a resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, providing that the official reporter shall be admitted to report the debates and proceedings of the Senate when the Fisheries Treaty shall be under consideration, the report or such part of it as may not require secrecy to be published if the Senate shall so order.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Dinners by Speaker Allan and Sir John—The Wimbledon Team.

OTTAWA, April 19.—Speaker Allan gave his first dinner to-night. These gentlemen were present:

Senator Clemow,	Senator Cascrain,
Senator Howlan,	Senator Montgomery,
Senator Dickey,	Senator Dever,
Senator Almon,	Senator Haythorne,
Senator Perrier,	Senator Dandonneville,
Senator Miller,	Senator Archibald,
Senator Armand,	Hon. J. S. D. Thompson,
Clerk Langevin,	Asst. Clerk Adamson,
Mr. Cockburn, M.P.	Mr. Small, M.P.,
	Mr. Denison, M.P.

Sir John and Lady Macdonald entertained these ladies and gentlemen at dinner this evening: Governor Dewdney, Chief Justice and Lady Ritchie, Senator Girard, Senator Sanford, Capt. and Lady Florence Streatfeild, Miss Carling, Mr. C. H. Tupper, M.P., Dr. Barker of St. John, N.B., Miss Meredith of London, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. E. Skead.

Private Morris of the 35th Battalion of Muskoka has accepted a place on the Wimbledom team of 1888, making a total of 19 out of the first 22. The twenty-third man is Gunner Wilson of the Halifax Garrison Artillery, who has been notified that he has the refusal of being a member of the team.

Bishop Clut of Ariandals is expected to give evidence to-morrow before the committee on the subject of the resources of the Mackenzie River basin. The written answers of His Lordship to the questions forwarded by the committee were read at the meeting in the Senate this morning and afforded interesting information.

Robert McLean of Toronto, secretary of the Ontario Fire Underwriters' Association, will give evidence to-morrow before the Combines Committee.

Sensational Reports at Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, April 19.—Sensational reports are current regarding the recent failure of John A. Tees & Co., and astounding revelations are looked for, to be followed by arrests. Cameron, the absconding teller, is dead broke at Pembina. It is said he has been promised immunity from arrest if he returns and gives evidence against his accomplices.

Welland Assizes.

WELLAND, April 19.—Court closed here today. These persons were sentenced: Thomas Parker, supplying drugs to procure abortion, three months in jail; Benjamin Hagarman, forgery, five years in Penitentiary; John Anderson, forgery, two years less one day in the Central Prison. J. B. Hewitt, forgery, on account of age and previous good behavior, was let go on giving bail for his good behavior. In Armstrong v. Kidd, action on a contract, judgment was reserved.

Manhood Suffrage in Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, April 19.—In the Legislature this afternoon the bill providing for manhood suffrage passed its second reading, 26 to 2, Norquay and LaPiviere being the only opponents of the measure.

Fotheringham Vindicated.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.—The jury in the suit of D. S. Fotheringham, the express messenger, against the Adams Express Company for damages for false imprisonment, were instructed this morning, and after being out 3½ hours agreed on a verdict of $20,000 for the plaintiff. The original sum demanded was $50,000.

The duchess of Hamilton, wife of the premier peer of Scotland, and sister-in-law to Lady Mandeville, has opened a retail butter shop at Ipswich, in the neighborhood of the White Horse Inn immortalized by Pickwick, and is, according to latest reports, crowded with orders.

REPEAL OF THE SCOTT ACT

IN SEVEN COUNTIES IN ONTARIO BY LARGE MAJORITIES.

The Temperance Measure Defeated in Dufferin, Simcoe, Renfrew, Norfolk, Huron, Bruce and United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

A vote was yesterday taken in seven Ontario counties on the question as to whether or not the Scott Act should remain in force within their limits and in every case the vote was overwhelmingly for repeal. Whatever the cause, the Scott Act people have suffered disastrous defeat all along the line. Look at these figures:

County.	Maj. for Adoption.	Maj. for Repeal.
Dufferin	795	200
Simcoe	1,183	2,000
Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry	1,708	2,023
Bruce	1,312	1,400
Huron	1,653	1,250
Renfrew	730	766
Norfolk	1,057	700

None of the returns are complete, but there is no doubt as to the fate of the measure in these counties. It is completely squelched.

How the Work Was Done in Dufferin.

ORANGEVILLE, April 19.—The Scott Act was repealed in Dufferin to-day by a majority of over 200. The campaign was fought with vigor by both sides. The Scotts Act party covered the county with meetings and small fly sheets, and utilized the pulpits of every Methodist and Presbyterian church, and one of the Church of England churches, besides the columns of two newspapers.

The Anti-Scott Act party were supported by three of the county newspapers, some of which a year before the contest devoted considerable space to the education of the people against liberal temperance literature, and small fly sheets were also industriously circulated, and to this much of the success of the Antis is ascribed. This educative work was supported by the plan of campaign originated in Haldimand and carried through successfully in St. Catharines and Halton, viz: the organization of canvassing committees of citizens in every polling division in the county, a plan very generally adopted in the counties at present attempting to secure repeal.

The fact that Dufferin, out of a very small number of electors, gave a majority of 795 for the Scott Act over three years ago, was realized and the Anti-association put forth every honorable effort to achieve success. Amongst the most prominent workers were: A. G. Hughson, Secretary of the Liberal Temperance Union; Dr. Henry, Robert Henderson, ex-Warden Wm. Jelly, John Jelly, Mr. Lewis, Rev. A. Henderson, all of Dufferin, and Mr. Gordon Mowat of Toronto.

The polling passed off quietly without any display of ill feeling. The hotel bars generally were closed and in this town, at least, no drunkenness occurred. The defeat of the act was hailed with satisfaction by the anti-Scott Act party, but no demonstration was raised beyond the issue of sheets announcing the majority and headed by the traditional rooster.

The total majorities for repeal are 368, and the total majorities against repeal are 168, making the aggregate majority for repeal 200.

Repealed by 2000 in Simcoe County.

BARRIE, April 19.—The vote in the principal towns of Simcoe all stand in favor of the repeal of the Scott Act with the following majorities: Barrie 196, Collingwood 332, Orillia 139, Penetanguishene 138, Gravenhurst 65, Midland 89, Bradford 58, Alliston 37, Stayner 89, Tottenham 29, Beeton 11. The townships cannot be completed to-night owing to the impassable state of the roads, but as far as heard from all vote by good majorities in favor of repeal, with the one exception of McKellar, in Parry Sound district, which gave a majority against repeal of 47. The aggregate majority for repeal is estimated at over 2000.

Repealed in Renfrew by 766 Majority.

ARNPRIOR, April 19.—The vote for the repeal of the Scott Act in Renfrew County was 1053, as against 287 for the continuance of the Act, the majority for repeal being 766.

Old Norfolk Wants No More of the Act.

SIMCOE, April 19.—The vote on the repeal of the Scott Act in Norfolk to-day resulted in the repeal being carried by about 700 majority. Waterford and Townsend were the only places that gave majorities for the Act.

Huron's Majority for Repeal Over 1200.

CLINTON, April 19.—The majority for the repeal of the Scott Act in Huron county is 1253, with several places to hear from.

Bruce Declares for Repeal by 1400 Majority.

WALKERTON, April 19.—The latest returns give a majority of 1400 for the repeal of the Scott Act in Bruce County. Returns have yet to come in from several places.

The United Counties Give Over 2000 for Repeal.

CORNWALL, April 19.—The united counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry gave a majority of 2223 for the repeal of the Scott Act and the majority is expected to reach 2500 when all the returns are in. After it was made known that the repeal was carried a band paraded the streets, followed by over 2000 people. The Anti-Scott party have worked hard and have left no stone unturned to defeat their opponents.

Some one who has been making up the records of the 2,619 female graduates of American colleges, says that 998 are married, 949 are teachers, 133 are in other occupations, and 539 are not engaged in remunerative work.

SAMPLE COPY
OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,
DIRECT IMPORTER OF
FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c.		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general proficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

—o—

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

—o—

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1888.

UNRESTRAICTED RECIPROCITY.

MR. LEDYARD'S second letter advocating commercial union or unrestricted reciprocity consists chiefly of assertions which he has not proved and does not attempt to prove. Summarized the assertions in his letter may thus be briefly stated:—1st, commercial union would not restrict our trade with other countries; 2nd, it would bring us additional prosperity; 3rd, England would be inconsistent if she objected; 4th, that the United States is our natural market, and, 5th, that commercial union would cause iron furnaces to be erected in Canada.

1. Mr. Ledyard is a member of the Commercial Union Club, which, it is understood, advocates the scheme supported by Mr. Wiman and Prof. Smith. Mr. Wiman, Mr. Butterworth and Canadian anvocates of commercial union have explained their scheme to include a uniform tariff for the two countries—the lifting up of the United States tariff and placing it around the continent. Now, if the present tariff restricts Canadian trade with the United States—if that is the effect of customs duties—is it not plain that a higher tariff against trade with England and other countries would further restrict our trade with these countries? And unrestricted reciprocity could not be carried out, and would not be accepted by the United States, unless it included a uniform tariff. So that Canada is asked to confine her trade almost entirely to commerce with one country, and that country her chief rival.

2. Mr. Ledyard does not show how unrestricted reciprocity would bring additional prosperity to Canada. He has acknowledged, and emphacized, the benefit that manufacturing industries are to the farming community, and a policy that would be injurious to manufacturing would not be beneficial for the farmers. And a policy that would injure the manufacturing and farming interests would not bring additional prosperity.

3. England is a free trade country, and if Canada decided to adopt free trade the charge of inconsistency could be made if she objected. But unrestricted reciprocity would not be free trade; it would only give free entrance to goods from one foreign country while imposing high customs duties on importations from other parts of our own country and all foreign nations except the favored one. That is a scheme vastly different from England's policy.

4. The best natural market is the home market, in which all but a fraction of this country's products are consumed. But of foreign markets, are those of the United States the best? The United States is an agricultural country, as well as a manufacturing one. In 1887 the value of British imports of grain and flour, bacon and hams, animals, butter and butterine, cheese and eggs was over $410,000,000. Here there is an almost unlimited market of consumers for Canadian agricultural produce, which should be cultivated. The value of the United States imports of agricultural produce of every kind only amounted to $22,000,000. If the United States had taken all her purchases of agricultural produce from Canada, we would still have been left with about half our surplus on our hands; while if Great Britain had taken all her imports of agricultural produce from this country we would have been left without anything to eat. In Great Britain there is an almost unlimited market to supply; in the United States there is a very small demand, and Canada would be foolish to imperil the larger trade which affords opportunities for unlimited expansion in an effort to increase the smaller trade in a cramped market where the people almost entirely supply themselves, especially when by doing so the best market of all, the home market, would be injured.

5. In regard to the iron industry Mr. Ledyard endeavors to enforce his assertion by proof. But the proof he brings forward contradicts his assertion. It will be remembered that in his former letter Mr. Ledyard looked only to the export of iron ore. Now he says that unrestricted reciprocity would lead to the erection of furnaces, but his reference to the Minnesota mines (by the way, he did not tell us for how much less Canadian ore could be laid down in Buffalo) does not prove this, for it shows anything, that iron manufacturing would not follow unrestricted reciprocity and that the commercial unionists are still looking to the export of the ore—to have Canadian ore taken to feed United States furnaces. That it would not lead to the general developement of iron mines for export we showed in answer to his previous letter, and the smaller benefit of a slightly increased export of ore—even if that did follow—would not compensate the country or this county, or the farmers, manufacturers or merchants, for the injury commercial annexation would do.

The proper fiscal policy for Canada, the one that is in the best interests of every industry and trade, is the National Policy—the policy of fostering home industries and of extended trade relation with the United States in natural products or so far as it would not be injurious to Canadian interests. That policy the people have adopted and twice endorsed by a general vote and we believe will again endorse.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

CORRESPONDENCE.

While correspondents will be allowed space to discuss questions of public interest, the Review does not hold itself responsible for the opinions expressed.

Another Letter from Mr. Ledyard.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—In your article on "The advantages of Industry," you say "Commercial unionists are the real restrictionists, as they would restrict our trade with all countries except one." How can this be? Commercial union or unrestricted reciprocity would throw down the trade barriers between us, our neighbours, but would in no wise contract our trade with other countries, or at any rate, such of it as would be advantageous for us. Unfettered trade with our own continent would bring us so much additional prosperity, that within a short time we should undoubtedly do more business with other countries, especially with England, than we can do in our present restricted condition. It is noteworthy that the English trade papers raise no objection to our proposal for commercial union. The British iron and steel trade would probably be affected more than any other, for with unrestricted reciprocity we should manufacture nearly all our iron and steel in this country, instead of importing most of it from England and Scotland, as we do now. The Coal and Iron Trade Review of London, the leading English journal in that line, lately published my paper which advocated commercial union as the only policy for developing our iron interests, but raised not one word of objection to it, simply remarking editorially that it was an exceedingly interesting subject which was receiving much attention in Canada.

The truth is that the business people of England would themselves advocate commercial union if they were in our place. It would indeed be inconsistent for free trade England to condemn us for desiring free trade with our own continent—our natural market. They know the immense benefit it would be to us and that although it might check our English trade for awhile, it would before long enable us to do a much larger trade with them owing to our increasing prosperity.

No new business would benefit the County of Peterborough more than developing its iron mines. These would in a short time be largely worked under reciprocity, but without it most of them must remain undeveloped. If this statement is doubted, a reference to the Minnesota iron district will amply prove it. This district produces magnetic iron ore similar to most of the ore found in your county, and occupies a smaller area than your ore districts. The Minnesota mines only commenced to produce in 1884, but last year they shipped nearly 400,000 tons. And where did they ship it? Most of the ore comes down by boat to Buffalo, from whence it is taken by rail to furnaces in Pennsylvania. There are good iron deposits in Peterborough County within 250 miles of Buffalo, which, if a regular business was established, could be delivered by all rail route to that city at a freight of $1.50 to $1.75 per ton, much less than the freight from the Minnesota mines to Buffalo. Why then are we not shipping annually thousands of tons of ore to the furnaces via Buffalo? The duty, and nothing else prevents us.

The REVIEW is quite mistaken in thinking that commercial union would lead only to our ores supplying furnaces in the United States. With unrestricted trade we should be able to have charcoal furnaces in our back country close to the mines and also coke furnaces at favorable points, such as Toronto, where the fuel and ore could conveniently meet, and probably your own town of Peterborough would be as good a place as any. But I am trespassing too much on your space and must postpone further remarks for another occasion.

Yours, &c.,
T. D. LEDYARD.

Toronto, April 18th, 1888.

Another Barnardo Home.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Empire says:—"Dr. Barnardo has started one of his homes for destitute children in the neighborhood of Russell station, on the line of the Manitoba and North-Western railway. The first instalment of children have already arrived there. The buildings which Dr. Barnardo has and intends to build, will cost $15,000, and $5,000 has already been expended. When completed the the buildings will have accommodation for 130 to 200 boys. He has also another home at Peterborough, Ont., which has been established for some time."

For delicacy and richness of flavor, use "Royal Extracts."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Cheese.

The cheese making season has opened and the following quotations will be found of interest:—The Utica Herald of the 17th says:—"One lot of 1,100 boxes colored was taken by a shipper on private terms, which is not believed to be in excess of 11⅝c. The stock of white is so small that any one who wants it has to pay the the price, but this fact takes it out of the reach of exporters, and it sells only in a small way to the retail trade....What is called a "sprinkling" of new cheese made its debut in New York last week. The best white sold at 12c. in the city, while nearly as good went at 11⅞....At Little Falls on the 16th two lots of cheese sold, one at 11¾ and one at 11⅞. There were 15 lots of factory cheese offered, but with the exception of the lots named above, not a price was named on any of it, and it went forward on commission, amounting altogether to 920 boxes."

Ammoniated Bread.

Ammoniated baking powders—that is, baking powders in which carbonate of ammonia is used as an ingredient, and which exhale an odor of ammonia when heated—are classed by many eminent physicians and sanitarians, as superior to all others. Professor Hassel, of London, who is recognized as highest authority on the supject of food hygiene, commends in the strongest terms the use of carbonate of ammonia as a leavening agent, stating its great advantage to be in its perfect volatility, which permits it to be, by the heat of baking, entirely thrown into leavening gas whereby the bread is raised. The experiment with heat would seem to indicate the superior, not the inferior, value of such baking powder. The little heat that is imparted to it when held over a gas jet, lamp, or stove, suffices to resolve the carbonate of ammonia into leavening gas and throw it off. The first heat of baking, therefore, will effectually develop all the gas, thoroughly leaven the loaf and dissipate the gas producing ingredients of a powder of this kind; and this is the highest test of a perfect baking powder. Where other alkalies alone are used they are not infrequently retained, unresolved, through the whole process of baking, and remain an unwholesome ingredient in the finished bread. The carbonate of ammonia cannot be used as a substitute for cream of tartar.—N. Y. Weekly Tribune.

Stallion Show.

The annual stallion and bull show, under the auspices of the West Riding Agricultural Society, takes place on the Society's grounds on Saturday, April 28th, a week from to-morrow,

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the GREAT MODERN REMEDY. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are so often afflicted with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts. 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle.

WHY DOES A YOUNG MAN WANT A GOOD WIFE?

Because he is married for a lifetime.

JOHN McNAUGHTON

The reliable Boot and Shoe dealer, has just opened out a large stock of goods from the celebrated makers, Messrs. Cooper & Smith, Toronto. Any person buying any goods made by this firm which consists paper insoles, paper stiffeners or cloth insoles, can have $5 for each pair upon furnishing satisfactory proof to me. These goods are all hand-made and marked in plain figures. I do not sell for cost, but I am satisfied with a fair profit and it will pay the public to call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Repairing done neatly, expeditiously and cheap for cash.

JOHN McNAUGHTON,
corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune-sts.
d8Seod-2-15

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d8eod-w15

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER
THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

SOLID BARGAINS IN CLOTHING

—AND—

GREAT BARGAINS IN HATS

GOUGH BROS., the Big Clothiers

GREATEST OFFER YET.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN'S DETERMINATION.

Two thousand Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and fifteen hundred pairs Pants to be slaughtered within the next 30 days The above Goods include part of the great Petley & Petley Bankrupt Stock at 50c. on the dollar. We are also placing in stock our Second Spring Purchase of Clothing, which has been bought at a saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every garment, less the original price, the benefit of which we purpose giving to our patrons during our Great Sacrifice Sale now humming.

We can and will sell CLOTHING during our Great Sale 25 per cent cheaper than smaller houses can ordinarily buy them. As a proof of what we assert, read the following paralystic prices:—

Men's Good Working Suits	$2.50 worth $5.00
Men's All Wool Suits	$4.00 worth $8.00
Men's Fancy Tweed Suits	$5.50 worth $10.00
Men's Fine Worsted Suits	$6.90 worth $13.00
Men's Working Pants	25 cents per pair, cheap, for $1.00
Men's Sunday Pants	$1.25 worth $2.00 wholesale

Smile on these indisputable prices, you noble sons of toil and when you want a suit of Clothes or a pair of Pants at wholesale prices, call on the Great Modern Clothiers.

In our Boys' and Children's department we stand unique, and mothers, fathers, guardians and heads of families should go to no other place for their Boys' Clothing. The prices in this department are too small to mention. In our Furnishing Goods and Hat Department we ask the particular attention of young men. When you call don't go away without seeing our Men's Working Pants at 25 cents per pair. In a word if you want to see a stock of Ready-made Clothing to back up an advertisement step in and see the store kept by the Kings of the Clothing Trade.

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

N. B.—Associated with GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, Toronto.

Our Stock of Spring Hats is now complete at FAIRWEATHER & CO., the Leading Hatters, corner of George and Simcoe-sts.

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools, Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Mofeskin Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties.

Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

—o—

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opéra House Block.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50,
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our Irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.
Solicitor, Water Street.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE WEEKLY REVIEW.

CANNED GOODS
—AT—
MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.
ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.
BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.
SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.
APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER
—AT—
SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON
Issurer of Marriage Licenses.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 & w8

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

West to north-west winds; fair weather; not much change in temperature.

Selected for Sacrifice.

We have placed on our bargain counter 00 pieces dress goods. The patterns are ew and the goods stylish and desirable. he assortment covers a wide range both in quality and price. These goods we have selected for sacrifice and they really merit the attention of lady buyers. Less than one-half the price is what we are asking and so good are the values that even the most casual glance shows that they are bargains. Every lady who proposes buying dress goods should see what our counter offers, and remember that the golden lion leads in dress goods.

The Queen's Own.

The Queen's Own, of Toronto, is the crack regiment of Ontario, if not of the Dominion, and the members of it are exceedingly anxious to visit Peterborough, on their annual outing this year. Several communications have been received, and on Thursday afternoon one of them stated that the battalion would visit our town if they received an invitation. All they require is a place to camp, a building for the officers, plenty of good water and to have their baggage carted to and from the C.P.R. depot. As the regiment numbers about six hundred men, who would come down on Wednesday evening, May 23rd, and remain here for four days, there is every reason that the council should provide for the payment of the expenses that would be incurred. The agricultural grounds would provide all that is required in the way of a camping ground and accommodation, and all that would remain is the carting. More will be heard about this matter in the course of a few days.

Hallelujah Wedding.

The second "Hallelujah" wedding that has occurred in Peterborough in about a month took place at the Opera House on Thursday evening. The large building was packed in every part, the fair sex being largely in the majority, and as the modest sum of ten cents was demanded from each person who entered the door, the receipts must have reached quite a handsome total. Chief of Staff Bailey, of Toronto, with the able assistance of Adjutant Bolton and Captain Woodgate, of Peterborough, conducted the meeting. The stage was filled with chairs, all of which were occupied by male and female soldiers and the brass band of the local corps also occupied a prominent position. In front were ranged a number of sofas on which were seated the chief officers and the Rev. Mr. Tovell. Quite a number of officers and soldiers from neighboring places were also present. The proceedings commenced shortly after 8 o'clock, and songs, solos, hymns and testimonies followed in rapid succession for over an hour. Only the initiated knew who the contracting parties were to be and the large audience were on the tiptoe of expectation until the couple appeared, and then the crowd gave vent to their feelings in cheer after cheer. Lieutenant Robert Warrington and Miss Emma Baker proved to be the parties and Captain Woodgate and Miss Baker, sister of the bride, lent able assistance during the ordeal. All were dressed in the regulation Army costume and in spite of the great crowd neither displayed any nervousness. Chief of Staff Bailey read the Army articles of marriage and both having signified their intention of abiding by them, Mr. Tovell stepped to the front and performed the marriage ceremony of the Methodist Church. The groom having placed the ring on the finger of the bride, loud smacks were heard in all quarters of the hall, and the groom taking the hint kissed his wife. Then there was more applause and the newly married couple gave testimonies, and after more singing and praying, the meeting broke up shortly before ten o'clock.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. ds9

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Organ Recital.

Mr. Charles Crowe, of Guelph, will give a short organ recital in St. Andrew's Church at 8 o'clock this evening.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

On Sports.

A meeting of the sports committee of the joint celebration committee for the 24th of May, was held yesterday afternoon, and a programme of events drawn up. They meet again this afternoon.

The National Game.

The lacrosse players are waking up. At the Commercial House to-night, the members of the Riverside club will hold a meeting to prepare for the season's campaign. At the Hub, the Etnas, a junior club, will meet for organization. A full attendance is requested at both meetings.

I.O.O.F. Mass Meeting.

On Thursday evening, April 26th, a mass meeting of the members of the Peterborough Lodges of Oddfellows, will be held in the rooms of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, in celebration of the establishment of the Order in America. Addresses appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by prominent Oddfellows.

Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society will be held in the school room of St. Paul's Church, on Tuesday evening, 24th inst., at 8 o'clock. A good programme has been provided. Refreshments will be served; admission 25 cents. All are cordially invited. As this will be the last of the season special efforts are being made to make it the best. 6d91

HE who drinks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. d89

On Duty.

The watering carts made their appearance on the streets yesterday afternoon, for the first time this season, and they were not a bit too early either, as the dust was flying in all directions. We do not know what the intentions of the Fire, Water and Light Committee are, but it is the general belief that Terry's grey team are not heavy enough to draw a heavy watering cart around and at the same time be prepared to run any distance to a fire.

For Bronchitis and Asthma, try Allen's Lung Balsam; the best cough prescription known.

Canoeists at Table.

The delegation of canoeists who went up from Peterborough to attend the annual dinner of the Lindsay canoe club, returned this morning and report having shared in a very pleasant time. The gathering was thoroughly a canoeists one and much enjoyed. Messrs. E. B. Edwards and Gordon Smith, of the Peterborough clubs, made excellent speeches, Mr. Edwards in particular giving interesting details of canoeing as practiced in England. Members of the Lindsay club spoke to the various toasts and the best of feeling prevailed during the evening.

At Cayuga.

Burglars made an attempt to rob the safe in the postoffice at Bobcaygeon on Thursday morning a little before daylight. They forced an entrance through the front door, drilled a hole through the door of the safe and filled it with gunpowder. The explosion failed to open the door, and when the safe was opened during the day about half a pound of powder was still inside. It seems the burglars were preparing for a second charge when disturbed. Only a small amount of money was on hand and two or three registered letters. Two suspicious looking strangers were noticed around the day before.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple S yrup from R. Kidd at the Pantry. d89

Personal.

We learn from the Church Guardian that at the Inter-Diocesan Sunday School Conference held at Montreal, the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw was appointed on the Board of Examiners, his subject being "Catechism." Mr. Bradshaw was also appointed a member of a committee to draw up a set of lessons suitable for the senior classes.

Mr. A. D. Braithwaite, Manager of the Calgary, N. W. T., branch of the Bank of Montreal, who was married to Miss Hendrie, of Hamilton, on Thursday last, was well known here, he having been stationed in Peterborough for several years. His many friends will join with us in extending congratulations.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat-fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

A Port Hoper Shot.

The Port Hope Times of Thursday says:—"News has just been received here by the friends of Mr. T. B. Powers, who has been spending the winter in California, that he was shot on the cars, the ball making a slight wound in his neck. Mr. Powers stopped over at Kansas city to prosecute his would be assassin."

Inquest at the Gaol.

An inquest was held at the gaol this morning, by coroner Dr. Bell, on the body of the late Mrs. Johanna Walsh, who died in that institution, on Thursday. The evidence of Dr. Kincaid, goal surgeon, and several of the prisoners was taken and after hearing the coroner's charge and viewing the body, a verdict of death from natural causes and old age was returned.

That Suit.

Mr. C. W. Sawers, who is acting for Mr. T. McMullen, informs us that it is the intention of his client to proceed with the suit against police officers McGinty and Stewart and that all the necessary papers are ready and will be served in a day or two. The police are charged with "assault, illegal arrest and false imprisonment," and $1,000 damages are claimed.

From Toronto.

A civic deputation from Toronto, consisting of Mayor Clarke and Alderman McMillan, Shaw, Roaf, Galbraith, Carlyle (St. Thomas), and Baxter and City Solicitor Mr. C. R. W. Biggar, passed through last night on their way to Ottawa, to interview the Railway Committee with reference to the disputed eastern crossing of the C.P.R., which will come up for discussion to-day.

Pain-Killer will cure Cramps or Pains in any part of the system.

The Medicos.

A meeting of the Medical Association was held on Thursday evening. In the Absence of Dr. Kincaid, Dr. Fife occupied the chair. After some discussion the by-laws, as prepared by a committee, were adopted. Some medical talk followed and after deciding to hold regular meetings on the first and third Thursdays in each month, at a room in the Court House building, the meeting adjourned.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

Our Summer Opening.

Miss Delaney wishes to call the attention of ladies to the fact that the newest styles and materials in summer Millinery and Mantles are now open and on view. Great care has been taken in the selection of the stock and the very best goods in every line procured. Careful attention is given to all orders with regard to making up to ensure satisfaction. 1d93

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

The Bricklayers.

The following are the officers of the recently formed Bricklayers Union:—
PRESIDENT.—J. J. Hartley.
VICE-PRESIDENT.—G. Rose.
RECORDING SEC.—T. J. McNamara.
FINANCIAL SEC.—H. McDonald.
CORRESPONDING SEC.—R. Sheehy.
TREASURER.—A. Dawson.
DOOR KEEPER.—Geo. Pickles.
DEPUTY.—T. M. McFadden.
ALT.—J. Theobald.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

Cricket.

There is not the slightest doubt that the coming season will be the best as far as first-class cricket matches go, that Peterborough ever had. The lovers of the wicket and willow are advertising the town from one end of the country to the other and already nearly all the first clubs in the Province have secured dates. The latest communication is from the Hamilton club who desire to play here on the 13th August. As that date is open, it is altogether probable that the ambitious city people will play on the date named in the P. A. A. A. grounds.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—The Rev. I. Tovell was in Port Hope yesterday.

—The Police Court calendar this morning did not contain any cases for trial.

—A man wearing a straw hat was one of the noticeable persons on the streets this morning.

—The regular weekly shoot of the gun club will take place on the Riverside Park this evening.

—Mr. Fred Hall had steam up in his yacht yesterday and took a short spin, just to try her, you know.

—One tramp luxuriously slept at the police station last night. He claimed Quebec as his abiding place.

—The Salvation Army parade last night was headed by two men, arrayed in red cloaks, mounted on horseback.

—Councillor John Douglas, who has been confined to the house for some days with neuralgia, is able to be out again.

—Two Chinamen, blouses, pigtails and all arrived in town to-day. They are prospecting for a site to start a laundry.

—The latter day apostles hold forth each evening at the old Music Hall. They propose to remain in Peterborough for some time.

—Inspector Pope has his men at work scraping out the gutters, which were frozen up while the streets were being cleaned.

—The Rev. John McArthur, of Havelock, who has relatives in Peterborough, has taken up his residence in Argyle, Minnesota, U.S.A.

—A young man with a canoe hoisted his sail on Thursday afternoon and flew around the river for a time. He was rather rushing the season.

—An effort is being made to arrange a baseball match for the morning of the Queen's birthday with the Port Hope or Lindsay clubs.

The most exquisite handkerchief perfume—"Lotus of the Nile."

—Ex-police officer Pidgeon has been heard from. He was seen by a Peterborough man, working at his trade of cooper in a small town not far from Rochester.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpared are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hands and brain.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers can always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. d8

Have you a Pain anywhere about you? USE PERRY DAVIS' "PAIN KILLER" and Get Instant Relief. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. 25 Cts. Per Bottle.

SUMMER COMFORT

Doesn't always depend on the circumstances of location. It far oftener depends on the exercise of good judgment in the selection of

Summer Clothing.

People are to a large extent, dependent on well selected Clothing for comfort during the hot months. All mankind in the country are interested in our stock of Seasonable Clothes and Garments, a stock that embraces every New and Popular Light Weight fabric, made up in the Best and Most Stylish manner. Our prices are just as right as our Goods and both satisfactory.

T. Dolan & Co

Peterborough Lodge A.F. & A.M.

AN EMERGENT MEETING of Peterborough Lodge No. 155, G.R.C., will be held this (Friday) evening April 20th, at 7.30 p.m. Brethern of sister lodges are cordially invited to attend. By order of the W. M. 1d93

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1mw16 10 Spruce-st., New York

MARRIED.

GAGER—WILKINS.—On the 18th of April, 1888, at the parsonage of Charlotte-st. Church, by Rev. I. Tovell, MR. FRANCIS SAGER, of Smith Township, to MISS ANNIE WILKINS, of Peterborough.

ARMSTRONG—DUVALL.—On the 14th of April, 1888, by Rev. I. Tovell, Mr. ARCHIBALD N. ARMSTRONG, of Glamorgan Township, to MISS LECIY ANN DUVALL, of Peterborough.

WARRINGTON—BAKER.—On the 19th of April, 1888, at the Salvation Army meeting in the Opera House, by Rev. I. Tovell, Mr. ROBT. WARRINGTON, to MISS EMMA, eldest daughter of Mr. John C. Baker, all of Peterborough.

BIRTH.

SOMERVILLE.—At Peterborough, on the 19th of April, the wife of FRANK L. SOMERVILLE, C. E., of a daughter.

Campbell's Cathartic Compound

IT CURES LIVER COMPLAINT, BILIOUS DISORDERS, ACID STOMACH, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

BRANDON, MAN., 21st Oct., 1886.—I find Campbell's Cathartic Compound the best article I have ever used for costiveness or billiousness, and easy to take. I am, yours truly, A. N. MCDONALD.

Sold by dealers in family medicines everywhere. 25c. per bottle.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE
—OF—
WORSTED COATINGS
Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.
GEORGE STREET.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

COUGHS, COLDS, Croup and Consumption CURED BY ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM 25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough

D. BELLECHEM,
Funeral Director.
CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.
TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at
LONG BROS.

AS MUST A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,
A PAPER-HANGER.

REMOVAL SALE

We find our present store too small for our growing trade and have rented the store lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Alexander, which when fitted up will be one of the most attractive places of business on George-st. On THURSDAY, the 19th of APRIL, we commence a

60 DAYS GREAT CLEARING SALE.

It will be to our advantage to clear out our present stock even at cost. Remember our Goods are new and stylish. That we do not deal in goods out of date and expensive at any price.

During our Great Sale we will convince the public that we mean what we say when we promise bargains in every department.

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

H. S. GRIFFIN & Co.,
CRYSTAL BLOCK.
5d90 1w16

To Save Life

Frequently requires prompt action. An hour's delay waiting for the doctor may be attended with serious consequences, especially in cases of Croup, Pneumonia, and other throat and lung troubles. Hence, no family should be without a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has proved itself, in thousands of cases, the best Emergency Medicine ever discovered. It gives prompt relief and prepares the way for a thorough cure, which is certain to be effected by its continued use.

S. H. Latimer, M. D., Mt. Vernon, Ga., says: "I have found Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a perfect cure for Croup in all cases. I have known the worst cases relieved in a very short time by its use; and I advise all families to use it in sudden emergencies, for coughs, croup, &c."

A. J. Eidson, M. D., Middletown, Tenn., says: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."

"I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral," writes E. Bragdon, of Palestine, Texas, "believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1888.

TORONTOS WHITEWASHED

CUSHMAN'S TEAM BADLY BEATEN BY THE PHILLIES.

Racing Across the Border and Over the Sea—Teemer Wins Again—The Crack Revolver Shots Matched—Canadian Horses at Jerome Park.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Fifteen to nothing, that was the score that Harry Wright's boys piled up to-day against the champions of the International League. Cushman's boys played a very loose fielding game and were unable to make up for weakness in this respect by serviceable work with the stick. Atkisson, who pitched for the Torontos, was with the Athletics last year, and his delivery was not difficult for the league players to solve. Buffinton, on the other hand, was a dead mystery to the Canucks, and after pitching six innings he gave way to Wood, who, in turn, was relieved by Clementa. "Tommy" McLaughlin received quite an ovation when he made his appearance at the plate for the first time, which he acknowledged by doffing his head gear. The score:

PHILAD'PHIA.	R	1B	O	A	E	TORONTO.	R	1B	O	A	E
Wood, l.f. & p.	1	2	0	4	0	Burke, cf.	0	1	2	0	1
Andrews, c.f.	0	0	0	0	0	Connors, l.f.	0	1	3	2	1
Fogarty, r.f.	4	3	2	0	0	M'Laughlin, s	0	0	1	3	0
Mulvey, 3b.	3	1	0	2	0	Harnett, 1b.	0	0	6	1	0
Farrar, 1b.	3	3	13	0	0	Rickley, 3b.	0	2	3	1	1
Hallman, c.	1	2	8	4	1	Lay, r.f.	0	0	1	0	0
Irwin, ss.	1	1	2	3	0	Kearns, 2b.	0	0	4	1	1
Buffington, p	1	2	0	5	0	Oldfield, c.	0	0	5	1	0
Bastian, 2b.	2	2	1	3	0	Atkisson, p.	0	0	0	1	0
Clem'n, l.f. p.	1	1	0	0	0
Totals.....	19	18	27	18	1	Totals.....	0	4	24	10	3

Toronto.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Philadelphia.....1 1 1 2 1 3 0 6 x—15

Earned runs—Philadelphia 5. Two-base hits—Wood, Fogarty, Farrar, Hallman, Rickley. Three-base hits—Farrar. Stolen bases—Wood, Bastian, Andrews, Irwin. Left on bases—Philadelphia 11, Toronto 2. Struck out—Fogarty, Burke, McLaughlin, Harnett, Kearns. Double plays—Toronto 2, McLaughlin, Kearns and Harnett; Oldfield and Kearns. First base on balls—By Atkisson 4, Farrar, Fogarty, Bastian 2. Hit by pitcher—By Wood 1, Atkisson; by Atkisson, Bastian. Wild pitches—Atkisson 2. Passed balls—Oldfield 3. Umpires—Clements and Taylor. Time of game—1 hr. 55min.

Association Championship Games.

BROOKLYN, April 19.—The Clevelands were again slaughtered here to-day by the home team. The game ended with the seventh innings on account of darkness.

At Brooklyn: R. H. E.
Brooklyn.....1 1 0 1 6 0 5—14 14 3
Cleveland.....0 0 0 1 0 1 1—3 6 3
Batteries: Terry and Foples; Stemmyer and Zimmer.

At Philadelphia: R. H. E.
Baltimore.....0 0 0 2 1 0 0 0—3 4 10
Athletics.....0 1 1 0 5 0 0 0 3—10 11 3
Batteries: Keefe and Trost; Weyhing and Gunning.

At Kansas City: (Eleven innings.) R. H. E.
Kansas City.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 6—10 19 13
Cincinnati.....0 1 2 0 0 0 1 0 0—4 5 9
Batteries: Toole and Daniels; Smith and Baldwin.

At St. Louis: R. H. E.
St. Louis.....0 0 1 1 4 1 1 4 1—13 19 7
Louisville.....1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 7 7
Batteries: Hudson and Milligan; Hecker and Cook.

Exhibition Games.

At Rochester: R. H. E.
Rochester.....2 1 1 0 4 0 3 0 x—11 9 6
Elmira.....0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—2 7 0
Batteries: Calihan Brothers, Egan and Toy; Goodall and Mooney. Umpire: Hoover.

At Zanesville, Ohio: The Detroit team easily defeated the Zanesville nine by a score of 22 to 4.

At Washington: The Cuban Giants, with Stovey in the box, were defeated by the League team in seven innings by a score of 9 to 5.

At Minneapolis: Omaha won easily by 7 to 3, Minneapolis scoring only in the ninth.

At New York: The League team defeated Princeton College, 21 to 5.

At Jersey City: The local team figuratively wiped the earth with Syracuse, the score being 13 to 1.

Huntress, a 15 to 1 Chance, Wins at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 19.—The racing here to-day was witnessed by a large crowd, the weather being fair and track fast. Summary:

FIRST RACE.—Purse $320, for all ages; selling allowances, ⅞ mile. Rol d'Or, 108, won; Lilbert, 105, 2d, and Phil Lee, 103, 3d. Skobeloff, Comedie, Tam o' Shanter, Jack Brown, Slocum, Twiner Beard and Bonnie King also ran. Time, 1.17. Pool odds: 3 to 5 against Rol d'Or, 5 to 1 Lilbert. Pools: Phil Lee, Rol d'Or, $5; Tam o' Shanter and Skobeloff, $4 each; the field, $8.

SECOND RACE.—Purse $400, a handicap for all ages; 1⅛ miles. Headlaid, 95, won. Huntress, 100, 2d and Florimore, 108, 3d. John Gray, Warp and Governor also ran. Time 1.58¾. Pool odds, 15 to 1 against Huntress, 1 to 2 against Florimore. Pools—Stevenson's pair (Warp and Florimore) $25, Huntress $15, Governor $6, field $4.

The New York Turf Market.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Nothing sensational has developed in the turf market during the week. There has been a good general business, but there has been no especial demonstration in behalf of any particular horse. Banburg and Kaloolah perhaps excepted. Messrs. Phil Daly & Co. report a general good market on both the Brooklyn and Suburban, with no wagers of any particular significance or importance.

The local down town book reports the following among the important wagers recorded during the week: Fenelon 1000 to 80, Joe Cotton 2000 to 60, Oriflamme 2000 to 50, Grover Cleveland 2000 to 40, Saxony 1500 to 60, Kenny 2000 to 40, Dunboyne 2500 to 100, Osceola 2500 to 50, Kurus 2000 to 40, Rupert 2000 to 80, Dry Monopole 2000 to 60, Kalociah 3000 to 50, Ben Ali 5000 to 100, Eolian 2000 to 50, Kirkman 4000 to 40.

Canadian Horses at Jerome Park.

FORDHAM, N.Y., April 19.—Burgess' horses are more forward than any of the others stabled at Jerome Park, and show the good effects of exercising on the snow in Canada. Fred B. showed himself to be master of the situation yesterday morning by taking the boy who was riding him both farther and faster than he had instructions to go, while old Bralt looks the picture of health.

Frank Owens is paying his usual attention to the jumpers under his charge, and, barring accidents, Charlemagne will have a shy for the events at Rockaway, where probable St. Augustine will also try his hand over the jumps.

Teemer Wins Again.

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 19.—In the professional sculling race here yesterday between John Teemer, John McKay and Albert Hamm for a purse of $450, over a course of one mile and a half, from a buoy off Magnolia Bluff and return, Teemer won. But little excitement was manifested in the race, the result being a foregone conclusion.

The Crack Revolver Shots Matched.

BOSTON, April 18.—Fred E. Bennett and Chevalier Paine, the revolver experts, were matched yesterday. Yesterday morning Bennett received a letter from Paine saying his conditions are accepted. They met at noon and signed articles. The match is for $1000 and the championship of America. They are to shoot 600 shots, 100 shots for 6 consecutive days, at a distance of 50 yards, on the standard American 200-yard rifle target, 3-pound pull, and with no more than 6¼ barrel. The match will be shot on June 4 at Springfield, Mass., and will be governed by the rules of the National Rifle Association of America.

A SENSATION IN TORONTO.

Rev. Benjamin Longley Resigns the Pastorate of the Queen-St. Methodist Church.

TORONTO, April 20.

Church circles in the West End are seething with excitement over a scandal which involves the standing of one of the most popular Methodist ministers stationed in Toronto. The church in question is the Queen-street Methodist and the pastor is Rev. Benjamin Longley, formerly of Ottawa, and for the past two years until Wednesday last, when he sent in his resignation to Rev. Dr. Potts, one of the brightest members of the Toronto Conference. At this stage it is hard to say whether Rev. Mr. Longley has been guilty in the worst sense of the word, or simply the victim of an array of certainly suspicious but possibly innocent circumstances.

For the past three or four weeks the air in the neighborhood of the church has been rife with stories of alleged immoral conduct on the part of the pastor and two or three female members of his congregation. At that time the stories afloat were only supported by suspicions, and even now, although he has severed his connection with the congregation, there are none of its members who can say positively that Mr. Longley has been guilty of immoral conduct.

A reporter spent a good part of yesterday investigating the story, and finally arrived at these conclusions: First, that Rev. Mr. Longley spent an hour locked up with an unmarried female member of his congregation in a class room of the church; and secondly that on another occasion he met this same lady at the Albion Hotel, and occupied himself for three hours in her society in a private room.

Of course there are any number of wild rumors afloat as to the doings of Mr. Longley, but as far as these can be traced out they are based on speculation and street gossip. The lady whose name figures more particularly in the scandal is young, wealthy and unmarried. Her friends say that outside of Rev. Mr. Longley she had no male acquaintances, and was modest, quiet and unassuming. This much for the lady.

Rev. Benjamin Longley is a married man, residing with his wife and one child, a daughter, at 260 Spadina-avenue. In person he is tall, and bears on his face signs of an intellect of no mean order. A closely cropped beard, black, sprinkled with grey, black piercing eyes, a complexion deathly in its pallor, and the manners of a gentleman complete his description.

Although Mr. Longley refused to see all the newspaper representatives who called upon him through the day, he granted an interview to a reporter last night and made the following statement:

"The fact of the matter is," he said, "I have been so confused all day, and there have been so many callers that I had neither time nor inclination to talk to the press. I can tell you that I have done nothing criminal, and that I am in a position to back up my assertion by affidavit. I would be more explicit in my explanation and prove my innocence only it involves another person, and I cannot sacrifice her interests. I have resigned positively from the Queen-street Methodist church. It was the only course left open for me, as whether innocent or guilty these rumors which had been set afloat about me would have destroyed my influence for good. What my next course is I have not decided. I do not know whether I shall leave the city or not. I have still many friends in the congregation who will believe in me, and in any event would stay by me."

"What about those alleged meetings in the church and in the hotel?" asked the reporter.

"I met the lady on these two occasions, and on both I was actuated with motives for her own good. On the first occasion we were interrupted, and I, having reason to suspect that we were being watched by her friends, made the second appointment in order to learn if such really was the case. On the second occasion, I continued to give her advice, with the object of influencing her life for her own good."

"Have you any further proof of your own innocence than your own affidavit?"

"Well, the lady herself might make an affidavit to appear with mine. I am sure if her friends thought it would be to her advantage she certainly would, and it would bear out my statement in every particular."

"Are you still a minister of the Methodist Church. The evening papers state that you have withdrawn from that body."

"They have no authority for the statement. It is probable that the whole matter will come up in the shape of a church trial."

Leaving Rev. Mr. Longley's the reporter crossed the road to 221 Spadina-avenue, where Barrister Albert Ogden, Vice-President of the Y.P.A. of the Queen-street Methodist Church, resides. "I know what you have come for," he said, "but my lips are sealed. However, I can say that I do not think Mr. Longley has been badly treated. I hope you will treat the church as leniently as possible in the matter, for it certainly is not to blame. As far as I know there is nothing but suspicions against Mr. Longley, and even now there is quite a number of the congregation who believe that he is all right. Up to three weeks ago I had the most implicit confidence in him. There will be no investigation. He has placed his resignation in the hands of the President of the Conference, and that effectually blocks anything in that direction. There is to be a meeting of the Church Board shortly, but they can do nothing. It is out of their hands."

Another prominent member of the congregation gave the following version of the scandal. The friends of the young lady whose name is so much mixed up in the case, noticed about three weeks ago a change in her demeanor, and certain little circumstances led them to suspect that there was a man in the case. They set a watch upon her movements to discover who her lover was, and were thunderstruck to discover that she was in close communication with Rev. Mr. Longley. That gentleman was also spied upon, traced to the Albion Hotel, where he spent three hours with her. This latter fact was discovered by detectives employed by the girl's friends. When they had all the facts established to their satisfaction, Rev. Mr. Longley was requested last Saturday to visit a down-town lawyer's office. He came, was confronted with the discovery, acknowledged the meetings, but denied anything criminal. On Wednesday he sent in his resignation to Rev. Dr. Potts.

Rev. Dr. Briggs, Secretary of the Methodist Conference, was also seen last night. Rev. Dr. Sutherland was present during the interview. Dr. Briggs stated no official information of the alleged scandal had reached him. He had heard the rumors, but he knew nothing more of the matter. "If," he continued, "there was any truth in the rumors it would be laid before Dr. Potts who would in turn summon a committee meeting to deal with the subject, but no official meeting has yet been held on the case." Pastor Longley is a graduate of Victoria University, where he took several prizes. For some time he was principal of a boys' college at Sackville, N.B. He was ordained about 16 years ago and has been pastor of St. James' and Dominion churches, Montreal and Dominion Church, Ottawa, from which place he came to Queen-street. He is a near relative of Attorney-General Longley of Nova Scotia.

Miss Blanche Willis Howard, of Bangor, who has made some fame as a story writer, is now engaged in compiling a novel in Stuttgart, and at the same time in keeping house, educating a family of nieces and nephews, nursing several cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever, supervising the translation of one of her novels into German, Italian and French, improving her memory and learning to use a typewriter.

In brief and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

SPRINGVILLE.

Correspondence of the Review.

DEATH.—The eight months old daughter of Mr. Levi Bowles died on Monday, the 13th inst., of inflammation of the lungs. The parents have the sympathy of this community.

VILLAGE CHANGES.—Mr. W. Fitzgerald has put up a new verandah for Mr. Wm. Clark. He has also commenced the foundation for Mr. Goodfellow's handsome new residence. Mr. Jas Walters has moved into a house hard by the church and Mr. Parker, the next dwelling south. It is probable there will not be any empty houses in the village soon.

RETURNED FARMING.—Mr. R. D. Dundas, who was lately married to Miss Grandy, of Manvers, has returned to the old homestead. A long and happy married life to you, Richard.

FRASERVILLE ITEMS.—Mr. Robt. Stewart is receiving treatment for his eyes from Dr. Halliday, of Peterborough. We wish him a speedy recovery....Mr. Archy Reynolds was called before the beak last week to answer an infraction of the Scott Act. He paid fifty dollars and costs. Mr. Reynolds expresses himself dissatisfied with the laws of this country and intends an early departure to the land of the screaming eagle.

HORSE LOST.—Mr. Alex. Campbell had a valuable horse die on Wednesday of last week. The animal was tied with a rope round the neck and is supposed to have bursted a blood vessel in pulling on the halter.

HOME ON A VISIT.—Messrs. Matthew Clarke and Joseph Thompson are home on a visit from Toronto, where they have spent part of the winter.

ANOTHER MOURNFUL EVENT.—On Monday morning, the 16th, Mrs. John J. Bennet passed away after a long illness. The remains were interred in the Little Lake Cemetery, Peterborough.

ACCIDENT.—On Sunday evening, as the Brown family were returning from church, in going up Clarke's hill the driver took occasion to gently remind one of the horses of the sin of procrastination, when the conscientious brutes sprang forward, smashed the double-tree and left the occupants of the rig to get down and walk home. Jim was struck by a flying splinter, and had to follow his team about half a mile. No further damage.

LEBRUN

LEADS THE STYLES IN CLOTHING.

SPLENDID BARGAINS!

700 PAIRS OF

TWEED PANTS

Bought at a Bankrupt Clearing Sale at Montreal and will be sold at half value.

SEE THE VALUE

TWEED PANTS AT $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 AND $2.50.

These are the Best Value ever offered and cannot be equalled.

Men, Youths and Boys who are wanting ordered or ready-made Clothing should call and examine our large stock of new Tweeds for Men's and Boys' wear.

H. LEBRUN,

The City Clothing Store,
No. 396 GEORGE STREET.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon

VERY CHOICE.

TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS

UNSMOKED.

Wholesale and Retail.

J. W. FLAVELLE,

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING POWDER

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

Free from all Adulterations.

Beware of Imitations

OUR SUGAR CURED

BREAKFAST BACON

CUT FROM

CAREFULLY SELECTED HOGS

—IS—

MILD AND SWEET.

GEO. MATTHEWS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND

CURES LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and General Debility.

PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR

DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND

Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S

COUGH AND LUNG CURE

Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Can.

READ

T. HURLEY'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at his office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

Buy the Genuine Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos. Also the Williams Sewing Machine.

D. SMART,

Only Authorized Agent for Town and County of Peterborough.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough. 1yd&w

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

GLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

RUPTURED AND Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints. Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

DEAR SIR,—I thank you for your PINE TAR CORDIAL. It has done me more good than anything I have ever used.
MRS. S. R. HARVEY, Cobourg.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers labelled thus: JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. 1yr d7

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d18

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d39

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Waterstreet, near Smith street. 1yd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 382. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer treets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 569, Peterborough P. O. d82-1yr

JOSEPH JONES,

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d61y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTR, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street. Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. d106w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.
R. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON.

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md11w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w&d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d22w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D.C.M., L.R.C.P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d12w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
6 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m
8 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 55 p m	Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	8 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	8 00 a m
8 50 p m		4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope.	11 00 a m
15 15 p m	do do	3 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Hiers, Norwood & Hastings.	1 15 p m.
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville.	11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore.	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a.m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Eldawaiha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Per New York, Mondays.	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

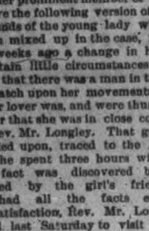
Office hours 8 a.m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund Accepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.



Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 94. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

WHITNEY BABY CARRIAGES.

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From O. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices.
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE

METROPOLITAN

GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London. Glasgow Edinburgh. Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

CARSLAKE'S

GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

		Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000 each prize.	$6,000
2nd " "	$2,000 " "	$4,000
3rd " "	$1,000 " "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$2,000	$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$4,500	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888

Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.

Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.

22d eod-1mos Mansion House, Montreal

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

THE

ATLAS

Assurance Co'y.,

OF ENGLAND

FOUNDED IN 1808.

—o—

CAPITAL

Six Millions of Dollars

—o—

Insurance written in all parts of Canada, Head Office for Dominion, Montreal.

—o—

E. E. HENDERSON,

Agent, Peterborough.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st.

Garden Tools,

Silver Dollar Spades

Spading Forks,

Manure Forks,

Steel Rakes,

Hoes,

Wheelbarrows,

Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

—o—

GEO. STETHEM.

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS!! TENTS!!!

—o—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street Peterborough.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 25 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

WORKING JEWELLER.

2. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

For Sale or to Rent

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough. Houses to rent.

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to ROBERT KINGAN.

Wants.

WANTED.

A COOK. Apply to MRS. PETER HAMILTON, Water-st. 2d93

WANTED.

STOUT INTELLIGENT BOY to learn pressroom work. Boys who are "small for their age" need not apply. REVIEW office. 3d94

WANTED.

A SITUATION as WORKING HOUSEKEEPER by a middle aged person, competent to take full charge. Apply by letter, HOUSEKEEPER, REVIEW Office. 2d93

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply HEENAN'S TEMPERANCE HOUSE, Hunter-st. 3d94

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. MISS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash. d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

General.

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Lace Curtains beautifully cleaned and finished 40 cents a pair.

Lace Curtains beautifully dyed all shades and finished, 90 cents per pair, at

PARKER'S Steam Dye Works.

6d94

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,

2mos362-w11 Millbrook P. O

D. BELLEGHEM,

Funeral Director.

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER. lyd33 JAS. R. DONELL

MONEY TO LEND

On best terms and lowest rates obtainable.

GEO. M. ROGER,

Peterborough, Solicitor, etc.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1888

PETER MITCHELL WRATHY.

HE TREATS THE HOUSE TO A GENUINE SENSATION.

The Fight Between the C. P. R. and the G. T. R.—Dr. Bergin's Amendment for a Six Months' Hoist of the Southwestern Railway Bill Lost on a Division.

OTTAWA, April 20.—The House was treated to a couple of sensations this evening, one of which was not down on the order paper, and those who saw and overheard it were considerably exercised thereat. It was a case of angriness and fist-shaking between Cumberland and Northumberland, viz.: Sir Charles Tupper and Peter Mitchell. Of late Mr. Mitchell has been given to regaling Sir Charles with "taffy" whenever occasion offered, and many of the members were beginning to wonder whether Peter was sincere or not in his professions of admiration for the abilities of the Finance Minister. They sit almost opposite each other on the front benches. Of course while Mr. Mitchell very often indulged in these flatteries of Sir Charles, he quite as often turned on him and his measures, and more especially in connection with his act extending for two years the granting of the subsidy to the Chignecto Marine Transport Railway Company, which is to run across the neck of the canal between the Strait of Northumberland and the Bay of Fundy, a distance of 17 miles. This subsidy is $150,000 for twenty years. The time for completing the railway, which is for the purpose of saving a sea voyage of 300 miles around Nova Scotia, is by Sir Charles' bill extended from July 1, 1890, to July 1, 1892, with a $5000 per month penalty for every month beyond that time. Sir Charles' act granting this extension was read a third time this afternoon, and Mr. Mitchell was very mad about it. He was also redhot when the act received a second reading last night. There are more than Peter that are greatly chagrined about granting this enormous bonus to the enterprise, which is described by some of the members as highly flighty and unnecessary. The railway will run through Sir Charles' county, Cumberland, and the County of Westmoreland, in New Brunswick.

Mr. Mitchell, when he saw Sir Charles had won the day, set about "getting" even in some way. At 4.35 p.m. the House went into committee on Mr. Bowell's proposed amendments to the Customs Act. These amendments are very lengthy. Just after Mr. Landry, the chairman of the committee, had reported progress to the Speaker and while the House was getting ready for the 6 o'clock recess, Mr. Mitchell rose and asked that further consideration of the amendments be delayed until next Tuesday. Peter goes to Montreal every Friday evening and he did not want the amendments to proceed in his absence. Both Mr. Bowell and Sir Charles laughed at the proposition and would not think of it. They thought it a display of "nerve" for a member to ask that important Government measures should be delayed to suit his private convenience. Then the House rose for recess.

There was the usual buzz and din all over the chamber as the members filed out to the corridors. Mr. Mitchell's face was flushed and he looked excited. He crossed over to Sir Charles' seat and made a threat that he would impede the evening work of the House because his request had not been entertained. He looked daggers at Sir Charles, who was sitting calmly in his seat. Mr. Mitchell made an offensive remark, addressing himself to the Minister of Finance and Mr. Bowell. Sir Charles arose to his feet and said that Mr. Mitchell's proposition to postpone the discussion of the amendments was the most impertinent one he had ever heard on the floor of the House.

This made the man from Northumberland feel very bad and he shook his fist at Sir Charles and called out: "Damn you and the whole crowd. I don't care a damn for any of you." Then he took a hasty circuit around the clerk's table, which stands in the centre of the room, and continued his threats against Sir Charles and his colleagues. Several members made a sudden movement towards the table. Sir Charles was pale and he looked very angry. Those that had not heard Mr. Mitchell's irrational words enquired anxiously about what was going on. Sir Charles then left the chamber through the east door and Mr. Mitchell bolted out at the west side. The little scene created a great deal of excitement.

It was expected that there would be more of it at the evening session, but Mr. Mitchell did not renew his anger in any way. He remained in the chamber until nearly train time, when he left for Montreal, probably the most ruffled man in the Capital.

The next interesting event in the proceedings occurred at 8.30 this evening. It was in connection with Mr. Hall's bill to incorporate the Southwestern Railway over which the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk people have had a fight in the lobby, in the Railway Committee and in the House. This proposed road is to run from Caughnawaga to the frontier at Dundee, where it will connect with the railway system of Northern New York. The Grand Trunk now operates a line in the same territory and they contend that there is no necessity for the new road. The Canadian Pacific Railway officials and some of their contractors have been here in force for three weeks in favor of their bill, and Mr. W. W. Wainwright has been holding up the end of the Grand Trunk. The lobbying on this bill was very spirited, so much so that Col. O'Brien of Muskoka called the attention of the House to it with closed doors.

On Tuesday the Railway Committee reported Mr. Hall's bill to the House. Last night Dr. Bergin moved an amendment for a six months' hoist. An hour was allotted to discuss the Doctor's motion and the hour lapsed before a vote was taken. It was renewed to-night, and it was decided to take the vote the minute the bill was called up. The members were called in and Dr. Bergin's amendment was put. The amendment was lost on a division of 86 to 57. The feeling over the division was very strong and the vote was taken with breathless silence. The ministry was split on the question. Sir John, Sir Charles, Sir Hector and Mr. Carling voted against the amendment, and Sir Adolphe Caron, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Chapleau, Mr. Costigan and Mr. Bowell voted yea, or for the Grand Trunk's contention. The private members were split up in all directions.

The Division.

The vote on the six months' hoist is as follows, the Conservatives being in small capitals, the Liberals in Roman and the Independents in italic:

YEAS.

Armstrong.	Des Jardins.	McMill'n(Vau.)
Bain (Soul.)	Dessaint.	McMullen.
Barron.	Doyon.	Meigs.
Benoit.	Edgar.	Mills (Both.)
Bernier.	Eisenhauer.	Patterson(Es)
Bourassa.	Ferguson (Wel)	Perry.
Bowell.	Geoffrion.	Platt.
Brien.	Girouard.	Prefontaine.
Caron.	Godbout.	Rinfret.
Casgrain.	Guay.	Rykert.
Chapleau.	Hickey.	Ste. Marie.
Choquette.	Labrelle.	Shanly.
Chouinard.	Labrosse.	Thomson.
Cockburn.	Landerkin.	Tisdale.
Cook.	Landry.	Turcot.
Costigan.	Laurier.	Vanasse.
Couture.	Lister.	Wallace.
Curran.	Lovett.	Watson.
De St. Georges.	McLelan.	Wilson (Len.)

—57

NAYS.

Bain (Went).	Guilbault.	Porter.
Baker.	Guillet.	Priolt.
Bergeron.	Haggart.	Reid.
Bowman.	Hale.	Robillard.
Boyle.	Hall.	Roome.
Brown.	Henderson.	Ross.
Burns.	Hesson.	Rowand.
Cameron.	Holton.	Royal.
Cargill.	Hutchepeth.	Scriver.
Carling.	Innes.	Skinner.
Chisholm.	Jamieson.	Small.
Cimon.	Joncas.	Smith (Ontario)
Cochrane.	Kirk.	Somerville.
Coughlin.	Lang.	Sproule.
Daoust.	Langevin.	Sutherland.
Davin.	Laurie.	Temple.
Davis.	Macdonald.	Therien.
Dawson.	Macdowall.	Trow.
Desaulniers.	McCulla.	Tupper.
Dupont.	M'Dougall(Pic).	Tyrwhitt.
Ellis.	M'Dougall(CB.)	Ward.
Ferg'n (L. & G.)	Madill.	Weldon (St. J).
Ferg'n (Ren).	Mara.	White (Ren).
Fiset.	Marshall.	Wilmot.
Flynn.	Mills (Anp).	Wilson(Argen)
Gauthier.	Mitchell.	Wood (West).
Gigault.	Moffat.	Wright.
Gordon.	Montplaisir.	Yeo.
Grandbois.	Perley (Assn).	—86

Little or no track was kept of the pairs. When the vote was announced Mr. Curran of Montreal moved an amendment to the effect that the Act shall not go into force until May 1, 1890. The Speaker ruled this motion out of order, as such a proposition required notice to be given.

The report of the Railway Committee was adopted on the same division, and the Canadian Pacific Railway victory was signalled by "smiles" of more kinds than one. For a small piece of railway, some twenty-two miles, this has been a very sharp and interesting fight.

The other business of the House was principally in the direction of advancing Government business, including consideration of the the bill to amend the Dominion Election Act, the act to amend the law relating to fraudulent trade marks and the amendments to the Customs Act. The Minister of Justice agreed to the insertion of a clause in his act relating to trade marks in the direction of Mr. Denison's bill, which was thrown out the other day, respecting the rights of bottle owners. The clause prohibits the use or traffic in bottles on which there is a registered trade mark by others than the owners thereof, without the permission of said owners. Violation of this clause makes the parties amenable to the penalties of the act.

Mr. Barron offered a couple of amendments to the Dominion Elections Act, which the Minister of Justice said he would take into consideration. All of these acts stand for further consideration.

Mr. Abbott's bill from the Senate, respecting the international convention for the preservation of submarine telegraph cables, was read a third time and passed.

The House adjourned at 11.20.

Gold in the Peace River Country.

OTTAWA, April 20.—Before the Schultz Committee to-day Isadore Clut, Bishop of Ariendale in the Peace River Country, gave interesting evidence. He said gold existed in large quantities in many of the rivers. He knew placer miners who made $16 a day, but the winter was so long and the water so high that the period during which they could labor was short. Gold and coal deposits were known to exist in abundance in the country. The whole country could be opened up by building a railway from Calgary, 400 miles, to Fort McMurray, where steamers could ply to Fort Smith. Then another railway track, twenty miles long, would connect with the McKenzie River, where navigation was excellent to the Arctic Sea.

SUICIDE AT HAMILTON.

The Wife of Rev. C. E. Whitcombe of St. Matthew's Church Drowns Herself.

HAMILTON, April 20.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Whitcombe, the wife of Rev. Charles E. Whitcombe, assistant in St. Matthew's Church, deliberately jumped off the southeast pier of the canal, about eight feet from the end, into the waters of Lake Ontario, and was drowned before anyone could reach the spot to save her. She had been around the Beach almost all afternoon, and before going out on the pier she had conversations with several of the men down there. She did not appear to be worried about anything, and talked quite rationally. Three men saw the woman take the jump, and they hurriedly ran out on the pier, but were too late. The body was recovered, and it was found that she had tied a 20-pound stone about her waist and pinned her clothing down so that it would not buoy her up. Her identity not having been discovered at the time, an inquest was commenced this afternoon. No cause is known for Mrs. Whitcombe's rash deed.

The Explanation Wasn't Satisfactory.

SARDIS, Miss., April 20.—Edward Cossar, a colored mad of considerable wealth, returned home unexpectedly last night and found Rev. Sidney Hibbler, pastor of the Methodist Church and principal of the school, at his home. Not being satisfied with the minister's explanation, he shot and killed him.

Mrs. C. H. Moore, of Philadelphia, wears the most costly diamonds of all the society women of the Quaker City. Her jewels are said to be worth about $60,000.

Mrs. John W. Mackay has been having a grand round of entertainments in the form of dinner parties at her residence in Buckingham Gate. Her visiting list grows steadily bigger and better.

LATEST LONDON TOPICS.

JOS. CHAMBERLAIN ON GLADSTONE'S IRISH POLICY.

A Home Rule Organ's Abuse of the Fisheries Commissioner—Anniversary of Lord Beaconsfield's Death—The Primrose League—Matthew Arnold's Funeral.

LONDON, April 20.—"I mixed," said Mr. Chamberlain yesterday, "with representative men of all parties, of all classes and of the different nationalities of which the people of the United States is composed, and with very few exceptions I could find hardly one who approved the policy of Mr. Gladstone and the bills which he introduced."

This is said of Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy and creates some surprise even among those Englishmen who would like it to be true. Mr. Chamberlain adds that the small minority of Americans who did approve of Home Rule did not understand it. More important, perhaps, is Mr. Chamberlain's declaration that in this country old party lines have entirely disappeared. There are no more Liberals nor Tories. There are Parnellites and Unionists. Interesting, also, is his remark that for the first time since the passing of the Crimes Act he would without the slightest hesitation appeal to the country in the certainty that the Unionist majority would be as great or greater than now.

The Home Rule answer to this takes the form of saying that Mr. Chamberlain's fisheries treaty has been rejected by the Senate, and the Unionist organs fall into the same error. Everybody here seems to think that the ratification of the treaty is in the hands of the Foreign Affairs Committee. The leading Home Rule organ in Ireland, we are told, exults in its rejection, and observes that "Mr. Chamberlain is a discarded Brummagen ambassador, pinchback plenipotentiary, paste publicist and diplomatist without diplomacy."

In describing the Devonshire house dinner to Mr. Chamberlain I mentioned the omission of the United States and Canada from the toast list, and the failure to recognize in any way either Mr. White or Mr. Colmer. The matter was brought to the attention of the committee, the mistake made having been much commented on. Every explanation has now been offered to both gentlemen by the chairman of the committee, who called on them for that purpose.

London was painted a pale, bilious yellow yesterday in honor of the seventh anniversary of Lord Beaconsfield's death. Everybody wore the pale, but rather pretty primrose flower. His bronze statue in Westminster square was covered with yellow chaplets from the habitations of the Primrose League. The Government papers enthuse over the undoubted universal observance of the day, and draw from it an inference of the ever growing popularity of the coercion policy in Ireland. It is positive that never before has the day been so generally observed. Every thing animate or inanimate that walks, creeps or stands still is wearing yellow—the promenaders in Piccadilly and Pall Mall, the cunning cabbies who ply for fares in the Conservative Club, and the costermongers, too, and the country gentry in town shopping. The Grand Habitation of the Primrose League met in Her Majesty's theatre to-day, and amid great applause the secretary deposited a book on the table which showed that the membership had swelled to nearly one million.

Hundreds of well-known literary people traveled down to Staines yesterday morning to be present at the funeral of Matthew Arnold at Laleham. The village church has no railroad station, because Lord Lucas spent £60,000 to prevent the iron horse from crossing his grounds. It was Lord Lucas also who wrote the interesting pamphlet endeavoring to prove that the noise of railroad traffic would prevent the hens from laying their eggs. In carriages, vans and farm wagons of the most heterogeneous description, and some on foot, the distinguished company reached the quaint old village church of early English architecture, with a genuine ivy-mantled tower. At midday when the bell began its mournful tolling, there were assembled in the church, among others whom I recognized, Prof. Jowett, Lecky, the historian; Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, Henry James, the novelist, Mrs. Humphrey Ward, Robert Browning, Oscar Browning, the Right Hon. Antony Mundella, M.P., the Right Hon. Mr. Leonard Courtney, M.P., Sir Edwin Arnold and many other poets, painters and seers. Wreaths were sent by Lord Tennyson, Sir John Millais and Mr. Hughes, who, in Tom Brown's School Days, has so lovingly depicted the character of Dr. Arnold. The service was very simple, solemn and sincere, and amongthe strangely mingled congregation of villagers, who have never been out of sight of the Laleham church spire and of roaming cosmopolites, there was hardly a dry eye at the grave. Few men have had such an honored funeral, and the demeanor of those present clearly demonstrated that Matthew Arnold possessed kindly personal attributes.

A Parnellite Measure.

LONDON, April 20.—Mr. Carey (Nationalist), with Mr. Parnell's sanction, will introduce into Parliament on Wednesday a bill giving county government to Ireland.

The G.O.M.'s Sympathy.

LONDON, April 20.—Mr. Gladstone has written a letter of sympathy to Dr. Rosaire of Youghal, who was dismissed from the magistracy for issuing a proclamation in support of a meeting which the Government had proclaimed.

Their Sentences Reduced.

DUBLIN, April 20.—The appeal of Mr. Gill, M.P., who was sentenced to two months' imprisonment for offences in connection with the Crimes Act, reduced his term of imprisonment to two weeks. The sentence of Mr. Cox, M.P., has been reduced from four months to three weeks.

The Boycott at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, April 20.—At a meeting of the bricklayers' and masons' union held last evening the following resolution was carried unanimously:

That this Bricklayers' and Masons' Union boycott the new city hall building, and that any member working on said building be fined $50 while the corporation retains Buscombe in the city's employ.

Stricken with Apoplexy.

BERLIN, April 20.—Mr. Pendleton, the United States Minister, while traveling to Frankfort, was stricken with apoplexy. He was taken to the hospital at Wiesbaden, where he now lies.

Brewers Refuse to Sign.

CLEVELAND, O., April 20.—The brewery owners here have refused to sign the yearly contract offered by the men and there will be a strike.

THE SINEWS OF WAR.

Boulanger's Money to Contest Le Nord Furnished by Duke D'Eu.

LONDON, April 20.—Duke D'Eu, who married Miss Curtis of New York, who at the time of the ceremony was the divorced wife of Frederick Stephens of New York, furnished the money to enable Gen. Boulanger to contest the election in the Department of the Nord. The Duke has control of the interest of his wife in the fortune of her former husband.

Boulanger's Policy.

PARIS, April 20.—A correspondent had an interview last night with Gen. Boulanger. The general said: "I will never allow myself to be drawn into any group, and I even may not go regularly to the Chamber of Deputies. I shall be firm, calm and patient. I may not represent the nation yet, but I live in hope of doing so. My policy is essentially practical and constructive, to make our Republican institutions conform to those of America instead of being built as now on the hybrid English model, which is wholly unsuited to the genius of the French character. In this work all true French citizens will be my friends. Tell them this in America where I know many good people, and where some of my fellow-countrymen may be asking themselves if I am a charlatan. Tell them I am not."

To be Nominated for Isere.

PARIS, April 20.—Gen. Boulanger will be nominated for the Chamber of Deputies to fill the vacancy existing in the Department of Isere.

Attempted Suicide.

MONTREAL, April 20.—Minnie Brunelle, a pretty and well educated girl of French extraction, who was betrayed a short time ago by the man to whom she was engaged to be married and has since fallen lower and lower, finally becoming a permanent inmate of a house of ill-fame, attempted suicide on Tuesday by taking sugar of lead but was unsuccessful. She has since disappeared.

A Disabled Steamer.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The captain of the steamer Athos, which arrived to-day, reports that on Wednesday evening a four-masted steamer was seen apparently with machinery disabled. He thinks it was the Red Star steamer Rhyeland.

REV. MR. LONGLEY DEPARTS.

The Pastor of Queen-street Methodist Church Crosses the Border.

TORONTO, April 20.—Every other topic was forgotten on the streets to-day because of the sensation connected with the resignation of the Rev. Benjamin Longley as pastor of the Queen-street Methodist Church, and the charges of his immoral acts with several women of his congregation in general, and one young class teacher in particular. The concensus of opinion was that Mr. Longley is guilty.

The following despatch was received to-day:

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., April 20.—Rev. Mr. Longley arrived here on the Grand Trunk Railway accommodation at 11.10 this morning, went across to the American side, and is now in the neighborhood of the Falls.

A reporter called at Mr. Longley's residence this afternoon and was received by Mrs. Longley, who was just seeing a couple of lady callers to the door. Mrs. Longley appeared to be much affected. In answer to enquiries she stated that Mr. Longley had gone away this morning, but to where she did not know. He had had this trip in view for some time. Mrs. Longley said that her husband would be away for some time, and when asked if he would not return until "this trouble" was settled she said she knew of none beyond untruthful statements that had appeared in the newspapers. Mrs. Longley declined to be questioned any further.

Cameron's Pals on Trial.

WINNIPEG, April 20.—There are no new developments in the Union Bank robbery. The trial proceeded to-day, but nothing of importance was elicited. Beverly Robertson, the solicitor, who secured the money from McKittrick's hotel for the bank, will testify to-morrow. The prisoners express confidence in being acquitted, and a telegram from Pembina says Cameron asserts they are not implicated.

Funeral of Erastus Howard at Oshawa.

OSHAWA, April 20.—The funeral of the late Erastus Howard took place to the Union Cemetery to-day and was largely attended. Mr. Howard was for many years deputy-sheriff of the county of Ontario.

A $10,000 Fire at Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 20.—The residence of S. W. Beard at the head of Simpson-street was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Loss on building alone is $10,000.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Fold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleux, 50	$ 8 00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c	40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c	10
"	" Braid and Spools	10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton	13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves	25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c.	30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for	25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer	47
		$10 00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general proficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1888.

THE SCOTT ACT DEFEATS.

WHATEVER may have been the causes there is no doubt about the fact that on Thursday the Scott Act suffered severe defeats in the seven counties—or rather the nine counties, as three counties voted together—in which a vote was taken on the repeal of the Act. In each of the counties it had been adopted by large majorities, and these majorities were reversed.

Of course, opponents of the Dominion Government must find in this a complaint against the Government, and the Globe says that the vote was brought on at an unfavourable time. Sometime ago a decision was made that a vote could not be taken until within fifteen days of the expiration of the three years, and the supporters of the Scott Act approved of the decision. If the vote had been brought on sooner, the Government would have been attacked; and if it had delayed the voting until summer it would have been accused of violating the spirit of the law by preventing the vote being taken when the three years had expired.

As the people in these counties gave large majorities in favor of the Act, it seems certain that they favored the principle of the measure. Their action now indicates that they are dissatisfied with it because it has not been carried out in these counties, and their verdict is that the Ontario Government, which assumed the duty of enforcing it, failed in its duty. Mr. Mowat and his colleagues preferred to use the law as a machine for making votes for their party.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

COBOURG.

BURGLARY.—Mr. R. Mulholland and family have been spending the winter in Southern California for the benefit of the health of their son, and returned home on Tuesday. They had left their premises securely locked up when they left home, and on returning found everything, apparently, in the same position as when they went away, but on investigation it was found that burglars had entered by means of a skeleton key and goods to the amount of about $1,000 taken; consisting of table and bed linen, ladies and gents furs, cutlery, plated goods, canned fruits, wines, hams, butter, &c. The thieves had emptied a large butter crock and filled it with coal and salt. The fruit was packed in a large box and nailed up, covered with carpet. All the fruit was taken and the box nailed up again. Three or four cases of claret and a lot of Bass' ale also disappeared.

Broke Through the Ice.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—"Wm. Adams of Peterborough, who had been working with Mr. Crowley for some time, left on Wednesday for home. He went along the Caygeon road down the ice, but was not used to travelling on the ice, and did not know the weak spots from the good. A little way past the narrows he drove right into a hole. It had been caused by an expansion of the ice in the winter, and was just skimmed over with a thin sheet of ice. Fortunately there were some Indians not far off engaged in spearing fish, and they saw what had happened. They all ran to the rescue, eleven of them, and getting hold of the harness they pulled the team and Adams, and sleigh, clean out on the ice. It was a most lucky thing for Adams that the Indians were around, for he would certainly have lost his team, if not his own life. He had no great liking for the Indians before, but he will now feel grateful to them for the rest of his life."

For Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest ordinary food, Scott's Emulsion can be digested and give strength and flesh when all other food fails. See what Dr. A. H. Peck, Penn. Med. College, Philadelphia, says: "I have used and prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and find it an excellent preparation agreeing well with the stomach, and its continued use adding greatly to the strength and comfort of the patient." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

TEXT OF THE AGREEMENT

BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE C.P.R. AUTHORITIES.

The Finance Minister Gives Notice that on Tuesday He Will Move the House into Committee to Consider the Government Resolution.

OTTAWA, April 20.—At a late hour to-night Sir Charles Tupper gave notice that he would, on Tuesday, move the House into committee on the following resolution, reciting in full the agreement with the Canadian Pacific Railway, and its abrogation of the monopoly clause:

Resolved, That in view of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company having agreed with the Government of Canada to relinquish, for the consideration and upon the conditions herein set forth, the exclusive privilege possessed by it in virtue of Article XV of the agreement between Her Majesty and the company, contained in the schedule to the Act 44 Victoria, chap. 1, it is expedient to provide:

(a) The Government of Canada will guarantee the payment of interest until maturity on bonds of the company to an amount not exceeding $15,000,000. The principal of such bonds to be payable not later than fifty years from their date, and the principal and interest to be secured as hereinafter set forth.

(b) Such bonds shall be secured by deed of bargain and sale to trustees of all the company's title to the unsold lands, forming part of the company's land grant under the said act, and such deeds shall be subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council.

(c) The proceeds of the sales of the lands hereinbefore mentioned shall be paid over to the Government of Canada, together with any other sums which the company pay over for the purpose to the Government, and the whole shall constitute a fund which shall be held by the Government for the exclusive purpose of satisfying the principal of the said bonds.

(d) On the amount so set apart, not exceeding the amount necessary to redeem the bonds hereinbefore mentioned, the Government shall pay to the company interest at the rate of 3½ per cent., such interest to be applied in satisfaction of interest of the bonds as the same accrues, but if the company makes default in the payment of any interest falling due on any of the bonds aforesaid the company shall, if required by the Government, pay over all interest collected under uncompleted sales upon the price of lands sold, as well as the principal realized from sales thereof, and the Government shall allow on the amount of such payments interest at the rate hereinbefore mentioned and shall apply the same and all interest accrued on the principal fund towards the payment of the interest on the said bonds.

(e) So soon as the aggregate amount of the said fund in the hands of the Government equals the principal of all the bonds of the said issue then outstanding, the company may pay in a further sum to cover any interest up to date and thereupon the mortgage shall be discharged, and thereafter all interest on such bonds shall be paid by the Government, as also the principal at maturity, but the Government shall be in no way liable for the payment of any part of the principal except so far as the company have provided it with a fund for that purpose.

(f) Such minister as is designated by the Government shall be one of the trustees under the said mortgage deed, and the appointment of the other trustees shall be made subject to the approval of the Government.

(g) All land grant bonds which form part of the former issue by the company and are now held by it shall be cancelled and the mortgage hereinbefore mentioned shall be subject to the payment of such of the said land grant bonds as are outstanding, but all sums due or to become due for unpaid purchase money to the company on account of lands heretofore sold shall be applied to the payment of such land grant bonds according to the terms of the mortgage covering the same.

(h) If the company under any powers granted to it sells or leases the branch of its railway east of the Red River between St. Boniface and the boundary of the United States, any incorporated company to whom such sale or lease is made may operate such branch as if it had been incorporated for the purpose, but the moneys resulting from such sale or lease shall be applied either towards the payment of the bonds secured by the railway or towards increasing the security for such bonds, by expenditure on the railway or partly in one way and partly in the other.

The Disallowance Correspondence.

WINNIPEG, April 20.—The correspondence between Premier Greenway and Sir John respecting disallowance was laid before the Legislature this afternoon. There is nothing new in it. Mr. Greenway seems to have taken a firm stand, and after the delay which caused him to leave returned to Ottawa at Sir John's request, he stating that the question was of such importance that it could not be settled at once.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpared are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hands and brain.

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE

FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for

Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been Instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—"INVERLEA,"

The property of Judge Dennistoun, containing about eleven acres of land with the residence, stables, outbuildings, &c., &c. This property has a frontage of about 970 feet on Water street, and 925 on Smith street and about 400 feet on the river, and is one of the most advantageously situated properties in Town for sub-division and sale as Building Lots.

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead,

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 322 feet on Concession Street, and 230 on the road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub-divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "B," Ashburnham,

Containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 660 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 24x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HAULTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House Hill. There is about ¾ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c, soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE,

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 18, in 13th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,
Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

3md85

Hornford's Acid Phosphate.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

For Chief of Police.

The Brockville Times says:—"Sergeant Young is an applicant for the chiefship of the Peterborough police force, and according to the papers of that town is considered one of the best outsiders who have applied for the position. Brockville can ill afford to lose such a faithful, efficient and reliable officer as Sergeant Young. Should his application be accepted, our loss will be their gain."

In Brief and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happines to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

A Popular Pastor.

The Norwood Register says:—"We learn that the R. C. congregation in this place have decided to commence the erection of a fine residence for their popular pastor, the Rev. P. Conway, at an early date. The location of the building has not yet been decided upon. The estimated cost is $2,500. When this building is completed our Roman Catholic friends will have the most valuable church property in this section of the country."

To Save Life

Frequently requires prompt action. An hour's delay waiting for the doctor may be attended with serious consequences, especially in cases of Croup, Pneumonia, and other throat and lung troubles. Hence, no family should be without a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has proved itself, in thousands of cases, the best Emergency Medicine ever discovered. It gives prompt relief, and prepares the way for a thorough cure, which is certain to be effected by its continued use.

S. H. Latimer, M. D., Mt. Vernon, Ga., says: "I have found Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a perfect cure for Croup in all cases. I have known the worst cases relieved in a very short time by its use, and I advise all families to use it in sudden emergencies, for coughs, croup, &c."

A. J. Eidson, M. D., Middletown, Tenn., says: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."

"I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral," writes E. Bragdon, of Palestine, Texas, "believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister.

d167-w51

GOUGH BROS.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN,

Always endeavoring to be abreast of the times, are constantly changing and bringing in a variety of New Goods suitable for all occasions. Variety is the spice of life. All work and no play makes John a dull boy. To make ourselves intelligent, happy and bright, it is necessary to spice our lives with a little variety. Without it life would be monotonous, hence the very great desire of humanity for "Changes;" change of dress, change of style, change of everything that is wearable and tearable, but above all, change of the High-priced Clothiers.

The Wonderful Cheap Men are equal to the emergency. They are showing ten cases of American Novelties, the latest choice of the season, and too utterly too too to murmur, but quite capable of exciting the admiration of all beholders, and certainly a great treat to one's visionary organs, while their prices knock all the other clothiers cold. While passing, step in a little and see, and wade through their massive aggregations of Bargains.

CHILDREN'S SUITS FOR - - - - - - - - - 89C.
MEN'S SUITS FOR - - - - $2.50 WORTH $5.50.
MEN'S BLUE SERGE SUITS FOR $3.50 WORTH $6.50.
WORKING PANTS - - - - - - - 25C. PER PAIR.
SUNDAY PANTS - - - - - - - - - - $1.50.
HATS FOR - - - - - - - 10C., 25C., AND 50C.

are among some of the attractions, but the big attraction for this week will be a

$12.00 FINE WORSTED SUIT FOR $6.90.

They give you thousands of Children's Suits to select from and thousands of Men's Suits at prices that paralyze all competition. Ask for any of the goods mentioned, and see if they do as they advertise. For the Biggest Bargains on earth remember

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

This space belongs to Manufacturers' Life and Accident Insurance Company. Average daily business about $25,000.

WILSON & MORRISON
Managers for Eastern Ontario.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite.

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE WEEKLY REVIEW.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2 25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Buy the Genuine Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos. Also the Williams Sewing Machine.

D. SMART,
Only Authorized Agent for Town and County of Peterborough.

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough lyd&w

GRAND SPECIAL OPENING

—OF THE NEW—

Ladies' Fancy Goods Store.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

Late of Montreal, has pleasure in presenting for the inspection of the Ladies of Peterborough her new and choicely assorted stock of FANCY GOODS, etc., just opened out in the store formerly occupied by Stone & Bailey, Next door to Mr. John Craig's Confectionery, George Street.

Ladie's Fine Underwear, Children's Fine Underwear, Infants' Fine Underwear, Fancy Knitting Wools Fancy Fingering Wools, Embroidery Materials, Crochet Materials, Stamped Linen Goods, Perforated Felt Goods, Canvas Work, Silk Tassel and Cord, Moleskin, Velvet and Plushes, Plush and other Novelties, Antimacassars, Fancy Baskets.

The Goods represent the Newest Novelties of the Season, and are the pick of the best houses. Ladies will find the time well spent in inspecting these Goods. Patronage Solicited. Stamping done on short notice.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & w8

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh winds; generally fair weather, with light showers in some localities; no decided change in temperature.

Gloves and Hosiery.

Is our stock full? Certainly! Full in quality, full in variety of material, full in diversity of price. We should hardly sustain our reputation on less. Everybody who wishes to select gloves or hosiery should see our stock. The wide range which our stock embraces gives the fullest possible choice. Gloves to match any of our new costume cloths and dress goods. Call at the golden lion for gloves and hosiery.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers can always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. ds

St. Andrew's Church.

An organ recital was given last night in St. Andrew's Church by Mr. Crowe. It was well received and much appreciated by a very respectable audience. This young gentleman is evidently a musician of much ability, and his rendering of the different numbers, while displaying much feeling and sympathy with his subjects, was yet not deficient in power when necessary. One pleasing feature of the rendition was that Mr. Crowe did not fall into the error of some and give much noise and little music.

Mortuary Statistics.

The return of mortuary statistics for March, 1888, shows that there were 19 deaths in Peterborough during the month, 10 males and 9 females. The causes of death were, diphtheria, three males and three females, constitutional diseases, two males and one female, local diseases, four males and three females, and developmental diseases, one male and two females. The deaths in other places were, Toronto 214, Hamilton 64, Ottawa 73, Kingston 19, Belleville 11, Guelph 13, St. Thomas 13, Brantford 17, Chatham 8, Windsor 18, Woodstock 14 and Galt 13.

Enthusiastic Visitors.

The Orillia Packet says:—"Deputy-Reeve Ramsay speaks with enthusiasm of the manner in which the deputation who waited upon Mr. Macklin, C.E., this week were received by Mr. Stapleton and other residents of Peterborough. The visitors were taken to inspect the waterworks, and other points of interest in the finest town in Canada. It may be worth mentioning that Peterborough pays $4,000 per year to a company for water services—fire protection, street watering, &c.—which Orillia ratepayers have without cost. The electric lighting, too, is paid for by the ratepayers there, a private company owning the plant, and reaping the profit. In these respects Peterborough Council was not as wide-awake as that of Orillia." Orillia has waterworks without cost? Who paid for constructing them? The Packet has overstated what Peterborough pays for water and it should remember that every town is not built under a lake.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. ds9

Services To-morrow.

The following is a list of services in the several churches to-morrow:—

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—At St. Peter's Cathedral, Roman Catholic, there will be three masses celebrated, the first at 7 a. m. the second at 8 a. m., and the third at 10.30 a. m. Vespers at 7 p. m.

ST. LUKE'S (Ashburnham).—Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Morning Prayer, Sermon and Litany at 11 a. m.; Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7. p. m. All seats free.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—The regular services will be conducted as follows:—Holy Communion at 8.30 a.m.; Morning Prayer, Litany and sermon at 11 a.m.; Evening Prayer and sermon at 7 p.m.

ST. PAUL'S.—The usual services will be held. The Rev. E. T. Torrance, M. A., pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH, Murray-St.—The usual services will be held, morning and evening. The Rev. P. Clifton Parker, pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH, Charlotte St.—At 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. the Rev. I. Tovell will conduct the services.

METHODIST CHURCH, George-st.—Regular services at 11 a. m., and 7 a. m. conducted by the Rev. S. J. Thompson.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The usual services will be conducted. The Rev. Alex. Bell, pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH, Mark-st. (Ashburnham).—The usual services conducted by the Rev. J. C. Wilson. Morning subject, "The Modern Pharisee," evening subject, "The Publican."

For delicacy and richness of flavor, use "Royal Extracts."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Gospel Temperance Song Service.

To-morrow at 4 p.m. in the W. C. T. U. Hall, conducted by Mr. W. Stock. Address by Mr. Sutherland, and recitation by Miss Mary Fife.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Do Not Fail

to hear the Prize Contest M Pronunciation at the "Y" Anniversary, Temperance Hall, George-st, Tuesday evening, April 24th. See Monday's paper for programme. Tickets 25cts. 1d94 Pay List.

Street Inspector Pope filed his regular fortnightly pay list with the town Treasurer this morning. It amounted to $222. This is the largest one that has been presented in a year and street cleaning accounts for it. There are upwards of forty names on it.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple Syrup from R. Kidd at the Pantry. d89

Why?

An old citizen remarked this morning that the farmers are getting later each year in turning up at the market. A few years ago it was not uncommon to see quite a number of waggons on the square as early as eight o'clock, but at the present time the majority of farmers reached town about nine or ten o'clock, and some even later.

Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held in the school room of St. Paul's Church, on Tuesday evening, 24th inst., at 8 o'clock. A good programme has been provided. Refreshments will be served; admission 25 cents. All are cordially invited. As this will be the last of the season special efforts are being made to make it the best. 6d91

The Town Well.

The town pump is an established institution and all that is required is a caretaker to make the job complete. At the same time it might be well for the committee to call around and see the puddle that is formed in front of it, there being no way for the water to run off. The water is becoming better to the taste and smell, day by day, and as the quantity taken out of it keeps increasing, it will become better still.

Good Prices.

Mr. Charles Stapleton, auctioneer, officiated at a sale of lands owned by Mrs. Gilmour, on Friday. The property is situated at the corner of Park and Gilmour-sts., a long distance from the centre of the town. Three of the lots were sold, one fronting on Park-st. with a depth of 70 feet bringing $14.50 per foot. There was a good offer made for the homestead, but as it did not quite come up to the reserved bid, the owner refused to sell.

The Gun Club.

The following are the scores made at the Gun Club practice match on Friday afternoon:—

H. Calcutt	1	1	1	0	1	1	1	1	1	0—8
R. Tivey	0	0	1	1	0	1	1	1	1	0—6
A. E. Thompson	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	0—3
J. D Collins	0	1	1	1	1	0	1	1	1	1—8
H. W. Kent	0	0	1	1	0	1	0	0	1	1—5
H. Neil	1	1	0	0	1	1	0	1	0	0—5
R. W. Tivey	1	0	0	0	1	1	1	1	0	1—6
C. W. Calcutt	0	1	1	0	1	0	1	0	0	0—4

Court Little John.

The following are the newly elected officers of Court Little John, No. 92, Canadian Order of Foresters:—

Bro. W. M. Green	J.P.C.R
" Jos. Sanders	C.R.
" R. J. Nerthercut	V.C.R.
" W. H. Stevens	Chap.
" R. H. Lithgow	R.S.
" Jno. Sawers	F.S.
" C. F. Manning	Treas.
" Jas. Burnet	S.W.
" D. Doig	J.W.
" Robt. Mann	S.B.
" Jno. Phippin	J.B.
" Jno. Clake, M.D.	Court Physician
" Thos. Rutherford	Delegate to the H.W.H. Court.

HE who drinks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. ds9

The Riversides.

There was a large attendance at the Commercial House, on Friday night, when the members of the Riverside Lacrosse club held a meeting. It was decided to purchase new navy blue suits and procure first-class sticks, from Montreal. A badge was chosen and the Secretary was instructed to communicate with the various clubs in Toronto, with a view to arrange a match to take place here on the morning of the 24th of May. A committee was appointed to see about building a sidewalk from Elizabeth-st. to the park entrance, and after transacting some minor business, the meeting adjourned for one week.

Organized.

The members of the Ætna Lacrosse Club, one of our most prominent junior organizations, held a meeting at the Queen's hotel on Friday night, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

PRESIDENT.—Mr. John Trebell.
CAPTAIN.—Mr. J. Sanderson.
TREASURER.—Mr. Sid Weir.
SECRETARY.—Mr. Wm. Dumble.
FIELD CAPTAIN.—Mr. Thos. Duncan.
COMMITTEE.—Messrs. T. Begley, J. King and R. Canning. Another meeting will be held at the same place on Friday evening next.

Resolution of Condolence.

At an emergent meeting of Peterborough Lodge, No. 155, A. F. & A. M., held on Friday evening, the following resolution of condolence was placed on the minutes:—

To V. W. Bro. W. Paterson:—

The members of Peterborough Lodge, No. 155, A.F. & A.M., have heard with deep regret of the death of Walter Paterson, Esq., father of V. W. Brother W. Paterson, an honoured and respected member of this lodge, and hereby desire to place on record their deep sorrow at the affliction that has fallen on him by the death of a kind father and a citizen universally respected, and whose character was without stain or reproach. We sincerely trust that the G. A. O.T.W., the disposer of all events—may give you consolation in this the hour of affliction.

Forestry.

At the regular meeting of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C.O.F., held on Friday evening, April 20th, 1888, the following officers were elected for the term ending 31st October, 1888:—

Alex. Rutherford	C.R.
A. D. Russell	V. C. R.
Joseph Metheral	Rec. Secretary
H. Nesbitt	Fin. Secretary
John Braden	Treasurer
W. J. Hooper	Chaplain
J. D. Brooks	S. W.
A. Carpenter	J. W.
Jno. Ferguson	S. B.
H. Robertson	J. B
H. Long	Organist

The following delegates were appointed to the High Court to be held in Hamilton in June:—A. McNeil, J. Fanning and T. Hooper.

OBITUARY.

The Death of Mr. Walter Paterson, Sr., in His Eighty-First Year.

Mr. Walter Paterson, sr., died on Friday afternoon after a short illness, at the age of 80 years. The deceased gentleman was born in Berwickshire, Scotland, on the 29th of February, 1808, in leap year, a fact that the old gentleman felt very proud of as he had a birthday only once in four years. His father was Alexander Paterson, and his mother a Miss Nesbett, of his native town. In 1834 he came to Canada without means, and for one year he worked as a farm hand in the township of North Monaghan. He then came to Peterborough and secured employment with the late Sheriff Hall, as a general workman in the tannery. In 1836 he was married to Miss Agnes Richardson, daughter of Mr. Robert Richardson. The deceased worked in the tannery for twelve years, thoroughly mastering the business in all its details and becoming one of the best judges of leather in the country. At this time he leased the tannery from his former employer, and in 1856 he purchased it and in connection with his son, under the name of W. Paterson & Son, conducted the business until his death. During the stirring times of the Mackenzie rebellion of 1837-8, Mr. Paterson was one of those who shouldered his musket and marched to the front. In politics he was a supporter of the Reform party, and in religion a Presbyterian. He never sought public office and was of a retiring disposition. He leaves a widow, one son, Mr. W. Paterson, and one daughter, the wife of Mr. Henry Grundy, jr. He was one of our best known and most respected citizens and his death will be heard of with deep regret.

Our Amateurs.

On Wednesday next Miss Begley and Mr. Geo. Ball, of Peterborough, well take part in a grand kindergarten concert, at Lindsay.

Economy

Men who pay from $5.50 to $7 per month can save between 40 and 55 dollars every year, by adopting John Carlisle's safe and easy plan of securing a home.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vanderveer and Holmes celebrated New York biscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Recruits Wanted.

Eight recruits wanted to fill vacancies in No. 1 Company. Applications received at the Company's armoury in the drill shed, on Tuesday evening next.

Photographs.

No one should be without photographs of those whom they would like to remember, if they were separated. These photographs ought to be lasting, and such are made at Sproule's Studio, Peterborough. (w15-1d94

A New Pound.

Officer Adams has a number of men at work erecting a new pound in the first Ward, just south of Spaulding's Bay, on the site of the old one. He will soon be ready for business at the sold stand. In the meantime the owners of vagrant cows had better hunt up pasture.

Military.

No. 5 Company 57th Battalion will meet for drill, Tuesday evening, 24th inst, at 8 p. m. sharp in the drill shed. All desirious of enlisting apply to Capt. Millar or Lieut. Matthews. 1d94

What is True in Tea.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

P. O. Blinds.

Mr. Edward Green, the well known manufacturer of patent slat window blinds, on Thursday finished his contract at the post office. He put up fourteen blinds altogether, containing about three hundred and seventy feet. These blinds are very neat and tasteful and are coming into general use throughout Peterborough and district.

To Voters.

Young men desirous of being placed on the voters' list for 1889 as wage earners had better apply at once to the assessors, as after the first day of May it will be necessary to go to the Court of Revision for that purpose. Persons who have recently changed their residence or who have recently moved into town had also better interview Messrs. Aldridge and McGrath.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

Military Matters.

Quartermaster Millar, has decided to accept the captaincy of No. 5 company.... Captain Burke, formerly captain of No. 5 company, 57th Battalion, now of "D" school of regulars, London, has been gazetted out, he having left the limits....Nothing is definitely known yet regarding the visit of either of the Toronto battalions to Peterborough, on the 24th of May, but the chances are that one of them, probably the Grenadiers, will be here.

The Canton.

The following are the officers of Canton Peterborough No 10, Patriarchs Militant, for the insuing term:—

CAPTAIN—A. McNeil.
LIEUTENANT—Jos. Mills.
ENSIGN—A. McFarlane.
ACCOUNTANT—S. Clegg.
CLERK—R. J. Kidd.
PAST COM.—J. Hendry.

On Wednesday evening next, the captain will appoint the other officers and on Thursday evening next the annual inspection will take place.

Those Numbers.

It has been proposed that the town should pay for numbering the houses. As it is now it is not compulsory to number and the consequence will be that many will not take the trouble to put numbers up and those who do will use any style they like. The town can get uniform numbers placed in position for 10 cents each, and a couple of hundred dollars will do the work. The suggestion is thrown out to the members of the Council and it is well worth considering.

On the Market.

The market to-day was well attended, in fact one of the best that we have seen for some time.....The sale by auction of half a dozen horses that had seen services in the shanties during the winter drew a large crowd, but the prices realized were small.... Maple syrup was offered in abundance and $1.00 per gallon was the ruling figure..... Among the novelties offered were pruning shears, spring beds and rush chairs..... The vicinities of Port Hope, Cobourg and Lindsay were well represented by the farmers on the square.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Brevities.

—The Police Court calendar was a blank this morning.

—The Campbellford baseball club has reorganized for the season.

—A new cheese factory has been built on the English line, Seymour.

—A number of Port Hope bicyclists will ride to Belleville on July 1st.

—The weather continues cold, particularly in the morning and evening.

—The Belleville police cells, like our own sometimes "smells to Heaven."

—The Port Hope baseball club has not yet been organized for the season.

—A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Monday afternoon at 4 p. m.

—His Worship Mayor Stevenson, M. P., arrived home this morning from Ottawa.

—Kingston hangs up purses amounting to $1,000 for horse races on the 24th of May.

—The young man Fetherson, charged with arson at Cobourg, has been discharged.

—Employees of the Trent Valley Woollen Mills, Campbellford, are working over time.

—The steamer Norseman will commence her regular trips on Monday or Tuesday next.

—Wild ducks are reported to be plentiful down the river and at other favorite haunts.

—There was a slight fall of snow on Friday afternoon. Let us hope that it was the last of the season.

—Archibald Reynolds, hotel keeper, Frazerville, paid $50 on Thursday, for violating the Scott Act.

—The watering carts were badly wanted on the streets to-day as the wind blew the dust about in clouds.

—A couple of hams were found in front of a George-st. store last night, after the premises were closed.

—The martens, who are regarded as the only true and reliable harbingers of gentle spring, have reached town.

—The railways just at present are moving an enormous quantity of freight in all directions, in fact business on all the lines is booming in earnest.

—Mr. Samuel Datcher is an applicant for the position of caretaker of the town pump and he proposes to call on the citizens with a petition to have him appointed.

—Mayor Randall, of Port Hope, is doing the east looking for signatures to a petition to have that place made the terminus of the proposed Western Ontario Railway.

—The carters by taking up a position at Fairweather's corner, have dispossessed the Italian peanut vendor, who now occupies the opposite side of the street.

—Collector Cummins is again on the warpath after statute labor men who have failed to pay their taxes, and he has sworn out more than one hundred informations.

—Chief Justice Armour is a hustler. He opened the Belleville assizes, with a docket of 30 cases, at one p.m. on Monday, and he finished and left for home at 10.30 a.m., on Thursday.

—There are more bad sidewalks this spring than have been observed for some years, and to put them all in proper shape will require the expenditure of considerable money.

—The St. Paul, Minn., Despatch says:—"The engagement of Miss Carrie Middleton, daughter of James Middleton, and Clarence E. Sherin is announced. The wedding will take place some time in June."

—The large locusts that appear so fond of hovering around the electric lights have again made their appearance, and last night they were noticeably around all of the lamps that were burning outside.

—A firm of traders in Bankrupt stocks, Singer Bros., who have been in several places, were brought before Magistrates in Campbellford and fined $30 for violation of the law regarding transient traders. It is said that they will appeal.

—The editor of the Salem Republican says:—"We would not exchange our office chair and editorial pencil for the throne and scepter of the Czar of Russia." Some subscribers must have paid up recently.

—When setting out strawberry plants use garden trowels and be sure the roots are well spread out in the shape of a fan, and cut off the ends of the roots that are too long. They should be set out when the ground is damp, as dry weather is sometimes the cause of a large number failing to root in the soil after transplanting.

The Division Court.

The Ontario Gazette of to-day contains the following notice of appointments in Peterborough:—Clerk of the Division Court, Mr. F. J. Bell, of Smith, vice Mr. R. W. Errett, resigned; Bailiff of the Division Court, Mr. Joseph Griffin, of Peterborough, vice Mr. C. Stapleton, resigned.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

GIVE THE BOYS

A NEW SUIT

The winter is over. The boys have been having a good time. You can tell by their faces. You can be certain by a look at their clothes. All of them need a new suit or part of a suit to freshen them up for school. We are ready to supply their wants.

Suits for the Smallest,
Suits for Middle-weights,
Suits for the Biggest.

Capital Tweeds, proper for boy's wear. Ready made in many styles. Call early.

T. Dolan & Co

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md8-1mw16 10 Spruce-st., New York

WATER FILTERS,

To insure good health it is absolutely necessary to have pure water, and no water is entirely free from floating matter and disease germs without thorough Filteration. The majority of cases of Typhoid and other low fevers are in a measure caused from unfiltered and impure water, so that every family who values its health should have a reliable Filter. Numerous Filters are offered to the public varying in points of excellence, but for Cheapness, Efficiency and Durability, our Filters cannot be surpassed.

No Corroding Substances are used in construction.
The Packing material is the most Powerful specially prepared granulated Carbon.

It will last for years with the ordinary use of a family, and the material may be obtained at any time for replenishing at small expense.

The construction is our own patent, and combines all the essential requirements of a first-class Filter with access for cleansing. Instructions ccompany each Filter. For sale only in Peterborough at

CHINA HALL.

BIRTH.

SEYMOUR.—At Peterborough, on April 20th, the wife of MR. CHARLES SEYMOUR, of a son.

An Organist.

The last of the applicants for the position of organist of St. Andrew's Church will be heard on Monday evening, and the committee having the matter in charge will then proceed to make a choice, from the dozen or more, who have applied personally.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

NEW LIST

—OF—

BUILDING LOTS, &c., FOR SALE

1. That beautiful situation on Brock-st., east of and adjoining Mr. Nugent's new residence, so high above all surroundings, so central, so retired, and yet so convenient for all purposes. A most suitable place for a doctor's office and residence, or for any person wishing to reside near his office or business. Front Lot is 60x120 feet to lane, rear Lot 65x124 feet with an inexhaustible supply of first-class water. Who wants this?

2. This is an extremely Fine Lot with about 75 ft. frontage on Water-st. by 115 feet deep. It is an east front facing St. Paul's church and will be sold in one or two Lots. Act promptly.

3 Is a Fine Lot on Stewart-st. 87x115, opposite Messrs. Hall and Sheppard's beautiful mansions, protected on the north by the Chief of Police and charmed on the south by a Professor of Music.

4. In addition to the above we have Good Lots in north, east, south and west parts of the Town, and for Large Lots at low prices we would call attention to the Ludgate, Carlisle and Toronto Real Estate Investment Coy's suburban additions, where good value can be had for small investments.

For Houses and Lots in all parts of the Town, Ashburnham and Auburn we have variety and value to suit any reasonable buyer.

We have Garden Lots from one to 10 acres for sale or to rent. Also several Farms. One Large Farm with Good Buildings, Fall Crop and Ploughing to rent cheap.

All are invited to call at our office or write for further particulars.

HURLEY & BUNTON

Hunter Street.

AS MUST A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. E. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,
A PAPER-HANGER.

THE SUN LIFE

Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSETS - - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,
MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH

REMOVAL SALE

We find our present store too small for our growing trade and have rented the store lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Alexander, which when fitted up will be one of the most attractive places of business on George-st. On THURSDAY, the 19th of APRIL, we commence a

60 DAYS GREAT CLEARING SALE.

It will be to our advantage to clear out our present stock even at cost. Remember our Goods are new and stylish. That we do not deal in goods out of date and expensive at any price.

During our Great Sale we will convince the public that we mean what we say when we promise bargains in every department.

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

H. S. GRIFFIN & Co.,

5d90 CRYSTAL BLOCK. 1w16

CLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb
Water Street, Opposite the Market.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1888.

MONA SCULLY;
—OR—
The Bride of an Englishman.

"You will be near too, Geoffrey?" murmurs Mona, falteringly.

"Yes, yes; I promise for him," says Dr. Bland. "In fact, I have something to say to your husband that must be told at once."

Then Mona, opening the door indicated to her by the doctor, goes into the chamber beyond, and is lost to their view for some time.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

On a low bed, with his eyes fastened eagerly upon the door, lies Paul Rodney, the dews of death already upon his face.

As Mona advances to his side, through the gathering gloom of fast approaching night, pale almost as he is, and trembling in every limb, this miserable anxiety dies out of his face, leaving behind it a rest and peace unutterable.

"You have come," he says, with a quick sigh that bespeaks relief. "I knew you would. I felt it; yet I feared. Oh, what comfort to see you again!"

Mona tries to say something,—anything that will be kind and sympathetic,—but words fail her. Her lips part, but no sound escapes them. The terrible reality of the moment terrifies and overcomes her.

"Do not try to make me any commonplace speeches," says Rodney, marking her hesitation. He speaks hastily, yet with evident difficulty. "I am dying. Nothing can alter that. But death has brought you to my side again, so I cannot repine."

"But to find you like this"—begins Mona. And then, overcome by grief and agitation, she covers her face with her hands, and bursts into tears.

"Mona! Are you crying for me?" says Paul Rodney, as though surprised. "Do not. Your tears hurt me more than this wound that has done me to death."

"Oh, if I had not given you that pistol," sobs Mona, who cannot conquer the horror of the thought that she has helped him to his death, "you would be alive and strong now."

"Yes—and miserable! You forget to add that. Now everything seems squared. In the grave neither grief nor revenge can find a place. And as for you, what have you to do with my fate?—nothing. Why should you not return to me my own? and why should I not die by the weapon I had dared to level against yourself?"

Then, after a pause, "Where will they bury me?" he asks, suddenly. "Do you think they will put me in the family vault?" He seems to feel some anxiety on this point.

"Whatever you wish shall be done," says Mona, earnestly, knowing she can induce Nicholas to accede to any request of hers.

"Are you sure?" asks he, brightening. "Remember how they have drawn back from me. I was their own first-cousin,—the son of their father's brother,—yet they treated me as the veriest outcast."

Then Mona says, in a trembling voice and rather disconnectedly, because of her emotion. "Be quite sure you shall be—buried—where all the other baronets of Rodney lie at rest."

"Thank you," murmurs he, gratefully. There is evidently comfort in the thought.

Some time elapses before he speaks again, and Mona is almost hoping he may have fallen into a quiet slumber, when he opens his eyes and says, regretfully,—

"What a different life mine might have been had I known you earlier!" Then, with a faint flush, that vanishes almost as it comes, as though without power to stay, he says, "Did your husband object to your coming here?"

"Geoffrey? Oh, no. It was he who brought me. He bade me hasten lest you should even imagine me careless about coming. And—and—he desired me to say how he regrets the harsh words he uttered, and the harsher thoughts he may have entertained towards you. Forgive him, I implore you, and die in peace with him and all men."

"Forgive him!" says Rodney. "Surely, however unkind the thoughts he may have cherished for me, I must forget and forgive them now, seeing all he has done for me. Has he not made smooth my last hours? Has he not lent you to me? Tell him I bear him no ill-will."

"I will tell him," says Mona.

He is silent for a full minute; then he says,—

"I have given a paper to Dr. Bland for you; it will explain what I wish. And, Mona, there are some papers in my room; will you see to them for me and have them burned?"

"I will burn them with my own hands," says Mona.

"How comforting you are!—how you understand," he says, with a quick sigh. "There is something else; that fellow Ridgway, who opened the window for me, he must be seen to. Let him have the money mentioned in the paper, and send him to my mother; she will look after him for my sake. My poor mother!" he draws his breath quickly.

"Shall I write to her?" asks Mona, gently. "Say what you wish done."

"It would be kind of you," says he, gratefully. "She will want to know all, and you will do it more tenderly than the others. Do not dwell upon my sins; and say I died—happy. Let her have a copy of the paper Dr. Bland has seen."

"I shall remember," says Mona, not knowing what the paper contains. "And who am I, that I should dwell upon the sins of another? Are you tired, Paul? How fearfully pale you are looking!"

He is evidently quite exhausted. His brow is moist, his eyes are sunken, his lips more pallid, more death-like than they were before. In little painful gasps his breath comes fitfully. Then all at once it occurs to Mona that though he is looking at her he does not see her. His mind has wandered far away to those earlier days when England was unknown and when the free life of the colony was all he desired.

To be Continued.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS
AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM

Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1,00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming. Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.
(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

Opening of the League Season—Brampton Cricket Club—Spots of Sport.

EASTON, Pa., April 20.—A steady rain throughout the day prevented the game arranged to be played with the International League champions here to-day.

The First of the League Games.

BUFFALO, April 20.—The league season opened to-day.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The New York team placed Titcomb in the box and he twirled a phenomenal game, during which but three clean hits were made off him and not a run scored by the home team. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
As Washington:
Washington	0	0	3
New York	1	3	0

Batteries: O'Day and Deasley; Titcomb and Murphy. Umpire: Lynch.

PITTSBURG 5, DETROIT 2.

PITTSBURG, April 20.—In the 12th innings rank errors by Detroits infield gave Pittsburg three runs and the game. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg	5	6	2
Detroit	2	6	6

Batteries: Morris and Carroll; Getzein and Sutcliffe. Umpire: Dooker.

CHICAGO 5, INDIANAPOLIS 4.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ia., April 20—Free hitting and good fielding by both teams resulted in a close game, in which Indianapolis was defeated. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	4	12	5
Chicago	5	12	3

Batteries: Boyle and Myers, Von Haltren and Darling. Umpire: Valentine.

At Philadelphia:	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	3	5	3
Boston	4	7	4

Batteries: Gleason and Clements; Clarkson and Kelly. Umpire: Daniels.

The Only Association Game Yesterday.

BALTIMORE, April 20.—The Athletics of Philadelphia by heavy batting captured the honors here to-day. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	16	19	6
Baltimore	10	11	7

Batteries: Seward and Townsend; Kilroy and Trott.

Brampton Cricket Club.

BRAMPTON, April 20.—At a meeting of the Brampton Cricket Club held last evening the following officers were elected: Hon. President, Judge Scott; President, A. Morton; Vice-President, John Foxton; Secretary-Treasurer, W. F. Scott; Committee of Management, W. W. Nation, W. E. Milner, Jas. Anderson, W. G. Jessop, E. G. Graham and Robert Wilson.

Spots of Sport.

The Toronto will play at Allentown to-day.

It cost Jay Faatz $25 to make his kick at Wheeling the other day.

Tomney, shortstop for the Stars in 1886, has signed with Allentown to play that position.

A Buffalo amateur catcher named Smith is playing with the Rochesters on trial. He will probably be signed by Manager Leonard.

Jimmy Fogarty, the clever out-fielder, who has persistently refused to sign a contract with the Philadelphia Club unless given a large increase over last year's salary, on Wednesday signed with the "Phillies" for the coming season. His salary, it is said, will be $2500, the amount demanded by him.

5,000 YARDS
—OF—
SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS
—AT—
SIX CENTS A YARD.

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,
No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

RUPTURED and Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straight and by MECHANICAL means.

Positively a satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. See d&c for book of invaluable information.

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist,
DO KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED. POWDER Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

THE COOK'S FRIEND BAKING POWDER

Your Grocer, by all Grocers.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS

AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrated Woodrun Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade, ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

GEO. A. COX,
INSURANCE, FINANCIAL AND GENERAL AGENCY
ESTABLISHED 1858.

IN THE FIRE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Under the Management of MR. A. L. DAVIS, we represent a number of Old and Wealthy Corporations, Noted for Equitable Rates of Premiums, and Liberal, Prompt and Honorable Settlement of Claims.

CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

Established 1847. Head Office, Hamilton, Ontario.

PRESIDENT.....A. G. RAMSAY, F. I. A.

CAPITAL AND FUNDS OVER	$3,000,000
ANNUAL INCOME OVER	$1,000,000

The continued steady increase of the Company's business NOW EXCEEDING THE AGGREGATE OF ALL THE OTHER CANADIAN COMPANIES, and being more than a fourth of the entire Life Assurance business of the Dominion, its favorable mortality; its moderate expenses, and the high character of its investments, afford good grounds or highly favorable and satisfactory profits to its assurers and EXPLAINS THE CAUSE OF THE UNPARALLELED SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY FOR THE LAST 41 years.

Intending Assurers should, in their own interests, examine the rates and profits of this OLD RELIABLE and Successful Institution, before insuring elsewhere.

CENTRAL CANADA
Loan & Savings Company of Ontario.

Incorporated by Act of Ontario Parliament - Authorized Capital, $2000,000

Capital Subscribed	$1,000,000	Reserve Fund	$70,000.00
Capital Paid Up	$500,000	Total Assets last Audit	$1,810,223.69

DIRECTORS.

GEO. A. COX, ... PRESIDENT.
J. R. DUNDAS, ex-M. P. } VICE PRESIDENTS.
RICHARD HALL, of Hall, Innes & Co.

W. CLUXTON, J. STEVENSON, M. P., F. C. TAYLOR, J. M. FERRIS, ex-M.P.P.,
W. GOODERHAM, E. S. VISDIN, ROBT. JAFFRAY, D. W. DUMBLE.

BANKERS.—Bank of Toronto and Canadian Bank of Commerce
SOLICITORS.—Dumble & Leonard.

TO DEPOSITERS.—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amount deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is four per cent., either paid or compounded half yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is five per cent.

TO INVESTORS.—The five and ten years five per cent debentures of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1,000 each, transferable by endorsement, with half-yearly interest coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested with the utmost care and precaution, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture-holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the Shareholders having the second. The last audits show that the amount so invested was over $1,310,223.69, and on securities of at least double that value.

By the Laws of Ontario, Trustees, Executors and Administrators may deposit Trust Funds of the estates which they control in this Company, and are free from all further liability, a privilege of which many have largely availed themselves.

TO BORROWERS.—Money is obtainable from this Company on approved Real Estate Security at the Lowest Current Rates of Interest. The Mortgage may be paid by yearly instalments or otherwise, as may be agreed upon, the interest ceasing at once on all amounts paid on account of the sum borrowed. Applications may be made either to the Head Office, or to any of the Agents.

Head Office, George Street, Peterborough, Adjoining Bank of Commerce.

A. COX, Inspector and Valuator.

GEO. A. COX, President. D. M. SIM, Secy-Treas.

Office Hours, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m; Saturday, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY REVIEW.

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Landy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

R. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an LD SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.

MONEY TO LOAN. d103w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

R. R. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony.

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 475, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d31

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 863; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. ds2-1yr

JOSEPH JONES,

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. ds1y

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WARE ROOMS, George St. residence North end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant F. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w2

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w4d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d4lw18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d2lw28

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1883.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW of TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
6 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & O. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 55 p m	Toronto and West, via G. & O. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
6 30 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	6 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all	6 00 p m
8 50 p m	Post Offices on the line of	4 30 p m
8 30 a m	the Midland Railway (west)	1 00 a m
5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope	1 00 a m
	do do	9 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 15 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m
4 00 p m	Fraserville & Springville,	11 00 a m
5 15 p m	Bobcaygeon, including
2 30 p m	Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Hastings, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
6 00 p m previous night	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Rhawtha,	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz., by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund accepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico, (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, viâ Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, viâ San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

DEAR SIR,—I thank you for your PINE TAR CORDIAL. It has done me more good than anything I have ever used.

MRS. S. R. HARVEY, Cobourg.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 95. PETERBOROUGH, MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

WHITNEY BABY CARRIAGES.

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices.
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE

METROPOLITAN

GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

—

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

CARSLAKE'S

GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

			Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000	each prize	$6,000
2nd " "	$2,000	" "	$4,000
3rd " "	$1,000	" "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally)	$7,000
In duplicate			$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally)	$4,500	in duplicate	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888

10 per cent. deducted from all prizes.

Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.

22d eod 4mos Mansion House, Montreal

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Oils, Mill Supplies.

Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces,

Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals

Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine

JACKSON & CO.

Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.

Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.

PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFORTES tuned and repaired.

Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card dl3tecd-w49 6m

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS! TENTS!!!

—o—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at —

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street Peterborough.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schools of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over Chinn Hall, corner of George and Simcoe streets Peterborough 1yd48

For Sale or to Rent

TO LET.

A DESIRABLE HOUSE in the Cox terrace, Rubidge-st. Possession on May 1st. Apply to H. M. ALLEN. 3d5

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply HEENAN'S TEMPERANCE HOUSE, Hunter-st. 3d93

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 14d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d15

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Mr. Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for carriage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash. JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Lace Curtains beautifully cleaned and finished 40 cents a pair.

Lace Curtains beautifully dyed all shades and finished, 90 cents per pair, at

PARKER'S Steam Dye Works.

6194

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,

2mos462-wtf Millbrook P. O

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectiony at

LONG BROS.

WHY DOES A YOUNG MAN WANT A GOOD WIFE?

Because he is married for a lifetime.

JOHN McNAUGHTON

The reliable Boot and Shoe dealer, has just opened out a large stock of goods from the celebrated makers, Messrs. Cooper & Smith, Toronto. Any person buying any goods made by this firm which contain paper insoles, paper stiffeners or cloth insoles, can have 50c for each pair upon furnishing satisfactory proof to me. These goods are all hand-made and marked in plain figures. I do not sell for cost, but I am satisfied with a fair profit and it will pay the public to call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Repairing done neatly, expeditiously and cheap for cash.

JOHN McNAUGHTON,

corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune-sts.

6d35eod-2w5

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVER SIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER. 1yd13 JAS. R. DONELL

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1888.

THE CABINET VACANCY.

Who Will Fill the Place?" Some of the Chances for Young Men.

OTTAWA, April 22.—The death of Mr. White places Sir John and his colleagues in something of an awkward position. "Who will fill his place?" is the question that every one is asking to-night. They are all guessing.

It is well known that Sir John had a high personal regard for his dead colleague, and he not infrequently warned him that he was overworking himself. When Mr. White joined the Cabinet in the summer of 1885 the Indian Department was separate from that of the Interior, and when they were amalgamated a year or so later it made the responsibilities of the minister nearly double. Their trouble and inconvenience was added by the fact that the business of the Indian Department is carried on in a rented building in Wellington-street. They were, however, both to be moved to the new departmental building, which is now on the eve of completion.

Mr. White being such a hard working and handy all-round man, ready in debate and useful in time of need and on the stump, it is no wonder that his death has been a severe blow to Sir John.

I have heard all kinds of rumors as to his successor. Here are some of them: Mr. G. R. R. Cockburn of Toronto, Hon. Mr. Kirkpatrick, J. C. Patterson of Essex, Adam Brown of Hamilton, Mr. Rykert of Lincoln, Mr. White of Renfrew, Mr. Hesson of Perth, Jack Haggart of Lanark and Dr. Ferguson of Welland. This is a varied array of Cabinet timber and it remains to be seen whether Sir John will avail himself of any of it. It is well known that there was to be a general shuffle in portfolios after the present session closed, but Mr. White's death will complicate matters very much. It was not out of the range of possibilities that Mr. White would have been transferred to the Finance Department, it being generally understood that Sir Charles was to return to London as High Commissioner.

Said one of the front row of Government supporters this evening: "Sir John has foreseen for some time that he must get some vigorous young blood in the Cabinet. Why, it was only the other day that he was telling me that notwithstanding he was in his 74th year, he stood the pressure much better than many of his younger colleagues, several of whom have been more or less disabled by sickness this winter. I would not be at all surprised if he goes outside the house altogether, just as he did when he took Mr. Thompson in as Minister of Justice, for a new man. Besides Mr. White neither of the other two hard working departmental chiefs could be shifted. Sir Hector is a jewel in the Public Works Department and Mr. Bowell is a horse in harness as head of the Customs. These gentlemen will have to be left where they are as long as their health and strength lasts and the party is in power."

Another prominent Government supporter thought it possible that the reconstruction act might be put into effect. This would abolish the Customs and Inland Revenue Departments and create the Department of Trade and Commerce, with two or three subheads.

"You can talk as you like, but the fact remains that we need a dash of vigorous young blood in the Cabinet and I think Sir John is going to have it. Now is the time for the young men to assert themselves."

Notes.

Already there is talk of running Mr. R. S. White for his father's seat in Cardwell. A precedent is offered in the case of Hon. L. H. Holton. When he died his constituents in Chateauguay elected his son Edward, the sitting Liberal member, to the vacancy.

Sir Charles Tupper has postponed the delivery of his budget speech until Friday next.

Mr. White delivered his last great speech on March 14, on Sir Richard Cartwright's Unrestricted Reciprocity resolution.

Dr. Ferguson of Welland denounces with much warmth the present day ocsial costumes, especially those worn by ladies. He says they are not at all fitted for our rigorous climate, that they were conceived in sin in the brothels of Spain and France, and that much of the sickness amongst society ladies can be attributed to this wanton exposure. The claw-hammer coat and the vest that has no front, the doctor says, men wear at dinner parties and balls at great personal risk.

The press gallery is to meet tomorrow and pass suitable resolutions to the memory of Mr. White, who was an active member thereof for a dozen or so of years.

There is a good deal of talk to-night of making the funeral at Montreal a public one.

All of Mr. White's children but one were present at the death scene. Miss Annie White only reached the city this morning from Toronto, where she is attending Miss Keal's school.

The Imperial Federation meeting in the Opera House last night, at which several members of Parliament were to speak, was very much interfered with by Mr. White's condition in the early part of the evening.

In several of the city churches to-day and this evening reference was made to the dead minister.

Arranging for an Exhibit.

WINNIPEG, April 22.—B. Saunders is here arranging with Premier Greenway for an exhibit of Manitoba products at the Toronto Industrial Fair.

Farmers' wives on Long Island get 3 cents a pair for making boys' trousers.

The empress of Austria has tried cocaine as a remedy for seasickness and found it wanting.

DEATH OF HON. T. WHITE.

HE PASSES AWAY AT 9.45 ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

Cut Down in the Prime of Life—A Hard-working Minister—The History and Causes of His Illness.

OTTAWA, April 22.—Parliament will have been in session just two months to-morrow, and within that brief period no less than five of its members have been called to their last account—two senators and three commoners. From the Red Chamber the missing ones are Senators Rowland of Montreal and Speaker Plumb of Niagara. Mr. Clayes of Missisquoi and Mr. Robertson of West Hastings were the next to go, and now the Capital and the Dominion are startled by the untimely death of Hon. Thos. White, Minister of the Interior. This lamentable event occurred at 9.45 last evening at the family residence in Metcalfe-street. No death that has occurred in the Capital within the last decade has had such a depressing effect on political circles as has the demise of Mr. White. Surveying the Cabinet from a physical point of view he was the last in the thirteen that anyone familiar with its members would have supposed that death had set an early seal upon. Mr. White has been cut down in the prime of life, in the zenith of his success as a departmental officer, and the Conservative party loses one of its most useful members. He would have been 58 on Aug. 7 next.

HON. THOS. WHITE.

The history of Mr. White's illness and death can be briefly told. The Minister of the Interior passes away from his sphere of usefulness on earth a victim of overwork and of a barbarous custom of social dress as applied to our rigorous, raw and treacherous climate. This latter matter has been pretty freely discussed by the medical gentlemen, and they are some thirty in number, who sit in the House of Commons. That Mr. White was "run down" by a too close application to the duties of his department all his friends admit. His sole ambition was to master the office in its most minute detail and he had, all will admit, attained this object to an eminent degree.

An idea of the amount of business transacted at the Department of the Interior may be formed from the fact that an average of 2000 letters are received daily. Mr. White, as a rule, made himself familiar with the contents of a majority of these, and to keep pace with the immense amount of work the dead Minister was an early riser and a late worker. By 7 o'clock he had been refreshed by the bath, at 7.30 he was at breakfast and an hour later he was in his office in the Eastern Block. This daily strain on his robust physique, albeit it was fortified with the most regular habits of living, soon began to make its marks, and at the end of about 2½ years as the head of the department he succumbs to an overtaxed system, overtaxed to such an extent that it could not withstand a sudden chill and subsequent attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

A week ago last night Mr. White dined at Government House. He returned home feeling in good health and spirits but unconscious at the time of the fact that the conventional evening dress of society, so devoid of warmth and covering in the vicinity of the chest, had permitted the chilly winds of Rideau Hall grounds and the drive to the city to penetrate and inflame the delicate membranes of the pleura.

Early Sunday morning he was seized with fits of copious vomiting. The family physician, Dr. H. P. Wright, was absent in Toronto and Dr. Horsey was called in on Monday. At this time it was not thought that his illness was of a serious nature. However, his condition grew worse, and by Tuesday the doctor had to contend with a well-developed case of pleuro-pneumonia, the right lung having become almost completely involved. Dr. Wright returned home on Thursday, and it was then found that his condition was very serious. The patient was suffering intensely, and he was delirious at times. By Friday Dr. Wright became so alarmed that he telegraphed to Montreal for Richard White and Robert S. White, the brother and eldest son of the sick minister.

And right here may be mentioned a distressing circumstance. Mr. R. S. White, who now has the editorial management of The Montreal Gazette, had only left the Capital on Wednesday, before it was thought that his father's illness was of such a serious nature, for Montreal, where he was to have been married yesterday to an estimable lady of that city. The bride-elect was Miss Barclay, daughter of Past-Captain Barclay of the Allan steamship line. The young editor quit his colleagues in the press gallery at the Capital amid a shower of good wishes, only to return about fifteen hours before his father's death, which event occurred on the very day set for the wedding.

Mr. Richard and Mr. R. S. White reached here at midnight of Friday, bringing with them Dr. R. P. Howard, dean of the medical faculty of McGill College, and Dr. George Ross, an equally eminent physician. An immediate consultation was held, and it was elicited that Mr. White could not possibly recover. The right lung had become thoroughly hypostized and the left one was rapidly approaching that stage. It was one chance in a thousand if he could pull through. The physicians had a vague hope that his former good health and strength might fight off the intense fire that was consuming his frame.

At 3.30 in the afternoon the Montreal doctors said there was no hope whatever and they prepared to leave for home. At 4 o'clock, just before their departure, they hung out this bulletin:

Mr. White's condition still unchanged. As serious as possible.

Carriages filled with anxious friends rolled up to the door and the occupants read the fatal announcement. Many people on foot also came to read it. The patient from this hour grew rapidly worse; he made the most painful gasps for breath. At 9 o'clock in the evening he suddenly regained consciousness. He told the attendants to telegraph to Montreal for Richard and Robert, not having been apprised that they were in the house. He also asked for Mrs. White and his children, seven daughters and three sons. They all entered the fatal chamber. To his brother Richard he gave some brief business directions. He told them he was going to die. Archdeacon Lauder of St. George's Church was also on hand. The dying man continued to talk to those around him until just exactly 9.45, when amidst their choking sobs he made his last gasp and all was over.

The news of course spread very rapidly, and the Capital has been wrapt up in the deepest gloom ever since. People said that it was hard to believe that the robust, strong-looking Minister of the Interior, who left the House of Commons for the last time on Friday night, about 12, was no more. Nothing else has been talked about ever since.

There was a dinner party in progress at Earnscliffe when the event occurred, and Mrs. Mackenzie and Mrs. Laurier were holding their usual Saturday night receptions. A message was immediately sent to Sir John, but as his guests were about departing he did not break the sad news to them. Those, however, who saw the message handed to the Premier noticed that he was very much startled and deeply affected by what he read. The knowing ones guessed the cause. Mrs. Mackenzie and Mrs. Laurier at once adjourned their receptions on receipt of the news.

Mr. White leaves a family of ten children, two of whom are married, and Robert would have made the third but for death's interference. His second daughter is married to Mr. Fred Hodgson of Montreal. Mr. Fred White, his second son, of the Militia Department, was recently married to Miss Gordon, daughter of Ald. Gordon of this city. The other son, Thomas, is a stenographer in the employ of the Grand Trunk. Mr. White married in 1853 Miss Vine, a member of a well-known Quebec family.

It is understood that the family are fairly well provided for. Mr. White did not carry a very heavy life insurance, some putting it down as low as $5000, but he had a substantial interest in The Montreal Gazette, the revenue from which is said to be between $4000 and $5000 per annum.

The Funeral Arrangements.

OTTAWA, April 22.—The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning. A special train will leave for Montreal, where the interment takes place in Mount Royal Cemetery, at 10 o'clock via the Canada Atlantic Railway. All the Cabinet Ministers with the exception of Hon. J. H. Pope will attend. Mr. Pope was so far recovered from his recent illness yesterday as to be able to attend the Council meeting. It is expected that nearly all of the members, senators and prominent civil service officers will also attend. Services will be held here before the departure of the funeral train, and it is expected also in St. George's Church, where the dead minister formerly worshipped.

The House and Senate will adjourn, after paying tribute to the memory of deceased when it meets to-morrow afternoon, until Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. It is expected that the pall-bearers will be nearly all members of the Cabinet.

A Constable in Trouble.

KINGSTON, April 21.—At 7 o'clock last night Officer Alexander Snodden, of the city police force, arrived at the police station with Charles Singleton, a resident of Lake Opinicon, who was arrested on a warrant charging him with having on March 5th last accomplished an assault on Mrs. Elisabeth Hatton. The prisoner is married. He announced to Snodden that he is innocent of the crime with which he is charged. Mrs. Hatton is the daughter of the justice of the peace of Lake Opinicon, and is a married woman, with eight children. Her husband, during the winter months, was employed in the woods chopping, and the woman claims that on the day mentioned Singleton called at her house, which is only a short distance from his own home, and assaulted her. At the Police Court the information was read, but the prisoner, owing to the absence of Mrs. Hatton, was not asked to either elect or plead. The magistrate adjourned the case till Monday morning.

Hurt by a Runaway Team.

LONDON, Ont., April 22.—A serious runaway accident occurred about noon to-day. Mr. John Anderson, of Westminster Township was driving a spirited team of young horses along King-street, and when crossing Richmond they got beyond the driver's control, and made a break for the sidewalk, coming in contact with the pole in front of Taylor's barber shop. A number of people were on the sidewalk at the time, and several were more or less injured. A Mr. Smith was badly bruised about the head and body, suffering internal injuries of a serious nature. Mrs. Taylor of Westminster was hurt about the lower limbs; Mrs. Hamilton of London Township also received serious injuries.

A Telephone War.

MONTREAL, April 22.—The Bell Telephone Company, weary of waiting for the permission of the corporation to erect their poles on St. James', Notre Dame, Beaver Hall, Dorchester and Sherbrooke streets, yesterday informed the City Surveyor that they would commence work immediately, and as a matter of fact are already laying down the poles upon some of the streets in question. A writ of mandamus was applied for this morning to restrain the city from allowing the Federal Telephone Company to erect their poles in the streets, which they were granted leave to do at a recent meeting of the Council.

Sudden Death.

BELLEVILLE, April 22.—Mr. Phillip Ross of the 4th con. of Thurlow, aged 60, had a fall at his home yesterday. He expired shortly afterwards, presumably from heart disease.

Officers of the Canadian Club.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The following named gentlemen have been elected officers of the Canadian Club:

President—Erastus Wiman.

Vice-Presidents—Sir Roderick W. Cameron, Thomas W. Griffith, Edward F. Beddall, Jackson Wallace, Arnold J. Gates.

Treasurer—James MacNider.

Secretary—William Alaire Shortt.

Board of Trustees—Thomas W. Griffith, John W. Lovell, Joseph Barrett, Tucker David, Arthur W. McLaughlin.

Membership Committee—D. J. Bannatyne, George E. Duggan, John Fleming, Charles G. S. Reed, Arnold J. Gates, Eugene M. Cole, Geo. T. Gaden.

Never did any soul do good but it came readier to do the same again with more enjoyment.

AGAINST CUMMINGS' BILL.

ADDRESS BEFORE THE U.S. HOUSE COMMITTEE ON COMMERCE.

Judge Chipman of Michigan Says that the Canadian Routes are the Most Natural, the Most Direct, the Most Accessible and the Cheapest.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Judge Chipman addressed the House Committee on Commerce to-day in opposition to the Wilson idea as embodied in Amos J. Cummings' little bill. He said: "The bill proposes to cut off all shipments from one state to another through Canada and to destroy competition with the roads south of the great lakes to the exact extent which it diminishes the business of the Canadian lines. Such a result is not in the interest of the public, whose great need is increased and not diminished competition. No scheme of subsidy was ever broached which bristles so evilly with all that is wrong in favoritism or corrupt in jobbery as the scheme to side-track half the American continent for the benefit of certain railroad corporations. It seeks to surrender the entire Northwest, indeed the entire northern portion, to the mercies of these corporations. By its terms the great continental systems of transportation which cross the borders at Sault Ste. Marie, Port Huron, Detroit and Buffalo are expunged from all potency in the business of the country and the millions of dollars invested by our people in these systems are literally obliterated.

"At Sault Ste. Marie the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic and the Minneapolis and Sault Ste. Marie Companies connect by bridge with the Canadian Pacific and are soon to connect with the Grand Trunk of Canada. At Port Huron a direct route to Chicago connects with the Grand Trunk of Canada. At Detroit the Michigan Central, Wabash, Flint and Pere Marquette, Detroit and Lansing and other American roads connect with the Great Western, Grand Trunk and Canada Southern; while at Buffalo all the Canadian roads, and nearly all the North American lines connect. These connections have been effected after great effort and expenditure and were dictated by an enlightened knowledge of the necessities of the Northwest. They constitute with the lake commerce the live and effective competition to the lines within our own territory and are continental in the broad sense that they stretch from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and that they reach and supply the great lumber, iron, copper and grain fields of the country.

"To build up these systems has required years of persevering endeavor, yet this bill proposes to overturn them all. That the proposition is monstrous cannot be doubted, because it assumes that the millions of people of the Northwest have not understood their interests in securing competition in transportation of their products. That they have understood them is emphasized by the fact that the Canadian routes are geographically the natural routes, the most direct, the most accessible, the cheapest. Instead of shutting out these routes the demand of the present is to increase their facilities. It has never occurred to the people interested that the lakes and rivers which constitute the Canadian frontier are barriers. On the contrary, they regard them as bonds of commercial union and aids to the international railroad routes.

"I may say, in conclusion, that the bill proposes to nullify all the efforts of the people of the Northwest during the last thirty years to receive cheap transportation, and to change and disturb the commercial system of half the continent. There ought to be some very cogent reason for this nullification, change and disturbance."

Blown to Atoms.

LONG ISLAND CITY, April 21.—The boiler of the tugboat Magic, owned by Russell Bros. of this city, lying at Burr's dock, Newton Creek, exploded this afternoon, blowing the boat to pieces. Sam. Barber, the engineer, and Wm. Symington, the cook, were torn to atoms. A man standing on the wharf was badly injured.

Conkling's Funeral.

UTICA, N.Y., April 21.—The remains of ex-Senator Conkling were interred in the cemetery to-day. The city was draped in mourning, and a large number of people were present. The ceremonies were very impressive.

A Boy's Suicide.

SYRACUSE, April 21.—James Gristwood, 14 years old, hanged himself in his stepfather's barn near Onondaga Valley this evening. He was found dead suspended from a ladder. He had been missing from the house only twenty minutes. No cause for the suicide is known.

A Ghastly Discovery.

ST. CATHARINES, April 21.—In walking along the beach yesterday A. May, farmer of Louth, discovered a portion of a human head with the ear and a section of the lower vertebrae attached. It is thought this discovery will assist in solving the disappearance of Miss Parker and her companion who went out in a pleasure boat from Lorne Park and were never heard from.

Cross and White out on Bail.

RALEIGH, S.C., April 22.—Ross and White, the defaulting president and cashier of the State National Bank of this city, gave bond and were released from jail at midnight. The bond was $15,000 each. One of White's bondsmen is D. H. Graves, in whose name one of the lotteries for which Cross and White are to be tried, was committed.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by I. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general proficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, in this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1888.

THE LATE HON. THOS. WHITE.

THE death of the Hon. Thomas White, P. C., M.P., Minister of the Interior and Superintendent General of Indian Affairs, will be sincerely regretted throughout Canada, but in no place more than in Peterborough. It was here that he really began life. His name is connected with the earlier history of the town, and many retain pleasant recollections of his residence here. Friendships then formed have continued ever since, and in town and county his sudden demise calls forth deep regret.

The Hon. Thos. White's father emigrated to this country from the County Westmeath, Ireland, in 1828, and carried on business as a leather merchant in Montreal. The late Minister of the Interior was born in Montreal on Aug. 7th, 1830, and was educated at the High School in that city. In the fall of 1849 Mr. White, sr., sent a consignment of boots and shoes to Peterborough to sell wholesale, but not succeeding in disposing of them in that way, he left them in charge of Thos. White, Jr., who opened them for sale in a portion of a store occupied by Mr. Benj. Green as a dry goods and grocery store. This was in the building owned by the late Robt. Rowe, and where Mr. Smart's music store now is. The business prospered so well that in the following year Mr. White, sr., came to Peterborough, and, Mr. Green moving to the market square, the whole store was occupied by the boot and shoe business.

In 1853 Thos. White, jr., in company with Mr. R. Romaine, his brother-in-law, established the PETERBOROUGH REVIEW as a weekly newspaper, and in the same year Mr. White was married to Miss Vine, of Montreal. In 1857 Messrs. Thomas and Richard White published the REVIEW and continued its publication until Dec. 31st, 1864, when they sold it to Mr. R. Romaine. The REVIEW was at first printed in Mr. Rowe's block before referred to, and in 1858 the Messrs White moved it to the market block, where it has since been published.

The late Hon. Mr. White was always ambitious for public life and a good speaker. Soon after he came to Peterborough a lodge of the Sons of Temperance was organized, of which he was secretary, and it is said that his first public speech was at the celebration of the first anniversary of the lodge. The Rev. Mr. Gilmour complimented him upon the speech and predicted that he would become a clever orator. Mr. White also assisted at times in Methodist Church services. He was for several years a member of the School Board, and was also a member of the Town Council. He was Deputy Reeve of the town in 1859, the year the town was separated from the county, a change he was instrumental in bringing about. He was once an unsuccessful candidate for the Mayoralty, his opponent being Mr. Ivan O'Bierne. Mr. White was also a prominent member of the Masonic Order. In 1860 Mr. White commenced the study of law with the Hon. Sidney Smith, Q. C., now of Cobourg, and continued his studies for four years.

In 1865 Messrs. T. and R. White went to Hamilton, where for five years they published the Hamilton Spectator. Two years after going to Hamilton, in 1867, Mr. White was a candidate in South Wentworth for the Ontario Assembly, but was unsuccessful. In Hamilton Mr. White served as a member of the Board of Education and of the Board of Trade. From Hamilton the Messrs. White returned to Montreal in 1870 having purchased the Montreal Gazette, which paper is still published by them.

Before entering Parliament Mr. White held several important public positions. He was representative for a number of years of the Montreal Board of Trade in the Dominion Board, was a member for three years of the Executive Committee of the Dominion Board, and representative for five years of that body at the National Board of Trade of the United States.

Mr. White was an unsuccessful candidate for the House of Commons in Prescott in 1874 and in Montreal West in 1875 and again in 1876. The aggregate majority in his first three defeats—Wentworth, Prescott and Montreal—was only sixteen, which shows that he was only kept out of the House by narrow majorities. In the campaign of 1878 he took an important part, and during the summers previous to the general election was one of the speakers at the great open air meetings which were a prominent feature of the political methods of that time. He was first returned to the House of Commons as member for Cardwell, Ont., in 1878, and was re-elected in 1882 and again in 1887. Mr. White at once took a prominent place in the House, and on August 5th, 1885, he was sworn in a member of the Privy Council and was appointed Minister of the Interior, to which was afterwards added the Superintendency of the Department of Indian Affairs. In his department Mr. White showed great aptitude for public business. Immediately after taking office he made a tour of the Northwest and familiarized himself with the country and its requirements, which aided him in the very successful management of the department.

The death of Mr. White is a loss to the Dominion. He was a ready and an able debater and an effective platform speaker. In the recent debate in the House on Sir Richard Cartwright's unrestricted reciprocity resolution he led the debate on the Conservative side. In his public addresses he was an argumentative, incisive and pleasing speaker, and had a rare faculty for making plain difficult or obscure points. He was a very capable and efficient head of the Interior Department and he will be much missed by the Government and by the House of Commons.

Personally Mr. White was highly esteemed by his friends. In Peterborough he had many warm friends and none to speak ill of him in his private or social capacities. His last public appearance in Peterborough was during the last general election campaign, when he accompanied Sir John Macdonald and other Ministers. The previous fall he had spoken here on an invitation for the Young Men's Liberal Conservative Club. His success in public life was watched with friendly interest in Peterborough and his death is mourned.

Recent Scott Act Legislation.

The Globe says:—"By an Act passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature the fines collected in Scott Act counties are made applicable to the payment of the salary and travelling expenses of the police magistrate and the expenses of enforcing the Act according to the estimates of the License Commissioners, duly approved, as provided by the statute, or in other words, the Act is made to bear the expenses of its enforcement so far as the fines will provide before either the Government or the county will be called upon for any payment. It is therefore of importance to counties under the Scott Act that all fines imposed should be collected, and the Government, fully recognising this, have required of police magistrates a monthly return of convictions and fines under the Canada Temperance Act, and by a recent Order in Council, Mr. J. W. Manning, chief officer of the Canada Temperance Act Division of the license branch, has been appointed to inspect the books and records of the police magistrates having jurisdiction in cases of violation of the said Act."

At Lakefield.

Lakefield proposes to spend $5000 in a waterworks scheme. The money would be well invested. The Chronicle gives the following estimate of the cost, Messrs. Strickland and Hull, who control the water power, giving it free:—

36 inch Turbine wheel	$ 400
Rotary pump	250
Gearing, shaft, &c.	175
2,700 feet 6 inch pipe laid, including T pipes, plugs, &c., @ 85c.	2 145
Eight hydrants @ $36	288
300 feet of hose @ 90c	450
Pump house	100
Unforseen, say	192
Total	$5 000

Williams' Statute.

The Port Hope Times says:—Mr. Hamilton MacCarthy, the sculptor engaged to make the Williams' statue, writes the Williams Memorial Association to say that the clay model of the statute is prepared and ready for the Association's inspection. The committe appointed by the Association to superintend the erection of the statue will probably hold a meeting on Monday, at which a deputation will be appointed to go to Toronto to inspect the model. But should anyone, who feels any interest in the statue, wish, he may, if in the city, look in at Mr. MacCarthy's studio, east end of Yonge-st. Arcade, and see the model. The model is about three feet high.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

DISTRICT NOTES.

News of the Midland District Condensed from Contemporaries.

—While chopping in the woods John Patterson, of Ops, cut his foot severely.

—Two children of E. Jacket, of Oak wood, died of diphtheria and were buried in the same grave.

—Dr. Clarke, son of the Rev. R. Clarke, of Bracebridge and formerly of Norwood, has opened an office in Lindsay.

—While a son of A. T. Buttin, of Uxbridge, was leading a horse to water on Tuesday, it kicked him, fracturing his jaw.

—The residence of Philo White, 1st con. Rawdon, was burned on Wednesday. Insurance $300.

—Mrs. Wm. Clagg's barn, near Stirling, was burned on Tuesday night. A hired man is said to be missing, but it is not known whether he was burned.

—Patrick Fanning attended court at Penetanguishene as a witness on Thursday. He started for home, but did not reach there, and on Sunday he was found dead, his death being caused by exposure.

—A correspondent of the Post says that Clary Williamson has discovered a silver mine a mile south of Omemee. A joint stock company has been formed and one man has taken $5,000 of stock. The ore is said to be rich.

For Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest ordinary food, Scott's Emulsion can be digested and give strength and flesh when all other food fails. See what Dr A. H. Peck, Penn. Med. College, Philadelphia, says: "I have used and prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and find it an excellent preparation agreeing well with the stomach, and its continued use adding greatly to the strength and comfort of the patient." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

OTONABEE.

Correspondence of the Review.

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL.—A meeting of the Otonabee Council was held last week, all the members present. Messrs. John Kindred and Thomas Campbell, a deputation from the Good Templars, Keene, were heard requesting the use of the Council Chamber for lodge meetings once a week. On motion of Mr. Lancaster, seconded by Mr. Grady, they were allowed the use of the room for $1.00 per month. Moved by Mr. Anderson, seconded by Mr. Grady, that $1,000 be appropriated for roads throughout the township for current year. Moved by Mr. Lancaster, seconded by Mr. Grady, that the Clerk offer the Aurora Co. $9 each for 6 road scrapers, delivered at Keene station free of charge. Moved by Mr. Anderson, seconded by Mr. Hope, that the Court of Revision for this township be held on the 28th of May, at 10 a.m. The following accounts was ordered to be paid:—R McIntyre, cleaning council room, etc., $3.00, drawing stones to repair crossway on base line, con. 15, $24 00. The council adjourned until 28th May next.

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time, most economical blood purifier known.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

CORRESPONDENCE.

While correspondents will be allowed space to discuss questions of public interest, the Review does not hold itself responsible for the opinions expressed.

The Town Well.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Will any man with an ounce of brains tell your readers why the Council had the well sunk in the market square? I met one of the officers of the Water Co. and reproached him for the company's meanness in not providing water in so public a place, free of charge. He replied that the Co. had offered to supply the water free if the council would supply the troughs, &c. I say the stupidity if not worse that has characterised this expenditure of $256.00 is at the very least an imposition upon the tax payer.

Yours,
"HOW DID IT COME SO?"

Peterborough, April 21, 1888.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate,

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

MINDEN.

CHEESE FACTORY.—The efforts of Mr. Mortimer and Mr. M. Brown, our popular County Treasurer, are about to be crowned with success by the establishment of a cheese factory here. These gentlemen devoted time and means to this object and they along with this section of the county will, no doubt, reap advantages from the factory. Mr. Reid will be here in a few days to prepare everything for commencing operations.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning gray.

YOUNG'S POINT.

Correspondence of the Review.

THE ONTARIO GOV. JOB.—The work in connection with the lock here is progressing well, notwithstanding the fact that it has been done under a great many difficulties. First the ice was a drawback, and then the water became so high that an engine and boiler were necessary to pump out the lock. However, the stone work has been re-pointed, two new gates are ready to put in, and the piers for the bulkhead are about completed. The work would have been completed in a short time had not the bank at the end of the coffer dam been washed away, flooding the whole works. Mr. Ross, who has the work in charge, estimates that this break will cause a delay of fully a week. Everything seems to have conspired to prevent the work going on, but in spite of all Mr. Ross is in a fair way to bring it to a successful finish. Quite a number of men have been employed, and all but three or four are local men. The exceptions are mechanics.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

SMITH.

Correspondence of the Review.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The council met on March 12th, all the members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The Treasurer was ordered to pay W. A. Graham the sum of $15 for support of Lizzie Toms during her illness at his residence. A by-law distributing $1,050 for the repair of the roads passed its several readings. The sum of $25.41 was allowed as abatements on the Collectors Roll for 1887, $15 dollars of which is for statute labour already performed. The sum of $30 was granted to use in building a sidewalk in the village of Bridgenorth. The Clerk was instructed to give notice by three insertions in each of two papers that any violation of by-law No. 441, which prohibits the depositing of any rubbish, stones, earth or any material which may be or become an obstruction on any public highway or the removal of any clay, sand, gravel, timber or other material without proper authority, will be prosecuted according to law. The council then adjourned to meet on the 28th day of May as a Court of Revision.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

The Prince of Monaco is 70 years old and has an income of $900,000.

Bill Nye, it is said, made $2,000 last month by being funny in various western cities.

The Prince of Wales is just under 5 feet 7 inches in height. He weighs 180 pounds.

The archbishop of Gran, the Hungarian primate, has an income of $400,000 a year.

Dr. Hansen, of Bergen, is preparing for a snowshoe trip across the center of Greenland from east to west.

Mr. Gladstone has discarded the shabby old victoria which he used to drive, and now drives a spanking turnout.

Mr. Carl Zerrahn, the eminent Boston musician, thinks Josef Hofmann is the most remarkable musical prodigy since Mozart.

Ferdinand of Bulgaria is not a big man, but it begins to look as though he would eventually overturn the peace of Europe.

Joseph Chamberlain expects to have baron honors thrust upon him when he gets to London. If he is not made a baron he may be knighted.

Cardinal Gibbons is said to be the favorite of English, German and Russian cardinals for the highest office in the church when Pope Leo dies.

Gen. Bragg, United States minister to Mexico, is now on his way to the Land of the Montezumas. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Col. Valentine Baker's friends, including the most distinguished soldiers and sailors of the British forces, are getting up a subscription for his widow.

Stagg, the famous pitcher of the Yale nine, will twirl the sphere for that team during the coming season. He enters the Yale Theological seminary in September.

It is pleasant to observe that in his last fight Osman Digna was only wounded in the left foot. Hitherto he has been killed six times and fatally wounded three times.

Ion Gennadius, the Greek minister, is a bachelor. He is a D. C. L. of the Oxford university, and wears a short jacket and a multifolded stiff white petticoat for full dress.

Baron Hirsch de Gereuth, who has been raised to the Austrian house of peers by the Emperor Francis Joseph, is the first Hebrew to receive such an honor. It cost him $30,000,000 in charity.

Secretary Whitney has two sons old enough to be away at boarding school. One of them wrote home the other day: "We have a debating society, and one of our favorite subjects is: 'The United States navy and how might it be improved.'"

The mikado, according to a Japanese lecturer in the Berlin Academy of Oriental Languages, is descended from the gods, and is the 121st of his race. The national religion, Shintoism, possesses 8,000,000 gods and saints, and there are 136,000 temples.

At 80 years of age the Hon. Hugh McCulloch looks and acts like a man of 55. He recalls with satisfaction that during his six years at the treasury department, two as controller of the currency and four as secretary, he was not absent in all two weeks.

Mr. Browning has added a short notice to the new edition of his wife's poems just issued. It tells that Mrs. Browning was born at Carlton Hill, Durham, her uncle's house, in 1806. She was at the time of their marriage 40, while he was her junior by six years.

GOUGH BROS.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN,

Always endeavoring to be abreast of the times, are constantly changing and bringing in a variety of New Goods suitable for all occasions. Variety is the spice of life. All work and no play makes John a dull boy. To make ourselves intelligent, happy and bright, it is necessary to spice our lives with a little variety. Without it life would be monotonous, hence the very great desire of humanity for "Changes;" change of dress, change of style, change of everything that is wearable and tearable, but above all, change of the High-priced Clothiers.

The Wonderful Cheap Men are equal to the emergency. They are showing ten cases of American Novelties, the latest choice of the season, and too utterly too too to murmur, but quite capable of exciting the admiration of all beholders, and certainly a great treat to one's visionary organs, while their prices knock all the other clothiers cold. While passing, step in a little and see, and wade through their massive aggregations of Bargains.

CHILDREN'S SUITS FOR - - - - - - - - 89C.
MEN'S SUITS FOR - - - - $2.50 WORTH $5.50.
MEN'S BLUE SERGE SUITS FOR $3.50 WORTH $6.50.
WORKING PANTS - - - - - - - 25C. PER PAIR.
SUNDAY PANTS - - - - - - - - - - - $1.50.
HATS FOR - - - - - - - 10C., 25C., AND 50C.

are among some of the attractions, but the big attraction for this week will be a

$12.00 FINE WORSTED SUIT FOR $6.90.

They give you thousands of Children's Suits to select from and thousands of Men's Suits at prices that paralyze all competition. Ask for any of the goods mentioned, and see if they do as they advertise. For the Biggest Bargains on earth remember

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

BIRDSALL.

Correspondence of the Review.

LOW WATER.—The water in the Ouse River and in Rice Lake, is lower than it has been this time of the year, for over thirty years.

EARLY PLOUGHING.—Mr. John Lobb started to plough on the 11th of April, which is the earliest I have heard of in this community this season.

LOSS OF A HORSE.—Mr. John Walker had a valuable horse die last week.

PERSONAL.—Miss Nora Ryan has left for Rantoul, Ill., U.S. Miss Ryan at one time taught the school at Birdsall, which is now in charge of Miss Stewart.

AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT.—Mr. Jno. M. Cameron and Mr. Birdsall are conducting experiments for the Ontario Experimental Union as to the value of different kinds of manure on the same seed and on the same ground.

ILL.—Geo. Lancaster, son of Mr. James Lancaster, of this place, has been suffering from a severe attack of the measles. We hope to see our young friend soon convalescent.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Sam. Comago is slowly recovering from a very severe illness. Mr. H. Burnt, D. L. S., has gone to Toronto on a visit.

WHEAT AND CLOVER.—A good deal of the clover on the on the old meadows is killed out, that is where they have not had a top dressing of manure. The fall wheat looks very brown, but may pull through if the weather gets warm soon.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

"Habiliment Hall".

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

BUY THE

Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Brodigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. E. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Fife, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve,) Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Otonabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Buller, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Rose, Peterborough, Mr. J. J. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. A. Hughes, Peterborough, Mrs. Eliza Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,

Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md80-1mw16 10 Spruce-st., New York

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, 5im be-st 61

LADIES WILL TALK

and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also

FELTS, CANVASES,
PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY,
SILKS, ETC., ETC.

Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice.

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

MONEY TO LEND!

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

CANNED GOODS
—AT—
MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods :—

MEATS.
ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN.

VEGETABLES.
BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.
SALMON, MACKERAL LOBSTER.

FRUITS.
APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,
WALL PAPER
—AT—
SAILSBURY'S.

REMOVAL SALE.

Goods must be sold.

So far our sale has attracted hundreds of buyers. New Goods bought right and sold at Great Reductions draw the crowds. Do not miss this opportunity.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

E. E. HENDERSON
Issurer of Marriage Licenses.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 & w6

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh north to north-west winds; fine weather: stationary or a little higher temperature.

To be Stepped on Repeatedly.

Perhaps you are—to some extent—refurnishing your home. Commendable thing this to do. Comfort at home is of first consideration. You may need carpets. Probably you require oilcloths—think it over, taking as you are the fact that at the golden lion you can buy either or both remarkably cheap. Carpets in velvets, brussels, tapestry, wool, union or hemp. There is a list from which to select your needs. Oilcloths in great variety. Handsome patterns and of most durable materials. Call and look the stock over.

CONSIDER where it comes from, can be applied to more things than a kicking mule, and on the Butter question it comes in with decided emphasis. The Pantry is noted for keeping the choicest article in town. d89

On a Sound Basis.

Reference to the annual report, just issued, of the Methodist church, at Lindsay, shows that if there is anything in the fact that religion should influence one's business, that good business method should have a bracing influence on religion. Three years ago the Lindsay Methodist church was run on the old plan. Rents were collected for the pews and the clergyman's salary was raised by envelope contributions. $2,000 was the limit that could be raised. During 1886 the church pushed out and with commendable enterprise enlarged the church building, refitted and furnished the church and school, adding some $11,000 to the debt of the congregation. Upon occupying the church it was decided to adopt the "free pew system," and going further it was decided by the committee of business men to whom the duty of devising a scheme was relegated that one weekly contribution should cover everything, pew rent, stipend, and all church collections whatsoever. To meet current expenses and interest it was found that not less than $72.00 per Sabbath must be raised. The committee made a personal canvass and when results were summed up it was found that nearly $92.00 per Sabbath was coming in. The report for the year now past shows that the income of the church amounted to $5,365.68 and that after providing for all expenses, collections and interest a balance of $1,071.93 was carried to the building fund, representing a payment to that amount on the church debt. The officials and congregation are enthusiastic in support of the scheme, which has abolished the objectionable feature of bonuses on selection of pews and ensured a maximum amount being subscribed by the church to the different regular and special funds. It may be explained that the trustees lumped together collections to these funds during the five years previous, took the average, and placed a sum in the estimates to cover the amount. The success of the scheme has been remarkable and is solely the result of everyone doing his or her best and doing it steadily. All schemes, such as socials, at homes and other entertainments, with a view of raising funds, have been given up, the rule being that at all occasions of the kind indicated no charge is made.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS
AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM

Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1.00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming. Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.
(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

No. 1 Co. 57th Battalion

Will meet on Tuesday evening, at the drill shed. Eight men wanted to fill vacancies.

Organ Recital.

Mr. A. E. Carter, organist of St. James Cathedral, Toronto, will give a recital in St. Andrew's Church to-night, at eight o'clock.

By Water Power.

Henceforth the organ at the George-st Methodist Church will be pumped by water power, and connections are now being made with the water main on Water-st.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

For Drill.

The members of No. 4 company of the 57th Battalion will meet for drill on Wednesday evening, at 7.30 o'clock sharp. As it is highly important that the members should be well up in their drill by the 24th of May, a full attendance is requested.

St. Andrews Church.

A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st, on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents. 9482-ood

The Weekly Debate.

The Separate School system will be discussed at to-night's debate of the Otonabee Canoe club. Members and others who propose attending are particularly requested to "come early and avoid the rush." The debate will be began promptly at eight o'clock.

"Is life worth living?" Well, yes; if you get some of that choice Maple Syrup from R. Kidd at the Pantry. d89

Dropped Dead.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. John Drake, a well known resident of the first Ward, died very suddenly. He was gardening at Mr. Robert Hall's residence, and was wheeling a barrow, when he suddenly fell into it and expired. He was about 60 years of age. Heart disease is ascribed as the cause of death.

Military Matters.

All the different companies of the 57th Battalion are preparing for drill and the vacancies are filling up rapidly....There is talk of changes in the list of officers and half a dozen or more will have to be appointed....The news regarding the proposed visit of a Toronto regiment on the 24th of May is just as hazy as ever, but it is expected that something definite will be known in a day or two.

Hanged.

The other morning a gentleman residing at the south end of the town was rather surprised to see a body hanging to the elevator in front of Mr. P. Hamilton's foundry. The face was as black as jet, but the other portions of the body were of the natural color. Visions of suicide, murder, etc., floated through the beholder's mind, until he found that the body was a statute from a neighboring lawn, with a coat of black paint on the face.

Card to the Public.

John McNaughton desires to announce to those ladies who bought skating boots from him last winter that if they have not given satisfaction, he is prepared to give compensation for any defects that may have been in these goods, as they were warranted to him, and he warranted them to his customers. He sold 42 pair of ladies' skating boots and wishes to know how they have turned out. He leaves this matter open until Thursday, 26th of April, at 12 o'clock, noon, and says this is the way he does business. 2d95

Obituary.

Mr. Richard Croft, second son of Mr. Wm. Croft, died suddenly this morning. He had been ailing for some time with Kidney Disease, and on Sunday, while blacking his boots, he was seized with convulsions, from which he never recovered, although Doctors Halliday and Clarke were in attendance and did all that human skill could avail. The deceased was 35 years of age and for some time he conducted a soda water business. He leaves a young widow. He was widely known and highly respected by all his friends and acquaintances and his sudden demise will be heard of with deep regret.

The Programme.

The following is the programme of the social to be held in St. Paul's Church school room on Tuesday, 24th inst:—

1. Orchestra
2. Vocal Solo.....Mrs. Macklin
3. Inst. Duet..Misses Fairweather and Taylor
4. Quartette..Misses Cottingham and Haultain, Messrs. Shaw and Morris
5. Vocal Solo.....Miss Cottingham
6. Vocal Solo.....Mr. Elliott
7. Inst. Solo.....Miss H. Denniston
8. Vocal Duet..Misses Denniston and Haultain

Intermission and Refreshments.

9. Orchestra
10. Vocal Solo.....Mrs. Sanderson
11. Inst. Solo.....Mr. Parker
12. Vocal Solo.....Mr. Shaw
13. Inst. Duet.....Mrs. and Miss M. Roper
14. Vocal Duet..Mrs. Macklin and Mr. Elliott
15. Quartette..Mrs. Macklin and Miss Haultain, Messrs Shaw and Elliott

God Save the Queen.

He who drinks of Lethe's Watery Labyrinth forgets his former state, both joy and grief, pleasure and pain, but for perfect and enduring happiness try those fine flavored Teas at the Pantry. d89

THE CHEESE BOARD.

Organized on Saturday for the Coming Season's Business.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough and Victoria Cheese Board was held on Saturday at the old Music Hall. Owing to the fact that the time and place of the meeting was not advertised, the attendance was slim and if it had not been the meeting day of the Cheesemaker's Union, there would not have been a quorum.

President Drummond took the chair shortly after 3 o'clock and Secretary Taylor acted in his usual capacity. Some of the leading factories of the county were represented, but none of the Victoria men filed an appearance. G. T. R. agent Brundrett, Councillor Yelland and Mr. Bickle, cheese box maker, were among the others present.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and adopted. The Treasurer's report showed that the receipts during the year were $57.28 and the disbursements $24.50, leaving a balance on hand of $32.78. The report was adopted.

AT CAMPBELLFORD.

The PRESIDENT said that he noticed several gentlemen present who were at the recent dairymen's convention at Campbellford and he asked them to state to the meeting what they had learned there.

Mr. M. E. SANDERSON said that his object in attending the meeting was to learn about the proposed Milk Inspectors. The idea was to appoint competent men to inspect the milk and assess each factory $10 per year to pay their salaries. He regarded it as a move in the right direction, but he was sorry that nothing was accomplished at the meeting. Prof. Robertson had charge of the matter and he had sent circulars to each of the factories in the country to ascertain their views. There would be four Inspectors in this district, two east of Kingston and two west of that city. If he knew that the Inspectors woul be thoroughly competent men he would know how to act and he wanted to know them before he would pay in his money.

MR. J. W. MOORE agreed with the previous speaker. He favored the idea of having Inspectors and felt confident that if Prof. Robertson had control, none but competent men would be appointed.

Mr. J. G. GALVIN asked who was to be appointed the inspector?

Mr. MOORE said that the Executive Committee of the Eastern Dairymen's Association would choose the men. They would act as both milk inspectors and cheese instructors.

Several members had an idea that they would act as cheese instructors only.

The SECRETARY read the resolution passed at the meeting of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association held here, which stated that they were to act as both inspectors and instructors and that factories making over 50,000 pounds per year were to pay $10 and those making under that amount $5 per annum.

Mr. TAYLOR thought that inspectors were badly needed. The matter had been talked of for years and he was glad to see that something tangible was being done at last.

The PRESIDENT asked if the patrons would have to pay the fee?

The SECRETARY thought that the makers and owners should pay it or they might unite with the patrons. The Inspectors would test the milk in the morning and instruct the makers during the day. They would visit each factory at least three times in the season.

Mr. D. PILKEY understood that the Inspectors had to go to Guelph and pass an examination at the agricultural college. As long as Prof. Robertson had charge of the men, the factories were guaranteed that incompetent persons would not be employed.

Mr. THOS. JOHNSTON said that if the Inspectors were not first class men, the Dairymen's Association would be killed.

Mr. SPENCE was at Campbellford, but he did not understand Prof. Robertson to say that the inspectors had to pass any examination.

The SECRETARY suggested that they try it for one year and if they were gulled they could easily drop it.

HOW AND WHY?

Mr. PILKEY inquired who had been notified of the present meeting? He had simply learned of it by chance.

Several others made similar remarks and the Secretary apologized for not notifying all the factories and said that it was done inadvertently.

Mr. PILKEY regretted that such a thing had occurred, as several of the Victoria men desired to be present.

WHO CAN VOTE.

Mr. MOORE inquired if cheesemakers had votes at the annual meeting?

Same discussion ensued and a motion was finally passed that all salesmen, makers and owners have votes at the annual meeting.

THEIR OBJECTS.

Mr. CRIBBIN, on behalf of the makers, replied to some strictness that had been made on their organization. Their's was not by any means a secret society and their main object was to improve the quality of the cheese turned out in the county. It was for the mutual benefit of all, and they had already accomplished a good deal in making uniform cheese.

Mr. ALEX. SMITH thought it highly important that all should meet together at least once a year and discuss matters of interest and importance and at the same time he also favored separate meetings for the makers, salesmen and owners.

A GRATUITY.

On motion of Mr. Pilkey, seconded by Mr. S. Edwards, the sum of $15 was voted to the Secretary for his services during the past year. Mr. Taylor at first declined to accept the money, but the meeting would not have it that way and he was forced to take it.

THE OFFICERS.

The following officers were all re-elected by acclamation:—

PRESIDENT,—J. H. Drummond.
VICE-PRESIDENT,—J. G. Galvin.
SECRETARY,—W. Taylor.
TREASURER,—S. Edwards.
INSPECTOR AND ARBITRATOR,—W. H. Wrighton.

DAY OF SALE.

It was decided to hold the first sale on Tuesday, May 29th, and the annual fees were fixed at $1 per year.

BOXES.

Mr. Bickle, cheesebox manufacturer, offered to supply first class boxes, delivered at the factories for 12 cents each.

Considerable crossfiring took place, some of the makers complaining that Mr. Bickle, last year did not always supply boxes when they were required. Explanations followed and the meeting adjourned.

St. Luke's Organ.

Messrs. Jackson & Co., the organ and piano manufacturers, commenced work this morning, at placing the new organ in St. Luke's church. The instrument will be ready at an early day.

An Organist.

An applicant from Toronto, for the position of organist of organist of St. Andrew's Church, will be heard to-night and the committee will afterwards make their selection.

THE Pantry is now well stocked with all kinds of First Class Groceries. Customers an always get what we have to sell at bottom prices. No trouble to show goods and quote prices. ds Street Names.

Some four hundred boards with the names of streets on them are being placed in position. They are plain black and white affairs, but are serviceable. When they are up every street corner in town will be marked.

Bricklayers' Meeting.

There will will be a meeting of the bricklayers and masons this (Monday) evening, at 7.30 o'clock, in the Knights of Labor Hall, Water-st. All stone masons are respectfully invited to be present. R. SHERRY, Secretary. 1d

The Cheesemakers.

The Cheesemakers' Union held a meeting on Saturday and elected the following officers:—

PRESIDENT.—J. W. Moore.
VICE-PRESIDENT.—W. Crebbin.
SECY.-TREAS.—D. Pilkey.

Large Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mr. Walter Paterson, sr., took place this afternoon and it was one of the largest ever seen in town, testifying to the great esteem in which deceased was held. As a mark of respect the places of business along the route of the cortege were closed.

Fire.

On Sunday afternoon, shortly after dinner hour, a slight fire occurred at the residence of Mr. Benjamin Ventriss. A wood shed was slightly damaged, and by the exertions of the neighbors the blaze was extinguished before it assumed serious dimensions. No alarm was given.

C. L. R. R.

It seems to be a settled fact that the Grand Trunk will utilize the old line and build a new bridge over the present track, in making the connection with the Chemong Lake Railway. At least the property holders have that view. George-st. will have to be raised considerably, north of Smith-st.

The Bishop Abroad.

The Port Hope Times says:—"The Right Rev. Bishop Dowling arrived from Peterborough on the noon train on Saturday and was met at the depot by the members of St. Mary's church, who presented him with an address of welcome on this his first official visit to the parish. His Lordship solemnized the holy ordinance of confirmation on Sunday morning in St. Mary's."

The Y. W. C. T. U.

The following programme will be rendered at the entertainment to be given by the Y. W. C. T. U. in their hall, to-morrow, Tuesday evening, and to commence at 8. p. m:—

PROGRAMME.

Opening exercises.....Secretary's report
1. Song.....Selected.....
Y. M. C. A. Quartette.
2. Duet..."Swedish Wedding March."..... (Schereck
Miss Bradburn and Mr W. H. Dingle.
3. Song....." I Fear no Foe,".....Pinsuti
Mr. F. Annesley.
4. Address..." Work of the W. C. T. U."....
Mrs. Chisholm.
5. Song..." When the Tide Comes In,"..... (H. Millard
Miss Schofield.
6. .....Prize Contest on Pronunciation.....
Conducted in the Interests of "English as She is Spoke."
7. Duet, Piano & Ocarina, "Gondolier Waltz,"
Miss K. B. Annesley and Mr. F. Annesley.
Refreshments.
8. Song.....Selected.....
Y. M. C. A. Quartette.
God Save the Queen.
Admission.....25 Cents. d95

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Leaving Town.

Mr. Moise Brousseau, who has conducted the Montreal House here for some time leaves town this evening, for Montreal, where he has purchased a place, 93 and 95 St. Paul-st., near the Bonsecour market.

Arbor Day.

The 4th of May will be Arbor Day throughout the Province, when all the rural public schools will be expected to devote the time to the planting of trees and otherwise improving the grounds.

Brevities.

—There was no police court this morning.

—The watering carts are in service for the season.

—The Lindsay cricketers have written here for a date.

—The fall grain in the Belleville district has been damaged by the frost.

—On Saturday Whitby hotel men paid $610 and Orillia $200, in Scott Act fines.

—A ball will take place at the new hotel opposite the market square this evening.

—There is a good prospect for a large factory being located here at an early date.

—Several loads of gravel have been placed on the market square, where they will do most good.

—That real, genuine, simon pure harbinger of spring, the iceman, has commenced his rounds.

—The watering carts will have to cover more ground or there will be a big kick from the ratepayers.

—Word has been received from some of the mounted police recruits, who left here recently. They are stationed at Regina and have settled down to work.

—Talk about the value of advertising in the REVIEW. Here is tangible proof of its importance. The Western Investment Co'y. of Deadwood, Dak., write, offering 200 shares of mining stock in return for a 1 inch ad. for 3 months. The stock it is said is liable to be worth $5,000 any day. Thanks, friends, thanks.

GIVE THE BOYS
A NEW SUIT

The winter is over. The boys have been having a good time. You can tell by their faces. You can be certain by a look at their clothes. All of them need a new suit or part of a suit to freshen them up for school. We are ready to supply their wants.

Suits for the Smallest,
Suits for Middle-weights.
Suits for the Biggest.

Capital Tweeds, proper for boy's wear. Ready mades in many styles. Call early.

T. Dolan & Co

BIRTH.

PORTER.—On Sunday, 22nd of April, the wife of Mr. Charles Porter, of twins (boys).

DIED.

WHITE.—At Ottawa, on Saturday, April 21st, 1888, the honorable THOMAS WHITE, P.C., M.P., Minister of the Interior and Superintendent General of Indian Affairs, in the 58th year of his age.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, Metcalf street, on Tuesday morning, 24th inst., at 9 o'clock, to the Canada Atlantic Station. Service will be held in St. George's Church, Montreal, at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

CROFT.—At Peterborough, on Monday, April 23rd, 1888, RICHARD, second son of Mr. Wm. Croft, aged 35 years.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, on Wednesday, April 25th, at 3 o'clock p. m.

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

John Hackett

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrated Woodrun Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade, ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,
A PAPER-HANGER.

LEBRUN
LEADS THE STYLES IN CLOTHING.

SPLENDID BARGAINS!

700 PAIRS OF
TWEED PANTS
Bought at a Bankrupt Clearing Sale at Montreal and will be sold at half value.

SEE THE VALUE
TWEED PANTS AT $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 AND $2.50.
These are the Best Value ever offered and cannot be equalled.

Men, Youths and Boys who are wanting ordered or ready-made Clothing should call and examine our large stock of new Tweeds for Men's and Boys' wear.

H. LEBRUN, The City Clothing Store, No. 396 GEORGE STREET.

"Did n't Know 't was Loaded"

May do for a stupid boy's excuse; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of Bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

Nathan S. Cleveland, 27 E. Canton st., Boston, writes: "My daughter, now 25 years old, was in perfect health until a year ago when she began to complain of fatigue, headache, debility, dizziness indigestion, and loss of appetite. I concluded that all her complaints originated in impure blood, and induced her to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soon restored her blood-making organs to healthy action, and in due time reestablished her former health. I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to spring time."

J. Castright, Brooklyn Power Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "As a Spring Medicine, I find a splendid substitute for the old-time compounds in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, with a few doses of Ayer's Pills. After their use, I feel fresher and stronger to go through the summer."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1888.

THE TORONTOS' FIRST WIN.

CUSHMAN'S TEAM DEFEATS THE ALLENTOWN NINE BY 18 TO 6.

Baseball Games Saturday—The Championship Record—Death of a Famous Trotter—The Lacrosse Team in England—Spots of Sport.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 21.—The Torontos by big batting and daring base running won the game from the Allentown team to-day. A slight drizzle of snow up to nearly noon was succeeded by raw weather, which made the spectators uncomfortable and rendered good fielding next to impossible. Doyle started in to pitch for Allentown, but on account of a lame arm proved too easy a mark, and Zell was substituted. The individual features were Gunshannon's batting and fielding for the home team, and Decker's great work behind the bat and Smith's pitching for the visitors. Score:

TORONTO.	R.	1B.	P.O.	A.	E.	ALLENTOWN.	R.	1B.	P.O.	A.	E.
Burke, cf	3	0	1	0	0	G'sh'n'n, cf	1	4	3	1	0
Connors, lf	3	2	1	0	1	R'mph'y, 2b	1	0	2	0	1
M'Laughlin, s	3	2	1	4	0	Jackson, l	1	0	1	0	0
Hartnett, 1b	2	2	12	1	0	Zell, rf & p	1	1	3	2	4
Hickley, 3b	2	2	1	3	1	Tomney, ss	1	3	0	4	1
Thayer, f	2	2	1	0	0	Keifer, c	1	0	6	3	2
Kearns, 2b	0	1	4	1	1	Faulkrad, 3b	1	0	2	4	0
Decker, c	1	2	6	2	1	Baker, lf	0	1	1	0	0
Smith, p	2	2	0	9	6	Doyle, p, rf	0	0	0	2	3
Totals	18	15	27	20	10	Totals	6	10	24	16	12

Earned runs—Allentowns, 2; Torontos, 5. Two base hits—Thayer, Decker and Tomney. Passed balls—Decker (2), Keifer (4). Wild pitches—Smith (1), Zell (3), Doyle (1). Umpire—Devinnie.

League Games on Saturday.

	R.	H.	E.
At Pittsburg:
Pittsburg	0 0 0 1 2 4 1 0 2	10	14	5
Detroit	1 0 2 1 0 0 0 0 1	5	11	5
Batteries: Galvin and Miller; Conway and Broughton.
At Philadelphia:
Philadelphia	0 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 0	3	7	0
Boston	0 1 2 1 0 0 3 2 x	10	15	1
Batteries: Casey and Clement; Madden and Tate.
Umpire: Daniels.
At Washington:
Washington	0 1 0 4 1 0 0 4 0	10	14	6
New York	1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0	3	4	4
Batteries: Whitney and Mack; Crane and O'Rourke.
Umpire: Lynch.
At Indianapolis:
Indianapolis	0 1 0 0 0 8 1 0 0	2	8	5
Chicago	1 3 1 0 0 0 1 2 x	8	7	5
Batteries: Healey and Buckley; Baldwin and Daily.
Umpire: Valentine.

Association Games on Saturday.

	R.	H.	E.
At Brooklyn:
Brooklyn	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1	2	4	1
Cleveland	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0	5	2
Batteries: Mayo and Holbert; Bakeley and Zimmer.
Umpire: Gaffney.
At Kansas City:
Kansas City	1 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 1	4	6	2
Cincinnati	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	1	5	11
Batteries: Porter and Donohue; Mullane and Kennan.
Umpire: Doescher.
At St. Louis:
St. Louis	0 0 1 0 1 0 8 1 1	11	13	0
Louisville	1 0 2 1 1 0 0 0 0	7	9	5
Batteries: King and Boyle; Stratton and Cook. Umpire: Mequade.

At Baltimore:

The weather was so cold that the managers of the Baltimore and Athletic Clubs concluded not to allow their men to play, and the game was postponed until May 15, when it will be played in Philadelphia.

Ball Players Before the Mayor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 21.—Both Esterbrook and Sullivan were arraigned before the Mayor to-day, charged with disorderly conduct at yesterday's game, but were released with a reprimand.

Esterbrook ran into Pfeffer to-day while the latter was covering second, knocking him down. It looked very breezy for a few minutes. Sullivan came in from his field, a few words passed between the men, but Sullivan was ordered to his position. It is reported that the majority of the Chicago players endeavored to get at Sullivan during last evening to resent the insult of the afternoon, but the two men were kept apart. The Chicagos started the trouble by rude base running, and upon Sullivan's attempt to over-run Esterbrook was met with a shoulder hit.

The Championship Records.

BUFFALO, April 22.—As Chicago, Pittsburg and Boston won again yesterday, their percentage is still that very rare 1000. As New York lost her percentage is now the same as Washington's, 500 each, having won and lost a game. Detroit, Philadelphia and Indianapolis have no percentage as yet. In the American race Brooklyn and St. Louis have still their percentage of 1000, the Athletics and Cincinnati have 667 each, having won two games and lost one. Baltimore and Kansas City lost two games each and won one, hence their percentage of 333. Louisville and Cleveland have yet to win their first game.

Southern League record is as follows:
Birmingham won 6, lost 3, percentage 666.
Memphis won 5, lost 4, percentage 555.
New Orleans won 4, lost 5, percentage 444.
Charleston won 2, lost 6, percentage 333.

The English Turf Scandal.

LONDON, April 21.—The Board of Arbitrators appointed to arbitrate in the matter of charges made by Lord Durham against Sir George Chetwynd at the Gimcrack Club dinner at York, in December, of improper turf practices during the racing season of 1887, are the Right Hon. James Lowther, one of the stewards of the Jockey Club; Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, a member of the Jockey Club; and Lord Herschell, who was Lord High Chancellor in Mr. Gladstone's third Ministry. Both Lowther and Chaplin are active racing men. Lord Herschell has no connection with the turf. This method of trying the case was agreed upon at a meeting of the Jockey Club held at the London residence of Lord Hastings, senior steward of the Jockey Club, on Feb. 8.

Death of Dexter, the Famous Trotter.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Dexter, the famous trotter, died this morning at the stable of Mr. Robert Bonner, in this city. He was just 30 years old, having been foaled in April, 1858. He died of old age and exhaustion. The body will be taken up to Mr. Bonner's farm at Terrytown, where it will be buried. Dexter was the greatest trotter of his day. He was the first horse to trot a mile in 2.17½. Mr. Bonner paid $33,000 for him in 1867.

The Boys Yet Unbeaten.

LONDON, April 21.—In the game of lacrosse between the Canadian team and the Select Londoners to-day, the former won by a score of 9 to 2 for their opponents.

Hosmer and Ross to Row.

BOSTON, Mass., April 22.—Hosmer and Ross will row three miles over the Lynns River course on the Merrimac, near Lowell, May 30, for a purse of $500 offered by the St. James Young Men's Catholic Temperance Association.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

As Mona gazes at him half fearfully, he raises himself suddenly on his elbow, and says, in a voice far stronger than he has yet used,—

"How brilliant the moonlight is to-night! See—watch"—eagerly—"how the shadows chase each other down the Ranger's Hill."

Mona looks up startled. "Lie down; you will hurt yourself again," she says, trying gently to induce him to return to his former recumbent position; but he resists her.

"Who has taken my orders about the sheep?" he says, in a loud voice, and in an imperious tone, his eyes growing bright but uncertain. "Tell Grainger to see to it. My father spoke about it again only yesterday. The upper pastures are fresher—greener——"

His voice breaks; with a groan he sinks back again upon his pillow.

"Mona, are you still there?" he says, with a return to consciousness; "did I dream, or did my father speak to me? How the night comes on!" He sighs wearily. "I am so tired,—so worn out; if I could only sleep!" he murmurs faintly.

Alas! how soon will fall upon him that eternal sleep from which no man waketh!

His breath grows fainter, his eyelids close.

* * * * * * *

Some one comes in with a lamp, and places it on a distant table, where its rays cannot distress the dying man.

Dr. Bland, coming into the room, goes up to the bedside and feels his pulse, and tries to put something between his lips, but he refuses anything.

"It is no use,—it only wearies me. My best medicine, my only medicine is here," returns Paul, feebly, pressing Mona's hand.

The minutes go by slowly. Geoffrey, growing uneasy, raises his head and looks at Mona. She is still kneeling by the bed, her hands clasped in Paul Rodney's.

The doctor, who has been earnestly watching the dying man, goes over to Geoffrey, and whispers something in his ear while pointing to Mona.

"At once," he says, with emphasis.

Geoffrey starts. He walks quickly up to Mona, and, stooping over her, very gently loosens her hand from the other hand she is holding. Passing his arm round her neck, he turns her face deliberately in his own direction—as though to keep her eyes from resting on the bed—and lays it upon his own breast.

"Come," he says, gently.

"Oh, not yet!" entreats faithful Mona, in a miserable tone; "not yet. Remember what I said. I promised to remain with him until the very end."

"You have kept your promise," returns he, solemnly, pressing her face still closer against his chest.

A strong shudder runs through her frame; she grows a little heavier in his embrace. Seeing she has fainted, he lifts her in his arms and carries her out of the room.

Later on, when they open the paper that had been given by the dead man into the keeping of Dr. Bland, and which proves to be his will, duly signed and witnessed by the gamekeeper and his son, they find he has left Mona all of which he died possessed. It amounts to about two thousand a year; of which one thousand is to come to her at once, the other on the death of his mother.

They put him to rest in the family vault, where his ancestors lie side by side,—as Mona promised him,—and write Sir Paul Rodney over his head, giving him in death the title they would gladly have withheld from him in life.

* * * * * * *

Once again they are all at the Towers. Doatie and her brother—who had returned to their own home during March and April—have now come back again to Lady Rodney, who ever welcomes these two with open arms. It is a last visit from Doatie as a "graceful maiden with a gentle brow," as Mary Howitt would certainly have called her, next month having been decided upon as the most fitting for transforming Dorothy Darling into Dorothy Lady Rodney. In this thought both she and her betrothed are perfectly happy.

Mona and Geoffrey have gone to their own pretty house, and are happy there as they deserve to be,—Mona proving the most charming of chatelaines, so naive, so gracious, so utterly unaffected, as to win all hearts. Indeed, there is not in the county a more popular woman than Mrs. Geoffrey Rodney. Yet much of their time is spent at the Towers.

As to Jack and Violet, they have of late grown into a sort of moral puzzle that nobody can solve. For months they have been gazing at and talking to each other, have apparently seen nothing but each other, no matter how many others may be present; and yet it is evident that no understanding exists between them, and that no formal engagement has been arrived at.

"Why on earth," says Nolly, "can't they tell each other, what they have told the world long ago, that they adore each other? It is so jolly senseless, don't you know."

"I wonder when you will adore any one, Nolly," says Geoffrey, idly.

"I do adore somebody," returns that ingenious youth, staring openly at Mona, who is taking up the last stitch dropped by Lady Rodney in the little scarlet silk sock she is knitting for Phyllis Carrington's boy.

"That's me," says Mona, glancing at him archly from under her long lashes.

"Now, how did you find it out? who told you?" asks Mr. Darling, with careful surprise. "Yes, it is true: I don't seek to deny it. The hopeless passion I entertain for you is dearer to me than any other more successful passion can ever be. I worship a dream—an idea—and am happier in my maddest moments than others when most sane."

"Bless me, Nolly, you are not going to be ill, are you?" says Geoffrey. "Such a burst of eloquence is rare."

"There are times, I confess," goes on Mr. Darling, disposing of Geoffrey's mundane interruption by a contemptuous wave of the hand, "when light breaks in upon me, and a joyful, a thrice-blessed termination to my dream presents itself. For instance, if Geoffrey could only be brought to see things as they are, and have the grace to quit this mortal globe and soar to worlds unknown, I should then fling myself at your feet, and——"

"Oh—well—don't," interrupts Mrs. Geoffrey, hastily.

"Eh! you don't mean to say that after all my devotion you would refuse me?" asks Mr. Darling, with some disgust.

"Yes, you, and every other man," says Mona, smiling, and raising her loving eyes to her husband.

"I think, sir, after that you may consider yourself flattened," says Geoffrey, with a laugh.

"I shall go away," declares Nolly; "I shall go abroad—at least as far as the orchard;" then, with a complete change of tone, "By the bye, Mrs. Geoffrey, will you come for a walk? Do; the day is 'heavenly fair.'"

"Well, not just now, I think," says Mona, evasively.

To be Continued.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

5,000 YARDS

OF

SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS

AT

SIX CENTS A YARD.

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Spots of Sport.

J. A. Keenan, champion hand ball player of Australia, offers to play Philip Casey, of Brooklyn, for the championship of the world and $1000 a side.

A Boston despatch says: R. D. Sears, amateur champion at lawn tennis, has just undergone a severe operation for an abscess on the neck and by advice of his physicians will play no tennis this summer.

Frank Hart won the six-day race in Denver with a score of 473 miles 7 laps; Nolan finished second only 7 laps behind; Vint, 448; Stanton, 435; Smith, 411; Hoffman, 384. Hart's score was nearly 100 miles less than he made in Madison-square Garden in 1883.

Vignaux won first prize in a handicap billiard tournament at the 14-inch balk-line game played at his Paris cafe last month. There were five contestants, Piot receiving odds of 80 points in 4.0 up.

It is said that Casey, who was released by Manager Cushman last week, will be given a trial by Pittsburg.

Ten balls were used in the Star-Jersey Citgame last Thursday, eight being lost over the fence.

DAILY MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 21.

The estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, to-day are: Hogs, 10,500; official yesterday, 15,892; shipments, 642; left over, about 5000; receipts for the week, 109,583; shipments, 48,040; packing to date, 367,000 bbls.; up to this time last year, 364,000 bbls.; yesterday's cattle receipts, 1500; market quiet.

New York's receipts yesterday were: Flour, 8,340 bbls. and 4,836 sacks; corn-meal, 265 bbls. and 875 sacks; wheat, 1,100 bush; corn, 17,000; oats, 48,000; barley, 17,000; malt, 9000; pork, bbls., 131; whisky, 147 bbls.

New York's exports yesterday were: Flour, 9285 bbls. and 11,438 sacks; c. meal, 293 bbls; wheat, 54,138 bush.; corn, 13,504; oats, 73.

On call at the Toronto Board of Trade to-day 90 cents was bid for No. 1 red winter wheat. No. 2 red winter was offered at 90; 86 bid. For No. 1 Manitoba hard 90 cents was bid for next month's delivery.

Chicago's receipts of grain by car lots yesterday were: Winter wheat, 9000 bush.; spring, 25,000 bush.; corn, 265,000 bush.; oats, 141,000 bush.; rye, 3000 bush.; barley, 4000 bush.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes—Wheat firm; corn steady. On passage—Wheat firm; corn steady. Cargoes of good Australian wheat off coast, 34s 6d, was 34s 3d; present and following months, 33s 9d, was 33s 6d; good shipping No. 1 Cal, prompt sail, 33s 6d, was 33s 9d; ditto nearly due, 33s 3d, was 33s 6d. Liverpool—Spot wheat quiet; corn rather easier.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat quiet and steady today, with demand poor and holders offering moderately; corn quiet and steady, demand poor. Quotations: Spring wheat, 6s 7d to 6s 9d; red winter, 6s 8d to 6s 9d; No. 1 Cal., 6s 9d; corn, 5s 3d; peas, 5s 7d; pork, 67s 6d; lard, 40s 9d; cheese, 80s.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley lower to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 81, No. 1 Canadian at 83, and No. 1 bright Can. at 85. Lake receipts, 87,000; shipments, 7000.

The Oil Market.

Oil in New York opened to-day at 84, touched 86¾ and 83¾, and closed at 86¾.

An Eloquent Motto.

First Domestic—Come and join the kitchen ladies' federation, Mary. It's tin dollars a wake we'll be gettin' soon.

Second Domestic—Sure, an' we deserve it. What is the cost of joinin', Jane?

"Not much, Mary, only enough to pay for the motto to hang up in our rooms to keep our minds on the value of our daily labor. The motto says: 'Labor created all wealth.'"

"I'll go wid you, Jane, just as soon as I pick up the pieces of brio-a-brac an' statuary an' things what I broke while sweepin' the parlor."—Omaha World.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

THE SUN LIFE Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSETS - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,

MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly

IN P URITY

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

POWDER

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

Free from all Adulterations.

Beware of Imitations

GLOVES

FOR

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at the office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

PIANOS

HEINTZMAN & CO'S.

This Celebrated maker's Pianos are in use in the following private residences in Peterborough:

Geo. Edmison,	F. A. Rubidge,
E. Pearse,	Miss Delaney,
J. E. Hammond,	J. Stewart,
D. Faucher,	W. H. Hill,
Robt. Millar,	Rev. V. Clementi,
D. Ullyott,	E. C. Hill,
Chas. Cameron,	W. Walsh,
G. W. Morgan,	W. Snowden,
W. Sanderson,	T. G. Haslitt,
The Convent,	Miss Calcutt,
J. Hall,	Miss Spillsbury,
Bannell Sawyer,	W. Bradburn,
Mrs Jas. Campbell	R. Fair,
J. J. McBain,	Mrs. Chambers,
Geo. Dunsford,	W. B Ferguson,
Mrs. Allen,	Miss A. Edmundson
Wm. Tate,	W. R. Greatrex,
W. Fairweather.	R. B. McKee.

and others.

Intending purchasers should not fail to inspect the Heintzman & Co's Pianos (in connection with the Gerrard Heintzman or Lanadowne Piano, of Toronto) at my Music Store, Hunter Street, East.

E. J. HARTLEY

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND

Female weakness and General Debility. PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR

DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND

Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S COUGH AND LUNG CURE

Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Can

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by grocers labelled thus: JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. lyrd7

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

RUPTURED and Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted in person the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information.

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose. Heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

S. PERRIN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—After using your PINE TAR CORDIAL for the last ten years in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending its use by everybody for every description of coughs and colds. It has no equal among the many cordials offered for sale, and I believe the only safe remedy to use. WILLIAM FOLEY

Hardware Merchant, Lindsay

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d12

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. dllw

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d16

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles. Calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd10

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md10

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O. Box 347; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. lyd10

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin street. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd10

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 382. lyd10

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d10

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR, Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, Sherbrooke street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d10

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done to first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 560, Peterborough P. O. d52-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d41y

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St., residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery store. dllswl8

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. dlswl8

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d57-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

S. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant. P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street 6md1lw27

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w41-57

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d38w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884. Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d11w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d12w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via { O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 55 p m	Toronto and West, via { O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West do East	5 15 p m
10 30 a m		8 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of	8 00 a m
8 50 p m	the Midland Railway (west)	4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do	11 00 a m
5 15 p m		8 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	1 15 p m
4 00 p m		12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville	11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Hamilton, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Faudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night		7 (0 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Biswatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday	10 00 p m
	Via New York, Montreal, Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m
1 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

Money Orders granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

Deposits received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund y excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralt

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 96. PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY
T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL
Blankets
AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY
Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.
Also to Italian and German Points
Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at
THOMAS MENZIES
AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

WORKING JEWELLER.
E. B. D. LAFLEUR.
JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb
Water Street, Opposite the Market.

Garden Tools,
Silver Dollar Spades
Spading Forks,
Manure Forks,
Steel Rakes,
Hoes,
Wheelbarrows,
Long and Short Handled Shovels,
AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

THE PLACE
to buy your
GROCERIES
—IS—
Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney
PALACE GROCERY
GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS! TENTS!!!
To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of
AWNING STRIPES,
in every color and design. All kinds of Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at
J. J. TURNER'S,
Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

For Sale or to Rent

TO LET.
A DESIRABLE HOUSE in the Cox terrace, Rubidge-st. Possession on May 1st. Apply to H. M. ALLEN. 3d26

WHY PAY RENT
WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough. Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply HEENAN'S TEMPERANCE HOUSE, Hunter-st. 3d93

WANTED.
A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.
THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.
COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. o12

BOARDERS WANTED.
THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boncher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
THE BEST COAL
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
daw JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,
$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.
Lace Curtains beautifully cleaned and finished 40 cents a pair.
Lace Curtains beautifully dyed all shades and finished, 90 cents per pair, at
PARKER'S Steam Dye Works. 6d94

R. F. MORROW
GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo' of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough

TO BUILDERS.
WHITE BRICK.
THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.
HENRY HALL,
2mos362-w11 Millbrook P. O

D. BELLEGHEM,
Funeral Director.
CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.
TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

Confectionery!
Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at
LONG BROS.

Henry Pace
PRACTICAL
Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
H. C. STABLER. 1yd38 JAS. R. DONELL

LADIES
WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF
Ladies' Underclothing
IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN
NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.
Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1888.

THE LATE HON. T. WHITE.

HIS UNTIMELY DEATH LAMENTED BY FRIEND AND FOE.

A Pathetic Scene in the Commons—The Premier's Grief—Tributes to the Memory of the Deceased Statesman from Both Sides of the House.

OTTAWA, April 23.—A scene so pathetic, so touching or dramatic, was never witnessed in the Canadian House of Commons as occurred this afternoon. When Speaker Oumet had read the prayers the gallery doors were opened and those that filed into these resorts looked down upon a hundred and fifty or so of the people's representatives whose faces reflected the grief that was buried deep in their hearts. Sir John Macdonald came into the Chamber dressed in solemn black, his face ashen pale, his step unsteady and faltering, and sank down in his seat beside Sir Charles Tupper. No one in the Chamber ever remembered seeing the Premier looking so utterly dejected and void of spirit. He resembled one who had come to witness an awful calamity, a calamity which was to tear away from him his dearest friend on earth. All of his colleagues in the Ministry sat like statues, their features pale, expressionless and sad. The members that sit behind the Ministers and those across on the Opposition benches were equally impressed.

Every eye in the chamber, in the galleries, in the reporters' box, was fixed on Sir John. Beside him sat Sir Charles Tupper wrapped in gloom. It did not take long to guess the cause of the First Minister's deep-seated grief. The chair immediately behind him, that formerly occupied by his faithful and trusted lieutenant, Hon. Thos. White, was empty, and empty forever as far as the dead Minister of Interior was concerned.

After some routine business had been disposed of, the Premier arose slowly to his feet. His eyes at once filled with tears and he sobbed audibly. A pocket handkerchief of ample size was insufficient to stay the flood of sorrow's drops that flowed from the heart. The "Old Man" broke completely down. He made an effort to speak, to say, "Mr. Speaker," but his sobs choked him and his tongue refused utterance. He gasped and almost staggered. This was too much for the spectators, many of whom were ladies, and there was hardly a dry eye in the chamber. The gentlemen on the Opposition side looked over at the Premier. Nothing could possibly have been more distressing to them, if one could judge by their faces.

There stood the old statesman and politician of forty years, who had borne the brunt of many a battle, who had suffered the pangs of defeat and enjoyed the sweets of victory time and again without any external evidences of either, utterly unable to express the token of sympathy for the departed one for which he held artizen. He stretched out his left hand and caught Sir Hector Langevin by the shoulder. Only a narrow passage, barely wide enough for the pages of the House to pass between, separated them.

The Premier looked down at Sir Hector from out his tear-dimmed eyes, and he sobbed aloud again. Sir Hector took in the situation at once. He saw that his chief was completely unmanned, unnerved as if he were a child. Who of the spectators can ever forget that memorable scene, which lasted less than three minutes? Then the venerable leader of the Government sank into his seat. It was as complete a collapse as was possible.

The Premier remained silently in his place while the eulogies which he intended to pass on his dead friend and colleague were spoken by others. When the speaking was over, a dozen or so of his followers crowded around his chair and shook hands with him. But the sunlight did not return to his face. He tottered to his private room near the main entrance to the library, and there again completely broke down. Nothing else was talked about in the Capital up to midnight. Among the remarks that were passed were some like this: "That shows the sincerity of Sir John's heart for his trusted friends and colleagues."

If I am any judge of human nature, it was probably Sir John Macdonald's most trying day on earth.

Sir Hector Comes to the Rescue.

After a moment or two of hesitation Sir Hector, who was completely unprepared to address the House on the sad subject, said:

MR. SPEAKER: I expected that my hon. friend and leader, the First Minister, would have been able to announce, as he wished to have done, the death of our worthy colleague, Hon. Thomas White, Minister of the Interior. His taking off was entirely unexpected and is a terrible blow to his colleagues, and especially to the First Minister, whose intimate friend he was. I have noticed that both sides of the House sympathize with the bereaved family and deplore with us the great loss which this House and the country have met in the death of Mr. White. For many years our dead friend had been an active member of the press, and in that capacity had rendered great services to the country, and especially to his party. He was a good orator, and he was also a good friend, and although he fought his opponents vigorously he was, nevertheless, always ready afterwards to shake hands with them. He was always careful so to conduct his controversies with them that he could afterwards be their friend again.

During the last ten or fifteen years during which he has occupied a seat in this House, my dead friend showed that he was worthy of his position, and when, by the suggestion of the First Minister, he was called to take a place in the Government, I know that on our side everybody applauded the choice. His opponents likewise recognized that he was worthy of the honor. Mr. White has lost his life in the service of this country. He was entirely devoted to his duties, and in order the better to fulfil them faithfully he visited the North-west and undertook a long voyage through that country in order to make himself perfectly acquainted with the needs and circumstances of that vast region, the affairs of which he had to administer. He made himself perfectly au fait with the wants of that district. During the past year or so he was in a position to render those services that were expected of him, and now, in the midst of his great labors, he has been taken away and thus leaves a great void in the Government of the country.

I have no doubt the country at large will mourn his loss and will say with us that a good and able man has disappeared. It is not for me to dwell upon the consequences of this loss, or upon the lesson which this sad event teaches us, but let me say at all events, he passed away leaving, I doubt not, not a single enemy inside or outside this House. Although his opponents and our opponents found that sometimes he was a very formidable adversary, on the other hand they will recognize, he always tried to avoid such expressions as might wound their feelings. For myself, at all events, the lesson I draw from his example is that we must always remember that although we are called here to perform a duty, nevertheless we must be lenient towards others if we would have others be lenient towards us in the performance of such duties.

The Leader of the Opposition's Tribute.

Mr. Laurier then paid this pathetic tribute to the memory of the dead minister and to the Premier's overwhelming grief:

I can scarcely find words to give expression to the very sad emotions which this occasion arouses. Engaged as we are in daily strife, divided as we are in aims and purposes, struggling as we are every day, sometimes bitterly struggling for our convictions, we are too apt to forget what we readily realize to-day—that after all there is a universality about us, and when a man of Mr. White's eminence is removed from amongst us, we all individually feel that we have suffered a loss, and perhaps for the first time we can see the full measure of the man's worth. It is, however, a misfortune of man's nature that we never appreciate fully what we have until we have lost it, and this feeling comes forcibly to-day. In Mr. White's death the whole nation has suffered a great loss, but I realize and understand that to his friends the blow must be almost unbearable. His untiring energy and industry, his vast and wide knowledge of all political questions, his aptitude for business, his great administrative ability, his skill in debate, his eloquence, all were the happy combination of varied qualities which made him a tower of strength to those with whom he was associated. We, on this side of the House, can never forget, as has been said by the Minister of Public Works, that upon all occasions, whether on the floor of Parliament or whether in his department as an executive officer of the Crown, he was always civil, courteous and obliging.

But I am sure that great as the blow must be to the country at large, to his party and to his colleagues it is no one who feels it more deeply than the veteran Premier. We can all sympathize with him and we do sympathize with him now, and much as we differ from him in politics or on various questions, we all understand that at his time of life the death of a long trusted friend must deal a severe blow. Death with us has been of late unusually cruel. Mr. White is the seventh of our colleagues we have lost since the last election. Death has been unsparing, striking alike on all ages and stations, and this last blow, coming as it does so suddenly and so unexpectedly, after so many others, recalls very forcibly the words of Burke, "What shadows we are and what shadows we pursue."

From the Friend of His Boyhood.

Mr. Adam Brown, of Hamilton, then made this touching allusion to Mr. White:

MR. SPEAKER: We meet to-day under circumstances different, perhaps, from any which have ever marked the assembling of the representatives of the people—the death of a Minister of the Crown during a session of Parliament. The occasion, sir, hushes all party strife, and a feeling of profound sorrow fills every heart in this chamber. As a companion of the boyhood days of the deceased Minister and a close and warm friend of maturer years, it is becoming that I should say a few words on this sad occasion.

Not only as the head of an important department had our deceased friend rendered most valuable service to his country but for thirty years and more before he entered Parliament he had been a leader in everything which tended to Canada's prosperity. Full of energy and a high sense of right he had administered the important Department of the Interior in such a way as to secure the confidence of the people of our great Northwest and British Columbia. He faced every obstacle which beset him with capacity and ability. He appreciated the needs of those great sections of our country and he inspired the people with hope in their great future.

Had his valuable life been spared it is impossible to predict how great would have been the results of his administration of the department. When he assumed the duties of the office he had mountains of difficulties to encounter, but he overcame them all and secured the grateful appreciation of those who were the most interested. I know, sir, that honorable gentlemen who represent Manitoba and the Northwest Territories and British Columbia will sustain me in this statement.

We often fail in the bustle of life to fully recognize the merits of men until we lose them. It is so in this case. We shall miss our deceased friend, miss his pleasant recognition and the smiling hiss by his familiar name. He was a man of talent and of truth, dealing with all questions in a spirit of equity and good judgment, inspiring the settlers with fresh courage, and, as a minister of the crown, ever most painstaking with the representatives of those on the ground here to look after their interests. In the administration of all matters brought before him he did not "bow to the line," but met them in a spirit of concession.

No man, sir, I venture to say, has contributed so much to the prosperity of the Northwest and our territory on the Pacific, present and prospective, as the minister who has been called to his rest.

Mr. Speaker, he was my friend. I knew him as perhaps few in the House did. He was always a true friend. The elevation to office made no change in him.—A great man and one to whom the country looked for many years of still greater public usefulness has passed away at an age when it may be said he was in his prime. Truly, sir, "his sun has set while it is yet day." Those of us who were permitted to enjoy his society in his happy home, surrounded by those among whom there was such mutual love and of whom he was so proud, will not soon forget it. Full of manliness, he was as tender as a woman.

We shall not again see his face or listen to his persuasive eloquence, but it will be long before the brilliant ability of Thomas White as a minister of the Crown, and the beauty of his whole character will be forgotten either by this House or the country. "Death has molded into calm completion the statue of his life."

The House was then adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Hector Langevin and Mr. Laurier the House rose at 3.40 until Wednesday afternoon.

In the Senate this afternoon Mr. Abbott, Mr. Scott and Mr. Alexander all made touching allusions to Mr. White's demise. Mr. Abbott, speaking for the Government, was very much affected, and it was with difficulty he finished his remarks. The Senate, like the Commons, adjourned till Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral arrangements are now completed. The members of the House of Commons and Senators will meet in their respective chambers at 8.30 and march in a body to the family residence, via Metcalfe-street. The Government has chartered a special train, which will leave the Canada Atlantic station at 9.30 for Montreal. Services will be held in St. George's Church in that city at 3 o'clock, and the interment will be in Mount Royal Cemetery. There will be no services in this city before the departure of the funeral train. Sir Hector Langevin told the House this afternoon that the train would be at the use of the Commoners, Senators, heads of departments, the attaches of the Interior office and the press gallery. The obsequies will be under the charge of the Government.

The remains of the dead minister reposed throughout to-day in a handsome rosewood casket in the drawing-room of his late residence. Throughout the day they were viewed by hundreds of people. The features were perfectly natural and calm, just as they seemed in life. Mr. Baker, M.P. for Victoria, an intimate friend of the family, was in attendance to receive the callers.

The press gallery met this afternoon and passed a resolution expressive of the deep regret which the members of the gallery felt at the premature and unexpected taking off of a gentleman who had adorned the profession for so many years. Mr. White was president of the press gallery from 1864 to 1869 and from 1871 to 1876.

Honoring His Memory.

TORONTO, April 23.—Ald. McMillan, seconded by Ald. Baxter, moved the following resolution at the City Council last night, and it was carried unanimously:—

That the death of Honorable Thomas White, Minister of the Interior in the Cabinet of the Dominion Government, on the 21st inst., in the prime of his life and usefulness, is regarded by this Council with sentiments of no common emotion and sorrow. That on such an occasion all party feeling is hushed, and every dividing political sentiment is merged in the recognition of eminent talent, high patriotism, and a position proudly earned as one of the foremost of Canada's public and representative men. The Council desire to record in his death a national loss of the greatest character, and to offer to his sorrowing widow and family an expression of heartfelt sympathy and condolence in their great and irreparable bereavement.

Resolved further, that a copy of this resolution be fittingly engrossed and presented to the family of the deceased.

WENTWORTH ASSIZES.

A Judge Who Doesn't Believe in the Scott Act—Boy Criminals.

HAMILTON, April 23.—The Spring Assizes opened before Judge Rose this morning. The grand jury was selected and sworn in. In speaking of the Scott Act Judge Rose said he was glad that it had been repealed in a number of counties, because the act had done much to lower the tone of the law. In Sawyer & Co. v. Dewinnell judgment was entered by consent for $436.99. In Shaver v. Shaver, an action for slander, his lordship ordered a postponement until Thursday morning. Schuhl v. Rosenstadt was postponed until next assizes. The next case called was Marshall v. McRae, an action arising out of a patent of a machine for manufacturing seamless shoes. The plaintiff sues for the reformation of an agreement with reference to the patent and for $2000 damages for wrongful dismissal.

On Saturday afternoon and this morning City Messenger Smith was engaged in destroying the redeemed interest coupons and paid up debentures for the year. They amounted to over $195,000.

John Higgins and Thomas Yolland, two very small boys, were charged with having in their possession a bag of soft coal, which was supposed to have been taken from the sheds of the Northwestern Railway, near Barton-street. The lads claimed that they picked it up along the track. Yelland is a smart looking little fellow, and has no home, and a charitable woman had adopted him. The lads were convicted of taking the coal, and fined $4 each or 20 days.

George T. Kent died at his residence in this city yesterday afternoon at three o'clock.

EXPORT DUTIES.

Their Reduction or Removal Proposed in Certain Cases.

OTTAWA, April 23.—Sir Charles Tupper this afternoon gave notice of certain resolutions which he will offer when the House next goes into committee of the whole on ways and means, as follows:

Resolved, that the Governor-in-Council may, by proclamation, whenever it appears to his satisfaction to be desirable in the public interest so to do, either reduce or remove entirely or in part the export duties provided for by the act respecting the duties of Customs by schedule, or by any act in amendment thereof.

Resolved, that Section 9 of the said act be repealed and the following substituted therefor:

The New Section.	The Repealed Section.
9. Any or all of the following things: Animals of all kinds, hay, straw, vegetables (including potatoes and other roots), salt, peas, beans, barley and malt, rye, oats, buckwheat, flour of rye, oatmeal, buckwheat flour, butter, cheese, fish of all kinds, fish oil, products of fish and of all other creatures living in the waters, fir-balsam, pewtery, stone or marble in its crude or in wrought state, lime, gypsum (ground or unground), new or wrought barrow grind-stone, timber of all kinds and lumber, manufactured in whole or in part, including shingles clapboards and wood pulp, may be imported into Canada free of duty, or at a less rate of duty than is provided by any act at the time in force, upon proclamation of the Governor-General, which may be issued whenever it appears to his satisfaction that similar articles from Canada may be imported into the United States free of duty or at a rate not exceeding that payable on the same under such proclamation when imported into Canada.	9. Any or all or the following things, that is to say: Animals of all kinds, green fruit, hay, straw, bran, seeds of all kinds, vegetables (including potatoes and other roots), plants, trees and shrubs, coal and coke, salt, hops, wheat, peas and beans, barley, rye, coal, Indian corn, buckwheat and other grain, flour of wheat, and flour of rye, Indian meal and oatmeal, and flour or meal of any other grain, butter, cheese, fish (salted or smoked), and lumber, may be imported into Canada free of duty, or at a less rate of duty than is provided by this act, upon proclamation of the Governor-in-Council, which may be issued whenever it appears to his satisfaction that similar articles from Canada may be imported into the United States free of duty or at a rate not exceeding the rate under such proclamation when imported into Canada.

Resolved, That sec. 10 of the said act be repealed.

The articles referred to in the second resolution from which the export duties can be removed are:

Shingle bolts, $1.50 per cord of 128 cubic feet.
Spruce logs, $1 per 1000 feet board measure.
Pine logs, $2 per 1000 feet board measure.
Section 10 referred to in the third resolution reads:

Sec. 10. If at any time any greater duty of customs is payable in the United States of America on tea or coffee imported from Canada than on tea or coffee imported from any other country, the Governor-in-Council may impose on tea or coffee imported into Canada from the United States, an additional duty of customs equal to the duty payable in the United States on tea or coffee imported from Canada, provided that tea or coffee imported into Canada from any country other than the United States, but passing in bond through the United States, shall be taken and rated as a direct importation from the country in which the tea or coffee was purchased.

It will thus be seen that the old standing offer is wiped out in favor of the above. The important changes are that coal and coke are removed from the standing offer, and the policy of reciprocity in these articles is abandoned.

C.U., U.R. AND I.F. DISCUSSED

LOYAL SPEECHES AT THE ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY BANQUET.

Col. G. T. Denison on His Mettle—Erastus Wiman Bitterly Denounced—Two Clergymen Against the Fads—Success-ful Affair at the Walker House.

TORONTO, April 24.

Toronto gentlemen who trace their descent from Merrie England sat and wined and speechified at the Walker House last night. There has seldom been a better looking lot of diners than the sons-decked gentlemen who sat around Host Wright's tables. President Spence was at the head table, and with him sat Rev. Septimus Jones, Rev. Dr. Wild, Col. G. T. Denison, Dr. Pollard (Sons of England), Dr. Daniel Clarke (St. Andrew's Society), J. L. Hughes (Irish Protestant Benevolent Society), Ald. George F. Frankland, ex-Ald. Steiner (president of the German Benevolent Society), and Mr. Evan Gyssens.

After the dinner had thoroughly enjoyed a bountiful dinner, Secretary Bell read fraternal greetings from the societies in Philadelphia, Barrie, Montreal, Guelph, London, Washington, D.C., Windsor and Ottawa.

The first speech after the loyal toasts was that of First Vice-President J. W. Stockwell, speaking to the "Army and Navy." Mr. Stockwell told the gentlemen he was naturally a civilian, but still he was always ready to provide an able-bodied substitute when war raged in the land. He thought the general sentiment of Canadians was in favor of cementing more close the connection with the old land and not, as some people tried to make out, loosen the ties.

This sentiment impressed Ald. Frankland favorably, and he said: "The only safe policy, sir, the only safe policy."

When Mr. Stockwell coupled the name of Col. G. T. Denison with the toast, there was great applause, which was doubled when the gallant Commander of the Cavalry arose. The colonel talked Imperial Federation straight through. Canada had seen many attempts to shake the British connection of which Canadians were so proud. A year ago politicians were passing resolutions in favor of one of the most vile of Britain's enemies—William O'Brien. He told his fellow demagogues in Ireland that he would leave Lord Lansdowne driven out of Canada. When he came to this country he found that the hosts and executioners were given to him and not to Lord Lansdowne. But Canada had enemies who were of her own house and sinews. A traitor named Wiman talked in New York, trying to persuade Americans that Canada was going to commit national suicide. Wiman and his treasonous crew would soon find that Canada would be no more of them. There was no state in the Union so prosperous as Canada. Only yesterday had the Colonel heard that Canadian capitalists were sending money into Minnesota to help the "prosperous farmers" to pay off mortgages. The Colonel hoped that when next the society gathered at its annual dinner they would have to look back on as prosperous a year as they could now. But that time the twin fads C. U. and U. R. would be very dead indeed. C. U. was dead. Unrestricted Reciprocity would soon die, because it looked too much like the brother. The Colonel was greatly applauded during his speech. When he denounced Commercial Union the ladies sang with the applause which the sentiment called out.

"Our Guests" was responded to by Rev. Septimus Jones, who went for C.U. hammer and tongs. He talked Imperial Federation too, but did not advocate rushing into it, believing that the necessity of I.F. would itself be the cause of its being carried out.

"Our esteemed friend, Dr. Wild," discoursed. He endorsed Col. Denison's remarks. The Prophet thought the children of Israel would soon be the citizens of a great empire with its capital at London. He repeated an extract from one of his lectures bearing on Anglo-Israelism, but apologized fully for so doing. "Now I'm a prophet," said he, "and I prophesy that the literal seed of Abraham will rule the world. The whole population of the globe will eventually be citizens of the British Empire. God ordained so and it is bound to come to pass."

To the toast of "Sister Societies," Dr. Clark, Mr. J. L. Hughes, Mr. Richard Lewis (president of the St. David's Society), ex-Ald. Steiner and Dr. Pollard responded. All of these gentlemen did full justice to themselves and the societies which they represented. Mr. Lewis was very much applauded when he said: "The Irish Catholics, if they were called upon to fight the enemies of the empire would be just as ready to take up arms and do battle as were the Roman Cathollos who did their share of defeating Spain's great armada in the time of Elizabeth."

The toasts closed with "The Land of Our Adoption," "The Day and All Who Honor It," "The Past Presidents," "The Press" and "The Ladies." At 1.30 the assemblage started for home merry and happy.

A $100,000 Blaze at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Five barns and two corn cribs belonging to the Union Stock Yard Stock and Transit Company were burned to-day. Loss $100,000.

Fire at Tara.

TARA, April 23.—A small frame dwelling house, owned and occupied by Robert Newton of this village, was totally destroyed by fire early this morning. Loss about $600; insured for $350.

When Patti said farewell to the queen regent of Spain recently, she told her majesty that this is absolutely her final tour of the world.

SAMPLE COPY
OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,
DIRECT IMPORTER OF
FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1888.

DEPLORED BY ALL.

NEWSPAPERS of all shades of political opinion have nothing but kind words to say of the late Hon. Thomas White. Eulogies of his many amiable qualities, of his ability and of his official and private life are not confined to the Conservative press, for the leading Liberal papers acknowledge his worth and voice public opinion in mourning his death while everyone expected that many years of useful life yet remained for him. The Toronto Globe thus referred to his death:—"By the premature death of the Hon. Thomas White the country has lost a useful and amiable public man. In politics, in journalism and in the Councils of the Anglican Church he had been distinguished for many years, and had rendered great service to his associates without losing the good will of those to whom he was opposed. His vigor, clearness, solidity, versatility and readiness were remarkable, whether in speaking or writing; his temper was agreeable, and, as a Minister, he more than fulfilled the general expectation that he would display good judgement and the qualities of a faithful, laborious administrator."

CANADIAN MONEY.

THE Canadian banking laws are receiving attention, as the time is drawing near when the bank charters expire and it is probable that new legislation will be introduced. Questions in Parliament regarding the intentions of the Government have elicited the information that the subject is under consideration. The experience during the past year, during which four banks closed their doors, three of them with serious loss to the people, have shown that something more is necessary to provide security to the people who entrust their money with the banks and who receive the notes of the banks as worth the amounts they promise the holders. In United States cities a discount of ten per cent. is being charged on all Canadian bank bills. This action was probably taken on account of the feeling of insecurity caused by the failures referred to. There are banks in Canada sound beyond all question, and there is no reason to fear any further trouble, in the immediate future at any rate. But what way have the people generally—those who cannot or do not closely watch the stock exchanges, about the only method of ascertaining a bank's standing the general public have—of knowing when a bank is safe? Besides, how can Canadians complain if the people of the United States charge a discount on our bank notes when in Ontario a bank bill from another Province is not taken at par? What Canada needs is paper money that will be as good in Vancouver as in Halifax, and that even people in foreign countries will know is worth its face value in gold. This should be brought about, and it can be done by the Government issuing the paper money. Why not the paper money as well as the coins?

REFERRING to the report that Toronto was in a fair way to lose Queen's Park the London Advertiser says:—"After all what a city like Toronto wants is not one large park, but a large number of little ones in various parts of the city, where a day's journey is not necessary for a nurse girl and her care to reach a breathing space." There is good sense in that remark. Peterborough has two neat parks, one of them especially beautiful, and one or two more in other parts of the town would even now be appreciated.

THE BUTCHERS' COMBINE.

What One of Them Says About It—The Scale of Combine Prices.

A few days ago a meeting of the butchers of the town was held. It was somewhat informal—there was no chairman or secretary—but the meeting transacted its business as effectively as an association with two presidents and half a dozen vices. There were two things especially that the dealers wished to consider—prices and the hours of closing. They settled both, and from May 1st to October 1st all the shops close at 1 o'clock p. m., except on Saturdays, and they charge uniform prices for meat and those prices are an advance on those formerly prevailing. The closing of the shops does not bother many, but the change in prices affects all, and the combine is quietly but strongly denounced. Acting on the principle that a man should not be condemned unheard, a REVIEW reporter, while counting out the coppers for flat ribs (combine price), talked with the butcher about the raise in prices.

REPORTER.—I see you are in the combine.

BUTCHER.—Yes; we found it necessary to do something as we were making nothing.

R.—How were you not making anything?

B.—Because, from now until about july 1st, beef is scarce and dear.

R.—Is there anything that makes it dearer than any other place?

B.—Well, it is generally scarce all over at this time, between "hay and grass," but cattle are not extensively fed near Peterborough and they have to be brought in from some distance, which adds to the cost.

R.—The combine price list says nothing about terminating the agreement.

B.—No, but it was understood that it would be for a month or two only.

R.—And will each butcher drop it when he wishes?

B.—That is not the idea. Another meeting will be held in a month and if we can lower the prices we will revise the list.

R.—Then the combine is not for the purpose of making you all rich?

B.—It is simply to save us from losing money. We have, at any rate I have, made almost nothing all winter. The only time we make anything is from about July 1st to Dec. 1st, unless we take some action such as we have taken. Last year it took me all the six months from July 1st to make up what I lost in the previous six months.

R.—Then the prices will be lowered in a couple of months at any rate?

B.—They are sure to be, unless, as you say, we want to get rich.

The scale of prices relates that on account of the high price of beef, and the probable scarcity of beef during the next few months, the butchers have agreed to charge the following prices:—

Steak—Sirloin	15	cents per lb.
" —Porter House	15	" "
" —Round	15	" "
" —Shoulder	12½	" "
" —Chuck	12½	" "
Roast—Loin	15	" "
" —1st cut, fore quarter	15	" "
" —Shoulder	12½	" "
" —Rump	12½	" "
Boiling, flat ribs	8	" "
Tongues	10	" "
Mutton—Legs	12½	" "
" —Loin	12½	" "
" —Back	10	" "
" —Breast	8	" "
Lamb—Hind quarters	$1 25
" —Fore quarters	90
Veal—Fillet	12½	cents per lb.
" —Cutlets	12½	" "
" —Loin	10	" "

Fourteen butchers have signed this scale of prices, which is understood to be all the butchers in town. Their side of the case is now given, and if more light can be thrown on the question, our columns are open for that purpose.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Trent Valley Canal.

An Ottawa despatch says that Mr. Frank Turner, C.E., was in town on Monday and had an interview with the Minister of Railways and Canals relative to the work of the Trent Canal Commission. Mr. Turner has just arrived from Montreal, where, in company with his fellow-commissioners, a series of questions was drawn up which will be disseminated among all those who can give information respecting the canal.

CAMPBELLFORD.

THIEVES TRACED.—R. Meiklejohn, living near Campbellford, heard thieves at his clothes line on Friday night and giving chase, followed them home. He gave information to Constable Bell, who took five men and went to the house. They found a large number of stolen articles, grain, groceries, etc., and arrested Ezra Fairman, his sons George and William, and his nephew Robert Brown. They were taken to Campbellford for trial.

RUSH POINT.

Correspondence of the Review.

SCHOOL REPORT.—The following is the report of the Rush Point Public School, Belmont, for the month of March, Miss J. Douglas, teacher:—

Fourth Class.—1st Robert Breakenridge, 2nd Mary Clarke, 3rd Eugene McNicholl.

Third Class.—1st Ada Breakenridge, 2nd Emma Metcalf, 3rd Robert Seney.

Second Class.—1st Charles Coon, 2nd Henry Beamish 3rd John Dyer.

Part II.—1st Nettie Clarke, 2nd Harry Allen, 3rd Maggie Young.

1st Book Part 1st.—1st Elton Beamish, 2nd Charles Clark, 3rd Hattie Pacy.

RECOVERING.—Mr. John Petherick, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering his usual health.

SAW MILL RENTED.—Mr. Coon has rented his saw mill to Mr. S. Clarke and brothers.

HEAVY CALF.—On the farm of Mr. D. T. Young, a cow dropped a calf, Ayrshire, which turned the scales at 95 lbs.

MAPLE SUGAR.—Mr. John Wright has been quite successful in his sugar making this spring. Some young ladies think he has been too careful of his hot taffy.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—Rev. R. J. Fallis visited us last week intending to hold special services, but owing to the condition of the roads they were postponed until warm weather.

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time, most economical blood purifier known.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The lens of the Lick telescope magnifies 33,000 times.

There are nearly 300,000 Chinamen in the United States.

Meteorites are said to sometimes attain a velocity of 180,00 feet per second.

A philosopher declares "It is not wrong to say what one thinks." Sometimes, however, it is not prudent.

If Alexander of Battenberg succeeds in downing Bismarck he will be entitled to rank as the smart Alec of Europe.

The average American young man thinks if he were in the place of Alexander of Battenberg he would leave Bismarck and the rest of them wrangling and elope with the girl.

A good many fires in newspaper offices are reported nowadays from different sections of the country. This seems to indicate that the spring poet has got around with his words that burn.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its falling or turning gray.

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 23.

On call at the Board of Trade to-day: 82 cents was bid for No. 2 fall wheat, 76 for No. 2 spring, 83 for No. 2 red winter, 90 for No. 1 Manitoba hard, 95 for Manitoba hard, May delivery, and 94½ bid; 88 for No. 2 Manitoba hard, 89 for No. 2 Manitoba hard, May delivery, and 93 bid; 93 for No. 1 Northern at Carleton Junction, and 89 on the track.

THE VISIBLE SUPPLY.

The visible supply of grain in Canada, and the United States, is as follows, with comparisons, according to the Chicago Board of Trade estimates:

	This Week.	Last Week.	April 25, 1887.
Wheat	32,033,531	32,260,027	45,074,854
Corn	8,135,016	8,253,778	16,392,515
Oats	3,307,237	3,044,047	4,417,944
Barley	1,082,395	1,346,936	561,619
Rye	314,198	325,774	366,611

TORONTO STOCKS IN STORE.

The grain and flour in store in Toronto is as follows, with comparisons:

	This week.	Last week.	April 23, 1887.
Flour, barrels	2,800	3,000	3,000
Fall wheat, bushels	81,398	81,398	94,116
Spring wheat, bush'ls	83,843	83,704	95,775
Oats, bushels	22,120	22,120	32,420
Barley, bushels	168,566	170,068	100,630
Peas, bushels	850	850	95,625
Rye, bushels	—	600	4,240
Corn, bushels	—	—	10,670

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes—Wheat firmer; corn strong. Cargoes on passage—Wheat firmer; corn strong. Mark Lane—English wheat better in tone; foreign hardening; American corn strong; Danubian dearer; flour turn dearer; club Calcutta wheat, 30s 3d, was 30s 3d; present and following month, new, 29s 6d, was 29s 3d, spot good; Danube corn, 28s, was 24s 6d; prompt, 24s, was 24s; straight Minneapolis flour, 23s, was 22s 9d. French country markets generally dearer. English farmers' deliveries for the last week, 49,852 qrs.; average price, 30s 7d, was 30s 3d. Paris—Wheat and flour turn dearer.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat steady to-day, with fair demand and holders offering moderately; corn steady with fair demand. Quotations: Spring wheat, 6s 7d to 6s 9d; red winter, 6s 8d to 6s 9d; No. 1 Cal., 6s 9d; corn, 4s 3d; peas, 5s 7d; pork, 67s 6d; lard, 41s; cheese, 60s, colored cheese, 55s.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley quiet to-day, with No. 2 extra Canadian held at 51, No. 1 Canadian at 53, and No. 1 bright Can. at 55.

The Oil Market.

In New York to-day oil opened at 82, touched 82½ and 85½, and closed at 85.

Capital Notes.

OTTAWA, April 23.—There is likely to be some hair-pulling over the bill now before Parliament for the winding up of the Bank of London in Canada. The directors, "Governor" Morrison and Thomas Long of Toronto, and Mr. Purdom of London, arrived this evening to promote the bill before the Committee on Banking and Commerce. Lawyer Heilmuth of London is here to ask that the bill be postponed till a meeting of the shareholders can be called together. He has a petition asking for this.

Sir Charles Tupper laid on the table some of the supplementary estimates for the year ending June 30, 1888. The total is $1,704,822, $468,200 of which is chargeable to capital account. The important supplementary estimates, those of next year, have yet to be brought down. The widow of the late George Eyvel gets a gratuity of $1000.

The Union Bank Robbery Trial.

WINNIPEG, April 23.—Diamond was discharged to-day in the Union Bank robbery case, and McKittrick and Velie were remanded till to-morrow, when counsel will address the court. Woods borroborated Lawyer Robertson's evidence respecting the midnight meeting with McKittrick and Velie which resulted in the recovery of the stolen $60,000. He said McKittrick appeared nonplussed when shown Cameson's letter, and acted throughout as an honest man who was telling the truth.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

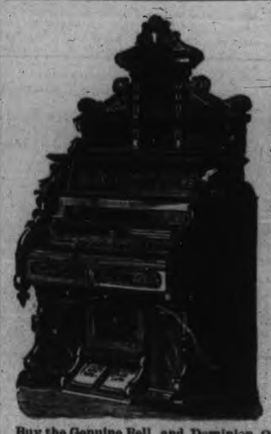
BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.



Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St., residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. A. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

Buy the Genuine Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos. Also the Williams Sewing Machine.

D. SMART,

Only Authorized Agent for Town and County of Peterborough.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

GOUGH BROS.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN,

Always endeavoring to be abreast of the times, are constantly changing and bringing in a variety of New Goods suitable for all occasions. Variety is the spice of life. All work and no play makes John a dull boy. To make ourselves intelligent, happy and bright, it is necessary to spice our lives with a little variety. Without it life would be monotonous, hence the very great desire of humanity for "Changes;" change of dress, change of style, change of everything that is wearable and tearable, but above all, change of the High-priced Clothiers.

The Wonderful Cheap Men are equal to the emergency. They are showing ten cases of American Novelties, the latest choice of the season, and too utterly too too to murmur, but quite capable of exciting the admiration of all beholders, and certainly a great treat to one's visionary organs, while their prices knock all the other clothiers cold. While passing, step in a little and see, and wade through their massive aggregations of Bargains.

CHILDREN'S SUITS FOR - - - - - - - - 89C.
MEN'S SUITS FOR - - - - $2.50 WORTH $5.50.
MEN'S BLUE SERGE SUITS FOR $3.50 WORTH $6.50.
WORKING PANTS - - - - - - - 25C. PER PAIR.
SUNDAY PANTS - - - - - - - - - - - - $1.50.
HATS FOR - - - - - - - 10C., 25C., AND 50C.

are among some of the attractions, but the big attraction for this week will be a

$12.00 FINE WORSTED SUIT FOR $6.90.

They give you thousands of Children's Suits to select from and thousands of Men's Suits at prices that paralyze all competition. Ask for any of the goods mentioned, and see if they do as they advertise. For the Biggest Bargains on earth remember

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon
VERY CHOICE.
TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS
UNSMOKED.
Wholesale and Retail.
J. W. FLAVELLE,
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

TO ADVERTISERS

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
10 Spruce-st., New York
1md39-1mw18

JOHN H. PECK.

Artesian Well Contractor. Deep drilled wells, shallow or drive wells, anti-freezing pumps supplied. Write for information. Address Peterborough. w13-d73

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to ROBERT KINGAN.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

CANNED GOODS
—AT—
MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.
ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.
BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.
SALMON, MACKERAL LOBSTER.

FRUITS.
APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER
—AT—
SAILSBURY'S.

REMOVAL SALE.

Goods must be sold.

So far our sale has attracted hundreds of buyers. New Goods bought right and sold at Great Reductions draw the crowds. Do not miss this opportunity.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

E. E. HENDERSON
Issurer of Marriage Licenses.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 & w8

GETTING THE RICH MAN'S DRESS
AT THE POOR MAN'S PRICES.

THERE IS A MAXIM
Which Reads, that Money Saved is Money Earned.

It is the money saved by Sheppard that enables him to benefit the public. Dress Goods bought at fully thirty-three-and-a-third cents less than wholesale prices, is money saved. They are all Brand New Designs. See them.

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT.

There is no pleasure in the world that beats the experience of getting more for your money than you expect at SHEPPARD'S.

Hats that R Hats for Men and Boys wear. Caps from 6 cents up. The great $1.00 Hat is worth $1.75. Secure one. "The Planter" at just $1,00 is the marvel of the age.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

The Grand Clothing Parade, beats all creation. The strides we are making seems to be properly appreciated. Come around to the big sale humming. Boys' Suits 95 cents up. Mens' Suits $3.75 up. The Cheapest Goods on this Bald Globe are at SHEPPARDS.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.
(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.
North-west and north-east winds; continued fine weather, with no decided change in temperature.

Seasonable Remarks.
We again refer to our dress and mantle department, particularly in ordered work. Customers admire very much the beautiful goods we are showing and the styles we display are all that the best city houses offer. Summer mantles we are making up in large numbers and from choice goods. The golden lion is bound to lead in this department.

St. Andrew's Church.
An organ recital was given by Mr. A. E. Carter, organist of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, in St. Andrew's Church on Monday evening. It was well attended and gave great satisfaction. Mr. Carter, whose reputation as a musician is first class, has received the appointment as organist of St. Andrew's, the committee being unanimous in their decision.

The Late Hon. Thos. White.
Many stories are heard regarding the late Hon. Thomas White, during the years that he resided in Peterborough. All of the old residents remember him well and a large number of them heard him deliver his first public speech, at a temperance meeting. The deceased gentleman sold the first pair of ready made boots ever sold in Peterborough. He also brought in the first coal oil ever used here and many have rather lively recollections of the strong smell the kerosene had.

Wandered to Warsaw.
About 11 o'clock on Sunday night one of the employees at Snowden's stables, harnessed a team of horses and started them out of the barn, expecting that they would take up their places at the bus, as they had done on scores of previous occasions. They did not do so, however, but as soon as they gained the open air, away they went. Although harnessed they were not coupled. Men started out at once in pursuit, but they could not obtain any track of the stragglers. The hunt was kept up all night and all day on Monday, but without success. Despatches were sent to the neighboring places and messengers were sent out to visit those that could not be reached by wire. They all availed nothing, however, until Monday night, when word was received from Warsaw that the runaways were at that village. It is supposed that they ran straight up George-st. as far as Smith and crossing the bridge kept straight on until they were captured at Warsaw.

HAVING decided at The Pantry to clean out our entire stock of Crockery and Glassware, we will give astonishing bargains to all who will favor us with their patronage. d96

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

New Maple Syrup
Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Economy
Men who pay fyom $5.50 to $7 per month can save between 40 and 55 dollars every year, by adopting John Carlisle's safe and easy plan of securing a home.

Confirmation.
The Right Rev. Bishop Dowling confirmed twenty-two candidates for admission into the Roman Catholic church at Port Hope on Sunday morning in St. Mary's church. There were twelve girls and ten boys.

Live and Learn
and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

R. T. of T.
Peterborough Council No. 97, Royal Templars of Temperance, meet this evening in the W.C.T.U. Hall, entrance south of A. Clegg's. Gospel temperance meeting on Sunday from 4 to 5 o'clock p.m.

St. Andrews Church.
A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st, on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents. 9d82-eod

A Joint Union.
The union recently formed among the bricklayers, is, we understand, for both bricklayers and stonemasons and members of both trades are eligible for membership. A number of masons have already enrolled themselves and it is expected that all the members of that craft in town will join.

The Garden
The barbed wire fence around the Horticultural Garden has been broken down in some places and pedestrians are commencing to walk through. The paths are not yet dry enough and people should have sufficent sense to know that such is the case. A large amount of damage can be done in a short time.

Social Assembly.
A social assembly was held at the new hotel, opposite the market, on Monday evening. The premises were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting and to the excellent music supplied by Prof. Doucet's Orchestra, about sixty couples enjoyed themselves immensely until an early hour in the morning. Supper was served at the Stewart House.

Card to the Public.
John McNaughton desires to announce to those ladies who bought skating boots from him last winter that if they have not given satisfaction, he is prepared to give compensation for any defects that may have been in these goods, as they were warranted to him, and he warranted them to his customers. He sold 42 pair of ladies' skating boots and wishes to know how they have turned out. He leaves this matter open until Thursday, 26th of April, at 12 o'clock, noon, and says this is the way he does business. 2d95

Journalistic.
The Kingston Daily News, that old and solid Conservative journal, appeared on Monday in an entire new dress, supplied by the Toronto type foundry. The news is spick and span and as bright as a new dollar. A new Babcock press has also been added to the equipment and an edition will be published at 11 o'clock, a. m., containing the full despatches of the American Press Association, a new departure as far as Kingston is concerned. Our contemporary is evidently prospering, and we hope it may long live to uphold the interests of its party and the old Limestone City.

The Negative Won.
Otonabee Canoe Club engaged in debate on Monday night. They learnedly strove with the resolution wherein it had been resolved that "The Separate School system is detrimental to the best interest of Canada." Mr. C. H. Allison filled the chair, with Mr. T. Workman as leader of the affirmative and Mr. H. W. Stock leader of the negative. The debate was spirited and well sustained and many good points were made on both sides. For the affirmative Messrs. Millar, Little, Dixon, Smith, Clegg and E. Mason spoke briefly and well, while the arguments for the negative were brought to the front by Messrs. Hill, Allingham, Scott, Barrie, Carmichael and Willis. The Chairman summed up and after noting points in the discussion awarded the palm of victory to the negitive side....On Monday evening next the club will discuss the question as to whether the suffrage should be extended to women, Mr. Smith leading the affirmative and Mr. Clegg the negative.

THOSE prize packages of Teas at The Pantry are decidedly the best value for the money in the trade. d96

No 2, Company.
No 2 Co. 57th Battalion will meet for drill on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock. 1d96

A. O. U. W.
Regular monthly meeting of Peterborough Lodge, No. 135, this evening, in Forester's Hall, over Long Bros. 1d96

Lacrosse.
A meeting to organize a lacrosse club in connection with the Young Men's Christian Association will take place at the rooms on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock.

Jersey Cows.
Five Jersey grade cows, fresh, will be sold on Saturday next, on the market square, by auction, at 11.30 a. m. Six months' credit on approved notes.
1d-1w CHARLES STAPLETON.

More Houses.
Mr. Robert Mann has purchased, through Hurley's Real Estate Agency, a fine lot on Division-st., having one hundred feet frontage, on which he proposes to erect three fine houses during the coming summer.

Old Timers.
The orchestra composed of Mr. R. H. Rackett and his family, who resided here for a number of years, have accepted an engagement for the season at Harris' Theatre, Louisville, Kentucky. They are recognized as among the best players to be found on the continent.

The Steam Fire Engine.
The Silsby Steam Fire Engine, which has been in service for upwards of seventeen years, is to be thoroughly overhauled. The work will be done at the shops of the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co., probably next week. In the meantime the machine can be used at any time, if it is required.

Early Closing.
The hardware and stove and tinware dealers have united for the purpose of early closing and all interested in the trades in town have signed the necessary petition, which will be presented at the next meeting of the Town Council. They propose to close up every night, except Saturday, the whole year around, at 8 o'clock.

The 24th.
The committee having in charge the 24th of May celebrations are pushing matters forward in an expeditious manner. The mammoth posters announcing the events are now in hand and will soon be seen on the walls. The programme is one of the best ever presented to the public of Peterborough.

Personal.
His Worship Mayor Stevenson, M. P., intended to leave for Montreal on Monday evening to attend the funeral of the late Hon. Thomas White, but acting under the instructions of his physician he was compelled to remain at home. He is suffering from a severe cold.

Port Hope Guide:—"Rev. Dr. I. K. Smith, of St. John's Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, Cal., recently of Galt, Ont, was in town on Monday, the guest of Mr. John Smart. He went north to Peterborough. The Dr. is delighted with the Golden State."

IT is no solecism to say that kidd's sole attention is rivetted on his soles, solely with the view that said soles shall be stout and durable. Give kidd a call for solid Boots and Shoes. d96

Queen's College.
In the list of those who passed the recent examinations at Queen's College, Kingston, we find the names of several from Peterborough and vicinity. Mr. J. J. Wright, B. A., passed in O.T. Exegesis and Septuagent, second year Divinity, Senior Apologetics and Church History and also carried off the Anderson Scholarship No. 1, $50, in second year Divinity. Mr. Orr Bennet, B. A., passed in O.T. Exegesis and Septuagent, New Testament Criticism and Church History and won the Hugh McLennan Scholarship, $25, in Church History. Mr. W. A. Findlay, of Lakefield, got his degree of B.A., taking honours in Latin and Greek and carrying off the silver medal for classics.

A Secret Worth Knowing.
A lady in town when visiting a friend discovered a secret worth knowing, especially at this time of the year. In the course of conversation the following remarks were made:—"How lovely your room looks now, since you got it papered; what a lovely border; where did you get it?" "I got it this time at A. L. Davis & Co.'s and found that they had borders to match all their papers as well as a tremendous lot of papers to choose from, and when I asked their prices, I discovered they were just as low as anybody else's." Ladies, this is the reason why we sold more paper last year than the previous one and why we have sent our papers in the past beyond Toronto and as far east as Ottawa. Our prices in cheap paper are especially advantageous to those not requiring the higher priced papers. 2d96-1w17

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Matrimonial.
At 8 o'clock this morning, quite a large congregation had assembled at St. Peter's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Mr. W. J. Morrow and Miss Annie Delaney, youngest daughter of our well known citizen Mr. John Delaney. The bride was attired in a terra cotta colored travelling costume, trimmed with velvet, and looked charming. She was assisted through the trying ordeal by her sister, Miss Nellie Delaney, who was dressed in drab satin. Mr. H LeBrun was groomsman. After the wedding mass, at which the choir and Prof. Doucet, on the organ, assisted, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Rudkins, the bride being given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. R. W. Muncaster. As the party walked down the aisle the strains of the wedding march were heard, played by Prof. Doucet. An adjournment was then made to the residence of the bride's father, where the wedding breakfast was partaken of. Mr. H. LeBrun toasted the bride and groom in a neat speech. Mr. Muncaster replied and toasted the father and mother of the bride, to which Mr. Delaney responded. Mr. B. Morrow, Registrar of the county, congratulated the young couple, and then a start was made for the C. P. R. depot, the party leaving being showered with rice and the usual stock of old slippers. Quite a number saw them off for Ottawa and Montreal where the honeymoon will be spent. The groom is one of our most popular and enterprising young merchants while the bride, by her musical abilities, both as a vocalist and a player, has made a Provincial reputation for herself. Both of the contracting parties were members of St. Peter's choir, the bride being organist for some years. The bridal presents were numerous, costly and elegant, friends from places so widely separated as Toronto and British Columbia testifying their esteem in this manner. The REVIEW joins the legions of friends of the couple in extending congratulations and expressing the wish that every day of their married life may be as unclouded as the first.

OUR Teas, Coffee and Spices at The Pantry are remarkable for their excellent quality and low prices. d96

Brevities.
—Inspector Stratton paid a visit to the public schools this morning.

—Mr. H. H. Burnham, one of Port Hope's best known citizens, was in town to-day.

—Mr. W. J. Morrow has purchased the residence formerly occupied by Mr. J. C. T. Lacy.

—The Port Hope streets have not yet been scraped and the Times waxeth wroth thereat.

—The funeral of the late John Drake, who died so suddenly on Saturday, took place yesterday.

—The stand pipe near China Hall leaks and quite a puddle of water has been formed around it.

—Some complaints have recently been heard regarding bad meat purchased on the market square.

—The police court docket was a blank this morning and no tramps were registered on the proceeding night.

—The grocers find it an extremely difficult matter to get sufficient signatures to their petition for early closing.

—The majority of the farmers are busy with their ploughing and sowing at present and in consequence but few of these are seen in town.

—To-day is the third anniversary of the battle of Fish Creek, and the regiments who took part in it will celebrate it in an appropriate manner.

—Spring may be here all right, but the weather we are now having is just a little too raw for the gentle article we usually have about this season.

—Belleville is bound to have a ball team and it is said that six "profesh" players are signed. Among them is Dyson, the Salvationist, who is known here.

—Chief of Police Douglas on Sunday captured six young men, who were playing cards on the wharf at Port Hope. The P. M. discharged them with a caution.

—A large number of young ladies and others were at the C.P.R. depot this morning, to see a newly married couple take their departure for the honeymoon.

—People up north are anxiously inquiring when one of the watering carts will call up that way to lay the dust, which was almost suffocating, at times, to-day.

—Complaints are heard from the lower end of the town, of a slaughter house, which is said to be kept in an unclean condition. The autaorities are investigating and may order its removal outside of the corporation.

—While in Kingston Mayor Randall, of Port Hope, secured 140 signatures to the petition to the Western Ontario railway company to make their terminus there. He met with the greatest encouragement from mariners and vessel owners who knew the Port Hope harbour.

—Kingston Whig, of Saturday:—"James Moore, book agent, stricken with apoplexy, has been removed to the general hospital and placed in a private room. He is very ill. His right hand was shockingly burned by the oil of a lamp, knocked over when he fell unconscious upon the bed in his boarding house. His brother-in-law and sister, who reside near Lindsay, were here to-day. He has regained consciousness but cannot talk."

MARRIED.
MORROW—DELANEY.—At St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterborough, on Tuesday, April 24th, by the Rev. Father Rudkins, Mr. W. J. MORROW, to MISS ANNIE DELANEY, youngest daughter of Mr. John Delaney, all of Peterborough.

WE will pay the highest market prices in cash for Eggs and choice fresh Butter at The Pantry. d96

Without a License.
Unlicensed pedlars are plying their trade in town at present, with a vengeance. No less than three called at one house this morning, offering for sale three different kinds of articles. It should be understood that the trade done by these men is illegal and town merchants are the only ones who can be relied on.

The Gun Club.
On Friday afternoon next, the gun club weekly match will be for a trophy and all the members are requested to be on hand early and take part.

GIVE THE BOYS
A NEW SUIT

The winter is over. The boys have been having a good time. You can tell by their faces. You can be certain by a look at their clothes. All of them need a new suit or part of a suit to freshen them up for school. We are ready to supply their wants.

Suits for the Smallest,
Suits for Middle-weights.
Suits for the Biggest.

Capital Tweeds, proper for boy's wear. Ready mades in many styles. Call early.

T. Dolan & Co

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

EXTENSIVE and IMPORTANT
SALE BY AUCTION OF
WALNUT FURNITURE.
BRITISH PLATE MIRROR.
Collection of Stuffed Birds, &c.

I shall offer for Sale by Auction at the residence of MR. JOHN J. HOWDEN, adjoining the town of Peterborough (residence of late Jas. Howden), on

FRIDAY, APRIL 27th, Next,

all of the Household Furniture, etc., now in the residence.

Particular attention is directed to the large collection of Stuffed Birds and Animals, (13 cases) which contain many rare specimens.

Sale to begin at 12.30 p. m. and will be conducted without reserve.

CHAS. STAPLETON,
Auctioneer.
April 23rd, 1888. 3d96

The Queen of Perfumes—"Lotus of the Nile."

FOR SALE.
THE BOYD FARM.

West half lot 13, 14th con., Douro, 100 acres more or less. Apply to MARTIN McMANUS, Douro, or to
E. B. EDWARDS, Solicitor, Peterborough.
1d96-8w17

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

POTATOES!
A Car Load of Choice
EARLY ROSE
FOR SALE AT
J. W. FLAVELLE'S.
5d96

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,
A PAPER-HANGER.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS  AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrared Woodrun Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

LADIES WILL TALK
and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also
FELTS, CANVASES,
PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY,
SILKS, ETC., ETC
Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice
MRS. E. E. ROSS,
NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

MONEY TO LEND!
The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

"Did n't Know 't was Loaded"

May do for a stupid boy's excuse; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

Nathan S. Cleveland, 27 E. Canton st., Boston, writes: "My daughter, now 21 years old, was in perfect health until a year ago when she began to complain of fatigue, headache, debility, dizziness indigestion, and loss of appetite. I concluded that all her complaints originated in impure blood, and induced her to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soon restored her blood-making organs to healthy action, and in due time reëstablished her former health. I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to spring time."

J. Castright, Brooklyn Power Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "As a Spring Medicine, I find a splendid substitute for the old-time compounds in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, with a few doses of Ayer's Pills. After their use, I feel fresher and stronger to go through the summer."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1888.

LACROSSE BOYS ABROAD

TORONTOS DEFEATED BY THEIR OLD RIVALS, JERSEY CITY.

League and Association Games Yesterday—The Championship Record—The Niagara Lacrosse Club's Annual Meeting—Election of Officers—Spots of Sport.

LONDON, April 9.—We reached the world's metropolis this morning after a most delightful and rapid run from Manchester, and will play Cambridge University this afternoon on the Queen's Club grounds, Kensington. We have put up at the First Avenue Hotel, Holbook, and are splendidly accommodated. Our impressions of London are yet unmade.

Friday was a day when everyone was left much to himself. Most of the members of the team visited Peacock's great locomotive works and one of the players sustained a severe shock in discovering that the obliging attendant whom he had offered to "tip" was a gentleman's son paying £100 a year for his practical education. Irvine and Garvin, jr., passed the day in Sheffield, being shown through several of the larger cutlery warehouses and manufactories there. In the evening that great libel on American civilization, Buffalo Bill's "Wild West," was patronized.

On Saturday afternoon we played what proved to be the finest game so far played in the series. Against a team picked from the clubs in Manchester and district we scored six goals to one, but we were forced to work for every point and were not as before obliged to hold our hands in order to interest the spectators. Just how much more we could have stood I do not know. The individual members of the combined team did wonderfully good work at times, and occasionally profited so much from their observation of our tactics as to indulge in some most effective team play. In every regard they showed themselves worthy foemen. Here are the names of the contestants and officers.

TORONTO.		MANCHESTER.
S. S. Martin	Goal	B. Tweedale, Sh. Manchstr.
J. S. Garvin	Point	F. H. Cottam, Owens Coll.
J. W. Bryson	Cover	M. Welford "
A. R. Mackenzie	"	T. Webb, Owens Coll.
John Irving	Defence	J. F. Bancroft, Sh. Ban.
J. A. Garvin	Field	" " "
		W. L. Bentle, Owens Coll.
Sam Struthers	Centre	R. O. Sherman, Sh. Ban.
F. L. Gibson		John Tweedale, Withington
F. W. Wilson	Home	H. Norris, Didsbury.
C. A. S. McHenry	Field	James Adam, Heaton Mor.
F. G. Schofield
G. H. Lockhart	Home	Otto Hockmeyer, South
William Logan, Captain.		[Manchester.

F. C. Swallow, Manchester, Referee.
E. S. Norris and R. L. Smith, Umpires.

In the evening we were dined at the Grand Hotel, and after our dinner were to have attended a smoking concert given by the Manchester Rugby Football Club; but in the afternoon one of the club members broke his neck in a practice game. The party was postponed and the following morning the young fellow died. Yesterday we visited our hotel, and this morning we set out for London.

League Games Yesterday.

At Philadelphia:

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1	7	3
Boston	3 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 x—6	11	0

Batteries: Gleason and Clements; Clarkson and Kelly. Umpire: Daniels.

At Pittsburg:

	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg	3 0 0 0 1 5 0 0 0—9	11	2
Detroit	0 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3	7	3

Batteries: Morris and Carroll; Getzein and Sutcliffe. Umpire: Decker.

At Washington:

	R.	H.	E.
Washington	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1	6	1
New York	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1	4	3

Batteries: O'Day and Deasley; Welsh and O'Rourke. Umpire: Lynch.

Game called on account of darkness at the end of the twelfth inning.

At Indianapolis:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	0 2 3 0 1 1 1 0 x—8	12	1
Chicago	0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0—2	7	3

Batteries: Shreve and Daily; Clarke and Farrell. Umpire: Valentine.

American Association Games Yesterday.

At St Louis:

	R.	H.	E.
St Louis	1 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0—3	11	1
Cincinnati	0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 2—3	7	1

Batteries: Chamberlain and Boyle; Mullane and Keenan. Umpire: McQuade.

At Baltimore:

	R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	2 1 0 0 0 1 2 1 1—8	11	0
Brooklyn	0 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0—3	7	4

Batteries: Cunningham and O'Brien; Carruthers, Foutz and Bushong. Umpire—Gaffney.

At Kansas City:

	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	4 0 0 3 2 1 1 0 0—11	14	2
Louisville	2 3 0 0 1 0 4 0 0—10	14	1

Batteries: Fagan, Toole and Daniels; Richen and Cook. Umpire: Doescher.

At Philadelphia:

	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	0 2 2 1 0 0 6 1 4—16	17	2
Cleveland	0 4 0 5 0 7 1 2 0—19	17	0

Batteries: Weyhing and Gunning; Stemmyer and Zeamer. Umpire: Ferguson.

Exhibition Games Yesterday.

At Scranton:

	R.	H.	E.
Scranton	0 0 0 8 0 4 0 0—3	7	1
Syracuse	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1	5	3

Batteries: Dundon, Higgins and Shaffner; Stivetts and Ewald.

At Manchester, N.H.:

	R.	H.	E.
Worcester	4 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 x—6	11	2
Manchester	0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 0—3	7	4

At Jersey City:

	R.	H.	E.
Jersey City	2 1 0 0 3 0 0 0 x—6	12	1
Toronto	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1	5	3

At Elmira:

	R.	H.	E.
Rochester	3 0 2 6 1 1 0 6 x—19	17	4
Elmira	2 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 2—6	5	6

Batteries: Callihan Bros.; Clayton and Mooney.

The Championship Record.

The League and American Association record now stands:

League.	Won.	Lost.	Association.	Won.	Lost.
Chicago	3	0	St. Louis	4	0
Boston	3	0	Brooklyn	3	1
Pittsburg	3	0	Athletic	3	1
New York	1	1	Cincinnati	2	2
Washington	1	1	Baltimore	2	2
Detroit	0	3	Kansas City	2	3
Philadelphia	0	3	Cleveland	0	4
Indianapolis	0	3	Louisville	0	4

The game yesterday between Washington and New York was called at the end of the 12th innings, each having one run.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

"WHY NOT?" persuasively; "IT WILL DO you a world of good."

"Perhaps, then, a little later on I shall go," returns Mona, who, like all her countrywomen, detests giving a direct answer, and can never bring herself to say a decided "no" to any one.

"As you evidently need support, I'll go with you as far as the stables," says Geoffrey, compassionately, and together they leave the room, keeping company until they gain the yard, when Geoffrey turns to the right and makes for the stables, leaving Nolly to wend his solitary way to the flowery orchard.

It is an hour later. Afternoon draws towards evening, yet one scarcely feels the change. It is sultry, drowsy, warm, and full of a "slow, luxurious calm."

The Rodney's are, for the most part, in the library, the room dearest to them Mona is telling Doatie's fortune with cards; Geoffrey and Nicholas are discussing the merits and demerits of a new mare, Lady Rodney is still struggling with the crimson sock,—when the door is opened, and Nolly entering adds himself to the group.

His face is slightly flushed, his whole manner full of importance. He advances to where the two girls are sitting, and stops opposite to Mona.

"I'll tell you all something," he says, "though I hardly think I ought, if you'll swear not to betray me."

This speech has the effect of electricity. They all start; with one consent they give the desired oath. The cards fall to the ground, the fortune is forgotten; the mare becomes a very secondary importance; another stitch drops in the fated sock.

"They've done it at last," says Mr. Darling, in a low, compressed voice. "It's an accomplished fact. I heard 'em myself!"

As he makes this last extraordinary remark he looks over his left shoulder, as though fearful of being overheard.

"Who?" "What?" says Mona and Dorothy, in one breath.

"Why, Jack and Violet, of course. They have had it out. They are engaged."

"No!" says Nicholas, meaningly.—"How very delightful!"

"And you heard them? Nolly, explain yourself," says his sister, severely.

"I am going to," says Nolly, "if you will just give me time. "Oh, what a day I've been having, and how dear!—You know I told you I was going to the orchard for a stroll and with a view to profitable meditation. Well, I went. At the upper end of the garden there are, you know, some Portugal laurels, from which one can get a splendid survey of the country, and in an evil moment it occurred to me that I should like to climb one of them and look at the Chetwoode Hills. I had never got higher than a horse's back since my boyhood and visions of my earlier days, when I was young and innocent, overcame me at that——"

"Oh, never mind your young and innocent days; we never heard of them," says Dorothy, a little impatiently. "Do get on to it."

"I did get on to it, if you mean the laurel," says Nolly, with calm dignity. "I climbed most manfully, and, beyond slipping all down the trunk of the tree twice and severely barking my shins, I sustained no actual injury."

"What on earth is a shin?" puts in Geoffrey, sotto voce.

"Part of your leg, just below your knee," returns Mr. Darling, undaunted. "Well, when I got up at last, I found a capital place to sit in, with a good branch to my back, and I was so pleased with myself and my exploit that I really think—the day is warm, you know—I fell asleep. At least I can remember nothing until voices broke upon my ear right below me."

Here Mona and Dorothy grow suddenly deeply interested, and lean forward.

"I parted the leaves of the laurel with cautious hand and looked down. At my very feet were Jack and Violet, and,"—mysteriously—"she was pinning a flower into his coat!"

"Is that all?" says Mona, with quick contempt, seeing him pause. "Why, there is nothing in that. I pinned a flower into your coat only yesterday."

The naïvete of this speech is not to be surpassed.

Nolly regards her mournfully.

"I think you needn't be unkinder to me than you can help!" he says, reproachfully. "However to continue.—There's a way of doing things, you know, and the time Violet took to arrange that flower is worthy of mention; and when at last it was settled to her satisfaction, Jack suddenly took her hands in his, just like this, Mrs. Geoffrey," going on his knees before Mona, and possessing himself of both her hands, "and pressed them against his heart, like this, and said he——"

Nolly pauses.

"Oh, Nolly, what?" says Mona; "do tell us." She fixes her eyes on his.

"What darling little hands you have!" begins Nolly, quite innocently.

"Well, really!" says Mona, mistaking him. She moves back with a heightened color, disengages her hands from his, and frowns slightly.

"I wasn't alluding to your hands; though I might," says Nolly, pathetically. "I was only going to tell you what Jack said to Violet. 'What darling little hands you have!' he whispered, with the very silliest expression on his face I ever saw in my life; 'the prettiest hands in the world. I wish they were mine.' 'Gracious powers!' said I to myself, 'I'm in for it;' and I was as near falling off the branch of the tree right into their arms as I could be. The shock was too great. I suppressed a groan with a manful determination to 'suffer and be strong,' and——"

"Never mind all that," says Doatie; "what did she say?"

By this time both Nicholas and Geoffrey are convulsed with delight.

"Yes, go on, Noll; what did she say?" repeats Geoffrey, the most generous encouragement in his tone. They have all, with a determination worthy of a better cause, made up their minds to forget that they are listening to what was certainly never meant for them to hear. Or perhaps consideration for Nolly compels them to keep their ears open, as that young man is so overcome by the thought of what he has unwillingly gone through, and the weight of the secret that is so disagreeably his, that it has become a necessity with him to speak or die; but I believe myself it is more curiosity than pity that prompts their desire for information on the subject in hand.

To be Continued.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

The wise geographer who has his eye on the royal family of Germany is not publishing any large and expensive maps of Europe just now.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate,

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

5,000 YARDS

—OF—

SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS

—AT—

SIX CENTS A YARD.

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airl passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

A Six-Day Walk at Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 23.—A six-day, 12 hours a day, "go-as-you-please" race has been arranged to take place here in the Victoria Rink, beginning Monday, May 21. The affair is in good hands and promises to be a success. The management hope to have Littlewood enter as well as the following, who have already paid their entrance fee: Geo. Cartwright, Geo. D. Noremac, Gus Guerrero, Sam Day, Frank Hart, Robert Vint, Norman Taylor, Daniel Herty, Anton Strokel, Peter Golden, J. C. Adams, Peter Panchot and Peter Hegelman. This is the first venture of the kind in Canada.

Spots of Sport.

New York Sun: Unless Manager Phillips changed his mind, Silas Smith signed a conditional contract with the Torontos. The understanding was that he was not to be reserved next fall, in which event the Pittsburgs will lay claim to him, provided he shows up well. He has done good work so far.

Allentown is disappointed at the first showing of its club in exhibition games, and the Board of Directors say that unless the boys do better in the championship games they will all have to go.

Scranton is after Scrivner, Hoover and Kelly of the Philadelphia club. The Scrantonians labor under the impression that Harry Wright will release these players as soon as he signs his old men of last year.

The Scranton and Wilkesbarre people accuse Pat Powers of the Jersey City Club of manipulating the playing schedule in his own interest.

One thousand sparrows have been ordered for the shooting tournament to be held in Cincinnati on April 24 and 25.

Manager Fisher writes that the Hams are batting very well, and, although their fielding has been loose, he thinks they will be all right after a few days' practice. Vivian Joined the team at Worcester and played in the game there. He did well at second base and made three hits out of four times at the bat. He does not think Catcher Baker will do on account of his weak throwing.

The dates selected by the Country Club Steeplechase Association of Pelham, Westchester, for its two-day spring meeting are Monday, May 28, and Friday, June 1.

A Brutal Crime.

MONTREAL, April 23.—Joseph Thibodeau, a young man 18 years old, was arrested last night on a charge of seduction of a little girl 11 years of age, the daughter of Napoleon Moisan. On Saturday evening Mrs. Moisan went out to nurse Mrs. Thibodeau, who was dying in an adjoining tenement. While she was gone young Thibodeau, son of the dying woman, called at Mrs. Moisan's house. Finding no one at home but little Marie and a still smaller and younger brother, he barred the door, and proceeded to effect his purpose. Taking the child by the arm he threw her on the bed and made indecent proposals and indecently exposed his person. The girl screamed and attracted the attention of the neighbors, some of whom rushed in just as Thibodeau was running out. An officer was sent to Thibodeau's house and found him asleep in one room and his mother dying in the next. The prisoner was arrested and taken away without being allowed to see his expiring parent, as it was feared the effect would hasten her end. Later in the night she breathed her last, spared in her death the knowledge of her son's ignominy.

There is nothing like settling with ourselves, as there is a deal we must do without in this life.

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

COOK'S FRIEND

POWDER

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

For Sale by all Grocers.

Free from all Adulterations.

Beware of Imitations

NEW LIST

—OF—

BUILDING LOTS, &c., FOR SALE

1. That beautiful situation on Brock-st., east of and adjoining Mr. Nugent's new residence, so high above all surroundings, so central, so retired, and yet so convenient for all purposes. A most suitable place for a doctor's office and residence, or for any person wishing to reside near his office or business. Front Lot is 60x120 feet to lane, rear Lot 65x124 feet with an inexhaustible supply of first-class water. Who wants this?

2. This is an extremely Fine Lot with about 75 ft. frontage on Water-st. by 115 feet deep. It is an east front facing St. Paul's church and will be sold in one or two Lots. Act promptly.

3 Is a Fine Lot on Stewart-st. 87x115, opposite Messrs. Hall and Sheppard's beautiful mansions, protected on the north by the Chief of Police and charmed on the south by a Professor of Music.

4. In addition to the above we have Good Lots in north, east, south and west parts of the Town, and for Large Lots at low prices we would call attention to the Ludgate, Carlisle and Toronto Real Estate Investment Coy's suburban additions, where good value can be had for small investments.

For Houses and Lots in all parts of the Town, Ashburnham and Auburn we have variety and value to suit any reasonable buyer.

We have Garden Lots from one to 10 acres for sale or to rent. Also several Farms. One Large Farm with Good Buildings, Fall Crop and Ploughing to rent cheap.

All are invited to call at our office or write for further particulars.

HURLEY & BUNTON

Hunter Street.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

OUR SUGAR CURED

BREAKFAST BACON

CUT FROM

CAREFULLY SELECTED HOGS

—IS—

MILD AND SWEET.

GEO. MATTHEWS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND

CURES LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and General Debility, PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR

DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND

Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S COUGH AND LUNG CURE

Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Ont.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. lyrd7

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

RUPTURED AND Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist, 116 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH ORIENTAL HOUSE

Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

PERRIN'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

S. PERRIN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—After using your PINE TAR CORDIAL for the last ten years in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending its use by everybody for every description of coughs and colds. It has no equal among the many cordials offered for sale, and I believe the only safe remedy to use. WILLIAM FOLEY

Hardware Merchant, Lindsay

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER of St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11wd

RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINFR, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d168

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer treets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin street. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 359, Peterborough P. O. lyd1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d61y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. lyd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS H. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d115wls

C. W. SAWERS.

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.

MONEY TO LOAN. d103w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. d&d115w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS,

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w&d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: W. side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d24w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w23 1j

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 55 p m 7 00 p m 8 20 a m 10 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 8 00 p m
5 30 a m 6 00 p m 10 55 p m 7 00 p m 8 20 a m 10 30 a m	Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 10 00 p m 5 15 p m 10 00 p m 1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 m 5 30 p m 8 20 a m 5 15 p m 10 30 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West do East Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west) Millbrook and Port Hope do do Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	8 00 a m 4 30 p m 11 00 a m 8 00 p m 1 15 p m 12 00 a m
4 00 p m 5 15 p m 2 30 p m	Fraserville & Springville Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clysdale, Dunsford and Chedder, on previous Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	11 00 a m 1 30 p m 7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stony Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays Street Letter Boxes do do do British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday	1 30 p m 7 00 a m 4 00 p m 10 00 p
	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m 5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

Money Orders granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

Deposits received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherlands, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents, New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 97. PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY
T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL
Blankets
AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY
Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.
Also to Italian and German Points
Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at
THOMAS MENZIES
AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

WORKING JEWELLER.
Z. B. D. LAFLEUR.
JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.
We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.
Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb
Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE PLACE
to buy your
GROCERIES
—IS—
Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney
PALACE GROCERY
GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS! TENTS!!!
To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of
AWNING STRIPES,
in every color and design. All kinds of
Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at
J. J. TURNER'S,
Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces, Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals, Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies, Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough

For Sale or to Rent

TO LET.
A DESIRABLE HOUSE in the Cox terrace, Rubidge-st. Possession on May 1st. Apply to H. M. ALLEN. 3d30

WHY PAY RENT
WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.
THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.
COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. o12

BOARDERS WANTED.
THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Mr Boncher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
THE BEST COAL
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,
$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w5i

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.
Lace Curtains beautifully cleaned and finished 40 cents a pair.
Lace Curtains beautifully dyed all shades and finished, 90 cents per pair, at PARKER'S Steam Dye Works.
6d94

R. F. MORROW
GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough lyd&w

OPERA HOUSE
2—NIGHTS—2
Commencing Monday, April 30th
THE GREAT ENGLISH ACTRESS,
CLAIRE SCOTT
—Supported by—
S. K. COBURN,
And a strictly first-class Company, in the following grand repertoire:—
Elizabeth, Queen of England,
Mary Queen of Scots.
MAGNIFICENT COSTUMES.
ELEGANT STAGE SETTING.
GRAND TABLEAUX.
Each play will be presented in the same artistic manner as when played at high prices. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. Plan now open at Hartley's Music Store. 5d97

Henry Pace
PRACTICAL
Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
H. C. STABLER. lyd35 JAS. R. DONELL

A. CLEGG.
Leading Undertaker.
WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

LADIES
WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF
Ladies' Underclothing
IN CANADA, HAND MADE.
ALSO MACHINE MADE IN
NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.
Will be pleased to show them.
Thomas Kelly
We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1888.

TEMPORARY INSANITY.

Crowners' Quests at Hamilton—A Trifling Blaze—A Deputation Off for the Capital.

HAMILTON, April 24.—At the adjourned inquest on the body of the late Mrs. Whitcombe this afternoon the jury returned a verdict of suicide while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity.

Charles and Mary Grant or Creighton, charged with the manslaughter of Maria Grainger, appeared in the dock at the Police Court this morning and were further remanded. The coroner's jury in the Grainger woman's case found that she died from the effect of injuries about the neck inflicted by an unknown person.

A shed, in which coal oil was kept, in rear of the China arcade, King-street east, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Loss about $200.

At a special meeting of the Hamilton and Wentworth Agricultural Societies this afternoon it was decided to have the President and Secretary attend the meeting at Toronto on May 2 and 3 for the formation of the Canadian Association of Fairs and Expositions.

Peter Tracey, the young man who was arrested on Wednesday night last by Grand Trunk Constable Thomas Ross on a charge of trespass, was before the Magistrate this morning and was fined $10 or three months in jail.

A large deputation left to-night for Ottawa to urge the claims of the South Ontario Pacific Railway Company to the usual subsidy of $3200 a mile.

The Builders' Exchange held a full meeting last evening and all the committees except that of the painters reported. The reports were received and confirmed, and matters are now considered settled in all the trades with the exception noted.

At the Police Court to-day Charles Ferre was given three years in the penitentiary for stealing Mrs. Adam Taylor's horse, buggy and harness on April 16 in Albion Township.

THE YOUNG CONSERVATIVES.

They are Disgusted with the Aldermen for Jeering at the Joint Debate Invitation.

TORONTO, April 25.

The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Liberal Conservative Club was held in room C, Shaftesbury Hall, last night. There was a moderate attendance, and President Worrell occupied the chair. The arrangements for the coming debate with the Young Liberals were completed, after which, on motion of Mr. McGhie, seconded by Mr. A. M. Grier, it was ordered that the association send a letter of condolence and sympathy to the widow and family of the late Hon. Thomas White, and of sympathy to Sir John A Macdonald on the loss such a valued colleague and personal friend.

Mr. McGhie introduced a bill making the Fisheries Treaty law, and moved its second reading in a vigorous speech. Mr. McIntosh seconded the motion. Mr. Boddy denounced the treaty as a base surrender of Canada's rights, and urged rejection of the bill. On motion of Mr. McPherson the debate was adjourned.

Reference was then made to the joint invitation sent to the aldermen to attend the debate between the Young Liberals and Young Conservatives on Monday night next. When the invitation was read at the Council meeting it was received with laughter and jeers. Much surprise was expressed by the members that such a reception was given to a courteous invitation, more especially as the two clubs are helping to train men to transact public business in a manner befitting the representatives of free men without loosing their gentlemanly instincts. It was remarked that the aldermen would perhaps learn a valuable lesson if they attended the debate.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Hon. Timothy Warren Anglin, ex-Speaker of the House of Commons, was yesterday elected member of the Toronto Separate School Board for St. Andrew's Ward by a vote of 170 as against 75 polled for Mr. Samuel Dunbar.

The Building Committee of the Board of Trade have recently held two meetings. They are thoroughly impressed with the idea that a new building is necessary for the Board, and intend pushing the matter through.

At the annual meeting of the Imperial Federation League of Canada held here a while ago it was decided to invite Lord Rosebery to visit the Dominion and address some meetings. Mr. Casimir Dickson, one of the joint secretaries for Canada, communicated with Mr. C. Loring, secretary of the League in England, and a letter has been received intimating that Lord Rosebery will consider the invitation later on. It will of course greatly depend on the development of political events in Britain as to whether His Lordship can give a favorable reply or not.

W. B. Willoughby (Macdonald, Mackintosh, Willoughby), a young lawyer of this city, a native of Caledon Township, and with extensive connections in the other townships, is talked of as a likely candidate in the Conservative interest.

Robert Evans, V.S., of Albion P.O., President of the Conservative Association, is also spoken of as a candidate.

James E. Smith, who had an extensive experience in Cardwell when the late Col. Cumberland ran there, says he also is looking at Cardwell.

George Laidlaw continues to be mentioned as a probable man. He knows the county thoroughly.

LAID QUIETLY AT REST.

THE LAST TRIBUTE TO THE REMAINS OF HON. THOS. WHITE.

The Late Minister of Interior Sleeps on the Picturesque Slopes of Mount Royal in His Native City of Montreal—A National Funeral.

OTTAWA, April 24.—There was very little sunshine visible in any part of the Capital today. The weather was raw and chilly. This only added to the general sorrow which has hung over the city since Saturday night. Hon. Thomas White, the dead Minister of the Interior, has been laid quietly at rest on the picturesque slopes of Mount Royal in his native City of Montreal. The people's representatives in Parliament paid their last tribute to his remains to-day. But his memory will live for many decades, especially with the young men who know of and about our great public men.

His funeral was a national one in the truest sense of the word. From the Atlantic-washed shores of Cape Breton to the far-off sunny fields of the Pacific Province came the mourners and followers. The funeral was simple and it was grand, grand in its representative nature.

At 9 o'clock this morning a long cortege moved slowly away from the dead Minister's residence towards the Canada Atlantic station in the southern outskirts of the town. In that procession were 150 or more members of the House of Commons, many Senators, deputy heads of departments, members of the civil service, mourners, prominent citizens, press men and the entire Cabinet with the exception of Hon. J. H. Pope and Sir Charles Tupper. Mr. Pope is still ill, and Sir Charles had gone on to Montreal the night before, but he joined the mourning throng in that city to-day. They were all afoot. Sir John Macdonald, wrapped in a great fur-lined coat, looked sad, and his head was bowed as he marched solemnly at the side of Sir Hector Langevin.

The arrangements at the house were simple. There were no pallbearers, the casket was borne from the drawing-room to the hearse by six stalwart members of the Dominion Police Force. On the lid was this inscription:

HON. THOS. WHITE, P.C., M.P.,
Minister of the Interior, Superintendent General of Indian Affairs.
BORN AUGUST 7TH, 1830,
DIED APRIL 21ST, 1888.

The Government special train of six coaches was waiting at the depot. The casket was put in the baggage car, and at exactly 9.45 the powerful engine, heavily draped, pulled the train out of the depot and she started on her way to Montreal. Not half of those that came to the station got on board the train. The veteran Premier did not think he was able to stand the journey, the day being so unpleasant, and after the departure of the funeral train he returned to Earnscliffe. Sir Hector Langevin and Sir Adolphe Caron had also to remain in the Capital to transact the business of the Government. Hon. Wilfred Laurier went as far as the station with the cortege. Hon. John Carling, Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. A. W. McLelan, Hon. John Costigan, Hon. G. E. Foster and Hon. J. S. D. Thompson accompanied the party in a private car. The Governor-General sent Hon. Mr Pakenham to represent his household. The Captain will not return to Rideau Hall, but sails on Saturday from New York for England, where he will join His Excellency later on and proceed with him to India.

The chief mourners were Richard White, brother of the deceased; Robert S., Fred and Thomas, his three sons; W. J. White and S. White, nephews; Wm. White, Q.C., of Sherbrooke, and Robert Romaine, brother-in laws. W. H. Hammell, M.P.P. for Cardwell, Warden W. H. Hunter of Dufferin and Sheriff Brodie of Peel came down from that district to represent Mr. White's friends.

The train pulled into the Bonaventure Station at Montreal at 1.40 p.m. The depot was heavily draped, as was also the car in which the Cabinet Ministers traveled. Many prominent citizens of the commercial metropolis met the funeral train. Among them were Sir A. A. Dorion, Andrew Robertson, Hon. R. Masson, Hon. Thos. Ryman, Justices Mathieu, Tait and Davidson, Geo. MacRea, Q.C., D. MacMaster, Q.C., J. C. Hatton, Q.C., M. P. Ryan, Hugh Graham, A. F. Gault, S. E. Dawson, H. M. Parent, E. Judge, Acting Mayor Ald. Cunningham, Ald. Clendinning, Ald. Martineau, S. Davis, Jos. Tasse, Henry Hogan, Wm. Salter, Rev. Dr. Campbell, Lt.-Col. Hart, Rev. S. Massey, J. R. Dougall, John Crawford, Wm. Weir, Hon. Mr. Laflamme, F. W. Henshaw, W. Matthewson, Hollis Shorey, Louis Beaubien, E. K. Greene, W. W. Ogilvie, W. Stephens, R. L. Gault, G. A. Drummond, Joseph Hickson, W. W. Wainwright, W. C. Van Horne, T. G. Shaughnessy and W. A. Patterson. Mr. Charles Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer of the Globe Printing Company; Mr. Eud. Cameron of The London Advertiser and Mr. R. G. Patterson of Toronto also met the mourners from the capital.

The Dean read a chapter in Corinthians and the Bishop said the Episcopal burial service. All of the Church of England clergy of the city were present. Then the journey was renewed to Mount Royal Cemetery, where the interment took place.

The cortege proceeded via Windsor-street to St. George's Church where the services were held. The edifice was packed, the gallery being filled with ladies. Bishop Bond, Very Rev. Dean Carmichael and Archdeacon Evans officiated. The beautiful hymn from "The Martyr of Antioch" (Prof. Milman) was sung the first verse reading:

When our heads are bowed in woe,
When our bitter tears o'erflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear,
Jesus, born of woman, hear.

Besides passing resolutions of condolence, the Montreal Board of Trade and the Corn Exchange sent deputations to the funeral.

The special train reached the Capital on its return trip at 11.15 to-night.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

WINNIPEG, April 24.—In the Legislature last night resolutions of sympathy with the family of the Minister of the Interior were passed on motion of Messrs. Norquay and Greenway, both of whom spoke feelingly.

What we believe is right is more often so because it grinds our ax than otherwise.

BUDGET OF ENGLISH NEWS

EDMUND YATES' ESTIMATE OF MATTHEW ARNOLD.

The Queen's Florentine Reception—A Quiet Week at Sandringham—Social and Political Dissipations—A Political Split—The Irish Exhibition.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Edmund Yates cables to The Tribune from London: Perhaps no man of the same intellectual calibre as Mr. Arnold ever so keenly enjoyed life or sympathized with so many of its interests and amusements. He was neither pedant nor Puritan. He loved life with men as well as books. As a poet he felt all the past; as a man of the world he amply acknowledged the spell of the present. His love for each simple joy which the country yields did not blind him to the joys of the town. Often as he reproached her for her ugliness in prose and mourned over her impious uproar in verse he keenly appreciated the attractions of dear old smoky London. He did not despise the prattle of the drawing-room or the gossip of the club. Like all sensible men, he enjoyed a good dinner in season. In short, he had a wise and liberal appreciation of everything that, to use his own phrase, makes for the agreeableness of life. In his young days he had been fond of sport, a keen fisherman, not unskilled with the gun nor ignorant of the rougher pleasure of fox hunting. He has himself borne witness to his interest in the theater, and graver studies did not exclude him from the novel and the newspaper. He turned his face, in short, from nothing that was honest and of good report. The pension which Mr. Arnold lately held upon the civil list would naturally have lapsed with his death, but I hear that Mr. Smith will lose no time in recommending that Her Majesty grant a pension of the same amount to his widow.

The Queen gave a reception during her stay at the Villa Palmieri, to which a few Florentine notables who knew the lamented Prince Consort when he resided in that city before his marriage, were invited. Each guest had the honor of conversing with Her Majesty, who was delighted to hear any reminiscences of her lamented husband. The Prince Consort always cherished fond remembrances of his sojourn in Florence and its environs. I believe that it was in consequence of his eulogies of the city and its surroundings that the Queen originally conceived the idea of visiting Tuscany, a project which Her Majesty had entertained for more than twenty years. The Villa Palmieri was at her disposal whenever she could arrange to go to Florence.

The Princess of Wales and the princesses have been spending a quiet week at Sandringham, varied with several excursions in the neighborhood, including drives to Hunstanton and Halkham parks. The princess passes much of her time at The Folly, a charming little bijou cottage in the woods at some distance from the hall, which has been specially set apart for her use, and where she delights to be alone with her children in the afternoon.

Social and political dissipations on Wednesday evening were numerous enough to console most people for the comparative quietude of the rest of the week. Lord Salisbury feasted with the bench of the Inner Temple; Mr. Smith presided over the revels of the Primrose Leaguers at the Criterion: Lord Lathom dined with the Poor Players at the Hotel Metropole; Lord Hartington and the anointed chiefs of the Unionists were the guests of the Lord Mayor. During the ceremonial at the Guildhall in the afternoon Lord Hartington, Citizen Fishmonger, showed unmistakable signs of nervousness. But every trace of timidity had apparently vanished before he took his seat behind the golden casket crowned with a group symbolical of the unity of the empire. Rarely, in spite of so many other counter attractions, has a more brilliant assembly before gathered in the Egyptian Hall. If Mrs. Rennard's was the smartest party on Wednesday night, Baroness de Worms' was certainly the most splendid. The decorations of the ambassadors, foreign ministers and sugar delegates quite eclipsed the more modest display at the Criterion. Trophies of primroses met the eye in all directions. The drawing-room seemed supported by improvised columns of flowers. The brocaded dress of the hostess was toned to harmonize with the prevailing hue.

All the world seemed to be at Lady Rothschild's reception on Saturday evening. The hostess did the honors very graciously in red velvet and diamonds. The appearance of the white marble staircase bathed in electric light almost beggars description. The blue Hungarian band played the newest music during the whole evening. The Duchess of Bedford, Lady Hodd, Lady Delaware, Lady Colville and Lady Cotterell all brought their daughters to see the glories of the house of Rothschild, and our Mr. Alfred promised to invite everybody to his next Bohemian entertainment at the Hotel Metropole.

The split between the Gladstonians and the Labor Party, which led to disastrous results in Glamorganshire, has assumed even more serious proportions in Lanarkshire, where the miners are resolved to support no candidate except Mr. Hardie, who is one of themselves, a politician of extreme opinions, while the wire-pullers have sent down Mr. Phillips, an aspiring barrister in no way connected with the constituency. The most curious point of this election, however, is Mr. Parnell's advice to the Irish voters, who are very numerous, to support Mr. Phillips, the favorite of the whips, instead of Mr. Hardie, the man of the people. This proceeding of Mr. Parnell's is likely, as the general election, to cost the separatists very dearly indeed.

The Irish exhibition, which will be opened at the Olympia early in June, seems to possess the rare attribute of pleasing all parties. Surely the political millennium must be at hand when Lord Leitrim, ex-Lord Mayor Sullivan, the Magillicuddy of the Reeks, Herbert Gladstone, Lord Mayor de Keyser, the Lord Chancellor of Ireland and Lord Dufferin consent to work on the same council for the same cause. If the Irish lamb really consents to lie down with the British lion the Paddyrie may serve a political as well as a purely economical end. I hear that there are to be no dramatised evictions or debatable scenes. After all, the Irish reels arranged by Lord Arthur Hill, the presentment of the pristine glories of Donnybrook fair, and the original charter of the City of Waterford, granted in the days of Charles I., will be a sufficient attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone visited Niagara in London early on Friday before the public was admitted. The ex-Premier did not leave the place till he had extracted all possible information from everybody.

INCREASING SENTENCES.

Irish County Courts' Procedure on Appeal Brought up in Parliament.

LONDON, April 24.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Justin McCarthy moved that the House adjourn in urgency, in order to call attention to the departure from the usual practice in the Irish county courts by increasing sentences on appeal. He asked the House to signify its objection to this new principle of appeal, which closed the gates of mercy and opened the gates of wanton and despotic action. [Hear, hear.]

Mr. Holmes said that the particular appeal granted under the Petty Sessions Act was embodied in the act of 1887. It was not on an appeal but really a rehearing of the case, and it was the duty of the judge, regardless of the decision of the court below, to pronounce the judgment that he considered the evidence warranted.

Mr. Shaw-Lefevre said that not a single case of an increase in sentence had ever occurred in England.

Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt said there were unused powers within the law. They were rusty weapons of brutal tyranny.

Mr. Balfour said that the previous speaker more than insinuated that the judges had derived inspiration from Dublin Castle. [Loud Parnellites shouts of "Hear," "Hear."] It was a foul libel ["Oh!" Oh!"] upon an honorable and independent body of men who competently fulfilled their duties.

The motion was defeated, 219 to 165.

MANITOBA LEGISLATURE.

A Bill to Raise $1,500,000 Introduced by the Provincial Treasurer.

WINNIPEG, April 24.—At to-day's session of the Legislature the Provincial Treasurer introduced a bill to raise $1,500,000 at 5 per cent. There was $280,000 deficit to meet, the Red River Valley road would require $773,000 and $35,000 will be needed to put the Hudson Bay road in shape to earn its land grant. No complete financial statement, he said, could be made this session, the auditors not having finished their work.

The act repealing the Superannuation Act passed its second reading.

In the Committee on Elections yesterday an act was considered and ordered reported disqualifying from voting nearly all Federal and Local Government officers.

Banker Cutten's Case Postponed.

GUELPH, April 24.—In the County Court this morning before Judge Drew, the cases against W. H. Cutten for defrauding James Kay of $3500 by false pretences came up. Mr. Peterson, Crown Attorney, appearing for the Crown, and Mr. Macdonald for Cutten. Mr. Peterson applied to the Judge for an adjournment of the trial until after the spring assizes, which commence here on April 30, before His Lordship Mr. Justice Rose. This being consented to by all parties, the trial was adjourned until May 11, before Judge Chadwick. Mr. Cutten then gave fresh bail for his appearance at that time.

Trudel Found Guilty.

QUEBEC, April 24.—The jury in the case of Benjamin Trudel, accused of perjury in swearing that Mayor Langelier had received boodle for his vote in the Council for the waterworks contract, brought in a verdict of guilty at 9 to-night.

A true bill was handed into court to-day against Herbert Carbray for having bribed certain voters in Quebec West election for the Federal House between Hon. Thos. McGreevy and M. Ahern. He pleaded not guilty.

SAMPLE COPY
OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,
DIRECT IMPORTER OF
FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by I. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50c	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 5c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

—o—

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need f Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

—o—

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1888.

THE MACKENZIE DISTRICT.

Even Canadians do not know all about Canada yet, its resources and capabilities, the vast areas of land waiting to sustain life and the stores of mineral that await development. A committee of Parliament has been making enquiries regarding portions of this great country—it is a great country, indeed—during the present session, namely the Mackenzie district.

A number of witnesses have given information before the committee. The Peace River district is described as being a beautiful country, of great extent, very fertile, suitable for the growth of all the cereals, with a climate milder than Manitoba, and capable of sustaining a large population. North of that, in the opinion of one gentleman, there was no great extent of agricultural land in the Mackenzie district. That portion lying between the head of Riendeer Lake, Athabaska and Great Slave Lakes and the coast of the Arctic Ocean and the Hudson Bay is called the "barren grounds," and the southern portion is said to be bleak and rocky. Lakes Athabaska and Great Slave contain innumerable whitefish and trout, the latter being like the Lake Superior salmon trout, and weighing from 20 to 30 pounds, and wild fowl is plentiful.

Of the mineral of this region copper in considerable quantities has been heard of on the Coppermine river, and there is considerable gold on the North Saskatchewan. Sulphur and pure salt are found in large quantities. Lignite and coal are also to be found along the bank of the Mackenzie river to near its mouth, and this river is navigable for 1,300 miles. The Mackenzie basin is also said to be capable of an enormous production of fur-bearing animals. Of the large animals of the district there are the caribou, the musk ox and the wood buffalo. Ex-Judge McLeod declared the valley of the Peace river and Laird river to be the finest portions of this continent.

There is still a great deal to be learned about this distant portion of the Dominion, and the information gathered and dissemated, in making it known, will pave the way and lead to the settlement of the almost unknown districts in the far Northwest.

Local Legal.

At the Cobourg assizes on Monday, the following case of local interest was disposed of:—

"Leary vs. Gordon.—An action to recover $370 for sinking a well on defendant's farm. At the last assizes a verdict was recovered by plaintiffs for $60, which the defendant succeeded in setting aside in term, and a new trial was ordered. Plaintiffs claim that the defendants prevented them completing the well, which the defendants deny. Verdict of $50 for plaintiff, both parties to pay their own costs. F. A. Hilton and J. W. Curry, for defendant; G. Edmison, of Peterborough, for plaintiff."

The following case of local intesest came up at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, on Tuesday:—

"Scott v. Benedict.—Motion by plaintiff to strike out defences for non-production, to impose upon defendants the terms of attending and submitting to examination for discovery at Toronto within a short delay, and going to a hearing at Cobourg or some other convenient place during the Spring Sittings. Maclennan, Q.C., for the motion. W. Barwick contra. Motion dismissed, costs in the cause."

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Social at St. Paul's.

On Tuesday evening a social was held in the school room of St. Paul's Church, the last of a series held during the winter, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. The socials have been successful, and this one was one of the best of the series. There was a large attendance, the room being filled, and the programme was an excellent one. Mr. James A. Hall, Sheriff, occupied the chair. The Amateur Orchestra opened the entertainment with a good selection, and also opened the second part of the programme with an admirable selection that called forth an encore. Mrs' Macklin followed with a vocal solo, sung in good voice, and received warm applause. An instrumental duet by Misses Fairweather and Taylor was rendered with excellent execution. A quartette, Misses Cottingham and Haultain and Messrs. Shaw and Morris, sang "Now I Lay me Down to Sleep," and their voices blended harmoniously, with excellent effect. Mr. Alex. Elliott sung a solo, which was so well received that he was compelled to respond to an encore. Miss Cottingham sung a pretty solo, "Creep into Bed, my Baby," in a pleasing manner. An instrumental solo by Miss H. Dennistoun was warmly received and loudly applauded. The first part of the programme concluded with an excellent vocal duet by Misses Dennistoun and Haultain. An intermission followed, during which refreshments, furnished in abundance by the ladies, were served, and while the audience was enjoying the coffee and cake Miss Fairweather treated them to selections on the piano. After the music by the orchestra, Mrs. W. A. Sanderson sung a solo, and made a favorable impression. A song by Mr. C. S. Shaw was also well received. Mrs. and Miss M. Roper gave an excellent pianoforte duet, and Mrs. Macklin and Mr. Elliott followed with a pleasing vocal duet. A quartette, by Mrs Macklin, Miss Haultain and Messrs. Shaw and Elliott was one of the best numbers on the programme. The chairman, on behalf of the ladies, thanked the audience for their attendance and for the patronage accorded to the series of entertainments, and also thanked the musicians for their assistance. The entertainment concluded with the National Anthem. The Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's is to be congratulated on the success of their entertainments, and especially the one held on Tuesday night. Those who took part in the programme were all favorities and the large audience was a thoroughly satisfied one.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning gray.

Y. W. C. T. U.

Certainly the Y. W. C. T. U. will require to enlarge its borders after the crowded attendance at the entertainment given on Tuesday evening. All the seats were occupied and standing room at a premium. The programme, which was lengthy, included the reading of the annual report by the President, Miss L. Sanderson, giving details of the work undertaken and accomplished by the Union since its organization in March, 1887. To the programme Messrs. Stevens, Millar, Baguley and Hill —the Y. M. C. A. Quartette—contributed two vocal selections, the solos by Mr. Stevens and Mr. Baguley being well sustained, and that of Mr. Baguley especially pleasing. Miss Schofield sang "When the Tide Comes in," and made a very favorable impression. Miss Bradburn and Mr. W. H. Dingle played very effectively, as an instrumental duet, the "Sweedish Wedding March," while the duets for piano and ocarina, "Gondolier," waltz by Miss K. B. Annesley and Mr. F. Annesley was much admired. Mr. Annesley sang in good voice "I Fear no Foe." Mrs. Chisolm, on behalf of the "Y" gave an interesting address on the work of the society and briefly outlined the purposes and plans for the future. The contest on pronunciation of the words in a couple of sentences was interesting, though a spirit of bashfulness prevented many of the gentlemen present from taking part. Six competitors appeared and after a test of reading the judges—Messrs. Earl W. H. Hill and Colbeck—awarded the prize, a handsome book, to Mr. O. C. Rowse. Refreshments were served during the evening and added substantially to the general enjoyment.

"Queen Elizabeth."

Claire Scott, the young and beautiful English actress who some months ago made a tour of Canada and captured the hearts of all theatre goers by her beauty and artistic acting, has arranged a return tour at the request of her many admirers. Miss Scott will appear at the Opera House Monday evening, April 30th, in her grandest production "Elizabeth, Queen of England." The supporting company, headed by Mr. S. K. Coburn, are the same excellent performers as seen with her in all the large cities. The following is clipped from the Buffalo Courier of March 23rd:—"Miss Claire Scott treated her audience at the Grand Opera House last evening with a very creditable impersonation of Elizabeth. She has a good conception of the difficult and trying role, and depicted the haughty Queen's varied moods with intelligence and force. Her costumes were magnificent; indeed Miss Scott is an elegant dresser. Her efforts were received with storms of applause." It is hoped that the lovers of true dramatic art will show their appreciation by making Miss Scott's engagement the dramatic event of the season. Secure your seats at once at Hartley's Music Store.

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time most economical blood purifier known.

Her Majesty's Birthday.

Things are just as hazy as ever regarding the visit of one or both of the Toronto battalions to Peterborough, on the Queen's Birthday. Col. J. Z. Rogers, on behalf of the 57th Battalion, sent an invitation to the Queen's Own, but he has not yet received any answer. The Driving Park Association this morning sent an invitation to the 10th Royals asking them to come down, and from assurances received by President Brown, while in Toronto recently, he has no the slightest doubt that the Grens will come down on Wednesday night and leave for home on Thursday night.

Davis' Pain-Killer is the best medicine in the world for all Diseases of the Bowels.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

THE CONTRACT LABOR LAW.

President Cleveland's Letter to the U.S. District Attorney for Massachusetts.

Boston, April 24.—The letter to United States District Attorney Galvin from President Cleveland relating to the importation of foreigners into Massachusetts ports in violation of the contract labor law is as follows:

To Hon. O. A. Galvin, U.S. Dist. Atty. Boston, Mass:

Dear Sir.—Information has reached the Treasury Department that a large number of foreigners have been "brought into Massachusetts in violation of the contract labor law, for the purpose of manning American fishery vessels sent out from the ports of Gloucester, Boston and Beverly for the purpose of taking fish along the Canadian coast. It seems to me quite certain that such foreigners and aliens have been brought in by parties in direct violation of the statute covering such cases, and I believe that the importation of such foreigners tends to the displacement of American labor. I am aware that many of those persons have through the care of the officials been returned to the country from which they came. I therefore enjoin on you the duty of a prompt investigation of these cases, and request that you confer with the collectors of the ports of Boston and Gloucester, that prompt and effective measures may be taken. The department has ordered that special agents be detailed, who will report directly to you, and if you require any further assistance it will be given you upon application.

INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

Engineer Rittenhouse and Will Buchanan were drowned in the Missouri river at Fort Benton, Mont., yesterday, their boat capsizing.

Yesterday for the second time in the history of the Government the Senate was opened with prayer by a Jew—Rev. Dr. H. P. Mendesi, Rabbi of the Spanish and Portuguese congregation of New York.

The Keystone Investment Company, a big Philadelphia bucket shop, suspended yesterday morning with liabilities of $30,000.

B. F. Boydston, of Cooper, Tex., shot Lulu Frazier fatally yesterday, and then blew out his own brains because Miss Frazier, to whom he was engaged, postponed the wedding.

Additions for Defence.

Paris, April 24.—Admiral Krantz, Minister of Marine, will introduce a bill in the Chamber of Deputies asking for a credit of 60,000,000 francs to be expended upon defence works at Brest, Cherbourg and Toulon.

LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

Toronto, April 24.

On call at the Board of Trade to-day 86c was bid for No. 2 fall wheat, and 83c for No. 3 fall. Red winter was offered at 87c, 85 bid. A lot of ten thousand bushels of No. 1 Manitoba hard, half to arrive during first half of May and half during first half of June, afloat in Montreal, was sold at 95 cents. For No. 1 Northern 88c was bid, and for peas, 66c.

To-day's estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, are: Hogs, 14,000; official yesterday, 20,659; shipments, 6856; left over, about 6000; cattle receipts yesterday, 7000; market fairly active.

New York's receipts to-day are: Flour, 12,071 bbls. and 7725 sacks; wheat, 1650 bush; corn, 57,900; oats, 78,000; barley, 2800; malt, 7000; lard, 2886 tierces, whisky, 1046 bbls.

Bearbohm's Report.

Bearbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes, wheat firmer, but not active; corn nil; arrivals, wheat 2; sold, wheat 7, corn 1; waiting orders, wheat 12; cargoes on passage, wheat, demand fair; corn, a demand for cargoes nearly due, but not much for more distant; good cargoes Australian off coast, 34s 3d, was 34s 6d; ditto present and following month, 33s 6d, was 33s 9d; Laplata maize off coast, 24s 1½d, was 24s 3d; ditto present and following months, 22s 6d, was 22s 3d; French country markets firm; Paris wheat steady, flour quiet; Liverpool, spot wheat upward tendency; corn firm; No. 1 Cal., 6s 9½d; No. 2 Cal., 6s 6½d; No. 2 spring, 6s 7½d; flour, 23s 6d, corn, 5s 3d; peas, 5s 6d; Indian shipments of wheat for past week to United Kingdom, 10,000 quarters; ditto to the continent, 40,000 quarters.

Liverpool Markets.

Liverpool reports wheat firm to-day, with demand fair and holders offering moderately; corn firm and demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 7d to 6s 9d, red winter 6s 8d to 6s 9d, No. 1 Cal. 6s 9d to 6s 10d, corn 5s 3½d, peas 5s 6½d, pork 67s 6d, cheese 60s, colored cheese 55s.

The Oil Market.

Oil in New York to-day opened at 85½, touched 86¾ and 85½, and closed at 84¾.

In Memoriam, Thomas White.

O Royal hill, where thousands rest,
A son of thine returns to-day,
Returns with fame unstained to lay
His head forever on thy breast.

We wonder that the scythe should fall,
Upon the garden's richest fruit,
And yet we wonder sadly mute
At that we know must come to all.

True spirit, amidst toil and strife,
Thy land could spare but ill the heart
And voice that ever wrought their part,
In earnest from an earnest life.

Give him sweet rest, O royal dome,
Give him sweet rest, thy noblest son,
Who all his honors nobly won,
And unto thee now brings them, home.

Barry Dawe.

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are so often troubled with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts. 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, Just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

GOUGH BROS.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN,

Always endeavoring to be abreast of the times, are constantly changing and bringing in a variety of New Goods suitable for all occasions. Variety is the spice of life. All work and no play makes John a dull boy. To make ourselves intelligent, happy and bright, it is necessary to spice our lives with a little variety. Without it life would be monotonous, hence the very great desire of humanity for "Changes;" change of dress, change of style, change of everything that is wearable and tearable, but above all, change of the High-priced Clothiers.

The Wonderful Cheap Men are equal to the emergency. They are showing ten cases of American Novelties, the latest choice of the season, and too utterly too too to murmur, but quite capable of exciting the admiration of all beholders, and certainly a great treat to one's visionary organs, while their prices knock all the other clothiers cold. While passing, step in a little and see, and wade through their massive aggregations of Bargains.

CHILDREN'S SUITS FOR - - - - - - - - 89C.
MEN'S SUITS FOR - - - - $2.50 WORTH $5.50.
MEN'S BLUE SERGE SUITS FOR $3.50 WORTH $6.50.
WORKING PANTS - - - - - - 25C. PER PAIR.
SUNDAY PANTS - - - - - - - - - - - - $1.50.
HATS FOR - - - - - - - - 10C., 25C., AND 50C.

are among some of the attractions, but the big attraction for this week will be a

$12.00 FINE WORSTED SUIT FOR $6.90.

They give you thousands of Children's Suits to select from and thousands of Men's Suits at prices that paralyze all competition. Ask for any of the goods mentioned, and see if they do as they advertise. For the Biggest Bargains on earth remember

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

If Alexander of Battenberg succeeds in downing Bismarck he will be entitled to rank as the smart Alec of Europe.

The average American young man thinks if he were in the place of Alexander of Battenberg he would leave Bismarck and the rest of them wrangling and elope with the girl.

COUGHS, COLDS, Croup and Consumption CURED BY ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM 25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND

CURES LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and General Debility. PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR

DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND

Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S COUGH AND LUNG CURE

Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Can.

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

CARSLAKE'S GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

		Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000 each prize.	$6,000
2nd " "	$2,000 " "	$4,000
3rd " "	$1,000 " "	$3,000
Other starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$2,000	$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$4,500	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888

Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.

Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.

22d eod 4mos Mansion House, Montreal

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms.

Telephone Communication.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is, to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our Irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

BUY THE Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Brodigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. L. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Fife, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve,) Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Otonabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Buller, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Rose, Peterborough, Mr. J. J. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. L. Hughes, Peterborough, Mrs. Elias Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,

Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

—o—

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKERAL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRENTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

REMOVAL SALE.

CORSETS

In all the leading makes at greatly reduced prices during our clearing sale.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd&w6

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Winds mostly east and south; fine weather, with a little higher temperature.

Concerning Gloves.

A well gloved hand is a pleasing thing to contemplate. What nature may deny the face she often hands over to the hand. No lady's costume is complete, wanting gloves to match. This want can be so easily and cheaply supplied at the golden lion that hardly any excuse remains for its existence. We are—for example—selling ladies' fine kid gloves, 4 and 6 button length for 50 cents per pair. Just such a glove has been sold frequently in town for $1.00 per pair—but not at the golden lion. Every lady requiring gloves should see our stock and observe the prices we quote.

Ready for Service.

The papers in the suit for false arrest, against police officers McGinty and Stewart, are prepared, and we understand they will be served this evening. The officers are perfectly willing to accept them and have no doubt of winning the suit—if it ever comes to trial. Damages are laid at the modest sum of $1,000.

We will pay the highest market prices in cash for Eggs and choice fresh Butter at The Pantry. d96

A. C. A.

Members of the A.C.A. who have neglected to pay the annual membership fee will be relieved to learn that there is yet one last chance. The A.C.A. year book will be put to press by the publishers about 1st May and those who propose remitting fees may do so by leaving the same with Lieut-Col. H. C. Rogers, at the post office. This should be done before the end of the week, or members will lose not only their Association number, but the opportunity of having their names placed on the list as printed.

Sunday School Anniversary.

Members and friends of the Charlotte-st. Methodist Church Sabbath school as well as the public in general will recollect that the anniversary of the school will be held at the end of this week. Sunday's services will be of special interest and include a sermon to the children at 11 a.m. by Rev. I. Tovell. At 2 p.m. there will be a children's service at which brief addresses will be delivered by ministers of the town. At 7 p.m. Mr. J. R. Clark will deliver his famous and eloquent address, "The Moral Heroism of the Temperance Movement," and will no doubt attract a large congregation to that service. The funds of the school will stand some additions, so a silver collection will be taken up at each service. Teachers and officers of the school are looking forward to an interesting occasion and will no doubt not be disappointed.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate,

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

The Y.M.C.A. L.C.

A meeting to organize a lacrosse club in connection with the Y.M.C.A. will be held at the rooms at 9 o'clock to night, after the usual services. A large attendance is requested.

Third Military District.

Lieut. Col. Straubenzie has been gazetted Deputy Adjutant General, of the third Military district, in which Peterborough is situated, vice Lieut. Col. Villiers, who will have charge of the Winnipeg ditsrict.

HAVING decided at The Pantry to clean out our entire stock of Crockery and Glassware, we will give astonishing bargains to all who will favor us with their patronage. d96

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

A Break.

During last night the Dickson raceway, near the corner of Hunter and Mill-sts. burst. The high clay banks were washed through. A gang of men were set at work this morning and the flow was soon stopped.

St. Andrews Church.

A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st, on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents.

Personal.

Mr. Lang, M. P., East Peterborough, was among the members of the House of Commons, who attended the funeral of the late Hon. Thos. White, at Montreal, on Tuesday. Mayor Stevenson, M.P., was prevented from doing so, through illness.

At Lakefield.

On Tuesday morning about ten o'clock a fire alarm was sounded at Lakefield. The whole village was soon aroused and it was found that a blaze was in progress at the bake shop of Mr. Glass. The fire was extinguished with a few pails of water.

IT is no solecism to say that kidd's sole attention is rivetted on his soles, solely with the view that said soles shall be stout and durable. Give kidd a call for solid Boots and Shoes. d96

Grading Reid-st.

In accordance with the plan recently prepared by the Town Engineer, Inspector Pope has about thirty men and a number of teams and scrapers at work grading Reid-st. west of St. Peter's Cathedral. The work was needed and we have no doubt that a first class job will be made of it.

A Broken Bridge.

The Brock-st. bridge badly needs attention and if it is not looked after at once, the chances are that the town will be called upon to pay damages, resulting from accidents. Last night a hole was broken just about the centre and some good Samaritan placed an upright plank in it to warn drivers. The old structure has seen better days and it is about time an iron bridge replaced it.

The Superiority of the "Royal Flavoring Extracts" is purity and strength.

Oddfellows' Anniversary.

The mass meeting of Oddfellows to be held in the lodge room of Otonabee Lodge, to-morrow evening, for the purpose of celebrating the 69th anniversary of the Order, has every prospect of being a very interesting gathering for the Oddfellows. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., D.D. G.M., will occupy the chair and deliver an opening address. No doubt every Oddfellow both in town and county who can attend will be present to do honor to the occasion.

A Secret Worth Knowing.

A lady in town when visiting a friend discovered a secret worth knowing, especially at this time of the year. In the course of conversation the following remarks were made:—"How lovely your room looks now, since you got it papered; what a lovely border; where did you get it?" "I got it this time at A. L. Davis & Co.'s and found that they had borders to match all their papers as well as a tremendous lot of papers to choose from, and when I asked their prices, I discovered they were just as low as anybody else's." Ladies, this is the reason why we sold more paper last year than the previous one and why we have sent our papers in the past beyond Toronto and as far east as Ottawa. Our prices in cheap paper are especially advantageous to those not requiring the higher priced papers. 2d96-1w17

THOSE prize packages of Teas at The Pantry are decidedly the best value for the money in the trade. d96

Buried.

The funeral of the late Mr. Richard Croft took place this afternoon and was very largely attended, a number of friends from a distance being present to pay the last tribute of respect.

A Lost Child.

A lady went into a store to-day and left her four year old child outside. She returned in a few minutes, but found that the youngster was gone. A short time afterwards the child turned up, but the mother was missing. So the story goes, but the police know nothing about it.

The Next Match.

On Friday afternoon next at the regular weekly shoot of the gun club, a match will take place between sides chosen from the members on the Park. Mr. R. M. Roy is also anxious to take a photograph and it is especially requested that the members turn out in full force.

Level Headed.

Rev. Mr. Learoyd, of Belleville, after reading half a column of advertisements from his pulpit, remarked:—"Brethren, I shall be glad of the time when they will send announcements like these to the papers instead of the pulpit to waste time. That's what newspapers are for." Peterborough church folks suffer the same affliction.

OUR Teas, Coffee and Spices at The Pantry are remarkable for their excellent quality and low prices. d96

Wooden Buildings.

Inspector Pope, if he has assumed the position of Building Inspector, wants to get to work at once. After buildings are up a certain distance it is almost impossibe to stop their erection and as there are several now under way, it is necessary that they be looked after at once, especially those close to the centre of the town.

More Trouble.

The troubles of the Water Company are not over yet. On Tuesday afternoon the service leading to the residence of Dr. Boucher burst and a fine stream flowed north on Water-st. until the officials promptly turned off the water and repaired the leak. By the liberal use of tanbark it is expected that this difficulty will be remedied in the future.

Another Industry.

A gentleman residing in New York, who holds a patent on stoves, is in communication with some Peterborough parties, with the view of establishing a factory here for the manufacture of his stoves. He is willing to come if he can get $30,000 stock taken here. The matter is under consideration and further particulars are awaited.

One Better.

We stated in Tuesday's daily, that the hardware and tinware dealers of the town had prepared a petition to the Town Council, asking that body to pass a by-law closing their places of business at 8 o'clock each evening, except Saturday. These gentlemen inform us that they intend to do even better than that. They see 8 and will go it one hour better and their petition asks that they be closed up at 7 o'clock, all the year around.

Ladies go into ecstacies over the new perfume, "Lotus of the Nile."

Get Out Your Dictionaries.

The following were the sentences in the "pronouncing match" at the Y. W. C. T. U. entertainment, on Tuesday evening:—

"Though a pronounced partisan he was ever courteous; singularly free from egotism; efficient at party organization; zealous for political combat; filled with wrath as he hurled down the gauntlet to the finance department. A deficit particularly provoked his polemical procilivities. He was skilled in diplomacy and fertile in expedient."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

Building.

Building operations are in full blast in all quarters of the town, particularly in the outskirts....Messrs. Douglas & Logan have commenced building a new carriage shop, near Denne's old mill.....Work on the foundation of the Salvation Army barracks is progressing rapidly.....Mr. Jas. Stubbs is erecting a fine brick dwelling at the corner of Dublin and Aylmer-sts....The foundation for a new brick building in rear of the post office has been commenced and it is said that Messrs. Muckleston, of Kingston, hardware merchants, will use it.... Similar reports of active operations come from all sections of the town and the boom has set in in earnest.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Golden Eye.

Men have been employed on the Golden Eye during the winter in thoroughly overhauling and repairing the vessel and the machinery has also received attention. The steamer has received a new coat of paint and at present she looks just as well, and is in fact as staunch, as the day she was launched. The ice is not all out of Rice Lake yet, but Commodore Calcutt expects to commence regular trips about the 15th of May, the usual time each year. Captain McDonald will again have charge.

For Coughs and Colds, use Allen's Lung Balsam. Relief is warranted or money refunded.

Brevities.

—The Governor-General will visit Toronto, on Monday, May 7th.

—The officers on duty last night were not troubled at all with tramps.

—The Oddfellow's Band, of Belleville boasts of thirty-two players.

—The Police Magistrate was not called upon to officiate this morning.

—Orillia carried a by-law voting $15,000 for waterworks and electric light.

—There is any quantity of ice in the back country yet and that tends to cool the air.

—The Sons of England celebrated St. George's day, at Belleville, by a grand supper.

—The stand pipes at the north end are being put in shape to supply the watering carts.

—Thos. Dale, of Canifton, has a calf born without eyes or tail and a head shaped like a deer's.

—A slight blaze at Carter's hame factory, Auburn, on Monday evening, did but slight damage.

—Mr. T. L. Bayeur, of Peterborough, is offering for sale his Belleville boot and shoe business.

—A St. Thomas capitalist proposes to give $20,000 to found a chair in Victoria University.

—The Kingston people are agitating for the construction of a railway from Kingston to Smith's Falls.

—The frost was over an inch deep this morning and it was difficult work to plough until the sun came out.

—Miss Howden is meeting with great success in the west. She recently sang at London and Woodstock.

—The lacrosse boys have commenced practise in earnest and the squares and parks are alive with them each night.

—Three weddings take place this evening and the three prospective grooms are all members of Peterborough Lodge I. O. O. F.

—The project to hold a band competition here during next August is not dead by any means, but things are looking brighter day by day.

—The Port Hope Street and Bridge Committee took their annual trip around the town on Tuesday. Ours should soon follow suit.

—The market this morning was but slimly attended and prices showed no changes worth recording from previous quotations.

—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers held a ball at Belleville, on Tuesday evening. Some half dozen from Peterborough took part.

—The weather continues remarkably cold for this season of the year and gardeners are afraid to go ahead with planting operations to any great extent.

—In two years Inspector Cochrane has had 210 Scott Act cases, before the Police Magistrate, in addition to those brought by the police and private prosecutors.

—Mr. D. B. Smith, of Hamilton, is in town working in the interests of the Order of Royal Templars of Temperance of which there are two Councils in Peterborough.

—The largest purchase ever made of ash lumber on the K. & P. R.R. was made this spring, when the Rathbun company bought Thompson's & Avery's cut of over 300,000 feet.

—There is some talk of a re-arrangement of the Grand Trunk time table, as far as Peterborough is concerned, giving us among other advantages, an earlier train in the morning.

—In addition to the graduates of Queen's College, Kingston, previously given, we find from this vicinity Messrs. R. J. Hunter, Millbrook, W. T. Holderest, Tweed, and T. B. Scott, Campbellford; all whom were awarded the B.A. degree. Mr. T. A. Cosgrove, of Millbrook, carried off the Toronto Scholarship No. 1, $30, in second year Hebrew.

Campbell's Cathartic Compound

IT CURES LIVER COMPLAINT, BILIOUS DISORDERS, ACID STOMACH, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

BRANDON, MAN., 21st Oct., 1886.—I find Campbell's Cathartic Compound the best article I have ever used for costiveness or biliousness, and easy to take. I am, yours truly, A. H. McDONALD.

Sold by dealers in family medicines everywhere. 25c. per bottle.

A Sale.

The handsome Corliss engine, which did duty at Denne's mill for some years and which was purchased with that building, by Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., has been sold to Messrs. Dundas & Flavelle, of Lindsay. The price paid, we understand, was about $800.

Have you a Pain anywhere about you?
USE PERRY DAVIS'
"PAIN KILLER"
and Get Instant Relief.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
25 Cts. Per Bottle.

GIVE THE BOYS A NEW SUIT

The winter is over. The boys have been having a good time. You can tell by their faces. You can be certain by a look at their clothes. All of them need a new suit or part of a suit to freshen them up for school. We are ready to supply their wants.

Suits for the Smallest,
Suits for Middle-weights.
Suits for the Biggest.

Capital Tweeds, proper for boy's wear. Ready mades in many styles. Call early.

T. Dolan & Co

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

DURING 5 YEARS

stay in Peterborough I have engraved over 6000 Coins, Repaired over 4000 Watches, besides Engraving Brass Plates, Repairing Jewellery, Clocks, etc. Still I am much in the position of Oliver Twist—I want more. English Levers and Old Country Bulls Eyes, accurately Repaired.

IRVING

M. H. J. L. E.

SIMCOE-ST., WEST OF GEORGE.

2d97-w1

A philosopher declares "It is not wrong to say what one thinks." Sometimes, however, it is not prudent.

Corinthian Lodge A.F. & A.M.

THE REGULAR MEETING of Corinthian Lodge, No. 101, G.R.C., will be held this Wednesday evening, April 25th, at the Masonic Hall, Water-street. Brethren of sister lodges are cordially invited to attend. By order of the W. M. 1d97

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

EXTENSIVE and IMPORTANT

SALE BY AUCTION OF

WALNUT FURNITURE.

BRITISH PLATE MIRROR.

Collection of Stuffed Birds, &c.

I shall offer for Sale by Auction at the residence of MR. JOHN J. HOWDEN, adjoining the town of Peterborough (residence of late Jas. Howden), on

FRIDAY, APRIL 27th., Next,

all of the Household Furniture, etc., now in the residence.

Particular attention is directed to the large collection of Stuffed Birds and Animals, (13 cases) which contain many rare specimens.

Sale to begin at 12.30 p. m. and will be conducted without reserve.

CHAS. STAPLETON, Auctioneer.

April 23rd, 1888. 3d96

POTATOES!

A Car Load of Choice

EARLY ROSE

FOR SALE AT

J. W. FLAVELLE'S.

5d96

LADIES WILL TALK

and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also

FELTS, CANVASES,
PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY,
SILKS, ETC., ETC

Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS

AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrared Woodrun Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,

A PAPER-HANGER.

"Did n't Know 't was Loaded"

May do for a stupid boy's excuse; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

Nathan S. Cleveland, 27 E. Canton st., Boston, writes: "My daughter, now 21 years old, was in perfect health until a year ago when she began to complain of fatigue, headache, debility, dizziness indigestion, and loss of appetite. I concluded that all her complaints originated in impure blood, and induced her to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soon restored her blood-making organs to healthy action, and in due time reëstablished her former health. I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to spring time."

J. Castright, Brooklyn Power Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "As a Spring Medicine, I find a splendid substitute for the old-time compounds in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, with a few doses of Ayer's Pills. After their use, I feel fresher and stronger to go through the summer."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1888.

TORONTOS' GREAT GAME.

THE BEST TEAM THAT HAS PLAYED AT WORCESTER THIS SEASON.

League and Association Games Yesterday —A Letter from Hanlan—Teemer Claims the Championship—Sullivan Challenges the World—Spots of Sport.

WORCESTER, Mass, April 24.—The home team dropped a good game to-day and honors go over the border. The weather was bad, in fact could not have been worse and allow play to go on. The attendance was rather slim, but those present buttoned their overcoats and enjoyed a really fine exhibition of batting and base running by the visitors. The most brilliant play of the day, and of the season so far, was a long fly catch in centre field by Burke after a long forward and backward run. Decker's throwing to bases was a great feature of the game. The Torontos, in fact, played all around the home team, and are easily the best team that has yet appeared on the local grounds during the season of 1888. The score:

WORCESTER.	M.	R.	I.B.	P.O.	A.	E.	TORONTO.	M.	R.	I.B.	P.O.	A.	E.
Wheeler, l.f.	1	0	0	0	0	0	Burke, cf.	0	0	1	0	0	0
Wheelock, ss	0	0	0	2	1	1	Connors, l.f.	1	1	2	1	0	0
Meleter, 2b.	2	1	3	3	6	0	M'Laughlin, s	1	1	1	2	3	2
Flanagan, 1b	1	1	12	0	1	0	Harnett, 1b.	0	0	10	0	1	1
Hamilton, cf	0	0	1	1	0	0	Decker, c.	2	2	5	6	2	0
Briggs, 3b.	0	1	2	0	0	1	Rickley, 2b.	1	1	1	3	4	1
Clifford, r.f.	0	1	2	1	0	0	Thayer, r.f.	2	2	0	0	0	0
Derby, c.	0	0	3	6	2	0	Kearns, 3b.	1	0	0	3	2	1
Walker, p.	0	0	0	2	1	1	Atkinson, p.	0	1	0	5	2	0
Totals	4	4	24	14	6	3	Totals	7	10	27	15	11

Worcester ..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—4
Toronto ..... 0 2 3 0 0 0 1 0 x—7

Earned runs—Worcester 2. Two-base hits—Decker, Thayer. Meister. Three-base hit—Atkinson. Stolen bases—Decker 4, Rickley 2, McLaughlin, Thayer, Kearns, Clifford 2, Hamilton, Flanagan, Wheeler. First base on balls—By Walker 1 (Rickley), by Atkinson 1 (Flanagan). First base on errors—Toronto 3, Worcester 2. Struck out—By Atkinson 3, Walker and Briggs by Walker 1, Decker. Passed balls—Decker 2. Wild Pitches—Atkinson 1. Time of game—1 hr. 30 min. Umpire—Lon Knight.

League Games Yesterday.

										R.	H.	E.
At Washington:
Washington	0	5	2	1	4	1	4	1	0	18	17	2
New York	4	5	1	0	3	5	0	0	x	19	18	4
Batteries: Gilmore and Mack; Titcomb and Murphy. Umpire—Lynch.
Game called on account of darkness.
At Pittsburg:										R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg	2	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	4	7	3
Detroit	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	2	x	5	12	5
Batteries: Galvin and Miller; Conway and Bennett. Umpire—Decker.
At Philadelphia:										R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	6	5
Boston	5	0	0	0	2	3	0	2	x	7	7	1
Batteries: Buffinton and Clements; Bowders and O'Rourke. Umpire—Daniels.
At Indianapolis:										R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1—	2	6	1
Chicago	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	2	x—	5	7	2
Batteries: Boyle and Myers; Krock and Flint. Umpire—Valentine.

American Association Games.

										R.	H.	E.
At Baltimore:
Baltimore	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0—	1	3	3
Brooklyn	0	2	0	0	1	0	0	0	x—	3	6	1
Batteries: Smith and Trott; Terry and Peoples. Umpire: Gaffney.
At Philadelphia:										R.	H.	E.
Athletics	3	0	1	3	1	0	0	0	x—	8	13	5
Cleveland	0	0	0	0	4	0	0	1	0—	5	14	2
Batteries: Sowders and Townsend; Blakely and Zimmer. Umpire: Ferguson.
At Kansas City:										R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	2	0	0	0	1	0	3	0	x—	6	6	3
Louisville	1	0	0	5	1	2	0	x—		10	10	0
Batteries: Fagan and Daniels; Stratton and Cross. Umpire: Doescher.
At St Louis:										R.	H.	E.
St Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	1	0—	3	8	2
Cincinnati	1	0	0	1	0	1	0	1	x—	4	11	1
Batteries: Devlin and Milligan; Vean and Baldwin. Umpire McQuade.

Exhibition Games.

										R.	H.	E.
At Elmira:
Rochester	0	0	2	3	4	1	0	3	0—	13	17	4
Elmira	2	0	0	5	0	0	1	1	x—	9	15	5
Batteries: Hale and Agan, Urquhart and Goodall.
At Syracuse:										R.	H.	E.
Stars	2	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	0—	4	7	5
Jersey City	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	0—	2	3	4
Pitchers: Murphy and Corcoran.

Championship Games To-day.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York v. Philadelphia at New York.
Boston v. Washington at Washington.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

St. Louis v. Cincinnati at St. Louis.
Baltimore v. Brooklyn at Baltimore.
Athletic v. Cleveland at Philadelphia.
Kansas City v. Louisville at Kansas City.

A Letter from Hanlan.

From Petley's Hotel, Sydney, N.S.W., Edward Hanlan writes: "I have arranged to row Peter Kemp for £500 a side and the championship of the world. The race will be rowed on Saturday, May 5, over the Parramatta course, and I might as well say that I have no soft job on hand. Beach has told all his backers and friends that Kemp can beat him, and that Kemp is sure to beat Hanlan. I don't think so, and I shall have to wait and see for myself. I think that should I defeat Kemp, Beach will be out again. I have also arranged a match with Trickett, to take place at Rockhampton, the stakes to be £500 a side. If I pull through I shall return home with £5000 in pocket. I am well pleased with my second visit to Australia, and if I see a good chance to go into business here I shall accept it, but, of course, I shall have to return home first just to see all old friends in Toronto. I went to see the Kemp-Clifford race for the championship, and Kemp rowed in grand form. Whoever beats him will have to be a good one, for this man Kemp beat Clifford from the start. Give my kind regards to all the boys, who will doubtless be pleased to hear that I am in good form and doing well, although the climate is a little trying."

Spots of Sport.

The Torontos play with Worcester again to day.

New York Sun: Murphy, the Syracuse pitcher, whose language caused him to be ordered off the Newark grounds on Saturday, is a discredit to the game of ball.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

"I didn't listen," says Nolly, ingenuously. "What do you take me for? I crammed my fingers into my ears, and shut my eyes tight, and wished with all my heart I had never been born. If you wish very hard for anything, they say you will get it. So I thought if I threw my whole soul into that wish just then I might get it, and find presently I never had been born. So I threw in my whole soul; but it didn't come off. I was as lively as possible after ten minutes' hard wishing. Then I opened my eyes again and looked,—simply to see if I oughtn't to look,—and there they were still; and he had his arm round her, and her head was on his shoulder, and——"

"Oh, Nolly!" says Dorothy, hastily.

"Well, it wasn't my fault, was it? I had nothing to do with it. She hadn't her head on my shoulder, had she? and it wasn't my arm that was round her," says Mr. Darling, losing patience a little.

"I don't mean that; but how could you look?"

"Well, I like that!" says her brother. "And pray what was to happen if I didn't? I gave 'em ten minutes; quite sufficient in law, I think. If they could not get it over in that time, they must have forgotten their native tongue. Besides, I wanted to get down; the forked seat in the laurel was not all my fancy painted it in the beginning, and how was I to know when they were gone unless I looked? Why, otherwise I might be there now. I might be there until next week," winds up Mr. Darling, with increasing wrath.

"It is true," puts in Mona. "How could he tell when the coast was clear for his escape unless he took a little peep?"

"Go on, Nolly," says Nicholas.

"Well, Violet was crying (not loudly, you know, but quite comfortably); so then I thought I had been mistaken, and that probably she had a toothache or a headache, or something, and that the foregoing speech was mere spooning; and I rather lost faith in the situation, when suddenly he said, 'Why do you cry?' and what do you think was her answer? 'Because I am so happy.' Now, fancy any one crying because she was happy!" says Mr. Darling, with fine disgust. "I always laugh when I'm happy. And I think it rather a poor thing to dissolve into tears because a man asks you to marry him; don't you, Mrs. Geoffrey?"

"I don't know, I'm sure. I have never thought about it. Did I cry, Geoffrey, when——" hesitates Mrs. Geoffrey, with a laugh, and a faint, sweet blush.

"N—o. As far as I can remember," says Geoffrey, thoughtfully, pulling his moustache, "you were so overcome with delight at the unexpected honor I did you, that——"

"Oh, I dare say," says Nicholas, ironically. "You get out."

"What else did they say, Nolly?" asks Dorothy, in a wheedling tone.

"If they could only hear us now," murmurs Geoffrey, addressing no one in particular.

"Go on, Nolly," says Doatie.

"You see, I was so filled with the novelty of the idea that it is the correct thing to weep when seated on your highest pinnacle of bliss, that I forgot to put my fingers in my ears again for a moment, so I heard him say, 'Are you sure you love me?' whereupon she said, 'Are you quite sure you love me?' with lots of emphasis. That finished me! Did you ever hear such stuff in your life?" demands Mr. Darling, feeling justly incensed. "When they have been gazing into each other's eyes and boring us all to death with their sentimentality for the last three months, they coolly turn round and ask each other if they are sure they are in love!"

"Nolly, you have no romance in your nature," says Nicholas, severely.

"No, I haven't, if that's romance. Of course there was nothing for it but to shut my eyes again and resign myself to my fate. I wonder I'm not dead," says Nolly, pathetically. "I never put in such a time in my life. Well, another quarter of an hour went by, and then I cautiously opened my eyes and looked again, and—would you believe it?"—indignantly,—"there they were still!"

"It is my opinion that you looked and listened all the time, and it was shamefully mean of you," says Dorothy.

"I give you my honor I didn't. I neither saw nor heard but what I tell you. Why, if I had listened I could fill a volume with their nonsense. Three-quarters of an hour it lasted. How a fellow can take forty-five minutes to say, 'Will you marry me?' passes my comprehension. Whenever I am going to do that sort of thing, which of course," looking at Mona, "will be never now, on account of what you said to me some time since—but if ever I should be tempted, I shall get it over in twenty seconds precisely; that will even give me time to take her hand and get through the orthodox embrace."

"But perhaps she will refuse me," says Mona, demurely.

"No such luck. But look here, I never suffered such agony as I did in that laurel. It's the last tree I'll ever climb. I knew if I got down they would never forgive me to their dying day, and as I was I felt like a condemned criminal."

"Or like the 'sweet cherub that sits up aloft?' There is something cherubic about you, do you know, Nolly, when one comes to think about it. But finish your tale."

"There isn't much more; but yet the cream of the joke remains," says Nolly, laughing heartily. "They seemed pretty jolly by that time, and he was speaking. 'I was afraid you would refuse me,' he said, in an imbecile tone. 'I always thought you liked Geoffrey best.' 'Geoffrey!' said Violet. (Oh, Mrs. Geoffrey, if you could have heard her voice!) 'How could you think so! Geoffrey is all very well in his way, and of course I like him very much, but he is not to be compared with you.' 'He is very handsome,' said Jack, fishing for compliments in the most indecent manner. 'Handsome! Oh, no,' said Violet. (You really should have heard her, Mrs. Geoffrey!) 'I don't think so. Passably good-looking, I allow, but—not like you. Ha, ha, ha!'"

"Nolly, you are inventing," says Mrs. Geoffrey, sternly.

"No; on my word, no," says Nolly, choking with laughter, in which he is joined by all but Mona. "She said all that, and lots more!"

"Then she doesn't know what she is talking about," says Mrs. Geoffrey, indignantly. "The idea of comparing Geoffrey with Jack!"

At this the laughter grows universal, Geoffrey and Nicholas positively distinguishing themselves in this line, when just at the very height of their mirth the door opens, and Violet enters, followed by Captain Rodney.

To be Continued.

"Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

5,000 YARDS
OF
SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS
AT
SIX CENTS A YARD.

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,
No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Teemer Claims the Championship.

PITTSBURG, April 24.—John Teemer, champion oarsman of the United States, accompanied by his wife and youthful son, arrived in this city from Florida on Sunday night. They went directly to McKeesport. Teemer is as brown as an Indian and says he never felt better in his life. In an interview he said: "I propose to claim the title of 'champion' of the world after May 1. I know that Kemp and Hanlan are to row for this title on May 5, but I have a stronger claim to it than either of them. I have defeated Hanlan fairly and squarely, and Beach had no authority to transfer the title to Kemp or any other man. I have had a challenge, backed up with $500 forfeit, standing all winter, to rowany man in the world. Hanlan and Kemp both knew this, and I am not going to let them run away with honors that do not belong to them. I will be ready to defend my claim against all comers for as much money as they care to put up."

Sullivan Challenges the World.

BOSTON, April 24.—Shortly after John L. Sullivan arrived in this city he called at The Herald Office and issued a challenge to fight any man in the world in a six-foot ring, London Prize Ring or Marquis of Queensbury rules, for $10,000 a side. A deposit of $500 was made with The Herald sporting editor. Sullivan states that he prefers that Kilrain or Mitchell accept the challenge before any others.

A Bowling Match at Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 24.—The bowling match between teams of the M. A. A. A. and Victoria Rifles took place this evening in the gymnasium, and was won by the former by 150 points. The scores were: M. A. A. A., 1377; Vics., 1227.

The Forest Cricket Club.

FOREST, April 24.—A meeting of the Forest Cricket Club was held last evening and the following officers elected: Hon. President, D. H. Smith; President, Dr. O. Talieu; First Vice-President, John Shaw; Second Vice-President, G. M. Kerr; Secretary-Treasurer, John D. Livingstone; Committee of Management, G. M. Van Valkenburg, Geo. Munro, W. D. Griggs, M. J. Smith and Wm. Sparling.

A Boodler Comes to Grief.

MONTREAL, April 24.—Detective Kellert this morning arrested James Taylor, the manager of O. H. Read's mercantile agency in Broadway, New York, who left that city rather abruptly. On examination of his books it was found that a number of large sums had been embezzled and a note for $3000 against Mr. Read had been forged and the money collected on it. Mr. Read has been telegraphed for, and will be here to-morrow to arrange for extradition.

Their Last Voyage.

PORTLAND, Me., April 24.—The schooner Ellen Crusoe arrived yesterday from Monro via Africa with palm oil, etc. At Basso Liberia Captain Fraik I. Jones and one of the ship's boys, while walking on the beach, were struck by lightning and another boy rendered deaf by the bolt. Mate Alanzon Hume took charge of the vessel, but died at sea from African fever. The schooner was brought here by Captain Jones' father-in-law, Mr. Ross. Captain Jones leaves a widow and two children.

Congress and the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The House to-day was occupied with speeches for and against the tariff bill.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

WANTED.
1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.
Solicitor, Water Street.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING COOK'S FRIEND POWDER

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

For Sale by all Grocers.

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

THE SUN LIFE
Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSETS - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,
MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH

MANITOBA OATS

Just received a car load for seed, a choice sample.

SALT AND LAND-PLASTER

All Kinds of FIELD and GARDEN SEEDS

J. W. FLAVELLE,

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. SIMCOE STREET

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d8eod-w15

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mos682-w11 Millbrook P. O

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1my18 10 Spruce-st., New York

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to

ROBERT KINGAN.

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at the office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

JACKSON & CO.

Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.

Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.

PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES tuned and repaired.

Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos. Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card. d1lilood-w49-6m

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints. Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic. Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

S. PERRIN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—After using your PINE TAR CORDIAL for the last ten years in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending its use by everybody for every descrition of coughs and colds. It has no equal among the many cordials offered for sale, and I believe the only safe remedy to use. WILLIAM FOLEY
Hardware Merchant, Lindsay

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d13

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 475, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d20

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d1p9

T. B. MCGRATH,

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. 1yd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 322. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of Iowa references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. R. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d82-1y

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d6ly

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d37w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Landy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d1lw18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN. d13w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store, MONEY TO LOAN.
E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md119w21

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. wed37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d88w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d22w25

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.

Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

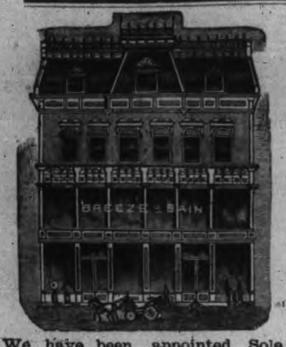
(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th, door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham a Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.



FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 13

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. & Q. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 00 p m	Toronto and West, via G. & Q. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
5 30 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	6 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	6 00 a m
5 30 p m		4 30 p m
5 30 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope.	11 00 a m
5 15 p m	do do	6 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings, Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	1 15 p m
4 00 p m		12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville.	11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore. Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Hamilton, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night		7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays.	1

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 98. PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us:
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE

METROPOLITAN

GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

GLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS TENTS!!!

—to—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

Garden Tools,
Silver Dollar Spades
Spading Forks,
Manure Forks,
Steel Rakes,
Hoes,
Wheelbarrows,
Long and Short
Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best to use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough

For Sale or to Rent

TO LET.

A DESIRABLE HOUSE in the Cox terrace, Rubidge-st. Possession on May 1st. Apply to H. M. ALLEN. 3d30

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough. Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boucher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash. JAMES STEVENSON.

d&w

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister, d167-w51

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Lace Curtains beautifully cleaned and finished 40 cents a pair.

Lace Curtains beautifully dyed all shades and finished, 90 cents per pair, at

PARKER'S Steam Dye Works. 6d94

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough tyd&w

OPERA HOUSE

2—NIGHTS—2

Commencing Monday, April 30th

THE GREAT ENGLISH ACTRESS,

CLAIRE SCOTT

—Supported by—

S. K. COBURN,

And a strictly first-class Company, in the following grand repertoire:—

Elizabeth, Queen of England,

Mary Queen of Scots.

MAGNIFICENT COSTUMES,
ELEGANT STAGE SETTING,
GRAND TABLEAUX.

Each play will be presented in the same artistic manner as when played at high prices. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. Plan now open at Hartley's Music Store. 5d97

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

SCABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being botpractical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. SCABLER. 1yd38 JAS. R. DONELL

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show the n.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1888

THE TORONTO COAL SECTION.

Ex-Ald. Elias Rogers Again Before the Combines Committee.

OTTAWA, April 25.—Elias Rogers of Toronto had an interesting time before the Combines Committee this mornfag. It is quite evident that he and Clarke Wallace can't agree about what should be considered evidence and what should not. Mr. Wallace and Mr. Rogers got into a wrangle about a newspaper clipping which the latter wanted to read to the committee with reference to a statement made by Mr. Wallace while he was addressing a meeting in favor of Mayor E. F. Clarke during the last municipal elections at Toronto. Mr. Rogers submitted a lengthy statement on behalf of the coal trade branch of the Toronto Board of Trade, in which it is stated that There is not now, and there has not been, any combination of any kind whatever amongst the coal dealers of Toronto for the regulation of the trade in soft coal or wood except when sold in connection with anthracite coal.

The people of Ontario are entirely dependent upon the anthracite deposits of Pennsylvania for their supply. This deposit has for years been controlled by five transportation companies, the Delaware and Lackawanna Railway Company, the Erie Railway Company, the Reading Railway Company, the Pennsylvania Railway Company and the Lehigh Valley Company.

Mr. Rogers went on to explain that in 1886 these companies sent representatives to Toronto and compelled the importers to organize an association to regulate prices and to insure that that coal would not be sold below cost. The organization was formed and became known as the coal trade branch of the Board of Trade, the bylaws of which were subject to the Council of the Board of Trade, which had it in its power to demand at any time from the coal organization a statement showing the percentage of profits with power "to take such action upon such statement as the circumstances warrant." The members of the organization subscribed to this oath:

I will, so long as I continue a member of said association, truly, faithfully and honestly observe, perform and keep the provisions and terms thereof and shall not commit or attempt to commit or allow others on my behalf to commit or attempt to commit any secret or other evasion or violation thereof.

Mr. Rogers declared that the net profits of the organization did not exceed 25 cents per ton, which he said was less than a fair profit. He also said that the organization was a benefit to the poor man who only required a few tons during the winter, for the reason that he could book his supply at lower prices for winter delivery. He could not do this when the trade was unorganized.

Mr. Rogers will give more evidence tomorrow.

CRUELTY TO CATTLE.

Treatment of Animals on Shipboard—A Toronto Delegation at the Capital.

OTTAWA, April 25.—The ample form of Ald. G. F. Frankland was a conspicuous figure in the rotunda of the Russell House to-day. The big City Father discoursed about cruelty to cattle on shipboard, and he and three other exporters came down to the Capital to see the Minister of Agriculture about it. They were John Dunn, of Toronto, President of the Dominion Live Stock Association, A. J. Thompson, of Toronto, its Treasurer, and Ald. Josh Ingram, a member. In 1886 a departmental regulation was passed, providing that cattle on board ship were to be allowed a space not less than 8 by 24 feet. This arrangement worked very satisfactorily during 1886 but in 1887 it was not carried out and the exporters of cattle via the Canadian steamship lines complain that the mortality among animals increased from 2-5 of 1 per cent. to 3 per cent. The animals were crowded on board in a shocking manner and besides being unable to lie down during the voyage were often bruised and maimed to such an extent that the value of a bullock in Liverpool often depreciated by £5 owing to his unsoundness. In addition to being jammed together none of the projections on the sides and ends of the ship were covered and the poor animals were often thrown against chains, beams and even against the boilers and burned.

Mr. Carling expressed considerable surprise at this state of things, and said the department never intended that they should exist. He asked the deputation, who were introduced by Mr. Small, M.P., to make suggestions in writing for the comfort of the cattle, and he would see that Dr. McEachren, the Government Inspector at Montreal, would enforce them.

At the American ports, where cattle are shipped, the humane societies have taken this matter up, and as a result they are sent on their long sea voyage under very comfortable circumstances.

MURDER AT OTTAWA.

A Man Thrown Down a Flight of 15 Stairs and Killed.

OTTAWA, April 25.—What was probably a murder or manslaughter occurred in this city at 11 o'clock to-night. Three men, whom the police described as "dead toughs," were drinking and playing cards in the upper part of a house in Lower Town. They were Jean Baptiste Janisse, F. X. Laurin and one Soulette. Janisse rents the upper part of a flat from Laurin, and among other things quarrelled about was rent due from Janisse to Laurin.

A scuffle ensued and it is claimed that Laurin threw Janisse down a flight of fifteen stairs. He was found dead at the bottom. Laurin and Soulette were arrested.

Coroner Wright opened an inquest and adjourned it for a post mortem examination. Janisse's daughter testified that she saw Laurin throw her father down the stairs.

Suicide at Brantford.

BRANTFORD, April 25.—Thomas Walker, gunsmith, committed suicide last night by taking strychnine. No cause for the act can be given unless that he has been drinking hard.

PARLIAMENT AGAIN BUSY.

A VARIETY OF MATTERS PASSED UPON IN THE HOUSE.

The Minister of Justice's Supreme Court Bill—Stringent Measure Against Dealers in the "Queer"—Division on Mr. Jamieson's Scott Act Amendment.

OTTAWA, April 25.—Parliament's last two days were occupied in paying tribute to the memory of the late Hon. Thomas White, and to-day business was resumed as though nothing had happened. By this sad interruption the Government lost a day and the members lost a day. The members, however, had their innings this afternoon, and to-night a variety of matters were talked about and passed upon.

The Minister of Justice pleaded "emergency" when he sent up a bill for a first reading dealing with the Supreme Court of Canada. He said he wanted the bill pushed through to completion before the House rose. All of the big legal firms in the country are interested in this bill, for without its passage the May term of the court could not be held. The Minister of Justice has been showered with letters about it. Mr. Justice Taschereau is absent on leave, and Mr. Justice Henry is so ill that he will not be able to be in his place at the May term. The court cannot sit without a quorum of five, which would be impossible under the circumstances. The bill then is for the purpose of overcoming this difficulty and it reduces the quorum from five to four. It also provides that when the court is evenly divided on a cause it shall stand for re-argument, but not unless there be five justices on the bench.

Mr. Laurier said the bill being of so much importance he hoped the minister would not press it to its final stages that day. This Mr. Thompson agreed to and it stands for further action until to-morrow.

The Minister of Justice next sent up a bill for a first reading, making stringent provisions for punishing by imprisonment persons found guilty of advertising counterfeit money. There is little or no escape from the penalty of the act, which is five years or less imprisonment, it being worded so as to cover every form of publicity in exposing or offering for sale the "queer."

Col. O'Brien has charge of a bill framed by the Toronto Humane Society and it got a first reading but it may never get any further this session for the reason explained by the Colonel that it travels on the very lines of jurisdiction, as to whether it would come under the civil laws of the Province of Ontario or the criminal law as administered by the Dominion. The bill provides for the care and reformation of children under 16, neglected or ill-treated by parents or guardians. While he prophesied that two or three of the clauses of the bill would be strengthened, Col. O'Brien asked the members to look over it carefully.

An act by Mr. Lister providing for the crossing of railways by streets, drains and water mains received a first reading.

There was a sheet full of questions by members. The Minister of Agriculture told Sir Richard Cartwright that the Government was aware that a considerable number of necessitous immigrants have been landed in Canada during the last few years and that precautions were being taken to have the same stopped.

The Secretary of State told Mr. Weldon (St. John) that the Government intended this session to introduce a bill suspending the revision of the voters' lists under the Franchise Act.

Mr. Curran of Montreal received an answer from the Minister of Inland Revenue that may give a remnant of comfort to the consumers of bold, bad, adulterated whisky. Mr. Costigan said the inspectors under the Adulteration of Food Act would, subject to an analyst intoxicating liquors publicly offered for sale in conformity with the suggestions of the Temperance Association.

The Postmaster-General told Mr. Charlton that the Government had not paid, nor had it promised to pay, any sums of money in connection with the defalcation of ex-Deputy Postmaster Wm. Shannon of Kingston.

There was a long debate on a motion by Mr. Gordon of British Columbia for papers and correspondence in reference to the seizure of Canadian vessels engaged in sealing in the Behring Sea. Speaking to this motion, Major Prior of Victoria made his maiden speech and he acquitted himself with credit. Mr. Prior and Mr. Baker were strong in their condemnation of the treatment that Canadian vessels and crews had received at the hands of armed cruisers of the United States in these waters. Sir Chas. Tupper and Sir John Macdonald took a hand in the debate, but the Premier in answer to Mr. Mills of Bothwell declined, as he put it in the public interest to give any information at present as to what the Government were doing in bringing about the intervention of Great Britain to punish the perpetrators of these outrages.

The motion passed.

Mr. Burdett of Hastings had a good deal to say about the dismissal of Archibald Culbertson, one of the elected councillors of the Mohawk band of Indians in his county. Mr. Burdett said, as he understood it, Mr. Culbertson has been dismissed without cause. The Premier, who is Acting Minister of Interior, said the dismissed councillor's offence was habitual drunkenness and cruelty to his charges. The Premier said he had no objections to bring down all the papers in the case.

At the evening session the House went into committee and adopted the proposed amendment by Mr. McCarthy to the Canada Temperance Act, providing for a change in the method of voting for putting in force or repealing acts, that a vote shall be taken in each case on the act itself instead of on the petition and the present confusion thereby avoided.

Mr. Jamieson moved a second reading of his bill amending the Canada Temperance Act, the proposed amendments being in the direction of removing doubts concerning the application of the present law. In his speech in support he declared his belief that notwithstanding recent reverses the act was not dead in general popular favor. He censured David Mills for his course on the temperance question, than which even a paid agent of the liquor party could not have pursued one more detrimental to the interests of temperance. He accused him of shirking the vote last session on the main motion and the compensation clause, the approach of a vote on which he noticed caused Mills to beat the record of Maud S. in his departure from the chamber.

Mr. Fisher having spoken in support of the bill, Col. O'Brien followed, roundly rating the temperance men and measures, and holding that the country had justly revolted at the spiritual dictation of W.C.T.U. and from various platforms. He thought the Scott Act had not decreased the sale of liquor, but had produced more perjury, more lying, more false swearing, more ill-feeling than any other measure ever erected. He moved that the bill be read a second time this day six months.

Mr. David Mills refuted the charge that he had last year shirked the vote on the temperance question and quoted the journals of the House in support of his denial.

Mr. Jamieson said he made his charge on the authority of Hansard, which appeared to conflict with the journals of the House.

Several other speeches having been delivered Mr. Haggart moved adjournment of the debate. The House divided on this motion, which was lost, 88 to 44.

Mr. O'Brien's six months' hoist was lost, and the second reading of the bill was carried on the same division reversed.

TWO IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS.

The Lake St. Peter Channel Debt To Be Assumed by the Government.

OTTAWA, April 25.—Sir Charles Tupper tonight gave notice of two very important resolutions. The first provides that the Government of Canada may release the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal from all liability to repay to the Government the whole or any part of the advances made to the commissioners to enable them to widen and deepen the Lake St. Peter channel. Also that the Government may pay the commissioners a sum not exceeding $37,405, which they represent as being the excess of their expenditure over their revenue in 1887. The resolutions further provide for expending, through the medium of the commissioners, certain sums which have been voted by Parliament for completing the channel, for doing away with tonnage dues on sailing vessels and steamers in the port of Montreal, and declaring that the plant used in the channel work shall in future belong to the Government.

This is what the commercial bodies of Montreal have been fighting for a long time.

The other resolution deals with the graving dock at Point Levis in the same manner as is prescribed for in the case of the channel. The Government will assume all liabilities, and the dock is to become a public work of Canada under the control of the Minister of Public Works.

Riel's Expensive Little Rebellion.

OTTAWA, April 25.—That "little rebellion of Riel's" in the Northwest has turned out a pretty costly affair. The Secretary of State today presented a return to the House showing that the total disbursements on account of that internecine disturbance up to March, 1888, amounted to $5,897,256. From 1884 to 1888 the Militia Department paid out $4,671,324, from 1885 to 1888 the Interior Department paid $664,958, from 1885 to 1887 the Mounted Police expenses in connection with the rebellion were $326,000, and from 1885 to 1888 the Department of Indian Affairs (now amalgamated with the Interior Department) paid $34,945. The expenses of the commission that settled the rebellion claims amounted to $34,975.

G.T.R. AND C.P.R.

The Toronto Delegation at Montreal—Their Mission Successful.

MONTREAL, April 25.—Mayor Clarke, Ald. McMillan, Ald. Carlyle, City Engineer Sproatt, City Solicitor Biggar and W. D. Matthews, President of the Toronto Board of Trade, who arrived here this morning and put up at the Windsor, have done a good day's work. Soon after their arrival they met Mr. Joseph Hickson, General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, who was assisted by Solicitor John Bell of the Grand Trunk Railway, and Edmund Wragge of Toronto, and had a long conference with him in reference to the Esplanade dispute, the sitting taking place in room 4 of the Windsor. Soon after midday Mr. VanHorne put in an appearance and the whole afternoon was spent in discussion of the difficulty.

About 5 o'clock the Toronto men withdrew and the two railway magnates were left alone with their private secretaries to discuss the problem of how Toronto was to have the benefits of the two roads without the G.T.R. being prejudiced. This conference lasted until near 7 o'clock, when the whole party adjourned to the dining hall and put in a jolly time. At 8 o'clock the discussion was resumed and at 12.30 a.m. still continues, with the prospect of lasting another hour or two.

Mayor Clarke has just said that there is every prospect of a satisfactory settlement being arrived at. In fact he gave it to be understood that at least one subject of dispute had been settled. Whether that one is the Esplanade or the Union Depot question he would not say, but your correspondent afterwards learned from one of the party that only a few minor points had yet to be settled, and that the object of the visit of the deputation is practically secured, and they will likely return home with a pledge signed by both railway managers settling the dispute.

MORE ABOUT THE NORTHWEST.

The Vast Metalliferous Districts of the Dominion—A Fine Pastoral Area.

OTTAWA, April 25.—Dr. Dawson of the Geological Survey gave an elaborate batch of evidence before Senator Schultz's Mackenzie River Committee this morning. Some of the Doctor's points that were not brought out by other witnesses were that the metaliferous districts of British North America on the west coast, including the upper waters of the Laird and Peace Rivers, are at least 1300 miles long and average 500 miles broad, and that this area is greater than the metaliferous area of the whole of the United States.

On the plateau of the upper waters of the Yukon and the upper waters of the Laird River there exists a fine pastoral area of great extent where the growth of the hardy cereals could always be depended upon. The district in the valley of the Dwina River in Northern Russia, which flows into the White Sea at Archangel in latitude 65°, supported a large population. The Mackenzie River district seemed equally well adapted for a large population. If it should be found that shipments could be made from the mouth of the Mackenzie as they are made from the mouth of the Dwina it would become a very valuable country.

Prolix Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The majority and the minority of the Ways and Means Committee to-day reached an agreement to allow seventeen days after to-day, excluding Sunday and also any interruptions ordered by the House, and to give general leave to print in The Record, as the time to be given to the discussion of the Tariff Bill in the House.

The nerve that never relaxes, the eye that never blanches, the thought that never wanders, are the harbingers of victory.—New York Mail and Express.

THE QUEEN IN GERMANY.

HER AFFECTING INTERVIEW WITH THE EMPEROR.

The Arrival at Charlottenburg—Trouble at a Critical Moment—Cheers for the Two Empresses—A Call on the Dowager Empress Augusta.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Sun's Berlin special says: When Queen Victoria's train rolled into the Charlottenburg Station this morning the building presented a hilarious but somewhat tousled appearance. The preparations for the arrival of her Britannic Majesty were undertaken rather late in the day, and, though there was a profusion of tropical ferns and wreaths, and no end of rich carpets, rugs, banners, flags and emblematic shields, the general effect of haste was everywhere visible.

At the critical moment the usual trouble that goes hand in hand with critical moments arose. The guard, who had the key of the royal carriage, lost it under a seat, crawled under after it and for an awful two minutes was wedged in apparently beyond the power of removal. The most intense excitement prevailed. The guards, Highlanders and oriental body servants, all frenzied, fell upon the prostrate guard who was still delving for the key, and yanked him in so many different directions at once that he cried out for mercy. Meanwhile the two empresses were throwing kisses and looking yearningly at each other, while additional recruits continued to fall violently upon the wedged-in figure of the guard. About this time it was discovered that another attendant, who was holding an affable conversation with the engineer at the foremost end of the train, was carelessly twiddling the key in his fingers. During all this delay the crowd had advanced, in English, theories which grew more and more sombre as time wore on. An Englishman on my left, who had been standing on my foot and balancing himself by a firm grip on my collar while he waved his hat in the air, gave up in despair just before the final discovery of the key. "They ain't done much," he said, alluding to the German enemies of the Queen with a voice surcharged with gloomy convictions. "They have simply killed her in there, that's all. Anybody might have known it, allowing the dear old lady to come tootin' round here among enemies at her time of life."

But the door was opened at last and the Queen and her daughter, the Empress, were folded in a chunky and plump embrace. After this greeting on the threshold of the car Victoria of Germany pushed her way in with her arms around her mother, followed closely by her daughters, the Princesses Victoria, Sophie and Margaretta, the Princess of Meiningen, Prince Henry, and last of all the coming Emperor and the present Crown Prince in general's uniform and glittering decorations. He stalked along with a mien which cannot be described by any other word than surly. After the Crown Prince the popular British Minister, Sir Edward Malet, entered the car and received a friendly greeting from his sovereign.

The spectacle of two empresses together was too much for the populace to resist, and they broke into cheers as the empress seated her mother on her right, in a maroon colored victoria drawn by four black horses ridden by postilions, and they rolled away. When the carriage arrived at Charlottenburg castle the emperor was awake, though it was barely 9 o'clock. He lay on a sofa in the dining room of the palace, but rose when the Queen of England entered. The meeting was very affecting, the little Queen bursting into tears as she pushed the Emperor gently back on the sofa and sat down beside him, holding his hand in both of hers.

About 3.30 p.m. the Empress of Germany took the Queen of England to Berlin to call on Augusta, the invalid and Dowager Empress of Germany. Enormous crowds lined the Unter den Linden. The cheering was general, but not cordial, as the royal carriage passed, and when it drove into the court yard of the palace where the late King William lived so long, the surrounding streets were banked with people.

The Emperor Better.

BERLIN, April 25.—This morning's bulletin says the Emperor passed a good night. His fever is lower and his condition satisfactory. As the condition of the Emperor changes little during the day, only one bulletin will be issued daily until further notice.

Queen Victoria paid another visit to the Emperor this morning. This was the annual day of prayer and repentance, and the Imperial family attended divine service this morning in the castle chapel at Charlottenburg. Court Chaplain Koegel officiated, and the choir from the Church of the Twelve Apostles sang a selection of choruses. After the service, Queen Victoria received the staff of the British Embassy and later gave an audience to Prince Bismarck. The interview lasted an hour. Prince Bismarck subsequently called on the Emperor.

Set Down for To-day.

OTTAWA, April 25.—At midnight to-night His Worship Mayor Clarke telegraphed that he would not be in the Capital until Friday night. The bill with reference to the C.P.R.'s eastern entrance into Toronto was set down for the first order before the Railway Committee to-morrow.

"Our Baby and Mrs. Smith's."

PORT PERRY, April 25.—Dr. J. H. Sangster held the close attention of a large audience in the Town Hall last night 1½ hours on the occasion of the delivery of his lecture on the above subject. "From gay to grave" it was much enjoyed. Rev. Dr. Carry proposed a vote of thanks. Chairman Wm. Ross tendered these to the lecturer, who replied. The proceeds went towards the High School piano fund.

SAMPLE COPY

OF A $10 PARCEL OF DRY GOODS TO BE HAD AT ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

Peterborough, Ont., April 12th, 1888.

Mrs. Lyman Balfour,

Bought of OLIVER C. ROWSE,

DIRECT IMPORTER OF

FINE DRY GOODS.

Sold by 1. Checked by 6.

1888.
Apr. 10	To 16 yds Pure Silk Merveilleaux, 50	$ 8	00
"	" 5 yards Skirt Lining, 8c		40
"	" 2 doz. Buttons, 5c		10
"	" Braid and Spools		10
"	" Silk Twist, Cotton		13
"	" 1 pair Josephine Kid Gloves		25
"	" 6 yds. Wide Ribbon, 50c		30
"	" 4 Fancy Handkerchiefs for		25
"	" 1 Lady's Rubber Gossamer		47
		$10	00

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linolums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need f Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Society Sermon.

On Sunday evening, the members of the Otonabee and Peterborough Lodges of the Independent Order of Oddfellows will attend divine service at St. Andrew's Church, when the pastor, the Rev. Alex Bell, will deliver an appropriate sermon.

The Riversides.

A meeting of the Riverside Lacrosse Club will be held at the Commercial House, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, when preparations for the season's work will be made. All the members and all desirous of becoming members are requested to be on hand.

License Commissioners.

A meeting of the West Riding of Peterboroug License Commissioners will be held at the Council Chamber on Friday afternoon, when the business of the past year will be wound up. Up to the present time no applications have been received for druggists' or other licenses.

The 69th.

To-day is the 69th anniversary of the establishment of Oddfellowship in America and the members of the Order in Peterborough will celebrate it by meeting in the rooms on Otonabee Lodge, No. 13, this evening and listening to an entertainment consisting of addresses, songs, music, readings, etc. Oddfellows only will be admitted.

The Fire Station.

The Property Committee of the Town Council have very properly decided that a new floor was necessary at the fire station, the work of laying it down has been awarded to Contractor Thomas Rutherford and the lumber is alread at the scene of operations. The floor will be of narrow oak strips, one inch thick, and will be just the thing required to stand the hard work required of it.

Accident.

On Wednesday afternoon a young man named Richard Huffman, employed at McFadden's furniture factory, met with a rather serious accident. He was engaged in ripping a piece of lumber with a circular saw, when the board was suddenly forced back, striking him a terrible blow in the abdomen. He became unconscious, but soon after recoverd and walked to the town. Here he fainted again and was put to bed and medical aid summoned. At last reports he was progressing nicely.

The Queen's Own.

Will the Queen's Own come here on the 24th of May? It certainly does not look like it, but something definite will probably be known to-morrow. On Wednesday evening the corps paraded, and according to the World after the regiment had been dismissed at the Drill Shed the officers held a meeting to discuss the question of selecting a place to visit on Her Majesty's birthday. Nothing definite was done in the matter but it is generally understood that Woodstock will have the pleasure of entertaining the boys on the 24th.

At the North End.

The members of the Board of Education appear to be waking up the fact that a public school at the north end is rapidly becoming a necessity, if one is not already required. The matter has been hanging over for some time and has frequently been discussed at Board meetings, but always without any tangible result. At the next meeting, however, an effort will be made to accomplish something. There are several suitable sites pointed out, including a lot owned by Mr. Geo. A. Cox and a part of the ex-Judge Dennistoun property.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Obituary.

The Norwood Register says:—"It is with feelings of deep regret that we chronicle the sudden death, on Tuesday morning, of Mrs. Williams, wife of Mr. John Williams, of this village. Deceased was only ill a short time. The announcement of her death caused considerable surprise as it was not expected that her illness would prove fatal. Deceased was in her 51st year and was a consistent member of the Methodist Church. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended. We tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives." Mrs. Williams was the mother of Mrs. Ralph Carton, of Peterborough.

The Canton.

In accordance with orders all the Cantons of Patriarchs Militant in America will be inspected this evening. The members of Canton No. 10, Peterborough, will assemble at the Lansdowne Rink, at 7.45 sharp, this evening, with all their accoutrements. Captain McNeil will inspect them and after filling in the required forms and forwarding them to headquarters of the Order, the Patriarchs will march in a body to the rooms of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, and take part in the anniversary services.

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time most economical blood purifier known.

NORWOOD.

Correspondence of the Review.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. James Cummings, woollen manufacturer, met with a serious accident on Monday last. It seems the gentleman was driving a colt and at the station crossing it became unmanagable and backed over an embankment. The horse and rig were both upset, catching Mr. C. against a telegraph pole, from which he was unable to extricate himself. Besides being severely shaken up Mr. C. had his leg broken.

THE 24TH.—A committee of management has been appointed to make arrangements for a monster picnic to be held under the auspices of the R. C. Church on the Queen's Birthday. The band had made arrangements to have sports, etc., but on learning that a picnic was on the cards, they very gracefully gave way and postponed their celebration to Dominion Day. They will, however, have a grand concert on the evening of the 24th.

PERSONAL.—We regret to learn that Mr. J. B. Pearce, our popular postmaster, has been seriously ill during the past week. At latest accounts he is somewhat better.

WANTS ATTENTION.—The way a lot of hoodlums parade the streets yelling, breaking down railings and annoying peaceable citizens, and the spirit of rowdism that is abroad in the small hours of the night, is a disgrace to any community and the council ought to have sand enough to grapple with it.

BIRDSALL.

Correspondence of the Review.

OPENING UP.—The ice is out of the lower end of Rice Lake.

MEASLES.—Whooping cough and measles are very prevalent in this neighborhood.

VALUABLE ANIMAL LOST.—Mr. Richard Fox lost a valuable mare last week, which died while giving birth to a colt.

RENTED.—Camerons Point, known as the Gilbie Farm, one of the most beautiful points on Rice Lake, has, we believe, been rented by Mr. Richard Esson for the coming year.

A POINTER FOR MEDICOS.—Not long ago I noticed an article in one of the Peterborough papers, telling how many doctors there were in Peterborough. It struck me at the time that some of them might like to know of a good opening. Now, as neither Westwood or Birdsall has a doctor, I would suggest either of these places as a good opening for a young doctor.

THE FISH.—The Indians of Ainwick village are greatly worked up about the Yankees being allowed to fish in the Lake last winter. One of the chief men of the village, while in conservation with your correspondent the other day, said that in allowing them to catch the small fish, taking it for granted that they put back all the bass and maskinonge, which remains to be proved, they take away the food of the maskinonge, besides taking away thousands of fish at one haul, all of which are valuable and furnish sport for people that keep the law.

COW LOST.—Mr. S. Comago had the misfortune to loose a valuable cow this week. Mr. Cook of Hastings was in attendance, but could do nothing to relieve her.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

RAILROAD MEN AT THE CAPITAL.

A Big Deputation Asking for a Subsidy—The Railway Committee.

OTTAWA, April 25.—Railroads and railroad men had the call at the Capital to-day. "Jim" Sutherland of North Oxford, Adam Brown and Alex. McKay of Hamilton, and the three senators from the Ambitious City, were the busiest men in town. They undertook to handle a deputation of an even half of a hundred, and they did it quite successfully. These gentlemen came from that fertile belt of country that stretches eastward from the flourishing town of Woodstock, through Oxford, Brant, Wentworth and Lincoln, to the Niagara frontier. They are interested in the Ontario South Pacific Railway, which is now in operation from London to Woodstock and which is bonused by the Government, from the Forest City westward to Chatham. On the deputation, among others, were Mayor M. Doran of Hamilton, Mayor C. B. Heyd of Brantford, Warden Flett of Wentworth, Sheriff Scarfe of Brant and County Treasurer W. S. Campbell of Brantford.

They had an interview with the Privy Council and asked a subsidy for their road, claiming that the Government had promised it before adopting their recent policy of "shutting down" on all railway subsidies. The formidable strength and prominence of the personel of the deputation seemed to impress Sir John and his colleagues to such an extent that they promised their reconsideration of the subsidy, the "shutting down" policy to the contrary notwithstanding. It is altogether likely that this new road, if it is built, will fuse with the proposed Niagara Central eastward from Hamilton, and that the Canadian Pacific will get control of them both.

Mr. Rykert's bill respecting the Niagara Central was before the Railway Committee this morning and its six clauses were freely discussed. All of the clauses but No. 3 were favorably reported, and this was referred to a sub-committee. Clause 6 has reference to the validity of certain acts already passed by the Ontario Legislature and the Parliament of Canada respecting the road.

Mr. Shanly's bill to incorporate the Alberta Railway and Coal Company and Mr. Wood's (Brockville) bill to incorporate the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway Company were both reported.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning gray.

A DISCOURSE ON PERTINENT POINTS.

Goughs in Humor and Eloquence.

LEND US YOUR EARS. WE'LL AMPLY REWARD YOUR LENDING.

We'll read you a lecture full of Eloquence on how to save money. We'll teach you the Humorous points of the Clothing Trade. Humor and Eloquence have a place in our business as well as on the public platform. We Humor every day the wants and wishes of Customers. We spend tons of Eloquence in expatiating on the value and virtues of our stock. It's not wasted. When we make a satisfied customer we gain the benefit of his Eloquence. Does he not call together his friends and neighbors and boom the many advantages of dealing at GOUGH'S. We purpose to send rolling down the aisles of time a booming echo that shall carry to posterity the fame of the Great and Wonderful Cheap Men, the Giant Clothiers: the People's Progressive and Popular Providers: the Napoleons of the Clothing Trade of Peterborough. (Cheers and Applause).

GOLDEN OPINIONS.

"Had I worn GOUGHS' best line of Trousers, I might even now have been in power. Have I made a mistake?" E——d Bl—e.

"It strikes me that these GOUGHS are benefactors to the people of the Midland District. They should be in the Cabinet. Wish to thunder I could catch them." Sir J—n Mc———d.

"What we do not want is Commercial Union. What we absolutely need is many more men like GOUGH BROS., of Peterborough, they are a Commercial Union themselves." Sir L———d T——y.

"The men who can sell two suits where only one suit was sold before are clearly philanthropists of the first water. I don't say I mean GOUGH BROS., but I am looking that way all the same." Hon. Mac———e B——l.

"(At Cincinnati)—"The greatest stumbling block to absolute Free Trade with Canada, is, I find, the business done by GOUGH BROS., at Peterborough. Our best men can do no better. They could'nt if they would. Their cheap prices and good goods are a standing menace to Annexation." E——s W——n.

See our Boy's Suits at 69c., Men's Working Suits at $2.50 worth $5.50, Working Pants (Men's) 25c. per pair.

GOUGH BROS.,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

BOBCAYGEON.

Correspondence of the Review.

BURGLARS IN THE POST OFFICE.—On Thursday night, the 19th inst., some parties climbed through a window into Mr. John Moore's waggon shop here, and took chisels, braces, etc; then went to the post office, pried open the front door, drilled a hole into the safe, into which they put a quantity of powder which they ignited, but fortunately it had not energy enough to burst the safe. As the first experiment was not successful they went to work to put in a larger charge. But before they could apply the second match, it is supposed that the footstep of some passerby in the grey of the morning caused the safe-splitters to decamp, leaving the place strewn with powder and also some of the tools they had taken from Mr. Moore's shop. On the arrival of Mr. J. Junkin, the post master, it was found that the safe could not be opened with the key, but with the aid of a sledge hammer it was opened, and then it was found that the only damage that was done was a general displacement of things in it.

Headache, Billiousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

DURING 5 YEARS

stay in Peterborough I have engraved over 6000 Coins, Repaired over 4000 Watches, besides Engraving Brass Plates, Repairing Jewellery, Clocks, etc. Still I am much in the position of Oliver Twist—I want more. English Levers and Old Country Bulls Eyes, accurately Repaired.

IRVING

M. H. J. L. E.

SIMCOE-ST., WEST OF GEORGE.

2d97-w1

EXTENSIVE and IMPORTANT

SALE BY AUCTION OF

WALNUT FURNITURE.

BRITISH PLATE MIRROR.

Collection of Stuffed Birds, &c.

I shall offer for Sale by Auction at the residence of MR. JOHN J. HOWDEN, adjoining the town of Peterborough (residence of late Jas. Howden), on

FRIDAY, APRIL 27th., Next,

all of the Household Furniture, etc., now in the residence.

Particular attention is directed to the large collection of Stuffed Birds and Animals, (15 cases) which contain many rare specimens.

Sale to begin at 12.30 p. m. and will be conducted without reserve.

CHAS. STAPLETON,

Auctioneer.

April 23rd, 1888. 3d96

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE

FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for

Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—"INVERLEA,"

The property of Judge Dennistoun, containing about eleven acres of land with the residence, stables, outbuildings, &c., &c. This property has a frontage of about 970 feet on Water street, and 925 on Smith street and about 400 feet on the river, and is one of the most advantageously situated properties in Town for sub-division and sale as Building Lots.

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead,

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession Street, and 2580 on the road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub-divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "R," Ashburnham,

Containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 34x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HAULTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House Hill. There is about ¼ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c., soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE.

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13, in 13th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,

Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

5md85

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries consequent thereon, 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty, Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d85eod-w15

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter Street. Apply on the premises to

ROBERT KINGAN.

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.
We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c. pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
10 Spruce-st., New York

1md89-1mw16

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
Millbrook P. O

2mos62-w11

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director.

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

POTATOES!

A Car Load of Choice

EARLY ROSE

FOR SALE AT

J. W. FLAVELLE'S.

5d96

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,
A PAPER-HANGER.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY REVIEW.

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKEREL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE, CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRANTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

REMOVAL SALE.

CORSETS

In all the leading makes at greatly reduced prices during our clearing sale.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. lyd45 & w8

1,001

ONE THOUSAND AND ONE BARGAINS.

DRY GOODS.

Well, yes, SHEPPARD is abreast of the times and when Bankrupt Stocks and Sales of all kinds are taken in by people buying for a life-time, and they without hesitation, give SHEPPARD credit for selling the best Goods for the least money, then you are quite safe in going to SHEPPARD'S Great Cheapside for Cheap Goods that are Good as well as Cheap.

CLOTHING.

That Boy's Suit at 75c. in three pieces.

That Mechanic's Cap, 6 cents.

That Choice Article in Men's Pants, home-made, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75, really choice. Same goods sold elsewhere at double the money.

Big Range in Boys' Suits. Immense drive in Men's Suits, Men's Pants and Men's Underwear.

SHEPPARD has a full line of Men's Fine Cashmere Shirts and Drawers for $1.00, cheap as dirt at $1.50.

SUNDRY MATTERS.

Towels 2½c., Towelling 4c., Cretonne, big range, 10c., Prints 3½c., very wide Scrim in Plain and Fancy Effects, 6c. 7c. and 8c., Real Antique Lace to match, 5c to 28 c., Hand-made Goods.

The tumble-down prices have cut into the Dress Goods pretty badly. Plain Colorings, Pure Wool, Light Tints also in Pale Pink, Pale Blue, Salmon and Cardinal at 15c. A marvel of cheapness. Passamentrie Trimmings at 15c., goods that would knock the Bankrupt Stock endways.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.

(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh south to east winds. Fair, mild weather. Stationery or higher temperature.

For Spring and Summer Wearing.

Do you need a spring suit? The cold weather is gone. It is the plain duty of men to brace up, to do himself credit, to appear prosperous—even if he should not be so. With this end in view to make a good impression—come to the golden lion and order your suit for spring and summer wear. It will pay you and the result will be satisfactory. New tweeds, coatings and suitings just opened out.

We will pay the highest market prices in cash for Eggs and choice fresh Butter at The Pantry. d96

Harvey Shorthorns.

The following are the weights and ages of a couple of Shorthorn calves, bred by Mr. F. Birdsall, of Birdsall, Ont:—From Cows "Blanch" and "Daisy Dean" and from the imported shorthorn Bull "Inkerman," bred by Campbell, Kinellar, Scotland, "Belle of Bellevue" weighed when dropped 75 lbs and at 164 days old 460 lbs. She gained 86 lbs the last month. "Chief Pundash" weighed when dropped 82 lbs. and at 121 days old 422 lbs. He gained 95 lbs the last month. Other shorthorn breeders might furnish weights of animals, which would be of interest to stock raisers.

The Model.

Dr. Bethune, of Port Hope, who has seen the model of the statue of the late Col. Williams, says that the figure is a very inspiriting one. The attitude is that of a leader advancing, his sword uplifted and extended, and in his left hand his helmet. The side-view of the face is life-like, but the full face is hardly as good, owing to the fact that all the photographs of the late Colonel are profile views. Those who have seen the model speak very highly of it. Messrs. Judge Benson, Captain Clemes, D. Chisholm, W. Williamson and R. H. Holland, prominent Port Hopers, have been appointed a deputation to visit Toronto and the sculptor and inspect the model.

The Dry Goods Men.

As a general thing the dry goods men are the first in the field to adopt the early closing movement, and in years gone by they have closed up their places of business, during at least two months in the year at 6 o'clock, p. m. Under the new law, however, they have not taken any action, while in Port Hope, Lindsay and other neighboring places, the dealers in cotton and like goods have already presented the necessary petitions. Some person should start the ball rolling in Peterborough, and if such was done we have no doubt that every one in the trade would sign it. There are perhaps more persons engaged in this business than in any other in town and therefore an extra large number of people would be benefitted by its adoption.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Smith's Market.

Fresh Cod, Haddock, Shad and Lobsters, Vegetables and Fruit, just above the old post office, George-st. 2d95

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

HAVING decided at The Pantry to clean out our entire stock of Crockery and Glassware, we will give astonishing bargains to all who will favor us with their patronage. d96

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

No. 1 Company.

Following out the practice adopted when the battalion used to go to camp, the Captain of No. 1 offers to recruits joining this year three prizes, $3, $2 and $1, for those who prove themselves the best soldiers, to be awarded at the time of inspection. 2d98

St. Andrews Church.

A social in aid of the building fund of St. Andrews church will be given at the residence of Mrs. R. Nicholls Rubidge-st. on the evening of Thursday 26th April, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments served during the evening. A good programme will be provided. Admission 25 cents.

Cricket Notes.

Keene is organizing a cricket club and the village has some excellent material, too....The local cricketers expect that the P.A.A.A. grounds will be ready to play on about Monday or Tuesday next....The Irish team has not yet named a date for the match with Peterborough....Replies from Ottawa and Lindsay fixing dates are expected every day.

Hymeneal.

On Wednesday evening an interesting event took place at the residence of Mr. Thos. Coe, Chambers-st., being the marriage of Miss Charlotte E. Coe and Mr. R. J. Kidd. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. I. Tovell, in the presence of a small company of friends. Miss Beatrice Coe, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. John Mein assisted the groom. The bride received a large number of very fine presents. We extend congratulations.

IT is no solecism to say that kidd's sole attention is rivetted on his soles, solely with the view that said soles shall be stout and durable. Give kidd a call for solid Boots and Shoes. d96

An Old Citizen Gone.

The Toronto World says that "The last sad rites were performed over Mr. James Price, on Wednesday afternoon. He was 78 years of age and had been in Canada since 1832. He resided successively at Peterborough, Streetsville and Toronto. He came to this city in 1838 and commenced as a contractor. For some years he was an alderman. He was the last survivor of the original board of the Elm-st. Methodist Church, where an impressive funeral service was held. Mr. Price was highly respected by all who knew him. His removal follows closely on that of many old friends."

Of Historical Interest.

For two nights only, commencing Monday evening next, April 30th, the great English actress, Claire Scott, supported by Mr. S. K. Coburn, will appear at the Opera House, Peterborough. The bill for Monday night is excellent and in respect to which we print the following reference:—"Miss Claire Scott opened a brief engagement in 'Mary Stuart, Queen of Scots.' She was supported by a company of which Mr. S. K. Coburn was leading man. The first act shows Mary in prison towards the close of her eighteen years incarceration with plottings for her escape forming. The second act brings out the State council at Westminister. The third act introduces the meeting between Elizabeth and Mary, and the fourth act ends in signing the death warrant of the Scottish queen, while the curtain rises in the last act of the execution. Miss Scott is certainly well fitted for the character of the unfortunate queen, and threw great pathos into the impersonation. In the third act, her scene with Elizabeth evoked great enthusiasm and secured a double encore before the curtain for the star. The last act is peculiarly sombre and impressive, even to the 'Dead March in Saul,' and the fatal block. The last scene, instead of showing the execution, with all its accompanying horrors, brings out a beautiful optical illusion of the crucifix. Mr. Coburn made an excellent Sir Edward. The costuming of the piece was above the average production, and the scenery and properties deserve more than a passing word for the care shown in every detail."—Boston Globe, October 19th, 1886. 1d98-1w17

THOSE prize packages of Teas at The Pantry are decidedly the best value for the money in the trade. d96

No. 6.

The members of No. 6 Company, 57th Battalion, will meet for organization at 7.30 o'clock, this evening. 1d98

Personal.

Friends of the Hon. Sidney Smith, Q. C., of Cobourg, will regret to learn that he is seriously ill and that there is little hope for his recovery.

Annual Show.

The annual stallion and bull show of the West Riding Agricultural Society will take place on the agricultural grounds on Saturday afternoon.

Some Cases.

The monotony of "no cases" at the Police Court will be broken to-morrow, when a charge of using grossly insulting and abusive language and nine charges for non-payment of Statute Labor tax will come before the Magistrate.

The Wheelmen.

A meeting of the bicyclists of the town for the purpose of re-organizing their club will be held this evening. A full attendance is requested. The meeting will take place at 8 p. m. at Hartley's music store. It is found that without proper organization the cyclists can avail but little.

OUR Teas, Coffee and Spices at The Pantry are remarkable for their excellent quality and low prices. d96

The Gun Club.

The gun club has received an invitation to visit Ottawa at an early date and shoot a match. The matter will be considered at the weekly gathering to-morrow afternoon. For this and other reasons previously given it is important that every member be promptly on hand, at the appointed hour.

St. Paul's Church

Anniversary services will be held Sabbath, May 13th. Rev. A. B. MacKay of Crescent-st. Church, Montreal, will occupy the pulpit morning and evening. Special collections for church debt. On Monday, May 14th, service of song with special choir of about 50 voices. Silver collection. See future announcements for programme. Further announcements will be made. d98 w17

Hospital Notes.

Contractor Arthur Rutherford has a large force of men at work taking out the foundation of the new Nicholls' Hospital and satisfactory progress is being made....The Trustees are planting one thousand shade trees around the new premises. This work is under the charge of a sub-committee....The stone for the foundation is all on the ground and those interested pronounce it building stone of the first quality.

Fall in Plaster.

A gentleman residing on Brock-st. has had rather a peculiar and annoying experience lately. He occupies a fine large house and has lived in it for twelve or fourteen years. Recently the plaster from the ceiling of the kitchen fell down. That in the dining room followed suit and the other day the parlor received a fine coat from the same cause. Experts say that the lathing was done too close and the plaster, three coats, was too heavy.

The Assessors.

The assessors are making but slow progress. They have finished their real assessment work, as far as visiting the houses, etc., is concerned, with the exception of a few in the first and third wards; but entering them in the books, adding up, etc., regarded by Messrs. McGrath and Aldridge as the most difficult part of the job, yet remains to be done. To rerurn the roll on the 1st of May they will have to do some tall hustling.

In Line.

And now the shoe makers and dealers have fallen into line and will adopt the clauses of the early closing law. There are seventeen dealers in town and of these three only refused to sign. As the required seventy-five per cent. attached their signatures the other trio are compelled to join in. The petition will be presented at the next Council meeting. The closing hour will be seven o'clock, each night, except Saturday.

Y. M. C. A. Lacrosse Club.

There was a large attendance of young men at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Wednesday evening at the meeting called for the purpose of organizing a lacrosse club. It was decided to proceed with the organization, and thirty-six names of members were enrolled. The following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT.—W. J. Minore.
VICE-PRESIDENT.—A. E. Scott.
SECRETARY-TREASURER.—Wm. Dee.
COMMITTEE.—Jas. Connal, W. Dundas and Chas. J. Baguley.

Messrs. Stevens and Connal were appointed to negotiate for the use of grounds for the club, and it is expected that the first practice will take place on Monday evening next. The members are enthusiastic and the club starts with bright prospects.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Economy

Men who pay fyom $5.50 to $7 per month can save between 40 and 55 dollars every year, by adopting John Carlisle's safe and easy plan of securing a home.

Raising the Roof.

The Messrs. Cumming are moving in their machinery at the new woollen mill, near the Otonabee bridge. The small brick engine house, etc., at the rear is not high enough and the roof is being raised on "jacks." When it is up to the required height, the brickwork will be built up to it. This is a cheaper and more expeditious plan than that of tearing off the roof, building the brick and then re-building the roof.

Shade Trees.

Now that shade treet are receiving attention, care should be taken not to have them planted too closely together. Trees that have not been placed far enough apart and there are some on the streets too close should be thinned out so as to leave them the proper distance from each other. It would be well, also, not to place them too near the sidewalks, and there would be less danger of the snowploughs injuring them. If the planting was done under the supervision of an official of the town these mistakes would be avoided.

Brevities.

—The Sawtelle Comedy Company are playing this week at Guelph.

—The weather just now during the day has the ring of spring about it.

—A couple of travelling photographers are taking views of the town.

—Mr. T. Cavanagh expects to occupy his new hotel in three weeks, at the latest.

—Citizens are engaged in tuning up their lawn mowers in expectations of a busy season.

—The bulbs planted in some of the beds at the Horticultural Garden last fall, are in bloom.

—The lawn sprinklers are in operation and soon the grass will assume its proper color.

—Mr. Geo. A. Cox is one of the Directors of the Citizens' Band Association, of Toronto.

—The doors of the fire station are opened and the boys remark that spring has come at last.

—Gardening operations are in progress in all portions of the town, where the frost will permit.

—Baseball is not exactly dead at Port Hope, but the members of the club are awfully sleepy.

—The week's record is still unbroken. there were no cases for trial at the Police Court this morning.

—The East Riding License Commissioners wound up the business of the past year on Wednesday.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will take place on Tuesday evening next.

—Robert Kincaid, M.D., of Peterborough, is an honored member of the Council of Queen's College, Kingston.

—The revised statutes of Ontario are about ready for distribution to Magistrates and others entitled to receive them.

—The members of the boating and rowing club have commenced to scent the season from afar and talk of organizing is rife.

—Tree planting is being prosecuted with great vigor this spring. Maples and elms appear to be the favorite kinds for shade.

—A regular adjourned meeting of the Town Council will take place on Monday evening, when more fun may be looked for.

—A couple of patches were put on the delapidated Brock-st. bridge yesterday and once more horses can travel over it with safety.

—Among the names of the donors of Scholarships to Queen's College, Kingston, we find the name of Mrs. C. J. Nicholls, Peterborough, for $1,000.

—At the great Salvation Army meeting in the Toronto Temple on Wednesday night, Adjutant Bolton, of Peterborough, led the experience meeting.

—Mr. Geo. K. Mark, who was Color Sergeant of the Peterborough Company of the Midland Battalion in the Northwest, is lying seriously ill on Wolfe Island.

—It is expected that the survey of the line of the proposed railway from Port Hope to Lake Huron, will be finished from Aurora to Shelburne this week.

—It is estimated that the quantity of maple sugar and syrup made in this vicinity this season exceeds the total made during the previous half dozen years.

—One of the Cavan men who recently went to the Northwest to join the mounted police has been sent home, there being something wrong with his physique.

—Singer Bros., the "devestators," who did business here for some time and who were before the Police Magistrate as transient traders, were recently fined for the same offence at Campbellford.

—"Come, Birdie, Come!" was the song of a couple of dozen persons on Brock-st. this morning, as they endeavored to capture a canary that had escaped from a cage. We did not learn that the chase was successful.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

A Secret Worth Knowing.

A lady in town when visiting a friend discovered a secret worth knowing, especially at this time of the year. In the course of conversation the following remarks were made:—"How lovely your room looks now, since you got it papered; what a lovely border; where did you get it?" "I got it this time at A. L. Davis & Co.'s and found that they had borders to match all their papers as well as a tremendous lot of papers to choose from, and when I asked their prices, I discovered they were just as low as anybody else's." Ladies, this is the reason why we sold more paper last year than the previous one and why we have sent our papers in the past beyond Toronto and as far east as Ottawa. Our prices in cheap paper are especially advantageous to those not requiring the higher priced papers. 2d96-1w17

District Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough District of the Methodist Church will be held in the George-st. church on Tuesday, May 22nd, at 2 o'clock. The lay delegates will assemble the next morning at 9 o'clock.

BOYS' CLOTHING

STRENGTH AND DURABILITY ARE VERY ESSENTIAL THINGS IN BOYS' CLOTHING. THE CLOTH MUST BE STRONG, THE POCKETS MUST BE STRONG, THE BUTTONS MUST BE WELL SEWED ON, &c., &c. WE CONSTANTLY KEEP THESE POINTS BEFORE US TO ENSURE SATISFACTION TO ALL BUYERS AS WELL AS TO THE BOYS. OUR BOYS' CLOTHING IS STYLISH IN APPEARANCE AND WELL TRIMMED. IN FACT OUR READY-MADES FOR BOYS WILL COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH PLENTY OF CUSTOM WORK. SEE OUR ALL WOOL SUITS. NO COMMON GOODS THESE. WELL MADE UP AND NEAT PATTERNS. OUR BOYS' CORDUROY SUITS ARE A MODEL OF CHEAPNESS AND LOOK HANDSOME.

T. DOLAN & CO.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

NEW TAILORING

—AND—

GENTS' FURNISHING

ESTABLISHMENT.

MR. GEO. BALL

desires to inform his friends and the public generally, that he will open in the store adjoining McAndrew & Noble's, opposite the market square, about the 1st of May, a splendid stock of which have been selected with the greatest care, and will be found worthy of the patronage of the gentlemen of the town.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS,

Also a complete stock of cloths suitable for spring and summer wear, including overcoatings, trouserings, tweeds, broadcloths, etc., etc.

Mr. Ball intends devoting his whole attention to the cutting department; and a practical, lengthy experience, enables him to guarantee a good, stylish fit, in well made goods. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. A trial order will convince any customer that as regard both price and style, the shop for his money is that of

GEO. BALL,

Tailor & Clothier, opposite the Market. d95 w17

MARRIED.

KIDD—COE.—At the residence of the bride's father, Chambers-st., on April 25th, 1888, by the Rev. I. Tovell, Mr. R. J. KIDD to Miss CHARLOTTE E. COE, fourth daughter of Mr. Thos. Coe, all of Peterborough.

TAYLOR—DECKER.—On the 25th April, 1888, at the residence of the bride's sister, by Rev. I. Tovell, Mr. GEORGE TAYLOR to Miss CHARITY MAUDE, daughter of Mr. Daniel Decker, both of Peterborough.

Hornford's Acid Phosphate.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

WANTED.

A STOUT INTELLIGENT BOY to learn pressroom work. Boys who are "small for their age" need not apply. REVIEW office.

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

LADIES WILL TALK

and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also

FELTS, CANVASES, PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY, SILKS, ETC., ETC

Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS

AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrared Woodrow Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

A Famous Doctor

Once said that the secret of good health consisted in keeping the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open. Had this eminent physician lived in our day, and known the merits of Ayer's Pills as an aperient, he would certainly have recommended them, as so many of his distinguished successors are doing.

The celebrated Dr. Farnsworth, of Norwich, Conn., recommends Ayer's Pills as the best of all remedies for "Intermittent Fevers."

Dr. I. E. Fowler, of Bridgeport, Conn., says: "Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."

Dr. Mayhew, of New Bedford, Mass., says: "Having prescribed many thousands of Ayer's Pills, in my practice, I can unhesitatingly pronounce them the best cathartic in use."

The Massachusetts State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, certifies: "I have made a careful analysis of Ayer's Pills. They contain the active principles of well-known drugs, isolated from inert matter, which plan is, chemically speaking, of great importance to their usefulness. It insures activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. Ayer's Pills contain no metallic or mineral substance, but the virtues of vegetable remedies in skillful combination."

Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1888.

TORONTO 14, WORCESTER 7.

THIS WAS THE RESULT OF THE GAME AT WORCESTER.

League and Association Games Yesterday—

The Canadian Lacrosse Men in England

—Manager Cushman Signs Greer

LONDON, April 12.—Our spell of inactivity, at least so far as playing lacrosse is concerned, lasts this week from Monday last, when we played Cambridge University at West Kensington, till Saturday next, when we shall play South Essex at Wanstead. But in a very honest endeavor to cover all London in two weeks and see in it all that is to be seen, we are on foot from early morning till late night. We are "doing" the city and metropolis in couples, threes or fours, going each man where his inclination calleth.

Our first trip as a team was yesterday afternoon, when we had the honor to obtain, through the office of the Canadian High Commissioner, tickets for the Speaker's gallery of the House of Commons. After hearing several lesser lights and the Solicitor-General for Ireland, "Tim" Healy, Secretary Balfour, Sir George Trevelyan and other notables speak, and after a glimpse of Grand Old Man Gladstone, we had the pleasure to witness a division on a minor question among the many bearing on Irish affairs. The Government, of course, came up smiling.

In the evening at the Halborn Restaurant we were tendered a complimentary banquet by the members of clubs in the Southern Association, of which Mr. E. T. Sachs, who made the arrangements for our reception here, is secretary. Sir Rawson Rawson, secretary to Sir Charles Metcalf when Governor-General of Canada in 1844, and confessedly an ardent lover of the game, presided, and was flanked by General Sir Francis de Winton, known favorably in Canada as secretary to one of the recent governors, and Hon. John Beverley Robinson of Toronto, who dropped in most unexpectedly rather late in the evening, and delivered one of his well-known after dinner speeches, brimful of best wishes for all present, and more especially for ourselves, loyal sons of the province he long governed so well. With such distinguished patronage and under the generous effect of fine music and eloquent speeches, our own Captain Logan and James Garvin standing well to the fore in this latter regard, our evening's enjoyment was perfect. The Hon. John and Sir Rawson exchanged reminiscences throughout the evening, to the great joy of all present.

Not to forget the prime reason of our presence here, our match with Cambridge University, past and present, on the new grounds of the Queen's Club, West Kensington, on Monday resulted in another victory for us of six goals to one. The day was a raw one and the attendance only fairly large, but as elsewhere in England, properly enthusiastic. The Cambridge men played a strong, hard game, with some clever passing, but were not in it.

Acceptable additions to our party are Mr. William McKay, "Mackie," the old-time goal keeper, whose friends will be delighted to hear that he is looking remarkably well; and Dr. A. E. Mackay, "Ab," now studying in the wards of the big hospitals here.

Torontos Again Victorious.

WORCESTER, MASS., April 25.—The weather was more pleasant to-day and there was a better attendance to see the game between the International champions and the home team. The latter, it was apparent, by the two games with the crack Canadian team, were weak in their battery, but it became evident that Worcester has a great out field, Wheeler in left took everything that came his way, accomplishing several difficult plays for which he was loudly cheered. The Torontos put up a very even and strong game except McLaughlin, who made a couple of bad throws. The visitors also batted hard and, in fact, they well maintained the reputation they have earned throughout New England of playing a well balanced, strong game. It was easily apparent that they were altogether too weighty a team for Worcester to cope with. The score:

WORCESTER.	R	B	T	P	A	E	TORONTO.	R	B	T	P	A	E
Wheeler, lf.	0	0	3	0	0	0	Burke, cf.	2	2	4	1	0	0
White, c.	1	1	9	2	0	0	Connors, lf.	1	1	2	0	0	0
Meister, 2b.	1	1	5	3	0	0	M'Laughlin, s	2	0	1	2	3	2
Flanigan, 1b	0	1	11	1	0	1	Decker, lb c.	2	1	9	2	0	0
Hamilton, cf.	0	1	2	0	0	0	Hickley, ss.	2	2	1	3	3	1
Briggs, 3b.	0	1	1	2	0	0	Thayer, c. f.	2	1	0	1	0	0
Clifford, r.f.	1	0	0	1	0	0	Kearns, 2b.	0	0	1	2	3	0
Derby, c.	0	0	2	3	1	0	Ald'wh'rst, 1b	1	1	2	9	0	0
Clare, p.	1	2	1	7	4		Smith, p.	0	0	0	7	1
Totals	4	7	34	19	5	1	Totals	14	11	27	15	8

Worcester	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	1	0	—4
Toronto	0	1	2	1	2	0	4	3	x	—14

Earned runs—Toronto 9. Three base hits—Kearns 2. Two base hits—Burke, Thayer, Wheeler, Hamilton. Stolen bases—Clare, Derby, Flanagan, Connors, Burke, Decker 2, Hickley, Thayer 2, Atkinson. First base on balls—Connors, Hickley, Flanagan, Derby, Thayer. First base on errors—Toronto 4, Worcester 1. Struck out—Burke, Smith, Clifford, Flanagan, Wheeler 2. Double plays—Burke and Hickley; Briggs and Meister and Flanagan. Passed balls, Thayer 2. Wild pitches—Clare 1, Smith 1. Time—2 hours and 15 minutes. Umpire—Lon Knight.

National League Games Yesterday.

At New York:	R.	H.	E.
New York	0	0	0
Philadelphia	0	2	0

Batteries: Welch and O'Rourke; Casey and McGuire.

Umpire: Daniels.

At Washington:	R.	H.	E.
Washington	0	0	0
Boston	0	0	1

Batteries: O'Day and Deasley; Clarkson and Kelly.

Umpire: Lynch.

American Association Games.

At Baltimore:	R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	0	2	1
Brooklyn	0	0	1

Batteries: Kilroy and Tulmer; Mays and Halbert.

Umpire: Gaffney.

At St Louis:	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	0	0	1
Cincinnati	1	0	1

Batteries: King and Boyle; Mullane and Baldwin.

Umpire: McQuaid.

At Philadelphia:	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	0	1	1
Cleveland	2	0	1

Batteries: Weyhing and Gunning; Crowell and Snyder. Umpire: Ferguson.

At Kansas City:	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	1	0	1
Louisville	2	0	3

Batteries: Toole and Briody, Ramsay and Cross. Umpire: Boescher.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

As they enter, mirth ceases. A remarkable silence falls upon the group. Everybody looks at anything but Violet and her companion.

These last advance in a leisurely manner up the room, yet with somewhat of the sneaking air of those who are in the possession of embarrassing news that must be told before much time goes by. The thought of this perhaps deadens their perception and makes them blind to the fact that the others are unnaturally quiet.

"It has been such a charming day," says Violet, at last, in a rather mechanical tone. Yet, in spite of its stiltedness, it breaks the spell of consternation and confusion that has bound the others in its chains, and restores them to speech.

They all smile, and say, "Yes, indeed," or "Oh, yes, indeed," or plain "Yes," in a breath. They all feel intensely obliged to Violet for her very ordinary little remark.

Then it is enchanting to watch the petit soins, the delicate little attentions that the women in a carefully suppressed fashion lavish upon the bride-elect,—as she already is to them. There is nothing under heaven so dear to a woman's heart as a happy love affair,—except, indeed, it be an unhappy one. Just get a woman to understand you have broken or are breaking (the last is the best) your heart about any one, and she will be your friend on the spot. It is so unutterably sweet to her to be a confidante in any secret where Dan Cupid holds first place.

Mona, rising, pushes Violet gently into her own chair, a little black-and-gold wicker thing, gaudily cushioned.

"Yes, sit there," she says, a new note of tender sympathy in her tone, keeping her hand on Violet's shoulder as the latter makes some faint polite effort to rise again. "You must indeed. It is such a dear, cozy, comfortable little chair."

Why it has become suddenly necessary that Violet should be made cozy and comfortable she omits to explain.

Then Dorothy, going up to the newcomer, removes her hat from her head, and pats her cheek, and tells her with one of her loveliest smiles that she has "such a delicious color, dearest! just like a wee bit of fresh apple-blossom!"

Apple-blossom suggests the orchard, whereon Violet reddens perceptibly, and Nolly grows cold with fright, and feels a little more will make him faint.

Lastly, Lady Rodney comes to the front with—

"You have not tired yourself, dear, I hope. The day has been so oppressively warm, more like July than May. Would you like your tea now, Violet? We can have it half an hour earlier if you wish."

All these evidences of affection Violet notices in a dreamy, far-off fashion; she is the happier because of them; yet she only appreciates them languidly, being filled with one absorbing thought, that dulls all others. She accepts the chair, the compliment, and the tea with grace, but with somewhat vague gratitude.

To Jack his brothers are behaving with the utmost bonhomie. They have called him "old fellow" twice, and once Geoffrey has slapped him on the back with a heartiness well meant, and no doubt encouraging, but trying.

And Jack is greatly pleased with them, and, seeing everything just now through a rose-colored veil, tells himself he is specially blessed in his own people, and that Geoffrey and old Nick are two of the decentest old men alive. Yet he too is a little distrait, being lost in an endeavor to catch Violet's eyes,—which eyes refuse persistently to be so caught.

Nolly alone of all the group stands aloof, joining not at all in the unspoken congratulations, and feeling indeed like nothing but the guilty culprit that he is.

"How you were all laughing when we came in," says Violet, presently; "We could hear you all along the corridor. What was it about?"

Everybody at this smiles involuntarily,—everybody, that is, except Nolly, who feels faint again, and turns a rich and lively crimson.

"It was some joke, of course?" goes on Violet, not having received any answer to her first question.

"It was," says Nicholas, feeling an answer can no longer be shirked. Then he says, "Ahem!" and turns his glance confidingly upon the carpet.

But Geoffrey, to whom the situation has its charm, takes up the broken thread.

"It was one of Nolly's good things," he says, genially. "And you know what he is capable of when he likes! It was funny to the last degree,—calculated to set any 'table in a roar.' Give it to us again, Nolly. It bears repeating. Ask him to tell it to you, Violet."

"Yes, do, Nolly," says Violet.

"Go on, Noll," exclaims Dorothy, in her most encouraging tone. "Let Violet hear it. She will understand it."

"I would, of course, with pleasure," stammers the unfortunate Nolly,—"only perhaps Violet heard it before."

"Well, really, do you know, I think she did!" says Mona, so demurely that they all smile again.

"I call this beastly mean," says Mr. Darling to Geoffrey in an indignant aside. "You all gave your oaths to secresy before I began, and now you are determined to betray me. I call it right-down shabby. And I shan't forget it, to any of you, let me tell you that."

"My dear fellow, you can't have forgotten it so soon," says Geoffrey, pretending to misunderstand this vehement whisper. "Don't be shy! or shall I refresh your memory? It was, you remember, about——"

"Oh, yes—yes—I know; it doesn't matter, (I'll pay you out for this)," says Nolly savagely, in an aside.

"Well, I do like a good story," says Violet, carelessly.

Then Nolly's last will suit you down to the ground," says Nicholas. "Besides its wit, it possesses the rare quality of being strictly true. It really occurred. It is founded on fact. He himself vouches for the truth of it."

"Oh, go on; do," says Mr. Darling, in a second aside, who is by this time a brilliant purple from fear and indignation.

"Let's have it," says Jack, waking up from his reverie, having found it impossible to compel Violet's eyes to meet his.

"It is really nothing," says Nolly, feverishly. "You have all heard it before."

"I said so," murmurs Mona, meekly. "It is quite an old story," goes on Nolly.

To be Continued.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

5,000 YARDS

—OF—

SUMMER - DRESS - GOODS

—AT—

SIX CENTS A YARD.

Early buyers have the choice. P. D. Doran is determined to make the sale of M. Sullivan's Bankrupt Stock a memorable one for the people of Peterborough. Low prices prevail.

P. D. DORAN,

No. 3, CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airl passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Championship Games To-day.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Washington v. Boston at Washington.
New York v. Philadelphia at New York.
Pittsburg v. Chicago at Pittsburg.
Indianapolis v. Detroit at Indianapolis.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

St. Louis v. Cincinnati at St. Louis.
Baltimore v. Brooklyn at Baltimore.
Kansas City v. Louisville at Kansas City.

Manager Cushman Signs Greer.

Manager Cushman yesterday signed Greer, outfielder and catcher, who was with Brooklyn last season. He ranked fourth as a catcher in the American Association last year, and had a batting average of .283. Manager Cushman says he is a first-class base-runner and has been practising pitching all winter and promises to be one of the best in the league. He will be given a trial in the box. Greer will report at Newark and play in the game to-day.

Fox Will Back Kilrain Against Sullivan.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Richard K. Fox in answer to Sullivan's challenge says he will give Kilrain $5000 or $10,000 to make a match. If Kilrain agrees to fight in a 16-foot ring it will not affect the American championship belt which Kilrain now holds, as the rules governing the belt call for a 24-foot ring. Fox will, however, give the money to Kilrain to meet Sullivan in any way Kilrain may elect.

Spots of Sport.

The Torontos play their last exhibition game to-day at Newark.

Hartnett, Toronto's first baseman, had a finger nail torn off in Worcester on Tuesday and will not play again till Saturday.

The Fisheries Treaty in the Senate.

OTTAWA, April 25.—The gay old boys in the Senate are going to have their go at the Fisheries Treaty. What will probably be a long debate on the treaty bill began this afternoon. Mr. Abbott moved the first reading of the bill as it was sent over from the House of Commons. In doing so the leader of the Government in the Red Chamber made an exhaustive review of the memorable dispute between the two great countries.

Mr. Scott, leader of the Opposition, followed, and during his remarks said some pretty hard things about Mr. Chamberlain, the English plenipotentiary.

Mr. Scott had not finished his speech when the House adjourned at 6.10.

The Bank of London's Winding-up Bill.

OTTAWA, April 25.—By a vote of 12 to 11 Mr. Hall's Committee on Banking and Commerce this morning threw out the bill to wind up the Bank of London in Canada. The directors of the bank were represented by Governor Morrison and Thomas Long of Toronto and H. E. Prudhom of London. The shareholders of the bank sent a petition that they had never been consulted about the bill providing for the winding up, and it was on this ground that the committee slaughtered it. However when the House met in the afternoon Mr. Mills (Bothwell) got a resolution through referring the bill back again with the concurrence of Mr. Hall. The directors then telegraphed from here to London to call a special meeting of the shareholders on May 4, when they will submit the bill to them for sanction. It is said the meeting ought to prove somewhat interesting to those concerned.

Curses are like processions; they return to the place whence they came.

The brave man is an inspiration to the weak, and compels a following.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

POWDER

Free from all Adulterations.

Beware of Imitations

NEW LIST

—OF—

BUILDING LOTS, &c., FOR SALE

1. That beautiful situation on Brock-st., east of and adjoining Mr. Nugent's new residence, so high above all surroundings, so central, so retired, and yet so convenient for all purposes. A most suitable place for a doctor's office and residence, or for any person wishing to reside near his office or business. Front Lot is 60x120 feet to lane, rear Lot 65x124 feet with an inexhaustible supply of first-class water. Who wants this?

2. This is an extremely Fine Lot with about 75 ft. frontage on Water-st. by 115 feet deep. It is an east front facing St. Paul's church and will be sold in one or two Lots. Act promptly.

3 Is a Fine Lot on Stewart-st. 87x115, opposite Messrs. Ha and Sheppard's beautiful mansions, protected on the north by the Chief of Police and charmed on the south by a Professor of Music.

4. In addition to the above we have Good Lots in north, east, south and west parts of the Town, and for Large Lots at low prices we would call attention to the Ludgate, Carlisle and Toronto Real Estate Investment Coy's suburban additions, where good value can be had for small investments.

For Houses and Lots in all parts of the Town, Ashburnham and Auburn we have variety and value to suit any reasonable buyer.

We have Garden Lots from one to 10 acres for sale or to rent. Also several Farms. One Large Farm with Good Buildings, Fall Crop and Ploughing to rent cheap.

All are invited to call at our office or write for further particulars.

HURLEY & BUNTON

Hunter Street.

All kinds of General Printing executed promptly at the REVIEW Printing Office.

Buy the Genuine Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos. Also the Williams Sewing Machine.

D. SMART,
Only Authorized Agent for Town and County of Peterborough.

CARSLAKE'S GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

		Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3 000 each prize.	$6,000
2nd " " "	$2,000 " "	$4,000
3rd " " "	$1,000 " "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally)	$2,000
in duplicate		$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally)	$4,500 in duplicate	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.
Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888
Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.
Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.
22d eod-1mos Mansion House, Montreal

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted in person the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL MEANS. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it.

Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar

S. PERRIN, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—After using your PINE TAR CORDIAL for the last ten years in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending its use by everybody for every description of coughs and colds. It has no equal among the many cordials offered for sale, and I believe the only safe remedy to use. WILLIAM FOLEY
Hardware Merchant, Lindsay

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d18

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 475, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St., north. d20

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d18

T. B. MCGRATH,

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. lyd109

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 792. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. lyd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin street. P. O. address, Box 671. lyd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 381. lyd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 885; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 569, Peterborough P. O. d82-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d81y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d38w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, and SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d115w15

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN. d103w14

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.
E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant F. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md118w2

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. wd57

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d98w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: Wade of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d23w26

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884.
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.
(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d111w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL, Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office ca Hunter street opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. T. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m		10 00 p m
10 55 p m	Toronto and West, via G. T. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m		10 00 p m
8 30 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	8 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	8 00 a m
5 50 p m		8 00 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope.	11 00 a m
5 15 p m	do do	8 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 15 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville	11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Hamltale, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Pandash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Gregwich and Rimwalks, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 p m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Per New York, Mondays.	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. to each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund ay excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibralter, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanics and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanics Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanics and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers cents. R. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 99. PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY
T. W. ROBINSON,
Manager.

WOOL
Blankets
AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY
Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES
TO
Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry
Queenstown.
Also to Italian and German Points
Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES
AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

WORKING JEWELLER.
E. B. D. LAFLEUR.
JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

GLOVES
—FOR—
Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.
We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.
Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb
Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE PLACE
to buy your
GROCERIES
—IS—
Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods
guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney
PALACE GROCERY
GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS TENTS!!!
To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of
AWNING STRIPES,
in every color and design. All kinds of
Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at
J. J. TURNER'S,
Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

Extra Quality Leather
Belting, Lace Leather,
Cut Laces,
Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals
Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine
Oils, Mill Supplies.
Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

If you have A COUGH
TRY
NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL
It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY
is the best is use for
SOUR STOMACH, HEART-BURN, & INDIGESTION.
PRICE 35 CENTS.
Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough

For Sale or to Rent

WHY PAY RENT
WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough. Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.
COMFORTABLE DWELLING, with say 7 or 8 rooms in convenient locality. Address G. R. C., care of REVIEW office. 3d99

WANTED.
2 SERVANTS. One for general housework and one as cook. Apply at NICHOLLS HOSPITAL. 3d99

WANTED.
A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.
THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.
COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.
THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr Boncher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
THE BEST COAL
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

R. F. MORROW
GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry. Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1yd&w

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.
Lace Curtains beautifully cleaned and finished 40 cents a pair.
Lace Curtains beautifully dyed all shades and finished, 90 cents per pair, at PARKER'S Steam Dye Works.
6d94

OPERA HOUSE
2—NIGHTS—2
Commencing Monday, April 30th
THE GREAT ENGLISH ACTRESS,
CLAIRE SCOTT
—Supported by—
S. K. COBURN,
And a strictly first-class Company, in the following grand repertoire:—
Elizabeth, Queen of England,
Mary Queen of Scots.
MAGNIFICENT COSTUMES,
ELEGANT STAGE SETTING,
GRAND TABLEAUX.
Each play will be presented in the same artistic manner as when played at high prices. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. Plan now open at Hartley's Music Store. 5d97

Henry Pace
PRACTICAL
Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.
SHOP IN
MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK
Water St., Peterborough.

SCABLER & DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being bo practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
H. C. SCABLER. 1yd38 JAS. R. DONELL

A. CLEGG.
Leading Undertaker.
WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

LADIES
WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF
Ladies' Underclothing
IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN
NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.
Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly
We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.
FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1888.

SATISFACTORILY ARRANGED.

The Esplanade Question Settled—Full Terms of the Agreement.

OTTAWA, April —There is every reason to believe that the Esplanade question has been settled at last, and the people of Toronto may now hope that that great thoroughfare is to be made one of safety to the citizens and equitably divided as to the railways.

Mayor Clarke, Ald. John McMillan, chairman of the Executive Committee of the City Council, and W. D. Matthews, President of the Board of Trade, arrived here on a special train at 11 o'clock to-night from Montreal, where they have had a 22 hours' conference extending over two days with Mr. Hickson and Mr. Van Horne, City Solicitor Biggar and City Engineer Sproatt, who were also engaged in the conference, went through to Toronto to-night.

The arrangement, which is apparently satisfactory to all concerned, is briefly this:

A union station is to be built by the two big railways on the site of the present one, extending to the southwards. A street is to be constructed in the rear, running from York to Simcoe-street.

The Grand Trunk is to construct an overhead bridge, solely at its own expense, at John-street, extending southwards to the City Waterworks property.

Overhead bridges are to be constructed at Yonge and York-streets at the joint expense of the city and the railroads.

Three or more similar bridges are to be constructed at points east of Yonge-street as the city may determine necessary.

The Canadian Pacific conceded to the city sufficient space on its property on the east side of York-street to build the bridge at this point, which will span the railway tracks to the Canadian Pacific property on the south, a sufficiency of which is also conceded to the city.

The Canadian Pacific will have an independent entrance from the Don running north of Gooderham & Worts' distillery to Berkeley-street, where it will cross the Grand Trunk tracks on the Esplanade. From this point westwards to the new Union Station both roads will have mutual running powers over the four or more tracks that exist or may be built. The passenger trains of both roads will run over the southern track, the centre tracks will be used for freight trains by both roads, and the northern track will also be used jointly by both roads. Switches will be constructed from the northern track to connect with the premises of business people along the Esplanade, as may be required by them and as per arrangement with either road.

There is also mutual provision made for the use of tracks west of the station to Brock-street, and to guarantee an independent entrance from the west to the Canadian Pacific.

The portions of the agreement in which the city and the railroads are jointly concerned, those of the York and Yonge street bridges, were signed by Mayor Clarke on behalf of the city, by Mr. Hickson on behalf of the Grand Trunk and by Mr. VanHorne for the Canadian Pacific. The agreements in which the railroads are alone concerned were signed by the managers.

Mayor Clarke said to The World to-night: "I think we have come to a satisfactory agreement at last, one which is mutually beneficial to all concerned. We were in session fourteen hours on Wednesday and eight hours to-day. Mr. Hickson and Mr. VanHorne met us in a spirit of fairness, and I think we have brought about a settlement that the citizens of Toronto should accept as in their interest. I hope the City Council will view it in this light and agree to its ratification."

Mr. Matthews and Ald. McMillan also expressed a wish that the citizens would accept the settlement as satisfactory.

After his arrival to-night, Mayor Clarke explained the terms of the agreement to Ald. Shaw, Galbraith and Gibbs, who have been here all day.

The Canadian Pacific running to the north of the distillery may have some litigation with Gooderham & Worts, but that is a matter in which the city or the Grand Trunk is not concerned.

The Railway Committee will be informed to-morrow that the matter which Mr. Small's bill was intended to provide for has been settled and the bill will be withdrawn.

Capital Notes.

OTTAWA, April 26.—Sir Donald A. Smith entertained these gentlemen at dinner last evening: John Small, M.P., ex-Judge Clark, Ald. Gibbs, Ald. Shaw, Ald. Galbraith and W. H. Knowlton of Toronto.

Mr. F. Pelletier, who was the Government candidate in Beauharnois, has been appointed Chief Clerk in the Secretary of State's Department at a salary of $1800.

Senator Alexander proposes moving on Monday next for a select Committee to enquire into and report on the disposition of all the remaining assets of the Bank of Upper Canada, which a former Minister of Finance declared in his report to Parliament certainly amounts to $388,000, since which report there has been no account submitted to the peoples' representatives. The committee named is Senators Abbott, Miller, McInnes (B. C.) Macdonald (Midland), and the prover.

Sir Charles Tupper will deliver his Budget speech to-morrow.

The debate in the Senate on the Treaty Bill was continued until 10.45 to-night. Senators Scott, Miller, Alexander and Haythorn were the speakers. The debate will be continued to-morrow, and it is expected the bill will receive its third reading.

Rescue Creighton's Damarres.

QUEBEC, April 26.—The demurrer to the indictment in the Mercier-Creighton libel case was argued by counsel this morning and the judges will probably give a decision to-morrow morning.

THE PROGRAM OF PARNELL

THE IRISH LEADER ON THE PROSPECTS OF HOME RULE.

He is in Sympathy with the Struggles of Irishmen to Assert Their Rights—Prospects of Immediate Change—The Irish County Councils Bill.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Times' London correspondent had an interview last evening with Mr. Parnell. The correspondent said: "Mr. Parnell, what view do you take of the claim that even the coercion law ought to be obeyed under all circumstances?"

The Irish leader replied: "While usually holding it to be especially necessary at this time that the Irish people be most circumspect in avoiding the commission of any illegality, I consider that so far as regards actions which are newly constituted offences by the coercion measure of last session—such as the maintenance of the organization of the National League in proclaimed districts, the assertion of the rights of freedom of public meeting, liberty of speech, and freedom of the press in proclaimed districts, all of which are struck at by the Crimes Act—I say that the Irish people are absolutely bound to refuse to obey such an iniquitous law, and to deny that it has any moral sanction. Their struggle to assert these rights has my entire sympathy. I consider that they are carrying it on most bravely. I believe that the names of the men—many of them in humble positions—who are cheerfully facing a plank bed and the rigors of penal imprisonment in defense of their principles, will worthily live in the history of our country."

As to the prospects of some immediate change Mr. Parnell is not sanguine. He said: "From all the indications afforded by the by-elections, it is evident that at the next general election those electors who abstained from voting in 1886, and thereby returned the Tory Government with 100 majority, will in the main vote to restore Mr. Gladstone to power with about a similar majority. It cannot be too clearly understood that it was the abstentions, the abstentions only, of Liberal voters throughout Great Britain which did the mischief; but as to when the opportunity of a general election will come is a question. The time is only just approaching in which it will be possible to test the cohesion of the Liberal-Unionists to their Tory allies. The Government is rather prematurely pluming itself on the unopposed second reading of the Local Government Bill. This measure depends on a multitude of details, and the battle ground of these will be in committee. In that stage at any moment a question may arise which will really strain the solidarity of the Unionist coalition. Many important interests are assailed. The Tory country party view with distrust and dislike the whole measure, and are sure to show this by a bad attendance on committee.

"But whether or not we succeed in upsetting the Government this year over the Local Government Bill or some other question, it must be remembered that the final result of the restoration of a Parliament to Ireland is assured beyond a doubt. For an event of such magnitude, which up to 1885 was certainly not expected save as the doubtful outcome of years of struggle and suffering, but which has now become the certain pacific prospect of a year or two, we can surely afford to have a little patience.

"To the American people especially, without whose aid we could have made none of this enormous advance, and who, looking from a distance, may be disposed to regard the present progress as slow when compared with the stride taken in 1885, I would say that what we have to do at present is to use the interval to consolidate and secure our ground for the next step, when the time to take it arrives, with every confidence that it will be the final and crowning one. Although the pause may seem to be long, it is essential and valuable. It is as nothing compared with the many centuries that Ireland has waited in hopeless misery and sacrifice. We must know how to learn to wait as well as how to advance. The most victorious armies of history have been compelled at times to rest in seeming inactivity behind their trenches, and it is just as much necessary for a nation, if it desires freedom, to learn how to do this at the proper time in patience as it is for an army.

"I have said a period of waiting was an advantage to us. It is educating, and will educate the people of Great Britain. Men who in 1885 followed Mr. Gladstone in his great measure from belief in the man, now follow him as well from belief in the cause. There are thousands of Liberals throughout the country who at that time were without sufficient information to enable them to defend Mr. Gladstone's policy, and who are now as ardent Home Rulers and as capable exponents as any of the Irish members themselves. In Ulster, too, this improvement is noticeable. I believe from all I hear that if an election were to take place we should make a net gain of three members there. If the Ulster Presbyterians once become convinced that they will not get land reform without Home Rule, they will become Home Rulers, and the present Government most stupidly, I think, is doing all it can do to compel this conviction.

"Churchill's speech this afternoon on the Irish County Councils Bill was one of the most important of the session, and certainly the ablest he has ever delivered on any subject. His disclosure of the views held by Salisbury's cabinet in 1886 was of the first magnitude in importance, diametrically opposed as they are to the views announced by Balfour in the debate to-day. His foreshadowing of grave disaster to the Tory party at the polls in a general election, perhaps close at hand, produced a tremendous sensation and seemed most ominous. In fact, the speech was undoubtedly the hardest blow this Government has yet received, and it will have far-reaching results in the country. Those results, towards which events are shaping, must be in our favor. Let us wait alertly, but still in patience, and see what they are."

Manitoba's Legislature.

WINNIPEG, April 26.—In the Legislature to-day Mr. Norquay moved that the clause disfranchising the civil service be struck out. Mr. Roblin moved in amendment that all permanent salaried employes of the province be disfranchised. An acrimonious debate followed.

By the Redistribution Bill Mr. Norquay will have to seek a new seat, he being swamped by the Icelandic vote, which is Liberal. Speaker Glass is wiped out of existence and Mr. Macbeth of Kildonan is seriously affected.

Walked Thirteen Miles to Meet Him.

WINNIPEG, April 26.—Mrs. Orchard and F. M. Edey of Austin eloped Monday and came to Winnipeg. Edey sent his wife to Montreal recently, sold his farm and started ostensibly for British Columbia. He only went a short west and returned. Mrs. Orchard walking thirteen miles to Burnside station to meet him. No one suspected the intimacy between the parties. She leaves a little boy and girl behind. Their arrest was telegraphed for, but could not be made, as they disappeared.

Northumberland Assizes.

COBOURG, April 26.—At the Assizes to-day, in Heard v. Rivers, an action for seduction of plaintiff's daughter, a verdict was entered for plaintiff by consent for $600 damages.

Ice Jam at Selkirk.

WINNIPEG, April 26.—An ice jam at Selkirk split the steamer Marquette in two and damaged smaller craft.

THE NATIONALISTS' PROGRAM.

Formulated by Premier Mercier and Enunciated by Mr. Fortien.

MONTREAL, April 26.—Some excitement has been caused in local political circles by a speech of Thos. Fortien at Ste. Rose, in which he defined the platform the Nationalists as formulated by Premier Mercier. This includes rigid Provincial Home Rule, readjustment of the Federal subsidy, encouragement of education by paying the teachers well, no direct taxation, no legislative union, no Imperial Federation, reduction of the budget by consolidating the floating debt, considerably reducing interest on temporary loans by converting the funded debt, increasing the revenue (1) by application of the commercial tax yielding an annual revenue of nearly $100,000, (2) by modifying the crown lands regulations, giving an annual surplus of $150,000, (3) by increasing the revenue from license through a more severe application of the law and by temperance legislation, establishment of a special Minister of Agriculture and improvement of the agricultural system, abolition of tolls on highways and bridges, regulation by arbitration of accounts with Ontario relative to the old school fund, enlargement of the Province of Quebec by the addition of a territory larger than its present superficies, substantial encouragement to railways at all points of the province, and regulation of the Jesuits' estates question.

The Combines.

OTTAWA, April 26.—Owing to certain statements made to the Combines Committee J. A. Mathewson is being prosecuted for libel by another wholesale grocer of Montreal, D. Lockerby. This circumstance has led the committee to consider if it would not be well for steps to be taken to protect witnesses against prosecution arising out of testimony given before the committee. A curious feature in connection with this suit against Mr. Mathewson is that a letter put in by him is his evidence and which is material to his defence in the suit, has mysteriously disappeared from the records of the committee. Before it was lost Mr. Lockerby, through one of the members, secured a copy which will be of service on his side.

Mr. Rogers of Toronto gave additional evidence to-day, and he and Chairman Wallace had another wordy battle. Being asked about his purchasing prices, Mr. Rogers told the committee that he didn't think they had a right to ask him about such private matters, as it would hurt him in his business and benefit his rivals. He thought the committee should be satisfied with his definite statement that the season's profits had not exceeded 25 cents a ton. He also intimated that he did not care personally how soon Parliament passed a law prohibiting such organizations as the one of which he was a member.

James Boomer, Secretary of the Western Assurance Company of Toronto, testified that he did not believe that the insurance combine tended to increase the price of risks.

The Mackenzie Basin.

OTTAWA, April 26.—At Senator Schultz' Mackenzie River Committee this morning, Prof. Macoun gave a good deal of interesting information about that great country. He gave particulars of the fauna flora and vegetation of the district, dwelling particularly upon its grasses and vetches, which extended from the southern limit of the Mackenzie basin up to the Laird River near Fort Simpson and probably beyond that point, as no examination had yet been made of the region. The district between the Mackenzie River and the Rocky Mountains was a very valuable one.

The Professor also stated that all the rivers flowing into the Arctic Sea except the Mackenzie, contained salmon in very large numbers. He accounted for their absence from the Mackenzie by the fact of its being a muddy stream, which passed for 2000 miles through an alluvial country, but he stated it contained other fish of great value commercially.

INDEPENDENT WORKINGMEN.

Hamilton Non-Unionists to Form an Association—Impure Milk.

HAMILTON, April 26.—A movement is now afoot towards the formation of an independent workingmen's association, the membership in which is to consist of all non-union workers in the building trades. A meeting with this object in view is to be held on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. All non-union carpenters, bricklayers and laborers are invited to attend. The present labor situation in the city will be fully discussed.

Dr. Ryall, the medical health officer, is taking effective measures to have the milk supply of the city pure and of good quality. His examinations of milk and the places where the cattle are kept in the city have afforded convincing proof that dirt and rain water enter largely into the local supply of milk.

In connection with the case against young Holman for carrying a pistol, a curious point has arisen. The confiscated pistol is claimed by J. Holman, the gunsmith, who says that his son took it from the shop in direct opposition to his orders. The police say that the only way he can make good his claim is to charge his son with stealing it.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon William Brooks was driving a wagon containing several barrels of hot distillery swill along King-street west. As he reached the corner of King and Caroline streets a front wheel of the wagon rolled off, and the horse made a start. The barrels fell over, and the driver and horse were severely scalded, the flesh having peeled off the man's right leg from the thigh down. The horse also suffered terribly.

William McCallum and Joseph Armstrong were charged at the Police Court this morning with stealing a pocketbook, containing $6.60, from Luella Mortimer, a dashing demi-mondaine from Brantford. The case was adjourned until Tuesday, and McCallum and Armstrong were held on $400 bail.

CHAT FROM THE CAPITAL.

ALL EYES TURNED ON THE CABINET VACANCY.

Governor Dewdney Mentioned for the Interior—What's the Matter with Ned Clarke?—Probability of a Lively Little Shuffle in Portfolios in the Near Future.

OTTAWA, April 26.—This was a busy day at the Capital. Things were on the jump, the weather was fine, and the air was full of political rumors. All eyes are now turned on the Cabinet vacancy, or more properly speaking, the probable vacancies. The sorrow that has overhung the House for the past three or four days now begins to lift, and the men that make Cabinets on paper are up to their eyes in prophecies. There exists, without doubt, a decided dearth of Cabinet timber at the present writing, and the "Old Man" is looking all around for something gamey and young.

A general accepted rumor is that the Premier is going outside the House for one new Minister at least. Who will that be?

Governor Dewdney of the Northwest Territories spends a great deal of time in trying to "interview" Sir John, with more or less success. Several of his friends are not slow to prophesy that he will be the new Minister of the Interior. Mr. Dewdney is not personally popular on either side of the House, but he is admitted to be fairly well qualified for the portfolio of the late Mr. White.

Down from the Queen City of the West is wafted a tender little story of the Cabinet this evening, and after it reached here it was carefully fanned into circulation. It is to the effect that Our Own Wee Johnnie Small is to "be provided for," and that he will resign his seat in Parliament, that Mayor Clarke will be his successor for the East, and that moreover Mr. Clarke will join the Cabinet, in what capacity rumor sayeth not. Mr. Small's name has on more than one occasion been mentioned in connection with the Toronto Custom House. However, if Mr. Clarke were asked to join the Cabinet he would not have to go begging for a seat, even if the East Toronto arrangement did not pan out. There is Cardwell to fall back on. Cardwell is safe for the right kind of a Conservative, and what's the matter with Ned Clarke as a G.C.? His Worship arrived in Ottawa from Montreal late to-night, but the subject was not broached to him in any direct way.

Other Cabinet rumors are thick, and many of them furious. There is no doubt whatever that Sir Charles Tupper will resume the High Commissionership at London just as soon as Parliament rises, and that means another vacancy. Then poor John Henry Pope is away down in the scale of health and there seems to be slight prospects of him ever again becoming a robust Cabinet Minister. The gossips further allege that the Minister of Justice is to go on the Bench of the Supreme Court whenever a vacancy occurs. This might be possible if a vacancy did not occur for a year or more, but it is not at all likely that Sir John would care about parting with a man of Mr. Thompson's abilities at present, especially when he has lost so much valuable material by death and sickness.

The country may look for a lively little shuffle in portfolios in the near future.

The legal fraternity throughout the country may learn for a certainty from The World this morning that there will be no May term of the Supreme Court. The Minister of Justice to-day said he had decided to abandon his bill providing for making four, instead of five Justices, a quorum of the court, as there was considerable opposition to it passing through Parliament as an emergency measure.

Mr. Justice Henry is reported somewhat better to-night, but there is no hope whatever that he will be sufficiently recovered to take his seat in time for the May term.

The docket is a remarkably heavy one and includes several election cases. This lapse of an important term of the court will delay and congest its business very much.

Toronto had an innings at the Capital to-day. The Queen City was well and extensively represented in the corridors of the House and around the hotels. I hardly know where to begin to describe them.

First there was Postmaster T. C. Patteson, who came early on the wing from Montreal. Mr. Patteson had a long conference with Mr. McLelan, and as a result Toronto will, it is expected, have a better city delivery and more letter carriers. Mr. Patteson dined at Government House this evening and left for Toronto at midnight.

Mr. George Musson, the tea man, had to come down to see that the people in his line were not affected by Sir Charles Tupper's latest resolutions respecting the Customs Act. There is still considerable doubt about those resolutions and what they really mean. Sir Charles, however, says plainly that the new Section 9, commonly known as the "Statutory offer," does not at all affect the order-in-council placing certain articles on the free list. That order-in-council is just the same as a statute and has nothing to do with the proposed amendment to sec. 9. Mr. Musson was told by Sir Charles that the tea men were in no way affected.

F. W. Barwick was strutting around on general principles. He said he had no axe to grind. Mr. W. H. Knowlton gave a similar report to The World. Matt O'Connor said he was in town to see if he could not get a contract to paint the Capital green.

A Husband's Vengeance.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 26.—Charles Marks, superintendent of the electric light plant, and Mrs. Roush, were shot three times each last evening by Mr. Roush, who came upon the pair [illegible] in a thicket. Both will die. Roush escaped.

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

BARGAINS IN SILKS AT ROSWE'S,
BARGAINS IN DRESS GOODS,
BARGAINS IN HOSIERY,
BARGAINS IN GLOVES
BARGAINS!
BARGAINS IN PRINTS
BARGAINS IN COTTONS,
BARGAINS IN RIBBONS,
BARGAINS IN FRILLINGS,
BARGAINS IN BUTTONS AT ROWSE'S.

ROWSE'S.

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general roficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need f Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1888.

SIXTY-NINE YEARS OLD

ANNIVERSARY OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODDFELLOWS.

The Celebration in Peterborough—Mass Meeting of the Brethern—Addresses and Songs—Drill Exercises by Patriarchs Militant.

The sixty-ninth anniversary of the introduction of the Order of Oddfellows into America was celebrated on Thursday night by a mass meeting of Oddfellows held in the rooms of Otonabee Lodge. There was a very good attendance of members, and short and pointed speeches, songs, readings and recitations, and drill exercises by Canton Peterborough, made up an interesting programme.

Bro. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., D. D. G. M., presided, and on the platform were also Bro. Dr. Bell, Grand Warden, and Bros. J. Mathieson, N.G., of Otonabee Lodge, Wm. Cowle, P.G. and acting N.G. of Peterborough Lodge, and E. E. Henderson, P.G.

The CHAIRMAN said it afforded him pleasure to be present and preside on this occasion. During his brief public career he had presided at different meetings, but none had given him more gratification. It was pleasing to know that they had in the Order representatives of the best classes of their citizens—artisans, professional and business men. They had members in the Town Council and Board of Education. They also had a member at Ottawa—who would have been pleased to be with them to-night—representing the county and the West Riding particularly in the House of Commons, and they had a member of the Order in the Ontario Legislature also representing this Riding. This showed that they had the best classes of citizens in their lodges.

"God Save the Queen" was sung by the company.

Bro. J. MATHIESON gave an interesting reading, "Let By-gones be By-gones."

Bro. WM. COWIN said that in no other Order was the element of co-operation and friendly assistance so fully developed as in the Order of Oddfellows. No member should relegate his duties to another, and he urged constant and punctual attendance at the lodge meetings.

At this point word was received that the Chevaliers of the Canton were at the door. They had marched to the room from the skating rink. They filed into the hall, in their beautiful uniforms, under command of Capt. McNeil and led by Lieut. Millis. Having formed in line in the centre of the room, they were dismissed to seats according to the manual amid applause.

Bro. JOHN NUGENT recited "The Moneyless Man," descriptive of the usual treatment accorded the poor, which, he said, was in contrast with the teachings of benevolence this Order impressed on its members.

Chevalier James Hendry sang a spirited Scotch song, "Jock o' Hazel Dean."

Bro. BELL, Grand Warden, gave an address on the rise, progress, aims and objects of the Order. He was pleased to see the members present, but thought, considering the large membership in the town, that even more should have been present. He referred to the importance of regular attendance at the meetings. He spoke of the origin of the Order, which tradition said was among the Hebrews. After the taking of Jerusalem they were admitted to citizenship, and were fellows with the citizens of the Empire. On account of knowing each other by night as well as by day, members of the Order were called Oddfellows. There was a record of the Order in England in 1745, and in 1812 it was reorganized. In 1819 the order was introduced into America, Thos. Wildis, of Baltimore, being instrumental in forming a lodge on the 26th of April of that year. The Order had steadily grown in America, until it numbered over half a million of members. It was the largest fraternal benevolent organization in existence. Its object was to elevate men morally, intellectually, socially and physically. It aimed to assist the members, to minister to the afflicted, to aid the distressed, bury the dead and care for the widows and orphans. It acknowledged the "fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man." It taught temperance in all things. He gave particulars of the methods of giving assistance. They initiated 50,000 members a year, and expended over $2,000,000 a year or $6,000 a day in benevolence. There were lodges of the Order in almost all countries in the world, and the Order was very strong in Australia. There were over 8,000 subordinate lodges in existence. Of the membership there were 100,000 in the Encampments and 20,000 chavellers in the Cantons. There were also 67,000 lady members as Daughters of Rebecca. The Order was first introduced in Canada at Montreal in 1843 and into Ontario in 1846. Now there were 222 lodges in existence, and in Ontario the membership was 15,356. In 1855 there were 12 lodges in Ontario. He gave statistics showing the progress of the Order in this Province. The daily average spent in this Province for relief was $147.13 From 1855 to 1887 they had thus expended almost half a million, or $1.38 an hour. The greatest benefits of the Order were not counted in dollars and cents. He contended that the order was not a secret society; the secrets being merely tests of membership to prevent imposition. In conclusion he read an eloquent approval of Oddfellowship delivered by a clergymen.

Bro. ROBT. LEE, P.G., spoke briefly, and made announcements regarding the church parade. He was the first member who rode the goat in Peterborough Lodge and the first to do the same in the Encampment at Port Hope, so that, though a young man, he was an old Oddfellow.

An intermission followed, during which refreshments were served in an adjoining decorated dining room.

The Canton then gave an exhibition of sword drill, silent manual, which was exceedingly well executed by the chevaliers under command of Capt. McNeil, and the drill drew forth loud applause.

Chaveller MOORE said that the display made by the Canton was in accordance with an innate desire in human nature for display of some kind. Other institutions were providing for this desire and Oddfellowship had to do so too. The Cantons had been of great benefit to the Order, and wherever they existed the Encampments and Lodges flourished,

Bro. E. E. HENDERSON said that with their 300 members they should be a power for good in the community. After further interesting remarks he introduced a humorus reading, "A Love Letter."

Capt. MCNEIL said he was proud of the harmodious and earnest manner in which the chavliers had gone into the work, and that, too, in the interest of Oddfellowship. The Canton had 41 members and 34 uniformed members.

Bro. J. J. HARTLEY said that Oddfellowship stood high in his estimation. He complimented the chevaliers on the way they had gone through the sword drill, and concluded a brief speech by saying his heart was with the Order.

Bro. R. M. ROY gave an exhibition of mystery, introducing various clever deceptions, including the "decapitated head." They were all interesting and were received with favor.

Bro. J. L. HUGHES gave a short address, emphasizing the social benefits of Oddfellowship.

The singing of "Auld Lang Syne," by Mr. J. Hendry followed, the whole company joining heartily in the chorus.

The CHAIRMAN thanked the members, on behalf of the committee, for their attendance and predicted further successes for Oddfellowship.

A vote of thanks was tendered the chairman and the celebration concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

FOOD TESTS IN NEW YORK.

Official Analysis of Baking Powders—Adulterations in Cream of Tartar.

Under the direction of the New York State Board of Health, eighty-four different kinds of baking powders, embracing all the brands that could be found for sale in the State, were submitted to examination and analysis by Prof. C. F. Chandler, a member of the State Board and President of the New York City Board of Health, assisted by Prof. Edward G. Love, the well known United States Government chemist.

The official report shows that a large number of the powders examined were found to contain alum or lime; many of them to such an extent as to render them seriously objectionable for use in the preparation of human food.

Alum was found in twenty-one samples. This drug is employed in baking powders to cheapen their cost. The presence of lime is attributed to the impure cream of tartar of commerce used in their manufacture. Such cream of tartar was also analyzed and found to contain lime and other impurities; in some samples to the extent of 93 per cent. of their entire weight.

All the baking powders of the market, with the single exception of "Royal" (not including the alum and phosphate powders, which have not the virtue of even an impure cream of tartar), are made from the adulterated cream of tartar of commerce, and consequently contain lime to a corresponding extent.

The only baking powder yet found by chemical analysis to be entirely free from lime and absolutely pure is the "Royal." This perfect purity results from the exclusive use of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove the tartarate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and on account of this greater cost is used in no baking powder but the "Royal."

Prof. Love, who made the analysis of baking powders for the New York State Board of Health, as well as for the Government, says of the purity and wholesomeness of the "Royal":—

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates or other injurious substance. E. G. LOVE, PH. D."

It is highly satisfactory to the housekeepers of this vicinity, where the Royal Baking Powder is in general use, that the investigations by the analysts in Massachusetts, New York, and Ohio, the only States that have thus far taken action upon this important subject, agree in classing it as the purest and most efficient baking powder in the market.

A Cold Bed.

About ten o'clock on Thursday night police-officer Stewart, while going his rounds, found a man lying asleep on a heap of rubbish, in a narrow passage off Chambers-st. The officer woke him up and found that he was not drunk, but that he had laid down where he was found because he had no other place to sleep. He occupied the tramps' quarters at the station during the remainder of the night.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A DISCOURSE ON PERTINENT POINTS.

Goughs in Humor and Eloquence.

LEND US YOUR EARS. WE'LL AMPLY REWARD YOUR LENDING.

We'll read you a lecture full of Eloquence on how to save money. We'll teach you the Humorous points of the Clothing Trade. Humor and Eloquence have a place in our business as well as on the public platform. We Humor every day the wants and wishes of Customers. We spend tons of Eloquence in expatiating on the value and virtues of our stock. It's not wasted. When we make a satisfied customer we gain the benefit of his Eloquence. Does he not call together his friends and neighbors and boom the many advantages of dealing at GOUGH'S. We purpose to send rolling down the aisles of time a booming echo that shall carry to posterity the fame of the Great and Wonderful Cheap Men, the Giant Clothiers: the People's Progressive and Popular Providers: the Napoleons of the Clothing Trade of Peterborough. (Cheers and Applause).

GOLDEN OPINIONS.

"Had I worn GOUGHS' best fine of Trousers, I might even now have been in power. Have I made a mistake?" E——d Bl—e.

"It strikes me that these GOUGHS are benefactors to the people of the Midland District. They should be in the Cabinet. Wish to thunder I could catch them." Sir J—n Mc——d.

"What we do not want is Commercial Union. What we absolutely need is many more men like GOUGH BROS., of Peterborough, they are a Commercial Union themselves." Sir L——d T——y.

"The men who can sell two suits where only one suit was sold before are clearly philanthrophists of the first water. I don't say I mean GOUGH BROS., but I am looking that way all the same." Hon. Mac——e B——l.

"(At Cincinnati)—"The greatest stumbling block to absolute Free Trade with Canada, is, I find, the business done by GOUGH BROS., at Peterborough. Our best men can do no better. They could'nt if they would. Their cheap prices and good goods are a standing menace to Annexation." E——s W——n.

See our Boy's Suits at 69c., Men's Working Suits at $2.50 worth $5.50, Working Pants (Men's) 25c. per pair.

GOUGH BROS.,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

Civic.

A meeting of the Finance Committee of the Town Council will take place at 7.30 o'clock this evening, to prepare for the Council on Monday evening.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Plate Glass.

One of the large plates of glass in the shop occupied by Mr. J. McComb, glove manufacturer, Water-st, cracked recently. The light was insured and the agents of the company, Messrs. Wilson & Morrison, replaced it on Thursday afternoon.

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the GREAT MODERN REMEDY. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are often afflicted with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts. 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle.

DURING 5 YEARS

stay in Peterborough I have engraved over 6000 Coins, Repaired over 4000 Watches, besides Engraving Brass Plates, Repairing Jewellery, Clocks, etc. Still I am much in the position of Oliver Twist—I want more. English Levers and Old Country Bulls Eyes, accurately Repaired.

IRVING

M. H. J. L. E.

SIMCOE-ST., WEST OF GEORGE.

d97-wtf-1yr

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil,

GEORGE STREET.

DR. HODDER'S BURDOCK AND SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND

CURES

LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, KIDNEY TROUBLES, RHEUMATISM SKIN DISEASES and all IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD FROM WHAT EVER CAUSE ARISING.

Female weakness and General Debility.

PURELY VEGETABLE, HIGHLY CONCENTRATED, PLEASANT EFFECTUAL SAFE

ASK FOR

DR. HODDER'S COMPOUND

Take no other. Sold everywhere. Price 7 cents per bottle.

DR. HODDER'S COUGH AND LUNG CURE

Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Proprietors and manufacturers, THE UNION MEDICINE CO., Toronto Can

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately-flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by grocers labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England 1yr17

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

THE CHALLENGE!

The Challenge we Extend to all Competitors is to meet our ducements if they can. We respect honorable rivals and have nothing personal to say regarding any man. Let Merit win. And be sure and see our Bargains before buring—or you are liable to be left.

THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT SALE.

Special Bargains this Week.

HERE THEY ARE:

We are Selling BEAUTIFUL SILKS for 50c. per yard, Worth $1.
We are Selling LOVELY BLACK SILKS for 90c. per yard, Worth $1.25
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.00 per yard, Worth $1.50.
We are Selling LOVELY SILKS for $1.50 per yard, Worth $2.25.
We are Selling DUCHESS SATINS for 65c. per yard, Worth $1.00.

We are Selling Black CASHMERES, 46 inches wide, for 35c, pe Worth 50c.
We are Selling COLOURED CASHMERES, 42 inches wide, for 20c. p yard, Worth 30c.
We are selling COLORED CASHMERES for 15c. per yard, Worth
KID GLOVES, 25c.—CORSETS, 25c.

The profit is down. Never have Fine Goods sold for lower prices than we are now making on our Irresistible Spring Bargains. A call will convince you that we are selling the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Late T. Dolan & Co.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co., Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 1md89-1mw16 10 Spruce-st., New York

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL, 2mos62-w11 Millbrook P. O

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director,

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warrerooms.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

POTATOES!

A Car Load of Choice

EARLY ROSE

FOR SALE AT

J. W. FLAVELLE'S.

5d90

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run.

Yours truly,

A PAPER-HANGER.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY REVIEW.

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKEREL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRANTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

REMOVAL SALE.

CORSETS

In all the leading makes at greatly reduced prices during our clearing sale.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issurer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & ws

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh winds, mostly south and southwest; generally fair, warm weather.

Some Sundries.

People who are careful in buying will do well to recollect that we are offering—at the golden lion—a magnificent range of children's Jersey Dresses. They are splendid value. Just such good value is a great job line of Table Napkins, which are now on our bargain counter. Ladies will do well to see these goods before buying.

High Praise.

The Claire Scott Company, which appear in the Opera House here on Monday and Tuesday evenings, opened at Lindsay last night. A gentleman writes from Lindsay this morning:—"The Claire Scott Company opened last night to a good house. They are the finest that have appeared in Lindsay in my experience. To-night they will draw a large house." This is the opinion expressed of the actress and her company every place they have appeared and no doubt they will be greeted by bumper houses here.

We will pay the highest market prices in cash for Eggs and choice fresh Butter at The Pantry. d96

Judgment.

The Belleville Ontario says that "Police Magistrate Flint on Thursday gave judgment for the plaintiffs in the case of the four Indian teamsters against the Rathbun Company. The teamsters were employed on the company's limits back of Peterborough, but after a time a dispute arose over the wages and the engagement ceased. The court accepted the evidence of the plaintiffs and gave judgment accordingly, allowing David Brant, $26.65; Claus Brant, $26.90; Wm. Rathbun, $11.15; and R Morrison, $12.50. Mr. Fred E. Redick appeared for the teamsters."

Arrested at Chatham.

Some months ago warrants were issued here against a young man named Elijah Moore, who carried on business as a butcher for some time at the corner of McDonnel and Aylmer-sts., charging him with fraud and obtaining money under false pretences. He managed to elude the police and got across the border. He ventured back to the Canadian side, however, and, about ten days ago he was arrested in Chatham on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences. He gave his name as David Walker, a son of the well known gentleman of Toronto of that name. On his person was found a letter addressed to "Elijah Moore," from a young lady in Peterborough. The Chief Constable of Chatham had his suspicions aroused and wrote to Asting-Chief Adams, enclosing the letter and asking for a description of Moore. A photograph was sent and this morning word was received that Walker and Moore were one and the same individual. We understand that the persons interested intend to prosecute Moore.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

1,001

ONE THOUSAND AND ONE BARGAINS.

DRY GOODS.

Well, yes, SHEPPARD is abreast of the times and when Bankrupt Stocks and Sales of all kinds are taken in by people buying for a life-time, and they without hesitation, give SHEPPARD credit for selling the best Goods, for the least money, then you are quite safe in going to SHEPPARD'S Great Cheapside for Cheap Goods that are Good as well as Cheap.

CLOTHING.

That Boy's Suit at 75c. in three pieces.

That Mechanic's Cap, 6 cents.

That Choice Article in Men's Pants, home-made, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75, really choice. Same goods sold elsewhere at double the money.

Big Range in Boys' Suits. Immense drive in Men's Suits, Men's Pants and Men's Underwear.

SHEPPARD has a full line of Men's Fine Cashmere Shirts and Drawers for $1.00, cheap as dirt at $1.50.

SUNDRY MATTERS.

Towels 2½c., Towelling 4c., Cretonne, big range, 10c., Prints 3½c., very wide Scrim in Plain and Fancy Effects, 6c. 7c. and 8c., Real Antique Lace to match, 5c to 28 c., Hand-made Goods.

The tumble-down prices have cut into the Dress Goods pretty badly. Plain Colorings, Pure Wool, Light Tints also in Pale Pink, Pale Bl Salmon and Cardinal at 15c. A marvel of cheapness. Passamentrie Trimmings at 15c, goods that would knock the Bankrupt Stock end ways.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.

(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vandervees and Holmes celebrated New York buscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Smith's Market.

Fresh Cod, Haddock, Shad and Lobsters, Vegetables and Fruit, just above the old post office, George-st. 2d95

HAVING decided at The Pantry to clean out our entire stock of Crockery and Glassware, we will give astonishing bargains to all who will favor us with their patronage. d96

Both.

The two watering carts made their appearance on the streets yesterday. The stand pipes are all in good working order and complaints regarding the flying and choking dust will probably not be as numerous as they were a few days ago.

No. 1 Company.

Following out the practice adopted when the battalion used to go to camp, the Captain of No. 1 offers to recruits joining this year three prizes, $3, $2 and $1, for those who prove themselves the best soldiers, to be awarded at the time of inspection. 2d98

Clean Up.

Health Inspector Adams has been busy for some days delivering notices ordering people to perform the annual spring cleaning about their premises. He gives three days' notice and then calls again. In the large majority of cases his instructions are attended to, but in some instances he finds a second and even a third visit necessary.

THOSE prize packages of Teas at The Pantry are decidedly the best value for the money in the trade. d96

To Contractors.

By reference to an advertisement in another column it will be seen that tenders are asked for the erection of a new Collegiate Institute at Lindsay. Doubtless more than one of our contractors will figure on the job, and as in the past Peterborough men have been successful in securing large contracts in our sister town, they will stand a fair chance of securing this also.

P. A. A. A. Notes.

—The cricketers expect to have the first practice of the season this afternoon.

—The P. A. A. grounds are being put into shape for the season's operations and a number of men are at work to-day.

—There are quite a few weeds on the grounds and the salt cure is being tried.

—The bicyclists were to have met last night for the purpose of organizing, but the number that turned up was so small that nothing was done.

On Parade.

Canton Peterborough, No. 10, Patriarchs Militant, had their first annual inspection on Thursday night. They turned out 21 swords strong and presented a fine appearance. The inspection was satisfactory in every respect and as they paraded up George-st. the many different evolutions they performed in a highly creditable manner were watched with interest by a large concourse of spectators. The total strength of the Canton is 41 members, 35 uniformed and 6 honorary members. Those who did not turn out were detained by sickness, absence from town and other causes.

Thirty-Five Years Ago.

Referring to the death of the Hon. Thos. White the Christian Guardian, which is edited by the Rev. E. H. Dewart, D.D., says:—"It will be thirty-five years this summer since he and the Editor of this paper stood on the same platform in South Dummer and gave addresses at an open-air temperance meeting. During the last session of Parliament at Ottawa, in conversation with him, he was reminded of the many years that had elapsed since that Dummer meeting. He referred with much interest to missionary speeches which he had made in those days, in association with Mr. Howard, Mr. Gemley, and others."

The Canton Officers.

Peterborough Canton, Patriarchs Militant, of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, was inspected on Thursday evening by Capt. McNeil, and the remainder of the offices were filled by appointment. The Canton then marched up the street to Otonabee Lodge hall, to join in the celebration of the anniversary of the Order. Their marching and appearance were favorably commented upon. The officers for the term are:—

Chevalier	A. McNeil	Captain
"	Jos. Mills	Lieutenant
"	A. McFarlane	Ensign
"	S. Clegg	Accountant
"	R. J. Kidd	Clerk
"	J. Hendry	Past Commandant
"	W. Morris	Standard Bearer
"	T. Workmen	S. Standard Guard
"	T. Emmerson	J. Standard Guard
"	J. Mein	Guard of Tent
"	G. J. Early	I. Sentinel
"	J. Long	O. Sentinel
"	J. Fraser	Trumpeter
"	H. W. Watson	Drummer

Headache, Biliousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

Company A.

Will commence drill on Monday evening, April 30th. Every member is requested to turn out. As there are several vacancies those wishing to join should be at the shed by seven. Drill to commence at eight. 2d99

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Blue Label Cigars.

The local assembly of the Knights of Labor have passed a resolution pledging all members of the order not to smoke any cigars, except those with the blue label on the boxes, and requesting the members of all trades unions to do the same.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

Police Court.

Mr. F. W. Heather was charged with assaulting Mr. David Menzies. Plaintiff went to defendant's house to collect an account and was put off the premises. Fine $1.00....Statute labor cases against Messrs Denis Daly, Wm. Eastland and Simon Wier were enlarged until Monday. A similar case against Mr. Jas. Drain was dismissed, it being shown that he paid taxes in Asaburnham.

A Desirable Property.

Reference will no doubt be made to the advertisement in another column, announcing the proposed sale by tender of that excellent property, known as the "R. C. Church Lot." The park lot in question is in the western part of the town with a frontage on Park-st., and lying between Gilmour-st. and the gravel road. Certainly no more eligible location is available in town whereon private residences may be erected. The property is too well known to call for extended comment and being now on the market will, no doubt, call out numerous bids for its possession. Messrs. Dumble & Leonard, solicitors, are instructed to dispose of the lot, and to them enquiries may be addressed.

OUR Teas, Coffee and Spices at The Pantry are remarkable for their excellent quality and low prices. d96

At St. Andrew's.

A social, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's church, was held at the residence of Mrs. C. J. Nicholls, on Thursday night. To say that it was a success does not properly express it. It was a huge success. The spacious house was packed all evening and the receipts amounted to upwards of $80. Refreshments were served in the basement and young ladies did a thriving business in disposing of button hole bouquets. The following programme was carried out, all the performers acquitting themselves in a highly creditable manner:—

Overture	Amateur orchestra
Song	Y.M.C.A. Quartette
Reading	Dr. Clark
Solo	Mrs. Brodigan
Inst. Solo	Miss Caron
Vocal Solo	Mr. Greatrix
Inst. Duet	Misses Lech
Vocal Duet	Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Brodigan

REFRESHMENTS.

Overture	Amateur Orchestra
Song	Y.M.C.A. Quartette
Vocal Solo	Mrs. Wallace
Overture	Amateur Orchestra
	God Save the Queen.

Obituary.

The Port Hope Times says:—Some months ago Mr. T. H. Ambrose was called to England by the illness of his uncle, the Rev. J. Ambrose, and with Mrs. Ambrose and their little son crossed the Atlantic. We are now informed by the Essex (England) Standard, of the 7th April, that his uncle has died. The Standard says:—"Our obituary record to-day records the demise of the Rev. John Ambrose, M. A., of Copford Lodge, Essex, near Colchester, which took place at his residence on April 1st, after a long and painful affliction. The deceased, we believe, has never held any cure, but some years ago he used frequently to take occasional duty for various incumbents in and around his native village, and was a very powerful preacher. The remains were interred in the family vault in Copford churchyard on Thursday, the rector of Copford, Rev. W. Ruck, Keene, officiating, assisted by his curate. The mourners were Mr. Thomas H. Ambrose and Capt. Ambrose (nephews), Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Bawtree (niece), Miss Cosens (niece), Professor Liveing and Dr. Liveing (brothers-in-law), Mr. Oliver Williams (executor), Mr. Edwin Werts (medical attendant), and Mr. H. H. Elwes (collector). There was a large congregation at the church. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Messrs. Rickwood & Son, of Colchester." Mr. Ambrose is one of the executors and the heir of his uncle, who leaves a very large estate in consols and lands.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Young Man Struck with a Railway Tie at Warsaw.

A young man named Ernest Grant, was instantly killed in the Warsaw saw mill on Thursday afternoon. It seems that the employees were engaged in siding railway ties when by some means the saw caught a tie after the dog holding it on the carriage had been loosened and throwing it back struck the young man on the temple. He immediately sprang to his feet, put his hands to his head and dropped over dead. His sad death has cast a gloom over the entire community.

At Supper.

Captaid Brennan, after organizing No. 6 Company of the 57th Battalion, on Thursday night, entertained the men at supper, at the Commercial House. The Captain took the chair, and toast, speech and song, with plenty of good eatables, served to pass away a couple of pleasant hours.

No Doubt

It is the opinion of a good number of our citizens that business cannot be increased. This is a delusion, as the business of Stenson, the boot and shoe man, has increased over three fold since adopting the low-price cash system.

1d JAMES T. STENSON.

A Wordy War.

Representatives of the Lindsay Young Men's Christian Association will visit Peterborough one week from to-night. A debate will take place between two of the Lindsay young men and two of the Peterborough Association on "Manhood Suffrage"—the "return match" in the debates between the Associations. Music will be furnished by the Lindsay Association Glee Club and the Peterborough Y. M. C. A. Quartette.

"Inverlea."

The fine property occupied by ex-Judge Dennistoun, and known as "Inverlea," has been purchased from Messrs. Hall & Hayes, Solicitors, by a syndicate, of which Captain W. J. Langford is the head, for the sum of $17,000. It is one of the finest pieces of property in town, containing about eleven acres, with a brick residence, stables, etc. It has a frontage of 970 feet on Water-st., 925 feet on Smith-st. and 400 feet on the river.

Personal.

We notice among the names of those that distinguished themselves at the recent examinations at Queen's University, Kingston, Mr. A. W. Beall, of Whitby. Mr. Beall is a brother of Mrs. Charles Lyle of this town. He took first honors in Modern Languages, and also in Latin, together with the degree of B.A. The students of the University, on Wednesday, waited upon Mr. Beall, who goes to Japan as a teacher in a government school, and, presented him with a Bible and other works of reference, assuring him of the heartfelt wishes of all the students for his future success. On Thursday evening last the choir and congregation of Queen-st. Methodist church, Kingston, tendered Mr. Beall a farewell reception.

The Empire's Ottawa correspondent says that "Mr. Stevenson, M. P., West Peterborough, is not feeling well and has been ordered home by his doctor for a few days' rest." He will probably arrive home this evening and take a much needed rest.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning gray.

Brevities.

—"Keep off the grass" is a sign that is met with occasionally.

—The police went without overcoats last night for the first time this year.

—The smoke of the burning rubbish heap is now smelt throughout the town.

—There is some tall kicking being done over the high price of beef, and pork is in demand.

—The small boy has dropped his marbels and he now sallies forth to slay birds with his catapult. The police are after him.

—George-st. was lined with people last night to see the Canton parade from the rink to the hall.

—The annual exhibition of stallions and bulls will take place on the agricultural grounds on Saturday afternoon.

—The oak flooring to be put down at the fire station is two inches thick instead of one, as the types made us say yesterday.

—Mr. J. B. McWilliams was kept busy yesterday taking in timber dues from residents of Dummer and Douro, who were settling up for their winter's cut.

—The fine weather brought the people out in large numbers last night, and the streets looked something like they did in days gone by.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Incipient Fire.

A fire was discovered at Hilliard's shingle mill this morning. It had caught from the furnace, but had made little headway and was extinguished before much harm was done.

Y. M. L. C. C.

A regular meeting of the Young Men's Liberal Conservative Club will be held at their rooms, on Tuesday evening next, when a full attendance is requested.

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time most economical blood purifier known.

BOYS' CLOTHING

STRENGTH AND DURABILITY ARE VERY ESSENTIAL THINGS IN BOYS' CLOTHING. THE CLOTH MUST BE STRONG, THE POCKETS MUST BE STRONG, THE BUTTONS MUST BE WELL SEWED ON, &c., &c. WE CONSTANTLY KEEP THESE POINTS BEFORE US TO ENSURE SATISFACTION TO ALL BUYERS AS WELL AS TO THE BOYS.

OUR BOYS' CLOTHING IS STYLISH IN APPEARANCE AND WELL TRIMMED. IN FACT OUR READY-MADES FOR BOYS WILL COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH PLENTY OF CUSTOM WORK.

SEE OUR ALL WOOL SUITS. NO COMMON GOODS THESE. WELL MADE UP AND NEAT PATTERNS.

OUR BOYS' CORDUROY SUITS ARE A MODEL OF CHEAPNESS AND LOOK HANDSOME.

T. DOLAN & CO.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

NEW TAILORING

—AND—

GENTS' FURNISHING

ESTABLISHMENT.

MR. GEO. BALL

desires to inform his friends and the public generally, that he will open in the store adjoining McAndrew & Noble's, opposite the market square, about the 1st of May, a splendid stock of which have been selected with the greatest care, and will be found worthy of the patronage of the gentlemen of the town.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS,

Also a complete stock of cloths suitable for spring and summer wear, including overcoatings, trouserings, tweeds, broadcloths, etc., etc.

Mr. Ball intends devoting his whole attention to the cutting department; and a practical, lengthy experience, enables him to guarantee a good, stylish fit, in well made goods. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. A trial order will convince any customer that as regard both price and style, the shop for his money is that of

GEO. BALL,

Tailor & Clothier, opposite the Market. d99-w17

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Sailsbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

LADIES WILL TALK

and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also

FELTS, CANVASES,

PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY,

SILKS, ETC., ETC

Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

PROVEN MERIT

ALWAYS WINS FAVOR.

In the face of all the talk of hard times and the cry of money being tight, we are confident the solid values we give bring us trade and hold us custom. We are, for example, rolling out special lines, all seasonable goods, of which the following are now in demand:—

Ladies' and Gents' Riding Saddles.

Splendid stock of Harness, best materials and work. Trunks of all sizes and styles from $1.50 to $35.00.

BABY CARRIAGES

Latest, Newest and Most Stylish designs. Ladies should see our many patterns. The best in Town.

B. SHORTLY

Sign of the Golden Collar. George-st., Peterborough.

R. C. CHURCH

PARK LOT

FOR SALE.

TENDERS

Will be received up to the 15th May, instant, by the undersigned, for the purchase of the whole or any portion of Park Lot Number six, in Township Lot Number Thirteen, in Concession Thirteen of the Township of Monaghan, in the County of Peterborough, now incorporated in and forming part of the Town of Peterborough, containing TEN acres more or less.

This lot, better known as the "R. C. Church Lot," is the most desirable property that has been offered for sale in Peterborough for many years. It has a frontage on Park-st. of 256 feet, adjoining Mrs. Gilmour's residence; a frontage of 1914 feet on Gilmour-st. and the same on the Gravel Road, continuation of Charlotte-st.

Gilmour-st. is the most beautiful street in the Town for private residences, and being within ten minutes walk of the Post Office and Market Square, this sale affords to intending purchasers an opportunity of procuring a beautiful and convenient site for a home.

TERMS:—Ten per cent. cash; twenty per cent. additional in 30 days from acceptance of the Tender, and the balance will be allowed to remain on mortgage for such term, not exceeding ten years, as the purchaser desires with interest at 6 per cent. per annum.

For further particulars apply to

DUMBLE & LEONARD,

Peterborough, April 27th, 1888. 15d99 Vendors' Solicitors.

A Famous Doctor

Once said that the secret of good health consisted in keeping the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open. Had this eminent physician lived in our day, and known the merits of Ayer's Pills as an aperient, he would certainly have recommended them, as so many of his distinguished successors are doing.

The celebrated Dr. Farnsworth, of Norwich, Conn., recommends Ayer's Pills as the best of all remedies for "Intermittent Fevers."

Dr. I. B. Fowler, of Bridgeport, Conn., says: "Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."

Dr. Mayhew, of New Bedford, Mass., says: "Having prescribed many thousands of Ayer's Pills, in my practice, I can unhesitatingly pronounce them the best cathartic in use."

The Massachusetts State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, certifies: "I have made a careful analysis of Ayer's Pills. They contain the active principles of well-known drugs, isolated from inert matter, which plan is, chemically speaking, of great importance to their usefulness. It insures activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. Ayer's Pills contain no metallic or mineral substance, but the virtues of vegetable remedies in skillful combination."

Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1888.

LATEST SPORTING NEWS.

NEWARK DEFEATS TORONTO BY ELEVEN RUNS TO SEVEN.

League and Association Games Elsewhere—Chapman Speaks Well of Toronto—Notes About the Torontos—Tough on Hamilton—Racing in England.

NEWARK, N.J., April 26.—There was an unusual amount of bitterness imparted in to-day's contest by the kicking which the Torontos kept up from the very start of the game. Jay Faatz wasn't here, but the Torontos have lost none of the propensity for objecting which made them famous in the days when he ruled the field. To-day they directed their opposition to Umpire Ketcham, claiming that he was roasting Shepherd on balls and strikes.

Torontos scored in the third on Atkisson's first on error and another error by Simmons and a passed ball. In the fourth Thayer hit safely, stole second, and Coogan's muff and Simmons' error gave Thayer and Kearns their runs.

Errors of Smith's, McLaughlin's single and Rickley's out sent Connor home in the fifth. Thayer's home run in the sixth over the left field fence, Coogan's muff, a steal and Decker's single sent Connor home in the seventh. Thayer's single, a steal and Atkisson's single sent Thayer home in the eighth. In the ninth inning Simmons and Baker went to base on balls and Smith by being hit. Then singles by Johnson, Coogan and Casey with good base running sent in five runs. The score:

TORONTO.	M.	R.	B.	P. O.	A.	E.	NEWARKS.	M.	R.	B.	P. O.	A.	E.
Burke, cf....	0	0	3	3	1	0	Johnson, l.f.	3	1	1	0	1	0
Connors l.f.	2	0	3	1	0	1	Coogan, r.f.	1	1	0	1	0	0
McLaughlin, s.	0	0	1	2	3	0	Casey, 1b.	1	1	0	9	0	0
Decker, 1b.	0	1	0	6	0	0	Fields, 1b....	0	0	0	2	0	0
Rickley, 3b.	0	0	0	1	1	0	Jones, 2b....	1	0	1	2	2	0
Thayer, c....	1	1	1	5	0	0	Sullivan, c....	0	0	0	5	0	0
Kearns, 2b....	1	1	0	1	3	0	Smith, s.s....	2	1	2	1	4	1
Atk'son, rf....	1	1	0	0	0	0	Baker, p....	1	0	0	0	3	0
Sheppard, p.	0	1	0	0	2	0
Totals....	7	7	8	27	11	1	Totals....	11	7	5	27	10	1

Earned runs—Newark 5, Toronto 2. Base on balls—Newark 5, Toronto 2. Base on errors—Newark 4, Toronto 4. Left on bases—Newark 2, Toronto 5. Struck out—Newark 5, Toronto 8. Hit by pitcher—Smith. Wild pitch—Sheppard. Passed balls—Sullivan, Thayer 2. Double plays—Smith, Fields and Sullivan, Burke and Kearns. Home run—Thayer. Time of game—2 hr. 10 min. Umpire—Ketcham.

Chapman Speaks Well of the Torontos.

BUFFALO, N.Y., April 26.—The Bisons have returned home after a most successful trip, clearing $800, and are all, with the exception of Grant, in excellent condition. They were out at Olympic Park for several hours' practice to-day, in which Chamberlain, the recalcitrant Louisville pitcher, joined. The team will leave for Troy to-morrow morning in order to have a good night's rest before the opening game of the championship season which they play there on Saturday afternoon. Manager Chapman thinks the Toronto team has been strengthened by the addition of Greer, and that it will make a fight on the championship. He declined to discuss Hamilton's prospects, and had nothing to say as to the probability of the club proving a weak sister and dropping out before the season closed. He thinks Phil Powers has a great aggregation of talent if he can put it in workable shape, and is certain that the energetic P. P. will make things warm for all comers whether his club is a pennant candidate or not.

Notes about the Torontos.

Kansas City was after Greer, the new outfielder signed by Toronto.

Oldfield is showing up very poorly behind the bat and can't hold Atkisson.

Oldfield has not caught a foul fly out of 18 attempts.

Toronto's tweak points are at base running and field work.

Manager Cushman says Lally was too slow and had not enough life about him, this being the reason of his release.

Manager Cushman writes that Greer will greatly strengthen the team.

Decker's catching and throwing is wonderful this season and he is also batting well.

Smith has great speed and a dandy drop ball.

Sheppard is doing good work in the box.

Kearns lost the Jersey City game by dropping a fine throw of Decker's and a wild pitch to first.

Atkisson will be in the box at Albany to-morrow.

Tough on Hamilton.

WORCESTER, Mass., April 26.—If the Hamilton team which appeared here to-day is any criterion by which to judge of the strength of the other teams comprising the International Association the Torontos will have little difficulty in holding the championship honors another season. Rainey for the visitors played wretchedly at third and Mansell distinguished himself by several miss-plays which an amateur would blush for. Barrett pitched a strong game for the home team and was ably supported behind the bat by Briggs who prevented base-stealing by accurate throwing to second. The Worcesters batted Green hard and often, while Hamilton failed to bunch their hits with any effect. Score:

	R.	B.	H.	P. O.	A.	E.
Worcester	0	5	1	0	2	0
Hamilton	0	0	0	2	7	0

Earned runs—Worcester 4. Two base hits—Clifford. Three base hits—Meister, Briggs, Wheeler. First base on errors—Worcester 2; Hamilton 2. First on balls—Hamilton 4, and Farrell. Struck out—Clifford 2, O. J. Vesmir 3, Green. Stolen bases—Wheelock, Flanagan, Hamilton 2, Green. Left on bases—Hamilton 7, Worcester 8. Wild pitches—Barrett 1. Time of game—1 hr. 50 min. Umpire—Ketcham.

National League Games Yesterday.

At New York:	R.	H.	E.
New York	1	3	1
Philadelphia	2	6	0

Batteries: Crane and Ewing; Gleason and Schriver. Umpire: Daniels.

At Pittsburg:	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg	0	6	0
Chicago	1	3	0

Batteries: Morris and Carroll; Van Haltren and Darling. Umpire: Beckley.

At Indianapolis:	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	2	4	3
Detroit	3	9	2

Batteries: Shreve and Buckley; Getzein and Bennet. Umpire: Valentine.

At Washington:	R.	H.	E.
Washington	2	5	1
Boston	9	9	3

Batteries: Gilmore and Murray; Madden and Tate. Umpire: Lynch.

MONA SCULLY;

—OR—

The Bride of an Englishman.

"as an old, old story, and real and original 'old, old story,' says Geoffrey, innocently, smiling mildly at the leg of a distant table.

"If you are bent on telling them, do it all at once," whispers Nolly, casting a withering glance at the smiling Geoffrey. "It will save time and trouble."

"I never saw any one feel the heat so much as our Oliver," says Geoffrey, pleasantly. "His complexion waxeth warm."

"Would you like a fan, Nolly?" says Mona, with a laugh, yet really with a kindly view to rescuing him from his present dilemma. "Do you think you could find me mine? I fancy I left it in the morning-room."

"I am sure I could," says Nolly, bestowing upon her a grateful glance, after which he starts upon his errand with suspicious alacrity.

"How odd Nolly is at times," says Violet, yet without any very 'great show of surprise. She is still wrapped in her own dream of delight, and is rather indifferent to objects in which but yesterday she would have felt an immediate interest. "But, Nicholas, what was his story about? He seems quite determined not to impart it to me."

"A mere nothing," says Nicholas, airily; "we were merely chaffing him a little, because you know what a mess he makes of anything of that sort he takes in hand."

"But what was the subject of it?"

"Oh—well—those thirty-five charming compatriot's of Mona's, who are now in the House of Commons, or, rather, out of it. It was a little tale that related to their expulsion the other night by the Speaker—and—er—other things."

"If it was a political quip," says Violet, "I shouldn't care about it."

This is fortunate. Every one feels that Nicholas is not only clever, but singularly lucky.

"It wasn't all politics, of course," he says, carefully.

Whereupon every one thinks he is a bold and daring man thus to risk fortune again.

It is at this particular moment that Violet, inadvertently raising her head, lets her eyes meet Jack Rodney's. On which that young man—being prompt in action—goes quickly up to her, and in sight of the assembled multitude takes her hand in his.

"Violet, you may as well tell them all now as at any other time," he says, persuasively.

"Oh, no, not now," pleads Violet, hastily. She rises hurriedly from her seat, and lays her disengaged hand on his lips. For once in her life she loses sight of her self-possession, and a blush, warm and rich as carmine, mantles on her cheek.

This fond coloring, suiting the exigencies of the moment, suits her likewise. Never before has she looked so entirely pretty. Her lips tremble, her eyes grow pathetic. And Captain Rodney, already deeply in love, grows one degree more impressed with the fact of his own good fortune in having secured so enviable a bride.

Passing his arm round her, he draws her closer to him.

"Mother, Violet has promised to marry me," he says, abruptly. "Haven't you, Violet?"

And Violet says "Yes," obediently, and then the tears come into her eyes, and a smile is born upon her lips, so sweet, so new, as compels Doatie to whisper to Mona, a little later on, that she "didn't think it in Violet to look like that."

Here of course everybody says the most charming thing he or she can think of at a moment's notice; and then they all kiss Violet, and Nolly, coming back at this auspicious instant with the fan and recovered temper, joins in the general congratulations, and actually kisses her too, though Geoffrey whispers "traitor" to him in an awful tone, as he goes forward to do it.

"It is the sweetest thing that could have happened," says Dorothy, enthusiastically. "Now Mona and you and I will be real sisters."

"What a surprise it all is," says Geoffrey, hypocritically.

"Yes, isn't it?" says Dorothy, quite in good faith; "though I don't know after all why it should be; we could see for ourselves; we knew all about it long ago!"

"Yes, long ago," says Geoffrey, with animation. "Quite an hour ago."

"Oh, hardly!" says Violet, with a soft laugh and another blush. "How could you?"

"A little bird whispered it to us," explains Geoffrey, lightly. Then, taking pity on Nolly's evident agony, he goes on, "that is, you know, we guessed it; you were so long absent, and—and that."

There is something deplorably lame about this exposition, when you take into consideration the fact that the new lovers have been, during the past two months, always absent from the rest of the family, as a rule.

But Violet is content.

"It is like a fairy-tale, and quite as pretty," says little Dorothy, who is quite safe to turn out an inveterate match-maker when a few more years have rolled over her sunny head.

"Or like Nolly's story that he declines telling me," says Violet, with a laugh.

"Well, really, now you say it," says Geoffrey, as though suddenly struck with a satisfactory idea, "it is uncommonly like Nolly's tale, when you come to compare one with the other they sound almost similar."

"What! "How could Jack or I resemble an Irish member?" asks she, with a little grimace.

"Everything has its romantic side," says Geoffrey; "even an Irish member, I dare say. And when you do induce Nolly to favor you with his last joke, you will see that it is positively bristling with romance."

CHAPTER XXXIV.

And now what remains to be told? But little, I think! For my gentle Mona has reached that haven where she would be.

Violet and Dorothy are to be married next month, both on the same day, at the same hour, in the same church,—St. George's, Hanover Square, without telling. From old Lord Steyne's house in Mayfair, by Dorothy's special desire, both marriages are to take place. Violet's father being somewhat erratic in his tastes, and in fact at this moment wandering aimlessly among the Himalayas.

Mona is happier than words can say. She is up to her eyes in business, that business sweetest to a woman's soul, the ordering and directing and general management of a trousseau. In her case she is doubly blessed, because she has the supervising of two.

To be Continued.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

LEBRUN

LEADS THE STYLES IN CLOTHING.

SPLENDID BARGAINS!

700 PAIRS OF

TWEED PANTS

Bought at a Bankrupt Clearing Sale at Montreal and will be sold at half value.

SEE THE VALUE

TWEED PANTS AT $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 AND $2.50.

These are the Best Value ever offered and cannot be equalled.

Men, Youths and Boys who are wanting ordered or ready-made Clothing should call and examine our large stock of new Tweeds for Men's and Boys' wear.

H. LEBRUN, The City Clothing Store, No. 396 GEORGE STREET.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

American Association Games.

At Baltimore:	R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	1	6	5
Brooklyn	4	9	4

Batteries: Cunningham and O'Brien, Carruthers and Bushong. Umpire Gaffney.

At Philadelphia:	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	11	12	8
Cleveland	9	11	5

Batteries: Maltimore and Townsend, Bakeley and Zimmer. Umpire: Ferguson.

At St Louis:	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	3	9	6
Cincinnati	4	5	1

Batteries: Knowe and Milligan, Mullane and Baldwin. Umpire: McQuaid.

At Kansas City:	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	3	6	4
Louisville	7	13	4

Batteries: Fagan and Briody, Hecker and Cook. Umpire: Boescher.

Close Finishes in England.

LONDON, April 26.—Yesterday was the first day of the spring races at Derby. The attractions included the Sudbury Stakes of £800 for 2-year-olds and the Welbeck Cup, a handicap for 3-year-olds and upward, at £1000. The Sudbury had six starters, with Mr. R. Peck's filly Dulcie the favorite at 7 to 4 against. She won by a neck, followed by Lord Londonderry's Wenonah, four lengths in front of Mr. Tom Jenning's George. The betting was 9 to 1 Wenonah and 10 to 1 George. Conditions as follows:

THE SUDBURY STAKES OF £800 for 2-year-olds, by subscription; the 30 to receive £50 out of the stakes; colts to carry 122 lbs.; fillies, 119 lbs.; winners of any stake of the value of £200 to carry 4 lbs.; two of £200, or one of £300, 9 lbs. extra; maiden allowed 3 lbs.; closed Nov. 1, 1887, with 43 subscribers, of which 7 declared; about 1½ furlongs straight.

Mr. R. Peck's br.f. Dulcie, by Dutch Skater, dam Tarantella, by Blair Athol 1
Lord Londonderry's br.f. Wenonah, by Galopin, dam Rose 2
Mr. T. Jennings' ch.c. George, by Foxlet, dam Jeannie 3

Three others ran.

THE LATEST MARKET REVIEW.

TORONTO, April 26.

On call at the Board of Trade a car of white wheat by sample was offered at 90c, 86½ bid; No. 1 Manitoba hard offered at 85c on the track; No. 2 Manitoba hard on the track, 87c bid; peas, 70c offered for 20,000 bushels, May delivery.

Estimated receipts of hogs at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, to-day are 23,500; official yesterday, 19,538; shipments, 8000; left over, about 4500; cattle receipts 14,000; market quiet.

Receipts at New York yesterday were: Flour, 12,037 bbls. and 5161 sacks; corn 29,700 bush; oats, 29,000; rye, 723; malt, 4600; pork, 313 bbls, and lard 3084 tierces.

Shipments from New York yesterday were: Flour, 7035 bbls and 1044 sacks; wheat, 28,827 bush; oats, 585; pork, 821 bbls; lard, 936,813 tierces.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports to-day as follows: London—Floating cargoes, wheat firm, corn nil; arrivals, nil; walla wheat 6s; waiting orders, wheat 6s; cargoes on passage, wheat and corn quiet and firm; good cargoes, walla wheat off coast, 32s 9d, was 32s; present and following month, 32s 3d, was 32s 3d; London good shipping, No. 1 Cal. prompt sail, 33s 9d, was 33s 6d; ditto nearly due, 33s 6d; French country markets firm; Paris wheat rather easier and flour steady; Liverpool spot wheat inactive, corn steady.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

THE COOK'S FRIEND

POWDER

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

For Sale by all Grocers.

Free from all Adulterations.

Beware of Imitations.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrated Woodrow Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE WEEKLY REVIEW.

READ

HURLEY & BUNTON'S

Advertisement in to-morrow's issue and if you want to buy, sell, rent or exchange property of any kind, insure your property and your life, it will pay you to call at the office on Hunter-st., for particulars.

JACKSON & CO.

Organ Builders and Pianoforte Manufacturers.

Shop and Warerooms, Kingdom's old stand corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets.

PIPE and REED ORGANS and PIANOFOTES tuned and repaired.

Agents for R. S. Williams & Son's Pianos. Orders for tuning may be left at the warerooms or sent by postal card. d181eod-w49-6m

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS,

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means.

Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Machinist
118 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it. Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar

S. PERRIN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—After using your PINE TAR CORDIAL for the last ten years in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending its use by everybody for every description of coughs and colds. It has no equal among the many cordials offered for sale, and I believe the only safe remedy to use. WILLIAM FOSEY
Hardware Merchant, Lindsay

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d113

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O. Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George St, north. d39

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d169

T. B. MCGRATH,

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR. House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. 1yd109

Builders and Contractors.

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin road. P. O. address, Box 67. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 881. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 32. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. R. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d83-1yr

JOSEPH JONES,

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years' experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d81y

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d82w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d113w18

C. W. SAWERS,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN. d16-w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d87-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario, &c.

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md111w1

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. w&d37

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d28w46

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d41w18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d21w29

J. EARLE JENNER.

M.D. C.M., L.R.C.P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.

(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th, door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d41w19-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street, opposite St. John's Church. d23w21

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. T. R.	11 00 p m
6 00 p m	do O. & Q. R.	10 00 p m
10 00 p m	Toronto and West, via G. T. R.	5 15 p m
7 00 p m	do O. & Q. R.	10 00 p m
8 30 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	8 00 p m
12 00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	8 00 a m
8 30 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	4 30 p m
8 15 p m	do	11 00 a m
	do	8 00 p m
	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings
10.30 a m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	1 15 p m
4 00 p m	Fraserville & Springville	12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Bobcaygeon, Ingleding Bridgenorth & Ennismore	11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Healtain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	7 00 a m
11 00 a m		1 30 p m
	Greystock and Elzevira,
11 00 a m	Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
1 m	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 30 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	Pic New York, Mondays.	7 30 p m
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. b each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund accepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre and Miquelon, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guinea, Cyprus, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica, Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Signapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 6i

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 100. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, APRIL, 28 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries,
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE

METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

CARSLAKE'S GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

		Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000 each prize	$6,000
2nd " " "	$2,000 " "	$4,000
3rd " " "	$1,000 " "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$2,000	$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$4,500	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 24th.—Race May 30th 1888

Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.

Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.

22d eod-tmos Mansion House, Montreal

CLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS TENTS!!!

—o—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

Garden Tools, Silver Dollar Spades Spading Forks, Manure Forks, Steel Rakes, Hoes, Wheelbarrows, Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

GEO. STETHEM.

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mos62-w11 Millbrook P. O

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

NEW TAILORING

—AND—

GENTS' FURNISHING

ESTABLISHMENT.

MR. GEO. BALL

desires to inform his friends and the public generally, that he will open in the store adjoining McAndrew & Noble's, opposite the market square, about the 1st of May, a splendid stock of which have been selected with the greatest care, and will be found worthy of the patronage of the gentlemen of the town.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS,

Also a complete stock of cloths suitable for spring and summer wear, including overcoatings, trouserings, tweeds, broadcloths, etc., etc.

Mr. Ball intends devoting his whole attention to the cutting department; and a practical, lengthy experience, enables him to guarantee a good, stylish fit, in well made goods. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. A trial order will convince any customer that as regard both price and style, the shop for his money is that of

GEO. BALL,

Tailor & Clothier, opposite the Market.

d98-w17

DURING 5 YEARS

stay in Peterborough I have engraved over 6000 Coins, Repaired over 4000 Watches, besides Engraving Brass Plates, Repairing Jewellery, Clocks, etc. Still I am much in the position of Oliver Twist—I want more. English Levers and Old Country Bulls Eyes, accurately Repaired.

IRVING

M. H. J. L. E.

SIMCOE-ST., WEST OF GEORGE.

dw7-w17-1yr

SEPARATE TENDERS

sealed and marked "TENDER" will be received by the undersigned until and including

SATURDAY, 12th May,

—FOR THE—

Whole Work and Material, and also for the Work and Material of the various Trades, required in the the construction and completion of Collegiate Institute at Lindsay.

Plans and specifications will be ready for inspection at the residence of Mr. Wm. Duffus, Architect, Lindsay, on and after Wednesday, 2nd May.

The committee has purchased dimension and building stone and bricks, which must be taken by the contractors for these works at cost price.

Tenders must be on the form supplied by architect and accompanied by bona fide signatures of two good and sufficient persons who will become sureties for fulfilment of contract.

The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

J. R. McNEILLIE,
Chairman Building Committee.

Lindsay, April 26, 1888.

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE

FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead,

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 11 acres, and having a frontage of about 400 feet on Concession Street, and $40 on the Scaling to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub-divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "R," Ashburnham,

Containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 34x36, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HAULTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House Hill. There is about ¼ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c, soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE,

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13, in 13th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,
3md35 Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

For Sale or to Rent

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

COMFORTABLE DWELLING, with say 7 or 8 rooms in convenient locality. Address G. R. C., care of REVIEW office. 3d99

WANTED.

2 SERVANTS. One for general housework and one as cook. Apply at NICHOLLS HOSPITAL. 3d99

WANTED.

A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special Inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite Dr [illegible]. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

dw JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto School of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1wd&w

MONEY TO LEND

On best terms and lowest rates obtainable.

GEO. M. ROGER,
Peterborough, Solicitor, etc.

OPERA HOUSE

2—NIGHTS—2

Commencing Monday, April 30th

THE GREAT ENGLISH ACTRESS,

CLAIRE SCOTT

—Supported by—

S. K. COBURN,

And a strictly first-class Company, in the following grand repertoire:—

Elizabeth, Queen of England,

Mary Queen of Scots.

MAGNIFICENT COSTUMES,
ELEGANT STAGE SETTING,
GRAND TABLEAUX.

Each play will be presented in the same artistic manner as when played at high prices. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. Plan now open at Hartley's Music Store. 5d97

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL

RIVER SIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being both practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER. 1yd38. JAS. R. DONELL

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1888.

THE DOMINION'S FINANCES

SIR CHARLES TUPPER MAKES HIS BUDGET SPEECH.

The Tariff Not Disturbed—Canada's General Condition, Expansion of Trade under the N. P., and the Growth of Interprovincial Commerce dealt with—Some Vigorous Remarks about C. U.

OTTAWA, April 27.—Sir Charles Tupper made his Budget speech this afternoon, and he managed to get through it in about 2½ hours. The fact that it was understood that the tariff was not to be molested in any way detracted from the general interest and anxiety that is felt in the world of commerce in the Budget.

The speech of the Minister of Finance was varied in its scope, and included the general position of the country, the expansion of trade under the fostering care of the tariff, the great growth of our interprovincial commerce, etc., and in the wind-up Sir Charles treated the House to some lively expressions concerning Commercial Union, Unrestricted Reciprocity and the various other matters that the two great political parties have been wrestling with for the past few years.

Sir Charles having disposed successfully of the Treaty Bill as far as the Canadian Parliament is concerned, seemed greatly relieved when he got the Budget, his last big effort of this session, off his hands.

Sir Charles was enthusiastically received when he began to speak at 3.30. He said that he had been under the necessity of being absent from Ottawa for a considerable period since last session, and although his Department has been watched over during his absence by the Minister of Customs with his usual ability, yet the House would expect from him as Finance Minister the usual statement as to the financial condition of the country.

Taking first financial affairs for the year ended June 30 last, they estimated that the revenue received from all sources would amount to $35,300,000. It was with pleasure that he informed the House that the total revenues for the year were $35,734,993, or an increase over the estimate of $454,933. [Cheers.] The yield from customs, which was estimated at $22,000,000, actually amounted to $22,378,800. [Cheers.] This increase was no doubt mainly caused by the revenue of the following year being anticipated owing to changes made in the tariff. In 1887 there had been an increase in duty on coal and coke (although 150,000 tons of anthracite coal was admitted free), fancy goods, silks and sugars as compared with 1886, while the quantity of spirits imported and taken for consumption had decreased, showing conclusively that the temperate habits of the people were gaining ground.

It was estimated that the expenditure for the year would be $35,600,000, leaving an estimated deficit of $300,000. The actual expenditure for the year was very close to the estimate, being only an excess of $57,680, and the estimated deficit of $300,000 has been turned into a surplus of $97,313. [Cheers.] In view of the statements made last year the Government could not, he thought, be accused of having an over-sanguine statement before the House when they compared the estimate with the final realizations. [Hear, hear.]

He then proceeded to review the probable expectation of operations of the present fiscal year. Last year he had stated that the total revenues expected to be realized for the fiscal year 1887-'88 would be $36,400,000, made up as follows:

Customs	$22,500,000
Excise	6,400,000
Miscellaneous	7,500,000

Coming to the expenditure side of the account it would be seen that Parliament during the last session granted supplies which, with actual expenditure, amounted to $35,969,981. As members were aware they had brought down estimates in addition thereto of $1,112,000. These two sums would amount to $37,082,000, and taking the usual savings into account on estimates, and these last year amounted to $100,000, it was very probable that the expenditure will be in round numbers, $37,000,000. It was but fair, however, that the House should take into account the fact that in the year 1886-7 he anticipated a deficit of $300,000. In reality this had been turned into a surplus of over $97,000, and it was but right to estimate that this sum of $400,000 was paid in in anticipation of 1887-8. With regard to the probable result of this year he considered that this fact should be taken into account, and having due regard to economy and expenditure, he trusted that the accounts for the present and coming year, taken as a whole, will balance. [Hear, hear.]

Dealing with the estimates for 1888-89, he said that, as owing to the new departure many votes have already been taken into account and explanations given in regard thereto, it would not be necessary to offer extended observations as to variations in expenditure as compared with the estimates asked for in supply last session. The amount of estimates now laid before Parliament was $38,421,440.22, but, as the House was aware, no sums have been placed in the estimates for mail subsidies and steamship subventions. There will therefore have to be added to the amount already brought down sums sufficient to cover these services, and further amounts will undoubtedly be asked from Parliament in such supplementary estimates to complete the services of the year, but he believed that, taking all things into account at the close of the year 1888-89 revenue and expenditure would about reach an equilibrium.

At the commencement of the fiscal year the Government, chiefly in deference to the banking community, lowered the limit of deposits in savings banks and fixed the amount to be received from any depositor at $300 in any one year and $1000 in all. Originally savings bank deposits were unlimited. A reduction was then made to $20,000 and afterwards this was again brought down to $3000. Now the limit is, as he said, $1000. The effect, however, on Government savings bank deposits has been that some of the larger deposits held by the Government have been withdrawn and have gone to swell the general business of the country by transfers to banks where enhanced rates of interests were offered.

The deposits in the postoffice savings banks show an increase, and if we set one side against the other, savings bank balances since July 14 last are nearly stationary, that is to say deposits equalling withdrawals. Still the country is to be congratulated that deposits have increased in a marked manner from the poorer classes, showing that labor is fully employed and adequately paid. [Cheers.] To illustrate this he might state that the number of depositors in postoffice savings banks March 31 last was over 100,000, an increase of over 10,000 since June 10 last, and the number of depositors in other savings banks under the control of the Finance Department increased from 56,000 to 57,000 in the same period. [Hear, hear.]

Sir Charles then proceeded to show how far the tariff changes of 1887 had affected the iron industry. It had provoked hostile criticism in England at the outset, but like the fiscal policy adopted in 1879 it was now more clearly understood, and the British press viewed in a more friendly spirit our efforts to develop our Canadian stores of mineral wealth within our borders. Sufficient time, however, had not yet elapsed to demonstrate fully the effects of the new tariff, the act having virtually not come into operation until the present fiscal year, and capital being cautious and very slow to move in new fields of enterprise. Run he might state that the Mills and Randall bills now before Congress showed a fixed determination on the part of our American neighbors to continue an efficient measure of protection to that great industry. [Hear, hear.]

The Minister next referred to the effect of the tariff in the explorations made as to new fields for the development of this industry. Extensive and valuable deposits of iron ore, he said, had been discovered in the vicinity of Port Arthur, Ont., and on Hunters Island near the boundary line. When the Thunder Bay Colonization Railway reaches the ports the opening of these deposits will be facilitated.

South of the Canadian Pacific crossing of the Seine River, about 100 miles west of Fort William, an immense deposit of high grade bessemer iron ore has been discovered. It is said to be the largest and finest bed of ore ever found in America. The ore is a black magnetic oxide and analyzes from 62 to 70 per cent. of metallic iron.

As closely connected with the development of manufactures, proceeded Sir Charles, and as an evidence of the steady progress of the country, it may be mentioned that, in addition to the expansion of the iron industry the changes in the tariff had a beneficial effect in the increase of the output of coal from the mines. In the Nova Scotia and Cape Breton mines a close estimate of the output was:

Name of place.	For year 1886.	For year 1887.
Cumberland County mines	416,000 tons.	469,342 tons.
Pictou County mines	389,000 "	398,050 "
Cape Breton mines	868,000 "	717,000 "
Total	1,673,000	1,524,392

In 1879 the coal raised at Spring Hill was 92,000 tons, in 1887 the output had increased to 442,000 tons. [Hear, hear.]

Sir Charles next gave the House something about the cotton industry of the country. At the present time about 60,000 bales of raw cotton, valued at $3,000,000, was being annually used in the Dominion. This was an increase of 50,000 bales in ten years. Half a million spindles were running and 9000 hands were employed, and the capital invested was $8,000,000.

The interprovincial trade of the country was referred to at length. In 1878 and 1887 the following movements took place over the Intercolonial Railway in articles carried both ways:

Articles.	1878.	1887.
Flour	637,773 bbls.	753,490 bbls.
Grain	331,170 bush	1,016,334 bush
Live stock	46,498 head	80,782 head
Lumber	56,000,000 feet	161,100,000 feet.
Manufactures.	140,858 tons	820,000 tons
Other articles, not including firewood.	230,741 tons	820,000 tons
Total freight	522,710 tons	1,131,334 tons
Number of passengers	618,957	940,141

He did not propose to introduce any changes in the tariff. Nothing was more important for the trade and business of the country than that there should be perfect confidence as to the permanence of existing arrangements, and he thought that they could do no greater service to Canada than by showing that it was not necessary continually to change the tariff arrangements.

He was satisfied that no Finance Minister had been less troubled than he had been by applications for changes in the tariff. He knew that the hon. member for South Oxford had a hundred applications for changes in the tariff for every single application he had received during the present session. He believed this was to a large extent due to the fact of general satisfaction upon the part of the nation with the existing condition of things, and it was not necessary to disturb them. [Cheers.]

He need not remind the House that both parties in the House had been extremely anxious to obtain a return to the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854, or such reciprocal trade relations as were enjoyed under that treaty, but he was bound to say that he believed the country would be greatly disappointed if that treaty were re-enacted. It certainly had given a great stimulus to Canadian trade at that period, but it was still more beneficial to the United States than to us and he could not forget that great changes had taken place in this country in many important respects, and also in the United States, which would bear upon the question if the treaty were re-enacted.

They had endeavored to promote free intercourse by placing upon the statute book in 1879 for a very long period an invitation to meet them half-way with reference to certain articles which did not cover all articles contained in the old Reciprocity Treaty. It had been re-enacted with every re-enactment of the tariff from that time down to the present period. They had done this to draw the attention of Americans to the fact that they were still anxious to promote free intercourse between the two countries upon terms mutually advantageous.

He did not remember having seen any reference to the subject of having placed on their free list several of these articles two or three years ago. Down to the present year this Government had no communication whatever with the Imperial Government on this question. When their attention was drawn to the fact of the United States' action in this respect, they felt that under the circumstances the wisest course to pursue was to meet the proposal made and put on the free list the articles contained in the clause made free by the action of Congress. They had thus removed these difficulties and settled these causes of political and commercial commotion between the Governments of Great Britain, the United States and Canada.

He found that the bill introduced into Congress by Mr. Mills, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, put a number of articles in which they were interested in Canada on the free list, but he would say that it was one thing to make a treaty and another thing to make a statutory arrangement. In a treaty there might be a number of articles which you did not desire to put on the free list, but it was done for the purpose of getting other articles which you greatly desired to obtain, but under legislative reciprocity the whole thing was entirely altered.

They could not imagine for a single moment that the policy of the great country to the south was going to be materially altered by any action of Canada. In the Mills bill it was proposed to put lumber on the free list. They knew that this was not out of regard for Canada but because they were carrying out the policy of the Democratic party in the United States, and they desired to make this article free in the interests of their own country, and so in reference to a large number of other articles—[hear, hear]—but this proposal was coupled with the statement that lumber would only be free to countries that had no export duty on logs, so that if this bill becomes law Canada, under existing arrangements, would meet with the same duties. In order to give Canada the advantage of this it was necessary to arm the Governor-General-in-Council with power, the moment the bill became law, to repeal the export duty on logs that we might reap the advantage of the act.

Under reciprocity, of tariffs both countries remained perfectly free to make free or impose any duties they saw fit as they did before, but under the circumstances he felt it was right for the protection of Canadian interests to modify the clause with reference to the articles which should be made free by the United States.

He had congratulated the House when Mr. Blake, in the very throes of a general election, had stated that the opposition of the Liberal party to a protective policy had ceased, and he thought that both parties were at one on this great question. [Hear, hear.] Mr. Blake had referred especially to the hon. member for South Oxford, and undertook that he was expressing his views as well as his own. He (Sir Charles) had regarded this as a great step on the part of the Liberals toward the treasury benches, and placed them in a better position before the people of this country. [Opposition cries of "Oh!"] He felt that the laboring portion of the community who had been lifted from a condition of helpless poverty to one of comfort could rest assured of no retrograde movement. All their fears might be at rest once and forever. [Hear, hear.]

They had drifted upon the rock of Commercial Union. It must not be forgotten though that the leader of the Opposition had never committed himself to that policy, but it could not but be remembered that hon. gentlemen occupying distinguished positions in the party were ready to adopt Commercial Union.

Where was this policy now? Wiman, with all his money and ambition, stood alone to-day without a supporter on the question of Commercial Union in Canada. Loyal British sentiment was too deep in the hearts of Canadians to allow them to adopt a policy which would end by placing Canada in the despicable condition of having its tariff laws and taxes imposed by a Government with which they had no connection or become a part of that great country. [Hear, hear.]

There was no more chance of obtaining Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States than there was of dictating to the Imperial Government who should be her Her Majesty's advisers. There was not a newspaper in the United States that ever gave countenance to the scheme. Wiman himself laughed at it. They would not be so regardless of their own interests as to take away the trade barrier between Canada and the United States and leave Canada free to admit products of England upon our own terms. There was no party in the United States Congress who would dare adopt such a policy. The Liberal party could not have discovered a more ridiculous policy if they offered a premium for one. [Laughter.]

The United States had attained their position as rulers of the world by a high protective policy, and there was no free trade there. The Mills Bill simply proposed to make raw materials and natural products free, and a reduction of iron duties from 43½ to 41. That was all the free trade they admitted there, which was the same policy as that of the Canadian Government.

Canadians had a country of vast extent and illimitable resources, the country was fast developing, and they were entering upon a career of rapid advancement which would draw the attention of agriculturists all over the civilized world. [Cheers.] Under these circumstances, what had Canada to be afraid of? They had accomplished much and had no need to throw away their birthright for a mess of pottage when the horizon was bright with promises for them.

They had the flag floating above them which had floated triumphantly over the most remote regions of the earth, and an army and a navy behind them, and a moral power among nations which in the past had carried its weight in the destinies of the world, and would forever continue to do so.

Sir Charles Tupper then moved:

That the Speaker do leave the chair and that the House resolve itself directly into committee of ways and means.

The hon. gentleman resumed his seat quite hoarse after his great effort and was received with loud, enthusiastic and continued cheering.

Sir Richard Cartwright, after a lengthy speech, moved in amendment:

That the net debt of Canada on June 30, 1878, was $140,362,069; that the net debt of the Dominion on March 31, 1888, was $226,255,286; that the expenditure for the year ending June 30, 1878, was $23,508,153, said for the year ending June 30, 1887, was $35,458,161; that the estimated expenditure for the year ending June 30, last, is $35,421,440, wholly apart from divers known unprovided expenditures, which will raise the amount likely to be expended to at least $37,000,000, being an increase of the net debt to the amount of $8,000,000, and of the total annual expenditure of $13,500,000 in the space of eleven years; that the said debt and expenditure have increased in a ratio very far in excess of the increase of wealth and population of the country during said intervals; that the said expenditure is provided for by a system of taxation so adjusted as to press with extreme and unjust severity upon the thrifty and industrious producer, and especially upon all farmers, laborers, mechanics, artisans and factory operatives, who are at present subject to a custom taxation on articles necessary to life and comfort, amounting to nearly 100 per cent. more than that levied upon members of corresponding classes in Great Britain and Ireland; that the mischiefs caused by the present system are further aggravated by the very general substitution of specific for ad valorem duties, whereby the injustice of the existing mode of taxation and the unfair preference shown to rich consumers over the less wealthy is at one and the same time increased and concealed, and that it is expedient that said injustice should be remedied and that the wealthy classes should be compelled to bear their fair proportionate share of the burden of taxation.

That this House views with alarm the extremely rapid increase of the debt and taxation of the Dominion, especially in view of the fact that there has been contemporaneously a very great reduction in the debt and amount required for necessary taxation in the United States, and that this House is of opinion that any considerable addition to the debt or taxation of the people of Canada will work very great hardship to the bulk of the population and will tend powerfully to place them in a position of great disadvantage as regards the people of the United States, besides seriously prejudicing their chances of securing improved commercial relations with the people of that country.

Hon. Mr. McLelan moved adjournment of the debate.

The House adjourned at 10.45 p.m.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

Discussion on the Earl of Dunraven's Bill to Reform that Body.

LONDON, April 27.—There was a long discussion in the House of Lords last night on the Earl of Dunraven's bill to reform that body. The main features of the bill are: That peers, on creation, shall be entitled to a seat in the House of Lords only by election; that peers shall be entitled to resign their seats to become eligible for the House of Commons, and provisions for the delegation of legislative functions to a select body elected from the whole House by proportional representation, and for the admission of colonial, Catholic, dissenting and scientific representatives.

Lords Pembroke, Camperdown and Cowper spoke in favor of reform, although they did not agree with the lines of the bill.

Lord Salisbury said the bill proposed excessive changes. He thought the first clause was unnecessary. He had very seldom seen the house crowded, and he believed that election would fail to eliminate objectionable members. There were many objections to the second clause, one being the likelihood that it would take all the best to the House of Commons. In regard to the fourth clause, that the members be elected by the new county councils for a limited number of years, he failed to understand how the idea to entrust them with such power could enter any man's head, the councils being merely an experiment. If, as proposed, one-half or one-third of the members were to be elected, the elective principle would soon destroy the hereditary principle. The bill was an abandonment of the firm rock of experience for a plunge into the unknown. The Government was, however, willing to consider the admission of life-peers, for which they were willing to introduce a separate bill. They were also willing to consider other needful reforms.

Lord Granville said he was pleased with the latter part of Lord Salisbury's speech. If this concession had been made long ago it would have averted many attacks that have been made upon the house of Lords.

Lord Dunraven thereupon withdrew his bill.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Toronto deputation which went to Montreal this week to interview the railway magnates has returned to Toronto. There will be a special meeting of the City Council on Monday to consider the terms of the agreement arrived at. A new union passenger station is to be erected within 2½ years, six overhead bridges are to be built and the level crossings at Bay and York-streets shall be closed to the public.

The following resolution was passed at the last meeting of the Builders' Laborers' Union by a unanimous vote of 500 members: Whereas, It has been brought to our notice that certain cigar manufacturers in Montreal make a habit of beating and otherwise cruelly ill-treating girls and boys of tender years; therefore be it resolved that this union earnestly requests its members to refuse any cigar made by those inhuman manufacturers, and in all cases to see that the blue union label of the Cigarmakers' Union is on all boxes, which is a guarantee that they are made by union men. R. Lamb, Sec. B.L.U.

A Gladstonian Elected.

LONDON, April 27.—In the party election in the mid-Lanarkshire division to-day, Phillips (Gladstonian) received 3847 votes, Bousfield (Cons.) 2917 and Hardie (Labor) 617. At the last election the Home Rule candidate received 3779 and the Liberal Unionist 2996.

A woman in Tennessee found a bombshell the other day and decided to use it as an andiron. She put it on the stove to heat and went about her cooking. The funeral was largely attended.

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

—o—

BARGAINS IN SILKS AT ROWSE'S,
BARGAINS IN DRESS GOODS,
BARGAINS IN HOSIERY,
BARGAINS IN GLOVES

BARGAINS!

BARGAINS IN PRINTS
BARGAINS IN COTTONS,
BARGAINS IN RIBBONS,
BARGAINS IN FRILLINGS,
BARGAINS IN BUTTONS AT ROWSE'S

ROWSE'S.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 100. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, APRIL, 28 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

—o—

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it,
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

—o—

THE

METROPOLITAN

GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London, Glasgow Edinburgh, Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET — PETERBOROUGH

CARSLAKE'S

GRAND DERBY SWEEP

$25,000.00.

		Total
1st horse (in duplicate)	$3,000 each prize.	$6,000
2nd " "	$2,000 " "	$4,000
3rd " "	$1,000 " "	$2,000
Other starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$2,000	$4,000
Non-starters (divided equally) in duplicate	$4,500	$9,000

5,000 Tickets at $5 each.

Drawing May 28th, Race May 30th 1888
Ten per cent. deducted from all prizes.
Address, GEORGE CARSLAKE, Prop.
22d eod-tmos Mansion House, Montreal

CLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS TENTS! ! !

—to—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives. I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

Garden Tools,
Silver Dollar Spades
Spading Forks,
Manure Forks,
Steel Rakes,
Hoes,
Wheelbarrows,
Long and Short Handled Shovels,

AT LOWEST PRICES.

—o—

GEO. STETHEM.

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,
2mos62-w11 Millbrook P. O

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL.

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

NEW TAILORING

—AND—

GENTS' FURNISHING

ESTABLISHMENT.

MR. GEO. BALL

desires to inform his friends and the public generally, that he will open in the store adjoining McAndrew & Noble's, opposite the market square, about the 1st of May, a splendid stock of which have been selected with the greatest care, and will be found worthy of the patronage of the gentlemen of the town.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS,

Also a complete stock of cloths suitable for spring and summer wear, including overcoatings, trouserings, tweeds, broadcloths, etc., etc.

Mr. Ball intends devoting his whole attention to the cutting department, and a practical, lengthy experience, enables him to guarantee a good, stylish fit, in well made goods. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. A trial order will convince any customer that as regard both price and style, the shop for his money is that of

GEO. BALL,

Tailor & Clothier, opposite the Market. d38-w17

DURING 5 YEARS

stay in Peterborough I have engraved over 6000 Coins, Repaired over 4000 Watches, besides Engraving Brass Plates, Repairing Jewellery, Clocks, etc. Still I am much in the position of Oliver Twist—I want more. English Levers and Old Country Bulls Eyes, accurately Repaired.

IRVING

M. H. J. L. E.

SIMCOE-ST., WEST OF GEORGE.

d97-w17-1yr

SEPARATE TENDERS

sealed and marked "TENDER" will be received by the undersigned until and including

SATURDAY, 12th May,

—FOR THE—

Whole Work and Material, and also for the Work and Material of the various Trades, required in the the construction and completion of Collegiate Institute at Lindsay.

Plans and specifications will be ready for inspection at the residence of Mr. Wm. Duffus, Architect, Lindsay, on and after Wednesday, 2nd May.

The committee has purchased dimension and building stone and bricks, which must be taken by the contractors for these works at cost price.

Tenders must be on the form supplied by architect and accompanied by bona fide signatures of two good and sufficient persons who will become sureties for fulfilment of contract.

The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

J. R. McNEILLIE,
Chairman Building Committee.
Lindsay, April 26, 1888.

EXCEPTIONAL CHANCE

FOR SPECULATION IN

REAL ESTATE

Valuable Properties for sale, suitable for

Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

2nd.—The ERSKINE Homestead;

Being the North Part of Block "U," Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession street, and 240 on the road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be sub-divided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "R," Ashburnham,

Containing about 36 acres, having a frontage of about 590 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan,

On the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town, with brick dwelling house 32x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil is first-class. Suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The Residence of Mrs. F. W. HAULTAIN,

Situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House Hill. There is about ¾ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c, soil first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—ERIN COTTAGE,

Being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13, in 13th con. Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN.

We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

HALL & HAYES,
3md35 Solicitors, &c., Peterborough.

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. R. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental.

For Sale or to Rent

WHY PAY RENT

WHEN you can get a lot and material from J. Carlisle. No money asked for 5 or 6 years. Cheapest and best way to acquire a home. Who would be without one. Apply to J. CARLISLE, P. O. Box 216, Peterborough Houses to rent.

Wants.

WANTED.

COMFORTABLE DWELLING, with say 7 or 8 rooms in convenient locality. Address G. R. C., care of REVIEW office. 3d99

WANTED.

2 SERVANTS. One for general housework and one as cook. Apply at NICHOLLS HOSPITAL. 3d99

WANTED.

A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, (a new brick house, opposite Dr Beall's). MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d15

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

G&w JAMES STEVENSON.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON
Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d147-w51

BARLEY FOR SALE.

3000 bushels of damaged barley, for sale at STEVENSON'S Storehouse, Simcoe-st 61

R. F. MORROW

GOLD Medalist and Honor Graduate of Toronto Schooo of Dentistry Nitrous Oxide and other anesthetics used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office over China Hall, corner of George and Simcoe Streets Peterborough 1vd&w

MONEY TO LEND

On best terms and lowest rates obtainable.

CEO. M. ROGER,

Peterborough, Solicitor, &c.

OPERA HOUSE

2—NIGHTS—2

Commencing Monday, April 30th

THE GREAT ENGLISH ACTRESS,

CLAIRE SCOTT

—Supported by—

S. K. COBURN,

And a strictly first-class Company, in the following grand repertoire:—

Elizabeth, Queen of England,

Mary Queen of Scots.

MAGNIFICENT COSTUMES,
ELEGANT STAGE SETTING,
GRAND TABLEAUX.

Each play will be presented in the same artistic manner as when played at high prices. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. Plan now open at Hartley's Music Store. 5d97

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being bot practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction; both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

H. C. STABLER, 1yd38 JAS. R. DONELL

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS, George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

—o—

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

—o—

Thomas Kelly

—o—

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1888.

THE DOMINION'S FINANCES

SIR CHARLES TUPPER MAKES HIS BUDGET SPEECH.

The Tariff Not Disturbed—Canada's General Condition, Expansion of Trade under the N. P., and the Growth of Interprovincial Commerce dealt with—Some Vigorous Remarks about C. P.

OTTAWA, April 27.—Sir Charles Tupper made his Budget speech this afternoon, and he managed to get through it in about 2½ hours. The fact that it was understood that the tariff was not to be molested in any way detracted from the general interest and anxiety that is felt in the world of commerce in the Budget.

The speech of the Minister of Finance was varied in its scope, and included the general position of the country, the expansion of trade under the fostering care of the tariff, the great growth of our interprovincial commerce, etc., and in the wind-up Sir Charles treated the House to some lively expressions concerning Commercial Union, Unrestricted Reciprocity and the various other matters that the two great political parties have been wrestling with for the past few years.

Sir Charles having disposed successfully of the Treaty Bill as far as the Canadian Parliament is concerned, seemed greatly relieved when he got the Budget, his last big effort of this session, off his hands.

Sir Charles was enthusiastically received when he began to speak at 3.30. He said that he had been under the necessity of being absent from Ottawa for a considerable period since last session, and although his Department has been watched over during his absence by the Minister of Customs with his usual ability, yet the House would expect from him as Finance Minister the usual statement as to the financial condition of the country.

Taking first financial affairs for the year ended June 30 last, they estimated that the revenue received from all sources would amount to $35,300,000. It was with pleasure that he informed the House that the total revenues for the year were $35,734,993, or an increase over the estimate of $454,933. [Cheers.] The yield from customs, which was estimated at $22,000,000, actually amounted to $22,378,800. (Cheers.) This increase was no doubt mainly caused by the revenue of the following year being anticipated owing to changes made in the tariff. In 1887 there had been an increase in duty on coal and coke (although 150,000 tons of anthracite coal was admitted free), fancy goods, silks and sugars as compared with 1886, while the quantity of spirits imported and taken for consumption had decreased, showing conclusively that the temperate habits of the people were gaining ground.

It was estimated that the expenditure for the year would be $35,600,000, leaving an estimated deficit of $300,000. The actual expenditure for the year was very close to the estimate, being only an excess of $57,680, and the estimated deficit of $300,000 has been turned into a surplus of $97,313. [Cheers.] In view of the statements made last year the Government could not, he thought, be accused of laying an over-sanguine statement before the House when they compared the estimate with the final realizations. [Hear, hear.]

He then proceeded to review the probable expectation of operations of the present fiscal year. Last year he had stated that the total revenues expected to be realized for the fiscal year 1887-'88 would be $36,400,000, made up as follows:

Customs	$22,600,000
Excise	6,400,000
Miscellaneous	7,600,000

Coming to the expenditure side of the account it would be seen that Parliament during the last session granted supply which, with actual expenditure, amounted to $35,969,981. As members were aware they had brought down estimates in addition thereto of $1,112,000. These two sums would amount to $37,082,000, and taking the usual savings into account on estimates, and these last year amounted to $100,000, it was very probable that the expenditure will be in round numbers, $37,000,000. It was but fair, however, that the House should take into account the fact that in the year 1886-7 he anticipated a deficit of $300,000. In reality this had been turned into a surplus of over $97,000, and it was but right to estimate that this sum of $400,000 was paid in in anticipation of 1887-8. With regard to the probable result of this year he considered that this fact should be taken into account, and having due regard to economy and expenditure, he trusted that the accounts for the present and coming year, taken as a whole, will balance. [Hear, hear.]

Dealing with the estimates for 1888-89, he said that, as owing to the new departure many votes have already been taken into account and explanations given in regard thereto, it would not be necessary to offer extended observations as to variations in expenditure as compared with the estimates asked for in supply last session. The amount of estimates now laid before Parliament was $35,421,440.22, but, as the House was aware, no sums have been placed in the estimates for mail subsidies and steamship subventions. There will therefore have to be added to the amount already brought down sums sufficient to cover these services, and further amounts will undoubtedly be asked from Parliament in such supplementary estimates to complete the services of the year, but he believed that, taking all things into account, at the close of the year 1888-89 revenue and expenditure would about reach an equilibrium.

At the commencement of the fiscal year the Government, chiefly in deference to the banking community, lowered the limit of deposits in savings banks and fixed the amount to be received from any depositor at $300 in any one year and $1000 in all. Originally savings bank deposits were unlimited. A reduction was then made to $20,000 and afterwards this was again brought down to $3000. Now the limit is, as he said, $1000. The effect, however, on Government savings bank deposits has been that some of the larger deposits held by the Government have been withdrawn and have gone to swell the general business of the country by transfers to banks where enhanced rates of interests were offered.

The deposits in the postoffice savings banks show an increase, and if we set one side against the other, savings bank balances since July 14 last are nearly stationary, that is to say deposits equalling withdrawals. Still the country is to be congratulated that deposits have increased in a marked manner from the poorer classes, showing that labor is fully employed and adequately paid. [Cheers.] To illustrate this he might state that the number of depositors in postoffice savings banks March 31 last was over 100,000, an increase of over 10,000 since June 10 last, and the number of depositors in other savings banks under the control of the Finance Department increased from 56,000 to 57,000 in the same period. [Hear, hear.]

Sir Charles then proceeded to show how far the tariff changes of 1887 had affected the iron industry. It had provoked hostile criticism in England at the outset, but like the fiscal policy adopted in 1879 it was now more clearly understood, and the British press viewed in a more friendly spirit our efforts to develop our Canadian stores of mineral wealth within our borders. Sufficient time, however, had not yet elapsed to demonstrate fully the effects of the new tariff, the act having virtually not come into operation until the present fiscal year, and capital being cautious and very slow to move in new fields of enterprise. But he might state that the Mills and Randall bills now before Congress showed a fixed determination on the part of our American neighbors to continue an efficient measure of protection to that great industry. [Hear, hear.]

The Minister next referred to the effect of the tariff in the explorations made as to new fields for the development of this industry. Extensive and valuable deposits of iron ore, he said, had been discovered in the vicinity of Fort Arthur, Ont., and on Hunters Island near the boundary line. When the Thunder Bay Colonization Railway reaches the ports the opening of these deposits will be facilitated.

South of the Canadian Pacific crossing of the Seine River, about 100 miles west of Fort William, an immense deposit of high grade bessemer iron ore has been discovered. It is said to be the largest and finest bed of ore ever found in America. The ore is a black magnetic oxide and analyzes from 62 to 70 per cent. of metallic iron.

As closely connected with the development of manufactures, proceeded Sir Charles, and as an evidence of the steady progress of the country, it may be mentioned that in addition to the expansion of the iron industry the changes in the tariff had a beneficial effect in the increase of the output of coal from the mines. In the Nova Scotia and Cape Breton mines a close estimate of the output was:

Name of place.	For year 1886.	For year 1887.
Cumberland County mines	416,000 tons.	469,347 tons.
Picton County mines	380,000 "	395,000 "
Cape Breton mines	577,000 "	717,000 "
Total	1,373,000	1,581,292

In 1879 the coal raised at Spring Hill was 92,000 tons, in 1887 the output had increased to 442,000 tons. [Hear, hear.]

Sir Charles next gave the House something about the cotton industry of the country. At the present time about 60,000 bales of raw cotton, valued at $3,000,000, was being annually used in the Dominion. This was an increase of 50,000 bales in ten years. Half a million spindles were running and 9000 hands were employed, and the capital invested was $8,000,000.

The interprovincial trade of the country was referred to at length. In 1878 and 1887 the following movements took place over the Intercolonial Railway in articles carried both ways:

Articles.	1878.	1887.
Flour	637,778 bbls.	753,480 bbls.
Grain	331,170 bush	1,016,334 bush
Live stock	46,498 head	80,782 head
Lumber	56,000,000 feet	161,100,000 feet.
Manufactures	140,858 tons	820,000 tons
Other articles, not including firewood	230,741 tons	820,000 tons
Total freight	522,710 tons	1,131,334 tons
Number of passengers	618,957	940,141

He did not propose to introduce any changes in the tariff. Nothing was more important for the trade and business of the country than that there should be perfect confidence as to the permanence of existing arrangements, and he thought that they could do no greater service to Canada than by showing that it was not necessary continuously to change the tariff arrangements.

He was satisfied that no Finance Minister had been less troubled than he had been by applications for changes in the tariff. He knew that the hon. member for South Oxford had a hundred applications for changes in the tariff for every single application he had received during the present session. He believed this was to a large extent due to the fact of general satisfaction upon the part of the nation with the existing condition of things, and it was not necessary to disturb them. [Cheers.]

He need not remind the House that both parties in the House had been extremely anxious to obtain a return to the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854, or such reciprocal trade relations as were enjoyed under that treaty, but he was bound to say that he believed the country would be greatly disappointed if that treaty were re-enacted. It certainly had given a great stimulus to Canadian trade at that period, but it was still more beneficial to the United States than to us and he could not forget that great changes had taken place in this country in many important respects, and also in the United States, which would bear upon the question if the treaty were re-enacted.

They had endeavored to promote free intercourse by placing upon the statute book in 1879 for a very long period an invitation to meet them half-way with reference to certain articles which did not cover all articles contained in the old Reciprocity Treaty. It had been re-enacted with every re-enactment of the tariff from that time down to the present period. They had done this to draw the attention of Americans to the fact that they were still anxious to promote free intercourse between the two countries upon terms mutually advantageous.

He did not remember having seen any reference to the subject of having placed on their free list several of these articles two or three years ago. Down to the present year this Government had no communication whatever with the Imperial Government on this question. When their attention was drawn to the fact of the United States' action in this respect, they felt that under the circumstances the wisest course to pursue was to meet the proposal made and put on the free list the articles contained in the clause made free by the action of Congress. They had thus removed these difficulties and settled these causes of political and commercial commotion between the Governments of Great Britain, the United States and Canada.

He found that the bill introduced into Congress by Mr. Mills, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, put a number of articles in which they were interested in Canada on the free list, but he would say that it was one thing to make a treaty and another thing to make a statutory arrangement. In a treaty there might be a number of articles which you did not desire to put on the free list, but it was done for the purpose of getting other articles which you greatly desired to obtain, but under legislative reciprocity the whole thing was entirely altered.

They could not imagine for a single moment that the policy of the great country to the south was going to be materially altered by any action of Canada. In the Mills bill it was proposed to put lumber on the free list. They knew that this was not out of regard for Canada but because they were carrying out the policy of the Democratic party in the United States, and they desired to make this article free in the interests of their own country, and so in reference to a large number of other articles. [Hear, hear]—but this proposal was coupled with the statement that lumber would only be free to countries that had no export duty on logs, so that if this bill becomes law Canada, under existing arrangements, would meet with the same duties. In order to give Canada the advantage of this it was necessary to arm the Governor-General-in-Council with power, the moment the bill became law, to repeal the export duty on logs that we might reap the advantage of the act.

Under reciprocity of tariffs both countries remained perfectly free to make free or impose any duties they saw fit as they did before, but under the circumstances he felt it was right for the protection of Canadian interests to modify the clause with reference to the articles which should be made free by the United States.

He had congratulated the House when Mr. Blake, in the very throes of a general election, had stated that the opposition of the Liberal party to a protective policy had ceased, and he thought that both parties were at one on this great question. [Hear, hear.] Mr. Blake had referred especially to the hon. member for South Oxford, and undertook that he was expressing his views as well as his own. He (Sir Charles) had regarded this as a great step on the part of the Liberals toward the treasury benches, and placed them in a better position before the people of this country. [Opposition cries of "Oh!"] He felt that the laboring portion of the community who had been lifted from a condition of helpless poverty to one of comfort could rest assured of no retrograde movement. All their fears might be at rest once and forever. [Hear, hear.]

They had drifted upon the rock of Commercial Union. It must not be forgotten though that the leader of the Opposition had never committed himself to that policy, but it could not but be remembered that hon. gentlemen occupying distinguished positions in the party were ready to adopt Commercial Union.

Where was this policy now? Wiman, with all his money and ambition, stood alone to-day without a supporter on the question of Commercial Union in Canada. Local Irish sentiment was too deep in the hearts of Canadians to allow them to adopt a policy which would end by placing Canada in the despicable condition of having its tariff laws and taxes imposed by a Government with which they had no connection or become a part of that great country. [Hear, hear.]

There was no more chance of obtaining Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States than there was of dictating to the Imperial Government who should be her Her Majesty's advisers. There was not a newspaper in the United States that ever gave countenance to the scheme. Wiman himself laughed at it. They would not be so regardless of their own interests as to take away the trade barrier between Canada and the United States and leave Canada free to admit products of England upon our own terms. There was no party in the United States Congress who would dare adopt such a policy. The Liberal party could not have discovered a more ridiculous policy if they offered a premium for one. [Laughter.]

The United States had attained their position as rulers of the world by a high protective policy, and there was no free trade there. The Mills Bill simply proposed to make raw materials and natural products free, and a reduction of iron duties from 43½ to 41. That was all the free trade they admitted there, which was the same policy as that of the Canadian Government.

Canadians had a country of vast extent and illimitable resources, the country was fast developing, and they were entering upon a career of rapid advancement at which would draw the attention of agriculturists all over the civilized world. [Cheers.] Under these circumstances, what had Canada to be afraid of? They had accomplished much and had no need to throw away their birthright for a mess of pottage when the horizon was bright with promises for them.

They had the flag floating above them which had floated triumphantly over the most remote regions of the earth, and an army and a navy behind them, and a moral power among nations which in the past had carried its weight in the destinies of the world, and would forever continue to do so.

Sir Charles Tupper then moved:

That the Speaker do leave the chair and that the House resolve itself directly into committee of ways and means.

The hon. gentleman resumed his seat quite hoarse after his great effort and was received with loud, enthusiastic and continued cheering.

Sir Richard Cartwright, after a lengthy speech, moved in amendment:

That the net debt of Canada on June 30, 1878, was $140,582,069; that the net debt of the Dominion on March 31, 1888, was $238,293,296; that the expenditure for the year ending June 30, 1878, was $24,500,158, and for the year ending June 30, 1887, was $35,638,161; that the estimated expenditure for the year ending June 30, 1889, is $35,671,446, wholly apart from divers known unprovided expenditures, which will raise the amount likely to be expended to at least $37,000,000, being an increase of the net debt to the amount of $8,000,000, and of the total annual expenditure of $13,500,000 in the space of eleven years; that the said debt and expenditure have increased in a ratio very far in excess of the increase of wealth and population of the country during said intervals; that the said expenditure is provided for by a system of taxation so adjusted as to press with extreme and unjust severity upon the thrifty and industrious producer, and especially upon all farmers, laborers, mechanics, artisans and factory operatives, who are at present subject to a custom taxation on articles necessary to life and comfort amounting to nearly 1000 per cent. more than that levied upon members of corresponding classes in Great Britain and Ireland; that the mischiefs caused by the present system are further aggravated by the very general substitution of specific for ad valorem duties, whereby the injustice of the existing mode of taxation and the unfair preference shown to rich consumers over the less wealthy is at one and the same time increased and concealed, and that it is expedient that said injustice should be remedied and that the wealthy classes should be compelled to bear their fair proportionate share of the burden of taxation.

That this House views with alarm the extremely rapid increase of the debt and taxation of the Dominion, especially in view of the fact that there has been contemporaneously a very great reduction in the debt and amount required for necessary taxation in the United States, and that this House is of opinion that any considerable addition to the debt or taxation of the people of Canada will work very great hardship to the bulk of the population and will tend powerfully to place them in a position of great disadvantage as regards the people of the United States, besides seriously prejudicing their chances of securing improved commercial relations with the people of that country.

Hon. Mr. McLelan moved adjournment of the debate.

The House adjourned at 10.45 p.m.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

Discussion on the Earl of Dunraven's Bill to Reform that Body.

LONDON, April 27.—There was a long discussion in the House of Lords last night on the Earl of Dunraven's bill to reform that body. The main features of the bill are: That peers, on creation, shall be entitled to a seat in the House of Lords only by election; that peers shall be entitled to resign their seats to become eligible for the House of Commons, and provisions for the delegation of legislative functions to a select body elected from the whole House by proportional representation, and for the admission of colonial, Catholic, dissenting and scientific representatives.

Lords Pembroke, Camperdown and Cowper spoke in favor of reform, although they did not agree with the lines of the bill.

Lord Salisbury said the bill proposed excessive changes. He thought the first clause was unnecessary. He had very seldom seen the house crowded, and he believed that election would fail to eliminate objectionable members. There were many objections to the second clause, one being the likelihood that it would take all the best to the House of Commons. In regard to the fourth clause, that the members be elected by the new county councils for a limited number of years, he failed to understand how the idea to entrust them with such power could enter any man's head, the councils being merely an experiment. If, as proposed, one-half or one-third of the members were to be elected, the elective principle would soon destroy the hereditary principle. The bill was an abandonment of the firm rock of experience for a plunge into the unknown. The Government was, however, willing to consider the admission of life-peers, for which they were willing to introduce a separate bill. They were also willing to consider other needful reforms.

Lord Granville said he was pleased with the latter part of Lord Salisbury's speech. If this concession had been made long ago it would have averted many attacks that have been made upon the house of Lords.

Lord Dunraven thereupon withdrew his bill.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Toronto deputation which went to Montreal this week to interview the railway magnates has returned to Toronto. There will be a special meeting of the City Council on Monday to consider the terms of the agreement arrived at. A new union passenger station is to be erected within 2½ years, six overhead bridges are to be built and the level crossings at Bay and York-streets shall be closed to the public.

The following resolution was passed at the last meeting of the Builders' Laborers' Union by a unanimous vote of 300 members: Whereas, It has been brought to our notice that certain cigar manufacturers in Montreal make a habit of beating and otherwise cruelly ill-treating girls and boys of tender years; therefore be it resolved that this union earnestly requests its members to refuse any cigar made by those inhuman manufacturers, and in all cases to see that the blue union label of the Cigarmakers' Union is on all boxes, which is a guarantee that they are made by union men. R. Lamb, Sec. B.L.U.

A Gladstonian Elected.

LONDON, April 27.—In the party election in the mid-Lanarkshire division to-day, Phillips (Gladstonian) received 6847 votes, Bousfield (Cons.) 2917 and Hardie (Labor) 617. At the last election the Home Rule candidate received 3779 and the Liberal Unionist 2066.

A woman in Tennessee found a bombshell the other day and decided to use it as an andiron. She put it on the stove to heat and went about her cooking. The funeral was largely attended.

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

—o—

BARGAINS IN SILKS AT ROWSE'S,
BARGAINS IN DRESS GOODS,
BARGAINS IN HOSIERY,
BARGAINS IN GLOVES,

BARGAINS!

BARGAINS IN PRINTS
BARGAINS IN COTTONS,
BARGAINS IN RIBBONS,
BARGAINS IN FRILLINGS,
BARGAINS IN BUTTONS AT ROWSE'S

ROWSE'S.

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given the student who attains the highest general fficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, n this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need f Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1888.

BRIBERY IN KENT.

THE Ontario Government has come to the assistance of its friends of the Dominion Opposition and in aiding them in the election campaign in Kent County. At the time of the general elections a Liberal was elected for that constituency, but the methods by which his election was secured were found out and he was unseated by the courts. It is evidently the determination of the party to elect him again, and by the same means, but the Mowat Government, according to a circular issued by the Liberals of the county, is using the money of the Province to assist them. This circular calls on the people to vote for Mr. Campbell because "the Reform Government of Ontario" has relieved the township of Raleigh of an indebtedness of at least $17,000. The details of how this will be done are given. A deputation waited upon the Commissioner of Public Works to urge the remission of a portion of the indebtedness due the Government on the Government drains. The Commissioner "on behalf of the Government," the circular says, "offered to throw off the last five payments, and reduce the interest on the debenture indebtedness of the township to four per cent., which reductions of principal and interest relieves the township of an indebtedness at least $17,000. This grant reduces the cost of the drains from $64,000 to $48,000, leaving only some $9,000 to pay instead of $26,575—the amount heretofore due the Government."

This is referred to as "a generous act," but it is dealing liberally, at the time of an election and to influence votes, with the money of the people.

And this is not the first time that the indebtedness of townships to the Government in connection with the drainage fund has been used in this "generous" manner. Other favored municipalities in favored counties—such, for instance, as the one that the Hon. Mr. Pardee represents—have been presented with money—or relieved from the payment of debts, which amounts to the same thing—by Mr. Mowat and his colleagues.

THE Grit party seems to have five leaders: Cartwright, Mills, Laurier, Charlton and McMullen. And, by reason of the fact that they have developed a tendency to stick their noses into business that is not theirs, they may as well be called the Meddlesome Quintette Club.—Hamilton Spectator.

The name is all right, but the cool manner in which the Spectator reads Mr. J. D. Edgar out of the party leadership should be resented. Was it not Mr. Edgar who called Messrs. Cartwright and Charlton out of the troublesome path of commercial union and led them into the more crooked way of unrestricted reciprocity?

THE REVIEW desires to know why some papers persist in wrongly spelling the name of this town. Several Toronto papers always spell it Peterboro', the press of Lindsay is guilty of the same thing, and even Port Hope and Cobourg newspapers cut off the last three letters. Sigh!

THE New York Sun is being quoted to show the terrible condition of Cuba. That island may be in trouble, but when it is remembered that after reading Sir Richard Cartwright's speeches, the Sun says that Canada is in a bad way, we should be cautious. Cuba may have a Sir Richard.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

ASPHODEL.

Correspondence of the Review.

MATRIMONIAL.—On Tuesday, April 24th, Miss Johannah Boland, youngest daughter of the late John Boland, of Asphodel, and Mr. John Dwyer, also of this township, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Conway at the Roman Catholic church at Norwood. Miss Daly, of Asphodel, cousin of the bride, was bride's maid, and Mr. Dwyer, brother of the groom, was groomsman. The bride was attired in a beautiful steele colored satin dress, exquisitely trimmed. After the ceremony the party returned to the residence of the bride's mother, where over 130 people from this and surrounding townships assembled to honor the occasion, principally young people, strong, hearty and with an appetite for enjoyment. The wedding supper was an excellent one, the table being laden with wholesome and delicate edibles in abundance. The waiters were very attentive and Mrs. Boland, the good lady of the house, did everything possible for the enjoyment of her guests. Dancing was kept up all night. Music was furnished by Prof. Sullivan, of Douro, and Mr. Doherty, of Norwood, and while supper was on Mr. Philip O'Brien furnished some select music. Mr. R. Cavanagh, sr., tripped the light fantastic toe as he used to do in Ireland, and his lady partners did themselves credit. Mr. Daly, uncle of the bride, was careful to "keep the floor sprinkled" with an impartial and liberal hand. The music and the dancing continued until "labor with her hundred hands knocked at the golden gates of the morning," and all went home well pleased, having spent an enjoyable night that will not be forgotten by any who were present. The bride received a large number of beautiful presents, and both she and her husband are popular with their acquaintances.

For Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest ordinary food, Scott's Emulsion can be digested and give strength and flesh when all other food fails. See what Dr. A. H. Peck, Penn. Med. College, Pettycodiac, says: "I have used and prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and find it an excellent preparation agreeing well with the stomach, and its continued use adding great ly to the strength and comfort of the patient." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

NORWOOD.

Correspondence of the Review.

MATRIMONIAL.—Two couples were united in matrimony, on Tuesday, in the Roman Catholic Church, by the Rev. Father Conway. Mr. John Dwyer and Miss Johannah Boland, daughter of the late Mr. John Boland, of Asphodel; and Mr. Barry, of Douro, and Miss Christina Boland, daughter of Mr. Michael Boland, of Dummer, were the happy contracting parties. There was a good audience at the church to witness the ceremonies.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.—The Rev. Mr. Hunter, the evangelist, was at one time a student at the Norwood High School.

CHANGED PULPITS.—The Rev. Mr. Anderson, Methodist, and the Rev. Mr. Carmichael, Presbyterian, exchanged pulpits last Sunday.

A LITTLE WHILE.—The following poem, of which the Rev. Jas. Carmichael, M. A., of Norwood, is the author, was published in a Toronto paper:—

"A little while," and ye shall see me!
Surely thou tarriest long;
Bridegroom beloved, when shall this night of weeping
Be turned to song
With Heaven so far between us,
And earth so near to lure us and beguile.
How long? Oh thou did'st promise but to tarry
"A little while."

"A little while;" the sorrowing and the sinning
Are not for ever.
These charms that earth and sense have wound around me
Thine hand shall sever.
How long ere I awaken
Where nothing enters that can me defile,
I hear the voice of my beloved saying gently
"A little while."

"A little while," my heart and flesh are failing,
So long the night.
My feet are sore, mine eyes are dim with straining
Towards the light.
Oh! when wilt thou array me
In glorious body, no more weak and vile?
Come quickly! thou did'st promise but to tarry
"A little while."

"A little while," I say with wistful glances
At yon bright stars.
Where is the promise of thy Master's coming?
The world replies.
How long shall I be weary with hearing men
Thy name and laws revile?
Oh teach them that Thou dildst but mean to tarry
"A little while."

"A little while," the whole creation waits Thee.
In hope and fear.
Surely the sound of thine swift-driven chariot
At length I hear.
O earth, earth, earth arouse thee!
Wake from they tears! put on thy glory, smile!
Surely he cometh, and he will but tarry
"A little while."

Ladies go into ecstacies over the new perfume, "Lotus of the Nile."

LINDSAY.

HOME FOR THE AGED.—For several years there has been felt a growing necessity for providing a home for the aged and indigent of the town, and during the last month the town council have rented a suitable building on William-st. for the purpose. It has been nicely papered and painted inside and otherwise put in order for their accommodation. This week a matron has been put in charge and several occupants admitted. The institution will be under the direction of the central charity committee and will be open to visitors every afternoon. The inmates will be carefully cared for and will receive weekly visits from the clergymen of the town and the lady directors.—Post.

AT QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY.—One of Lindsay's high school boys has distinguished himself at the recent sessional examination in Queen's University. Fred Heap who is only 16 years of age came out first in both senior Latin and senior Greek, winning two foundation scholarships valued at $50 each. He also stood fourth in English, and was the only one winning double open scholarship last session at Queen's. These make four scholarships he has carried off during his two years college course, and show a very brilliant success so far for one so young. He is the youngest student in the college yet although in his second year there.

FIRE INQUEST.—A fire inquest was held before police magistrate O'Leary on Tuesday, to ascertain if possible the cause of and the circumstances attending the fire in Killaby's grocery store in March. William Henderson, Esq., of Toronto, general inspector of the Hartford Insurance Co. for Canada, conducted the investigation on behalf of the companies interested; J. W. McLaughlin appeared in the interest of the creditors, while Thos. Stewart watched Mr. Killaby's cause. Mr. Robert Killaby was examined at length touching on the condition of his business at and before his proposed compromise, the sale of certain goods, and everything connected with the fire. His clerk, H. Dobson, also gave evidence concerning a chattel mortage he had on the stock. Others were also examined. The evidence will be considered by Inspector Henderson.—Warder.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Rev. Dr. Lorimer, of the Immanuel Baptist church, Chicago, baptised a Chinese convert after his evening sermon on Sunday.

The King of Spain has had his gums lanced and is feeling much more comfortable. Uneasy lies the head that hasn't cut its first set of teeth.

Have you a Pain anywhere about you? USE PERRY DAVIS' "PAIN KILLER" and Get Instant Relief. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. 25 Cts. Per Bottle.

REVIEWS.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—Harper's for May has for its frontispiece a portrait of Kinglake, the historian of Lord Raglan in the Crimean war. Mr. Bowker's article on "London as a Literary Centre," presents many interesting facts and the portr[illegible] are excellent as well as numerous [illegible]. "Russian Convicts in the Salt Mines of Siberia," by Dr. Henry Lansdell, D. D., will dispel many preconceived ideas regarding the treatment of the prisoners. Mr. A. F. Heard's article on "Justice and Law in Russia," ably discusses an interesting subject. Articles on "A Winter in Algiers," and on Chicago and Denver, by able writers and excellently illustrated, will be welcomed. Fiction and poetry have an honorable plan in this number, and the departments show no falling off in interesting matter. This number is well deserving the attention it will receive. The work throughout, both literary and artistic, meets the usual high standard demanded of this periodical.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

The Proposed New Yacht.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 27.—The efforts that are being put forth here to awaken some enthusiasm in the Canadian yacht scheme are meeting with some slight success, but scarcely sufficient to justify the promoters in proceeding with the construction of a vessel. Howard D. Troop, the shipbuilder, has been up in Canada feeling the pulses of sporting men there. He has talked with Toronto, Montreal and Quebec yachtsmen, all of whom showed considerable interest in the subject, but none of them signified any desire to put up any cash until they had looked into the matter more. The gentlemen interviewed promised to bring the matter before their respective clubs and would advise Mr. Troop as to their feelings. If the sporting men of the Canadian cities manifest any disposition to help the project along it will probably be pushed through, but if they don't the probability is that it will be dropped. About $6000 have been promised here.

Racing in England.

LONDON, April 27.—Yesterday was the second day of the Derby spring meeting, with the Doveridge Cup the handicap race of the day. It was run over the straight mile with ten starters, of which Lord Lurgan's Torchlight was the favorite at 7 to 2. He was beaten a length and a neck by Mr. F. Renfrew's Lisbon, with Veracity two lengths away. The last betting was 6 to 1 against Veracity and 10 to 1 Lisbon. Conditions:

THE DOVERIDGE CUP OF £500, a handicap for 3-year olds and upwards, by subscription of 5 guineas each; closed March 7 with 32 subscribers, the straight mile. Mr. F. Renfrew's h.h. Lisbon, 5, by Carnuela, dam Comiro, by Katapish, 127..... 1
Lord Lurgan's br.c. by Torchlight, 4, by Dutch Skater, dam Illuminata, 95..... 2
Mr. W. J. Legh's b.c. Veracity, 4, by Wisdom, dam Vanish, 105..... 3
Seven others ran.

Roscoe Conkling's Trotters Sold.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The late Roscoe Conkling's trotters were sold at auction to-day. Legman, with a record of 2.25, brought only $1200, and Jerry, his mate, sold for $1550. The mare Maggie, Mr. Conkling's favorite, was sold for $1250.

For Coughs, Neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, and all diseases of the Lungs,

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the GREAT MODERN REMEDY. For Croup it is almost a Specific. As an Expectorant

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their Medical qualities. MINISTERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS who are so often troubled with Throat Diseases, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam taken a few times will ensure a permanent cure.

Prices, 25 cts. 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle.

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS.

RUPTURED and Deformed

FOR your convenience I will visit (see below) to attend Ruptured, especially large cases, of which over one hundred thousand have been successfully adjusted IN PERSON the last 20 years. Club Feet, Spinal Curvature, and all Deformities straightened by MECHANICAL means. Positively satisfactory system for sending Trusses by Mail. Send 6c. for book of invaluable information

CHAS. CLUTHE, Surgical Mechanist
115 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO

PETERBOROUGH
ORIENTAL HOUSE
Friday & Saturday, June 15 & 16

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

POWDER

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

THE COOK'S FRIEND

For Sale by all Grocers.

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

BAKING

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

Buy the Genuine Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos. Also the Williams Sewing Machine.

D. SMART,
Only Authorised Agent for Town and County of Peterborough.

A DISCOURSE ON PERTINENT POINTS.

Goughs in Humor and Eloquence.

LEND US YOUR EARS. WE'LL AMPLY REWARD YOUR LENDING.

We'll read you a lecture full of Eloquence on how to save money. We'll teach you the Humorous points of the Clothing Trade. Humor and Eloquence have a place in our business as well as on the public platform. We Humor every day the wants and wishes of Customers. We spend tons of Eloquence in expatiating on the value and virtues of our stock. It's not wasted. When we make a satisfied customer we gain the benefit of his Eloquence. Does he not call together his friends and neighbors and boom the many advantages of dealing at GOUGH'S. We purpose to send rolling down the aisles of time a booming echo that shall carry to posterity the fame of the Great and Wonderful Cheap Men, the Giant Clothiers: the People's Progressive and Popular Providers: the Napoleons of the Clothing Trade of Peterborough. (Cheers and Applause).

GOLDEN OPINIONS.

"Had I worn GOUGHS' best line of Trousers, I might even now have been in power. Have I made a mistake?" E——d Bl—e.

"It strikes me that these GOUGHS are benefactors to the people of the Midland District. They should be in the Cabinet. Wish to thunder I could catch them." Sir J—n Mc——d.

"What we do not want is Commercial Union. What we absolutely need is many more men like GOUGH BROS., of Peterborough, they are a Commercial Union themselves." Sir L——d T——y.

"The men who can sell two suits where only one suit was sold before are clearly philanthropists of the first water. I don't say I mean GOUGH BROS., but I am looking that way all the same." Hon. Mac——e B——l.

"(At Cincinnati)—"The greatest stumbling block to absolute Free Trade with Canada, is, I find, the business done by GOUGH BROS., at Peterborough. Our best men can do no better. They could'nt if they would. Their cheap prices and good goods are a standing menace to Annexation." E——s W——n.

See our Boy's Suits at 69c., Men's Working Suits at $2.50 worth $5.50, Working Pants (Men's) 25c. per pair.

GOUGH BROS.,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

WANTED.

1,000 HOUSE CLEANERS to get their Wall Paper at half the regular prices. It is going fast, but we intend to make it go faster if prices and styles have anything to do with it.

C. B. ROUTLEY.

NEW LIST

OF

BUILDING LOTS, &c., FOR SALE

1. That beautiful situation on Brock-st., east of and adjoining Mr. Nugent's new residence, so high above all surroundings, so central, so retired, and yet so convenient for all purposes. A most suitable place for a doctor's office and residence, or for any person wishing to reside near his office or business. Front Lot is 60x120 feet to lane, rear Lot 65x124 feet with an inexhaustible supply of first-class water. Who wants this?

2. This is an extremely Fine Lot with about 75 ft. frontage on Water-st. by 115 feet deep. It is an east front facing St. Paul's church and will be sold in one or two Lots. Act promptly.

3 Is a Fine Lot on Stewart-st. 87x115, opposite Messrs. Ha and Sheppard's beautiful mansions, protected on the north by the Chief of Police and charmed on the south by a Professor of Music.

4. In addition to the above we have Good Lots in north, east, south and west parts of the Town, and for Large Lots at low prices we would call attention to the Ludgate, Carlisle and Toronto Real Estate Investment Coy's suburban additions, where good value can be had for small investments.

For Houses and Lots in all parts of the Town, Ashburnham and Auburn we have variety and value to suit any reasonable buyer.

W have Garden Lots from one to 10 acres for sale or to rent. Also several Farms. One Large Farm with Good Buildings, Fall Crop and Ploughing to rent cheap.

All are invited to call at our office or write for further particulars.

HURLEY & BUNTON

Hunter Street.

MONEY TO LEND:

The undersigned has an unlimited amount of Capital to lend on security of real estate mortgages at lowest current rates and on most favourable terms of repayment.

A. P. POUSSETTE.

Solicitor, Water Street.

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Have taken the Lead. Our Store crowded with bayers every day. Customers have found out that the Best and Cheapest Goods in Town are only to be found at SULLIVAN'S. You have but to glance at our stock to be convinced that the best assortment of DRESS GOODS is to be found only at our store. We have everything that is Bright, Fresh and Stylish, nothing dull, old and desolate.

THIS WEEK

—WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF—

DRESS GOODS.

We claim the credit of resembling in our Dress Goods department a well filled garden with flowers in full bloom and the sun of prosperity and fair dealing smiling benignly on all the fair scene. The quality and quantity of our stock being undeniable, we need only add that in this special line we offer bargains that will startle you in fancy, plain and medium Dress Goods of every conceivable shade, texture and fabric. We give you a choice and at figures hitherto unsurpassed. Call and see us and be convinced that we are not misrepresenting facts.

Piles of Remnants of Dress Goods and Silk

—AT YOUR OWN PRICE.—

No. 2, Cluxton's Block.

M. SULLIVAN & Co.

Legal.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, &c. Cox's Insurance building George street, Peterborough. 1yd-w

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C., B. C. L.

SOLICITOR, &c., Water Street, Peterborough. d32w7

EDWARD A. PECK.

(SUCCESSOR TO SMITH & PECK.)

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office in Lundy's Block (up stairs), next door to REVIEW Office, George Street, Peterborough.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES PUBLIC. Hunter street, Peterborough, next English church. Money to Loan at lowest rates of Interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, an SOLICICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c.—Office:—Next to the Post Office, entrance of George street. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over McClelland's Jewellery Store. d118w18

C. W. SAWERS.

BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Solicitor in the Supreme Court, Conveyancer, Notary, &c. Office:—Market block, corner of George and Simcoe Streets, Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN. d103w15

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water street, Peterborough. d37-w7

HATTON & WOOD,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter Streets, over T. Dolan & Co's store MONEY TO LOAN.

R. E. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON

D. BELLECHEM,

Funeral Director.

CAN be found Day or Night at his Warerooms, Hunter-st., or at his Residence adjoining his Warerooms. TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION.

This space belongs to Manufacturers' Life and Accident Insurance Company. Average daily business about $25,000.

WILSON & MORRISON

Managers for Eastern Ontario.

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the ruh

Yours truly,

A PAPER-HANGER.

CANNED GOODS

—AT—

MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.

ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.

BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.

SALMON, MACKEREL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.

APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRANTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,

REMOVAL SALE.

CORSETS

In all the leading makes at greatly reduced prices during our clearing sale.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER

—AT—

SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON

Issuer of Marriage Licenses.

Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 & ws

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1888.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Moderate winds; fair, and warm weather to-day; cooler east and north-east winds and local rains to-morrow.

Have You Forgotten?

If you have it is not our fault. You will lose money if you fail to take advantage of our great sacrifice sale of English, French and German Dress Goods. We had over 200 pieces laid out and during the week a lot of these have been sold. Enough remains to afford a good selection—say 150 pieces—and every piece is a bargain at the prices we are quoting. Shoppers should call this evening and see the goods. When the golden lion undertakes to clear out dress goods a clearance follows.

A Close Shave.

At the Agricultural grounds this afternoon Mr. Fred. Robinson had a narrow escape from death. He was standing with some others near the gate when the stallion "General Lee" was led in. The horse kicked and Robinson, who tripped over a bar, was just touched with the horse's hind hoofs on the chest. He was knocked down, but happily he was not injured in the least. Those who were standing by ran to pick up a dead man as they expected. The young man had indeed a close shave.

Accident.

On Friday evening, Messrs. A. White, Toronto, district traffic agent of the Grand Trunk, and Mr. J. M. Irwin were driving around town. When near St. Andrew's Church, while going over a crossing, the front seat of the "buckboard" upon which they were riding gave way and the two gentlemen were thrown on the road, Mr. Irwin falling underneath. At first it was thought that both gentlemen were seriously injured, but happily they escaped very lightly. Mr. Irwin struck on the side of his head and the fall raised quite a lump, while Mr. White had his right arm wrenched. Both were badly shaken up but nothing more serious happened.

We will pay the highest market prices in cash for Eggs and choice fresh Butter at The Pantry. d96

The Gun Club.

The was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the gun club on Friday afternoon. The shooting, however, was very poor and it was decided to defer until a later date, the choosing of a team to meet the pigeon poppers of Ottawa. Mr. R. M. Roy was on hand and secured an excellent photograph of the members who were at the park. Sides were chosen and captained by Messrs. H. Calcutt and R. Tivey, with the following result:—

NO. I TEAM.
H. Calcutt	1	1	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0—4
J. D. Collins	0	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	0	0—6
H. Nell	0	1	1	0	1	1	1	0	1	1—7
A. E. Thompson	1	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	1	0—5
C. W. Calcutt	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0—2
E. Harding	0	0	0	1	1	0	1	1	1	0—5
G. J. Miller	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	1—3
Total										35

NO. II TEAM.
R. Tivey	1	1	1	0	0	1	0	1	1	0—6
H. T. Strickland	0	1	1	0	1	1	0	0	0	1—5
Judge Weller	1	0	0	1	1	0	1	1	0	0—5
H. W. Kent	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0—1
J. E. McIntyre	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	1	1	0—4
R. E. Wood	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
R. W. Muncaster	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0—2
Total										23

Davis' Pain-Killer is the best medicine in the world for all Diseases of the Bowels.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

New Maple Syrup

Just received at Elliott & Tierney's. Try Vanderveers and Holmes celebrated New York Biscuits, for sale at the Palace Grocery.

Y. W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the "X" will be held in their rooms on Monday evening, the 30th inst., at 7.30. All young women are cordially invited.

Y. M. L. C. C.

A regular meeting of the Young Men's Liberal Conservative Club will be held at their rooms, on Tuesday evening next, when a full attendance is requested.

HAVING decided at The Pantry to clean out our entire stock of Crockery and Glassware, we will give astonishing bargains to all who will favor us with their patronage. d96

Inverlea for Sale

"Inverlea" is to be cut up into building lots. The plan will be ready in a few days and those desirous of purchasing property should wait. Persons wishing information can apply to Mr. Wm. Langford. 6d100

Beware.

Some gentry appear to delight in tearing down bills from the walls and fences. If any of them are caught at the work things will be made warm for them. The public should understand that the bills are to read not to tear down. Mr. Hill is after offenders in this respect with a sharp stick, and he promises to make it interesting for offenders.

The Court House Park.

The warning given by Mr. Roper in another column regarding the Court House Park should be heeded. Tramping on the walks before they are dry, or on the grass, will disfigure and injure the place and entail expense upon the Horticultural Society, which deserves assistance from all instead of having unnecessary difficulties placed in its way. Keep off the grounds until they are ready, and then keep off the grass.

THOSE prize packages of Teas at The Pantry are decidedly the best value for the money in the trade. d96

West Riding Licenses.

A meeting of the West Riding License Commissioners was held at the Council Chamber on Friday afternoon. There were present Messrs. T. Dolan, Chairman, Robert Graham and Robert Walton. The business of the year ending the 30th day of April was wound up. Druggist licenses were granted to Messrs. Wm. Walsh and John McKee, Peterborough, and S. Henderson, Lakefield. The were no applications for shop licenses.

Coming Here.

The Omemee Herald says:—"This week Mr. M. McGregor, who has had the Bradburn House for the past year and a half, sold the furniture and fixtures to Mr. Wm. Bradburn who takes charge on Monday next. During his stay in Omemee Mr. McGregor made hosts of friends all of whom will be sorry to hear of his leaving the town, as he has proved himself a worthy citizen, and a first class hotel keeper. Few houses, indeed, are conducted more respectably than was the Bradburn House during this gentleman's proprietorship. He leaves for Peterborough next week."

Copy of Letter.

LINDSAY, April 19th, 1888.

Geo. B. Sproule, Esq., Peterborough.

DEAR SIR,—The cabinet photographs just received, and to say we were pleased with them is only to speak lightly. Miss McCormick was highly delighted with hers and desires a half dozen finished in water colors. Accept our thanks for your promptness.

Yours very truly,

AL HARRIS,
Manager Sawtelle Comedy Company.

The above photos spoken of were made or the company while they were playing here, and an order from them speaks well outside such expressed appreciation. Miss McCormick was the leading lady, I think. d98w17 G. S. S.

Trent Valley Canal.

The following letter appears in the Lindsay Post:—

SIR,—The distance from the Sault Ste. Marie to Kingston, by the Lake Erie route, is about 760 miles. The Trent Valley route from the same place is about 400 miles to Kingston. A schooner loaded at Sault Ste. Marie would take six days on a trip to Kingston, and be exposed to the disastrous storms on Lakes Erie, Huron and Ontario. Sometimes the cargo would be damaged. A steam tug would tow any reasonable number of barges loaded and go through the smooth waters of the Georgian bay and the Trent Valley canal and would be in Kingston in less than four days, take double the cargo that a schooner would take through Lake Erie. I have been three years engaged by the Indian department, stationed on Manitoulin island, and during that time I made several trips in a small boat, sometimes in a bark canoe, from Penetanguishene to the "Soo," and never was delayed by a storm. We could sail all day in stormy weather among the islands and be always in a shelter. A tug towing barges could do the same.

Yours truly,

DONALD MUNRO.

Balsover, April 9th, 1888.

Received Merited Applause.

The Montreal Gazette, referring to the remarkable success of the English actress, Claire Scott, says:—"Miss Claire Scott appeared for the first time here in 'Mary Stuart,' the English version of Schiller's tragedy, which play is not new, and therefore does not require any extended comment. The play, however, it may be said, is of a noble dramatic type, which has been given by actresses of widely recognized merit, and which, although of the class that may be called 'heavy'—that is, without any touch of comedy element—has an enduring place in popular favor. The leading character is so deeply sympathetic, so full of fine feeling, that only an actress who is mistress of all the resources of art can make bold to portray it with any degree of satisfaction, and it is only fair to state without unnecessary preamble that Miss Scott, from an artistic point of view, made as sympathetic and intellectual Mary Stuart as could be desired in reason, and throughout the play she received merited applause that was in every case judiciously bestowed. The conquered pride, the complete resignation, the real supplication of Mary before her powerful rival, followed by the burst of scornful indignation at the results with which her entreaty is received, and the majesty of her final words of conscious triumph in that strong scene, were given with a ripe dramatic power which avenged the miseries of years in a single speech, the intensity of which was wholly unmarred. Such expressions Miss Scott catches in manner, gesture and attitude, and then vehemently and passionately hurled shame up on a cowering Elizabeth. The pathos of the later scenes was drawn with powerful effect, but it was in the third act that the true force of Miss Scott's ability could be gathered, although the tenderness of Mary's love for her faithful attendants and friends were shown with as fine touches as the foregoing scenes promised. Miss Scott's performance as a whole was a finished piece of work which demonstrated that the advance accounts of her ability were within the mark." Opera House, Peterborough, Monday and Tuesday, April 30th and May 1st. 1d100

Headache, Biliousness, Dyspepsia and Indigestion relieved and at once by Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. Try it. Samples free.

To Rent.

Two houses in Carlisle's new Terrace, 7 rooms, near St. Peter's Cathedral. Rent, $7.50 per month, free of taxes. Apply to JOHN CARLISLE.

Live and Learn

and be able to tell the good properties of W. J. Morrow's choice Black and Japan Teas Buy a few pounds. Very fine coffee, pure and fresh ground. Canadian Stilton Cheese. W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block.

Association Hall.

Mr. T. C. Colbeck, B. A., will speak in connection with the meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms tomorrow evening at 8.30 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. Lacrosse Practice.

The Y. M. C. A. club has secured the use of the P. A. A. A. grounds for the season and will commence practice on Monday morning next at 6 a. m. Members of the club please notice and attend.

A Nuisance.

Some provision should be made to carry off the waste water from the town pump. As it is at present the neighborhood is slopping, as there is no drainage. Those who put the pump there should see that the waste does not become a public nuisance.

On the Market.

The market this morning was fairly well attended. Maple syrup, young pigs and veal were the principal farm products offered for sale. Butter, eggs and chickens were sold inside the building and apparently a brisk trade was done. Prices remain unchanged.

What is True is True.

The condensed wisdom of ages show up no truer truism than the fact that a good, well looking pair of shoes is a moral support to any woman. She stands on a good footing, and her feet lack not comely appearance. For neat fitting footwear, stylish and good, go to kidd, the moral-support shoe man.

OUR Teas, Coffee and Spices at The Pantry are remarkable for their excellent quality and low prices. d96

At the Fire Hall.

Contractor Thomas Rutherford has his men at work laying the new oak floor at the fire station. It was found that the posts upon which the joists of the floor rest, were in turn held up by rotten sleepers and jacks were brought into requisition and new supports placed underneath.

Joe's Flier.

Lindsay Post:—"Mr Jos. Daly occasioned no little amusement to horsemen this week by having his thirteen days' old colt by Phil Eyadyk 'broke' to the halter and led up and down Kent-st. The little fellow kicked and played like a kitten and answered to the line like a veteran, apparently enjoying his 'outing.'"

Tired Out.

A monster Durham bull, owned by Mr. Michael Sullivan, of Douro, was driven in about ten miles this morning to be exhibited at the spring show. The distance and the heat were too much for the big fellow and he fell down, utterly exhausted, on the street, near Nell's shoe store. After a rest and some water he was able to proceed. Of course a large crowd was attracted; it takes but little to do that in Peterborough.

Once Again.

The Dominion Oddfellow says:—"It is expected that the Royal Grenadiers will visit Peterborough on 'Queen's Birthday,' the Driving Park Association having decided to extend them an invitation for that day. While in Peterborough the 'Military' will be quartered in 'Lansdowne Skating Rink,' and if they have one half as good a time as the Patriarchs Militant had in August last, in the same building, they will come home with a high appreciation of Peterborough's hospitality and forethought."

Around the Cathedral.

Things are lively at present in the vicinity of St. Peter's Cathedral. The old fence on the west and south sides has been torn down and the ground will be levelled up and seeded or sodded.... A large force of men are engaged in grading Reid-st. at the brow of the hill and already the improvement is noticeable.... A boulevard is being constructed around the residence of the priests, and several other persons living in the same locality are also preparing to follow suit.

The Anniversary Services.

Mr. John R. Clarke has been taken suddenly ill and will not be able to fill his engagements with Charlotte-st. church to-morrow or Monday evening. The services to morrow will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. I. Tovell, who will preach in the morning to the scholars of the Sunday school and in the evening will speak of "The Story of a bright Young Man." The public will be gratified to learn that Rev. Manly Benson, of Toronto, has been secured to take Mr. Clarke's place on Monday night. Mr. Benson is one of the ablest and most popular lecturers in Canada. His subject will be "Men Wanted."

The B. R. R.

The annual meeting of the Midland Railway Company was held at the depot here, on Friday afternoon. Those present were Messrs. Geo. A. Cox, Wm. Gooderham, R. Jaffray, H.P. Dwight and A. White, Toronto, Secretary Read, Treasurer Wright and J. M. Riddell, Montreal, J. R. Dundas, Lindsay, J. M. Ferris, Campbellford and E. S. Vinden, Port Hope. The only business done was the election of directors, which resulted as follows:—Messrs. Jos. Hickson, Geo. A. Cox, W. Gooderham, R. Jaffray, J. M. Ferris, J. R. Dundas, F. W. Henshaw, E. S. Vinden, H. P. Dwight and W. Wainwright. Afterwards the directors elected Mr. Jos. Hickson, President; Mr. Geo. A. Cox, 1st Vice-President, and Mr. Wm. Gooderham, 2nd Vice-President.

Services To-morrow.

The following is a list of services in the several churches to-morrow:—

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—At St. Peter's Cathedral, Roman Catholic, there will be three masses celebrated, the first at 7 a. m., the second at 8 a. m., and the third at 10.30 a. m. Vespers at 7 p. m.

ST. LUKE'S (Ashburnham).—Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Morning Prayer, Sermon and Litany at 11 a. m.; Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7 p. m. All seats free.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—The regular services will be conducted as follows:—Holy Communion at 8.30 a.m.; Morning Prayer, Litany and sermon at 11 a.m.; Evening Prayer and sermon at 7 p.m.

ST. PAUL'S.—The usual services will be held. The Rev. E. I. Torrance, M. A., pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH, Murray-St.—The usual services will be held, morning and evening. The Rev. F. Cliston Parker, pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH, Charlotte-St.—At 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. the Rev. I. Tovell will conduct the Sunday school anniversary services. In the morning he will address the children and the evening subject will be, "The Story of a Bright Young Man."

METHODIST CHURCH, George-st.—Regular services at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m. conducted by the Rev. S. J. Thompson.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The usual services will be conducted. The Rev. Alex Bell, pastor. The Oddfellows will attend the evening service in a body and a special sermon will be preached to them.

METHODIST CHURCH, Mark-st. (Ashburnham).—At 11 a. m. the regular quarterly service. SUNDAY by the Rev. J. C. Wilson, followed by the lovefeast and holy communion. Evening subject, 7 p. m. service, "The Five Kings."

Church Parade.

The members of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F, will meet at their Lodge room to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock to receive badges.

Dan to the Front.

Mr. H.C. Winch has entered "Sleepy Dan," in the great three minute trot to take place at St. Catharines during the coming autumn. The chances are that the horse that shows "Dan" the way will do the mile considerably under the figure called for in the race. At present "Dan" is being well cared for and exercised daily.

Gospel Temperance Song Service.

An unusually interesting programme has been prepared. Mr. W. J. Mason takes charge and Mr. D. B. Smith, of Hamilton, will give the address. Good singing and reading may be expected. Sunday at 4 p. m., in the Temperance Hall. All are invited.

The Coming Clearing Sale.

Mr. W. W. Johnston has bought the bankrupt stock of dry goods in Alexander's old stand, and announces that a grand clearing sale will commence on Saturday next, May 5th. Just now the stock is being checked over and during the early part of next week will be prepared for sale. Bargains may be looked for and—as a matter of fact—will be given in all lines of the stock.

Directors' Meeting.

A meeting of the Directors of the West Riding Agricultural Society was held this afternoon. President Rutherford occupied the chair and the others present were Messrs. Vance, Baptie, Fitzgerald, Garbutt, Foster, Collins and Fair. It was decided to allow the volunteers to use the grounds for camping purposes on the 24th of May, without charge, the grounds to be left in as good condition as they are at present. It was decided to send the President as representative of the Association at the first of the Canadian Association of Fairs and Expositions. The appointment of a Secretary was deferred until a future meeting. The meeting then adjourned.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning grey.

Brevities

—Colonel Boulton is very ill, at Cobourg.

—Friday next is arbor day in the rural school districts.

—Potatoes for seed were in great demand to-day.

—Ex-Chief of Police Coopor is now on the staff of the Toronto Empire.

—The pounds in the different Wards are ready for the reception of cattle.

—Ten carloads of Manitoba wheat for local millers arrived in town on Friday.

—There were a large number of people in town to-day and business appeared to be brisk.

—The Town Council will meet on Monday night and probably dispose of the police question.

—The regular meeting of the Board of Education will take place on Tuesday evening next.

—We understand that Sergt.-Major Runcle is to have charge of the drill shed in the future.

—"Old man" Jacques, of Ottawa, will take a purely Canadian circus on the road this summer.

—A large pictured Opera House poster was torn down in the arcade this morning. If the one who did it is discovered he will regret the act.

—The members of the I.O.O.F. will attend divine service at St. Andrew's church to-morrow evening.

—The Police Magistrate had a holiday this morning, there being no cases on the docket for trial.

—This morning farmers commenced to assemble on the market an hour or more earlier than usual.

—The North Hastings Lumbering Company, capital $20,000, and the Hungerford Marble Company, capital $100,000, have been incorporated.

—The Finance Committee held a meeting last night and paved the way for the next council tournament.

—Bishop Cleary was ill at Vienna on April 14th. He has since recovered and is on his way to Ireland. He will arrive in Kingston on June 15th.

—Mr. J. T. Warrington, of Belleville, the well known cheese exporter, has resumed operations for the season.

—The ice dealers have commenced their harvest and the warm weather creates a big demand for their ware.

—Our old friend Mr. Thomas F. Smith, representing Messrs. Houret, Fitzgibbon & Co., of Montreal, is in town.

—The Chinese laundry attracts the attention of the small boy and also of others who would feel insulted if called boys.

—An electric light has been placed in Cavanagh's new hotel and a new kind of wire was used in making the connection.

—Bad V's of the Bank of British North America are being widely circulated in the east. Refuse to take them from strangers.

—A shooting gallery started yesterday, but a demand for $15 per day license, by the town authorities, had a squelching effect.

—The jewellers do not need any early closing by-law. They will close at 7 o'clock during the summer months by mutual consent.

—The fire apparatus occupies a position under the verandah around the market and the swinging harness is a marvel to our country cousins.

—A man undertook to raise a row on Charlotte-st. last night, but the timely appearance of Officer McGinty soon put an end to hostilities.

—A vagrant cow was observed pasturing in the Central Park this morning. The owner claimed that she broke out of his yard and she was not pounded.

—Mr. E. C. Hill's horse does not like bulls. He nearly ran away this morning on George-st. while the owner was surveying the fallen beast lying on the road.

—The Ætna lacrosse club will hold a meeting at the Queen's Hotel, on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock. All members are specially requested to be present.

—The free seat plan went into operation at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Lindsay, on Sunday. No person has any claim for any seat, and the rule is first come first served.

—And still the demand is for maple syrup. It was in the market to-day in abundance and the ruling price was $1.10. Some sold cheaper and others asked more.

—Building Inspector Pope is on the war path and in consequence there is weeping and wailing among those who are desirous of putting up shoddy buildings inside of the fire limits.

—The Packet says that Orillia ratepayers have water for fire protection, street watering, &c., without cost, that being the profit received from the watertakers, for the management of the system.

—In its account of the Lindsay Canoe Club dinner the Post says:—"A. C. A. elicited from Mr. E. B. Edwards a really able and eloquent speech regarding canoeing in this country and in the old country."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

CORRESPONDENCE.

White correspondents will be allowed space to discuss questions of public interest, the Review does not hold itself responsible for the opinions expressed.

Court House Park.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—On behalf of the Horticultural Society I want to ask the public, through you, to exercise patience for a short time longer by not going on to any part of the grounds of the Court House Park. By acceding to this request very much trouble and expense will be saved, as neither the walks or the sward are ready to be used. We shall have a gardener on the premises in the course of a week or so and no time will be lost in getting everything into order and we hope to have it as pleasant and enjoyable a resort as it was last year.

Yours truly,

J. H. ROPER,
President Horticultural Society.

Peterborough, 28th April, 1888.

Police Question.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I have carefully read the discussion re the above and I am amused at the views advanced by some of the writers. They would have you believe that our police system is a perfect one and beyond the power of man to remodel. Now, I am confident that in the opinion of eighty per cent. of our citizens the force is in a most disorganized and inefficient state. Is there a man in Peterborough who can truthfully state that we have a good police force, or a moderately good one, or one at all in keeping with this town? We have not, there is no denying of this fact. What we want is a good head—a man with brains—a thorough organizer, a man in whom the people have confidence. It makes no difference to us where such a man is to be found. If he turns out to be the right man he will make a good citizen. Without a first class Chief the force will never amount to anything and the sooner we make the proper provision the better for every one. I care not who the man may be so long as he is fit to fill the bill. The people expect the Council to look after their interests and if they do not it will be so much worse for the Council. The individual Councillors are being closely watched as to the course they take on this question. Some have taken a broad view of the matter; others simply look at it from a local standpoint. There is no man living who can claim the chiefship as a right and I trust no Peterborough man will get the appointment simply because he belongs to the town. There are lots of capable men in this Province and we want and must have one of the best. A few paltry dollars should be no deterrant. The duty of each Councillor next Monday evening is clear. Let him act as he would if he were simply representing himself. CIVIS.

Peterborough, April 28th, 1888.

For Coughs and Colds, use Allen's Lung Balsam. Relief is warranted or money refunded.

The Early Closing Act.

As a great many people do not understand the early closing act, we give the principal clauses of it below:—

(2) Any local council may by by-law require that during the whole or any part or parts of the year, all or any class or classes of shops within the municipality shall be closed, and remain closed on each or any day of the week at and continuously after the time and hour fixed or appointed in that behalf by the by-law, but any such time or hour fixed or appointed by a by-law passed under the authority of this sub-section shall not be earlier than seven of the clock in the afternoon of any day.

(3) If any application is received by or presented to a local council, praying for the passing of a by-law requiring the closing of any class or classes of shops situated within the municipality, and the council is satisfied that such application is signed by not less than three-fourths in number of the occupiers of the shops within the municipality and belonging to the class or each of the classes to which such application relates, the council shall, within one month after the receipt or presentation of such application, pass a by law giving effect to the said application and requiring all shops within the municipality, belonging to the class or classes specified in the application, to be closed during the period of the year and at the times and hours mentioned in that behalf in the application.

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time most economical blood purifier known.

Stallions and Bulls.

The annual spring show of stallions and bulls, under the auspices of the West Riding Agricultural Society, was held at the grounds this afternoon and is in progress as we go press. There is only one judge, Mr. John Kennedy, of Markham, who has a provincial reputation. The entries number 25 altogether, 19 horses and 6 bulls. Although advertised to commence at one o'clock, at that hour two bulls, the judge, the gate keeper and one director were the only living stock on the grounds. The horses did not commence to arrive until nearly two o'clock. The attendance was good and the stock in all classes of the best.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

It is no solecism to say that kidd's sole attention is rivetted on his soles, solely with the view that said soles shall be stout and durable. Give kidd a call for solid Boots and Shoes. d96

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

COUGHS, COLDS,
Croup and Consumption
CURED BY
ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM
25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

BOYS' CLOTHING

STRENGTH AND DURABILITY ARE VERY ESSENTIAL THINGS IN BOYS' CLOTHING. THE CLOTH MUST BE STRONG, THE POCKETS MUST BE STRONG, THE BUTTONS MUST BE WELL SEWED ON, &c., &c. WE CONSTANTLY KEEP THESE POINTS BEFORE US TO ENSURE SATISFACTION TO ALL BUYERS AS WELL AS TO THE BOYS.

OUR BOYS' CLOTHING IS STYLISH IN APPEARANCE AND WELL TRIMMED. IN FACT OUR READY-MADES FOR BOYS WILL COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH PLENTY OF CUSTOM WORK.

SEE OUR ALL WOOL SUITS. NO COMMON GOODS THESE. WELL MADE UP AND NEAT PATTERNS.

OUR BOYS' CORDUROY SUITS ARE A MODEL OF CHEAPNESS AND LOOK HANDSOME.

T. DOLAN & CO.

WATER FILTERS,

To insure good health it is absolutely necessary to have pure water, and no water is entirely free from floating matter and disease germs without thorough Filteration. The majority of cases of Typhoid and other low fevers are in a measure caused from unfiltered and impure water, so that every family who values its health should have a reliable Filter. Numerous Filters are offered to the public varying in points of excellence, but for Cheapness, Efficiency and Durability, our Filters cannot be surpassed.

No Corroding Substances are used in construction.

The Packing material is the most Powerful specially prepared granulated Carbon.

It will last for years with the ordinary use of a family, and the material may be obtained at any time for replenishing at small expense.

The construction is our own patent, and combines all the essential requirements of a first-class Filter with access for cleaning. Instructions company each Filter. For sale only in Peterborough at

CHINA HALL

MARRIED.

SHOENBERGER—TATE.—At Cobourg, on Wednesday, 18th April, by the Rev. Dr. Roy, WILLIAM HAMILTON SHOENBERGER, Esq., of Cincinnati, to EMILY SUSANNAH TATE, widow of the late T. F. Tate, Esq., of Montreal, and daughter of Judge Boswell, of Cobourg.

ARMSTRONG—BULLER.—On 18th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Beck, Mr. MOSES ARMSTRONG, of Beaverton, to Miss JANE BULLER, daughter of Mr. Joseph Buller, sr., of Peterborough.

Campbell's Cathartic Compound

IT CURES LIVER COMP'LNT, BILIOUS DISORDERS, ACID STOMACH, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

BRANDON, Man., 21st Oct., 1886.—I find Campbell's Cathartic Compound the best article I have ever used for costiveness or biliousness, and easy to take. I am, yours truly, A. N. MCDONALD.

Sold by dealers in family medicines everywhere. 25c. per bottle.

RE-OCCUPIED

JOHN HACKETT

Has again occupied his former premises next door to Fortye & Phelan's Hardware Store.

The Store, which has been undergoing extensive alterations and improvements, is now a model place of business, and the public are invited to call and take a look through the premises.

The increased accommodation and convenience afforded us for doing business will no doubt help to compensate us and our customers for the inconvenience caused by our removal during the alterations and we hope to see all our friends back again in our handsome new premises.

JOHN HACKETT

Spring Millinery

I wish to announce to my lady friends that my spring stock is now complete and I am prepared to attend to the wants of my old customers, and as many new ones as will favor me with their patronage. As my stock has been selected with great care you will find it will compete favorably with the largest houses in the trade. In addition to the Millinery I have added a nice assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, at low prices. Don't forget the place, one door south of Salisbury's Book Store.

S. ARMSTRONG.

"Habiliment Hall"

New Goods, just opened out:—

BEAUTIFUL RANGE

—OF—

WORSTED COATINGS

Fine Trouserings, Handsome Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suitings.

See our Stock before ordering your spring outfit. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Andrew McNeil.

GEORGE STREET.

BUY THE

Lansdown & Stevenson Pianos

These Celebrated Pianos are giving the best of satisfaction to the following named purchasers:—

LANSDOWN.

Miss Cook, Peterborough, Miss Mark, Peterborough, Mrs. Bridigan, Peterborough, Mrs. Jane Webster, Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, Peterborough, Mr. A. L. Davis, Peterborough, Mr. James A. Fife, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. Nelson, Keene, Mr. John Finlay (Reeve,) Norwood, Miss Eliza Stewart, Otonabee, Miss Gilmore (Steinway) Peterborough.

STEVENSON.

Mr. Terrence Smith, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Butler, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Nelson, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Drury, Peterborough, Mr. Robert Baker, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Cook, Peterborough, Mr. Joseph Curran, Peterborough, Mr. Wm. Casey, Peterborough, Mr. John Ross, Peterborough, Mr. J. N. Turner, Peterborough, Mr. A. Comstock, Peterborough, Mr. Jas. L. Hughes, Peterborough, Mrs. Eliza Cameron, Norwood.

Tuning, Repairing, Renting and Exchanging New Pianos and Organs for Old Ones a specialty.

J. W. CROSBY,

Dealer, George-st., opposite the market.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay, we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
1md89-1mw18 10 Spruce-st., New York

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

LEADING HATTERS  AND FURRIERS.

Gents' London West End Styles, in all the new colors from the best makers. Just to hand the celebrated Woodrow Hats so much admired by the Gentry. Satin Felt and Tweed Hats, Children's Sailors Felt Hats in all the colors, Scotch and Fancy Cloth Caps in great variety. A special line in Martine Silk Umbrellas selected for our own trade ranging from $2 to $10. Call and inspect the goods before purchasing.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Direct Importer and Manufacturer, Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

THE SUN LIFE
Assurance Co. of Canada

ASSSETS - - - - - 1,750,004.48

Income over $1,600.00 a day, Life and Accident Assurances in force $14,081,377.69.

FIRE COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

The Queen, Imperial, Glasgow and London, Norwich Union, Northern Merchantile, Hand-in-Hand Plate Glass. Insurance Co'y., Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Co'y.

W. H. HILL,
MANAGER CENTRAL ONTARIO BRANCH.

LOOK OUT

FOR THE GRAND

CLEARING SALE

—OF—

BANKRUPT STOCK

At ALEXANDER'S Old Stand, commencing

SATURDAY next, May 5th.

W. W. JOHNSTON.

d100

PROVEN MERIT

ALWAYS WINS FAVOR.

In the face of all the talk of hard times and the cry of money being tight, we are confident the solid values we give bring us trade and hold us custom. We are, for example, rolling out special lines, all seasonable goods, of which the following are now in demand:—

Ladies' and Cents' Riding Saddles.

Splendid stock of Harness, best materials and work. Trunks of all sizes and styles from $1.50 to $35.00.

BABY CARRIAGES

Latest, Newest and Most Stylish designs. Ladies should see our many patterns. The best in Town.

B. SHORTLY

Sign of the Golden Collar. - - - - - - - George-st., Peterborough.

R. C. CHURCH
PARK LOT
FOR SALE.

TENDERS

Will be received up to the 15th May, instant, by the undersigned, for the purchase of the whole or any portion of Park Lot Number six, in Township Lot Number Thirteen, in Concession Thirteen of the Township of Monaghan, in the County of Peterborough, now incorporated in and forming part of the Town of Peterborough, containing TEN acres more or less.

This lot, better known as the "R. C. Church Lot," is the most desirable property that has been offered for sale in Peterborough for many years. It has a frontage on Park-st. of 256 feet, adjoining Mrs. Gilmour's residence; a frontage of 1914 feet on Gilmour-st. and the same on the Gravel Road, continuation of Charlotte-st.

Gilmour-st. is the most beautiful street in the Town for private residences, and being within ten minutes walk of the Post Office and Market Square, this sale affords to intending purchasers an opportunity of procuring a beautiful and convenient site for a home.

TERMS:—Ten per cent. cash; twenty per cent. additional in 30 days from acceptance of the Tender, and the balance will be allowed to remain on mortgage for such term, not exceeding ten years, as the purchaser desires with interest at 6 per cent. per annum.

For further particulars apply to

DUMBLE & LEONARD,

Peterborough, April 27th, 1888. 15d99 Vendors' Solicitors

A Famous Doctor

Once said that the secret of good health consisted in keeping the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open. Had this eminent physician lived in our day, and known the merits of Ayer's Pills as an aperient, he would certainly have recommended them, as so many of his distinguished successors are doing.

The celebrated Dr. Farnsworth, of Norwich, Conn., recommends Ayer's Pills as 'the best of all remedies for "Intermittent Fevers!"

Dr. I. E. Fowler, of Bridgeport, Conn., says: "Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."

Dr. Mayhew, of New Bedford, Mass., says: "Having prescribed many thousands of Ayer's Pills, in my practice, I can unhesitatingly pronounce them the best cathartic in use."

The Massachusetts State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, certifies: "I have made a careful analysis of Ayer's Pills. They contain the active principles of well-known drugs, isolated from inert matter, which plan is, chemically speaking, of great importance to their usefulness. It insures activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. Ayer's Pills contain no metallic or mineral substance, but the virtues of vegetable remedies in skillful combination."

Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1888.

ED. HANLAN IN GOOD FORM

HIS RACE WITH KEMP TO BE A BIG BETTING RACE.

A Good Shark Story—League and Association Games Yesterday—Lees and Kilrain will not Fight—The Ætna Lacrosse Club.

Under date of March 21, Edward Hanlan writes to The Turf, Field and Farm: 'Here I am in Australia training for the aquatic championship of the world on the Parramatta River. We have lately had some very warm weather. It was so hot that I could not think of going out rowing. Beach may possibly row again should Peach Master Kemp. Some say that Kemp could beat Beach for two miles, so you can see for yourself that I have no soft thing on. My race with Kemp will be a big betting race. At present the betting is about even, with lots of money for both men. Gaudaur and Teemer would do well out here, and I wonder that they don't come. Should I win the championship of the world I don't think that I shall bother rowing any longer. What I should like to have is the championship of America, not out here, where whoever wins the toss has about two to one the best of the start. At present I am in good health and rowing in good form. I have had four good new boats built here by Sullivan. The last two won't weigh 28 pounds each.

I was very much pleased to learn that Wallace Ross beat the champion of England, George Bubear, my lost friend. If Ross had not done so, I should have returned to England and taken the championship out of England from George Bubear, who has gone never to return again with his big pot of beer. Trickett is training for his race with me. He had two new boats out from England. When they arrived he was so large that he could not get in, or rather neither boat would hold him. I think I shall find it rather hot when I go up north to Rockhampton, Queensland. Should I come out O.K. with my Trickett and Kemp races, I will carry home with me about three or four thousand pounds. This is a great country for a victorious oarsman. I have noticed that the oarsmen of America have not changed for the better. I doubt if John Teemer is making many friends by the way he is talking. My weight is 163 pounds. Will row at about 156 pounds.

This country is on the decline. Hundreds and hundreds of men are walking about doing nothing. In a business way everything looks black. The other day I helped catch a large shark. Just think: he was 13 feet long. After he had landed him we opened the brute and found a gold watch and chain, a pair of top boots, a shoulder of mutton, three dogs and a lot of cats, and the Lord knows what not. I never saw such a sight in my life. This river is full of sharks. About six weeks ago a young man went for a swim off Ryde Wharf, and as he was getting out of the water a large shark took him down. In about a week's time they found the body with one leg gone and also his arms. Strange to say the sharks never come near a race boat. Some time ago I let Jack Burk, who has arrived here to box any man in Australia, have my Warin boat just to take a row. He arrived back with a large hole in the bottom of the boat and half drowned, with his eyes half out of his head. He told us a large shark had bitten the boat."

As a teller of shark stories Hanlan is a success. We already feel like awarding him the championship. The thing that we care most about is his health. As he is feeling well and rowing in good form his friends in America and elsewhere will look for him to win the aquatic championship of the world. His race with Peter Kemp will be rowed on the Parramatta, Saturday, May 5.

National League Games Yesterday.

At Pittsburg:			R.	H.
Pittsburg	1	0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0	2	7
Chicago	0	0 0 3 0 0 1 0 0 0	4	7
Batteries: Galvin and Fields; Baldwin and Daly. Umpire: Decker.
At New York:			R.	H.
New York	0	0 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0	4	8
Philadelphia	0	0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	1	6
Batteries: Welch and O'Rourke; Buffinton and McGinley. Umpire: Daniels.
At Washington:			R.	H.
Washington	1	0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0 *	4	7
Boston	0	1 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 0	4	8
Batteries: O'Day and Mack; Clarkson and O'Rourke. Umpire: Lynch.
At Indianapolis:			R.	H.
Indianapolis	3	0 0 4 2 3 0 0 3 *	15	21
Detroit	2	1 1 0 3 2 0 0 0	9	8
Batteries: Healey and Daly; Baldwin and Gilligan. Umpire: Valentine.

American Association Games.

At Baltimore:			R.	H.
Baltimore	0	6 0 0 1 0 0 1 *	8	11
Cleveland	0	0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0	2	6
Batteries—Kilroy and Fulmer; Gilks and Zimmer.
At Brooklyn:			R.	H.
Brooklyn	1	0 0 4 1 1 2 0 0 *	9	12
Athletics	0	0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0	2	6
Batteries: Porter and Peoples; Seward and Robinson. Umpire: Ferguson.

Lees and Kilrain Will Not Fight.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Australian Lees, who has been talking about a match with Jake Kirain, desired that the latter should fight at 154 pounds. As Kirain now weighs 220 pounds the possibility of so greatly reducing himself is out of the question and the match is off. Lees boasts that he intends to challenge Jack Dempsey.

The Ætna Lacrosse Club.

GEORGETOWN, April 27.—A meeting was held here for the purpose of reorganizing the Ætna Lacrosse Club, and the following officers were elected: H. M. Watson, Hon. President; H. H. Speirs, President; F. Ruston, First Vice-President; H. A. Gray, Second Vice-President; George D. Reid, Secretary and Treasurer; W. H. Galbraith, Captain; C. M. Clark, Field Captain. The club has applied to the C.L.A. for membership.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you may depend upon this for certain.

LAKEFIELD.

Correspondence of the Review.

FIRE.—On Tuesday at 10 a.m. the fire alarm run out. It was discovered that Mr. Glass's bakery was on fire, in No. 2 ward, on the principal street in the village, in the heart of a block of old wooden buildings. Fortunately the fire was extinguished before making any headway. The small hand engines were on the spot in short order, but their services were not needed. Had the fire gained headway it would have been the worst fire the village has been visited with. This is another strong point in favor of water works.

MARRIAGE.—On Wednesday of last week Miss Maggie Smith, daughter of Mr. D. Smith, and Mr. W.D.Thornton, of Longford Mills, were united in matrimony at the residence of the bride's father. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John McEwen. Miss Sarah Mahood was bridesmaid, and Mr. A. Leishman, of Longford Mills, assisted the groom. The bride was the recipient of a large number of presents, including a well-filled purse from the congregation of the Presbyterian Church, of which she was organist, and a handsome clock from the members of her Sabbath school class. We extend congratulations.

HYMENIAL.—There was another wedding this week, the happy couple this time being Miss Jennie Nelson, daughter of Mr. Samuel Nelson, grain merchant, and Mr. Wm. Trude, an old Lakefield boy, who has recently commenced business in the village. The wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father. The presents were numerous and elegant. Your correspondent extends his best wishes.

CONVERSAZIONE.—The Lakefield reading circle of the Chautauqua literary and scientific circle will hold their conversazione in the P.G.A. Hall on Tuesday, May 1st, 1888, at 7.30 o'clock p.m. About 175 invitations have been issued by the circle to their friends.

TENDER ACCEPTED.—The tender of Messrs. Lodgate & Hanney to compile a new map and establish certain streets in the village of Lakefield has been accepted by the Council of the village. Amount of tender, $250.00.

SEEDS.—Flower, Garden and Field Seeds, all fresh at Henderson's Pharmacy.

SPORT!—A great big squirrel hunt by one of our druggists, who is taking a holiday. Johnnie fired 89 stones at the poor innocent and failed in murderous design. Try 700 stones next time, Johnnie.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. McIntyre, of Belleville, is paying her mother a visit.

THE ANNUAL TRAMP.—The Village Fathers will make a tour of the village on Tuesday, going the rounds of No. 1 Ward in the morning, and No. 2 in the afternoon.

EARLY CLOSING.—All the villages and towns in the country except Lakefield are taking steps towards early closing. I hope our merchants are not satisfied to make slaves of themselves, by keeping their stores open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. every day, but will follow in the steps of our sister villages and towns, and petition the Council at their next meeting in connection with early closing. Seven p.m. would be the most desirable hour for closing every day in the week (Saturday's excepted), the year through. Let a couple of the merchants take hold of this scheme, and early closing will soon be accomplished.

NEW DELIVERY.—Messrs. Smith & Trude are swelling it with a new delivery waggon, built by Messrs. McWilliams & Smith.

MARINE MATTERS.—Mr. A. I. Wright's steamer Cruiser is nearly ready to launch. Messrs. R. & G. Strickland launched their steamer Undine for the season on Tuesday last.

C.L.S.C.—The Katchewanooke circle met at Mr. S. Sherin's on the 23rd of April. The meeting was opened by singing and responsives C.L.S.C. services. The President occupied the chair. The roll was called, when the members gave quotations from Shakespeare. Members present, sixteen. After singing (by the circle) Miss Emma Tanner read an interesting essay on Shakespeare, and gave several examples of his works. The President made a few remarks on the greatness of Shakespeare's works and the influence they had in moulding the English language and literature. Each member of the circle handed in the names of five friends who they wished invited to the conversazione. The Rev. J. Macfarlane and Mr. S. Henderson were chosen as a committee to look after the arranging of the hall. Mr. and Mrs. W. Graham, Mrs. J. C. Sherin and Miss Duff were selected as a special committee to receive the guests at the door. The circle joined in singing "We gather the fragments." It was decided by the circle that the members wear a striped red and white ribbon as a badge at the conversazione. It was agreed that a special meeting be held on the 30th of April, at Mr. S. Henderson's. The meeting closed by singing followed by prayer by the Rev. J. MacFarlane.

PRESENTATION.—A few members of the Presbyterian Church congregation assembled at the residence of Mr. D. Smith and presented Miss Maggie Smith, organist of the church, with a purse, on the eve of her marriage. The following address accompanied the present:—

DEAR MISS SMITH:

Learning of your approaching marriage, we could not let the opportunity pass, without expressing to you our appreciation of your services as organist in connection with the services of praise in our church.

You were seldom absent from your post, and performed your duties faithfully and well to the best of your ability. We hope that you may enjoy every happiness in your new relations of life, and that you may make many friends in your new home. And as you have been a faithful worker here, we trust in your new home you will still have the interests of the Church of Christ at heart and be one of the ready, willing workers, so that when your labors on earth are ended you will hear the welcome cry, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord."

Will you kindly accept the accompanying purse, not for its value, but as a slight appreciation of the esteem in which you are held by the congregation.

Wishing you every happiness, and that the blessing of God may rest upon you.

Signed on behalf of the congregation of the Lakefield Presbyterian Church.

We remain yours respectfully,

ANDREW FAIRBAIRN, Chairman.
DAVID ARNOT, Secretary.

Miss Smith also received a beautiful clock and the following address from her Sabbath school class:—

Miss M. SMITH.

DEAR TEACHER.—It is with feelings of deepest regret that we your S. S. pupils learn of your intention to depart from our midst. We feel that we cannot permit you to leave us without offering you this slight token of the high esteem in which you are held by us. Your never tiring earnest nessfaithfulness in spirit, and kind consideration for our welfare, have endeared you to us, and we trust that in the future, amid new scenes and labors, you will still continue to cultivate those excellent qualities. We ask you to accept this small token, which we offer with best wishes and earnest prayers for future happiness and prosperity.

We commend you to the care of Him who has said "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee," and trust that He will enable us to live that we may meet at last where partings are unknown. Signed,

Reginald Hendren,	Melville Pilkey,
Charlie Pilkey,	Willie Todd,
Harry Moore,	John Arnot,
John Ridpath,	Bertie Graham,
Rollie Morrison.

Lakefield, April 17th, 1888.

Right now is the time to use a good Blood Purifying Medicine. Lose no time in getting a bottle of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. It will do you good. Sold by all Druggists. 50 cents.

CAMPBELLFORD.

HOG SO.—We are informed that Mr. John Keith, of Seymour east, has a clue to the person who mixed Paris green with the feed in his granary which resulted in the death of eight cows. The matter may be ventilated in course of time.

BUSY BURGLARS.—Nocturnal visitors entered the dwelling of Mr. Wm. Brown, in Percy township, near Seymour, on Monday morning last, and carried off a parcel they found on the table. Mr. Brown heard them and his movements caused them to hasten away.

THIRTY MILES OF PAPER.—The machinery in the Campbellford paper mill was started on Monday morning and ran steadily until Thursday morning, 72 hours, without a break, and during that time there was made a sheet of building paper 30 miles long and 32½ inches wide. The largest quantity turned out in one day of 24 hours, this spring was 25,513 pounds, and the average last week was ten tons, 869 pounds per day!—Herald.

The Superiority of the "Royal Flavoring Extracts" is purity and strength.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The number of grown women who sell newspapers on the streets of New York is constantly increasing.

Gladstone's study is so isolated in his house that no outside sound can be heard once the padded doors are closed.

Watch-dials are now made by photography at a mere fraction of their former cost. They all used to be painted by hand.

At a sale of war relics in Boston recently a complete file of a Richmond paper for the entire period of the war brought $184.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

LADIES WILL TALK

and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also

FELTS, CANVASES,
PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY,
SILKS, ETC., ETC

Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice

MRS. E. E. ROSS,
NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

POTATOES!

A Car Load of Choice

EARLY ROSE

FOR SALE AT

J. W. FLAVELLE'S.

5d96

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Try Dr. Pierce's Cook's Friend, Pure Gold, Royal, Vienna, Snowdrift, and Cleveland's

BAKING POWDERS

and select your favorite,

Try our TEAS; something very fine at 25 cents. Try our different blends in Blacks.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block.

1,001

ONE THOUSAND AND ONE BARGAINS.

DRY GOODS.

Well, yes, SHEPPARD is abreast of the times and when Bankrupt Stocks and Sales of all kinds are taken in by people buying for a life-time, and they without hesitation, give SHEPPARD credit for selling the best Goods for the least money, then you are quite safe in going to SHEPPARD'S Great Cheapside for Cheap Goods that are Good as well as Cheap.

CLOTHING.

That Boy's Suit at 75c. in three pieces.

That Mechanic's Cap, 6 cents.

That Choice Article in Men's Pants, home-made, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75, really choice. Same goods sold elsewhere at double the money.

Big Range in Boys' Suits. Immense drive in Men's Suits, Men's Pants and Men's Underwear.

SHEPPARD has a full line of Men's Fine Cashmere Shirts and Drawers for $1.00, cheap as dirt at $1.50.

SUNDRY MATTERS.

Towels 2½c., Towelling 4c., Cretonne, big range, 10c., Prints 3½c., very wide Scrim in Plain and Fancy Effects, 6c. 7c. and 8c., Real Antique Lace to match, 5c to 28 c., Hand-made Goods

The tumble-down prices have cut into the Dress Goods pretty badly. Plain Colorings, Pure Wool, Light Tints also in Pale Pink, Pale Blue, Salmon and Cardinal at 15c. A marvel of cheapness. Passamentrie Trimmings at 15c, goods that would knock the Bankrupt Stock endways.

SHEPPARD, THE GREAT CHEAPSIDE.

(THE TOWN CLOCK OVERHEAD.)

ELIGIBLE BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE

ON STEWART STREET, north of Hunter st. Apply on the premises to

ROBERT KINGAN.

IMPORTANT!

To Housekeepers, Hotelkeepers & all Cash Buyers

P. D. DORAN is now offering at the Bankrupt Stock Emporium (M. Sullivan's old stand, George-st.,) the following inducements to all those who can pay cash for their Dry Goods and Gent's Furnishings:—10,000 yards New Spring Dress Goods at 6c. per yard, worth 12½c.

New Silk Parasols at about 60c. on the dollar, 1,000 yards Black and Colored Silks at half price, Remnants of Good Pure Silk from 24c. up, 5 Bales Grey Cotton at 10 per cent less than regular prices.

5 Bales White Cotton at same rate. Large stock of 8-4 and 9-4 Sheeting at a bargain, Table Linens, Table Napkins and Towels 10 to 20 per cent cheaper than any house in the trade.

CASH WILL TELL.

As I pay cash for all Goods, and sell for cash only, I offer to sell much cheaper than those who buy and sell on credit. Remember the place, M. Sullivan's old stand, No. 3, Cluxton's Block, George-st., Peterborough.

P. D. DORAN,

N.B.—Largest stock of Lace Curtains in Peterborough at about half price. For further list of prices please call at the store.

GEO. A. COX,

INSURANCE, FINANCIAL AND GENERAL AGENCY

ESTABLISHED 1858.

IN THE FIRE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Under the Management of MR. A. L. DAVIS, we represent a number of Old and Wealthy Corporations, Noted for Equitable Rates of Premiums, and Liberal, Prompt and Honorable Settlement of Claims.

CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

Established 1847. Head Office, Hamilton. Ontario.

PRESIDENT,.....A. G. RAMSAY, F. I. A.

CAPITAL AND FUNDS OVER	$9,000,000
ANNUAL INCOME OVER	$1,600,000

The continued steady increase of the Company's business NOW EXCEEDING THE AGGREGATE OF ALL THE OTHER CANADIAN COMPANIES, and being more than a fourth of the entire Life Assurance business of the Dominion, its favorable mortality, its moderate expenses, and the high character of its investments, afford good grounds or highly favorable and satisfactory profits to its assurers and EXPLAINS THE CAUSE OF THE UNPARALLELED SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY FOR THE LAST 41 years.

Intending Assurers should, in their own interests, examine the rates and profits of this OLD RELIABLE and Successful Institution, before insuring elsewhere.

CENTRAL CANADA

Loan & Savings Company of Ontario.

Incorporated by Act of Ontario Parliament - Authorized Capital, $2000,000

Capital Subscribed	$1,000,000.	Reserve Fund	$70,000.00
Capital Paid Up	$500,000.	Total Assets last Audit	$1,210,223,69

DIRECTORS:

GEO. A. COX,			PRESIDENT.
J. R. DUNDAS, ex-M. P.			VICE PRESIDENTS.
RICHARD HALL, of Hall, Innes & Co.
W. CLUXTON,	J. STEVENSON, M. P.	F. C. TAYLOR,	J. M. FERRIS, ex-M.P.P.
W. GOODERHAM,	E. S. VIMDIN,	ROBT. JAFFRAY,	D. W. DUMBLE.

BANKERS.—Bank of Toronto and Canadian Bank of Commerce
SOLICITORS.—Dumble & Leonard.

TO DEPOSITERS.—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amount deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is four per cent., either paid or compounded half yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is five per cent.

TO INVESTORS.—The five and ten years five per cent debentures of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1,000 each, transferable by endorsement, with half-yearly interest coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested with the utmost care and precaution, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture-holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the Shareholders having the second. The last audit shows that the amount so invested was over $1,310,223.69, and on securities of at least double that value.

By the Laws of Ontario, Trustees, Executors and Administrators may deposit Trust Funds of the estates which they control in this Company, and are free from all further liability, a privilege of which many have largely availed themselves.

TO BORROWERS.—Money is obtainable from this Company on approved Real Estate Security at the Lowest Current Rates of Interest. The Mortgage may be paid by yearly instalments or otherwise; as may be agreed upon, the interest ceasing at once on all amounts paid on account of the sum borrowed. Applications may be made either to the Head Office, or to any of the Agents.

Head Office, George Street, Peterborough, Adjoining Bank of Commerce.

A. COX, Inspector and Valuator.

GEO. A. COX, President. D. M. SIM, Secy-Treas.

Office Hours, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m; Saturday, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY REVIEW.

Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon

VERY CHOICE.

TRY OUR WHITE DRIED HAMS

UNSMOKED.

Wholesale and Retail.

J. W. FLAVELLE,
SIMCOE STREET

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

DONT NEGLECT THE COUGH

COUGH, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, INFLUENZA DIFFICULT BREATHING and all Throat and Lung complaints.

Pleasant to take; children are fond of it.

Instant relief from first dose; heals and cures like magic.

Prepared scientifically from the Pure Pine Tar.

S. PERRIN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—After using your PINE TAR CORDIAL for the last ten years in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending its use by everybody for every description of coughs and colds. It has no equal among the many cordials offered for sale, and I believe the only safe remedy to use. WILLIAM FOLEY
Hardware Merchant, Lindsay

Musical.

MR. J. S. PARKER,

ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER at St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Residence Cox and Stevenson's Block, Hunter St. d18

A. F. HOOVER,

LATE of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany, Teacher of Piano and Harmony. d11w4
RESIDENCE, - - - - UBLIN STREET

MR. W. H. DINGLE

ORGANIST AND CHOIR MASTER George St. Methodist Church, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, Germany. Teacher of the Organ, Piano and Harmony. P. O Box 473, or at Mr. W. Lee's, George st, north. d30

Painting.

W. M. GREEN.

PAINTER, PRACTICAL GRAINER, PAPER HANGER, AND GENERAL HOUSE DECORATOR. Residence, McDonnel street, opposite Central Park. d109

T. B. MCGRATH.

HOUSE PAINTER, DECORATOR AND CALCIMINER. All work done with taste and expedition. Office, Aylmer street, south of Hunter. d51

R. CARTON,

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR. House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence Water street, near Smith street. 1yd106

Builders and Contractors

ANDREW DOUGLAS.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed. Estimates given. Address Box 392. Residence, Gilmour street. 6md109

J. J. HARTLEY

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P.O Box 967; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer streets. 1yd109

WM. FITZGERALD.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Estimates given. Lots for sale. Residence, Dublin reet. P. O. address, Box 671. 1yd109

D. GAMBLE,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates given. All work done with despatch, and in a completely satisfactory manner. Residence, Dublin Street, East of Water. P. O. Box 281. 1yd109

WM. H. MCELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 52. d109

A. RUTHERFORD,

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Estimates furnished for all classes of building. Large stock of thoroughly seasoned materials always on hand. P.O. Box 843; residence, on street, north of Hamilton's foundry. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P. O. d99-1yr

JOSEPH JONES.

PRACTICAL MILLWRIGHT, has had 25 years experience in erection of buildings and general machinery. Special attention given to erection of flour, saw and woollen mills. All jobbing work attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Reference, to the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. Residence on Hunter street, adjoining English Church property. d81y

Accountant.

A. V. R. YOUNG, C. A.,

Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario,

IS PREPARED to act as Auditor, Trustee of Insolvent Estates and General Accountant P. O. address Drawer D. Office with A. P. Poussette, Esq., Solicitor, Water Street. 6md116w2

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block Peterborough. wed87

J. E. BELCHER,

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George street. d96w6

GEO. W. RANEY,

CIVIL ENGINEER, ARCHITECT, SOLICITOR FOR PATENTS. Plans, Estimates and Surveys of any description made. Office: West side of George street, over Bank of Commerce. d4iw18

Medical.

DR. BOUCHER'S OFFICE HOURS ARE FROM 8 to 9.30 a. m., 12 m. to 2.30 p. m., and 5.30 to 7.30. d2w26

J. EARLE JENNER.

M. D. C. M., L. R. C. P., London, Eng. House Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital 1884
Office in residence, Albyn Villa, McDonnel St., north side of Central Park.

DR. CALDWELL.
(Late of Lakefield.)

OFFICE and residence, George street, 4th door south of Mr. Thos. Menzies residence. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d91-w16-3m

C. COLLINS, M. D., C. M.,

MEMBER of the College of Physicans and Surgeons of Ontario, Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. Office:—Burnham's Block, Simcoe Street, fourth door west from George Street. All calls night or day promptly attended to. d11w15-1y

FRED. H. BRENNAN, M. D., C. M.

FELLOW OF TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL, Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office on Hunter street, opposite St. John's Church. d123w22 1y

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m	Montreal and East, via G. T. R.	11 00 a m
6 00 p m	Montreal & Q. R.	10 00 a m
10 55 p m	Toronto and West, via G. T. R.	8 15 p m
7 00 p m	Toronto & Q. R.	10 00 a m
8 20 a m	Grand Trunk, East & West	4 15 p m
10 30 a m	do East	5 00 p m
12.00 m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	8 00 a m
8 50 p m		4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope.	4 30 p m
5 15 p m	do	5 00 p m
10 30 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Village, Lakefield, including Selwyn Mail. Bridge Mail	1 15 p m
4 00 p m	Lakehurst	12 00 a m
5 15 p m	Fraserville & Springville	11 00 a m
2 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clyndale, Paudash and Chandos, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including Scotch Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Elzevir	1 30 p m
1	Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails, per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	10 00 p
	The New York, Montreal, Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	7 30 p m
6 00 a m		5 15 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

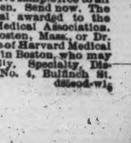
Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sund ay excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Cruix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (New Caledonia is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brasil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica: Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.



West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco, Letters 15 cents, pape cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

EXHAUSTED VITALITY

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE or the great Medical Work of the age on Manhood, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, and the consequent miseries consequent thereon. 300 pages, 8 vo., 125 prescriptions for all diseases. Cloth, full gilt, only $1.00, by mail, sealed. Illustrative sample free to all young and middle-aged men. Send now. The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded to the author by the National Medical Association. Address P. O. Box 1895, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, graduate of Harvard Medical College, 25 years' practice in Boston, who may be consulted confidentially. Specialty: Diseases of Man. Office, No. 4, Bulfinch St. d6eod-w1y

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XIX.—No. 101. PETERBOROUGH, MONDAY, APRIL, 30, 1888. TEN CENTS A WEEK

We have been appointed Sole Agents in Peterborough for the celebrated American.

WHITNEY

Baby Carriages

Our stock will be found to be large, well assorted and very cheap.

W. G. BAIN & Co

Crystal Block, 412 George-st.

We Push Trade

TO YOUR BENEFIT.

Do you value
Good goods,
Do you care for fresh,
Tempting,
Wholesome,
Well handled
Groceries.
You do!
That settles it.
Settles it beyond the reach
of Argument.
Then come to us.
In our shop and cellars
Are found the best lines
Of Groceries.
These cover the whole gamut
From C. to G.
Teas, Sugars, Spices,
Coffees,
Breakfast dishes,
Table supplies,
Provisions,
And the hundreds of Sundries:
Asked for every day.
Try the Metropolitan Grocery
And get well served.

THE METROPOLITAN GROCERY

T. W. ROBINSON,

Manager.

WOOL

Blankets

AT COST

J. J. SHEEHY

Lech's Block.

EXCURSION RATES

TO

Liverpool, London. Glasgow Edinburgh. Belfast, Londonderry Queenstown.

Also to Italian and German Points

Via the following first-class lines:—From Montreal, Beaver Line, from Quebec, Dominion Line, from New York, White Star Line, Anchor, Inman, National, Monarch and Red Star Lines. Tickets for the above lines for sale at

THOMAS MENZIES

AGENT G. T. R., GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

WORKING JEWELLER.

E. B. D. LAFLEUR.

JEWELLERY made to order and repaired on the premises. Old gold melted and made into wedding rings, etc. Gold and silver plating and engraving. Hunter street, west of Oriental

GLOVES

—FOR—

Summer Wear.

We have opened out a large stock of Spring Goods of the very best manufacture.

We have 50 different lines for Gents' and Ladies' wear.

Many fine lines in Light Weight Gloves, and all shades of color the most fashionable.

Jas. McComb

Water Street, Opposite the Market.

THE PLACE

to buy your

GROCERIES

—IS—

Elliott & Tierney's

All Goods guaranteed to give Satisfaction delivered free to all parts of the town and Ashburnham.

Telephone Connection.

Elliott & Tierney

PALACE GROCERY

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

TENTS! TENTS TENTS! ! !

—to—

To lumbermen requiring Tents for their drives: I have some of the Finest and Cheapest Tents in Canada. I have a fine variety of

AWNING STRIPES,

in every color and design. All kinds of

Waterproof Clothing, also Horse and Wagon Covers, at

J. J. TURNER'S,

Sail, Tent and Awning Factory Brock street, Peterborough.

Extra Quality Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Cut Laces,

Anti-Friction or Babbitt Metals

Asbestos and Rubber Packing, Cylinder and Machine Oils, Mill Supplies.

Emery Wheels, Machines and Gummers at Factory Prices.

GEO. STETHEM

If you have A COUGH

TRY

NUGENT'S PINE TAR CORDIAL

It is a sure cure, only 25 cents per bottle.

NUGENT'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

is the best is use for

SOUR STOMACH, HEART BURN, & INDIGESTION.

PRICE 35 CENTS.

Opposite the Oriental Hotel, Hunter St Peterborough.

For Sale or to Rent

TO RENT.

TWO HOUSES in Carlisle's new terrace, 7 rooms, near St. Peter's Cathedral. Rent $7.50 per month, free of taxes. Apply JOHN CASLISLE.

Wants.

WANTED.

COMFORTABLE DWELLING, with say 7 or 8 rooms in convenient locality. Address G. R. C., care of REVIEW office. 3d99

WANTED.

2 SERVANTS. One for general housework and one as cook. Apply at NICHOLLS HOSPITAL. 3d99

WANTED.

A GOOD HOUSEHOLD SERVANT for the country, to whom liberal wages will be paid. Apply REVIEW Office. d96

WANTED.

THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; fast selling specialties. Don't delay. Salary from start. Brown Brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. 12d91

BOARDERS WANTED.

COMFORTABLE ACCOMODATION for 6 weekly boarders; also day boarders. MRS W. HOOK, Simcoe Street, corner of Stewart street. d12

BOARDERS WANTED.

THE undersigned has excellent accomodation for a number of Boarders, either Lady or Gentlemen, at her residence, Water Street, in new brick house, opposite D. Boncher's. MRS CHAS. ROBINSON. d18

Wood and Coal.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

THE BEST COAL

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

JAMES STEVENSON. d&w

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON

Telephone connection. Agent

General.

MONEY TO LOAN,

$250,000 to loan on Farm and Town Property at cheapest rates and on easy terms. E. B. STONE, Barrister. d167-w51

TO BUILDERS.

WHITE BRICK.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand 350,000 first-class White Brick, which he will sell at rock bottom prices.

HENRY HALL,

2mos62-w11 Millbrook P. O

OPERA HOUSE

—2—NIGHTS—2—

Commencing Monday, April 30th

THE GREAT ENGLISH ACTRESS,

CLAIRE SCOTT

—Supported by—

S. K. COBURN,

And a strictly first-class Company, in the following grand repertoire:—

Elizabeth, Queen of England,

Mary Queen of Scots.

MAGNIFICENT COSTUMES, ELEGANT STAGE SETTING, GRAND TABLEAUX.

Each play will be presented in the same artistic manner as when played at high prices. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. Plan now open at Hartley's Music Store. 5d97

Henry Pace

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker.

Repairs Well Executed.

SHOP IN

MORGAN HOUSE BLOCK

Water St., Peterborough.

STABLER & DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough., manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being bot practical men, they trust to be able to give their patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited

H. C. STABLER. 1yd38 JAS. R. DONELL

A. CLEGG.

Leading Undertaker.

WAREROOMS George St. residence north end of George St. The finest Hearse in the Province, and all funeral Requisites. This department is in charge of Mr. S. Clegg, graduate of the Rochester School of Embalming.

LADIES

WE WILL SHOW YOU THE FINEST LOT OF

Ladies' Underclothing

IN CANADA, HAND MADE.

ALSO MACHINE MADE IN

NIGHT DRESSES, CHEMISE, &c.

Will be pleased to show them.

Thomas Kelly

We will not repeat any order for these Goods this year.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1888.

CAPITAL CHIT-CHAT.

Customs Seizure at Windsor—The Eastern Entrance to Toronto's Harbor.

OTTAWA, April 29.—The Department of Customs are advised of a seizure of cotton goods at Windsor which had been smuggled.

The City of Toronto will be asked to contribute one-third of the cost of the improvements at the eastern channel. The total will be about $150,000, and if the aldermen do not act at tomorrow night's meeting of the Council it may be too late to have anything done this season.

In St. George's Church, which the late Mr. White attended during his residence in Ottawa, Rev. Owen Jones preached on the text from Psalm xc.:

12. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

He spoke of the death of the Minister as a national loss, the greatest that Canada had sustained for many years, and though the country possessed men intellectually great it would be hard to find one who would take up the work where he had left it.

It has been definitely arranged that Hon. J. S. D. Thompson will take charge of the Department of the Interior, and Sir John Macdonald will act as Superintendent of Indian Affairs until the end of the session.

DEATH OF MR. GAUDET, M.P.

The Ranks of the Commons Again Invaded by the Grim Messenger.

OTTAWA, April 29.—Death has invaded the House of Commons once more this session, this being the fourth visit of the grim messenger since the opening on February 23 last Mr. Athanase Gaudet, the Conservative Nationalist who sat for Nicolet, died this afternoon at 4.45 in the Water-street Hospital Mr. Gaudet, who was 40 years of age, had been lying ill over since the Easter holidays, suffering from a complication of disorders, including dropsy. No hopes were entertained for his recovery for some weeks past.

Mr. Gaudet was first elected to Parliament in 1884 and again by acclammation at the last general elections. He was one of the prominent bolters on the Riel question. The remains will be taken to Nicolet to-morrow afternoon for interment.

QUEBEC LOCAL ELECTIONS.

Result of Saturday's Polling in Missisquoi, Maskinonge and Hochelaga.

MONTREAL, April 29.—In the Missisquoi election to-day to fill the vacancy in the Legislative Assembly caused by the unseating of Mr. E. E. Spencer (Con.), Mr. Spencer was re-elected over his old opponent, Mr. McCarkill (Lib.), by 114 majority. Mr. Spencer's majority at the general election of 1886 was 105.

A Turn Over in Hochelaga.

MONTREAL, April 28.—The Liberals succeeded in electing Mr. Champagne in the local election for Hochelaga to-day by about 200 majority over Mr. J. O. Villeneuve, the unseated Conservative member. The majority for Mr. Villeneuve at the general election of 1886 was 108.

Maskinonge Returns a Nationalist.

MONTREAL, April 28.—The election to-day to fill the vacancy for Maskinonge in the Local House caused by the unseating of Edouard Caron (Con.) resulted in the return of Mr. Legris (Nat.) by 59 majority over Mr. Caron. At the general election in 1886 Mr. Caron's majority was 65.

The Imprisoned Anarchists.

CHICAGO, April 28.—A petition to Gov. Oglesby, asking for the pardon of Anarchists Fielden, Schwab and Neebe, now imprisoned in the Joliet Penitentiary, is to be circulated next week by certain labor organizations of Chicago.

CONGRESS AND THE TARIFF.

A Full Week of Talk in Prospect—The Fisheries Treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The tariff will be the subject before the House during the whole week, if the operation of the resolution under which the House is acting is not suspended. The general impression is that it will not be suspended, but that every day will be devoted to tariff discussion. Should a break occur at any time the Rivers and Harbor Bill will have the right of way, but the managers of that measure disclaim any intention or desire to interfere in the most remote way with the continued consideration of the Mills bill.

The bill to forfeit unearned grants, that to establish a bureau of animal industry, and the copyright bill are all before the Senate in an unfinished state and will receive attention during the coming week. Should all be disposed of the North Dakota Bill will probably be called up.

The fisheries treaty still awaits the completion of the committee's reports, which work is in the hands of a sub-committee consisting of Senators Frye, Edmunds and Morgan. It will probably be taken up as soon as the reports are completed and laid before the Senate.

Struck by an Engine.

VERSAILLES, Ky., April 28.—This morning a carriage containing Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Goings and three small children was struck by an engine at the west end crossing, instantly killing the father and one child and terribly injuring the other occupants. It is feared all may die.

High Prices at Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—There was considerable excitement at the session of the Call Board yesterday owing to the steady rising of prices. The excitement grew when it was announced that S. W. Sears, a well-known broker, was unable to put up more margins to meet payments and his suspension was declared. Fears are expressed that other suspensions will follow if prices continue to rise during the coming week.

ANOTHER "CRISIS" PASSED

EMPEROR FREDERICK NOW OUT OF IMMEDIATE DANGER.

Permanent Recovery Not Yet Hoped For—Queen Victoria Pleased with Her Hearty Reception at Berlin—The State Banquet at Charlottenburg Schloss.

BERLIN, April 28.—The end of the week sees an unhoped-for change in the condition of the Emperor, and a feeling of relief and joy at the good news can be plainly read in the faces of the daily visitors to the Schloss. There is every reason to believe that no further complications will set in, at least for some weeks, now that the dangers of the crisis are over. The original disease, however, is insidious in its progress, and the final result is only postponed. Dr. Bergmann recently said to Dr. Mackenzie: "It matters little what the feelings of the German people may be, but I have my reputation to preserve and I will sign nothing that is contrary to the truth." The fact that Dr. Bergmann signed the recent bulletins is therefore of exceptional importance. One of the physicians attending the Emperor expressed his views as follows:

"Considering the gravity of the Emperor's malady his condition is as good as could be hoped, but a fresh crisis may come at any moment. Nevertheless, apart from accidents, new developments are not expected for a month or six weeks. The strong constitution of the Emperor may carry him over this, but it is useless to deceive ourselves and hope too much."

After her drive to Berlin Wednesday, Queen Victoria was so pleased with the hearty reception accorded to her by the people that she immediately telegraphed to Lord Salisbury a detailed account of the warm welcome she received. She was all the more pleased because it had even been suggested to her not to come to Berlin as it was feared she would be coldly received by the people. Nothing, however, could induce her to forego her visit to the Emperor's sick-bed.

Wednesday's state banquet is the universal theme of discussion. Never since the last century had such splendor been witnessed in the Charlottenburg Schloss. The beautiful gallery was transformed into a hall of surpassing grandeur, prominent among the decorations being Chinese and Japanese vases presented by the Dutch merchants to the Great Elector. The floor was covered with beautiful Smyrna carpets, and the rooms were lighted with silver candelabra. The dinner service was of gold, and the table decorations and flowers were magnificent. The windows were draped with curtains of light red silk. All the ladies were dressed in black and the gentlemen were uniforms. The Queen was extremely gracious to Prince Bismarck. She insisted that he be seated, saying: "I know that long standing is not good for your leg."

The official organs have little to say of the results of the interview beyond commenting upon the eminent satisfaction shown by both the Queen and the Chancellor. Other journals make numerous assertions in regard to the interview, but they are unworthy of attention as also is the report that the Emperor appointed the Queen honorary chief of a life guard regiment, in memory of her visit. One of the particular reasons for holding the review was, rather, that the Queen expressed a desire to see the regiment in which Prince Henry of Battenberg was formerly a lieutenant. A correspondent of The Munich Allgemeine Zeitung says, with reference to the attacks upon the Queen and the Empress: "Here in Alsace-Lorraine we can almost lay our hands on the mischief this wild noise has done, and we therefore regard it with double pain and indignation."

The Council of Ministers meets daily. Count Herbert Bismarck assisting in the deliberations. The recent Chancellor crisis arising from the proposed marriage of Princess Victoria and Prince Alexander of Battenberg was aggravated by the Emperor insisting that the decisions of the council, which formerly were submitted to Emperor William in Bismarck's name, should now be submitted in a manner showing by what majorities, giving the names of the councillors, they have been arrived at. Prince Bismarck first held out for a solidarity, but eventually he acceded to the Emperor's wish. Another source of trouble was the appearance of a joint memorial by the kingdoms of Bavaria, Saxony, Wurtemburg, and Baden, setting forth that owing to the delicate state of the Emperor's health and the inexperience of the Crown Prince it is advisable that the supreme power of declaring war and concluding peace should be vested in the Reichstag, instead of remaining with the Emperor. No reply has as yet been sent to this memorial.

It is semi-officially stated that no reference was make to the betrothal question in the interview between Prince Bismarck and Queen Victoria. The Post asserts that the discussion between them was mainly on the Brunswick succession question.

Sunday's Bulletin.

BERLIN, April 29.—A bulletin issued at 9 o'clock this morning said that the Emperor was free from fever, that he had had a fair amount of sleep, and that his general condition was fairly satisfactory.

The Emperor has a slight cough, but passed an excellent day. There was no return of fever, and he was in the best of spirits. During the day he left his bed for a short time and engaged in reading for the first time in a fortnight. The Emperor will probably go to Potsdam when he gets stronger.

BROOKLYN'S BIG BLAZE.

Over $200,000 Goes Up in Smoke in the City of Churches on Sunday.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Flames were discovered at noon issuing from the basement of the iron front building at No. 401 and 403 Bedford-avenue, Brooklyn, occupied as a dry goods store by Edward R. Stover. By the time the fire department arrived the building was a mass of flames. The building had been stocked up for the "opening" to-morrow, and was full of goods. The building and stock is a total loss. The owner of the building, Edward Smith, estimates his loss at $40,000. Mr. Stover's stock of dry goods was valued at $100,000. The upper parts of the buildings were used for storage purposes.

The flames communicated to an adjoining building occupied by J. Williams as a paint store, and on the upper floors by Stewart & Co.'s silk neckwear manufactory. The building is damaged $12,000: Williams loses $5000 and Stewart & Co. $3000.

The four-story brick buildings at 397 and 399 Bedford-avenue were nearly destroyed, causing a loss of $15,000. T. G. Smith, piano dealer, loses $5000: Louis Lurk, picture frames, $2000; G. W. Walton, cigars, $1000.

Editor Hawke's Punishment.

FREDERICTON, N.B., April 28.—John T. Hawke, editor of The Moncton Transcript, has been sentenced by the Supreme Court for contempt to two months' imprisonment in the county jail here and to $200 fine.

Counterfeit $10 Bills at St. Thomas.

ST. THOMAS, April 28.—Counterfeit $10 Bank of Commerce bills are in circulation in this city.

New R. C. Bishop.

QUEBEC, April 28.—It is stated that Rev. Mr. Leclerc, cure of Hebertville, has been appointed by the Holy See Bishop of Chicoutimi.

SUICIDE IN THE PULPIT.

A Presbyterian Clergyman Sends a Bullet Into His Brain.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Rev. Edgar L. Hermance, late pastor of the Presbyterian Church on Broadway in the Village of White Plains, shot himself while in the pulpit of the church at 3.30 p.m. to-day. Mr. Hermance's resignation was asked for some months ago in consequence of the dissatisfaction arising between himself and his flock over his salary. He made repeated demands for an increase, all of which were ignored. He was for sixteen years the pastor of one of the richest congregations in that section.

It is reported that he was largely interested in the dry goods trade, and that about three years ago he lost in the neighborhood of $75,000. He owned and resided in one of the most palatial residences on Broadway. His wife is the daughter of ex-President Woolsey, D.D., LL.D., of Yale College. Mr. Hermance's family stood very high in the social circle of White Plains, and his financial standing was unquestioned.

Shortly before he shot himself Mr. Hermance was sitting within the chancel conversing with Sexton Blakely, and appeared perfectly rational. The Sexton left him to get a pitcher of water. Hardly had he closed the church door when he was startled by the report of a pistol shot, and rushing back into the church he found the pastor stretched prone upon the floor of the pulpit. He was bleeding profusely from a bullet-hole in his right temple. Close beside him lay a smoking 32-calibre revolver. The sexton hurriedly summoned assistance, and the pastor, who was unconscious, was placed on a stretcher and borne to his home, three blocks distant, followed by a great throng. Medical aid was immediately summoned and everything possible done to restore him to consciousness.

At the time of the shooting Mrs. Hermance was teaching a Sunday school class in the new chapel within a few feet of her husband.

Mr. Hermance died at 7.45 p.m.

SEVERED HIS WINDPIPE.

Suicide of a Member of the Corps of the Military School at London.

LONDON, Ont., April 28.—Considerable commotion was caused in the Military School this morning among the corps by the announcement that one of their number had made a deliberate and desperate attempt to commit suicide. Walter Keeny, a strapping young fellow but lately from England, joined the company some two weeks ago. He soon, however, became indisposed, and was admitted to the hospital suffering, apparently, from melancholy, the cause of which the doctors were unable to determine. He seems to have become worse this morning, and while the attention of a companion, also a patient in the hospital, was diverted, he took his razor, and going into the ante-room adjoining the hospital, drew the blade across his throat, making a horrible gash from ear to ear, completely severing the windpipe. His companion on seeing what had happened immediately raised the alarm, and when assistance arrived the unfortunate young man was found to be almost past all hope of recovery, from excessive loss of blood. The doctor dressed the wound and at the time of leaving his patient he pronounce him to be in a very precarious condition. Later information states that Keeny is dying.

The Hamilton Conspiracy Case.

HAMILTON, April 28.—At the Police Court this morning William Mitchell and William Littlejohns, members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union of this city, were charged with conspiracy against Edwin Buscombe, a bricklayer and contractor of this city. The evidence showed that at a meeting of the union on April 19 Mitchell moved and Littlejohns seconded a resolution, which was carried, the purport of which was that no member of the union should work on the City Hall or any other city work until Buscombe was discharged from employment. David Gibson, who spoke at the meeting in favor of the resolution, was added as a defendant. The Magistrate held that when two or three workmen conspired together to injure another workman or deprive him of a living it constituted a conspiracy in the eyes of the law. The three defendants were committed for trial at the Assizes, bail being fixed at $300 each in themselves, with two sureties each of $150.

Injured by a Vicious Stallion.

WELLAND, April 28.—A serious accident happened yesterday to Mr. Geo. Page, a farmer living two miles from here in the Township of Thorold, by which he nearly lost his life. He was exercising the young stallion James Macklem, when the animal caught him by the arm and threw him under his feet and trampled him sufficiently to break several ribs and otherwise cause internal injuries. There was no chance of escape, as the horse never let loose his hold until the coat sleeve tore off.

Hon. Thos. White's Estate.

MONTREAL, April 28.—The will of the late Hon. Thos. White was probated in court this morning. He bequeathed all his plate, pictures, books and household furniture to his wife to be her absolute property, the same to be accepted by her in lieu of dower. He constitutes her usufructuary legatee of the residue of his estate so long as she shall remain unmarried, said usufruct to terminate at her death or in the event of her re-marriage, when the residue of the estate will revert to the children. The amount of the estate is $80,000.

Ouida has at last consented to write a novel "with a typical American family in it," and "all the sprightly freedom of customary American love making."

POPE LEO AND THE IRISH.

THE DECREE THOUGHT TO MEAN RUIN TO THE NATIONALISTS.

The Action of the Congregation of the Holy See Taken Spontaneously and Without Suggestion from England—Parnell's Disapproval of the Plan of Campaign.

LONDON, April 28.—A despatch from Rome to The Times says: "The Papal letter has already been sent to the Irish Bishop and will be published about ten days hence. The versions hitherto printed are more or less conjectural. The Pope forbids Catholics to adopt the plan of campaign or to engage in boycotting and enjoins obedience to the laws. Other questions are in abeyance."

The Standard says: "That the Papal decree will do good cannot be doubted, but that it will extirpate the evil can scarcely be hoped."

The Daily News says that premature importance should not be attached to the statements that the Pope has condemned the plan of campaign, adding: "Even if the statement is correct, it is well to remember that Ireland has never accepted Rome's influence in politics."

The Post thinks that the Pope's action is by far the most formidable blow yet struck at the Nationalists.

The St. James' Gazette says: "After all the rumors of missions and negotiations it is not surprising that many Irishmen believe in the existence of a bargain between England and the Vatican, into which, they say, the Vatican was tricked. Heed should be given to the statement that the Pope backs up Lord Salisbury, rescues Lord Clanricarde, and supports Chief Secretary Balfour. Even the Conservative dimness of vision ought to see that such a juxtaposition could only produce one effect upon the Irish. If the Pope has allowed himself to be drawn into anything even faintly resembling such a mistake it will be regretted by most Irish Catholics, and Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour will not gain any political advantage by the blunder; on the contrary, it will add to the intense bitterness of Ireland's hatred of the Tory Government." In conclusion the Gazette demands that it be early made known that there have been no transactions or bargainings between the Government and the Vatican.

The Action Taken Spontaneously.

ROME, April 28.—It is stated here that the action of the congregation of the Holy See regarding the plan of campaign in Ireland was taken spontaneously and without previous suggestion from England. The Pope approved the action without entering into the pending political questions between England and Ireland.

Dillon and Archbishop Croke.

DUBLIN, April 28.—John Dillon made an unexpected visit to Thurles to-day and had a long interview with Archbishop Croke in reference to the Papal decree condemning the plan of campaign.

Irish Murderers Executed.

DUBLIN, April 28.—Daniel Moriarty and Daniel Hayes were hanged at Tralee this morning for the murder of James Fitzmaurice, a farmer near Lixnaw, County Kerry, on Jan. 21. Before the execution Moriarty and Hayes attended mass and prayed fervently. They both declared their innocence. Fitzmaurice, the murdered man, had taken a farm from which his brother had been evicted. Shortly after, while on his way to market at Tralee, he was stopped by two men, who, after making sure of his identity, shot him with revolvers.

The Text of the Decree.

LONDON, April 30.—The following is the text of the Papal decree: On several occasions the Apostolic See has given the people of Ireland, whom it has always regarded with special benevolence suitable admonitions advice when circumstances required as to how they might defend their rights without injury to justice or public peace. Our Holy Father Leo XIII., fearing lest in the species of warfare that has been introduced among the Irish in the contests between landlords and tenants and which is commonly called the "plan of campaign," and in the kind of social interdict called "boycotting," arising from the same contests a true sense of justice and charity might be perverted, ordered the supreme congregation of the inquisition to subject the matter to a serious and lawful examination. Hence the following was proposed to their eminences, the cardinals of that congregation.

It is permissible undisputed between landlords and their tenants in Ireland to use means known as the "plan of campaign" and "boycotting."

After long and mature deliberation their Eminences unanimously answed in the negative in their decision was confirmed by the Holy Father on Wednesday, the 18th of the present month.

The Hotel Didn't Pay.

MONTREAL, April 28.—A meeting of creditors of W. A. Dunham, lessee of the Belmoral Hotel, has been called for next week. The liabilities are $80,000, including [illegible]

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 28.—Charles Taylor, a young man employed in the Central Hudson yards at Lyons, in attempting to jump upon an engine this morning slipped and fell under the wheels. Both legs were cut off and he died three hours later.

ROWSE'S TRADE PALACE.

BARGAINS IN SILKS AT ROWSE'S,

BARGAINS IN DRESS GOODS,

BARGAINS IN HOSIERY,

BARGAINS IN GLOVES

BARGAINS!

BARGAINS IN PRINTS

BARGAINS IN COTTONS,

BARGAINS IN RIBBONS,

BARGAINS IN FRILLINGS,

BARGAINS IN BUTTONS AT ROWSE'S

ROWSE'S.

$500.00

A YEAR

will be given

the student who attains the highest general proficiency in the prescribed work of the Finance Course, on or before September 15th, 1888, in this Institution.

The competition class begins as soon as arrangements are completed.

Full particulars of this offer may be had by applying to

BANNELL SAWYER & CO.,

BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Peterborough, Ontario.

Carpets! Carpets!

HALL, INNES & CO

Are now showing all the newest and latest designs in this department, comprising in part the following:—

New Wiltons with Borders to match, New Velvet Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels with Borders to match, New Brussels for Halls with Borders and Stair Carpets to match, New Tapestry Carpets, New Tapestry Squares and Crumb Cloths, New Wool Carpets, New Union Carpets.

Also a large assortment of New English Floor Oil Cloths, Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Daghestan and Smyrna Rugs, Mats, etc., etc.

As we now devote one store exclusively to Carpets we confidently claim to have a variety equal to any to be found in the cities, and would therefore respectfully invite all in need of Carpets or House Furnishing Goods to come direct to Headquarters.

Hall, Innes & Co.

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1888.

STEADFAST IN FAITH.

ANNUAL SERMON TO THE ODDFELLOWS AT ST. ANDREW'S.

The Rev. Mr. Bell Delivers an Eloquent and Instructive Address to the Brethren, and Requests Them to Stand by the Principles of the Order and Carry them into Practical Effect.

On Sunday evening the Oddfellows of Peterborough attended Divine Service at St. Andrew's Church, when an eloquent and appropriate sermon was preached by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Bell. The handsome little church was filled to the doors and camp stools had to be brought into requisition to seat the overplus. The members of the I. O. O. F. occupied the centre seats and the turnout was large. The musical part of the services was excellent. Miss Caron presided at the organ. The anthem "Blessed be the man who provides" was splendidly rendered, Mrs. E. A. Hamilton and Mr. Chas. Baguley taking the solo parts.

After the usual exercises the Rev. Mr. Bell chose for his text the 13th verse of the 16th chapter of I Corinthians:—"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." The words, said the preacher, suggest warfare, and striving for the mastery to be gained. They indicate work and call forth all the energies of those engaged. There was great enmity among the Corinthians, the party spirit and rivalry were bitter and in consequence false doctrine crept in and the power of the gospel for good was greatly hindered and the text chosen asked the Corinthians to come to Christ again. In some respects the people of the present time are much like the Corinthians, and in other respects they are totally unlike them. We are sinners like the Corinthians, and their dangers may be ours, and the words of the text may apply to us as they did to them. Those who have made a choice of Christ, who are on His side and who support His government, are occupying the true position of all Christians who want to walk with Christ. It is an important position to occupy, and one must be ever watchful and work unceasingly. The man who is on Christ's side finds his path beset with foes and snares on all sides, and in order to carry out the requirements of a true Christian, we must be men of faith. God's existence and character as revealed to the prophets, show that He was merciful and gracious and full of compassion, wisdom and love and power steadily working to redeem us. He is pledged to do it. His love is unchanging and He will fulfill His promises to all who believe and trust in Him. If we do what God wants and truly believe, we will have a faith that is bound to conquer. Many people will take the word of man, while they will doubt God's word. We should take it and hold fast to it. We should have boldness and confidence and hold fast wherever we are. We may suffer loss, but we are bound to gain if we let our confidence and strength rest in God. The soldier on the battlefield who wraps the colors around him, stands by his pledge to protect those colors at all hazards and manly men of faith do the same and will conquer. As an instance of absolute faith in God's word and works he quoted the case of Moses. It was a well known fact that men are sometimes not manly enough to break off their old ties, when they desire to lead a new and better life. These men should study Abraham. He went forth at God's bidding and left his home and his kindred. He knew he was safe in God's keeping and was saved. People should also study Noah and Paul and they should honor God and trust Him against every power. The true Christian must be ever watchful, keen, earnest and enduring. Constant vigilance is necessary. We must watch and pray against bad examples of life and conduct, against bad teachings and bad employments. These will weaken our trust in God and weaken our faith. We must watch against ambition and lust, as these tend to weaken our faith and lead to hell. We are beset on all sides by temptations, but an evil heart is the worst traitor of all. We must keep our faith with all diligence and watch for evil within and without. We should give practical effect to our faith and do all we can to advance our Master's interests. A wise commander looks not only at the numerical strength of the force opposed to him, but he looks for the weak points of the enemy and throws his force against these weak points and defeats and busdues. We should watch for opportunities of doing good, as to do good is to defeat evil. We should not wait as such opportunities will not wait for us. We should act on them as they come and use them as they go. There should be no giving up, stand steadfast, be brave to the end and you will be saved. While an enemy is to be met we must be manly and keep up a constant watch against sin. If manly, we will do all in love. Love is the strongest and most active principle and the great motive power for the salvation of the race. There is hope, redemption and salvation in the love of God. God governs us by love and Christ commanded that ye love one another. Our love should be like Christ's. We should be kind and affectionate to one another and have fervent love among ourselves. This is required of all Christians, and it cannot exist without showing itself in honoring those whom we love. It will show itself in watchful care, loving sympathy, and it will soothe, cheer and help all. God's great love means much. It is bread to the hungry, assistance to the needy, home for the homeless, medicine for the sick and consolation for the weary and dying. The direction of his remarks referred to loving ministrations to others. The strong often blame the weak for not doing their share, but if the heart is tempered with Christian love, the strong will not force the weak. We must study Christ as He studied others, and then went about doing good, relieving distress and feeding the needy. We should study the good Samaritan and the Disciples and emulate their example. There should be no halt, no hesitancy in joining the Lord's side. We should consider one another and fulfill the laws of God and man. Christ will give you power and strength to conquer evil, and in the end you will get your reward.

STALLIONS AND BULLS.

Annual Spring Show of the West Riding Agricultural Society.

The annual spring show of stallions and bulls, under the auspices of the West Riding Agricultural Society, was held on the Society's grounds, on Saturday. The animals shown, although not as numerous as on some former occasions, were of the very best and in that respect the show was better than any previously held. The attendance was only fair, spring work keeping many farmers at home, who would otherwise have been on hand.

The judge was Mr. John Kennedy, of Markham, and his decisions appeared to give the very best of satisfaction.

Of bulls, all the classes did not fill and in two of them the one owner captured the first and second places. In Durhams, the competition was keen and it was only after much consideration that the judge arrived at his decision.

"General Lee" possesses plenty of action and it required the constant attention of his groom to keep him in bounds. "Mikado," a thoroughbred runner, owned in New Jersey, was shown on the ground by Mr. Jas. Beatty, of Cobourg, and attracted much attention.

THE ENTRIES.

The following were the entries in the various classes:—

HORSES.

CLASS I.—Imported Thoroughbreds.—Wm. M. Fair entered "John Anderson" and "General Lee." Levi Bowles entered "Brown Stout." Samuel Staples entered "Cheviot," and Geo. E. Shaw entered "Day Star."

CLASS II.—Canadian Bred Stallions.—"Goldfinder," by D. Montgomery, "Ontario Chief" by R. & W. Bothwell, and "British Lion" by John Hootin.

CLASS III.—Percherons.—"Norman" by Hugh Stevenson, and "Duke of Perch," by J. W. Jackson.

CLASS IV.—Coach or Carriage Stallion.—"Kentucky," by A. B. Stephenson, "Victor Gold Dust," by W. H. Heselip, "G. M. Patchen, Jr.," by E. W. Northcott, and "Lord Sudley" by Samuel Staples.

CLASS V.—Standard Bred Roadster.—"Clarion Chief," by W. M. Fair, "Kentucky," "Victor Gold Dust," and "Harold Hartwood," by Alex. Patterson.

SPECIAL.—Horses not eligible in any other class.—"Goldfinder," "Black Tom," by Jas. Elmhirst, "G. M. Patchen, Jr.," and "Young Ripple" by Jos. Redmond.

BULLS.

DURHAMS, two years old.—"Stanley" by Wm. Collins, and "Oliver Mowat" by Jos. Redmond.

DURHAMS, one year old.—"Wait on Me" and "Goldfinder's Heir" by Jos. Redmond.

HOLSTEINS, three years old or over.—"Valparaiso" by T. & J. Stothart.

HOLSTEINS, one year old.—"Gen. Canrobert" by T. & J. Stothart.

The Prize List.

HORSES.

The following were the prize winners:—

CLASS I.—1st "John Anderson," $8. 2nd "Brown Stout," $3.

CLASS II.—1st "Ontario Chief," $6.

CLASS III.—1st "Duke of Perch," $6. 2nd "Mormar," $4.

CLASS IV.—1st "Lord Sudley," $6. 2nd "Victor Gold Dust," $4.

CLASS V.—1st "Clarion Chief," $6. 2nd "Harold Hartwood," $4.

SPECIAL.—"General Lee," a diploma, and "Black Tom," highly recommended.

SPECIAL, BLOOD HORSE.—"Mikado," a diploma.

BULLS.

DURHAMS, 2 years old.—1st "Oliver Mowat," $5. 2nd "Stanley," $3.

DURHAMS, 1 year old.—1st "Wait on Me," $5.

HOLSTEINS, 3 years old.—1st "Valparaiso," $5.

HOLSTEINS, 1 year old.—1st "Gen. Canrobert," $5.

Don't use any more nauseous purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c., when you can get in Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the Bowels gently, cleansing all impurities from the system and rendering the blood pure and cool. Sold by all Druggists.

To-Night's Play.

Theatre goers will remember the performance billed for this evening at the Opera House, and in reference to which the Morning News, New Haven, Conn., says:—"Claire Scott repeated her success in 'Mary Queen of Scotts' yesterday. Miss Scott is an excellent actress. She looks and dresses the captive queen finely, and is strongest in the regal situations. She has a fine voice—soft, clear, musical—which she uses judiciously. Her enunciation is beautiful. She seldom loses a point of action, and rarely is guilty of misplaced emphasis. For a woman so young she has already scored marvelous successes, and many regard her as fully the peer of Janauschek, Mrs. D. P. Bowers, Mrs. Farren, and other queens of tragedy who have won a world-wide reputation in this great play. The audience are carried back with her to those troublous times in England's history, and she seems to make herself part and parcel of those stirring events. It is a tremendous mental as well as physical strain for to carry the character through as she does. But she is a woman who is thoroughly in love with her chosen profession and in the years to come she will record still greater triumphs than she has already accomplished. S. K. Coburn and the supporting company are very strong players." 1d101

The exhausted and drowsy feelings, common to spring time, indicate an impure and sluggish condition of the blood, which may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful, and, at the same time most economical blood purifier known.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

A DISCOURSE ON PERTINENT POINTS.

Goughs in Humor and Eloquence.

LEND US YOUR EARS. WE'LL AMPLY REWARD YOUR LENDING.

We'll read you a lecture full of Eloquence on how to save money. We'll teach you the Humorous points of the Clothing Trade. Humor and Eloquence have a place in our business as well as on the public platform. We Humor every day the wants and wishes of Customers. We spend tons of Eloquence in expatiating on the value and virtues of our stock. It's not wasted. When we make a satisfied customer we gain the benefit of his Eloquence. Does he not call together his friends and neighbors and boom the many advantages of dealing at GOUGH'S. We purpose to send rolling down the aisles of time a booming echo that shall carry to posterity the fame of the Great and Wonderful Cheap Men, the Giant Clothiers: the People's Progressive and Popular Providers: the Napoleons of the Clothing Trade of Peterborough. (Cheers and Applause).

GOLDEN OPINIONS.

"Had I worn GOUGHS' best line of Trousers, I might even now have been in power. Have I made a mistake?" E——d Bl—e.

"It strikes me that these GOUGHS are benefactors to the people of the Midland District. They should be in the Cabinet. Wish to thunder I could catch them." Sir J—n Mc——d.

"What we do not want is Commercial Union. What we absolutely need is many more men like GOUGH BROS., of Peterborough, they are a Commercial Union themselves." Sir L——d T——y.

"The men who can sell two suits where only one suit was sold before are clearly philanthrophists of the first water. I don't say I mean GOUGH BROS., but I am looking that way all the same." Hon. Mac——e B——l.

"(At Cincinnati)—"The greatest stumbling block to absolute Free Trade with Canada, is, I find, the business done by GOUGH BROS., at Peterborough. Our best men can do no better. They could'nt if they would. Their cheap prices and good goods are a standing menace to Annexation." E——s W——n.

See our Boy's Suits at 69c., Men's Working Suits at $2.50 worth $5.50, Working Pants (Men's) 25c. per pair.

GOUGH BROS.,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

TALMAGE INDIGNANT.

He Denies the Story about His Giving Wine to the 13th Regiment.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage of Brooklyn, before delivering his sermon to-day, made the following personal statement: "An infamous falsehood has gone into every city and neighborhood of this country and been discussed by hundred of newspapers. The report says that recently, entertaining the officers of the 13th Regiment at my house, I gave them four kinds of wine. There was not a drop of wine or any kind of intoxicating liquor, the twenty-five gentlemen then present being witnesses. I will give $1000 reward to any one who will prove that one drop of wine was offered, or will give that amount to any charitable institution that may be named by any respectable clergyman, lawyer or detective, such person being the judge in the whole matter. That which I suppose was told as a joke is being used all over the land to give the impression that temperance men are hypocrites. I respectfully ask that the newspapers which have been misled by the report correct it."

Fatal Stove Explosion.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 28.—A gasoline stove exploded in a house on West-street last evening. The building took fire and was instantly destroyed. Annie Evans, a servant, aged 22 years, and her charge, Mary McLaughlin, aged 6 years, were burned to death. Mrs. McLaughlin was badly burned and lies in a critical condition.

Earthquake in California.

BRIGGS, Cal., April 29.—The heaviest earthquake shock ever experienced here occurred at 5.45 p.m. Saturday, lasting seventy-five seconds. The vibrations were from east to west.

STOCKTON, Cal., April 29.—Four distinct shocks of earthquake were felt here at 5.40 last evening.

Wanted to be Buried with His Brother.

RICHMOND, Ky., April 28.—Archibald Stoltz, a farmer, yesterday committed suicide by taking "rough on rats." His brother William, seeing the corpse, took the remainder of the poison, and left a note saying he wished both to be buried in the same coffin.

Freddie's Big Ranch.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Frod. Gebhardt has purchased a ranch of 3300 acres in Lake County, California, for $33,000, and intends to fit it up for breeding purposes.

A Dissipated Printer's Crime.

NEW YORK, April 29.—John Martin, a dissipated printer who worked for The Commercial Bulletin, killed an unknown woman in his apartments at 30 Hamilton-street last night by plunging a common table knife to the hilt in her throat. He has a wife and three children who left him a week ago. He says he does not know his victim's name but she followed him up into his rooms from the street.

SEPARATE TENDERS

sealed and marked "TENDER" will be received by the undersigned until and including

SATURDAY, 12th May,

—FOR THE—

Whole Work and Material, and also for the Work and Material of the various Trades, required in the the construction and completion of Collegiate Institute at Lindsay.

Plans and specifications will be ready for inspection at the residence of Mr. Wm. Duffus, Architect, Lindsay, on and after Wednesday, 2nd May.

The committee has purchased dimension and building stone and bricks, which must be taken by the contractors for these works at cost price.

Tenders must be on the form supplied by architect and accompanied by bona fide signatures of two good and sufficient persons who will become sureties for fulfilment of contract.

The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

J. R. McNEILLIE,
Chairman Building Committee.

Lindsay, April 26, 1888.

NEW TAILORING

—AND—

GENTS' FURNISHING

ESTABLISHMENT.

MR. GEO. BALL

desires to inform his friends and the public generally, that he will open in the store adjoining McAndrew & Noble's, opposite the market square, about the 1st of May, a splendid stock of which have been selected with the greatest care, and will be found worthy of the patronage of the gentlemen of the town.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS,

Also a complete stock of cloths suitable for spring and summer wear, including overcoatings, trouserings, tweeds, broadcloths, etc., etc.

Mr. Ball intends devoting his whole attention to the cutting department; and a practical, lengthy experience, enables him to guarantee a good, stylish fit, in well made goods. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. A trial order will convince any customer that as regard both price and style, the shop for his money is that of

GEO. BALL,

Tailor & Clothier, opposite the Market.

d98-w17

DURING 5 YEARS

stay in Peterborough I have engraved over 6000 Coins, Repaired over 4000 Watches, besides Engraving Brass Plates, Repairing Jewellery, Clocks, etc. Still I am much in the position of Oliver Twist—I want more. English Levers and Old Country Bulls Eyes, accurately Repaired.

IRVING

M. H. J. L. E.

SIMCOE-ST., WEST OF GEORGE.

d97-w17-1yr

Confectionery!

Full Lines of Choice Confectioney at

LONG BROS.

TO ADVERTISERS.

A list of 1000 newspapers divided into STATES AND SECTIONS will be sent on application—FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay we can offer no better medium for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Select Local List.

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Newspaper Advertising Bureau,
10 Spruce-st., New York

1md29-1sw2

M. SULLIVAN & CO.

Have taken the Lead. Our Store crowded with buyers every day. Customers have found out that the Best and Cheapest Goods in Town are only to be found at SULLIVAN'S. You have but to glance at our stock to be convinced that the best assortment of DRESS GOODS is to be found only at our store. We have everything that is Bright, Fresh and Stylish, nothing dull, old and desolate.

THIS WEEK

—WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF—

DRESS GOODS.

We claim the credit of resembling in our Dress Goods department a well filled garden with flowers in full bloom and the sun of prosperity and fair dealing smiling benignly on all the fair scene.

The quality and quantity of our stock being undeniable, we need only add that in this special line we offer bargains that will startle you in fancy, plain and medium Dress Goods of every conceivable shade, texture and fabric. We give you a choice and at figures hitherto unsurpassed. Call and see us and be convinced that we are not misrepresenting facts.

Piles of Remnants of Dress Goods and Silk

—AT YOUR OWN PRICE.—

No. 2, Clinton's Block. M. SULLIVAN & Co.

It is most perfect made and GUARANTEED

THE COOK'S FRIEND BAKING POWDER

Free from all Adulterations. Beware of Imitations

After thirty years of undisputed success it still leads the van.

It is equal to the most costly IN PURITY

Purchasable by all Grocers.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

LADIES WILL TALK

and it is now about Mrs. E. E. Ross and the Underwear for children and adults which is selling so cheap. Also

FELTS, CANVASES,
PLUSHES, EMBROIDERY,
SILKS, ETC., ETC

Children's Clothes made to order. Stamping done on shortest notice

MRS. E. E. ROSS,

NEXT TO JOHN CRAIG'S.

AS MUCH A SECRET AS EVER

To the Editor of the Review:—SIR—How in the world has C. B. ROUTLEY jumped into such a big slice of Wall Paper trade? Why, it seems as if one couldn't pass his store without running against a load of Wall Paper in the arms of some pleased looking customer. I'm half inclined to think there must have been lots of boodle in the Wall Paper business before ROUTLEY started it and that the people have found out that he has broken the combination. Eh? what did you think, Mr. Editor? And yet you occasionally hear of spasmodic attempts to get down to ROUTLEY'S prices, in order to head him off; but still it seems as much a secret as ever how he keeps up the run

Yours truly,

A PAPER-HANGER.

CANNED GOODS
—AT—
MASON'S

We have in stock a large supply of the following Canned Goods:—

MEATS.
ROAST BEEF, CORNED BEEF, TONGUE, CHICKEN, PIGS FEET, ENGLISH BRAWN,

VEGETABLES.
BEANS, PEAS, CORN, BOSTON BAKED BEANS AND SOUPS.

FISH.
SALMON, MACKEREL, LOBSTER.

FRUITS.
APPLES, QUINCES, APPLE AND QUINCE CHERRIES, RASBERRIES, PINE APPLES, PEARS, PLUMS, PEACHES.

ALL WARRANTED FRESH.

W. J. MASON,
REMOVAL SALE.

CORSETS
In all the leading makes at greatly reduced prices during our clearing sale.

H. S. Griffin & Co.

WALL PAPER
—AT—
SAILSBURY'S.

E. E. HENDERSON
Issurer of Marriage Licenses.
Office over Tully's Drug Store, George-st., Peterborough. 1yd45 d ws

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1888.

NOTICE

From this date all notices in local columns of the DAILY or WEEKLY REVIEW, of meetings where a collection is taken or admission fee charged, (Sunday services in churches excepted), must positively be paid for at following rates, per line (12 lines to the inch.):—

First insertion per line 5 cents per day.
Subsequent " " " 4 " " "
If for one week " " 3 " " "

No notice inserted for a less amount than 25 cents.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Weather Probabilities.

Fresh to strong north-east to north winds; partly cloudy or cloudy, decidedly cooler weather, with local rains.

Our Tailoring Department is in active work. Suits that suit are being turned out in short order. Large variety of suit goods from which to select. Leave your order at once at the golden lion.

St. Andrews.

It is expected that Mr. Carter, the new organist for St. Andrew's Church, will assume charge here about the 1st of July and we understand it is the intention to form a choir. At present the singing at the regular services is led by a precentor.

We will pay the highest market prices in cash for Eggs and choice fresh Butter at The Pantry. d96

Always Welcome.

The Madoc Review says:—"A distinguished visitor dropped down in Madoc this week, being no less a personage than Mr. James Dolan, of Peterborough—or some where else. He spent the past winter in Lindsay, and wears the usual bland smile as of yore. He says he came down nominally to see if anybody but himself could run the 'Big 4,' but practically to see O'Grady and the rest of the boys. 'Mull' will always be welcomed in Madoc, and he has enjoyed the freedom of the village this week."

She Flew.

The hose waggon was drawn by a team this afternoon, for the first time going to a fire, and those who saw the old machine fly down George-st. were indeed surprised at the speed attained. Terry Smith handled the reins and owing to a ditch in the street at the corner of Charlotte and George-sts., a sharp turn could not be made and a collision with a shade tree seemed inevitable, but good driving did the trick and the waggon passed within an inch or two of the tree box and was then driven back to the fire hall.

